It applies only to cases where the tenant has been required to give up possession of his land: R. v. Stone, L. R. 1 Q. B. 529, 35 L. J. M. C. 208, 14 L. T. N. S. 552, 14 W. R. 791. And it applies only where some part of the land of a tenant from year to year is required or taken by a company, and not where the tenants' interest is merely injuriously affected, in which case he can claim compensation under s. 68, before a jury or arbitrators: R. v. Sheriff of Middlesex, 31 L. J. Q. B. 261, 10 W. R. 717, 6 Jur. N. S. 617; but the effect of this case is sometimes avoided by a clause in the special Act, providing that all claims for compensation by yearly tenants are to be determined as in this section: See Hodges on Railways, 6th ed., p. 244; but if any part of the land be taken the tenant can claim compensation only before two justices under this section: R. v. Manchester, &c., Ry. Co., 4 E. & B. 88, 1 Jur. N. S. 419, 23 L. T. 287.

(²) Where an unexpired residue of a term of two years is less than one year at the time the company take possession, compensation cannot be obtained under section 68, but proceedings must be taken under this section: R. v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 2 Q. B. D. 151, 46 L. J. Q. B. 4, 35 L. T. N. S. 551, 25 W. R. 41. The words "having no greater interest therein than as a tenant for a year or from year to year" include every species of interest being for less than a year in duration. Per Lush, J., ib.

A tenant of premises under an agreement for a lease for the residue of a term of seventeen years, though at law a mere tenant from year to year, has an interest greater than a yearly tenancy, and the value thereof cannot be assessed by justices under this section: Sweetman v. Metropolitan Ry. Co., 1 H. & M. 543, 10 L. T. N. S. 156, 12 W. R. 304.

A. (who had only a leasehold interest in premises) agreed in writing to let the premises to B. at a rent payable quarterly, and not to raise the rent or give B. notice to quit, so long as he paid the rent when due. A. also agreed verbally with B. to let him remain in the premises for such term of years (not exceeding A.'s term therein) as he should choose to remain; it was held that B. had a greater interest than a yearly tenancy within this section: In re King's Leaseholds Estates, L. R. 16 Eq. 521, 29 L. T. N. S. 288, 21 W. R. 881.

A schoolmaster of a free grammar school, whose interest was determinable upon three months' notice to quit, is within this section: R. v. Manchester, &c., Ry. Co., 4 E. & B. 88, 1 Jur. N. S. 419, 23 L. T. 287. See Knapp v. London, Chatham and Dover Ry. Co., ante, p. 954.

In considering whether a tenant's interest is within this section or not, his interest at the time of giving the notice, and not at its expiration, is to be considered: Tyson v. Mayor of London, L. R. 7 C. P. 18, 41 L. J. C. P. 6, 25 L. T. N. S. 640, 20 W. R. 112. And so, where a company, as required by their special Act, gave six months' notice to a tenant of their intention to take his lands, and where at the time such notice was given, more than a year, but at the expiration of such notice, less than a year, of the tenancy remained, it was held that the tenant's interest did not come within this section: Id. In such a case the company are bound to proceed with the purchase at the end of the six months, and the plaintiff will be entitled to a mandamus to compel them to do so: Morgan v. Metropolitan Ry. Co., L. R. 4 C. P. 97, 38 L. J. C. P. 87, 19 L. T. N. S. 655, 17 W. R. 261.

And so a tenant whose tenancy has been created after notice to treat has been served on the owner is not entitled to compensation: Ex parte Edwards, L. R. 12 Eq. 389, 40 L. J. Ch. 697, 25 L. T. N. S. 149, 19 W. R. 1047; and see Carnochan v. Norwich and Spalding Ry. Co., 26 Beav. 169.

As to compensation to yearly tenants under special Acts prior to this Act, see Ex parte Farlow, 2 B. & Ad. 341; R. v. Hungerford Market Co., 4 B. & Ad. 592; Re Palmer and Hungerford Market Co., 9 A. & E. 463; R. v. Hungerford Market Co., 4 B. & Ad. 596;

Secs. 121, 122.

Where greater interest claimed than from year to year, lease to be produced.

such person be required to give up possession ⁽¹⁾ of any lands so occupied by him before the expiration of his term or interest therein ⁽²⁾, he shall be entitled to compensation for the value of his unexpired term or interest in such lands, and for any just allowance which ought to be made to him by an in-coming tenant, and for any loss or injury he may sustain ⁽³⁾, or if a part only of such lands be required, compensation for the damage done to him in his tenancy by severing the lands held by him ⁽⁴⁾, or otherwise injuriously affecting the same; and the amount of such compensation shall be determined by two justices ⁽⁵⁾, in case the parties differ about the same; and upon payment or tender of the amount of such compensation all such persons shall respectively deliver up to the promoters of the undertaking, or to the person appointed by them to take possession thereof, any such lands in their possession required for the purposes of the special Act.

122. If any party, having a greater interest than as tenant at will, claim compensation in respect of any unexpired term or interest under any lease or grant of any such lands, the promoters of the undertaking may require such party to produce ⁽⁶⁾ the lease or grant in respect of which such claim shall be made, or the best evidence thereof in his power; and if, after demand made in writing by the promoters of the undertaking, such lease or grant, or such best evidence thereof, be not produced within twenty-one days, the party so claiming compensation shall

R. v. Liverpool and Manchester Ry. Co., 4 A. & E. 650, 6 N. & M. 186; R. v. London and Southampton Ry. Co., 10 A. & E. 3, 1 Rail. Cas. 717.

If money is paid into court as compensation for tenants' interests, the landlord has no lien on it, even though the rent of the lands was in arrear at the time of lodgment, and the company had made no settlement with the landlord: Ex parte Carey, 10 L. T. 37.

⁽¹⁾ A notice to treat under section 18 is not equivalent to requiring possession: R. v. Stone, cited in note ⁽¹⁾ to p. 967.

⁽²⁾ If a tenant from year to year has received from his landlord a legal notice to quit, and his land is not required until the expiration thereof, he has no claim to compensation under this section: Ex parte Merrett, 2 L. T. N. S. 471; Ex parte Nadin, 17 L. J. Ch. 421, 11 L. T. 429.

But if, in pursuance of the provisions of their special Act, a company give a six months' notice of their intention to take the lands, the tenant would be entitled to compensation, inasmuch as he has not received a notice to quit from his landlord: Cranwell v. Mayor of London, L. R. 5 Ex. 284, 39 L. J. Ex. 193, 22 L. T. N. S. 760. See also, R. v. Vaughan and Metropolitan and District Ry. Co., L. R. 4 Q. B. 190, 17 W. R. 115, 38 L. J. M. C. 49; Tyson v. Mayor of London, ante, p. 967; but see R. v. London and Southampton Ry. Co., 10 A. & E. 3, 1 Rail. Cas. 717. But in this case it was held that the tenant, having voluntarily continued in occupation after the expiration of the notice, had placed himself in the same position as if a landlord's notice had been given to him.

⁽³⁾ Where a company had given a notice to treat and a notice to take the premises at the end of six months, and nothing further was done for three years, the tenant could not claim compensation for depreciation in the value of his interest in the interval, since the expiration of the six months, arising from loss of custom in the public house by reason of the pulling down of neighbouring houses taken by the company: R. v. Vaughan and Metropolitan District Ry. Co., supra. See Morgan v. Metropolitan Ry. Co., ante, p. 967; R. v. London Dock Co., 5 A. & E. 163; R. v. Liverpool and Manchester Ry. Co., supra.

⁽⁴⁾ See section 49 and notes ⁽³⁾ and ⁽⁴⁾ thereto, ante, p. 917.

⁽⁵⁾ Or one in the metropolis, see 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71, s. 14; and one stipendiary magistrate in other places, see 21 & 22 Vict. c. 73, s. 1.

Where a tenant is required to give up lands under this section and have the compensation settled by two justices, if the lands have not been injuriously affected, it is not necessary that the complaint should be made to the justices within six months from the time of the notice under 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43, ss. 1 and 11; R. v. Hannay, 44 L. J. M. C. 27, 31 L. T. N. S. 702, 23 W. R. 164; but see In re Edmundson, 17 Q. B. 67, 17 L. T. 93. See also note ⁽²⁾ to p. 904.

⁽⁶⁾ See Sweetman v. Metropolitan Ry. Co., 1 H. & M. 543, 10 L. T. N. S. 156, 12 W. R. 304.

be considered as a tenant holding only from year to year, and be entitled to compensation accordingly. Secs. 122, 123.

123. And be it enacted, that the powers of the promoters of the undertaking for the compulsory purchase ⁽¹⁾ or taking ⁽²⁾ of lands for the purposes of the special Act shall not be exercised after the expiration of the prescribed period ⁽³⁾, Limit of time for compulsory purchase.

(1) A notice to treat requiring to take land is (but an entry on land is not) an exercise of the powers for compulsory purchase within this section; and if within the prescribed period such notice be given the steps necessary to complete the purchase may be taken afterwards: Marquis of Salisbury v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 7 Rail. Cas. 175, 17 Q. B. 840, 21 L. J. Q. B. 185. See R. v. Birmingham and Oxford Junction Ry. Co., 6 Rail. Cas. 628, 15 Q. B. 634 and 647n., 20 L. J. Q. B. 304; Kinnersley v. North Staffordshire Ry. Co., 6 Rail. Cas. 662, 13 L. T. 340; Pinchin v. London and Blackwall Ry. Co., 1 K. & J. at p. 65, 5 De G. M. & G. 851, 3 Eq. Rep. 433, 24 L. J. Ch. 417, 19 Jur. 241, 24 L. T. 196; Sparrow v. Oxford, &c., Ry. Co., 9 Hare, 436, 7 Rail. Cas. 92, 21 L. J. Ch. 731; Richmond v. North London Ry. Co., L. R. 3 Ch. 679, 37 L. J. Ch. 886; Rangeley v. Midland Ry. Co., L. R. 3 Ch. 306, 37 L. J. Ch. 313, 18 L. T. N. S. 69, 16 W. R. 347; Kemp v. South Eastern Ry. Co., L. R. 7 Ch. 364, 41 L. J. Ch. 404, 26 L. T. N. S. 110, 20 W. R. 306; and see the recent case in the House of Lords: Tiverton and North Devon Ry. Co. v. Loosemore, ante, p. 950, where most of the cases on this subject are referred to and discussed.

(2) See the cases cited in the preceding note, and Doe d. Armistead v. North Staffordshire Ry. Co.; Worsley v. South Devon Ry. Co., infra; Marquis of Salisbury v. Great Northern Ry. Co., supra.

(3) Where within the prescribed period the company serve a notice to treat, and the landowner serves a notice requiring the company to summon a jury to assess the compensation, and no further steps are taken to complete the purchase till after the expiration of the specified time, the landowner can compel the company by mandamus to complete the purchase: R. v. Birmingham and Oxford Junction Ry. Co., supra; R. v. Birmingham and Gloucester Ry. Co., 2 Q. B. 47.

And, although no notice to treat has been served and no initiatory steps taken, if there be still a period during which these initiatory steps may be taken by the company, the landowner can by mandamus compel them to take these steps and complete the purchase: R. v. York, Newcastle and Berwick Ry. Co., 6 Rail. Cas. 648, 16 Q. B. 886, 20 L. J. Q. B. 503; R. v. Lancashire and Yorkshire Ry. Co., 6 Rail. Cas. 654, 16 Q. B. 906 n., 20 L. J. Q. B. 507.

But where the compulsory powers had expired, and it was shown that the company had not the power to do the act commanded, a mandamus against the company to compel them to purchase land and make the railway was refused, although the company had, a month before the expiration of their powers, been required by the landowners to do so: R. v. London and North Western Ry. Co., 6 Rail. Cas. 634, 16 Q. B. 864, 20 L. J. Q. B. 399. See also R. v. York and North Midland Ry. Co., 1 E. & B. 858; compare Edinburgh, &c., Ry. Co. v. Philip, 2 Macq. H. L. C. 514.

If a company have entered upon the lands before the expiration of the prescribed period, without paying the purchase-money, an action of ejectment will not lie against them after it has expired, as their possession is still lawful and the owner might, under section 68, have the purchase-money assessed: Doe d. Armistead v. North Staffordshire Ry. Co., 16 Q. B. 526, 20 L. J. Q. B. 249, 15 Jur. 944, 17 L. T. 59; Worsley v. South Devon Ry. Co., 16 Q. B. 539, 15 Jur. 970, 20 L. J. Q. B. 254, 17 L. T. 60; and if the company have done everything necessary to entitle them to enter (as by giving notice to treat) they can enter after the expiration of the time: Marquis of Salisbury v. Great Northern Ry. Co., supra.

Where the time limited for making a line has expired, and where consequently the powers of the company under their Act have expired, the company cannot be called upon to enter into an arbitration under a contract which assumes them to be in full possession of their authority: Scottish North Eastern Ry. Co. v. Stewart, 3 Macq. H. L. C. 382, 5 Jur. N. S. 607.

Secs. 123,
124.

Promoters of the undertaking empowered to purchase interests in lands the purchase whereof may have been omitted by mistake.

and if no period be prescribed ⁽¹⁾ not after the expiration of three years from the passing of the special Act ⁽²⁾.

And with respect to interest in lands which have by mistake been omitted to be purchased, be it enacted as follows :

124. If, at any time after the promoters of the undertaking shall have entered upon any lands which under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, they were authorised to purchase, and which shall be permanently required for the purposes of the special Act, any party shall appear to be entitled to any estate, right, or interest in or charge affecting such lands which the promoters of the undertaking shall through mistake or inadvertence ⁽³⁾ have failed or omitted duly to purchase or to pay compensation for, then, whether the period allowed for the purchase of lands shall have expired or not, the promoters of the undertaking shall remain in the undisturbed possession of such lands, provided within six months after notice of such estate, right, interest, or charge, in case the same shall not be disputed by the promoters of the undertaking, or in case the same shall be disputed then within six months after the right thereto shall have been finally established by law in favour of the party claiming the same ⁽⁴⁾, the promoters of the undertaking shall purchase or pay compensation for the same, and shall also pay to such party, or to any other party who may establish a right thereto, full compensation for the mesne profits or interest which would have accrued to such parties respectively in respect thereof during the interval between the entry of the promoters of the undertaking thereon and the time of the payment of such purchase money or compensation by the promoters of the undertaking, so far as such mesne profits or interests may be recoverable in law or equity; and such purchase money or compensation shall be agreed on or awarded and paid in like manner as according to the provisions of this Act the same

⁽¹⁾ Where a special Act contained no clause limiting the time for compulsory purchase, the period of three years specified in this section was held to apply : Seymour v. London and South Western Ry. Co., 5 Jur. N. S. 753:

⁽²⁾ The powers for the compulsory purchase, &c., referred to in this section, are powers given to the several promoters of the several special Acts in which this Act might be incorporated, and not several powers given to the promoters of each special Act : Sparrow v. Oxford, &c., Ry. Co., 9 Hare, 436, 7 Rail. Cas. 92, 21 L. J. Ch. 731.

This section refers to the powers given by the Act for the purchase and taking of land, but not to the powers thereby given for carrying into effect a purchase already made (ib.).

⁽³⁾ The non-interference or absence of objection on the part of the owner, when the company took and continued in possession of the land in question, does not amount to such a consent on his part, as to preclude him from re-entering by force of this section : Marquis of Salisbury v. Great Northern Ry. Co., 5 C. B. N. S. 174, 5 Jur. N. S. 70, 28 L. J. C. P. 40. The effect of this section is, not to prevent the plaintiff from bringing an action of ejectment to establish his title, but to authorise the court to stay execution on the judgment (ib.) : Hyde v. Mayor of Manchester, 12 C. B. 474. But if the plaintiff's title be not in dispute, he cannot maintain an action of ejectment, as this section gives the company a right (when the title is not in dispute) to lawful possession for six months after the plaintiff's claim : Jolly v. Wimbledon and Dorking Ry. Co., 1 B. & S. 807, 8 Jur. N. S. 1037, 31 L. J. Q. B. 95, 5 L. T. N. S. 615, 10 W. R. 253.

If there be a doubt as to the plaintiff's title, a court of equity will refuse to interfere by injunction against the company, but will leave the plaintiff to his remedy at law : Webster v. South Eastern Ry. Co., 6 Rail. Cas. 698, 15 Jur. 73, 20 L. J. Ch. 194. As to what amounts to mistake or inadvertence, see Hyde v. Mayor of Manchester, 5 De G. & S. 249, 16 Jur. 189; Stretton v. Great Western Ry. Co., L. R. 5 Ch. 751, 40 L. J. Ch. 50, 23 L. T. N. S. 379, 18 W. R. 1078: Martin v. London, Chatham and Dover Ry. Co., L. R. 1 Ch. 501, 12 Jur. N. S. 775, 35 L. J. Ch. 795, 14 L. T. N. S. 814, 14 W. R. 880.

⁽⁴⁾ See Hyde v. Mayor of Manchester, 5 De G. & S. 249, supra; six months after the refusal by the court to grant a new trial in ejectment is within the time (ib.).

respectively would have been agreed on or awarded and paid in case the promoters of the undertaking had purchased such estate, right, interest, or charge before their entering upon such land, or as near thereto as circumstances will admit. Secs. 124—126.

125. In estimating the compensation to be given for any such last-mentioned lands, or any estate or interest in the same, or for any mesne profits thereof, the jury, or arbitrators, or justices, as the case may be, shall assess the same according to what they shall find to have been the value of such lands, estate, or interest, and profits, at the time such lands were entered upon by the promoters of the undertaking, and without regard to any improvements or works made in the said lands by the promoters of the undertaking, and as though the works had not been constructed. How value of such lands to be estimated.

126. In addition to the said purchase money, compensation, or satisfaction, and before the promoters of the undertaking shall become absolutely entitled to any such estate, interest, or charge, or to have the same merged or extinguished for their benefit, they shall, when the right to any such estate, interest, or charge shall have been disputed by the company, and determined in favour of the party claiming the same, pay the full costs and expenses ⁽¹⁾ of any proceedings at law or in equity for the determination or recovery of the same to the parties with whom any such litigation in respect thereof shall have taken place; and such costs and expenses ⁽¹⁾ shall, in case the same shall be disputed, be settled by the proper officer of the Court in which such litigation took place. Promoters of the undertaking to pay the costs of litigation as to such lands.

And with respect to lands acquired by the promoters of the undertaking under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, but which shall not be required for the purposes thereof ⁽²⁾, be it enacted as follows:

⁽¹⁾ "Full costs and expenses" here means costs "as between attorney and client:" Hyde v. Mayor of Manchester, 12 C. B. 474.

⁽²⁾ The word "required" here does not mean *demand*ed, but necessary, and where land ceases to be necessary it becomes superfluous. The time for determining whether land is or is not superfluous within these sections is, not the time when the lands are acquired, but the expiration of the ten years, or whatever other period is prescribed by the special Act, as provided in section 127: Great Western Ry. Co. v. May, L. R. 7 H. L. 233, 43 L. J. Q. B. 233, 31 L. T. N. S. 137, 23 W. R. 141. Superfluous land here means land acquired by the promoters of the undertaking, but not required for the purposes of the undertaking (ib.). When a company use land for making accommodation works, which they are compellable to make, this is one of the purposes of their Acts, and the land does not thereby become superfluous: Beauchamp v. Great Western Ry. Co., L. R. 3 Ch. 745, 38 L. J. Ch. 162, 19 L. T. N. S. 189, 16 W. R. 1155.

But, though the land has been used for the purposes of the undertaking, yet if the use be only of a temporary nature, the land, having satisfied that use, becomes superfluous: Great Western Ry. Co. v. May, supra. But land which is bonâ fide retained by the company, with a reasonable expectation of using it for the purposes of their Act, does not at the end of the specified time become superfluous, nor vest as such in an adjoining owner, merely because, from insufficiency of traffic or want of funds, the company cannot apply it to such purposes: Betts v. Great Eastern Ry. Co., 3 Ex. D. 182, 47 L. J. Ex. 461, affirmed by H. L., W. N. (1879), p. 163; and this is so although the lands are not in actual use at the end of the period, if there is a reasonable prospect of their being ultimately required and used for the purposes of the company: Hooper v. Bourne, 3 Q. B. D. 258, 47 L. J. Q. B. 437, 37 L. T. N. S. 594, 26 W. R. 295; affirmed in H. L. 5 App. Cas. 1, 49 L. J. Q. B. 370, 42 L. T. N. S. 97, 28 W. R. 493, 44 J. P. 327.

And in the meantime the company may let the land: Betts v. Great Eastern Ry. Co., supra.

Land does not become superfluous merely because the undertaking has been abandoned: Astley v. Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Ry. Co., cited in note ⁽²⁾ to section 127, infra.

Land to be superfluous must be separated by a vertical, not by a horizontal boundary from land required by the company: In re Metropolitan District Ry. Co. and Cosh, 13 Ch. D. 607, 49 L. J. Ch. 277, 42 L. T. N. S. 73, 28 W. R. 685, 44 J. P. 393, C. A. Where Section 127. 127⁽¹⁾. Within the prescribed period, or if no period be prescribed within ten years after the expiration of the time limited by the special Act for the completion of the works, the promoters of the undertaking shall absolutely sell and dispose of⁽²⁾

Lands not wanted to be a company has excavated the soil, constructed the line, and then built an arch over it and replaced the surface over the arch, the vacant space over the arch is not superfluous land (ib.); nor is the part of the land under the arches on which a railway station is erected: Mulliner v. Midland Ry. Co., 11 Ch. D. 611, 48 L. J. Ch. 258, 40 L. T. N. S. 121, 27 W. R. 330. And the company cannot sell a right of way under the arch (ib.); but the whole of the land beyond a boundary wall, even though that wall be a retaining wall thicker at the base than at the surface, and part of the land so sold would be within a line drawn on the surface, vertically above the line of the footings of the wall, is superfluous: Ware v. London, Brighton, and South Coast Ry. Co., 52 L. J. Ch. 198, 47 L. T. N. S. 541, 31 W. R. 228; and so is an abandoned strip of land between a quickset hedge and a decayed hedge: Norton v. London and North Western Ry. Co., 13 Ch. D. 268, 41 L. T. N. S. 429, 28 W. R. 173, 44 J. P. 22.

See further, as to when land becomes superfluous, Great Western Ry. Co. v. May; Beauchamp v. Great Western Ry. Co.; Betts v. Great Eastern Ry. Co.; Hooper v. Bourne, 971; London and South Western Ry. Co. v. Blackmore, L. R. 4 H. L. 610, 39 L. J. Ch. 713, 23 L. T. N. S. 504, 19 W. R. 305; Lord Carington v. Wycombe Ry. Co., infra; Horne v. Lymington Ry. Co., 31 L. T. N. S. 167; Smith v. Smith, L. R. 3 Ex. 282, 38 L. J. Ex. 37; Moody v. Corbett, L. R. 1 Q. B. 510, 35 L. J. Q. B. 161, 14 W. R. 737, 14 L. T. N. S. 568; City of Glasgow Union Ry. Co. v. Caledonian Ry. Co., L. R. 2 H. L. (Sc.), 160.

As to the different ways in which lands may become superfluous, see Great Western Ry. Co. v. May, ante, p. 971.

Where an adjoining owner claims lands as superfluous, the burden of proving a title to the land as superfluous lies upon him: Hooper v. Bourne, in H. L., ante, p. 971.

And the conversion of it to other purposes than those of the undertaking is evidence of its being superfluous: Great Western Ry. Co. v. May, supra; compare Hobbs v. Midland Ry. Co., infra.

(1) This section is not incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, though the rest of the Lands Clauses Acts is: See section 176 of the Public Health Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 55), ante, p. 142.

This section and the following do not apply where the undertaking is abandoned or given up altogether: Smith v. Smith, L. R. 3 Ex. 282, 38 L. J. Ex. 37.

It would seem that sections 127 and 128 apply to cases where lands are acquired by negotiation or agreement under the compulsory powers of a company, as well as to lands not so acquired: Hooper v. Bourne, in C. A., ante, p. 971; but see City of Glasgow Union Ry. Co. v. Caledonian Ry. Co., L. R. 2 H. L. (Sc.), 160; Horne v. Lymington Ry. Co., 31 L. T. N. S. 167; Lord Carington v. Wycombe Ry. Co., L. R. 3 Ch. 377, 37 L. J. Ch. 213, 18 L. T. N. S. 96, 16 W. R. 494.

(2) "Disposing of" lands here means the transfer of them to other persons, and not the application of them to a different purpose from that for which they were originally obtained: Astley v. Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Ry. Co., 27 L. J. Ch. 478, 2 De G. & J. 453, 4 Jur. N. S. 567, 6 W. R. 561, 31 L. T. 188.

Land sold by a company under this section as superfluous must be sold absolutely, and without reserving any interest to the company: London and South Western Ry. Co. v. Gomm, 20 Ch. D. 562, 51 L. J. Ch. 530, 46 L. T. N. S. 449, 30 W. R. 620, C. A.

A sale of land, reserving an interest to the company, would be ultra vires and void (ib.).

But otherwise, a company can sell its superfluous land, under such conditions as to user as may be most advantageous to itself: In re Higgins and Hitchman's Contract, 21 Ch. D. 95, 51 L. J. Ch. 772, 30 W. R. 700, 46 J. P. 805.

And a subsequent Act, giving a company power to lease and mortgage certain superfluous lands, does not take away the power of selling them: Tomlin v. Budd, L. R. 18 Eq. 368, 43 L. J. Ch. 627, 22 W. R. 529.

A railway company cannot dispose of, except for the purposes of the Act, any part of its land not being superfluous land, and not being land taken for extraordinary purposes all such superfluous lands ⁽¹⁾, and apply the purchase money arising from such sales to the purposes of the special Act: and in default thereof all such superfluous lands remaining unsold at the expiration of such period shall thereupon vest in ⁽²⁾ and become the property of the owners of the lands adjoining thereto ⁽³⁾, in proportion to the extent of their lands respectively adjoining the same ⁽⁴⁾.

128. Before the promoters of the undertaking dispose of any such superfluous lands they shall, unless such lands be situate within a town ⁽⁵⁾, or be lands built upon or used for building purposes ⁽⁶⁾, first offer ⁽⁷⁾ to sell the same to the person

Secs. 127, 128.

sold, or in default to vest in owners of adjoining lands.

Lands to be offered to within section 45 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1845, nor any easement over the same: Mulliner v. Midland Ry. Co., ante, p. 972.

And a conveyance of lands, not being superfluous, will be set aside as ultra vires: Hobbs v. Midland Ry. Co., 20 Ch. D. 418, 51 L. J. Ch. 320, 46 L. T. N. S. 270, 30 W. R. 516.

⁽¹⁾ See, as to superfluous lands, note ⁽²⁾ to the preamble to this section.

⁽²⁾ At the end of the prescribed period superfluous land vests in the adjoining owner, and no act is necessary on his part to bring about that legal result: Great Western Ry. Co. v. May, ante, p. 971.

And when the land has once vested in an adjoining owner, a subsequent Act extending the time for the sale of superfluous land will have no effect: Moody v. Corbett, ante, p. 972; a tenant of the company, or his under tenant, cannot refuse to give up possession after notice to quit, because the land has vested in an adjoining owner: London and North Western Ry. Co. v. West, L. R. 2 C. P. 553, 36 L. J. C. P. 245.

The mere fact that land is required for the undertaking, and is not superfluous, does not prevent an occupier, who has exclusive adverse possession for twelve years, becoming thereby entitled to the land under the Statutes of Limitations: Bobbett v. South Eastern Ry. Co., 9 Q. B. D. 424, 51 L. J. Q. B. 161, 46 L. T. N. S. 31. See also Norton v. London and North Western Ry. Co., supra.

⁽³⁾ As to "adjoining owners," see note ⁽²⁾, ante, p. 974.

⁽⁴⁾ Where there are several adjoining properties in contact with the superfluous land, it is to be divided among the owners of the adjoining properties in proportion to the frontage of each, meaning by frontage what would be the length of the line of contact of each property, if the line were made straight from the point of intersection of the boundaries on one side to the point of intersection of the boundaries on the other: Moody v. Corbett, ante, p. 972. But see Smith v. Smith, ante, p. 972.

⁽⁵⁾ Land within a town means land surrounded by continuous houses or covered by continuous houses: Lord Carington v. Wycombe Ry. Co., ante, p. 972.

Land, though situate within the limits of the borough, but at some distance from the mass of houses forming the town, is not within the "town" (ib.).

So lands, to be "within a town," must be encompassed by the buildings constituting the town: London and South Western Ry. Co. v. Blackmore, ante, p. 972. See also Elliott v. South Devon Ry. Co., 2 Exch. 725; R. v. Cottle, 16 Q. B. 412.

⁽⁶⁾ Lands acquired by a company for the purposes of the undertaking, but not so employed, but merely capable of being used for building purposes, are not, on account of such capacity alone, to be treated as building land, or "lands used for building purposes:" London and South Western Ry. Co. v. Blackmore, ante, p. 972. See also Lord Carington v. Wycombe Ry. Co., ante, p. 972.

Lands "used for building purposes" here mean land sold as building land, or let on building leases, and actually laid out for building: Coventry v. London, Brighton, and South Coast Ry. Co., L. R. 5 Eq. 104, 37 L. J. Ch. 90, 17 L. T. N. S. 368, 16 W. R. 267.

⁽⁷⁾ Though a company cannot be compelled to sell land as superfluous within the ten years, yet if within that time the company decide or declare that the land is superfluous, as by attempting to sell it, or by conveying it, the right of pre-emption of an adjoining owner at once arises: London and South Western Ry. Co. v. Blackmore, and Lord Carington v. Wycombe Ry. Co., ante, p. 972. So, if the company use the land for a purpose not allowed by their Act, the right of pre-emption at once arises: Beauchamp v. Great Western Ry. Co., ante, p. 971; but not so if the undertaking has been abandoned, as Secs. 128—131.—then entitled ⁽¹⁾ to the lands (if any) from which the same were originally severed; or if such person refuse to purchase the same, or cannot after diligent inquiry be found, then the like offer shall be made to the person or to the several persons whose lands shall immediately adjoin ⁽²⁾ the lands so proposed to be sold, such persons being capable of entering into a contract for the purchase of such lands; and where more than one such person shall be entitled to such right of pre-emption such offer shall be made to such persons in succession, one after another, in such order as the promoters of the undertaking shall think fit.

owner of lands from which they were originally taken or to adjoining owners.

Right of pre-emption to be claimed within six weeks.

129. If any such persons be desirous of purchasing such lands, then within six weeks after such offer of sale they shall signify their desire in that behalf to the promoters of the undertaking, or if they decline such offer, or if for six weeks they neglect to signify their desire to purchase such lands, the right of pre-emption of every such person so declining or neglecting in respect of the lands included in such offer shall cease; and a declaration in writing made before a justice by some person not interested in the matter in question, stating that such offer was made and was refused, or not accepted within six weeks from the time of making the same, or that the person or all the persons entitled to the right of pre-emption were out of the country, or could not after diligent inquiry be found, or were not capable of entering into a contract for the purchase of such lands, shall in all courts be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated.

Differences as to price to be settled by arbitration.

130. If any person entitled to such pre-emption be desirous of purchasing any such lands, and such person and the promoters of the undertaking do not agree as to the price thereof, then such price shall be ascertained by arbitration ⁽³⁾, and the costs of such arbitration shall be in the discretion of the arbitrators.

Lands to be conveyed to the purchasers.

131. Upon payment or tender to the promoters of the undertaking of the purchase-money so agreed upon or determined as aforesaid, they shall convey such lands to the purchasers thereof by deed under the common seal of the promoters of the undertaking, if they be a corporation, or if not a corporation under the hands and seals of the promoters of the undertaking or any two of the directors or managers thereof acting by the authority of the body; and a deed so executed shall be effectual to vest the lands comprised therein in the purchaser of such lands for the estate which shall so have been purchased by him; and a receipt the land does not thereby become superfluous: Astley v. Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Ry. Co., ante, p. 972; and the plaintiff cannot in such case get an injunction against the company (ib.). Even if an owner have a right of pre-emption, this does not make it unlawful for the company to contract with other persons for the sale of the land: London and Greenwich Ry. Co. v. Goodchild, 3 Rail. Cas. 507, 8 Jur. 455, 13 L. J. Ch. 224; and if the intending purchaser has agreed to admit a defective title, and if it afterwards appears that the prior owners had not waived their right of pre-emption, the purchaser cannot recover his deposit on that ground: Best v. Hamand, 12 Ch. D. 1, 48 L. J. Ch. 503, 40 L. T. N. S. 769, 27 W. R. 742, C. A.

Where land is purchased for special purposes, which afterwards fail, the vendor's right of pre-emption is entirely dependent on these sections, and no immediate right of repurchase arises within the ten years limited by the Act: Astley v. Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Ry. Co., 27 L. J. Ch. 299, 4 Jur. N. S. 129.

⁽¹⁾ Lessees for years are entitled to this right of pre-emption: Coventry v. London, Brighton, and South Coast Ry. Co., ante, p. 973.

By the special Act the right of pre-emption may be limited to the actual vendor, so that on his death the right ceases: Highgate Archway Co. v. Jeakes, L. R. 12 Eq. 9, 40 L. J. Ch. 408, 24 L. T. N. S. 567, 19 W. R. 692.

⁽²⁾ Lessees of lands separated from superfluous land by a private road, of which they have the exclusive user, are "owners of immediately adjoining land:" Coventry v. London, Brighton, and South Coast Ry. Co., supra.

So where the company and the landowner are joint owners of a piece of land intervening between the superfluous land and the land of the landowner, the latter is an "adjoining owner:" London and South Western Ry. Co. v. Blackmore, ante, p. 972. See also Smith v. Smith, L. R. 3 Ex. 282, 38 L. J. Ex. 37.

⁽³⁾ See section 25, ante.

under such common seal, or under the hands of two of the directors or managers of the undertaking as aforesaid, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser of any such lands for the purchase-money in such receipt expressed to be received. Secs. 131—133.

132. In every conveyance of lands to be made by the promoters of the undertaking under this or the special Act, the word "grant" shall operate as express covenants by the promoters of the undertaking, for themselves and their successors, or for themselves, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, as the case may be, with the respective grantees therein named, and the successors, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of such grantees, according to the quality or nature of such grants, and of the estate or interest therein expressed to be thereby conveyed, as follows, except so far as the same shall be restrained or limited by express words contained in any such conveyance; (that is to say,) Effect of the word "grant" in conveyances.

A covenant that, notwithstanding any act or default done by the promoters of the undertaking, they were at the time of the execution of such conveyance seised or possessed of the lands or premises thereby granted for an indefeasible estate of inheritance in fee simple, free from all incumbrances done or occasioned by them, or otherwise for such estate or interest as therein expressed to be thereby granted, free from incumbrances done or occasioned by them :

A covenant that the grantee of such lands, his heirs, successors, executors, administrators, and assigns (as the case may be), shall quietly enjoy the same against the promoters of the undertaking, and their successors, and all other persons claiming under them, and be indemnified and saved harmless by the promoters of the undertaking and their successors, from all incumbrances created by the promoters of the undertaking :

A covenant for further assurance of such lands, at the expense of such grantee, his heirs, successors, executors, administrators, or assigns (as the case may be), by the promoters of the undertaking, or their successors, and all other persons claiming under them :

And all such grantees, and their several successors, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns respectively, according to their respective quality or nature, and the estate or interest in such conveyance expressed to be conveyed, may in all actions brought by them, assign breaches of covenants, as they might do if such covenants were expressly inserted in such conveyances.

133 ⁽¹⁾. And be it enacted, that if the promoters ⁽²⁾ of the undertaking become possessed by virtue of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, of any lands charged with the land tax, or liable to be assessed to the poor's rate, they shall from time to time, until the works shall be completed and assessed to such land tax or poor's rate, be liable to make good the deficiency ⁽³⁾ in the several Land Tax and Poor's Rate to be made good.

⁽¹⁾ This section applies, if it appears that the works, when constructed, may, in part or in whole, be the subject of beneficial occupation : Wheeler v. Metropolitan Board of Works, L. R. 4 Ex. 303, 38 L. J. Ex. 165, 20 L. T. N. S. 984. The fact that the works contemplated by the special Act were not such as would be assessable to poor's rates when completed would not prevent this section from applying to lands taken for such works : Stratton v. Metropolitan Board of Works, L. R. 10 C. P. 76, 44 L. J. M. C. 33, 31 L. T. N. S. 689, 23 W. R. 447.

⁽²⁾ The Metropolitan Board of Works are "promoters" within this section : Wheeler v. Metropolitan Board of Works, supra. Semble, persons intrusted with the construction of public works under Acts incorporating this Act are, in the absence of special circumstances, "promoters" within this section : Ib.

⁽³⁾ Though the company are liable under this section to make good the deficiency, they are not liable to be rated in respect of such lands : Mayor of London v. Churchwardens of St. Andrew's, Holborn, L. R. 2 C. P. 574, 36 L. J. M. C. 95, 16 L. T. N. S. 665, 15 W. R. 928. The liability to pay this deficiency rate for lands in any parish ceases on the completion of the works in that parish, though the entire works are not completed, as the rate is properly a parochial rate : East London Ry. Co. v. Whitchurch, L. R. 7 H. L. 81, 43 L. J. M. C. 159, 30 L. T. N. S. 412, 22 W. R. 665 (reversing the Secs. 133—136.—assessments for land tax and poor's rate by reason of such lands having been taken or used for the purposes of the works, and such deficiency shall be computed according to the rental at which such lands, with any building thereon, were valued or rated at the time of the passing of the special Act; and on demand of such deficiency the promoters of the undertaking, or their treasurer, shall pay all such deficiencies to the collector of the said assessments respectively; nevertheless, if at any time the promoters of the undertaking think fit to redeem such land tax, they may do so in accordance with the powers in that behalf given by the Acts for the redemption of the land tax.

Service of notices upon company.

134 ⁽¹⁾. And be it enacted, that any summons or notice, or any writ or other proceeding at law or in equity, requiring to be served upon the promoters of the undertaking, may be served by the same being left at or transmitted through the post directed to the principal ⁽²⁾ office of the promoters of the undertaking, or one of the principal offices where there shall be more than one, or being given or transmitted through the post directed to the secretary ⁽³⁾, or in case there be no secretary, the solicitor of the said promoters.

Tender of amends.

135. And be it enacted, that if any party shall have committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceeding in the execution of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any power or authority thereby given, and if, before action brought in respect thereof, such party make tender of sufficient amends to the party injured, such last-mentioned party shall not recover in any such action; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant, by leave of the court where such action shall be pending, at any time before issue joined, to pay into court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into court ⁽⁴⁾.

And with respect to the recovery of forfeitures, penalties, and costs, be it enacted as follows:

Penalties to be summarily recovered before two justices.

136. Every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this or the special Act, or by any bye-law ⁽⁵⁾ made in pursuance thereof, the recovery of which is not otherwise provided for ⁽⁶⁾, may be recovered by summary proceeding before two justices; and on complaint ⁽⁷⁾ being made to any justice he shall issue a summons requiring the party complained against to appear before two justices at a time and place to be named in such summons; and every such summons shall be served on the party offending either in person or by leaving the same with some inmate at his usual place of abode; and upon the appearance of the party complained against, or in his absence, after proof of the due service of such summons, it shall judgment of the Ex. Ch. L. R. 7 Ex. 424, 27 L. T. N. S. 494, and overruling R. v. Metropolitan District Ry. Co., L. R. 6 Q. B. 698, 40 L. J. M. C. 113; Stratton v. Metropolitan Board of Works, ante, p. 975. No deficiency rate is payable on property which, at the time when it was taken, was not rated: Ib.

⁽¹⁾ It would seem that this section applies in all cases where a summons or notice is required for any purpose: In re South Yorkshire, &c., Ry. Co., Ex parte Senior, 7 D. & L. 36, 14 Jur. 1093, 18 L. J. Q. B. 333.

⁽²⁾ This means the chief office for the whole line and not an office for a traffic station: Garton v. Great Western Ry. Co., E. B. & E. 837, 27-L. J. Q. B. 375.

⁽³⁾ Service on the secretary need not be at the principal office: Wilson v. Caledonian Ry. Co., 5 Exch. 822, 6 Rail. Cas. 772, 20 L. J. Ex. 7; see also Mackereth v. Glasgow & S. W. Ry. Co., L. R. 8 Ex. 149, 42 L. J. Ex. 82, 28 L. T. N. S. 167, 21 W. R. 339.

⁽⁴⁾ See R. S. C., Ord. XXII., r. 1. As to what is done in execution of this or the special Act, see Smith v. Shaw, 10 B. & C. at p. 284, and Kennet and Avon Canal Co. v. Great Western Ry. Co., 4 Rail. Cas. 90, 7 Q. B. 824.

⁽⁵⁾ See Chilton v. London and Croydon Ry. Co., 5 Rail. Cas. 4, 16 M. & W. 212.

⁽⁶⁾ This does not bar the party entitled from his remedy by action at law: Collinson v. Newcastle and Darlington Ry. Co., 1 Car. & K. 546.

⁽⁷⁾ As to who is entitled to make the complaint, see Collinson v. Newcastle and Darlington Ry. Co., supra.

be lawful for any two justices to proceed to the hearing of the complaint, and that although no information in writing or in print shall have been exhibited before them; and upon proof of the offence, either by the confession of the party complained against, or upon the oath of one credible witness or more, it shall be lawful for such justices to convict the offender, and upon such conviction to adjudge the offender to pay the penalty or forfeiture incurred, as well as such costs attending the conviction as such justices shall think fit ⁽¹⁾.

Secs. 136—142.

137. If, forthwith upon any such adjudication as aforesaid, the amount of the penalty or forfeiture, and of such costs as aforesaid, be not paid, the amount of such penalty and costs shall be levied by distress, and such justices or either of them shall issue their or his warrant of distress accordingly. Penalties to be levied by distress.

138. Where in this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, any sum of money, whether in the nature of penalty, costs, or otherwise, is directed to be levied by distress, such sum of money shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party liable to pay the same; and the overplus arising from the sale of such goods and chattels, after satisfying such sum of money and the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned, on demand, to the party whose goods shall have been distrained. Distress how to be levied.

139. The justices by whom any such penalty or forfeiture shall be imposed may, where the application thereof is not otherwise provided for, award not more than one-half thereof to the informer, and shall award the remainder to the overseers of the poor of the parish in which the offence shall have been committed, to be applied in aid of the poor's rate of such parish, or if the place wherein the offence shall have been committed shall be extra-parochial, then such justices shall direct such remainder to be applied in aid of the poor's rate of such extra-parochial place, or if there shall not be any poor's rate therein in aid of the poor's rate of any adjoining parish or district ⁽²⁾. Application of penalties.

140. If any such sum shall be payable by the promoters of the undertaking, and if sufficient goods of the said promoters cannot be found whereon to levy the same, it may, if the amount thereof do not exceed twenty pounds, be recovered by distress of the goods of the treasurer of the said promoters, and the justices aforesaid, or either of them, on application, shall issue their or his warrant accordingly; but no such distress shall issue against the goods of such treasurer unless seven days previous notice in writing, stating the amount so due, and demanding payment thereof, have been given to such treasurer or left at his residence; and if such treasurer pay any money under such distress as aforesaid he may retain the amount so paid by him, and all costs and expenses occasioned thereby, out of any money belonging to the promoters of the undertaking coming into his custody or control, or he may sue them for the same. Distress against the treasurer.

141. No distress levied by virtue of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him, but all persons aggrieved by such defect or irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action upon the case. Distress not unlawful for want of form.

142. No person shall be liable to the payment of any penalty or forfeiture imposed by virtue of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, for any offence made cognizable before a justice, unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made before such justice within six months ⁽³⁾ next after the commission of such offence. Penalties to be sued for within six months.

⁽¹⁾ As to summary proceedings before justices, see Jervis's Act (11 & 12 Vict. c. 43), and the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879 (42 & 43 Vict. c. 49).

⁽²⁾ The words in italics have been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 66).

⁽³⁾ Compare section 11 of Jervis's Act (11 & 12 Vict. c. 43) which contains a similar limitation of time; and see Morant v. Taylor, 1 Ex. D. 188, 45 L. J. M. C. 78, 34 L. T. N. S. 139, 24 W. R. 461. It would seem that in computing the six months, the day on which the offence was committed is to be excluded: Hardy v. Ryle, 9 B & C. 603.

Secs. 143—

147.

Penalty on witnesses making default.

Form of conviction.

Proceedings not to be quashed for want of form.

Parties allowed to appeal to quarter sessions on giving security.

Court to make such order as they think reasonable.

143. It shall be lawful for any justice to summon any person to appear before him as a witness in any matter in which such justice shall have jurisdiction under the provisions of this or the special Act at a time and place mentioned in such summons, and to administer to him an oath to testify the truth in such matter; and if any person so summoned shall, without reasonable excuse, refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place appointed for that purpose, having been paid or tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, or if any person appearing shall refuse to be examined upon oath or to give evidence before such justice, every such person shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

144. The justices before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, may cause the conviction to be drawn up according to the form in the schedule (C.) to this Act annexed.

145 (1). No proceeding (2) in pursuance of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form, nor shall the same be removed by certiorari (3) or otherwise into any of the superior courts.

146. If any party shall feel aggrieved by any determination or adjudication of any justice with respect to any penalty or forfeiture under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, such party may appeal to the general quarter sessions for the county or place in which the cause of appeal shall have arisen; but no such appeal shall be entertained unless it be made within four months next after the making of such determination or adjudication, nor unless ten days' notice in writing of such appeal, stating the nature and grounds thereof, be given to the party against whom the appeal shall be brought, nor unless the appellant forthwith after such notice enter into recognisances, with two sufficient sureties, before a justice, conditioned duly to prosecute such appeal, and to abide the order of the court thereon.

147. At the quarter sessions for which such notice shall be given the court shall proceed to hear and determine the appeal in a summary way, or they may, if they think fit, adjourn it to the following sessions; and upon the hearing of such appeal the court may, if they think fit, mitigate any penalty or forfeiture, or they may confirm or quash the adjudication, and order any money paid by the appellant, or levied by distress upon his goods, to be returned to him, and may also order such further satisfaction to be made to the party injured as they may judge reasonable; and they may make such order concerning the costs, both of the adjudication and of the appeal, as they may think reasonable.

(1) This section, taking away the certiorari, applies to all proceedings under the Act, whether on appeal or otherwise: R. v. Justices of Lindsey, 3 D. & L. 101, 14 L. J. M. C. 151.

(2) An inquisition is a "proceeding" within this section: R. v. Sheffield, &c., Ry. Co. 1 Rail. Cas. 537, 11 A. & E. 194; R. v. Bristol and Exeter Ry. Co., 11 A. & E. 202 n.

(3) The inquisition may be removed by certiorari and quashed, if the jurisdiction has been exceeded: R. v. Metropolitan Ry. Co., 32 L. J. Q. B. 367, 8 L. T. N. S. 663, 11 W. R. 910; and also when such excess arises from the jury awarding compensation for one of several claims over which they have no jurisdiction: In re Penny and South Eastern Ry. Co., 26 L. J. Q. B. 225, 7 E. & B. 660, 3 Jur. N. S. 957; and see R. v. Clerk of the Peace of the County of Chester, 10 Jur. N. S. 614, 10 L. T. N. S. 426, 12 W. R. 762; if there be excess of jurisdiction as to part of the verdict, a certiorari will lie as to the whole: In re South Wales Ry. Co., 6 Rail. Cas. 197, 18 L. J. Q. B. 310; such excess of jurisdiction may be shown by extrinsic evidence by affidavit: In re Penny and South Eastern Ry. Co., supra; and an order made by justices without jurisdiction may be brought up by certiorari: In re Edmondson, 17 Q. B. 67, 17 L. T. 93; and so if the sheriff be interested in the company as a shareholder, the inquisition may be removed: R. v. London and North Western Ry. Co., 9 L. T. N. S. 423, 12 W. R. 208; and see R. v. Aberdare Canal Co., 14 Q. B. 854, 19 L. J. Q. B. 251, 14 Jur. 735, 15 L. T. 453.

A writ of certiorari will not be granted after the expiration of the time allowed for setting aside an award made under this Act: R. v. Sheppard, 9 Q. B. D. 741, 49 L. J. Q. B. 716, 42 L. T. N. S. 363, 28 W. R. 506; where the applicants for the writ had allowed five months to expire, it was held to be too late (ib.).

148. Provided always, and be it enacted, that notwithstanding anything herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, contained, every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by any bye-law in pursuance thereof, in respect of any offence which shall take place within the metropolitan police district, shall be recovered, enforced, accounted for, and, except where the application thereof is otherwise specially provided for, shall be paid to the receiver of the metropolitan police district, and shall be applied in the same manner as penalties or forfeitures, other than fines upon drunken persons, or upon constables for misconduct, or for assaults upon police constables, are directed to be recovered, enforced, accounted for, paid, and applied by an Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Police Courts in the Metropolis, and every order or conviction of any of the police magistrates in respect of any such forfeiture or penalty shall be subject to the like appeal and upon the same terms as is provided in respect of any order or conviction of any of the said police magistrates by the said last-mentioned Act; and every magistrate by whom any order or conviction shall have been made shall have the same power of binding over the witnesses who shall have been examined, and such witnesses shall be entitled to the same allowance of expenses as he or they would have had or been entitled to in case the order, conviction, and appeal had been made in pursuance of the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act ⁽¹⁾.

Secs. 148—153.

Receiver of the metropolitan police district to receive penalties incurred within his district.

2 & 3 Vict. c. 71.

149. And be it enacted, that any person who upon any examination upon oath under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Persons giving false evidence liable to penalties of perjury.

And with respect to the provision to be made for affording access to the special Act by all parties interested, be it enacted as follows:

150 ⁽²⁾. The company shall, at all times after the expiration of six months after the passing of the special Act, keep in their principal office of business a copy of the special Act, printed by the printers to Her Majesty, or some of them; and where the undertaking shall be a railway, canal, or other like undertaking, the works of which shall not be confined to one town or place, shall also within the space of such six months deposit in the office of each of the clerks of the peace of the several counties into which the works shall extend a copy of such special Act so printed as aforesaid; and the said clerks of the peace shall receive, and they and the company respectively shall retain, the said copies of the special Act, and shall permit all persons interested to inspect the same, and make extracts or copies therefrom, in the like manner, and upon the like terms, and under the like penalty for default, as is provided in the case of certain plans and sections by an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to compel Clerks of the Peace for Counties and other Persons to take the Custody of such Documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them under the Standing Order of either House of Parliament."

Copies of special Act to be kept and deposited, and allowed to be inspected.

7 Will IV., and 1 Vict. c. 83.

151. If the company shall fail to keep or deposit, as hereinbefore mentioned, any of the said copies of the special Act, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every such offence, and also five pounds for every day afterwards during which such copy shall be not so kept or deposited.

Penalty on company failing to keep or deposit.

152. And be it enacted, that this Act shall not extend to Scotland ⁽³⁾.

Act not to extend to Scotland.

153 ⁽⁴⁾. And be it enacted, that this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in the present session of Parliament.

Act may be amended this session.

⁽¹⁾ See as to recovery and appropriation of penalties under this section, The Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District v. Bell, L. R. 7 Q. B. 433, 41 L. J. M. C. 153.

⁽²⁾ Provisions similar to this section are contained in section 161 of the Companies Clauses Act, 1845, and section 162 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1845.

⁽³⁾ See the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845 (8 Vict. c. 19), which is very similar in terms to the present Act, most of the sections being the same.

⁽⁴⁾ This section is repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 66).

SCHEDULES.

Sched. A.

SCHEDULE (A).

Form of Conveyance.

I, _____, of _____, in consideration of the sum of _____ paid to me [or, as the case may be, into the Bank of England [or Bank of Ireland], in the name and with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, ex parte "the promoters of the undertaking" [naming them], or to A.B. of _____, and C.D. of _____, two trustees appointed to receive the same, pursuant to the [here name the special Act], by the [here name the company or other promoters of the undertaking], incorporated [or constituted] by the said Act, do hereby convey to the said company [or other description], their successors and assigns, all [describing the premises to be conveyed], together with all ways, rights, and appurtenances thereto belonging, and all such estate, right, title, and interest in and to the same as I am or shall become seised or possessed of, or am by the said Act empowered to convey, to hold the premises to the said company [or other description], their successors and assigns, for ever, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal, the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord _____.

Sched. B.

SCHEDULE (B).

Form of Conveyance on Chief Rent.

I, _____, of _____, in consideration of the rent-charge to be paid to me, my heirs and assigns, as hereinafter mentioned, by "the promoters of the undertaking" [naming them], incorporated [or constituted] by virtue of the [here name the special Act], do hereby convey to the said company [or other description], their successors and assigns, all [describing the premises to be conveyed], together with all ways, rights, and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and all my estate, right, title, and interest in and to the same and every part thereof, to hold the said premises to the said company [or other description], their successors and assigns, for ever, according to the true intent and meaning of the said Act, they the said company [or other description], their successors and assigns, yielding and paying unto me, my heirs and assigns, one clear yearly rent of _____ by equal quarterly [or half-yearly, as agreed upon] portions, henceforth, on the [stating the days], clear of all taxes and deductions. In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal, the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord _____.

Sched. C.

SCHEDULE (C).

Form of Conviction.

To wit.

Be it remembered, that on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord _____ A.B. is convicted before us, C., D., two of Her Majesty's justices of the peace for the county of _____ [here describe the offence generally, and the time and place when and where committed], contrary to the [here name the special Act]. Given under our hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

C., D.

THE LANDS CLAUSES CONSOLIDATION ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1860.

23 & 24 VICT. c. 106.

An Act to amend the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, in regard to Sales and Compensation for Land by way of a Rentcharge, Annual Feu Duty or Ground Annual, and to enable Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department to avail himself of the Powers and Provisions contained in the same Acts.
[20th August, 1860.]

Whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, in regard to sales of land or compensation for damages, in consideration of an annual rentcharge, annual feu duty or ground annual, and to enable Her Majesty's principal Secretary of State for the War Department to avail himself of the powers and provisions contained in the same Act for the purchase of lands wanted for the service of the War Department or for the defence of the realm: Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1⁽¹⁾. So much of the tenth section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as provides that, save in the case of lands of which any person is seised in fee or entitled to dispose absolutely for their own benefit, the consideration to be paid for any lands, or for any damage done thereto, shall be in a gross sum, is hereby repealed.

Secs. 1—3.

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 18.

2. The power to sell and convey lands in consideration of an annual rentcharge provided by the tenth section of the said Act, and the power to recover such rentcharge provided by the eleventh section of the said Act, are hereby extended to all cases of sale and purchase or compensation under the said Act where the parties interested in such sale or entitled to such compensation are under any disability or incapacity, and have no power to sell or convey such lands, or to receive such compensation, except under the provisions of the said Act⁽²⁾.

Part of section 10 of recited Act
repealed.

3. The power to sell and convey lands in consideration of an annual feu duty or ground annual under the tenth section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and the power to recover such annual feu duty or ground annual, are hereby extended to all cases of sale or purchase or compensation under the said Act, where the parties interested in such sale are under any disability or incapacity, and have no power to sell or convey such lands, or to receive such compensation, except under the provisions of the said Act.

Sections 10
and 11 of recited Act as to power to sell, &c., lands for an annual rent-charge and to recover, extended to all sales, &c., where parties are under disability.
Similar proviso with regard to lands sold under section 10 of 8 & 9
Vict. c. 19.

⁽¹⁾ This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 66).

⁽²⁾ See In re Brewer, 1 Ch. D. 409, 34 L. T. N. S. 466, 24 W. R. 465.

Secs. 4—7.

Amount of rent-charge to be settled in manner directed in the 9th section of re-cited Acts.

4. In every case of such sale or compensation by any parties other than parties seised in fee or entitled to dispose absolutely of the lands so sold or damaged, the amount of such rentcharge, annual feu duty or ground annual, hereinbefore-mentioned, shall be settled in the manner directed in the ninth section of each of the said Acts respectively: Provided, that the amount of such annual rentcharge, annual feu duty or ground annual, shall in no case be less than one-fourth part greater than the net annual rent received by the parties beneficially interested in such lands upon an average of the last seven years; and that a charge of five per cent. on the gross sum estimated or fixed as aforesaid, by way of compensation for any damage that may be done to the said lands, shall in all such cases be added to and shall form a part of the said rentcharge, annual feu duty or ground annual; and that no fine, foregift, grassum, premium, or other consideration in the nature thereof, shall be paid or taken in respect of the lands so sold or damaged, other than the annual rentcharge, annual feu duty or ground annual, made payable for such lands: Provided also, that such rentcharge shall be and remain upon and for the same uses, trusts, and purposes as those upon which the rents and profits of the land so conveyed stood settled or assured at or immediately before the conveyance thereof, and shall be a first charge on the tolls and rates, if any, payable under the special Act.

If lands purchased by way of rent-charge, borrowing powers to be reduced proportionally.

5. In case the promoters of the undertaking shall be empowered, by any Act or Acts relating thereto, to be passed after the passing of this Act, to borrow money to an amount not exceeding a prescribed sum, then in the event of the promoters of the undertaking agreeing at any time after the passing of this Act with any person under the powers of this Act and of either of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, or of either of the said Acts, only for the purchase of any lands in consideration of the payment of a rent charge, annual feu duty or ground annual, the powers of the promoters of the undertaking for borrowing money shall be reduced by an amount equal to twenty years' purchase of any rent-charge, annual feu duty or ground annual, so for the time being payable.

Certain clauses in 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18, extended to purchases of land, &c., for public purposes.

6⁽¹⁾. The clauses contained in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, relating to the purchase of lands by agreement⁽²⁾, and to agreements for sale, and conveyances, sales, and releases of any lands or hereditaments, or any estate or interest therein, by parties under disability⁽³⁾, shall extend and be applicable to all purchases of land and hereditaments for public purposes which shall be hereafter made by the council of any city or borough, with the sanction of the commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the powers for that purpose contained in the Municipal Corporation Mortgages, &c., Act, 1860⁽⁴⁾.

Power to Secretary for War to use the powers given to promoters of undertakings by 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18.

7. For the purchase or acquisition of any messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments wanted for the service of the Admiralty or of the War Department or for the defence of the realm, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department for the time being to use all or any of the powers and provisions by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and by the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, given to promoters of the undertaking, as therein mentioned, and for such purposes the said principal secretary shall be deemed and taken to be the promoters of an undertaking within the meaning of the said Act, and all the powers and provisions thereof shall, if used by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, be treated as if they were contained in the fifth and sixth Victoria, chapter ninety-four, for the purpose of being used and made available by the principal officers of Her Majesty's ordnance, and had been transferred to the said principal secretary for the time being by the eighteenth and nineteenth Victoria, chapter one hundred and seventeen, for the purposes aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorise any purchase otherwise than by agreement

⁽¹⁾ This section has been repealed by section 5 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882 (45 & 46 Vict. c. 50), as to boroughs within that Act.

⁽²⁾ See sections 6—15, ante.

⁽³⁾ See sections 69—80, ante.

⁽⁴⁾ 23 & 24 Vict. c. 16.

of any land, except according to the provisions of the twenty-third section of the said Act of the fifth and sixth Victoria, or prejudice or affect the powers and authorities of the said principal secretary for the time being under the said last-mentioned statutes or either of them. Secs. 7, 8.

8. This Act shall be read and construed as part of the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, in all matters in which it relates to the said Acts respectively; and in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the expression of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860." This Act and
8 & 9 Vict.
cc. 18 and 19,
to be construed together.

THE LANDS CLAUSES CONSOLIDATION ACT, 1869.

32 & 33 VICT. c. 18.

An Act to amend the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act.

[24th June, 1869.]

Section 1.

Whereas it is expedient that the provisions contained in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, should be amended:

Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Costs of arbitrations, where either party so requires, to be settled by a master of superior courts.

1 (1). Where in England, under The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or any Act incorporating the same, any question of disputed compensation is determined by arbitration, the costs of and incidental to the arbitration and award shall, if either party so requires, be taxed (2) and settled as between the parties by any one of the taxing masters of the Superior Courts of Law; and such fees may be taken in respect of the taxation as may be fixed in pursuance of the enactments relating to the fees to be demanded and taken in the offices of such masters, and all those enactments, including the enactments relating to the taking of fees by means of stamps, shall extend to the fees in respect of the said taxation (3).

(1) This section only applies to arbitrations proceeding simply under the Lands Clauses Act, 1845, and not to arbitrations which embrace matters that could not be the subject of arbitration, under that Act, except by agreement between the parties: Doulton v. Metropolitan Board of Works, L. R. 5 Q. B. 333, 39 L. J. Q. B. 165, 18 W. R. 790.

(2) The right to costs is entirely independent of the taxation of them, and an action can be maintained for them, though the amount has not been settled by taxation: Metropolitan District Ry. Co. v. Sharpe, 5 App. Cas. 425, 50 L. J. Q. B. 14, 43 L. T. N. S. 130, 28 W. R. 617, 44 J. P. 716. See also, Capell v. Great Western Ry. Co., 11 Q. B. D. 345, 52 L. J. Q. B. 345, 48 L. T. N. S. 505, 31 W. R. 555. When, by consent, matters in dispute were referred to an arbitrator who was also to determine the costs, and the arbitrator sent in his certificate of costs, the company were bound by the certificate and could not then get the costs taxed: Rowcliffe v. Devon and Somerset Ry. Co., 21 W. R. 433; and when the parties have made a special agreement as to costs, the company cannot afterwards get them taxed under this section: Wombwell v. Corporation of Barnsley, 36 L. T. N. S. 708.

The master is not bound under this section, to tax the costs of an arbitration unless the claimant is entitled to costs under section 34 of the Act of 1845: Fitzhardinge v. Gloucester and Berkeley Canal Co., L. R. 7 Q. B. 776, 41 L. J. Q. B. 316, 27 L. T. N. S. 196, 20 W. R. 800.

Where costs are taxed under this section, the Court has no jurisdiction over the master's taxation on a motion to review: Sandback Charity Trustees v. North Staffordshire Ry. Co., 3 Q. B. D. 1, 47 L. J. Q. B. 10, 37 L. T. N. S. 391, 26 W. R. 229.

(3) As to the fees payable to masters for such taxations of costs, see 31 & 32 Vict. c. 119, s. 45.

2. Section thirty-three of the Regulation of Railways Act, 1868, is hereby repealed, and any proceedings commenced in pursuance of that section may be continued under this Act as if they had been commenced under it ⁽¹⁾. Secs. 2—4.

3. Where any lands by the special Act authorised to be taken are situate within the city and liberty of Westminster, then, with respect to those lands, in every case in which any question of disputed compensation is required by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or any Act amending the same, to be determined by the verdict of a jury, the high bailiff of the city and liberty of Westminster, or his deputy shall be deemed to be substituted for the sheriff throughout such of the enactments of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and any Act amending the same as relate to the reference to a jury. Repeal of 31 & 32 Vict. c. 119, s. 33. Provision respecting lands in Westminster.

4. This Act may be cited as "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1869," and shall be construed as one with the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, and these Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869. Short title. Construction of Acts.

(1) This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1883 (46 & 47 Vict. c. 39).

THE LANDS CLAUSES (UMPIRE) ACT, 1883.

46 & 47 VICT. c. 15.

An Act to amend the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845. [18th June, 1883.]

Secs. 1—2.

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 18.

Whereas it is expedient that the provisions contained in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, in relation to the appointment of umpires should be amended :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Amendment of section 28 of 8 Vict. c. 18, extending the power of appointment of umpire by Board of Trade.

1. The following words in section twenty-eight of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, are hereby repealed, that is to say, "in any case in which a railway company shall be one party to the arbitration, and two justices in any other case," and that section shall, in relation to the appointment of any umpire under the provisions thereof after the passing of this Act, apply as if such words were omitted, and the same section shall accordingly be read and have effect as follows :

28. If in either of the cases aforesaid the said arbitrators shall refuse or shall for seven days after request of either party to such arbitration neglect to appoint an umpire, the Board of Trade shall, on the application of either party to such arbitration, appoint an umpire, and the decision of such umpire on the matters on which the arbitrators shall differ, or which shall be referred to him under this or the special Act, shall be final.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Lands Clauses (Umpire) Act, 1883.

THE TOWNS IMPROVEMENT CLAUSES ACT, 1847.

10 & 11 VICT. c. 34.

An Act for consolidating in One Act certain Provisions usually contained in Acts for paving, draining, cleansing, lighting, and improving Towns ⁽¹⁾. [21st June, 1847.]

Whereas it is expedient to comprise in one Act sundry provisions usually contained in Acts of Parliament for paving, draining, cleansing, lighting, and improving towns and populous districts, and that as well for avoiding the necessity of repeating such provisions in each of the several Acts relating to such towns or districts as for ensuring greater uniformity in the provisions themselves: Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that this Act shall extend only to such towns or districts in England or Ireland as shall be comprised in any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed which shall declare that this Act shall be incorporated therewith; and all the clauses of this Act, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted by any such Act ⁽²⁾, shall apply to the town or district which shall be comprised in such Act, and to the Commissioners appointed for improving and regulating the same, so far as such clauses shall be applicable thereto respectively, and shall, with the clauses of every other Act which shall be incorporated therewith, form part of such Act, and be construed therewith as forming one Act

Section 1.

Extent of Act.

Interpretations in this Act.

⁽¹⁾ As to the meaning of the word "town," see note ⁽⁵⁾, ante, p. 973.

It would seem that the word "town" would include the collection of buildings from time to time added to and called the town: Collier v. Worth, 1 Ex. D. 464, 35 L. T. N. S. 345. See also Commissioners of Milton v. Faversham District Highway Board, 10 B. & S. 548 n.

Section 160 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 131, incorporates, in regard to urban districts, the following provisions of this Act:—

- (1) With respect to naming the streets and numbering the houses, i.e., sections 64, 65.
- (2) With respect to improving the line of the streets and removing obstructions, i.e., sections 66—74.
- (3) With respect to ruinous or dangerous buildings, i.e., sections 75—78.
- (4) With respect to precautions during the construction and repair of the sewers, streets, and houses, i.e., sections 79—83.

And section 169 of the same Act, ante, p. 139, incorporates, in regard to urban districts, the provisions of this Act with respect to slaughter-houses, i.e., sections 125—131.

As to the construction of the provisions so incorporated, and as to the recovery and application of penalties, see section 316 of the same Act, ante, p. 215. By the same section, "the commissioners," in the incorporated provisions, means the urban or sanitary authority.

The above provisions and some others were also incorporated in the Local Government Act, 1858, by section 45 of that Act; but that Act has been repealed by section 343 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 224.

⁽²⁾ See Mayor of Blackburn v. Parkinson, 1 E. & E. 71, 28 L. J. M. C. 7; Att.-Gen. v. Corporation of Leeds, L. R. 5 Ch. 583, 39 L. J. Ch. 711, 19 W. R. 19.

Secs. 1—3.	in part with any other Act, and of any Act incorporated therewith, be it enacted as follows:
"The special Act."	2. The expression "the special Act" used in this Act shall be construed to mean any Act which shall be hereafter passed for the improvement or regulation of any town or district, or of any class of towns or districts defined or comprised therein, and with which "Prescribed."	this Act shall be incorporated; and the word "prescribed" used in reference to any matter herein stated shall be construed to refer to such matter as the same shall be prescribed or provided for in the special Act, and the sentence in which such word shall occur shall be construed as if, instead of the word "prescribed," the expression "prescribed for that purpose in the special Act" had been used; and the expression "the commissioners" ⁽¹⁾ shall mean the commissioners, trustees, or other persons or body corporate intrusted by the special Act with powers for executing the purposes thereof.
"The commissioners."
Interpretations in this and the special Act. Number.	3. The following words and expressions in both this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,) Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number:
Gender.	Words importing the masculine gender shall include females:
"Person."	The word "person" shall include a corporation, whether aggregate or sole:
"Lands."	The word "land" shall include messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of any tenure:
"Street."	The word "street" ⁽²⁾ shall extend to and include any road, square, court, alley, and thoroughfare within the limits of the special Act:
"Month."	The word "month" shall mean calendar month:
"Superior courts."	The expression "Superior Courts" shall mean Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, as the case may require, and shall include the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster and the Court of Pleas of the county of Durham:
"Oath."	The word "oath" shall include affirmation in the case of Quakers, and any declaration lawfully substituted for an oath in the case of any other persons allowed by law to make a declaration instead of taking an oath:
"County."	The word "county" shall include riding or other division of a county having a separate commission of the peace, and shall also include county of a city or county of a town:
"Justice."	The word "justice" shall mean justice of the peace acting for the place where the matter requiring the cognizance of any such justice arises; and where any matter is authorised or required to be done by two justices ⁽³⁾ , the expression "two justices" shall be understood to mean two or more justices met and acting together:
"Two justices."
"Quarter sessions."	The expression "quarter sessions" shall mean quarter sessions as defined in the special Act, and if such expression be not there defined shall mean the court of general or quarter sessions of the peace which shall be held in or at the place nearest to the district in which the matter arises requiring the cognizance of any such court, and having jurisdiction over such district:
"Owner."	The word "owner," used with reference to any lands or buildings in respect of which any work is required to be done, or any rate to be paid, under this or the special Act, shall mean the person for the time being entitled to receive, or who, if such lands or buildings were let to a tenant at rack-rent, would be entitled to receive the rack-rent from the occupier thereof:
"Cattle."	The word "cattle" shall include horses, asses, mules, sheep, goats, and swine.

⁽¹⁾ See note ⁽¹⁾ to p. 987.

⁽²⁾ As to the meaning of the word "street," see Curtis v. Embery, cited in the note to section 3 of the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, post, p. 1033; and see also R. v. Platts, cited in note to section 66, post, p. 1000.

⁽³⁾ In the Metropolitan Police Courts any one police magistrate can do alone any act which by law is directed to be done by more than one justice, by section 14 of 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71.

And by section 1 of 21 & 22 Vict. c. 73, the same power is extended to every stipendiary magistrate.

And with respect to citing this Act, or any part thereof, be it enacted as follows :—

Secs. 4—9.

4. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal instruments, it shall be enough to use the expression “The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847.”

Short title of this Act.

5. For the purpose of incorporating part only of this Act with any Act hereafter to be passed, it shall be enough to describe the clauses of this Act with respect to any matter in the words introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter, and to enact that the clauses so described, or that this Act, with the exception of the clauses so described, shall be incorporated with such Act ; and thereupon all the clauses of this Act so incorporated shall, save so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by such Act, form part of such Act, and such Act shall be construed as if such clauses were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which such Act relates.

Form in which portions of this Act may be incorporated with other Acts.

And with respect to the officers to be appointed by the commissioners or under any General Town Improvement Act, be it enacted as follows :—

6. When by this or the special Act any matter is required to be submitted to, or to be done with the approval of, the inspector, such inspector shall be understood to mean an inspector appointed under any general Act passed in this or any future session of Parliament authorising the appointment of inspectors for inspecting or superintending works connected with paving, draining, or improving towns or populous districts ; and until such an officer is appointed under any such general Act, the commissioners, unless it be otherwise provided by the special Act, may proceed in the execution of this and the special Act without the approval of such officer, and as if no such officer had been mentioned in this or the special Act.

Until an inspector is appointed under some general Act, execution of works may be proceeded with without his approval.

7. The commissioners shall appoint, subject to the prescribed approval, or where no approval is prescribed, subject to approval by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, a person duly qualified, to act as a local surveyor of the paving, drainage, and other works authorised under the provisions of this and the special Act, and of any Act to be incorporated therewith, and, with the like approval, shall fix the salary to be paid to such surveyor, and shall pay such salary out of the rates levied under this or the special Act ; and if any such surveyor die, resign, or be removed, the commissioners shall, with the like approval, appoint another person, so duly qualified, in the room of the surveyor so dying, resigning, or removed ; and the commissioners, with the like approval, may remove any such surveyor.

Commissioners to appoint, subject to approval, a surveyor.

8. Every such surveyor upon his appointment, and before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall make and subscribe before the chairman of the commissioners a declaration to the effect following ; (that is to say.)

Surveyor, before entering upon office, to make the following declaration.

“I, A. B., the surveyor of the town [or district] of [here name the town or district] under the [here name the special Act], do declare, that I will diligently, faithfully, and impartially perform the duties of my office, and to the utmost of my power, skill, and ability endeavour to cause the several provisions of the said Act, and of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, to be strictly observed, and that without favour or affection, prejudice or malice, to any person whomsoever.”

9. The commissioners shall appoint some person, by the title of “inspector of nuisances” (¹), to superintend and enforce the due execution of all duties to be performed by the scavengers appointed under this or the special Act, and to report to the commissioners any breach of the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, or of the bye-laws, rules, and regulations of the commissioners, and the existence of any nuisances within the limits of the special Act ; and the commissioners shall duly publish the name of any inspector of nuisances appointed by them, and shall require him to provide and keep a book in which shall be entered all reasonable complaints made by any householder of the district within the limits of the special Act of any breach of the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, or of the bye-laws, rules, and regulations made by the commissioners for the preservation of due order and cleanliness or for the suppression of nuisances ; and the inspector of nuisances shall forthwith inquire into the truth of such complaints, and Commissioners shall appoint an inspector of nuisances.

(¹) Inspectors of nuisances may be appointed under the Public Health Act, 1875, by urban authorities under section 189 of that Act, ante, p. 150, and by rural authorities under section 190, ante, p. 151.

Secs. 9—14. report upon the same to the commissioners at their next meeting ; and such report, and the order of the commissioners thereon, shall be entered in the said book, which shall be kept at the office of the commissioners, and shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of any inhabitant of the said district or other person interested ; and it shall be the duty of such inspector of nuisances, subject to the direction of the commissioners, to make complaints before justices, and take legal proceedings for the punishment of any person who has committed any offence under this or the special Act, or under any bye-laws made by virtue thereof.

Surveyor and inspector of nuisances.

10. The commissioners may, if they think fit, appoint the same person to be both surveyor and inspector of nuisances.

Commissioners to provide offices for surveyor and inspector.

11. The commissioners shall provide offices for the use of the said surveyor and inspector in some convenient place within the limits of the special Act, either in connection with their own office or otherwise, as may be most convenient, and shall cause due notice thereof to be given twice at the least in some newspaper circulating within the said limits.

Power to appoint, subject to approval, an officer of health.

12 ⁽¹⁾. The commissioners may, if they think fit, appoint, subject to the prescribed approval, or, where no approval is prescribed, subject to the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, a person of competent skill and experience, who shall be styled "The Officer of Health," whose duty it shall be to ascertain the existence of diseases within the limits of the special Act, especially epidemics and contagious diseases, and to point out any nuisance or other local causes likely to cause and continue such diseases, or otherwise injure the health of the inhabitants, and to point out the best means for checking or preventing the spread of such diseases, within the limits aforesaid, and also the best means for the ventilation of churches, chapels, schools, registered lodging houses, and other public buildings within the limits aforesaid, and from time to time as required by the commissioners to report to them upon the matters aforesaid, and to perform any other duties of a like nature which may be required of him ; and the commissioners, with the same approval which is necessary for the appointment of the officer of health, shall fix the salary to be paid to such officer, and shall pay such salary out of the rates to be levied under this or the special Act ; and the commissioners, with the like approval, may discontinue such office, or remove any such officer of health.

And with respect to plans of the district within the limits of the special Act, and of the works to be executed under the powers of this and the special Act, be it enacted as follows :

Commissioners to cause a map of the district within the limits of the special Act to be made, and to be open to inspection.

13. The commissioners shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of the special Act, procure or cause to be made a survey and map of the district within the limits of the special Act on a scale of not less than sixty inches to a mile, and shall cause to be marked thereon the course of all the existing sewers and drains belonging to them or under their care or management, and, as far as can be ascertained, the lines of pipes or conduits for the collection or distribution of water, the course of the pipes for the distribution of gas, and such other works, with such other particulars as may be necessary in order to show the underground works within the said district, and shall cause the said map to be from time to time corrected, and such additions to be made thereto as may show the sewers and drains for the time being belonging to the commissioners, and such other pipes and underground works as aforesaid ; and such map and plan, or a copy thereof, with the date expressed thereon of the last time when it was so corrected, shall be kept in the office of the commissioners, and shall be open at all seasonable hours to the inspection of the owners or occupiers of any lands within such district.

Ordnance may furnish commissioners with maps, or cause surveys to be made.

14. The principal officers of Her Majesty's ordnance may, if they think fit, on the application of the commissioners, and at their expense, furnish for the use of the said commissioners one or more copies of any map of such district, or any part thereof, which shall have been made under the direction of the said ordnance officers, or may cause a survey to be made of the said district on a scale of not less than sixty inches to the mile by surveying officers appointed by them, for such remuneration as shall previously be agreed upon between the said principal officers and the commissioners. Secs. 14-19.

⁽¹⁾ See sections 189 and 190 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 150, 151, by which medical officers of health may be appointed, under that Act, in urban and rural districts respectively.

15. The commissioners shall cause to be marked on the map so procured or caused to be made by them a series of marks and figures at convenient distances on the said map, denoting the height of the ground at every such mark above or below the level of a particular spot within the limits of the special Act, which may be easily found and identified, the position of which spot shall be described on the map, and shall also cause to be drawn, wherever practicable, lines of equal altitude at every four feet of elevation, or at such other intervals as may appear, upon due inquiry, to be the best adapted for the guidance of works of sewerage and drainage, for the collection and distribution of water, and for other purposes within such district for which a knowledge of the levels of the district may be necessary, and shall also cause proper bench marks for denoting the levels to be inscribed and marked at convenient distances and places, at the corners of streets, on posts, houses, or other prominent objects within such district.

Level lines to be marked on map, and bench marks to be made for denoting the same.

16. The commissioners may cause every such plan to be copied, engraved, or printed, and coloured, in such manner as appears to them most convenient, and may defray the costs of any surveys and maps made under their direction, and any costs incurred by them in regard to any such ordnance map, out of the rates authorised to be levied under this and the special Act.

Commissioners may cause maps to be engraved, &c., and pay expenses out of rates.

17. The commissioners shall cause their surveyor to prepare plans of any new works, and additions to or alterations of existing works, that may be required for the effectual drainage of the houses and streets within such district, including provision for properly trapped drains or channels for the removal of all waste water and refuse from the houses and from the surface of the streets, and also to draw on such plans the lines that appear to him most advantageous for main sewers, and the best outfall for clearing the whole district of surface moisture, and effecting the drainage of the subsoil, and to point out the most appropriate means and sites for the collection and sale of filth and refuse for agricultural or other purposes, and also to set forth any other matters which may assist the commissioners in carrying into execution, in an economical and effective manner, the several works required to be carried into execution under the provisions of this and the special Act, or which appear to be necessary for the health and convenience of the inhabitants of such district.

Commissioners to cause plans to be prepared of alterations of new works or alterations of existing works.

18. Before giving notice of their intention to construct any work of which by this or the special Act they are required to give notice⁽¹⁾, the commissioners shall cause plans of the intended work to be made, under the direction of their surveyor, on a scale not less for a horizontal plan than one inch to eighty-eight feet, and for a vertical section not less than one inch to two feet, and in the case of a sewer, showing the depth of such sewer below the surface of the ground; and such plans shall be deposited in the office of the commissioners, or some other convenient place appointed for that purpose, and shall be open at all reasonable hours for the inspection of all persons interested therein during the time for which such notice is required to be given.

Before giving notice of construction of works, plans to be prepared and deposited in the office of the commissioners.

And with respect to taking lands, and the compensation to be made by the commissioners for damage done by them in execution of the powers of this and the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

19. Where by this or the special Act the commissioners shall be empowered to take or use for the purposes thereof any lands otherwise than with the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, they shall, in exercising the powers so given, be subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Act and in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845⁽²⁾; and the commissioners shall make to the owners and occupiers of and all other parties interested in any such lands taken or used for the purposes of this or the special Act full compensation for the value of the lands so taken or used, and for all damage sustained by such owners, occupiers, and other parties by reason of the exercise, as regards such lands, of the powers vested in the commissioners by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith; and, except where otherwise provided

The taking of lands to be subject to the provisions of this Act and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

⁽¹⁾ See section 84, post, p. 1005.

⁽²⁾ As to the provisions in the Lands Clauses Act for taking lands otherwise than by agreement, see sections 16-21, and sections 84 and 85 of that Act.

Secs. 19, 24. by this or the special Act, the amount of such compensation shall be determined in the manner provided by the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act for determining questions of compensation with regard to lands purchased or taken under the provisions thereof (1); and all the provisions of the last-mentioned Act shall be applicable to determine the amount of any such compensation, and to enforce the payment or other satisfaction thereof.

Errors and omissions in plans, &c., may be corrected by justices, who shall certify the same. Certificate to be deposited.

20 (2). If any omission, mis-statement, or wrong description shall have been made of any lands, or of the owners, lessees, or occupiers of any lands, mentioned in any schedule to the special Act, the commissioners, after giving ten days' notice to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands affected by such proposed correction, may apply to two justices for the correction thereof; and if it appear to such justices that such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description arose from mistake, they shall certify the same accordingly, and they shall in such certificate state the particulars of any such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description; and such certificate, with the other documents to which it relates, shall be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the county in which the lands affected thereby are situated, and such certificate shall be kept by such clerk of the peace with the other documents to which it relates, and thereupon such schedule shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate; and the commissioners may take any lands in accordance with such certificate as if such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description had not been made.

Commissioners to make compensation for damage done.

21. The commissioners shall make good all damage to any buildings or land by reason of altering the level of any street, or otherwise carrying into execution any of the powers of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, and shall pay to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of any such buildings or lands respectively such amount of compensation for such injury as shall be agreed upon between such owners, lessees, and occupiers and the commissioners; and if such owners, lessees, and occupiers and the commissioners cannot agree as to the amount of such compensation, and the proportions thereof to be paid to such owners, lessees, and occupiers respectively, then the amount of such compensation, and also the proportions which the persons claiming the same are entitled to, shall be determined in the manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, for determining questions of compensation with regard to lands purchased or taken under the provisions thereof (3); and all the provisions of the last-mentioned Act shall be applicable to determine the amount of any such compensation, and to enforce payment or other satisfaction thereof.

If parties cannot agree as to compensation, the same to be determined in manner provided by 7 & 8 Vict. c. 18.

And with respect to making and maintaining the public sewers (4), be it enacted as follows:

Management of sewers and other works vested in the commissioners.

22. All public sewers and drains within the limits of the special Act, and all sewers and drains in and under the streets, with all the works and materials thereunto belonging, whether made at the time of the passing of the special Act, or at any time thereafter, and whether made at the cost of the commissioners or otherwise, and the entire management of the same, shall vest in and belong to the commissioners.

Drainage districts to be formed subject to approval of inspector.

23. The commissioners shall from time to time, subject to the approval of the inspector, divide the whole town or district within the limits of the special Act, if and as occasion shall require, into separate drainage districts, having regard in such division to the nature of the ground, to the main lines of sewers by which such separate drainage districts are or shall be drained, and to the equal benefit as far as may be of all the lands and buildings to be comprised in any such drainage district, and shall cause their surveyor to define and describe the several drainage districts on a plan of the town or district within the limits of the special Act to be made as aforesaid.

Power to commissioners to 24 (5). The commissioners shall from time to time, subject to the restrictions herein

(1) As to the provisions for determining questions of compensation under the Lands Clauses Act, see sections 22—68, and sections 125 and 126 of that Act.

(2) Similar provisions are contained in section 7 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1845, and in section 7 of the Market Clauses Act.

(3) See sections 22—68, and sections 125 and 126 of the Lands Clauses Act.

(4) As to the regulations as to sewers and drains under the Public Health Act, 1875, see section 13 et seq. of that Act, ante, p. 52.

(5) Compare section 16 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 54.

contained as to the notice to be given, and the plans and estimates to be prepared, cause to be made under the streets such main and other sewers as shall be necessary for the effectual draining of the town or district within the limits of the special Act, and also all such reservoirs, sluices, engines, and other works as shall be necessary for cleansing such sewers, and, if needful, they may carry such sewers through and across all underground cellars and vaults under any of the streets, doing as little damage as may be, and making full compensation for any damage done; and if for completing any of the aforesaid works it be found necessary to carry them into or through any inclosed or other lands, the commissioners may carry the same into or through ⁽¹⁾ such lands accordingly, making full compensation to the owners and occupiers thereof, and they may also cause such sewers to communicate with and empty themselves into the sea or any public river ⁽²⁾, or they may cause the refuse from such sewers to be conveyed by a proper channel to the most convenient site for its collection and sale for agricultural or other purposes, as may be deemed most expedient, but so that the same shall in no case become a nuisance ⁽³⁾.

Secs. 24-27.

construct sewers where none exist, making compensation to owners of property.

25 ⁽³⁾. The commissioners may from time to time, as they see fit, enlarge, alter, arch over, and otherwise improve all or any of the sewers vested in them, and if any of such sewers at any time appear to them to have become useless, the commissioners, if they think fit to do so, may demolish and discontinue such sewer, provided that it be so done as not to create a nuisance ⁽⁴⁾.

Commissioners may alter sewers from time to time.

26. If any person by means of any enlargement, alteration, or discontinuance of any sewer or other proceeding of the commissioners, be deprived of the use of any sewer or drain which such person was theretofore lawfully entitled to use, the commissioners shall provide some other sewer or drain equally effectual for such purpose; and if the commissioners refuse or do not within seven days next after notice in writing served upon them begin and thereupon diligently proceed to restore to its former effective state such drain or sewer, the use whereof has been affected by the acts of the commissioners, or to provide such other sewer or drain as aforesaid, they shall forfeit to the person aggrieved any sum not exceeding forty shillings for every day after the expiration of such seven days during which he is deprived of the use of the drain or sewer to which he was so entitled, and is not provided with such other drain or sewer as aforesaid.

Commissioners not to destroy existing sewers, &c., without providing others.
Penalty for neglect.

27. Before entering into any contract for executing any such work as aforesaid, the commissioners shall procure from their surveyor an estimate of the probable expense of constructing the same in a substantial manner, and of the yearly expense of maintaining the same in repair, and each surveyor shall accompany such estimate with a report as to the most advantageous mode of constructing such work, whether under a contract for constructing the same merely, or a contract for constructing the same and maintaining it in repair during a given term of years; and the commissioners shall submit the

Commissioners to cause estimates to be prepared, and submitted to the inspector.

⁽¹⁾ Compare Roderick v. Aston Local Board, 5 Ch. D. 328, 46 L. J. Ch. 802, 36 L. T. N. S. 328, 25 W. R. 403.

⁽²⁾ Where an information was instituted, at the relation of the conservators of the river Thames, to restrain the corporation of Kingston-on-Thames from altering their drains so as to discharge a greatly-increased quantity of sewage into the river, the court, considering upon the evidence, that neither present nuisance, nor probability of immediate prospective nuisance, had been proved, dismissed the information without prejudice to future proceedings in the event of nuisance being subsequently caused: Att.-Gen. v. Mayor, &c., of Kingston-on-Thames, 34 L. J. Ch. 481, 11 Jur. N. S. 596, 12 L. T. N. S. 665, 13 W. R. 888.

The council of the borough of Birmingham were bound by a local Act, incorporating this Act, effectually to drain the town; it was held that they were not justified in so carrying on their operations for this purpose as to drive away fish, and prevent cattle from drinking of the water of a river at a part seven miles below the town and where it belonged to the plaintiff: Att.-Gen. v. Council of Borough of Birmingham, 4 K. & J. 528, 6 W. R. 811. See also Att.-Gen. v. Luton Board of Health, 27 L. T. 212, 2 Jur. N. S. 181; Att.-Gen. v. Leeds Corporation, L. R. 5 Ch. 583, 39 L. J. Ch. 711, 19 W. R. 19.

⁽³⁾ See section 18 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 56.

⁽⁴⁾ See Holt v. Corporation of Rochdale, L. R. 10 Eq. 354, 39 L. J. Ch. 761, 23 L. T. N. S. 43, 18 W. R. 885.

Secs. 27–34. plan and estimate of every such work, together with the report of their surveyor, to the inspector, who shall make in writing such observations or suggestions thereupon as may seem to him to be expedient; and if the commissioners do not regard or do not act in conformity with such observations or suggestions, they shall enter upon the minutes of their proceedings their reasons for not so doing.

As to the expense of making new sewers.

Where lands, &c., were sufficiently drained before making new sewer, occupier to have a reduction made in his rates.

As to the expense of maintaining sewers, &c.

Penalty for making unauthorised drains.

Vaults and cellars under streets not to be made without the consent of the commissioners.

Streets may be stopped for repairs.

All sewers, &c., to be covered with traps.

Sewers may be used by owners and occupiers of land beyond limits of town or district.

28. The expense of making any new sewer shall be defrayed as hereinafter provided ⁽¹⁾ by special sewer rates to be levied on the occupiers of all lands and buildings within the drainage district in which such sewer is situated: Provided always, that where in the judgment of the commissioners, and by allowance of the inspector, any lands or buildings were sufficiently drained before the making of such new sewer, the occupiers thereof shall be entitled to have such deduction made from the special sewer rates to which they would otherwise be liable in respect of the making of such new sewer, and for such time as the commissioners, with the approval of the inspector, shall deem to be just, having regard to the cost of making such new sewer, and to the value and efficiency of such old sewer; and whenever any old sewer is enlarged, or open sewer closed, the expense of such enlargement, or of closing such open sewer, shall be defrayed in like manner as if it had been incurred in making a new sewer.

29. The expense of maintaining and cleaning all sewers vested in the commissioners, and all other expenses connected with such sewers not hereinbefore provided for, or which may not be fully defrayed by the special sewer rates, shall be defrayed by general sewer rates to be levied as hereinafter provided ⁽²⁾ on the occupiers of all lands and buildings within the drainage district in which such sewers are severally situated.

30 ⁽³⁾. Every person, not being employed for that purpose by the commissioners, who shall make any drain into any of the sewers or drains so vested in the commissioners, shall forfeit to the commissioners a sum not exceeding five pounds, and the commissioners may cause such branch drain to be re-made as they think fit, and all the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the person making such branch drain, and shall be recoverable by the commissioners as damages.

31 ⁽⁴⁾. No building shall be erected over any sewer belonging to the commissioners, and no vault, arch, or cellar shall be made under the carriageway of any street, without the consent of the commissioners first obtained in writing, and all such vaults, arches, and cellars shall be substantially made, and so as not to interfere or communicate with any sewers belonging to the commissioners; and if after the passing of the special Act any building be erected, or any vault, arch, or cellar be made, contrary to the provisions herein contained, the commissioners may demolish or fill up the same, and the expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the person erecting such building, or making such vault, arch, or cellar, and shall be recoverable as damages.

32. The commissioners may stop any street, and prevent all persons from passing along and using the same, for a reasonable time during the construction, alteration, repair, or demolition of any sewer or drain in or under such street.

33 ⁽⁵⁾. All sewers and drains within the limits of the special Act, whether public or private, shall be provided by the commissioners or other persons to whom they severally belong with proper traps or other coverings or means of ventilation so as to prevent stench.

34 ⁽⁶⁾. Any person, being the owner or occupier of any lands beyond the limits of the special Act, and in respect of which he would not be liable to the payment of the rates authorised to be levied under this and the special Act, may with the consent of the commissioners first obtained in writing, upon payment to them of a reasonable sum of money to be agreed upon between them, at his own expense, and under the superintendence of the surveyor of the commissioners, cause to branch into and to communicate

⁽¹⁾ As to the making of special sewer rates, see section 157, post, p. 1020.

⁽²⁾ As to the making of general sewer rates, see section 158, post, p. 1020.

⁽³⁾ Compare section 21 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 57.

⁽⁴⁾ As to the penalty for unauthorised building over sewers in urban districts, see section 26 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 59.

⁽⁵⁾ Similar provisions for the covering and ventilation of sewers under the Public Health Act, 1875, are contained in section 19 of that Act, ante, p. 57.

⁽⁶⁾ Compare section 22 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 57.

with any of the sewers belonging to the commissioners any sewer or drain in respect of the said property which may be lawfully made therefrom of such size and in such manner and form of communication as the commissioners approve of: Provided always, that nothing in this or the special Act contained shall affect any right theretofore acquired by such owner or occupier to use any of the sewers or drains belonging to the commissioners under the provisions of this or the special Act. Secs. 34-40.

And with respect to the drainage of houses ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

35. If any house or building within the limits of the special Act be at any time not drained by a sufficient drain or pipe communicating with some sewer, or with the sea or some public river, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, and if there shall be such means of drainage within one hundred feet of any part of such house or building, the commissioners shall construct or lay from such house or building, a covered drain or pipe of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall, as they think necessary for the drainage of such house or buildings, its areas, waterclosets, privies, and offices; provided that the cost of executing such work shall not, without the written consent of the owner, exceed one year's rackrent of such house or building; and the expenses incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof, if not forthwith paid by the owner or occupier, shall be defrayed by the drainage rates hereinafter mentioned ⁽²⁾.

Commissioners empowered to construct drains from house, charging owner, &c., with the expense.

36. No house or building within the limits of the special Act shall be built upon a lower level than will allow of the drainage of the wash and refuse of such house or building into some sewer belonging to the commissioners either then existing or marked out upon the map hereinbefore directed to be made by them, or into the sea, or some public river into which the commissioners are empowered to empty their sewers; and if there be such means of drainage existing within one hundred feet of such intended house or building, the commissioners shall cause a drain leading thereunto from the intended site of such house to be made of such materials, of such size, at such level, and with such fall, as they think fit, or if there be no such means of drainage within one hundred feet of any part of the said intended site of such house or building, then such drain shall be made so as to lead into such covered cesspool or other place as the commissioners direct, not being under any dwelling house, and constructed to the satisfaction of the commissioners, so as effectually to prevent the escape of the contents thereof, until such sewer as aforesaid is made by the commissioners, when they shall make a drain to communicate with such new made sewer and shall demolish and fill up any such cesspool.

No house to be hereafter built without drains being constructed.

37. Whenever any house is rebuilt within the limits of the special Act, the level of the cellar or other lowest floor of such house shall be raised sufficiently to allow of the construction of such a drain as is hereinbefore provided in the case of houses to be built after the passing of the special Act; and whenever any house is taken down as low as the floor of the first story for the purpose of being built up again, such building shall be deemed a rebuilding within the meaning of this Act.

Where houses are rebuilt, the level shall be sufficient to allow a drain to be constructed.

38 ⁽³⁾. Before beginning to build any new house, or to rebuild any existing house, within the limits of the special Act, the person intending to build or rebuild such house shall give to the commissioners notice thereof in writing, and shall accompany such notice with a plan showing the level at which the foundation of such house is proposed to be laid by reference to some level ascertained under the direction of the commissioners.

Notice of buildings and re-buildings to be given to the commissioners.

39. Within fourteen days after receiving such notice the commissioners may signify their disapproval of the level at which it is proposed to lay the foundation of any such house, and in case of any such disapproval may within the said fourteen days fix the level at which the same is to be laid, subject to such right of appeal as is hereinafter mentioned.

Commissioners may signify disapproval within fourteen days.

40. In default of sending such notice and plan, or if such building be begun or made at any level different from that fixed by the commissioners within the said fourteen days, or determined on appeal as after mentioned, or in any other respect contrary to the provisions

Houses built without notice, or

⁽¹⁾ See the provisions as to sewerage and drainage under the Public Health Act, 1875, in section 13 et seq., of that Act, ante, p. 52.

⁽²⁾ As to such drainage rates, see sections 163-166, post.

⁽³⁾ As to this and the three following sections, compare sections 157 and 158 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and the notes thereto, ante, pp. 128-131.

Secs. 40-45. of this or the special Act, the commissioners may, if necessary, cause such building to be altered or demolished ⁽¹⁾, as the case requires, and the expense incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the person failing to comply with the provision aforesaid, and shall be recoverable as damages.

contrary to provisions of this or the special Act, may be altered.

If commissioners fail to signify their approval, &c., within fourteen days, parties may proceed without Commissioners may require owners of houses to provide privies and ashpits for the same.

Penalty for neglecting to provide privy, &c.

Drains, privies, and cesspools to be kept in good order by owners.

If owners neglect, commissioners may cause the same to be done, and charge the owners with the expense.

As to the inspection of drains, privies, and cesspools.

41. Provided always, that if the commissioners fail to signify in writing their approval or disapproval of the level shown on such plan as aforesaid within fourteen days after receiving such notice and plan as aforesaid, the person giving such notice may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, proceed to build or rebuild the house therein referred to according to the level shown on such plan, provided that such building or rebuilding be otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this and the special Act.

42 ⁽²⁾. The commissioners shall require the owner of every house within the said limits to which no sufficient privy and ashpit, with proper door and coverings, is attached, to provide, where it appears to them that there is room enough for the purpose, such privy and ashpit in such situation, not disturbing any building then already erected, as the commissioners deem necessary for the use of the inmates and occupiers thereof; and every such privy and ashpit shall be constructed to the satisfaction of the commissioners, so as effectually to prevent the escape of the contents thereof: Provided always, that where a privy and ashpit is used in common by the inmates and occupiers of two or more such houses, the commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with the provision of a privy and ashpit for each such house.

43 ⁽²⁾. The owner of any such house shall provide the same with a privy, with such door and covering to the same, and with such ashpit as aforesaid, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, within one month next after notice in writing for that purpose given by the commissioners to him or to the occupier of such house, and in default thereof the commissioners shall cause such privy and ashpit to be provided, so nevertheless that the cost of executing such work shall not, without the written consent of the owner, exceed one year's rackrent of such house or building; and the expense incurred thereby shall be defrayed by the drainage rates hereinafter mentioned.

44 ⁽²⁾. All branch drains, as well within as without the lands or buildings to which they belong, and all privies, ashpits, and cesspools within the limits of the special Act, shall be under the survey and control of the commissioners, and shall be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the costs and charges of the owners of the lands and buildings to which the same belong, or for the use of which they are constructed or continued; and if the owner and occupier of any land or buildings to which any such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool belongs neglect, during fourteen days after notice in writing for that purpose, to alter, repair, and to put the same into good order in the manner required by the commissioners, the commissioners may cause such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool to be altered, repaired, covered, and put in good order; and the expense incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the owners by whom the same ought to have been done, and shall be recoverable as damages.

45 ⁽²⁾. The surveyor of the commissioners may inspect any drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool within the limits of the special Act, and for that purpose, at all reasonable times in the daytime, after twenty-four hours' notice in writing to the occupier of the premises to which such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool is attached, may enter upon any lands and buildings, with such assistants and workmen as are necessary, and cause the ground to be opened where he thinks fit, doing as little damage as may be; and if such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool be found to be in proper order and condition, he shall cause the ground to be closed and made good as soon as may be; and the expenses of opening, closing, and making good such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool shall in that case be defrayed by the commissioners.

⁽¹⁾ Upon similar words in the 76th section of the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855 (18 & 19 Vict. c. 120), it was held that the district board could not legally demolish a house without giving to the owner an opportunity of showing cause why it should not be abolished: Cooper v. Wandsworth District Board, 32 L. J. C. P. 185, 14 C. B. N. S. 180, 9 Jur. N. S. 1155, 8 L. T. N. S. 278, 11 W. R. 646. Compare Masters v. Pontypool Local Government Board, 9 Ch. D. 677, 47 L. J. Ch. 797.

⁽²⁾ For the provisions as to privies in the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 35-41 of that Act, ante, pp. 62-64.

46. If any such drain, privy, or cesspool be on inspection found to have been constructed, after the passing of the special Act, contrary to the directions and regulations of the commissioners, or contrary to the provisions of this or the special Act, or if any person, without the consent of the commissioners, construct, rebuild, or unstop any drain, privy, or cesspool which has been ordered by them to be demolished or stopped up or not to be made, every person so doing shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds; and the commissioners may cause such amendment or alteration to be made in any such drain, privy, or cesspool as they think fit; and the expense attending any such amendment or alteration shall be paid by the person by whom such sewer was improperly constructed, rebuilt, or altered, and shall be recoverable from him as damages.

Secs. 46-52.

Penalty on persons making or altering drains, &c., contrary to the orders of the commissioners.

And with respect to paving and maintaining the streets (¹), be it enacted as follows:

47. The management of all the streets which at the passing of the special Act are or which thereafter become public highways, and the pavements and other materials, as well in the footways as carriageways of such streets, and all buildings, materials, implements, and other things provided for the purposes of the said highways, by the surveyors of highways or by the commissioners, shall belong to the commissioners.

Management of streets vested in the commissioners.

48 (²). The commissioners, and none other, shall be the surveyors of all highways within the limits of the special Act, and within those limits shall have all such powers and authorities, and be subject to all such liabilities (³), as any surveyors of highways are invested with or subject to by virtue of the laws for the time being in force; and the inhabitants of the district within the said limits shall not, in respect of any lands situate within the said district, be liable to the payment of any highway rate, grand jury cess, or other payment in respect of making and repairing roads within the other parts of the parish, township, barony, or place in which the said district or any part thereof is situate.

Commissioners to be surveyors of highways.

49. The commissioners shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour for refusing or neglecting to repair any public highway within the limits of the special Act, and shall be liable to be indicted for such misdemeanour in the same manner as the inhabitants thereof, or of any parish, township, or other district therein, were liable before the passing of the special Act.

Commissioners liable to indictment for want of repairs.

50. The trustees of any turnpike road (⁴) shall not collect any toll on any road within the limits of the special Act, or lay out any money thereon (⁵).

Road trustees not to collect tolls within limits of Act.

51. The commissioners may from time to time cause all or any of the streets under their management (⁶), or any part thereof respectively to be paved, flagged, or otherwise made good, and the ground or soil thereof to be raised, lowered, or altered, in such manner and with such materials as they think fit; and they may also pave or make, with such materials as they think fit, any footways for the use of passengers in any such street, and cause such streets and footways to be repaired from time to time.

Power for the commissioners to pave public streets.

52. The commissioners shall from time to time place such fences and posts on the side of the footways of the streets under their management as may be needed for the protection of passengers on such footways, and they may place posts in the carriageways of Commissioners may place fences to footways.

(¹) As to the meaning of "street," see the interpretation clause, ante, p. 988. See also, as to these provisions with respect to paving and maintaining the streets, the provisions contained in sections 149-152 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 117-125.

(²) See R. v. Slater, 16 Jur. 992, 18 Q. B. 398, 21 L. J. M. C. 185.

(³) Where the defendants (commissioners under this Act), had obtained a special Act incorporating this Act, it was held that an action lay against them in their corporate capacity, at the suit of a person who met with an injury in consequence of the non-repairs of a highway, within the limits of the special Act: Hartnall v. Ryde Commissioners, 10 Jur. N. S. 257, 4 B. & S. 361, 33 L. J. Q. B. 39.

(⁴) See Justices of Lancashire v. Mayor of Rochdale, 8 App. Cas. 494, 53 L. J. M. C. 5, 49 L. T. N. S. 368, 32 W. R. 65, 48 J. P. 20.

(⁵) See Clayton v. Fenwick, 6 E. & B. 114, 25 L. J. Q. B. 226, 2 Jur. N. S. 635.

(⁶) In an action of trespass against commissioners executing an act which contained a section, substantially the same as this section, it appeared that the defendants had caused a new street to be paved and lowered in a way that would have been justified if it had been an old street, or had been previously brought under their management, it was held, that the powers given to the commissioners, were not applicable to a new street, and that the plaintiffs were entitled to recover: Brown v. Clegg, 16 Q. B. 681.

Secs. 52-55. such streets, so as to make the crossing thereof less dangerous for foot passengers; and they shall from time to time repair any such fences or posts, or remove the same, or any obstructions to any such carriageway or footway, as they think fit ⁽¹⁾.

Where public streets have not heretofore been paved commissioners may cause them to be paved at the expense of the occupiers of adjoining lands.

53. If any street, although a public highway at the passing of the special Act, have not theretofore ⁽²⁾ been well and sufficiently paved and flagged or otherwise made good, the commissioners may cause such street, or the parts thereof not so paved and flagged or otherwise made good, to be paved and flagged or otherwise made good, in such manner as they think fit, and the expenses incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the occupiers of the lands abutting on such street, or such parts thereof as have not been theretofore well and sufficiently paved and flagged or otherwise made good, and such expenses shall be recoverable from such occupiers respectively as hereinafter provided with respect to private improvement expenses ⁽³⁾, and thereafter such street shall be repaired by the commissioners out of the rates levied under this or the special Act ⁽⁴⁾.

Future streets may be declared highways.

54. If any street, not being a public highway at the passing of the special Act, be then or thereafter paved, flagged, or otherwise made good, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, then, on the application of the greater part in value of the occupiers of the houses and lands in such street, the commissioners shall, by writing under their common seal if they be incorporated, or if they be not incorporated, then under the hands of five of the commissioners, declare the same to be a public highway, and thereupon the said street shall become a public highway, and shall be thereafter repaired by the commissioners, out of the rates levied under this and the special Act; and such declaration shall be entered among the proceedings of the commissioners, and notice of such declaration shall be put up in some conspicuous place in or near such street.

Commissioners, upon completion of two-thirds of any street may, upon application, require remaining one-third to be completed by owners of houses.

55. If any street, not being a public highway at the passing of the special Act, be thereafter to the extent of two-third parts thereof paved and flagged or otherwise made good to the satisfaction of the commissioners, then, on the application of the owners of the lands abutting on such parts of the said street as have been so made good, the commissioners may require the owners of the buildings or lands abutting on the remainder of the said street to pave and flag or otherwise make good to the satisfaction of the commissioners such remainder of the said street, or such parts thereof as front such last-mentioned buildings and lands, within a reasonable time, to be fixed by the commissioners; and if such remainder of the said street, or any such part thereof as aforesaid, be not made good as aforesaid within the time so fixed, the commissioners may cause the part not so made good to be made good, and the expenses which shall be incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall be repaid to them by the owners by whom such paving ought to have been done respectively; and such expenses, if not forthwith repaid by such owners, shall be recoverable from the occupiers of such buildings and lands as hereinafter provided with respect to private improvement expenses ⁽³⁾; and when the whole of the said street is paved and made good to the satisfaction of the commissioners, they shall, by writing, under their common seal if they be incorporated,

⁽¹⁾ The commissioners are liable, in their corporate capacity, to an action at the suit of a person injured by their negligent omission to fence a foot-path: Ohrby v. Ryde Commissioners, 33 L. J. Q. B. 296, 10 Jur. N. S. 1048, 12 W. R. 1079.

⁽²⁾ The word "theretofore" in this section is to be construed in its ordinary grammatical sense, and refers to streets which have at any time been well and sufficiently paved and flagged or otherwise made good to the satisfaction of the commissioners, and not to the state of such streets at the time of the passing of the special Act, incorporated with the general Act: R. v. Great Western Ry. Co., 28 L. J. M. C. 246. Where a street, which was a public highway, had once been put in good repair, but which at the time of the passing of the special Act, was out of repair, it was held that the commissioners had no power, under this section, to do the necessary repairs, and charge the expenses on the adjoining occupiers. Ib.

⁽³⁾ See section 156 et seq., post.

⁽⁴⁾ Where a local Act had incorporated this section without the private improvement expenses clauses, it was held that the last words of this section were in effect repealed and, consequently, no special remedy being provided for the recovery of expenses under this section, an action would lie to recover them, independently of section 149: Mayor, &c., of Portsmouth v. Smith, 46 L. T. N. S. 552.

or, if they be not incorporated, then under the hands of five of the commissioners, Secs. 55-62. declare the same to be a public highway; and thereupon the said street shall become a public highway, and shall for ever afterwards be repaired by the commissioners, and such declaration shall be entered among the proceedings of the commissioners.

56. Every person who wilfully displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, flags, or other materials of any street under the management of the commissioners, without their consent in writing, or without other lawful authority, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and also a further sum not exceeding five shillings for every square foot of the pavement, flags, or other materials of the street exceeding one square foot so displaced, taken up, or altered. Penalty on persons altering pavements without the consent of the commissioners.

And with respect to laying out new streets ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows :

57 ⁽²⁾. Every person who intends to make or lay out any new street shall give notice thereof to the commissioners, in order that the level of such street may be fixed by the commissioners. Notice of intention to lay out new streets to be given to commissioners.

58 ⁽²⁾. The level of every new street shall be fixed under the direction of the surveyor of the commissioners, subject to such right of appeal as hereafter mentioned; and the level so fixed, if not altered on appeal, shall be kept thereafter by every person raising any house or other building in such street. Levels to be fixed by the surveyor to the commissioners.

59. If the commissioners do not fix such level within six weeks from the time of the delivery of such notice as aforesaid, unless the fixing of such level be delayed by the appeal hereinafter provided, the person giving such notice may proceed to lay out the street at any level which will allow of compliance with the other provisions of this and the special Act, as if such level had been fixed by the commissioners; and in such case every change of the level which the commissioners afterwards deem requisite, and the works consequent thereon, shall be made by the commissioners, and the expense thereof, and any damage which any person sustains in consequence of such alteration, shall be defrayed by them. If the commissioners fail to fix the level, the party may proceed without.

60. Every person who makes or lays out any such new street as aforesaid, without causing such notice to be given to the commissioners as aforesaid, shall be liable to defray all the expenses consequent upon any change of the level of the said street deemed requisite by the commissioners; and every person who in building any house or other building in such street does not keep the level fixed by the commissioners shall be liable to defray all the expenses consequent upon any change of the level of that part of the street on which such house or building abuts which the commissioners deem requisite. Persons laying out streets without notice to be liable to the expenses of subsequent alterations of levels.

61. For the purposes of this or the special Act, if the commissioners deem it necessary to raise, sink, or otherwise alter the situation of any water pipe or gas pipe, or other waterworks or gasworks laid in any of the streets, they may from time to time, by notice in writing, require the person to whom any such pipes or works belong, to cause forthwith, as soon as conveniently may be, any such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or otherwise altered in position in such manner as the commissioners direct; provided that such alteration be not such as permanently to injure such works, or to prevent the water or gas from flowing as freely and conveniently as before; and the expenses attending such raising, sinking, or altering, and full compensation for every damage done thereby, shall be paid by the commissioners, as well to the persons to whom such pipes or works belong as to all other persons. Situation of gas and water pipes to be altered at the expense of the commissioners.

62. If the person to whom any such pipes or works belong do not proceed forthwith, or as soon as conveniently may be after the receipt of such notice, to cause the same to be raised, sunk, or altered, in such manner as the commissioners require, the commissioners may themselves cause such pipes or works to be raised, sunk, or altered as they think fit; provided that such works be not permanently injured thereby, or the water or gas prevented from flowing as freely and conveniently as before. If gas or water company neglect to make the alteration, the commissioners may cause the same to be done.

⁽¹⁾ As to the meaning of "street," see the interpretation clause, ante, p. 988.

⁽²⁾ See section 157 of the Public Health Act, 1875. ante, p. 128, by which urban authorities can make bye-laws with respect to the level, construction, and width of new streets.

Secs. 63–67.

As to the width of new streets.

Houses to be numbered and streets named.

Numbers of houses to be renewed by occupiers.

Houses may be set forward for improving line of street.

Commissioners may purchase houses or ground for effecting additional improvements.

63. It shall not be lawful to make or lay out any new street unless the same be of the prescribed width, or, where no width is prescribed, unless the same, being a carriage road, be at least thirty feet wide, or, not being a carriage road, be at least twenty feet wide.

And with respect to naming the streets and numbering the houses ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

64. The commissioners shall from time to time cause the houses and buildings in all or any of the streets to be marked with numbers as they think fit, and shall cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, building, or place at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every such street the name by which such street is to be known; and every person who destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such number or name, or puts up any number or name different from the number or name put up by the commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding forty shillings for every such offence.

65. The occupiers of houses and other buildings in the streets shall mark their houses with such numbers as the commissioners approve of, and shall renew such numbers as often as they become obliterated or defaced; and every such occupier who fails, within one week after notice for that purpose from the commissioners, to mark his house with a number approved of by the commissioners, or to renew such number when obliterated, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding forty shillings; and the commissioners shall cause such numbers to be marked or to be renewed, as the case may require, and the expense thereof shall be repaid to them by such occupier, and shall be recoverable as damages.

And with respect to improving the line of the streets ⁽³⁾, and removing obstruction ⁽⁴⁾, be it enacted as follows:

66 ⁽⁵⁾. The commissioners may allow, upon such terms as they think fit, any building within the limits of the special Act to be set forward, for improving the line of the street ⁽⁶⁾ in which such building, or any building adjacent thereto, is situated.

67. The commissioners may agree with the owners of any lands within the limits of the special Act for the absolute purchase thereof, for the purpose of widening, enlarging, or otherwise improving any of the streets, and they shall re-sell any parts of the land so purchased which shall not be wanted for the enlargement of the street ⁽⁷⁾.

⁽¹⁾ These provisions with respect to naming the streets and numbering the houses are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 160 of that Act, ante, p. 131; and by section 316, ante, p. 215, in all the provisions of this Act so incorporated, "The Commissioners" means the urban sanitary authority; and by the same section all penalties incurred under the provisions so incorporated are recoverable, as under the Public Health Act, 1875; as to which, see sections 251–254 of that Act, ante, pp. 181–184.

⁽²⁾ As to the recovery of such penalties, see preceding note.

⁽³⁾ As to the meaning of the word "street," see note to section 66, post.

⁽⁴⁾ These provisions with respect to improving the line of the streets, and removing obstructions, are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 160 of that Act, ante, p. 131, and by section 316, ante, p. 215, "the Commissioners" means the urban sanitary authority.

⁽⁵⁾ Compare section 156 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 127.

⁽⁶⁾ The word "street," as used in this section, does not include a road without a line of buildings, and the commissioners have no power, under this section, to divert any portion of a highway by widening it and obliterate a portion of the old highway which had thereby become necessary: R. v. Platts, 49 L. J. Q. B. 848, 43 L. T. N. S. 159, 28 W. R. 915.

"The word 'street' here means a road lined with buildings; that is to say, a street in the ordinary acceptation of the word." Per Lush, J. (ib.). Before a highroad which is not a street within this Act and the Public Health Act, 1875, can be obliterated and dealt with as no longer a highway, it is necessary to obtain a decision and order of a court of quarter sessions to that effect (ib.).

⁽⁷⁾ Compare section 154 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 126.

68. When any house or building, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of the street, or beyond the front of the house or building on either side thereof, has been taken down in order to be rebuilt or altered, the commissioners may require the same to be set backwards to or towards the line of the street, or the line of the adjoining houses or buildings, in such manner as the commissioners direct, for the improvement of such street: Provided always, that the commissioners shall make full compensation to the owner of any such house or building for any damage he thereby sustains⁽¹⁾.

Houses projecting beyond line of street, when taken down to be set back.

69. The commissioners may give notice⁽²⁾ to the occupier of any house or building to remove or alter any porch, shed, projecting window, step, cellar, cellar door or window, sign, sign post, sign iron, showboard, window shutter, wall, gate, or fence, or any other obstruction or projection erected or placed, after the passing of the special Act, against or in front of any house or building within the limits of the special Act, and which is an obstruction⁽³⁾ to the safe and convenient passage⁽⁴⁾ along any street; and such occupier shall, within fourteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the commissioners, and in default thereof shall be liable to a penalty⁽⁵⁾ not exceeding forty shillings; and the commissioners in such case may remove such obstruction or projection, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable as damages: Provided always, that, except in the case in which such obstructions or projections were made or put up by the occupier, such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the expense of removing the same from the rent payable by him to the owner⁽⁶⁾ of the house or building.

Future projections of houses, &c., to be removed on notice.

70⁽⁷⁾. If any such obstructions or projections were erected or placed against or in front⁽⁸⁾ of any house or building in any such street before the passing of the special Act, the commissioners may cause the same to be removed⁽⁹⁾ or altered as they think fit; provided that they give notice⁽¹⁰⁾ of such intended removal or alteration to the occupier of the house or building against or in front of which such obstruction or projection shall be made.

Commissioners may cause existing projections to be removed, and compensation to be made.

⁽¹⁾ Compare section 155 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 126.

⁽²⁾ By section 160 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 131, notices for alterations under the 69th, 70th, and 71st sections, directions under the 73rd section, and orders under the 74th section of this Act, may, at the option of the urban authority, be served on owners instead of occupiers, or on owners as well as occupiers, and the cost of works done under any of these sections may, when notices have been so served on owners, be recovered from owners instead of occupiers; and when such cost is recovered from occupiers, so much thereof may be deducted from the rent of the premises where the work is done as is allowed in the case of private improvement rates under that Act. As to such private improvement rates under the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 213–215 of that Act, ante, pp. 163, 164; and as to such deductions, see section 214 of that Act.

⁽³⁾ It would seem that if any of these things do project into the street, evidence to show that people were not incommoded by the projections is irrelevant: Read v. Perrett, 1 Ex. D. 349.

⁽⁴⁾ It would seem that a wall enclosing part of a street is an obstruction to the “safe and convenient passage along” the street within the meaning of this section, whatever may be the width of the uninclosed portion of the street: Bagshaw v. Buxton Local Board of Health, 1 Ch. D. 220, 45 L. J. Ch. 260, 34 L. T. N. S. 112, 24 W. R. 231, 40 J. P. 197. Compare Le Neve v. Vestry of Mile End Old Town, 8 E. & B. 1054, 27 L. J. Q. B. 208, 4 Jur. N. S. 660.

⁽⁵⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see note ⁽¹⁾ to section 64, ante.

⁽⁶⁾ As to the meaning of the word “owner,” compare Woodard v. Billericay Highway Board, 11 Ch. D. 214, 48 L. J. Ch. 535, 27 W. R. 593.

⁽⁷⁾ As to the amendment of this section, see note ⁽²⁾ to section 69, ante.

⁽⁸⁾ Compare Goldstraw v. Duckworth, L. R. 5 Q. B. D. 275, 49 L. J. M. C. 73, 28 W. R. 504, 42 L. T. N. S. 440, 44 J. P. 410, decided upon similar words in a local Act. As to the liability of an occupier for an injury caused by the falling of a lamp projecting over the street, see Tarry v. Ashton, 1 Q. B. D. 314, 45 L. J. Q. B. 260, 34 L. T. N. S. 97, 24 W. R. 581, 40 J. P. 439.

⁽⁹⁾ In a suit to restrain surveyors of highways from removing a wall inclosing a piece of ground alleged to form part of a highway, the court has jurisdiction to decide whether the land does or does not form part of the highway; and if the court comes to the conclusion that it does form part of the highway, an injunction to prevent the removal of the inclosure cannot be granted: Bagshaw v. Buxton Local Board of Health, supra.

⁽¹⁰⁾ See note ⁽²⁾ to section 69.

Secs. 70-75. be thirty days before such alteration or removal is begun, and, if such obstructions or projections shall have been lawfully made, they shall make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by such removal or alteration.

Doors in future to be made to open inwards.

71. All doors, gates⁽¹⁾, and bars put up after the passing of the special Act within the limits thereof, and which open upon any street, shall be hung or placed so as not to open outwards, except when, in the case of public buildings, the commissioners allow such doors, gates, or bars to be otherwise hung or placed; and if, except as aforesaid, any such door, gate, or bar be hung or placed so as to open outwards on any street, the occupier of of such house, building, yard, or land shall, within eight days after notice⁽²⁾ from the commissioners to that effect, cause the same to be altered so as not to open outwards; and in case he neglect so to do, the commissioners may make such alteration, and the expenses of such alteration shall be paid to the commissioners by such occupier, and shall be recoverable from him as damages, and he shall, in addition, be liable to a penalty⁽³⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

Doors opening outwards may be altered.

72. If any such door, gate, or bar was before the passing of the special Act hung so as to open outwards upon any street, the commissioners may alter the same, so that no part thereof when open shall project over any public way.

Coverings for cellar doors to be made by occupier.

73. When any opening is made in any pavement or footpath within the limits of the special Act, as an entrance into any vault or cellar, a door or covering shall be made by the occupier of such vault or cellar, of iron or such other materials, and in such manner as the commissioners direct, and such door or covering shall from time to time be kept in good repair by the occupier of such vault or cellar; and if such occupier do not within a reasonable time make such door or covering, or if he make any such door or covering contrary to the directions⁽⁴⁾ of the commissioners, or if he do not keep the same when properly made in good repair, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty⁽³⁾ not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for neglect.

Waterspouts to be affixed to houses or buildings.

74. The occupier of every house or building in, adjoining, or near to any street shall, within seven days next after service of an order⁽⁵⁾ of the commissioners for that purpose, put up and keep in good condition a shoot or trough of the whole length of such house or building, and shall connect the same either with a similar shoot on the adjoining house or with a pipe or trunk to be fixed to the front or side of such building from the roof to the ground, to carry the water from the roof thereof, in such manner that the water from such house, or any portico or projection therefrom, shall not fall upon the persons passing along the street, or flow over the footpath⁽⁶⁾; and in default of compliance with any such order within the period aforesaid, such occupier shall be liable to a penalty⁽³⁾ not exceeding forty shillings for every day that he shall so make default.

And with respect to ruinous or dangerous buildings⁽⁷⁾, be it enacted as follows:

Ruinous or dangerous buildings to

75. If any building or wall, or anything affixed thereon, within the limits of the special Act, be deemed by the surveyor of the commissioners to be in a ruinous state⁽⁸⁾, and dangerous to passengers or to the occupiers of the neighbouring buildings, such sur-

(1) As to the erection of gates across a highway, see the Highways Acts, 1835, s. 81, ante, p. 809; and as to the making of bye-laws regulating such gates, see the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878 (41 & 42 Vict. c. 77), s. 26, ante, p. 888.

(2) As to the service of such notices, see note (2) to section 69, ante.

(3) As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see note (1) to section 64, ante.

(4) As to the service of these directions upon owners instead of occupiers, see note (2) to section 69, ante.

(5) As to the service of these orders, see note (2) to section 69, ante.

(6) Allowing rain water to flow on to a highway from the eaves of houses, does not constitute a "wilfully obstructing the free passage of the highway," nor is it permitting filth, &c., to run on to the highway, within the meaning of section 72 of the Highways Act, 1835, ante, p. 802; Croasdill v. Ratcliffe, 5 L. T. N. S. 834, 26 J. P. 165.

(7) These provisions with respect to ruinous or dangerous buildings are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 160 of that Act, ante, p. 131, and by section 316 of the same Act, ante, p. 215, "The commissioners" means the urban sanitary authority.

(8) Compare Cheetham v. Mayor, &c., of Manchester, L. R. 10 C. P. 249, 44 L. J. C. P. 139, 32 L. T. N. S. 28, 39 J. P. 343, where it was held, upon similar provisions in a special Act, that the certificate of the surveyor, as to the dangerous condition of the premises, was conclusive and could not be questioned.

veyor shall immediately cause a proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passengers, and shall cause notice in writing to be given to the owner of such building or wall, if he be known and resident within the said limits, and shall also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof, if any, requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such building, wall, or other thing as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure such building, wall, or other thing within the space of three days after any such notice has been so given or put up as aforesaid, and complete such repairs, or taking down or securing, as speedily as the nature of the case will admit, the said surveyor may make complaint thereof before two justices, and it shall be lawful for such justices to order the owner, or in his default the occupier (if any), of such building, wall, or other thing, to take down, rebuild, repair, or otherwise secure, to the satisfaction of such surveyor, the same, or such part thereof as appears to them to be in a dangerous state, within a time to be fixed by such justices; and in case the same be not taken down, repaired, rebuilt, or otherwise secured within the time so limited, or if no owner or occupier can be found on whom to serve such order, the commissioners shall with all convenient speed cause all or so much of such building, wall, or other thing as shall be in a ruinous condition, and dangerous as aforesaid, to be taken down, repaired, rebuilt, or otherwise secured in such manner as shall be requisite; and all the expenses of putting up every such fence, and of taking down, repairing, rebuilding, or securing such building, wall, or other thing, shall be paid by the owner thereof.

76. If such owner can be found within the limits of the special Act, and if, on demand of the expenses aforesaid, he neglect or refuse to pay the same, then such expenses may be levied by distress, and any justice may issue his warrant accordingly.

77. If such owner cannot be found within the said limits, or sufficient distress of his goods and chattels within the said limits cannot be made, the commissioners, after giving twenty-eight days notice of their intention to do so, by posting a printed or written notice in a conspicuous place on such building, or on the land whereon such building stood, may take such building or land, provided that such expenses be not paid or tendered to them within the said twenty-eight days, making compensation to the owner of such building or land in the manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 ⁽¹⁾, in the case of lands taken otherwise than with the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, and the commissioners shall be entitled to deduct out of such compensation the amount of the expenses aforesaid, and may thereupon sell or otherwise dispose of the said building or land for the purposes of this Act.

78. If any such house or building as aforesaid, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the commissioners may sell the materials thereof, or so much of the same as shall be pulled down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred in respect of such house or building; and the commissioners shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such house or building, on demand; nevertheless, the commissioners, although they sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale as are hereinbefore given to them for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

And with respect to precautions during the construction and repair of the sewers, streets, and houses ⁽²⁾, be it enacted as follows:

79. The commissioners shall, during the construction or repair of any of the streets vested in them, and during the construction or repair of any sewers or drains, take proper precaution for guarding against accident, by shoring up and protecting the adjoining houses, and shall cause such bars or chains to be fixed across or in any of the

Secs. 75 79.
be taken down or secured by owners, &c.
If owner, &c., neglect to repair, commissioners may cause the same to be done, charging owner, &c., with the expenses.

The expenses to be levied by distress on the owner.
If owner cannot be found, commissioners may take the house or ground, making compensation provided by 7 & 8 Vict. c. 18.

Commissioners may sell the materials, restoring to the owner overplus arising from the sale.

Bars to be erected across streets while repairs or alterations are

⁽¹⁾ See sections 22—68 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ante, pp. 904—934.

⁽²⁾ These provisions, with respect to precautions during the construction and repair of the sewers, streets, and houses, are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 160 of that Act, ante, p. 131, and by section 316, ante, p. 215; in the incorporated provisions, “the commissioners” means the urban sanitary authority. As to the recovery and application of penalties, see note ⁽¹⁾ to section 64, ante.

Secs. 79-83. streets, to prevent the passage of carriages and horses while such works are carried on, as to them shall seem proper; and the commissioners shall cause any sewer or drain or other works, during the construction or repair thereof by them, to be lighted and guarded during the night, so as to prevent accidents ⁽¹⁾; and every person who takes down, alters, or removes any of the said bars or chains, or extinguishes any light, without the authority or consent of the commissioners, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding five pounds.

80. Every person intending to build or take down any building within the limits of the special Act, or to cause the same to be so done, or to alter or repair the outward part of any such building, or to cause the same to be so done, where any street or footway will be obstructed or rendered inconvenient by means of such work, shall before beginning the same cause sufficient hoards or fences to be put up, in order to separate the building where such works are being carried on from the street, with a convenient platform and handrail, if there be room enough, to serve as a footway for passengers, outside of such hoard or fence, and shall continue such hoard or fence, with such platform and handrail as aforesaid, standing and in good condition, to the satisfaction of the commissioners, during such time as the public safety or convenience requires, and shall in all cases in which it is necessary, in order to prevent accidents, cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night; and every such person who fails to put up such fence or hoard, or platform with such handrail as aforesaid, or to continue the same, respectively standing and in good condition as aforesaid during the time aforesaid, or who does not, while the said hoard or fence is standing, keep the same sufficiently lighted in the night, or who does not remove the same, when directed by the commissioners, within a reasonable time afterwards, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding five pounds, and a further penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding forty shillings for every day while such default is continued.

81. When any building materials, rubbish or other things are laid, or any hole ⁽⁴⁾ made, in any of the streets, whether the same be done by order of the commissioners or not, the person causing such materials or other things to be so laid, or such hole to be made, shall at his own expense cause a sufficient light to be fixed in a proper place upon or near the same, and continue such light every night from sun-setting to sun-rising while such materials or hole remain; and such person shall at his own expense cause such materials or other things and such hole to be sufficiently fenced and inclosed until such materials or other things are removed or the hole filled up or otherwise made secure; and every such person who fails so to light, fence, or inclose such materials or other things, or such hole, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding five pounds, and a further penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding forty shillings for every day while such default is continued ⁽³⁾.

82. In no case shall any such building materials or other things or such hole ⁽⁴⁾ be allowed to remain for an unnecessary time, under a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding five pounds to be paid for every such offence by the person who causes such materials or other things to be laid or such hole to be made, and a further penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every day during which such offence is continued after the conviction for such offence; and in any such case the proof that the time has not exceeded the necessary time shall be upon the person so causing such materials or other things to be laid, or causing such hole to be made.

83. If any building or hole ⁽⁴⁾ or any other place near any street be, for want of suffi-

⁽¹⁾ See section 56 of the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 794, and Fearnley v. Ormsby, 4 C. P. D. 136, 27 W. R. 823, 43 J. P. 384.

⁽²⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see note ⁽¹⁾, section 64, ante.

⁽³⁾ Where a local surveyor of highways, in repairing a road, placed stones thereon, and allowed them to remain at night insufficiently fenced and without sufficient light, it was held that he was properly convicted, under section 72 of the Highways Act, 1835 (ante, p. 802), of wilfully obstructing the highway: Fearnley v. Ormsby, 4 C. P. D. 136, 27 W. R. 823, 43 J. P. 384. See also, section 56 of the Highways Act, 1835, ante, p. 794.

⁽⁴⁾ A goit is not a hole within the meaning of this section: Wilson v. Mayor of Halifax, L. R. 3 Ex. 114, 37 L. J. Ex. 44, 17 L. T. N. S. 660, 16 W. R. 707, therefore, where the defendants, a local board, left unfenced a goit adjoining a public footpath within their district, by reason of which the plaintiff's husband, while using the footpath, fell into the goit and was drowned, it was held, that the defendants were not liable under this making, and lights placed at night.

Hoads to be set up during repairs.

Penalty for not lighting deposits of building materials or excavations.

Penalty for continuing deposits of building materials or excavations an unreasonable time.

Dangerous places to be

cient repair, protection, or inclosure, dangerous to the passengers along such street, the commissioners shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or inclosed so as to prevent danger therefrom; and the expenses of such repair, protection, or inclosure shall be repaid to the commissioners by the owner of the premises so repaired, protected, or inclosed, and shall be recoverable from him as damages.

Sec. 83-86. repaired or inclosed.

In and with respect to objections to the works to be constructed by or subject to the approval of the commissioners, be it enacted as follows:

84. Twenty-eight days at the least before fixing the level ⁽¹⁾ of any street which has not become a public highway, or any street which has not been theretofore levelled or paved, and before making any sewer where none was before, or altering the course or level of or abandoning or stopping any sewer, the commissioners shall give notice of their intention by posting a printed or written notice in a conspicuous place at each end of every such street through or in which such work is to be undertaken, which notice shall set forth the name or situation of the street intended to be levelled or paved, and the names of the places through or near which it is intended that the new sewer shall pass, or the existing sewer be altered or stopped up, and also the places of the beginning and the end thereof, and shall refer to plans of such intended work, and shall specify a place where such plans may be seen, and a time when and place where all persons interested in such intended work may be heard thereupon; and they shall at the same time give to the inspector notice of the said intended work, and of the time and place appointed for hearing objections thereto.

Commissioners to give notice of new levels or sewers.

85. The commissioners shall meet at the time and place mentioned in the said notice, to consider, in the presence of the inspector, or of the surveyor of the commissioners, any objections made against such intended work, and all persons interested therein, or likely to be aggrieved thereby, shall be entitled to be heard before the commissioners at such meeting; and thereupon the commissioners may, with the concurrence of the inspector, if any inspector has been appointed and is present at such meeting, or in the absence of the inspector, or if no inspector have been appointed, then in their discretion, abandon or make such alterations in the said intended work as they judge fit; and no such work to which any objection is made at such meeting at which any such inspector shall be present shall be executed unless the inspector, or if no inspector have been appointed, then unless the surveyor of the commissioners, after the person making such objection or his agent has been heard, certify that the work in his judgment ought to be executed, nor shall such work be begun until the end of seven days after an order for the execution thereof has been duly made by the commissioners, and entered in their books.

Meeting of
commissioners to hear objections in the presence of the inspector.

86 ⁽²⁾. Any person liable to pay or to contribute towards the expense of any of the works aforesaid, or otherwise aggrieved by any order of the commissioners relating thereto, may, at any time within seven days next after the making of any such order, give notice in writing to the commissioners that he intends to appeal against such order to the court of quarter sessions holden next after the expiration of ten days next after such notice, and along with such notice he shall give a statement in writing of the grounds of the appeal; and if within four days next after giving such notice the party enter into a recognisance before some justice, with two sufficient sureties, conditioned to try the appeal, and abide the order of the court, and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the court thereupon, the work so appealed against shall not be begun until after the judgment of the court upon such appeal; and such court, upon due proof of such notice and of such recognisance having been given and entered into, shall hear and determine the matter of the appeal, and shall make such order thereon, either confirming, quashing, or varying the same, and shall award such costs to either of the parties, as the court in its discretion thinks fit: Provided always, that the appellant shall not be heard in aggrieved by order of commissioners

Persons
may appeal to quarter
sessions.

section, as the section refers to holes caused in the construction and repair of houses, &c. (ib.)

⁽¹⁾ As to the levelling of streets in urban districts, see sections 149 and 150 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 117-124. By section 157 of the same Act, ante, p. 128, urban authorities have power to make bye-laws with respect to the level, &c., of new streets.

⁽²⁾ Compare the provisions as to appeal under the Public Health Act, 1875, in sections 268 and 269 of that Act, ante, pp. 192-194.

Secs. 86-92. support of such appeal unless such notice and statement have been given and such recognisance entered into as aforesaid, nor on the hearing of such appeal shall he go into evidence of any other grounds of appeal than those set forth in such statement as aforesaid.

And with respect to cleansing the streets ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows :

Commissioners to cause streets to be cleansed, and dust and ashes to be removed from the houses.

87. The commissioners shall cause all the streets, together with the foot pavements, from time to time to be properly swept and cleansed, and all dust and filth of every sort found thereon to be collected and removed, and shall cause all the dust, ashes, and rubbish ⁽²⁾ to be carried away from the houses and tenements of the inhabitants of the town or district within the limits of the special Act, at convenient hours and times, and shall cause the privies and cesspools within the said town or district to be from time to time emptied and cleansed in a sufficient and proper manner : Provided always, that the occupier of any house or tenement within the limits of the special Act may keep and remove any such soil, ashes, or rubbish as shall be made on his own premises, and shall be kept for manure, so that the same be not a nuisance to the inhabitants residing near such premises, and that the same be removed at such times and in such manner as shall be approved of by the commissioners.

Occupiers to cause footways to be swept.

88. The occupiers of buildings and lands within or adjoining the streets shall once in every day (Sundays excepted), before eight of the clock in the forenoon of each day, cause to be swept and cleansed the footways and pavements in front or at the side of their respective buildings and lands ; and every such occupier making default herein shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five shillings ; and for the purpose aforesaid, when any house shall be let in separate apartments, the person letting such apartments shall be deemed the occupier.

Penalty for neglect.

Commissioners may compound for sweeping footways.

89. The commissioners may compound, for such time as they think fit, with any person liable to sweep or clean any footway under the provisions of this or the special Act, for sweeping and cleaning the same in the manner directed by this or the special Act.

Dust, &c., collected to be vested in the commissioners.

90. The dust and filth which the commissioners shall cause to be collected from the streets, privies, sewers, and cesspools, and all the dust, ashes, and rubbish ⁽²⁾ which the commissioners shall cause to be collected and carried away from the houses or elsewhere within the said limits, shall be the property of the commissioners, and the commissioners shall have power to sell and dispose of the same as they think proper, and the money arising from the sale thereof shall be applied towards the purposes of the special Act.

Commissioners may provide lands, &c., for deposit of soil and materials.

91. The commissioners may from time to time provide places convenient for the deposit of the nightsoil, dung, ashes, and other filth and rubbish ⁽²⁾ to be collected under the authority of this or the special Act, and for stabling and keeping all horses, carts, implements, and other things required for the purposes of this or the special Act, or of any Act to be incorporated therewith ; and for any of such purposes the commissioners may purchase or hire any lands or buildings by them considered necessary, or they may cause any new building to be made upon any land which shall be purchased or hired by them under the provisions of this or the special Act.

Dust boxes to be erected by commissioners.

92. The commissioners, if they think fit so to do, may cause any number of moveable or fixed dust boxes or other conveniences, wherein dust and ashes may be deposited until removed and carried away, to be provided and placed in such of the streets as they shall judge necessary, and may require the occupiers of houses or tenements within such streets to cause all their dust and ashes to be deposited daily in the said dust boxes or other conveniences ; and every person who, after such dust boxes or conveniences have been so provided, shall deposit or cause or permit to be deposited any ashes or dust in any part of any street, except in some of the said dust boxes or other conveniences, and every person who shall lay or cause to be laid any dirt, dung, or other filth in any part of any street, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding ten shillings.

⁽¹⁾ The provisions with respect to cleansing streets and houses under the Public Health Act, 1875, are contained in sections 42-47 of that Act, ante, pp. 65-67.

⁽²⁾ Under this section the commissioners are bound to remove only domestic rubbish, but not the dust, ashes and rubbish of a manufactory: Lyndon v. Standbridge, 2 H. & N. 45, 26 L. J. Ex. 386, 29 L. T. 111, 5 W. R. 590. Compare Law v. Dodd, 17 L. J. M. C. 65, 1 Exch. 845.

93. The commissioners may erect such public urinals within the limits of the special Act, and in such situations as they think fit, and may defray the expense thereof, and of keeping the same in good order, and may make compensation for any injury occasioned to any person by the erection thereof, out of the moneys to be levied under this and the special Act. Secs. 93-98.

Commissioners may cause public conveniences to be erected.
Commissioners to cause streets to be watered, and wells, pumps, &c., to be provided.

94. The commissioners shall, as often as occasion requires, cause the streets to be watered, and they may contract with any water company or other party for a supply of water for that purpose, and for cleansing the sewers and drains; and, if necessary, they may place pipes, conduits, and pumps in any of the streets, or provide any other works and engines proper for that purpose, and remove and alter the same when and as they think proper.

Commissioners to appoint scavengers

95. The commissioners shall appoint and employ a sufficient number of scavengers, or contract with any company or other person to employ scavengers, for sweeping, cleansing, and watering the streets, and for removing all dust, ashes, rubbish, and filth (¹) therefrom, and from the houses and tenements therein, and for emptying privies and cesspools, in the manner by this or the special Act directed; and such scavengers shall, on such days and at such hours, and in such manner as the commissioners from time to time appoint, sufficiently execute all such works and duties as they have respectively contracted or been employed to perform; and every such contractor who fails to sweep and properly cleanse or water any street which he has contracted to sweep, cleanse, or water, or who fails to clean out and empty any privy, cesspool, or sewer which he has contracted to clean out and empty, at the time and in the manner appointed by the commissioners, or to collect or remove any dirt, ashes, or rubbish which he has contracted to remove, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the commissioners for that purpose, or who lays any of such soil, dust, ashes, rubbish, or filth in any other place than such as are appointed by the commissioners for that purpose, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty for obstructing
scavengers.

96. Every occupier of any building or land within the said limits, and every other person who refuses to permit the said scavengers to remove such dirt, ashes, or rubbish (¹), as by this or the special Act they are authorised to do, or who obstructs the said scavengers in the performance of their duty, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty on persons other than scavengers
removing dirt.

97. Every person other than the person employed by the commissioners, or by some person contracting with the commissioners for that purpose, who collects or carries away any nightsoil, dust, ashes, rubbish, or filth (¹) by this or the special Act directed to be removed by persons employed by the commissioners, from any street or public place within the limits of the special Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every such offence (²).

Penalty for conveying offensive matter at improper times.

98. The commissioners may from time to time fix the hours within which only it shall be lawful to empty privies or remove offensive matter within the limits of the special Act; and when the commissioners have fixed such hours, and given public notice thereof, every person who within the limits of the special Act empties or begins to empty any privy, or removes along any thoroughfare within the said limits any offensive matter, at any time except within the hours so fixed, and also every person who at any time, whether such hours have been fixed by the commissioners or not, uses for any such purpose any cart or carriage not having a covering proper for preventing the escape of the contents of such cart, or of the stench thereof, or who wilfully slops or spills any such offensive matter in the removal thereof, or who does not carefully sweep and clean every place in which any such offensive matter has been placed, or unavoidably slopped or spilled, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, and in default of the apprehension of the actual offender, the driver or person having

(¹) See preceding note.

(²) This section, rendering it unlawful for any person, not employed by the commissioners, to remove dirt from the streets, was held to have destroyed an alleged custom for the inhabitants of a district, under a Local Improvement Act, to cleanse their streets, and throw into the sewers and streams such part of the mud and soil as could not be conveniently carted away: Evans v. Corporation of Birmingham, 21 L. T. 182.

Secs. 98— the care of the cart or carriage employed for any such purpose shall be deemed to be 102. the offender.

Stagnant pools of water and other annoyances
to be removed.

And with respect to the prevention of nuisances ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

99 ⁽²⁾. No person shall suffer any waste or stagnant water to remain in any cellar or other place within any house belonging to or occupied by him within the limits of the special Act, so as to be a nuisance; and every person who so suffers any such water to remain for forty-eight hours after receiving notice from the commissioners to remove the same, and every person who allows the contents of any privy or cesspool to overflow or soak therefrom, to the annoyance of the occupiers of any adjoining property, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, and to a further penalty not exceeding five shillings for every day during which such nuisance continues; and the commissioners may drain and cleanse out any stagnant pools, ditches, or ponds of water within the limits of the special Act, and abate any such nuisance as aforesaid, and for that purpose may enter, by their officers and workmen, into and upon any building or land within the said limits at all reasonable times, and do all necessary acts for any of the purposes aforesaid; and the expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the person committing such offence, or occupying the building or land whence such annoyance proceeds, and if there be no occupier, by the owner of such building or land, and shall be recoverable as damages.

Regulations to prevent accumulation of dung, &c.

100 ⁽³⁾. If the dung or soil of any stable, cowhouse, or pigstye or other collection of refuse matter, elsewhere than in any farmyard, be at any time allowed to accumulate within the limits of the special Act for more than thirty days, or for more than seven days after a quantity exceeding one ton has been collected in any place not allowed by the commissioners, such dung, soil, or refuse, if not removed within forty-eight hours after notice from any officer of the commissioners for that purpose, shall become the property of the commissioners, and they or any person with whom they have at that time any subsisting contract for the removal of refuse, may sell and dispose of the same, and the money thence arising shall be applied towards the purposes of the special Act.

On certificate of the officer of health, filth
to be removed.

101 ⁽⁴⁾. If at any time the officer of health, or, if for the time being there be no officer of health, any two surgeons or physicians, or one surgeon and one physician, residing within the limits of the special Act, certify under his or their hand to the commissioners that any accumulation of dung, soil, or filth, or other noxious or offensive matter within the limits of the special Act, ought to be removed, as being injurious to the health of the inhabitants, the clerk to the commissioners shall forthwith give notice to the owner or reputed owner of such dung, soil, or filth, or to the occupier of the land where the same are, to remove the same within twenty-four hours after such notice; and in case of failure to comply with such notice the said dung, soil, or filth shall thereupon become vested in the commissioners, and they, or any person with whom they have at that time contracted for the removal of all such refuse may sell and dispose of the same, and the money thence arising shall be applied towards the purposes of the special Act.

Houses to be whitewashed and purified on certificate of officer of health, &c.

102 ⁽⁵⁾. If at any time the officer of health, or, if for the time being there be no officer of health, any two surgeons or physicians, or one surgeon and one physician, residing within the said limits, certify under his or their hands to the commissioners that any house or part of any house or building within the limits of the special Act is in such a filthy or unwholesome condition that the health of the inmates or of the neighbours is thereby affected or endangered, or that the whitewashing, cleansing, or purifying of any house or building or any part thereof would tend to prevent or check infectious or contagious disease therein, or that any drain, privy, or cesspool is in such a defective state that the health of the neighbours is thereby affected or endangered, the commissioners

(1) For the definition and the different kinds of nuisances, see note ⁽⁶⁾, ante, p. 87. See also the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1875, relating to nuisances (i.e., sections 91—110), ante, pp. 87—100.

(2) Compare sub-section 2 of section 91 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 89.

(3) Compare sub-section 4 of section 91 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 89.

(4) Compare sections 49 and 50 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 68, as to the removal of filth in urban districts.

(5) See section 46 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 66.

shall order the occupier of such house or part thereof to whitewash, cleanse, and purify the same, and the owner of such drain, privy, or cesspool to amend the condition thereof, in such manner and within such time as the commissioners deem reasonable; and if such occupier or owner do not comply with such order he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten shillings for every day's neglect thereof; and in such case the commissioners may cause such house or any part thereof to be whitewashed, cleansed, or purified, or the condition of such drain, privy, or cesspool to be amended, and may recover the expense thereof from such occupier or owner in the same manner as damages.

Secs. 102—
106.

103. No coffin containing a corpse shall be buried in any grave within the limits of the special Act, not being a vault or catacomb, without at least thirty inches of soil between the ordinary surface of such burial ground and the upper side of the coffin; and if the person having the preparation or the immediate charge of the preparation of the grave to receive such coffin permit the coffin to be buried in such grave, or if the person having the control of the burial ground knowingly permit any coffin to be buried in any grave in which there is not left after the burial thereof thirty inches at the least of soil, measuring from the ordinary surface of such burial ground to the upper side of the coffin, the person having the immediate charge of the preparation of the grave, and the person having the control of the burial ground in which such burial is made, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

No interment in any grave without leaving two feet six inches clear of soil above the coffin.

104⁽¹⁾. If any candle-house, melting-house, melting-place, or soap-house, or any slaughter-house, or any building or place for boiling offal or blood, or for boiling or crushing bones, or any pig-stye, necessary house, dunghill, manure heap, or any manufactory, building, or place of business within the limits of the special Act, be at any time certified to the commissioners by the inspector of nuisances or officer of health, or, if for the time being there be no inspector of nuisances or officer of health, by any two surgeons or physicians, or one surgeon and one physician, to be a nuisance or injurious to the health⁽²⁾ of the inhabitants, the commissioners shall direct complaint to be made before two justices; and any justice may summon before any two justices the person by or on whose behalf the work complained of is carried on, and such justices shall inquire into such complaint, and they may, by an order in writing under their hands, order such person to discontinue or remedy the nuisance within such time as to them shall appear expedient: Provided always, that if it appear to such justices that in carrying on any business complained of the best means then known to be available for mitigating the nuisance or the injurious effects of such business have not been adopted, they may suspend their final determination, upon condition that the person so complained against shall undertake to adopt within a reasonable time such means as the said justices shall judge to be practicable and order to be carried into effect for mitigating or preventing the injurious effects of such business.

Justices may order nuisances to be abated.

105⁽³⁾. If any such nuisance, or the cause of any such injurious effects as aforesaid, be not discontinued or remedied within such time as shall be ordered by the said justices, the person by or on whose behalf the business causing such nuisance is carried on shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every day during which such nuisance shall be continued or unremedied after the expiration of such time as aforesaid: Provided always, that when any person who thinks himself aggrieved by any such order shall, according to the provisions of this or the special Act, appeal against any such order, such person shall not be liable to discontinue or remedy the nuisance or cause of the injurious effects mentioned therein, or to pay any penalty, until after the expiration of five days after the determination of such appeal and the confirmation of such order, unless such appeal cease to be prosecuted.

Penalty for disobedience of orders of justices.

106⁽⁴⁾. The commissioners may direct any prosecution for any public nuisance whatsoever created, permitted, or suffered within the limits of the special Act, and may order proceedings to be taken for the recovery of any penalties, and for the punishment of any

Commissioners to order costs of prosecutions

(1) As to the abatement of such nuisances in any urban district, see section 114 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 101, 102.

(2) See note (2), ante, p. 101.

(3) See section 114 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 102.

(4) Compare 107 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 99.

Secs. 106— persons offending against the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, and may order the expenses of such prosecution or other proceedings to be paid out of the rates authorised to be imposed under the provisions of this and the special Act.

109. to be paid out of the rates.

Act not to affect nuisances at common law.

107. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render lawful any act or omission on the part of any person which is, or but for this Act would be, deemed to be a nuisance at common law, nor to exempt any person guilty of a nuisance at common law from prosecution or action in respect thereof, according to the forms of proceeding at common law, nor from the consequences, upon being convicted thereof ⁽¹⁾.

And with respect to the prevention of smoke, be it enacted as follows:

Fireplaces of factories, &c., to consume their own smoke.

108 ⁽²⁾. Every fireplace or furnace constructed after the passing of the special Act, in order to be used within the limits of such Act in the working of engines by steam, or in any mill, factory, dyehouse, brewery, bakehouse, gaswork, or in any manufactory whatsoever (although a steam engine be not used or employed therein), shall be so constructed as to consume the smoke ⁽³⁾ arising from the combustibles used in such fireplace or furnace; and every such fireplace or furnace existing within the said limits at the date of the passing of the special Act, used for the purposes aforesaid, not so constructed as to consume the smoke arising from such fireplace or furnace, shall within the prescribed period, or if no period be prescribed, then within two years after the passing of the special Act, be so altered in its construction as to consume such smoke; and if after such period any person use for any of the purposes aforesaid any fireplace or furnace not so constructed as aforesaid, or if at any time any person use any such fireplace or furnace constructed after the passing of the special Act, and not so constructed as aforesaid, or so negligently use any such fireplace or furnace as not to consume the smoke arising from the combustibles used therein, every person so offending shall be liable to a penalty of forty shillings for every day during any part of which such furnace or fireplace shall be so used and continued after one month's notice in writing shall have been given to the owner or occupier of such furnace or fireplace by the commissioners to remedy or discontinue the use of the same.

And with respect to the construction of houses for prevention of fire ⁽⁴⁾, be it enacted as follows:

Party walls to be carried up through the roof.

Walls of buildings and coverings of roofs to be

109. The party ⁽⁵⁾ walls of all buildings erected after the passing of the special Act within the limits thereof shall be carried through and above the roof, to form a parapet of not less than twelve inches in height, measured at right angles with the slope of the roof, above the covering of the roof of the highest building to which such party walls belong; and all such party walls, and the external walls of all buildings, erected after the passing of the special Act, in or near any street, or within the curtilage of any house adjoining any street, shall be constructed of incombustible materials, and the coverings

⁽¹⁾ Where a special Act incorporated the provisions of this Act as to making and maintaining public sewers and the drainage of houses, except so far as they were inconsistent with it, or expressly varied or excepted by it, and by a section of the special Act the corporation were authorised to construct one or more trunk or other sewer or sewers, sufficiently capacious to receive the foul and drainage water and filth of the town and convey the same into the river A., it was held that the power to drain into the river was controlled by section 24 of this Act, and also by section 107, though that clause was not expressly incorporated in the local Act; and that the corporation were not authorised by the section of the local Act to create a nuisance by draining into the river: Att.-Gen. v. Leeds Corporation, L. R. 5 Ch. 583, 39 L. J. Ch. 711, 19 W. R. 19.

⁽²⁾ Compare sub-section 7 of section 91 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 90.

⁽³⁾ The Birmingham Improvement Act, 1851, incorporated this section, with a provision that the penalty may be remitted if the furnace consumed the smoke, "as far as possible;" it was held that "as far as possible" meant as far as possible consistently with carrying on the trade in which the furnace was employed: Cooper v. Wooley, L. R. 2 Ex. 88, 36 L. J. M. C. 27, 15 L. T. N. S. 539, 15 W. R. 450.

⁽⁴⁾ By sub-section 2 of section 157 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 128, every urban authority can make bye-laws for the prevention of fires.

⁽⁵⁾ A wall may be a party wall to such height as it belongs in common to two buildings, and cease to be a party wall for the rest of its height: Weston v. Arnold, L. R. 8 Ch. 1084, 43 L. J. Ch. 123, 22 W. R. 284.

of the roof thereof shall not, without the previous consent in writing of the commissioners, be constructed of combustible materials; and it shall not be lawful for the owner of any building within the limits of the special Act, having at the passing of the special Act a roof covered with thatch or other combustible material, and contiguous to or adjoining to any other building, to suffer such covering to such roof to remain for a longer period than seven years after the passing of the special Act, unless with the consent in writing of the commissioners; and every person who shall erect such a building, or cover any roof, or suffer the covering of any roof to continue, contrary to the provision herein contained, and who shall not remove or alter the same within one month after notice given to him for that purpose by the commissioners, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one pound for every day that such building or covering to such roof shall so continue.

Secs. 109—113.

made of in-combustible materials.

And with respect to supplying buildings with fresh air ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

110. Before beginning to build any building intended to be used as a church, chapel, or school, or place of public amusement or entertainment, or for holding large numbers of people for any purpose whatsoever, within the limits of the special Act, the person intending to build the same shall give fourteen days' notice in writing to the commissioners, and shall accompany such notice with a plan and description of the manner proposed for its construction, with respect to the means of supplying fresh air to such building; and no person shall begin to build such building until the manner proposed for its construction, with respect to the means for supplying fresh air, have been approved of by the commissioners; and in default of sending such notice, or if any such building be erected without such approval, the commissioners may cause such building or such part of it as they consider necessary, to be pulled down ⁽²⁾ or altered, at the expense of the owner, and any expense incurred by the commissioners in so doing may be recovered as hereinbefore provided ⁽³⁾ with respect to ruinous or dangerous buildings taken down or repaired by the commissioners.

Regulating construction of buildings intended as places for public meetings.

No person to begin to build until plan has been approved by commissioners.

111 ⁽⁴⁾. Provided always, that if the commissioners fail to signify in writing their approval or disapproval ⁽⁵⁾ of the manner of construction of such building, with respect to the means of supplying fresh air shown on such plan and description as aforesaid, within fourteen days after receiving such notice, accompanied by such plan and description, the person giving such notice may, notwithstanding anything herein contained, proceed to build the building therein referred to in the manner shown on such plan and description; provided that such building be otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this and the special Act.

If commissioners fail to signify their approval of plan within fourteen days, party may proceed to build.

112. Provided also, that if the person so intending to build be dissatisfied with the determination of the commissioners as to the said proposed manner of construction, he shall have the same right of appeal against the determination of the commissioners, and such appeal shall be followed by the same incidents, as hereinbefore provided ⁽⁶⁾ in the case of appeals against any order of the commissioners with respect to works to be constructed by or subject to the approval of the commissioners.

Persons may appeal against determination of commissioners.

113 ⁽⁷⁾. It shall not be lawful to let separately, except as a warehouse or storehouse, or to suffer to be occupied as a dwelling place ⁽⁸⁾, any cellar under any house in any

Cellars in courts not to be occupied as

⁽¹⁾ As to the power to make bye-laws for the ventilation of buildings in urban districts, see sub-section 3 of section 157 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 129.

⁽²⁾ Upon a similar power in the 76th section of the Metropolis Local Management Act, 1855 (18 & 19 Vict. c. 120), it was held that the board could not demolish a house without first giving the person guilty of the omission an opportunity of being heard: Cooper v. Wandsworth District Board of Works, 9 Jur. N. S. 1155, 14 C. B. N. S. 180, 32 L. J. C. P. 185, 3 L. T. N. S. 278, 11 W. R. 646; see Masters v. Pontypool Board, cited in note ⁽¹⁾, ante, p. 131; see also, note ⁽²⁾, p. 130, and the cases referred to therein.

⁽³⁾ See sections 76—78, ante.

⁽⁴⁾ Compare section 158 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 130, 131.

⁽⁵⁾ See Masters v. Pontypool Board, cited in note ⁽¹⁾, ante, p. 131.

⁽⁶⁾ See section 86, ante.

⁽⁷⁾ Compare the provisions as to occupation of cellar dwellings in the Public Health Act, 1875, sections 71—75, ante, pp. 80—82.

⁽⁸⁾ By section 74 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 81, a cellar is to be deemed Secs. 113—118.—court within the limits of the special Act, after the commissioners have given notice to the owners thereof that the letting of cellars as dwelling places in such court is prohibited from that time forth; and it shall be the duty of the commissioners to issue such notices from time to time, as soon as is convenient, until such notice has been given with respect to every court within the limits of the special Act.

dwelling after letting prohibited.
No cellars under the height of seven feet from the floor to the ceiling to be let as dwellings.

114 (1). It shall not be lawful to let separately, except as a warehouse or storehouse, or to suffer to be occupied as a dwelling place, any cellar or room under any house within the said limits, although not situated in a court, which cellar or room shall be less in height from the floor to the ceiling than seven feet, or which shall be less than one-third of its height above the level of the street or ground adjoining the same, or otherwise shall not have two feet at least of its height from the floor to the ceiling above the said level, with an open area of two feet wide from the level of the floor of such cellar or room up to the level of the said street or ground, or which shall not have appurtenant thereto the use of a watercloset or privy and ashpit, according to the enactment herein contained, or which shall not also have a glazed window made to open to the full extent of the half thereof, the area of which is not less than six feet clear of the frame, and a fireplace, with a chimney or flue, or which cellar, being an inner or back cellar let or occupied along with a front cellar as part of the same letting or occupation, has not a ventilating flue (unless such inner or back cellar shall be part of a house built before the passing of the special Act), or which shall not be well and effectually drained by means of a drain the bottom of which is one foot at least below the level of the floor of such cellar or room.

Penalty on letting such cellars as dwelling places.

115 (2). Every person who lets separately (except as aforesaid) or who knowingly suffers to be occupied for hire, as a dwelling place, any cellar or room within the limits of the special Act, contrary to the provisions of this and the special Act, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty shillings, and a further penalty not exceeding five shillings for every day during which such cellar or room is so occupied, after conviction of the first offence.

And with respect to lodging houses (3), be it enacted as follows:

For the regulation and inspection of lodging-houses.

116. It shall not be lawful to keep or use as a public lodging house within the limits of the special Act any house, not being a licensed victualling house, which shall be rated to the relief of the poor on a less sum than ten pounds, nor in any case unless such house shall have been registered as a lodging house in a book to be kept by the commissioners for that purpose; and every house shall be deemed a public lodging house within the meaning of this Act in which persons are harboured or lodged for hire for a single night, or for less than a week at one time, or any part of which is let for any term less than a week.

Commissioners to keep a register of lodging-house keepers, and make rules for promoting cleanliness and ventilation.

117 (4). The commissioners shall cause a register to be kept, in which shall be entered the names of all such persons as apply to have the houses occupied by them registered as lodging houses, and the situations of such houses; and the commissioners shall from time to time fix the number of lodgers who may be received into each such lodging house, and make rules for promoting cleanliness and ventilation in such lodging house; and they shall order that a ticket containing the number of lodgers allowed to be received into the house, and a table of rules for promoting cleanliness and ventilation, shall be hung up or placed in a conspicuous part of each room into which lodgers are received; and the keepers of all such lodging houses shall at all times observe the said rules, and give access to such lodging houses, when required by any persons appointed by the commissioners, for the purpose of inspection thereof, or for the purpose of performing therein any disinfecting process which the commissioners may order.

118. Every person who shall keep any lodging house, and receive lodgers therein, without such lodging house having been duly registered, or who shall receive into the

to be occupied as a dwelling, within the meaning of that Act, when any person passes the night therein.

(1) See section 72 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 81.

(2) See section 73 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 81.

(3) Compare the provisions as to Common Lodging Houses in the Public Health Act, 1875, sections 76—89, ante, pp. 82—86.

(4) See sections 76, 79, 80, of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 82—84.

same more lodgers than shall be allowed by the commissioners, or who shall fail to keep such ticket or such table of rules as aforesaid hung up or displayed as required by the commissioners, or who shall neglect to cause such rules to be observed in any such lodging house, or who shall refuse to admit to such lodging house at all reasonable times, any person appointed by the commissioners for any of the purposes aforesaid, or who shall wilfully obstruct any such person in performing any disinfecting process therein which the commissioners may order, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for each such offence ⁽¹⁾.

Secs. 118—123.

Penalty on lodging-house keepers not complying with the provisions of the Act.

And with respect to lighting the town or district ⁽²⁾, be it enacted as follows:

119. The commissioners may contract for the prescribed period or (where no period shall be prescribed) for any period not exceeding three years at any one time, with the owners of any gasworks, or with any other person, for the supply of such gas or oil or other means of lighting, and may provide such lamps, lamp posts, and other works as the commissioners think necessary for lighting such streets.

Commissioners may contract for lighting the streets.

120. If the commissioners, and the owners of any gasworks authorised by Act of Parliament to supply gas within the limits of the special Act, and with whom the commissioners may be desirous of contracting, shall not agree as to the price to be paid for such supply, then such price shall be settled by arbitration; and for that purpose the clauses ⁽³⁾ of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the settlement of disputes by arbitration, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act.

For ascertaining price to be paid for gas in case of dispute.

And with respect to the supply of water ⁽⁴⁾, be it enacted as follows:

121. The commissioners shall cause all existing public cisterns, pumps, wells, conduits, and other waterworks used for the gratuitous supply of water to the inhabitants within the limits of the special Act, to be continued, maintained, and supplied with water, or they shall substitute other such works equally convenient, and shall cause them to be maintained and supplied with water; and such public cisterns and other works shall be vested in the commissioners, and be under their management and control; and the commissioners may construct any number of new cisterns, pumps, conduits, and other waterworks, for the gratuitous use of any persons who choose to carry the same away, not for sale, but for their own private use, and may supply with water any public baths or wash-houses; provided that the commissioners shall not construct any such new works without the prescribed approval, or, if no approval be prescribed, without the approval of the commissioners of Her Majesty's woods and forests, land revenues, works, and buildings; and before giving their approval to the construction of any such new works, the last-mentioned commissioners shall cause a local inquiry to be made in the manner prescribed by an Act of the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act 9 & 10 Vict. for making preliminary Inquiries in certain Cases of Application for Local Acts," and shall withhold their inquiry ⁽⁵⁾ if upon such inquiry they shall be satisfied that an equally good and abundant supply of water for such public purposes can be procured as cheaply by any other means than by the construction of such new works.

Power to commissioners to construct public cisterns and pumps for supply of water to baths and wash-houses.

Commissioners not to construct such new works without approval.

122. The commissioners may contract for the prescribed period, or (where no period shall be prescribed) for any period not exceeding three years at one time, with the owners of any waterworks or any other person for such supply of water as the commissioners shall think necessary for the purposes of this or the special Act.

Commissioners may contract for supply of water.

123 ⁽⁶⁾. If the commissioners and the owners of any waterworks authorised by Act of Parliament to supply water within the limits of the special Act with whom the commissioners may be desirous of contracting, do not agree as to the price to be paid for such supply, then such price (except where by the Act authorising such waterworks

For ascertaining price to be paid for water in case of dispute.

⁽¹⁾ For similar penalties under the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 79, 85, of that Act, ante, pp. 84, 85.

⁽²⁾ As to the provisions for lighting streets, &c., in urban districts, see sections 161—163 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 132, 133.

⁽³⁾ I.e., sections 25—37 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ante, pp. 906—912.

⁽⁴⁾ As to the supply of water under the Public Health Act, 1875, see section 51 et seq., ante, p. 69.

⁽⁵⁾ This is a misprint for "approval."

⁽⁶⁾ Compare section 52 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 74.

Secs. 123—127.—some other mode of determining such price shall be provided) shall be settled by arbitration, and for that purpose the clauses ⁽¹⁾ of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the settlement of disputes by arbitration, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act.

Commissioners to cause fire-plugs, &c., to be provided and maintained.

124 ⁽²⁾. The commissioners shall cause fireplugs, and all necessary works, machinery, and assistance for securing an efficient supply of water in cases of fire, to be provided and maintained, and for this purpose they may enter into any agreement with any water company or other party, and they shall paint or mark on the buildings and walls within the streets words or marks near to such fireplugs to denote the situation thereof, and do such other things for the purposes aforesaid as they may from time to time deem expedient.

And with respect to slaughter-houses ⁽³⁾, be it enacted as follows:

Commissioners may license slaughter-houses, &c.

125. The commissioners may license such slaughter-houses and knacker's yards as they from time to time think proper for slaughtering cattle within the limits of the special Act.

No new slaughter-houses in future to be erected without a licence

126. No place shall be used or occupied as a slaughter-house or knacker's yard within the said limits which was not in such use and occupation at the time of the passing of the special Act, and has so continued ever since, unless and until a licence ⁽⁴⁾ for the erection thereof, or for the use and occupation thereof as a slaughter-house or knacker's yard, have been obtained from the commissioners; and every person who, without having first obtained such licence as aforesaid, uses ⁽⁵⁾ as a slaughter-house or knacker's yard any place within the said limits not used as such at the passing of the special Act, and so continued to be used ever since, shall for each offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, and a like penalty for every day after the conviction for such offence upon which the said offence is continued.

Existing slaughter-houses, &c., to be registered.

127. Every place within the limits of the special Act which shall be used as a slaughter-house or knacker's yard shall, within three months after the passing of such Act, be registered by the owner or occupier thereof at the office of the commissioners, and on application to the commissioners for that purpose the commissioners shall cause every such slaughter-house or knacker's yard to be registered in a book to be kept by them for that purpose; and every person who after the expiration of the said three months, and after one week's notice of this provision from the commissioners, uses or suffers to be used any such place as a slaughter-house or knacker's yard, without its being so registered, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for such

⁽¹⁾ I.e., sects. 25—37 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ante, pp. 906—912.

⁽²⁾ As to the duty of urban authorities to provide fireplugs, see section 66 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 78.

⁽³⁾ See the definition of slaughter-house within the meaning of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 47. These provisions with respect to slaughter-houses are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 169 of that Act, ante, p. 136. See also section 316 of the same Act (ante, p. 215) as to the construction of the incorporated provisions, and the recovery and application of penalties incurred under them. As to a licence to erect and use a slaughter-house, see Anthony v. Brecon Markets Co., L. R. 7 Ex. 399, 41 L. J. Ex. 201, 26 L. T. N. S. 979, 21 W. R. 27.

Slaughter-houses in the metropolis are regulated by 37 & 38 Vict. c. 67, sections 11 and 14 of which have been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1883 (46 & 47 Vict. c. 39).

⁽⁴⁾ As to what amounts to a licence, compare Howarth v. Mayor of Manchester, 6 L. T. N. S. 683.

⁽⁵⁾ A conviction for "using" an unlicensed slaughter-house under this section cannot be sustained against a person who merely pays the owner of the premises for being allowed to kill animals there: R. v. Heyworth, 14 L. T. N. S. 600, 30 J. P. 423. Where a person, who had duly registered his slaughter-house, rebuilt a ruinous part of the premises and added a little to the area inclosed within the walls of the premises when rebuilt, it was held that the enlarged premises did not require a licence, as, notwithstanding the addition and partial rebuilding, they continued the same place as before the passing of the Act: Hawman v. Adkins, 40 J. P. 744. So, where a stable formed a part of premises licensed as a slaughter-house for pigs, it was held that the owner could, without a new licence, convert the stable into a place for slaughtering sheep and bullocks: Brighton Local Board of Health v. Stenning, 15 L. T. N. S. 567.

offence, and a penalty not exceeding ten shillings for every day after the first day during which such place shall be used as a slaughter-house or knacker's yard without having been so registered. Secs. 127—131.

128 ⁽¹⁾. The commissioners shall from time to time, by bye-laws to be made and confirmed in the manner hereinafter provided ⁽²⁾, make regulations for the licensing, registering, and inspection of the said slaughter-houses, and knacker's yards, and preventing cruelty therein, and for keeping the same in a cleanly and proper state, and for removing filth at least once in every twenty-four hours, and requiring them to be provided with a sufficient supply of water, and they may impose pecuniary penalties on persons breaking such bye-laws; provided that no such penalty exceed for any one offence the sum of five pounds, and in the case of a continuing nuisance the sum of ten shillings for every day during which such nuisance shall be continued after the conviction for the first offence. Commissioners may make bye-laws for regulation of slaughter-houses, &c.

129. The justices before whom any person is convicted of killing or dressing any cattle contrary to the provisions of this or the special Act, or of the non-observance of any of the bye-laws or regulations made by virtue of this or the special Act, in addition to the penalty imposed on such person under the authority of this or the special Act, may suspend for any period not exceeding two months the licence granted to such person under this or the special Act, or, in case such person be the owner or proprietor of any registered slaughter-house or knacker's yard, may forbid for any period not exceeding two months the slaughtering of cattle therein; and such justices, upon the conviction of any person for a second or other subsequent like offence, may, in addition to the penalty imposed under the authority of this or the special Act, declare the licence granted under this or the special Act revoked, or, if such person be the owner or proprietor of any registered slaughter-house, may forbid absolutely the slaughtering of cattle therein; and whenever the licence of any such person is revoked as aforesaid, or whenever the slaughtering of cattle in any registered slaughter-house or knacker's yard is absolutely forbidden as aforesaid, the commissioners may refuse to grant any licence whatever to the person whose licence has been so revoked, or on account of whose default the slaughtering of cattle in any registered slaughter-house has been forbidden. Justices may suspend licence of slaughter-houses, &c. in addition to penalty imposed.

130. Every person who during the period for which any such licence is suspended, or after the same is revoked as aforesaid, slaughters cattle in the slaughter-house or knacker's yard to which such licence relates, or otherwise uses such slaughter-house or knacker's yard, or allows the same to be used as a slaughter-house or knacker's yard, and every person who during the period that the slaughtering of cattle in any such registered slaughter-house or knacker's yard is forbidden as aforesaid, or after such slaughtering has been absolutely forbidden therein, slaughters any cattle in any such registered slaughter-house, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for such offence, and a further penalty of five pounds for every day on which any such offence is committed after the conviction for the first offence. Penalty for slaughtering cattle during suspension of licence, &c.

131. The inspector of nuisances, the officer of health, or any other officer appointed by the commissioners for that purpose, may at all reasonable times, with or without assistants, enter into and inspect any building or place whatsoever within the said limits kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, or for slaughtering cattle, and examine whether any cattle, or the carcase of any such cattle, is deposited there, and in case such officer shall find any cattle, or the carcase or part of the carcase of any beast, which appears unfit for the food of man, he may seize and carry the same before a justice, and such justice shall forthwith order the same to be further inspected and examined by competent persons; and in case, upon such inspection and examination, such cattle, carcase, or part of a carcase, be found to be unfit for the food of man, such justice shall order the same to be immediately destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such a way as to prevent the same being exposed for sale or used for the food of man; and such justice Officers may enter and inspect slaughter-houses, &c.

⁽¹⁾ As to the confirmation of bye-laws made under this section, see sections 2 and 3 of the Public Health (Confirmation of Bye-laws) Act, 1884 (47 Vict. c. 12). Compare section 169 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136, by which urban authorities can provide and make bye-laws for the management of slaughter-houses.

⁽²⁾ See sections 200—208, post, pp. 1028, 1029.

Secs. 131—
136.

may adjudge the person to whom such cattle, carcase, or part of a carcase belongs, or in whose custody the same is found, to pay a penalty not exceeding ten pounds for every such animal or carcase or part of a carcase so found; and the owner or occupier of any building or place kept or used for the sale of butcher's meat, or for slaughtering cattle, and every other person, who obstructs or hinders such inspector or other officer from entering into and inspecting the same, and examining, seizing, or carrying away any such animal or carcase, or part of a carcase, so appearing to be unfit for the food of man, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each offence.

And with respect to things to be done by the commissioners by special order only, be it enacted as follows:

As to certain matters authorised to be done by the commissioners by special order only.

Final resolution not to be carried into effect for one month, nor then if a majority of the ratepayers remonstrate against the same.

Commissioners may purchase slaughter-houses, &c.; and places for public recreation.

Public bathing places and drying grounds.

132. Where by this or the special Act the commissioners are empowered to do anything by special order only, it shall not be lawful for them to do such thing unless the resolution to do the same have been agreed to by the commissioners in some meeting whereof special notice has been given, and has been confirmed in a subsequent meeting held not sooner than four weeks after the preceding meeting, and which subsequent meeting has been advertised once at least in each of the weeks intervening between the two meetings in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, and of which special notice in writing has been given to each of the commissioners.

133. Provided always, that after any resolution has been confirmed in a subsequent meeting as aforesaid, the commissioners shall not proceed to carry the same into effect until after the expiration of one month from the date of such second meeting, and during such month such resolution shall be advertised once at least in each week in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, and public notice thereof shall also be given by means of placards posted in public places within the said limits, and reference shall in such advertisement and notice be made to some place provided by the commissioners where the plan or particulars of the work or matter to which such resolution relates may be gratuitously seen by the ratepayers; and if before the expiration of such month a remonstrance in writing against carrying into effect such resolution, or any part thereof, signed by a majority of the ratepayers having votes in the election of the commissioners (such majority being computed with reference to the number of votes to which in such election each ratepayer is entitled under the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith), be presented to the commissioners, such resolution, or such part thereof as such remonstrance applies to, shall not be carried into effect, and where any such remonstrance applies to part only of any such resolution, the commissioners may either carry into effect the remainder of such resolution, or rescind the same, as they think fit.

134. The commissioners may from time to time, with the concurrence in writing of the inspector, and by special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, purchase, rent, build, or otherwise provide such slaughter-houses and knacker's yards as they think proper for slaughtering cattle within the limits of the special Act.

135 ⁽¹⁾. The commissioners may by a special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, purchase, rent, or otherwise provide lands, grounds, or other places, either within the limits of the special Act, or at a reasonable distance therefrom, not exceeding three miles from the centre of the principal market place, if any, or from the principal office of the commissioners, and in a situation to be approved of by the inspector, to be used as a pleasure ground or place of public resort or recreation; and the commissioners may from time to time level, drain, plant, and otherwise lay out and improve any such public lands or grounds for the more convenient use and enjoyment thereof.

136 ⁽²⁾. The commissioners may from time to time by special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, purchase, rent, or otherwise provide, either within the limits of the special Act, or at a reasonable distance therefrom, suitable and convenient land and buildings in a situation and according to plans to be approved of by the inspector, to be used for public baths and wash-houses, and public open bathing places, and public drying grounds, for the use and accommodation of the inhabitants within the limits of the special Act, in washing and drying clothes and other articles, and may fit up the same respectively with all requisite and proper conveniences, and from time to time enlarge, renew, and repair the same respectively, and afford the use thereof respectively to such inhabitants, at such reasonable charges and under and subject to such regulations as the commissioners may deem expedient; and every person who offends against any such regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for every offence ⁽¹⁾.

⁽¹⁾ See section 164 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 133, and notes thereto.

⁽²⁾ See, further, the Baths and Wash-houses Acts, 1846, 1847, and 1878 (9 & 10 Vict. c. 74, 10 & 11 Vict. c. 61, and 41 Vict. c. 14), post, pp. 1191—1202, and section 69 of the Town's Police Clauses Act, 1847, post, p. 1047.

Secs. 136—142.

137 ⁽²⁾. Provided always, that the number of baths for the use of the working classes in any building provided by the commissioners shall not be less than twice the number of the other baths of any higher class.

Proportion of baths for the working classes.

138 ⁽³⁾. The commissioners may from time to time make such reasonable charges for the use of such baths, bathing places, wash-houses, and drying grounds as they think fit, but as regards the working classes, not exceeding the charges, if any, mentioned in the special Act, unless for the use of any washing tub or trough for more than two hours in any one day, in which case any charge may be made which the commissioners deem reasonable.

Charges for the use of baths.

139 ⁽⁴⁾. For the recovery of the charges at such wash-houses and drying grounds, the officers, servants, and others having the management thereof may, at the period of using the same, or at any subsequent time, detain the clothes or other goods and chattels in or upon any such wash-house or drying ground of any person refusing to pay the charge to which such person may be liable, or any part thereof, till full payment thereof be made; and in case such payment be not made within seven days, the commissioners may sell such clothes, goods and chattels, or any of them, returning the surplus proceeds of such sale, after deducting the unpaid charge, and the expenses of such detention and sale, and the unsold articles, if any, on demand, to such person.

Recovery of charges for the use of baths, &c.

140 ⁽⁵⁾. A printed copy or sufficient abstract of the bye-laws made by the commissioners relating to the use of such baths, bathing places, and wash-houses, so far as regards every such bath, bathing place, or wash-house, shall be put up in such bath room, bathing place, and wash-house.

Publication of bye-laws in regard to baths, &c.

141 ⁽⁶⁾. Whenever any of such public baths, bathing places, wash-houses, or drying grounds are deemed by the commissioners to be unnecessary or too expensive to be kept up, the commissioners may, by special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, discontinue the same, and sell the lands, buildings, and materials for the best price that can reasonably be obtained, and convey the same accordingly; and the purchase money shall be paid to the treasurer of the commissioners, and be disposed of as the commissioners direct.

Sale of baths, &c., on discontinuing them.

142 ⁽⁷⁾. If it appear that any works which the commissioners deem necessary for promoting the health or convenience of the inhabitants of the district within the limit of the special Act cannot lawfully be carried into effect by the commissioners, under the powers vested in them by this or the special Act, by reason either that the monies authorised to be raised by them are insufficient for the purpose, or that any lands are required which the commissioners are not by this or the special Act authorised to take or use, or for any other reason, the commissioners may, by special order as herein defined, but not otherwise, cause application to be made to Parliament for an Act to enable them to execute such works, and may defray the expenses of such application out of the rates authorised to be levied by them under this and the special Act.

Application to be made to Parliament if additional powers necessary.

⁽¹⁾ As to the erection of public baths, see, further, sections 25—27 of the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1846, post.

⁽²⁾ Similar provisions are contained in section 36 of the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1846, post, and in section 5 of the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1847, post.

⁽³⁾ See section 7 of the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1847, post.

⁽⁴⁾ A similar provision for the recovery of the charges is contained in section 38 of the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1846, post.

⁽⁵⁾ See section 35 of the Baths and Wash-Houses Act, 1846, post.

⁽⁶⁾ See section 32 of the Baths and Wash-Houses Act, 1846, post.

⁽⁷⁾ This section, so far as inconsistent with the Municipal Corporations (Borough Funds) Act (35 & 36 Vict. c. 91), is repealed by section 9 of that Act.

Secs. 143—148.

Power to commissioners to provide public clocks.

Commissioners empowered to enter upon lands for the purposes of this Act.

Penalty on persons obstructing commissioners in their duty.

As to service of notice on owners and occupiers of buildings and lands.

Commissioners, in default of owner or occupier, may execute works and recover expenses.

Occupier, in default of owner, may execute works and deduct expenses from his rent.

143 (1). And with respect to clocks, be it enacted, that the commissioners may from time to time provide such clocks as they consider necessary, and cause them to be fixed upon or against any public building, or, with the consent of the owner and occupier, upon or against any private building, the situation of which may be convenient for that purpose, and may cause the dials thereof to be lighted at night, and from time to time alter and remove any such clocks to such other like situation as they shall consider expedient.

And with respect to entry by the commissioners or their officers in execution of this or the special Act, be it enacted as follows :

144 (2). The commissioners shall, for the purposes of this or the special Act, have power by themselves or their officers to enter at all reasonable hours in the daytime into and upon any buildings or lands within the limits of the special Act, as well for the purpose of inspection as for the purpose of executing any work authorised to be executed by them under this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, without being liable to any legal proceedings on account thereof : Provided always, that, except when herein or in the special Act it is otherwise provided, the commissioners or their officers shall not make any such entry, unless with the consent of the occupier, until after the expiration of twenty-four hours' notice for that purpose given to the occupier.

145 (3). Every person who shall at any time obstruct the commissioners or any person employed by them in the performance of anything which they are respectively empowered or required to do by this or the special Act, or any Act to be incorporated therewith, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

And with respect to ensuring the execution of the works by this or the special Act required to be done by the owners or occupiers of houses or lands, be it enacted as follows :

146 (4). Where under this or the special Act any notice is required to be given to the owner or occupier of any building or land, such notice addressed to the owner or occupier thereof, as the case may require, may be served on the occupier of such building or land or left with some inmate of his abode, or, if there be no occupier, may be put up on some conspicuous part of such building or land : and it shall not be necessary in any such notice to name the occupier or owner of such building or land : Provided always, that when such owner of any such building or land, and his residence, are known to the commissioners, it shall be the duty of the commissioners, if such owner be residing within the limits of the special Act, to cause every notice required to be given to the owner to be served on such owner, or left with some inmate of his abode ; and if such owner be not resident within the limits of the special Act they shall send every such notice by the post, addressed to the residence of such owner.

147. Whenever under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, any work of any kind is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any house or lands, and default is made in the execution of such work, the commissioners may cause such work to be executed, and the expense incurred by the commissioners in respect thereof shall, except in the case in which such expenses are hereinbefore directed to be defrayed by drainage rates (5), be repaid to them by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed.

148. Whenever default is made by the owner of any buildings or lands in the execution of any work by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, required to be executed by him, the occupier of such buildings or lands may, with the approval of the commissioners, cause such work to be executed, and the expense thereof shall be repaid to such occupier by the owner of the buildings or lands, and such occupier may deduct the amount of such expense out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

(1) By section 165 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 134, urban authorities may provide public clocks.

(2) See section 305 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 210, and notes thereto.

(3) Compare section 306 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 211.

(4) As to the service of notices under the Public Health Act, 1875, see section 267 of that Act, ante, p. 192.

(5) See section 35, ante, p. 995, and sections 163—166, post.

149. If the owner of any buildings or lands made liable by this or the special Act for the repayment to the commissioners of any expenses incurred by them do not, as soon as the same become due and payable from him, repay all such expenses to the commissioners, the commissioners may recover the same from such owner in the same manner as damages, or in an action of debt in any of the superior courts, or in any other court having jurisdiction ⁽¹⁾.

Secs. 149—
153.

How expenses are to be recovered from owner.

150. The commissioners may, by way of additional remedy, whether any such action or proceeding has been brought or taken against any such owner or not, require the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being from the person who then or at any time thereafter occupies any such buildings or lands under such owner; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier, on demand, the same may be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such occupier in the same manner as any rate may be recovered from him under this or the special Act ⁽²⁾; and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as is so paid by or recovered from him in respect of any such expenses ⁽³⁾.

Power to levy charges on occupier, who may deduct the same from his rent.

151 ⁽²⁾. Provided always, that no occupier of any buildings or lands shall be liable to pay more money in respect of any expenses charged by this or the special Act on the owner thereof than the amount of rent due from him for the premises in respect of which such expenses are payable at the time of the demand made upon him, or which at any time after such demand and notice not to pay the same to his landlord have accrued and become payable by him, unless he neglect or refuse, upon application made to him for that purpose by the commissioners truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and address of the person to whom such rent is payable; but the burthen of proof that the sum demanded of any such occupier is greater than the rent which was due by him at the time of such demand, or which has since accrued, shall lie upon such occupier: Provided further, that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special contract made between any such owner or occupier respecting the payment of the expenses of any such works as aforesaid.

Occupier not to be liable for more than the amount of rent due.

152. Where any such expenses payable to the commissioners by any owner of any such building or lands amount to more than half the amount of the net annual value of such building or lands, the commissioners may, if they think fit, at the request of any such owner, allow time for the repayment of such expenses, and receive the same by such instalments as they, under the circumstances of the case, consider reasonable, but so that the same be repaid by annual instalments of not less than one-seventh part of the whole sum originally due, with interest for the principal money from time to time remaining unpaid after the yearly rate of five pounds in the hundred during the period of forbearance; but all such sums remaining due, notwithstanding the commissioners have agreed to allow any time for the repayment thereof as aforesaid, shall from time to time at the expiration of the several times so allowed for repayment thereof, be recoverable in like manner as such respective amounts would have been recoverable if no such time had been allowed for repayment thereof.

Commissioners may allow time for repayment by owners of improvement expenses.

153 ⁽¹⁾. If the occupier of any building or lands within the limits of the special Act

Proceedings in case of ⁽¹⁾ By a special Act, incorporating the Railways Clauses Act, 1845, and this Act, it was enacted that certain expenses incurred by the commissioners in paving streets, &c., might be "recovered as damages." Section 140 of the Railway Clauses Act provided that, in all cases where damages were directed to be paid, and the method of ascertaining the amount or enforcing the payment is not provided for, such amount shall be determined by two justices; it was held, in an action brought to recover expenses so incurred, that such an action was not maintainable, for that the proper construction of the several Acts was, that the expenses were to be recovered as damages upon a proceeding before justices: Mayor of Blackburn v. Parkinson, 1 E. & E. 71, 5 Jur. N. S. 572, 28 L. J. M. C. 7. See further as to the recovery of expenses: Mayor of Portsmouth v. Smith, 46 L. T. N. S. 552.

⁽²⁾ The recovery of such rates is provided for in sections 191—199, post, pp. 1026—1028.

⁽³⁾ Compare sections 104 and 213 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 97, 163.

⁽⁴⁾ A similar provision is contained in section 306 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 211.

Secs. 153— prevent the owner thereof carrying into effect in respect of such buildings or lands any 158. of the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, after tenants notice of his intention so to do has been given by the owner to such occupier, any opposing the execution of this Act. permit the owner to execute all such works with respect to such buildings or lands as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this and the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith ; and if after the expiration of ten days from the date of such order such occupier continue to refuse to permit such owner to execute such works, such occupier shall for every day during which he so continues to refuse be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds ; and every such owner during the continuance of such refusal shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default in executing such works.

Respecting existing contracts for building.

154. Nothing herein or in the special Act contained shall extend to avoid any agreement in writing entered into before the passing of the special Act for erecting or altering any building, but the same shall be performed with such alterations as may be rendered necessary by this or the special Act, and as if such alterations had been stipulated for in such agreement ; and the difference between the cost of the work according to the agreement and the cost of such work as executed according to the provisions of this and the special Act shall be ascertained by the parties to the respective agreements, and paid for or deducted as the case may require ; and if the said parties do not agree upon the amount of such difference, the same shall, on request of either party (notice being given to the other), be decided by the surveyor to the commissioners, and for his trouble in making such decision each of the said parties shall pay to the said surveyor such sum not exceeding one pound, and to be disposed of for such purposes of the special Act as the commissioners shall direct.

Respecting contracts for leases.

155. Nothing herein or in the special Act contained shall affect any lease or agreement for a lease whereby any person may be bound to erect buildings upon any building ground within the limits of the special Act, but the buildings mentioned in such lease or agreement shall be built according to the conditions which may be rendered necessary by this or the special Act, in the same manner as if this and the special Act had been passed and in operation at the time of making such lease or agreement, and the same had been made subject thereto, and that without either party being entitled to any compensation.

And with respect to the rates directed by this Act to be made for sewers, drains, and private improvements, be it enacted as follows :

As to the recovery of private improvement
expenses.

156. Where by this or the special Act the occupiers of any lands or buildings are made liable to the payment of any expenses which are directed to be recoverable as private improvement expenses ⁽¹⁾, the commissioners may charge the occupiers of such lands and buildings respectively with special rates, over and above any other rates to which such persons may be liable under this and the special Act, after the yearly rate of six pounds ten shillings in the hundred pounds on the cost of such private improvements respectively, such special rates to be payable during thirty years next after such expenses have been incurred ⁽²⁾.

Where new sewers are made by commissioners they may make special sewer rates.

157. Whenever any new sewer shall be made the commissioners may charge the occupiers of all lands and buildings liable to contribute to the rates for making the same with special sewer rates over and above any other rates to which such persons may be liable under this or the special Act, after the yearly rate of six pounds ten shillings in the hundred pounds on the cost of making such new sewer, such special sewer rates to be payable during thirty years next after such expenses have been incurred.

Commissioners to make a general sewer rate distinct from other rates.

158. Except where it shall be otherwise provided by the special Act, the commissioners shall make a sewer rate to be called the general sewer rate, distinct from any other rate which they may be authorised to make under the special Act, and the money to be raised by such general sewer rates shall be applied in maintaining and clearing the

⁽¹⁾ As to expenses recoverable from occupiers as private improvement expenses, see sections 53, 54, and 55, ante, p. 998.

⁽²⁾ See, as to the recovery of such expenses, Mayor of Portsmouth v. Smith, 46 L. T.
 N. S. 552 ; com. 164.

sewers, and all other expenses connected with such sewers not hereinbefore provided for, or which may not be fully defrayed by the special sewer rates, and for securing and paying off any moneys which may be borrowed for the purpose aforesaid on security of the special sewer rates under the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith, and the interest of such moneys which the special sewer rates shall be insufficient to defray. Secs. 158—163.

159 (1). The commissioners may borrow money by mortgage of the special and general sewer rates for making new sewers or inclosing open sewers, and also for any private improvement expenses, by mortgage of the rates respectively applicable to defray such expenses, and for that purposes the clauses (2) of the "Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the commissioners, shall be incorporated with this Act; and in order to discharge the principal money borrowed as aforesaid on security of any such rates, the commissioners shall in every year pay off not less than one thirtieth part of any principal sum so borrowed. Commissioners may borrow money by mortgage of sewer rates.

160. The commissioners shall from time to time, unless it be otherwise provided by the special Act, make the general sewer rate of such amount as will with the special sewer rates raise money sufficient not only to defray the current expenses of maintaining the sewers that shall have been purchased or made, but also to keep down the interest of any moneys borrowed on securities of the special and general sewer rate, and to pay off the principal of such moneys within a period not longer than thirty years. Sewer rate to be of such amount as to pay off moneys borrowed thereon in thirty years.

161. Where by this or the special Act the commissioners are authorised to order that any rate shall be levied by assessments to be made for separate and distinct districts, the commissioners from time to time may order assessments to be made in respect of the rates authorised to be so levied upon separate and distinct districts, and in such case the commissioners shall cause their surveyor to describe and define in the plan of the town or district within the limits of the special Act every such separate and distinct district for the purposes of separate rating as aforesaid, and so from time to time as occasion shall require. Cases where rates may be charged upon separate and distinct districts.

162. The commissioners may in such case, instead of making one assessment for the whole town or district within the limits of the special Act, make separate and distinct assessments, as occasion shall require, for every such separate and distinct district respectively, and may appoint, if they see fit, surveyors, collectors, and other officers for every such district, and they shall cause separate and distinct accounts to be kept of all moneys collected and received under any rate in each distinct district, and of all payments and disbursements in respect thereof, and they shall, unless otherwise provided by the special Act, apply the moneys to be collected and received from each distinct district under any such rate as aforesaid for the several purposes to which the same may be lawfully applied under the authority of this and the special Act, but so nevertheless that each district shall, as near as may be, bear its own expenses; and in case any such expenses shall apply to or be incurred in respect of two or more districts, the same shall be apportioned and divided between such districts in a fair and equitable manner. Rates to be levied on separate and distinct districts.

163. In all cases when the commissioners have paid or become liable to the payment of any expenses in constructing or laying any drain or pipe from any house or building, or in providing any privy, ashpit, or cesspool for the use of the occupiers thereof, and when neither the owner nor occupier of such house or building is willing to defray the said expenses forthwith, the commissioners shall lay drainage rates on the occupiers of such houses and buildings respectively, to be continued for six successive years and no longer; and the sum to be annually levied by every such drainage rate shall be one-fifth part of the whole expense incurred in constructing, laying, or providing such drain, privy, ashpit, or cesspool as aforesaid, and shall be applied in satisfaction thereof; and the amount of any such drainage rate may be added to any other rate levied from the occupiers of such houses and buildings, and recovered therewith by the like ways and means. Drainage rates.

(1) Similar powers of borrowing by mortgage of rates are contained in sections 233 et seq. of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 173.

(2) These clauses, so incorporated with this Act, are sections 75—88 of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847 (10 Vict. c. 16).

Secs. 164—169.

Occupiers may deduct a proportion of drainage rate from their rent.

Landlords, being also tenants, may deduct proportion of drainage rate from their rent.

Limitation of expenditure for house drains, &c.

Rates to be levied on persons holding, using, or occupying houses, &c.

Proportion to be paid by holders of lands, nursery grounds, &c.

Exemptions from rates.

Rates may be prospective or retrospective.

164 ⁽¹⁾. Every occupier of any such house or building at a rent not less than the rack-rent who has paid any such drainage rate shall be entitled to deduct three-fourths of the rate so paid by him from the rent payable by him to his landlord: every occupier at a rent less than the rack-rent who has paid any such drainage rate shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord such proportion of three-fourths of the rate so paid by him as the rent payable by him bears to the rack-rent.

165. Every landlord, from whom any part of his rent has been deducted on account of such drainage rate, and who is himself liable to the payment of rent, shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him such proportion of the sum so deducted from the rent payable to him as the rent payable by him bears to the rent payable to him, and so in succession with respect to every landlord receiving rent, and also liable to pay rent on account of such house or building; provided that no landlord, being also a tenant, shall be entitled under this provision to deduct from the rent payable by him more than the whole sum deducted from the rent payable to him.

166. Without the written consent of the owner of any such house or building, the commissioners shall not be empowered to expend during any term of six successive years more in the whole than one year's rack-rent thereof in constructing or laying any such pipe or drain, or in providing any such privy, cesspool, or ashpit.

And with respect to the manner of making rates authorised by this or the special Act ⁽²⁾, be it enacted as follows:

167. Every rate which the commissioners are by this or the special Act authorised to make or levy shall be made and levied by them at yearly, half-yearly, or such other periods, as they think fit, upon every person who occupies any of the prescribed kinds of property, or (if no property be prescribed) any house, shop, warehouse, counting-house, coach-house, stable, cellar, vault, building, workshop, manufactory, garden, land, or tenement whatsoever ⁽³⁾ (except as hereinafter is excepted), within the limits of the special Act or of the district where such rate is assessed on the occupiers of lands and buildings of a separate district as hereinbefore provided, according to the full net annual value thereof respectively; and the said rates shall be vested in the commissioners, and shall be payable at such times as they appoint: Provided always, that every person occupying lands used as arable, meadow, or pasture ground only, or as woodlands or market gardens, or nursery grounds, shall be rated in respect of the same in the prescribed proportion only; if no proportion be prescribed, in the proportion of one-third part only of such net annual value thereof as aforesaid.

168 ⁽⁴⁾. Provided also, that no person shall be rated to any rate made in pursuance of this or the special Act in respect of tithes, or of any church, chapel, meeting house, or other building exclusively used for public worship, or any building exclusively used for the purposes of gratuitous education of the poor or of public charity, or any building or land belonging to the commissioners.

169 ⁽⁵⁾. The commissioners may make any such rate as aforesaid prospectively in order to raise money to pay charges and expenses to be incurred thereafter, or retrospectively in order to raise money to pay charges and expenses already incurred.

⁽¹⁾ A similar provision as to a private improvement rate is contained in section 214 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 164.

⁽²⁾ These provisions with respect to the manner of making rates authorised by this or the special Act are incorporated with the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, by section 70 of that Act, post, p. 1048.

⁽³⁾ Where a clause in a local Act empowered commissioners to make rates upon all persons who "shall inhabit, hold, occupy, possess, or enjoy any land, house, shop, warehouse, cellar, vault, or other tenements or hereditaments within any of the said streets, squares," &c., of a certain district, it was held that an incorporated water company, whose mains, pipes, and other apparatus were laid down within the district, were liable to be rated as occupiers of land: R. v. East London Waterworks Co., 18 Q. B. 705. Compare R. v. East London Waterworks Co., 16 Jur. 121, 21 L. J. M. C. 49; S. C. nom. East London Waterworks Co. v. Trustees for Mile End Old Town, 17 Q. B. 512. See also 2 E. & E. 447. A railway was held to be rateable as "works" within a local Act, though "land" was expressly exempted: R. v. Midland Ry. Co., 25 L. T. 114.

⁽⁴⁾ Compare the provisions as to exemption of churches, &c., from rates, in section 151 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 124.

⁽⁵⁾ Compare section 210 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 160.

170 (1). The commissioners from time to time, before proceeding to make any rate which by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, they are authorised to levy, shall cause an estimate to be prepared of the money required for the several purposes in respect of which they are authorised to levy such rate, showing the several sums required, the rateable value of the property assessable, and the rate on each pound of such value necessary to raise the money required, which estimate, after the same has been approved of by the commissioners, shall be forthwith entered on the rate-book to be kept by the commissioners as hereinafter provided.

Secs. 170—176.

Commissioners to cause estimates to be prepared before making a rate.

171 (2). Notice of the intention of making every rate authorised to be made under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, and of the time at which the same is intended to be made, and of a place where a statement of the proposed rate is deposited for inspection by the ratepayers, shall be given by the commissioners by placards posted up in public places, and shall be advertised in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, in the week immediately previous to such rate being made, or as nearly so as may be.

Notice of rate to be given.

172. Every such rate shall be fairly transcribed in a book to be kept for that purpose, and may be in the form given in the Schedule (A.) annexed to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit of; and every such rate shall contain an account of every particular set forth at the head of the respective columns so far as the same can be ascertained; and every such rate shall be signed by not less than six of the commissioners.

Form of rate.

173 (3). The statement of the proposed rate, and the rate immediately after the same is made, shall be open to the inspection of any person interested or rated in such rate at all reasonable times, and any such person may take copies or extracts from such statement or rate without paying anything for the same; and any person having the custody of such statement or rate who refuses or does not permit any person so interested or rated as aforesaid to take copies or extracts from such statement or rate shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Rate to be open to inspection of ratepayers, who may take copies, &c.

174 (4). The commissioners may from time to time amend any rate made by virtue of this or the special Act by inserting therein the name of any person claiming and entitled to have his name therein as owner or occupier, or by inserting therein the name of any person who ought to have been rated, or by striking out the name of any person who ought not to have been rated, or by raising or reducing the sum at which any person has been rated, if it appear to them that such person has been under-rated or over-rated, or by making such other amendments therein as will make such rate conformable to this and the special Act, and no such amendment shall be held to avoid the rate: provided always, that every person aggrieved by any such alteration shall have the same right of appeal therefrom as he would have had if his name had been originally inserted in such rate, and no such alteration had been made; and as respects such person the rates shall be considered to have been made at the time when he received notice of such alteration; and every person whose rates are altered shall be entitled to seven days' notice of such alteration before the rate shall be payable by him.

Rates may be amended.

175. The annual value of all property rateable under this or the special Act shall be ascertained according to the next preceding assessment for the relief of the poor within the limits of the special Act, except in such cases as are hereinafter mentioned.

Value of property to be ascertained according to poor rate.

176. Provided always, that if at any time the rate for the relief of the poor within the limits of the special Act be in the judgment of the commissioners an unfair criterion by which the said rates should be made, they may cause a valuation to be made of all the rateable property within the limits of the special Act, or of any such separate district as aforesaid, by some competent person appointed by them for that purpose, and the rates made by the commissioners for the purposes of this Act shall be made upon such

If poor rate an unfair criterion, a valuation to be made.

(1) See section 218 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 166.

(2) As to the length of notice required to be given by an urban authority before making a "general district rate," see section 210 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 161.

(3) See section 219 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 166.

(4) Similar provisions are contained in section 221 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 167.

Secs. 176—181. valuation; and in every such valuation the property rateable shall be computed at its net annual value, as defined by an Act made in the seventh year of his late Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate Parochial Assessments" ⁽¹⁾, or any other Act for the time being in force for regulating parochial assessment.

6 & 7 Will. 4,
c. 96.

Person appointed a valuer to make a declaration before acting.

177. Before any such valuation shall be made the person appointed to make it shall make and subscribe a solemn declaration to make such valuation fairly and impartially according to the best of his judgment, and an entry or minute shall be made in the book of proceedings of the commissioners of the making and subscribing of such declaration, and of the date thereof, and any justice to whom application is made for that purpose shall administer such declaration.

Poor rate to be open to inspection by commissioners.

178 ⁽²⁾. The commissioners, or any person by them authorised, may from time to time inspect any of the rates for the relief of the poor in any parish, township, or other district within the limits of the special Act, and the books in which are contained all the assessments by which the same are made, and may take copies thereof or extracts therefrom respectively; and any person having the custody of such rates or assessments who does not suffer the commissioners, or any person authorised by them, to inspect the same at reasonable times, or to take copies thereof or extracts therefrom, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

Owner of property unoccupied to be assessed to the sewer rate.

179. When any property in respect of which the occupier would be liable to be rated to any sewer rate made under the provisions of this or the special Act is unoccupied at the time of making such rate, the commissioners shall rate and assess the owner of such unoccupied premises to such rate, and every such owner shall pay the amount of such rate: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall affect the right herein reserved to recover any arrears of such rates from any future occupier of such premises.

Unoccupied premises to be included in the rates; and if the premises are afterwards occupied a portion of rates to be paid.

180. When any property in respect of which any person is liable to be assessed as occupier to any rate under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, other than the sewer rate, is unoccupied at the time of making any such rate, the commissioners shall in every such case include such property in the said rate, describing it in the column appropriated to the name of the occupier as being "empty;" and if any person afterwards occupy such property during any part of the period for which such rate was made, the commissioners shall insert in such rate the name of such occupier, and collect from such occupier or from the owner, if he be liable to pay the same, a portion of the said rate proportioned to the time during which such person occupies such property, and every such person shall thereupon be deemed to all intents and purposes to be properly rated; and all such rates may be collected and recovered from the person liable to pay the same under the provisions of this or the special Act in the same manner as other rates made payable thereunder: Provided always, that any person whose name is so inserted in such rate, and such owner as last aforesaid, may appeal against such rate to the justices at special sessions, or to the next quarter sessions holden after such insertion of his name as aforesaid, admitting of such appeal, in the same manner as he might have appealed if named in the rate: Provided also, that, except as aforesaid, no rate other than the sewer rate shall be payable by any person in respect of unoccupied premises.

Owners of property not exceeding 10l.
per annum net annual value to pay rates instead of occupier.

181. The owners of all rateable property, of which the full net annual value does not exceed the prescribed sum, or (where no sum is prescribed) the sum of ten pounds, or which are let to weekly or monthly tenants, or in separate apartments, shall be rated to and pay the rates by this or the special Act directed to be made, instead of the occupiers thereof.

⁽¹⁾ See the definition of net annual value in section 4 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 45, which is the same as that in section 1 of the Parochial Assessments Act. This section of the Parochial Assessments Act has been repealed, so far as relates to the metropolis, by section 77 of the Valuation (Metropolis) Act, 1869, but this latter section has been in part repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1883 (46 & 47 Vict. c. 39).

⁽²⁾ Similar provisions for the inspection of poor-rate books by persons appointed by the urban authority are contained in section 212 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 163.

182. Whenever the name of any owner liable to be rated under the provisions of this or the special Act is not known to the commissioners, or to the person making the rates, it shall be sufficient to rate such owner in the rate book of the commissioners as the owner of the property to be rated by the designation of "the owner," without stating his name.

Secs. 182—187.

Not necessary to name the owner where unknown.

183. Provided always, that when any owner is rated in respect of any rateable property in the occupation of any tenant under any lease or agreement made prior to the passing of the special Act, such tenant shall repay to the owner all sums paid by him during the continuance of such lease on account of any rates under this or the special Act payable by the occupier, unless it have been agreed that the owner shall pay all rates in respect of such property; and every sum so payable by the tenant to the owner may be recovered, if not paid upon demand, as arrears of rent could be recovered from the occupier by the said owner.

Tenants under existing leases to repay the owner.

184. Provided also, that the occupiers of any rateable property, being tenants thereof from year to year, may demand to be assessed for the same, and to pay the rates in respect thereof made under the authority of this or the special Act, and the commissioners shall assess every such occupier so long as he duly pays the said rates.

Occupiers may be rated if they think fit.

And with respect to the appeal to be made against any rate ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

185 ⁽²⁾. If any person think himself aggrieved by any rate on the ground of inequality, unfairness, or incorrectness in the valuation of any rateable property included therein, or in the amount assessed thereon, he may at any time within one month after such rate is made appeal to the justices at any special sessions holden for the division within which the rateable property is situated for the purpose of considering appeals against the poor rates, or in Ireland may appeal to the justices of the petty sessions of the district, or to the justices acting for the district, within which the rateable property is situated; but no such appeal shall be entertained by such justices unless seven days' notice in writing of such appeal be given by the aggrieved party to the commissioners; and at the sessions for which such notice is given, or any adjournment thereof, the justices there present shall hear and determine all objections to any such rate on the ground of inequality, unfairness, or incorrectness, in the valuation of any property included therein, or in the amount assessed thereon, of which notice has been so given, but no other objection; and their decision shall be final, unless the party impugning such decision, within fourteen days after the same is made, give notice in writing to the other party of his intention to appeal against such decision, stating in such notice the nature and grounds of such appeal, and within five days after giving such notice enter into a recognizance before some justice of the peace, with sufficient sureties, conditioned to try such appeal at the then next quarter sessions at which the same can be tried, and to abide the order of and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the court at such sessions, or any adjournment thereof.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to petty sessions on the ground of incorrectness, &c., of valuation.

Their decision to be final unless appealed from to quarter sessions.

186. If any person think himself aggrieved by any rate made under the authority of this or the special Act, or by any matters included in or omitted from the same, he may, at any time within one month after the same is made, give notice of his intention to appeal to the next quarter sessions holden not less than fourteen days after such notice; but no such appeal shall be entertained at such quarter sessions unless fourteen days' notice in writing of such appeal, stating the nature and grounds thereof, be given by the aggrieved party to the commissioners: Provided always, that no such notice of appeal shall prevent the issuing of the warrant of distress for recovery of any such rate as herein-after provided, or the execution thereof.

Parties may appeal to the quarter sessions against a rate.

187. The court shall hear and determine the appeal in a summary way at the quarter sessions for which any such notice of appeal is given, or at the following sessions, when the court thinks fit to adjourn the appeal to the following sessions, and the decision of the court shall be final and conclusive on all parties.

Quarter sessions to hear appeal, whose decision shall be final.

⁽¹⁾ These provisions, with regard to the appeal to be made against rates, are incorporated with the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, by section 70 of that Act, post, p. 1048.

⁽²⁾ Compare the provisions as to appealing against rates made under the Public Health Act, 1875, in section 269 of that Act, and notes thereto, ante, pp. 193, 194; and as to appealing against a highway rate, see section 105 of the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 823.

Secs. 188—
193.

No order of special sessions to be in force pending appeal. On appeal, the quarter sessions and petty sessions to have same power of amending and quashing rates, and of awarding costs, as in appeals against poor rates.

Order of justices not to be removed by certiorari.

Rates to be recovered by distress.

Form of warrant of distress. Constables to assist in making distress.

Rate books to be evidence.

188. No order of the said justices shall be of any force pending an appeal touching the same subject, matter to the court of quarter sessions having jurisdiction to try such appeal, or in opposition to the order of any such court on such appeal.

189. The said justices and the court of quarter sessions respectively shall in any such appeal as aforesaid have the same powers of amending or quashing the rate in respect of which the appeal is made as are by law vested in courts of quarter sessions for amending or quashing the rates for the relief of the poor within their jurisdiction upon appeal against such rates, and shall likewise have respectively, in any appeal against any rate made under the authority of this or the special Act, the same powers of awarding costs to be paid by or to any of the parties to the appeal, and of recovering such costs, as are now vested in them respectively for awarding and recovering costs in an appeal against any rate for the relief of the poor within their jurisdiction: Provided always, that if the said justices or court shall quash the rate in respect of which the appeal is made, then, notwithstanding the quashing of such rate, all sums of money charged by such rate on any person charged by such rate may, if the justices or court so order, be levied by such means and in the same manner as if no appeal had been made against such rate; and the money which any person charged on such rate pays, or which is recovered from him, shall be taken as a payment on account of the next effective rate made on him for the same purposes for which the rate so quashed was made.

190. No order of the said justices or court of quarter sessions upon any such appeal as aforesaid shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster ⁽¹⁾.

And with respect to the recovery of rates ⁽²⁾, be it enacted as follows:

191 ⁽³⁾. If any person rated under the authority of this or the special Act fail to pay any of the said rates due from him for the space of fourteen days after demand thereof in writing by the commissioners or their collector, any justice, on the application of the commissioners or their collector, may summon such person to appear before him at a time to be mentioned in the summons to show cause why the rates due from him should not be paid; and in case no sufficient cause for the non-payment of such rate be shown, the same shall be levied by distress, and such justice shall issue his warrant accordingly, or the commissioners may recover the same by action of debt; provided that if no sufficient distress whereon to levy the amount due in respect of such rates can be found within the jurisdiction of the said justice, then, upon oath thereof made before any justice of any other county or jurisdiction in which any goods or chattels of the person not paying the said rates may be found, such justice shall certify the said oath by endorsing the said warrant, and thereupon the amount due in respect of the said rates, and unpaid by the said person, may be levied by distress of the goods and chattels of such person as assessed in the last-mentioned county or jurisdiction.

192. The warrant of distress for the recovery of any rate made payable by this or the special Act may be in the form or to the effect mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed; and in all cases where a distress is hereby authorised to be made, every constable authorised by the warrant to levy any sum mentioned therein shall, upon being required by a collector of the rates, aid in making a distress or sale pursuant to such warrant; and every constable who refuses to do so shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

193. In any proceeding to levy and recover or consequent on the levying or recovering of any rate under the provisions of this or the special Act, the books of rates of the commissioners, and all entries made therein in manner by this or the special Act directed, by the production thereof alone, and without any evidence that the notices and other requirements of this or the special Act have been given or complied with, or proof of the seal of the commissioners if they are incorporated, or if not, then on proof of the signatures of the commissioners whose names appear thereon or subscribed therein, shall be received as evidence of such rate and of the contents thereof. Secs. 193—198.

⁽¹⁾ See the notes to section 262 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and cases cited therein, ante, p. 187.

⁽²⁾ These provisions with respect to the recovery of rates are incorporated with the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, by section 70 of that Act, post, p. 1048.

⁽³⁾ See the notes to section 256 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 184.

194. If any person quit or be about to quit any rateable property before he has paid the rates then payable by him in respect thereof, and do not pay the same to the commissioners or their collector on demand, any justice having jurisdiction where such person resides, or his goods are found, may summon such person to show cause why the rates should not be paid, and if no sufficient cause for the non-payment of such rates be shown accordingly, the same shall be levied by distress, and such justice shall issue his warrant accordingly. Remedy against persons quitting before payment of rates.

195 (1). When any rate has been made for a particular period, and the owner or occupier ⁽²⁾ who is rated to such rate ceases to be the owner or occupier of the property in respect whereof he is rated before the end of such period, such owner or occupier shall be liable to pay a portion only of the rate payable for the whole of such period proportionate to the time during which he continued to be owner or occupier; and in every such case if any person after the making of such rate become the owner or occupier of any property so rated as aforesaid during part of the period for which such rate was made, such person shall pay a portion of such rate proportioned to the time during which he held or occupied the property so rated, and the same shall be recovered from him in the same manner as if he had been originally rated for such property. Rates to be apportioned on holder quitting.

196. When the owner of any rateable property is rated in respect thereof under the authority of this or the special Act, and the rate remains unpaid for three months, the commissioners, or their collector, may demand the amount of such rate from the occupier for the time being of such rateable property, and on non-payment thereof may recover the same by distress and sale of his goods and chattels in like manner as rates may be recovered from the occupier of any property liable to be rated; and every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to such owner so much as was so paid by or recovered from him. Rates due from owner may be recovered from occupier.

197. Provided always, that no such occupier shall be required to pay, nor shall his goods and chattels be distrained for, any further sum than the amount of rent due from him at the time of the demand made upon him for such amount of rate, or which after such demand, and after notice not to pay the same to his landlord, at any time accrues and becomes payable by him, unless he refuse, on application being made to him for that purpose by or on behalf of the commissioners, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and address of the person to whom such rent is payable; but the burthen of proof that the sum demanded from any such occupier is greater than the rent due by him at the time of such notice, or which has since accrued, shall lie upon such occupier. Occupier not to be required to pay more than the amount of rent owing by him.

198 (3). If, on the request of the commissioners, or of the collector of the said rates, the occupier of any property refuses or wilfully omits to disclose, or wilfully mis-states to the commissioners or collector making such request, the name of the owner of such property, or of the person receiving or authorised to receive the rents of the same, any justice of the peace, on oath made before him of such request, and of such refusal or wilful omission or mis-statement, may summon the person who has so refused or wilfully omitted or mis-stated as aforesaid to appear at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons before such justice, or before some other justice; and if the person so summoned neglect or refuse to attend at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or if he attend and do not show good cause to the justice then present for such his refusal or wilful omission or mis-statement, such justice, upon proof, in case of the neglect or refusal to attend as aforesaid, of the due service of the said summons, or on such attend- Occupier refusing to give name of owner liable to a penalty.

(1) A similar provision is contained in sub-section 3 of section 211 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 163.

(2) Where a person was assessed for property of some of which he was neither owner nor occupier, and the commissioners issued a distress warrant to levy the whole, it was held that the warrant was altogether void and the distress illegal: Tucker v. Maitland, 24 L. T. 111; see also Hurrell v. Wink, 8 Taunt. 369.

(3) A similar provision is contained in section 306 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 211.

Secs. 198—204.—ance, may impose a penalty upon such person who has so refused, or wilfully made such omission or mis-statement, not exceeding the sum of five pounds.

Surveyors of highways may proceed for the recovery of arrears of highway rates.

199. The several persons who at the time of the passing of the special Act are surveyors ⁽¹⁾ of highways for any township or other district within the limits of the special Act, may proceed for the recovery of any highway rate made in such township or district, and then remaining unpaid, in the same manner as they might have done if this and the special Act had not been passed, and they shall apply the money which they so recover, in the first place, in reimbursing themselves any expenses which they have incurred as such surveyors as aforesaid, and in discharge of any debts legally owing from them in respect of the highways within such township or district; and the surplus, if any, arising from any buildings or lands within the limits of the special Act, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be paid by them to the treasurer to the commissioners, and shall be applied to the same purposes as the rates by this or the special Act authorised to be levied are directed to be applied.

And with respect to the bye-laws to be made by virtue of this or the special Act ⁽²⁾, be it enacted as follows:

Bye-laws.

200. The commissioners may from time to time make such bye-laws as they think fit for the several purposes for which they are hereinbefore or by the special Act empowered to make bye-laws, and from time to time repeal, alter, or amend any such bye-laws, provided such bye-laws be not repugnant to the laws of that part of the United Kingdom where the same are to have effect, or the provisions of this or the special Act, and be reduced into writing, and have affixed thereto the common seal of the commissioners if they be a body corporate, or the signatures of two of the commissioners if they be not a body corporate, and, if affecting other persons than the officers or servants of the company, be confirmed and published as herein provided.

Bye-laws may be enforced by imposition of penalties.

201 ⁽³⁾. The commissioners, by the bye-laws so to be made by them, may impose such reasonable penalties as they think fit, not exceeding forty shillings for each breach of such bye-laws: Provided always, that such bye-laws be so framed as to allow the justices before whom any penalty imposed thereby is sought to be recovered to order the whole or part only of such penalty to be paid, or to remit the whole penalty.

Bye-laws to be confirmed.

202 ⁽⁴⁾. No bye-law made by the commissioners under the authority of this or the special Act, except such as relate solely to the commissioners or their officers or servants, shall come into operation until the same be confirmed in the prescribed manner, and if no manner of confirmation be prescribed, then not until it be allowed by some judge of one of the superior courts or by the justices in quarter sessions; and it shall be incumbent on such justices, on the request of the commissioners, to inquire into any bye-laws tendered to them for that purpose, and to allow or disallow of the same as they think meet.

Notice of confirmation to be given.

203 ⁽⁴⁾. No such bye-laws shall be confirmed unless notice of the intention to apply for a confirmation of the same have been given in one or more newspapers circulating within the limits of the special Act one month at least before the hearing of such application; and any person desiring to object to any such bye-law, on giving to the commissioners notice of the nature of his objection ten days before the hearing of the application for the allowance thereof, may by himself or his counsel, attorney, or agent, be heard thereon, but not so as to allow more than one objecting party to be heard on the same matter of objection.

A copy of proposed

204 ⁽⁴⁾. For one month at least previous to any such application for confirmation of any bye-law, a copy of the proposed bye-laws shall be kept at the principal office of the

⁽¹⁾ By section 144 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 113, the powers of surveyors of highways within urban districts are vested in the urban authority.

⁽²⁾ These provisions with respect to bye-laws are incorporated with the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, by section 71 of that Act, post, p. 1048. With respect to bye-laws made under the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 182—188 of that Act, ante, pp. 147—150. As to the general requisites to the validity of bye-laws, see note ⁽³⁾, ante, pp. 147, 148.

⁽³⁾ See section 183 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 148.

⁽⁴⁾ See section 184 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 149.

commissioners, and all persons may at all reasonable times inspect such copy without fee or reward; and the commissioners shall furnish every person who applies for the same with a copy thereof, or of any part thereof, on payment of sixpence for every one hundred words so to be copied.

Secs. 204—
210.

205 (1). Such bye-laws, when confirmed, shall be published in the prescribed manner, and when no manner of publication is prescribed they shall be printed, and the clerk to the commissioners shall deliver a printed copy thereof to every person applying for the same without charge; and a copy thereof shall be painted or placed on boards, which shall be hung up on the front or in some conspicuous part of the principal office of the commissioners, and also on some conspicuous part of the works or locality to which the same relates; and such boards, with the bye-laws thereon, shall be from time to time renewed as occasion requires, and shall be open to inspection without fee or reward; and any such clerk who does not allow the same to be inspected at all reasonable times shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

bye-laws to be open to inspection.
Publication of
bye-laws.

206. Such bye-laws, when so confirmed and published, shall be binding upon and be observed by all parties, and shall be sufficient to justify all parties acting under the same.

Bye-laws to be binding on all parties.

207 (2). The production of written or a printed copy of the bye-laws, requiring confirmation by a judge of the superior courts or the court of quarter sessions, authenticated by the signature of the judge or of the chairman of the court which approved of the same, and a written or printed copy of the bye-laws not requiring such confirmation authenticated by the common seal of the commissioners, if they be incorporated, or, if not incorporated, authenticated by the signature of two commissioners, shall be evidence of the existence and of the due making of such bye-laws in all prosecutions under the same, without adducing proof of the signature of such judge or chairman, or the common seal or signatures of the commissioners; and with respect to the proof of the publication thereof it shall be sufficient to prove that a board containing a copy thereof was affixed and continued in the manner by this Act directed, and in case of its being afterwards displaced or damaged, that such board was replaced or restored as soon as conveniently might be, unless proof be adduced by the party complained against that such painted board did not contain a copy of the bye-law under which he is prosecuted, or that it was not duly affixed or continued as required by this Act.

Evidence of
bye-laws.

208. Any person who destroys, pulls down, injures, or defaces any board on the premises of the commissioners on which any bye-law of the commissioners is painted or placed shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalty on pulling down boards.

209 (3). And with respect to the tender of amends, be it enacted, that if any party have committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceeding in the execution of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any power or authority thereby given, and if before action brought in respect thereof such party make tender of sufficient amends to the party injured, such last-mentioned party shall not recover in any such action; and if no such tender have been made it shall be lawful for the defendant, by leave of the court where such action is pending, at any time before issue joined, to pay into court such sum of money as he thinks fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into court.

Tender of amends.

And with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices, be it enacted as follows:

210. The clauses of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and penalties, and to the determination

Clauses of 8 & 9 Vict.
c. 20, as to

(1) See section 185 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 149.

(2) See section 186 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 149.

(3) Compare section 264 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 189, 190, and section 104 of the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 823. There is a similar provision as to tender of amends in section 135 of the Lands Clauses Act, 1845, ante, p. 976; in section 139 of the Railway Clauses Act, 1845; and in section 141 of the Companies Clauses Act, 1845.

Secs. 210 — of any other matter referred to justices⁽¹⁾, shall be incorporated in this and the special Act; and such clauses shall apply to the town or district within the limits of the special Act, and to the commissioners, and shall be construed as if the word "commissioners" had been inserted therein instead of the word "company."

216. recovery of damages and penalties incorporated with this and special Act, &c. In Ireland part of penalties to be paid to guardians of unions. Things required to be done by two justices may, in certain cases, be done by one.

Persons giving false evidence liable to penalties of perjury.

Copies of special Act to be kept by commissioners at their office, and deposited with the clerks of the peace, &c., and be open to inspection.

7 Will. IV. and 1 Vict. c. 83.

Penalty on commissioners failing to keep or deposit such copies.

Act may be amended, &c.

211 ⁽²⁾. Provided always, that in Ireland, in the case of any penalty imposed by justices, where the application is not otherwise provided for, such justices may award not more than one half of such penalty to the informer, and shall award the remainder to the guardians of the poor of the union within which the offence was committed, to be applied in aid of the poor rates of such union.

212. All things herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated herewith, authorised or required to be done by two justices, may and shall be done by any one magistrate having by law authority to act alone for any purpose with the powers of two or more justices⁽³⁾.

213 ⁽⁴⁾. Every person who, upon any examination upon oath under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.

And with respect to affording access to the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

214 ⁽⁵⁾. The commissioners shall at all times, after the expiration of six months after the passing of the special Act, keep in their principal office of business a copy of the special Act, printed by the printers to Her Majesty, or some of them, and shall also, within the space of such six months, deposit in the office of the clerk of the peace of the county in which the town or district within the limits of the special Act is situated a copy of such special Act, so printed as aforesaid; and the said clerk of the peace shall receive, and he and the commissioners respectively shall retain, the said copies of the special Act, and shall permit all persons interested to inspect the same, and make extracts and copies therefrom, in the like manner and upon the like terms, and under the like penalty for default, as is provided in the case of certain plans and sections by an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to compel Clerks of the Peace for Counties and other Persons to take the Custody of such Documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them under the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament."

215. If the commissioners shall fail to keep or deposit, as hereinbefore mentioned, any of the said copies of the special Act, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every such offence, and also five pounds for every day afterwards during which such copy is not so kept or deposited.

216 ⁽⁶⁾. And be it enacted, that this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this session of Parliament.

⁽¹⁾ These clauses are sections 140—159 of that Act. Similar provisions are contained in sections 136 et seq., of the Lands Clauses Act, 1845, ante, pp. 976, et seq. For the recovery of penalties under the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 251 et seq., of that Act, ante, p. 181.

⁽²⁾ This section has been repealed by section 1 of Statute Law Revision Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 66).

⁽³⁾ Any metropolitan police magistrate can do alone any act which by law is directed to be done by more than one justice by section 14 of 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71; and by section 1 of 21 and 22 Vict. c. 73, the same power is extended to every stipendiary magistrate.

⁽⁴⁾ There is a similar provision in section 263 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 188.

⁽⁵⁾ This section is the same as section 150 of the Lands Clauses Act, 1845, ante, p. 979; and also as section 162 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1845.

⁽⁶⁾ This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 66).

SCHEDULES referred to in the foregoing Act.

SCHEDULE (A).—Section 172.

Form of Rate.

An assessment to the sewer rate [or other rate, &c., as the case may be] for the [name the district or town], made this day of in the year of our Lord 18 , after the rate of pence in the pound, by virtue of the [name special Act].

No. on the rate.	Name of Person rated.	Name of the Owner of Property rated.	Description and Situation of Property.	Gross annual Value.	Full net annual Value.	Rate at d. in the Pound.	Amount of Drainage Rate (if any).

Signed by us, this day of in the year of our Lord .

A. B.
C. D.
E. F.
G. H.
I. K.
L. M.

Improvement Commissioners.

SCHEDULE (B).—Section 192.

Form of Warrant of Distress for the Recovery of a Rate.

County of } [or Borough, &c.] }
to wit.

WHEREAS complaint hath been duly made by one of the collectors of rates to the improvement commissioners, that of, &c., hath not paid and has refused to pay the sum of duly assessed upon him in and by a certain rate for the said town [or district] called the [herein name the rate], bearing date on or about the day of in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and and duly made according to the directions and for the purposes of [here name the special Act], although the same hath been duly demanded of him: And whereas it appears to me one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the said county [or borough, &c.] as well upon the oath of one of the said collectors of rates, as otherwise, that the said sum of hath been duly demanded in writing by him from the said and that the said hath refused to pay the same, for the space of fourteen days after such demand made, and doth refuse to pay the same: And whereas the said having appeared before me, in pursuance of my summons for that purpose, hath not shown to me any sufficient cause why the same should not be paid [or and whereas it hath been duly proved to me upon oath that the said hath been duly summoned to appear before me to show cause why he refuseth to pay the said rate or assessment, but he the said hath neglected to appear according to the said summons, and hath not shown to me any sufficient cause why the same should not be paid]: These are therefore, in Her Majesty's name, to command you to levy the said sum of by distress of the goods and chattels of the said ; and if the same shall not be paid within the space of days next after such distress by you taken, together with the reasonable charges of taking and keeping the same, that then you do sell the said goods and chattels by you distrained, and out of the money arising by such sale that you do detain the sum of and also your reasonable charges of taking, keeping, and selling the said distress, rendering to him the said the overplus, on demand; and if sufficient distress cannot be found of the goods and chattels of the said whereon to levy the said sum of that then you certify the same to me, together with this warrant, to the end that such further proceedings may be had therein as to the law doth appertain. Given under my hand and seal, the day of in the year of our Lord 18 .

, J.P. (I.S.)

THE TOWN POLICE CLAUSES ACT, 1847.

10 & 11 VICT. C. 89.

An Act for consolidating in one Act certain provisions usually contained in Acts for regulating the Police of Towns. (1) [2nd July, 1847.]

Secs. 1, 2.

Extent of Act.

Whereas it is expedient to comprise in one Act sundry provisions usually contained in Acts of Parliament for regulating the police of towns and populous districts, and that as well for avoiding the necessity of repeating such provisions in each of the several Acts relating to such towns or districts, as for ensuring greater uniformity in the provisions themselves: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, That this Act shall extend only to such towns or districts in England or Ireland as shall be comprised in any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed which shall declare that this Act shall be incorporated therewith; and all the clauses of this Act, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted by any such Act, shall apply to the town or district which shall be comprised in such Act, and to the Commissioners appointed for improving and regulating the same, so far as such clauses shall be applicable thereto respectively, and shall, with the clauses of every other Act which shall be incorporated therewith, form part of such Act and be construed therewith as forming one Act.

Interpretations in this Act:

And with respect to the construction of this Act, whether incorporated in whole or in part with any other Act, and of any Act incorporated therewith, be it enacted as follows:

"the special Act;"

2. The expression "the special Act" used in this Act shall be construed to mean any Act which shall be hereafter passed for the improvement or regulation of any town or district defined or comprised therein and with which this Act shall be incorporated; and the word "prescribed," used in this Act in reference to any matter herein stated, shall be construed to refer to such matter as the same shall be prescribed or provided for in the special Act, and the sentence in which such word shall occur shall be construed as if, instead of the word "prescribed," the expression "prescribed for that

"prescribed;"

(1) As to the meaning of the word "town," see note to the title of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, ante, p. 987.

Section 171 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136, incorporates the following provisions of this Act:

- (1) With respect to obstructions and nuisances in the streets, i.e., sections 21—29.
- (2) With respect to fires, i.e., sections 30—33.
- (3) With respect to places of public resort, i.e., sections 34—36.
- (4) With respect to hackney carriages, i.e., sections 37—68.
- (5) With respect to public bathing, i.e., section 69.

As to the construction of the provisions so incorporated, see section 171 (ante, p. 136), and section 316 (ante, p. 215) of that Act. By the latter section, "the commissioners" means the urban authority, and all penalties incurred under the provisions of any Act incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, shall be recovered and applied in the same way as penalties incurred under that Act; as to which see sections 251—254 of that Act, ante, pp. 181—183.

purpose in the special Act" had been used; and the expression "the Commissioners" ⁽¹⁾ Secs. 2—5.
shall mean the commissioners, trustees, or other persons or body corporate intrusted by the special Act with powers for executing the purposes thereof. "the commissioners."

3. The following words and expressions, in both this and the special Act, and any Interpretations in this and the special Act.
Act incorporated therewith, shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,)

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words Number.
importing the plural number shall include the singular number:

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females:

The word "person" shall include a corporation, whether aggregate or sole: Gender.

The word "lands" shall include messuages, lands, tenaments, and hereditaments of "Person."
any tenure: "Lands."

The word "street" ⁽²⁾ shall extend to and include any road, square, court, alley, and "Street."
thoroughfare or public passage within the limits of the special Act:

The word "month" shall mean calendar month: "Month."

The expression "superior courts" shall mean Her Majesty's Superior Courts of "Superior Courts."
Record at Westminster or Dublin, as the case may require, and shall include the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster and the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Durham:

The word "oath" shall include affirmation in the case of Quakers, and any declara- "Oath."
tion lawfully substituted for an oath in the case of any other persons allowed by law to make a declaration instead of taking an oath:

The word "county" shall include riding, or other division of a county having a "County."
separate commission of the peace, and shall also include county of a city or county of a town:

The word "justice" shall mean justice of the peace acting for the county, city, "Justice."
borough, liberty, cinque port, or other place where the matter requiring the cognizance of any such justice arises; and where any matter shall be authorized or required to be done by two justices, the expression "two justices" ⁽³⁾ shall be "Two justices."
understood to mean two or more justices met and acting together:

The expression "quarter sessions" shall mean quarter sessions as defined in the "Quarter sessions."
special Act, and if such expression be not there defined, shall mean the general or quarter sessions of the peace which shall be held in or at the place nearest to the district comprised within the special Act for the county in which such district or some part thereof is situated, or for some division of such county having a separate commission of the peace:

The word "cattle" shall include horses, asses, mules, sheep, goats, and swine. "Cattle."

And with respect to citing this Act, or any part thereof, be it enacted as follows:

4. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal instruments, it shall Short title of the Act.
be enough to use the expression "the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847."

5. For the purpose of incorporating part only of this Act with any Act hereafter to Form in which portions of this Act may be incorporated with other Acts.
be passed it shall be enough to describe the clauses of this Act with respect to any matter in the words introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter, and to enact that the clauses so described, or that this Act, with the exception of the clauses so described, shall be incorporated with such Act; and thereupon all the clauses of this Act so incorporated shall, save so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by such Act, form part of such Act, and such Act shall be construed as if such clauses were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which such Act relates.

⁽¹⁾ By section 316 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 215, where the provisions of any Act are incorporated with that Act, the urban or rural authority shall be deemed to be "the commissioners." As to what provisions of this Act are so incorporated, see note to the title of this Act, ante.

⁽²⁾ The word "street" here means a place over which the public have a right of passage: Curtis v. Embury, L. R. 7 Ex. 369, 42 L. J. M. C. 39, 21 W. R. 143.

⁽³⁾ By 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71, s. 14, any metropolitan police magistrate can do any act which by law is directed to be done by more than one justice; and by 21 & 22 Vict. c. 73, s. 1, the same power is extended to every stipendiary magistrate.

Secs. 6—12. And with respect to the appointment, and the powers, duties, and privileges, of constables, be it enacted as follows:

Appointment
of constables.
2 & 3 Vict.
c. 93.
3 & 4 Vict.
c. 88.

6. If any constables shall have been appointed within the limits of the special Act under the provisions of an Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the Establishment of County and District Constables by the Authority of the Justices of the Peace;" and of another Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Act for the Establishment of County and District Constables;" and if the justices for the county in which such district is situated, in general or quarter session assembled, report to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that the constables so appointed ought to be discontinued, and the said constables be, in pursuance thereof or otherwise, discontinued, or where no constables shall have been appointed under the provisions of the last-mentioned Act, the commissioners may from time to time appoint and employ a superintendent constable and also such number of constables as they judge necessary for the protection of the inhabitants and property within the said limits, and allow the superintendent constable and the other constables such salaries or wages as they think proper; and it shall be lawful for the commissioners from time to time to remove any such superintendent constable, constables, and officers as they think fit.

Power to apply for additional constables in case of need.

7. Where constables shall have been appointed under the last two recited Acts, or either of them, the commissioners, if they think it necessary so to do, may apply to the chief constable of the county in which the district within the said limits is situated, under the provisions of the last-recited Act, to appoint any additional number of constables within the said limits, and they may pay the charge of such appointments out of the rates to be levied under this and the special Act.

Constables to be sworn in.

8. Any justice may swear in any person appointed and employed as a constable under this and the special Act, and the constables so sworn in shall have, within the limits of the special Act, and in any place not more than five miles beyond such limits, the like powers, privileges, and duties, and shall have the same indemnities and protection, and shall be subject to the like penalties and forfeitures, as any constable duly appointed has or is subject to within his constablewick by law.

Expenses of prosecutions, and allowances to constables.

9. The commissioners may defray the expense of prosecuting any felons or offenders, and of defending any constable in the execution of his duty, and may make such allowances to any constable disabled in the execution of his duty, or worn out by length of service, as the commissioners think reasonable.

Constables not to resign without leave or notice.

10. No constable appointed under this or the special Act shall resign his office, or withdraw himself from the duties thereof, unless expressly allowed so to do in writing by the commissioners or by the superintendent constable, or until after he has given to such superintendent constable one month's notice; and every constable who so resigns or withdraws himself without such leave or notice shall be liable to forfeit all arrears of pay then due to him, or to a penalty of not more than five pounds, or, in the discretion of the justices before whom he shall be convicted, may be committed to prison, there to remain for a time not exceeding fourteen days.

Constables dismissed to deliver up accoutrements.

11. Every constable appointed under this or the special Act who is dismissed from or ceases to hold and exercise his office shall forthwith deliver over to the superintendent constable, or to such person and at such time and place as the commissioners direct, all the clothing, accoutrements, appointments, and other necessities which have been supplied to him for the execution of his duty, under pain of imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding one month; and any justice of the peace may issue his warrant to search for and seize to the use of the commissioners, all the clothing, accoutrements, appointments, and other necessities not so delivered over, wherever the same are found.

Penalty for unlawful possession of accoutrements, or for assuming the dress of constables.

12. Every person who, not being at the time a constable appointed under this or the special Act, has in his possession any article being part of the clothing, accoutrements, or appointments supplied to any such constable, and who is not able satisfactorily to account for his possession thereof, or who puts on the dress or takes the name, designation, or character of any person appointed as such constable, for the purpose of thereby obtaining admission into any house or other place, or of doing or procuring to be done any act which such person would not be entitled to do or procure to be done of his own authority, or for any other unlawful purpose, shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he is liable for such offence, be liable to a penalty of not exceeding ten pounds. Secs. 12-20.

13. The commissioners may from time to time purchase or rent any buildings or land, and convert such buildings into or build on such land offices, watch-houses, lock-up houses, and other places necessary for the purposes of this and the special Act, with all proper conveniences thereto, and may repair the same from time to time, and furnish and fit up the same, and employ proper persons to take care thereof. Power to provide offices, watch-houses, &c.

14. The constables appointed by virtue of this and the special Act shall keep watch and ward within the limits of the special Act, and shall use their best endeavours to prevent any mischief by fire, and all felonies, misdemeanours, and breaches of the peace. Duties of constables.

15. Any person found committing any offence punishable either upon indictment or as a misdemeanour upon summary conviction by virtue of this or the special Act may be taken into custody, without a warrant, by any of the said constables, or may be apprehended by the owner of the property on or with respect to which the offence is committed, or by his servant or any person authorised by him, and may be detained until he can be delivered into the custody of a constable; and the persons so arrested shall be taken, as soon as conveniently may be, before some justice, to be examined and dealt with according to law: Provided always, that no person arrested under the powers of this or the special Act shall be detained in custody by any constable or other officer, without the order of some justice, longer than shall be necessary for bringing him before a justice, or than forty hours at the utmost. Power to police constables and persons aggrieved to apprehend certain offenders.

16. Every constable acting within the limits of the special Act who is guilty of any neglect or violation of his duty as a constable, and convicted thereof before two justices, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds, the amount of which penalty may be deducted from the salary or wages due to him or to become due to him, or, in the discretion of the justices before whom he is convicted, he may lawfully be imprisoned for any time not exceeding one month, with or without hard labour. Penalty for neglect of duty.

17. Whenever any person charged with any offence under this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, not amounting to felony, and of which he is liable to be summarily convicted before a justice, is in the custody of any constable acting as aforesaid, without the warrant of a justice, the superintendent constable of the district, or appointed under this Act, or other the superior officer of police acting within the said limits, may, if he deem it prudent so to do, but in such cases only in which the offender cannot be conveniently taken before a justice, take the recognisance of such person, with or without sureties, conditioned as hereinafter mentioned. Power to constables to take recognisances.

18. Every recognisance so taken shall be taken without fee or reward, and shall be conditioned for the appearance of the person thereby bound before a justice, at a certain day not later than seven days from the date of such recognisance, and the time and place of such appearance shall be specified in the recognisance. Form of recognisances.

19. The officer taking any such recognisance shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose the name, residence, and occupation of the party and his sureties, if any, entering into such recognisance, together with the condition thereof, and the sum thereby acknowledged, and shall return every such recognisance to the justice at the time and place when and where the party is bound to appear, and every such recognisance shall have the like force and effect as if the same had been taken before a justice. Recognisances to be registered and returned to the justices.

20. Every person who assaults or resists, or who aids or incites any person to assault or resist, any constable in the execution of his duty under the provisions of this or the special Act, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, or, in the discretion of the justice before whom he is convicted, may be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month, with or without hard labour. Penalties on persons assaulting constables.

And with respect to obstructions and nuisances in the streets⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows⁽²⁾:

⁽¹⁾ As to the meaning of the word "street," see note to section 3, ante, p. 1033.

⁽²⁾ These provisions with respect to obstructions and nuisances in the streets are incorporated in the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 171 of that Act, ante, p. 136.

As to the construction of the incorporated provisions, see section 171 (ante, p. 136), and section 316 of that Act, ante, p. 215.

Secs. 21-26.

Power to prevent obstructions in the streets during public processions, &c.

Power to regulate the route of persons driving stage carriages, &c., during divine service.

Proprietors of stage carriages deviating from route by order free from penalty. Power to impound stray cattle.

Power to sell stray cattle for penalty and expenses.

Persons guilty of pound-breach to be committed for three months.

21. The commissioners may from time to time make orders for the route to be observed by all carts, carriages, horses, and persons, and for preventing obstruction of the streets within the limits of the special Act, in all times of public processions, rejoicings, or illuminations, and in any case when the streets are thronged or liable to be obstructed, and may also give directions to the constables for keeping order and preventing any obstruction ⁽¹⁾ of the streets in the neighbourhood of theatres and other places of public resort, and every wilful breach of any such order shall be deemed a separate offence against this Act, and every person committing any such offence shall be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

22. On application to the commissioners by the minister or churchwardens or chapelwardens of any church, chapel, or other place of public worship within the limits of the special Act, the commissioners may make orders for regulating the route by which persons shall drive any cart or carriage, or cattle ⁽³⁾, or the manner in which they shall drive them, in the neighbourhood of such places of worship, during the hours of divine service on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving, and any orders so made shall be printed and put up on or near the church, chapel, or place of public worship to which the same refer, and in some conspicuous places near and leading thereto, and elsewhere as the commissioners direct, and every wilful breach of any such order shall be deemed a separate offence against this Act, and every person committing any such offence shall be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

23. No proprietor of any stage carriage duly licensed to carry passengers for hire shall be liable to any penalty for any deviation from the route or line of route specified in his licence which the driver of such stage carriage makes in consequence of any regulation or direction made or given by the commissioners.

24. If any cattle be at any time found at large in any street within the limits of the special Act, without any person having the charge thereof, any constable or officer of police, or any person residing within the limits of the special Act, may seize and impound such cattle in any common pound within the said limits, or in such other place as the commissioners appoint for that purpose, and may detain the same therein until the owner thereof pay to the commissioners a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding forty shillings, besides the reasonable expenses of impounding and keeping such cattle ⁽⁴⁾.

25. If the said penalty and expenses be not paid within three days after such impounding, the pound-keeper, or other person appointed by the commissioners for that purpose, may proceed to sell or cause to be sold any such cattle; but previous to such sale seven days' notice thereof shall be given to or left at the dwelling-house or place of abode of the owner of such cattle, if he be known, or if not, then notice of such intended sale shall be given by advertisement, to be inserted seven days before such sale in some newspaper published or circulated within the limits of the special Act; and the money arising from such sale, after deducting the said sums, and the expenses aforesaid, and all other expenses attending the impounding, advertising, keeping, and sale of any such cattle so impounded, shall be paid to the commissioners, and shall be by them paid, on demand, to the owner of the cattle so sold.

26. Every person who releases or attempts to release any cattle from any pound or place where the same are impounded under the authority of this or the special Act, or who pulls down, damages, or destroys the same pound or place, or any part thereof, with intent to procure the unlawful release of such cattle, shall, upon conviction of such offence

⁽¹⁾ As to causing an obstruction in a thoroughfare, see Ball v. Ward, cited in note ⁽¹⁾, post, p. 1038.

⁽²⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

⁽³⁾ Where a local Act imposed a penalty on any drover or other person, who conducts or drives in, upon, or through the streets any cattle during Sunday, it was held that the penalty was not incurred by a person who conveyed the cattle in a carriage or van through the streets: Triggs v. Lester, 30 J. P. 228.

⁽⁴⁾ As to cattle straying on a highway, see 28 & 29 Vict. c. 101, s. 25, and the cases cited in the notes thereto, ante, pp. 864, 865.

before any two justices ⁽¹⁾, be committed by them to some common gaol or house of correction for any time not exceeding three months. Secs. 26-28.

27. The commissioners may purchase a piece of land within the limits of the special Act for the purpose of a pound for stray animals, and may erect a pound thereon, and such pound when made shall be kept in repair by the commissioners ⁽²⁾. Power to provide a pound.

28. Every person who in any street ⁽³⁾, to the obstruction, annoyance, or danger of the residents or passengers, commits any of the following offences, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽⁴⁾ not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, or, in the discretion of the justice before whom he is convicted, may be committed to prison, there to remain for a period not exceeding fourteen days, and any constable or other officer appointed by virtue of this or the special Act shall take into custody, without warrant, and forthwith convey before a justice, any person who within his view commits any such offence; (that is to say,) ⁽⁵⁾ Penalty on persons committing any of the offences herein named.

Every person who exposes for show, hire, or sale (except in a market or market place or fair lawfully appointed for that purpose) any horse or other animal, or exhibits in a caravan or otherwise any show or public entertainment, or shoes, bleeds, or farries any horse or animal (except in cases of accident), or cleans, dresses, exercises, trains or breaks, or turns loose any horse or animal, or makes or repairs any part of any cart or carriage (except in cases of accident where repair on the spot is necessary) :

Every person who suffers to be at large an unmuzzled ferocious dog, or sets on or urges any dog or other animal to attack, worry, or put in fear any person or animal :

Every owner of any dog who suffers such dog to go at large, knowing or having reasonable ground for believing it to be in a rabid state, or to have been bitten by any dog or other animal in a rabid state :

Every person, who after public notice given by any justice directing dogs to be confined on account of suspicion of canine madness, suffers any dog to be at large during the time specified in such notice ⁽⁶⁾ :

Every person who slaughters or dresses any cattle, or any part thereof, except in the case of any cattle over-driven which may have met with any accident, and which for the public safety or other reasonable cause ought to be killed on the spot :

Every person having the care of any waggon, cart, or carriage who rides on the shafts thereof, or who without having reins, and holding the same, rides upon such waggon, cart, or carriage, or on any animal drawing the same, or who is at such a distance from such waggon, cart, or carriage as not to have due control over every animal drawing the same, or who does not, in meeting any other carriage, keep his waggon, cart, or carriage to the left or near side, or who in passing any other carriage does not keep his waggon, cart, or carriage on the right or off side of the road (except in cases of actual necessity, or some sufficient reason for deviation), or who, by obstructing the street, wilfully prevents any person or carriage from passing him, or any waggon, cart, or carriage under his care :

Every person who at one time drives more than two carts or waggons, and every person driving two carts or waggons who has not the halter of the horse in the last cart or waggon securely fastened to the back of the first cart or waggon, or has such halter of a greater length from such fastening to the horse's head than four feet :

⁽¹⁾ See note ⁽³⁾, p. 1033.

⁽²⁾ A person who distrains cattle is bound to impound them in a proper pound; and if the usual pound is in an unfit state, he must find another: Bignell v. Clarke, 5 H. & N. 485, 29 L. J. Ex. 257, 2 L. T. N. S. 189.

⁽³⁾ As to the meaning of the word "street," see note to section 3, ante.

⁽⁴⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

⁽⁵⁾ Compare the list of offences in connection with highways specified in section 72 of the Highway Act, 1835, ante, pp. 802-806; and see further the Vagrant Act, 5 Geo. IV. c. 83, and the Vagrant Amendment Act, 1873, 36 & 37 Vict. c. 38, s. 3.

⁽⁶⁾ See further, the Dogs Act, 1871, 34 & 35 Vict. c. 56.

Section 28.

Every person who rides or drives furiously any horse or carriage, or drives furiously any cattle :

Every person who causes any public carriage, sledge, truck, or barrow, with or without horses, or any beast of burden, to stand longer than is necessary for loading or unloading goods, or for taking up or setting down passengers (except hackney carriages, and horses and other beasts of draught or burthen, standing for hire in any place appointed for that purpose by the commissioners or other lawful authority), and every person who, by means of any cart, carriage, sledge, truck, or barrow, or any animal, or other means, wilfully interrupts any public crossing, or wilfully causes any obstruction in any public footpath or other public thoroughfare ⁽¹⁾ :

Every person who causes any tree or timber or iron beam to be drawn in or upon any carriage, without having sufficient means of safely guiding the same :

Every person who leads or rides any horse or other animal, or draws or drives any cart or carriage, sledge, truck, or barrow upon any footway of any street, or fastens any horse or other animal so that it stands across or upon any footway :

Every person who places or leaves any furniture, goods, wares, or merchandise, or any cask, tub, basket, pail, or bucket, or places or uses any standing-place, stool, bench, stall, or showboard on any footway, or who places any blind, shade, covering, awning, or other projection over or along any such footway, unless such blind, shade, covering, awning, or other projection is eight feet in height at least in every part thereof from the ground :

Every person who places, hangs up, or otherwise exposes to sale any goods, wares, merchandise, matter, or thing whatsoever, so that the same project into or over any footway, or beyond the line of any house, shop, or building at which the same are so exposed, so as to obstruct or incommode the passage of any person over or along such footway :

Every person who rolls or carries any cask, tub, hoop, or wheel, or any ladder, plank, pole, timber, or log of wood, upon any footway, except for the purpose of loading or unloading any cart or carriage, or of crossing the footway :

Every person who places any line, cord, or pole across any street, or hangs or places any clothes thereon :

Every common prostitute or nightwalker loitering and importuning passengers for the purpose of prostitution :

Every person who wilfully and indecently exposes his person :

Every person who publicly offers for sale ⁽²⁾ or distribution, or exhibits to public view, any profane, indecent, or obscene book, paper, print, drawing, painting, or representation, or sings any profane or obscene song or ballad, or uses any profane or obscene language.

Every person who wantonly discharges any firearm, or throws or discharges any stone or other missile, or makes any bonfire, or throws or sets fire to any fireworks. ⁽³⁾

Every person who wilfully and wantonly disturbs any inhabitant, by pulling or ringing any door bell, or knocking at any door, ⁽⁴⁾ or who wilfully and unlawfully extinguishes the light of any lamp :

(1) An appellant had an auction caravan, standing in the market-place of a town, for which he paid a rent or toll to the improvement commissioners appointed by a local Act as the lords of the manor. The caravan was only three feet from a public street of the town, and many persons obstructed the thoroughfare by stopping to listen to appellant's sales. The justices convicted the appellant, under this section, of causing an obstruction in a thoroughfare. It was held, on a case stated, that what the appellant did was not an offence within this Act: Ball v. Ward, 33 L. T. N. S. 170, 40 J. P. 213.

(2) See the Sale of Obscene Books, &c., Prevention Act (20 & 21 Vict. c. 83), under which justices may authorise the search of suspected premises; see also 1 & 2 Vict. c. 38, s. 2, and 14 & 15 Vict. c. 100, s. 29.

(3) By section 80 of the Explosives Act, 1875 (38 & 39 Vict. c. 17), ante, p. 700, if any person throw, cast, or fire any firework in or into any high street, thoroughfare, or public place, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £5.

(4) The mere fact of a man being instructed to deliver papers at the house of a third

Every person who flies any kite, or who makes or uses any slide upon ice or snow: Secs. 28, 29.

Every person who cleanses, hoops, fires, washes, or scalds any cask or tub, or hews, saws, bores, or cuts any timber or stone, or slacks, sifts, or screens any lime:

Every person who throws or lays down any stones, coals, slate, shells, lime, bricks, timber, iron, or other materials (except building materials so inclosed as to prevent mischief to passengers):

Every person who beats or shakes any carpet, rug, or mat (except door mats, beaten or shaken before the hour of eight in the morning):

Every person who fixes or places any flower-pot or box, or other heavy article, in any upper window, without sufficiently guarding the same against being blown down:

Every person who throws from the roof or any part of any house or other building any slate, brick, wood, rubbish, or other thing, except snow thrown so as not to fall on any passenger:

Every occupier of any house or other building or other person who orders or permits any person in his service to stand on the sill of any window, in order to clean, paint, or perform any other operation upon the outside of such window, or upon any house or other building within the said limits, unless such window be in the sunk or basement story:

Every person who leaves open any vault or cellar, or the entrance from any street to any cellar or room underground, without a sufficient fence or handrail, or leaves defective the door, window, or other covering of any vault or cellar, or who does not sufficiently fence any area, pit, or sewer left open, or who leaves such open area, pit, or sewer without sufficient light after sunset to warn or prevent persons from falling thereinto:

Every person who throws or lays any dirt, litter, or ashes, or nightsoil, or any carrion, fish, offal, or rubbish, on any street, or causes any offensive matter to run from any manufactory, brewery, slaughter-house, butcher's shop, or dunghill into any street: Provided always, that it shall not be deemed an offence to lay sand or other materials in any street in time of frost, to prevent accidents, or litter or other suitable materials to prevent the freezing of water in pipes, or in case of sickness to prevent noise, if the party laying any such things causes them to be removed as soon as the occasion for them ceases:

Every person who keeps any pigstye to the front of any street, not being shut out from such street by a sufficient wall or fence, or who keeps any swine in or near any street, so as to be a common nuisance ⁽¹⁾:

29. Every person drunk in any street ⁽²⁾, and guilty of any riotous or indecent behaviour therein, and also every person guilty of any violent or indecent behaviour in any police office or any police station house within the limits of the special Act, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽³⁾ not exceeding forty shillings for every such offence, or, in the discretion of the justice before whom he is convicted, to imprisonment for a period not exceeding seven days ⁽⁴⁾.

Penalty on drunken persons, &c., guilty of riotous or indecent behaviour.

person is no answer to a complaint against him under this section, charging him with having "wilfully and wantonly" disturbed the party and his family by violently knocking and ringing at the door at an unreasonable hour of the night: Clarke v. Hoggins, 11 C. B. N. S. 545.

(1) By section 47 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 67, a penalty is imposed upon any person who keeps any swine or pigstye in any dwelling-house, or so as to be a nuisance to any person; see also Banbury Urban Sanitary Authority v. Page, cited in note ⁽²⁾ to that section. A bye-law, made by a rural sanitary authority, purporting to act under the powers of sections 44 and 276 of the Public Health Act, 1875 (ante, pp. 66 and 198), prohibiting the keeping of swine within a distance of fifty feet from any dwelling-house within their district, was held unreasonable and bad: Heap v. Burnley Union, 12 Q. B. D. 617, 53 L. J. M. C. 76, 32 W. R. 661, 48 J. P. 359.

(2) See note to section 3, ante.

(3) As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see note to title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

(4) By section 12 of the Licensing Act, 1872 (35 & 36 Vict. c. 94), a penalty is imposed on persons found drunk in any highway or other public place, or on any licensed premises.

Where a person was summoned before two justices on a charge of being drunk and

Secs. 29-34.

Penalty for setting chimneys wilfully on fire.

Penalty for accidentally allowing chimneys to catch fire.

Fire engines and firemen may be provided by the commissioners.

Fire police permitted to go beyond the limits of the Act in certain cases.

Penalty on victuallers harbouring constables while on duty.

And with respect to fires ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

30. Every person who wilfully sets or causes to be set on fire any chimney within the limits of the special Act shall be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding five pounds: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt the person so setting or causing to be set on fire any chimney from liability to be indicted for felony.

31. If any chimney accidentally catch or be on fire within the said limits the person occupying or using the premises in which such chimney is situated shall be liable to a penalty ⁽²⁾ not exceeding ten shillings: Provided always, that such forfeiture shall not be incurred if such person prove to the satisfaction of the justice before whom the case is heard that such fire was nowise owing to omission, neglect, or carelessness of himself or servant.

32. The commissioners may purchase or provide such engines for extinguishing fire, and such water buckets, pipes, and other appurtenances for such engines, and such fire escapes and other implements for safety or use in case of fire, and may purchase, keep, or hire such horses for drawing such engines as they think fit, and may build, provide, or hire places for keeping such engines with their appurtenances, and may employ a proper number of persons to act as firemen, and may make such rules for their regulation as they think proper, and give such firemen and other persons such salaries and such rewards for their exertions in cases of fire as they think fit ⁽³⁾.

33. The commissioners may send such engines, with their appurtenances, and the said firemen, beyond the limits of the special Act, for extinguishing fire in the neighbourhood of the said limits; and the owner ⁽⁴⁾ of the lands or buildings where such fire shall have happened shall in such case defray the actual expense which may be thereby incurred, and shall also pay to the commissioners a reasonable charge for the use of such engines with their appurtenances, and for the attendance of such firemen; and in case of any difference between the commissioners and the owner ⁽⁴⁾ of the said lands or buildings, the amount of the said expenses and charge, as well as the propriety of sending the said engines and firemen as aforesaid for extinguishing such fire (if the propriety thereof be disputed), shall be determined by two justices, whose decision shall be final; and the amount of the said expenses and charge shall be recovered by the commissioners as damages.

And with respect to places of public resort ⁽⁵⁾, be it enacted as follows:

34. Every victualler or keeper of any public house, or person licensed to sell wine, spirits, beer, cider, or other fermented or distilled liquors by retail, to be drunk or consumed on the premises, within the limits of the special Act, who knowingly harbours or entertains or suffers to remain in his public house or place wherein he carries on his business any constable during any part of the time appointed for his being guilty of riotous behaviour under this section, and the justices convicted him of drunkenness under 21 Jac. 1, c. 7, the conviction was held bad: Martin v. Pridgeon, 28 L. J. M. C. 179, 5 Jur. N. S. 894, 7 W. R. 412, 33 L. T. 119, 8 Cox, C. C. 170.

⁽¹⁾ These provisions with respect to fires are incorporated in the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 171 of that Act, ante, p. 136.

See note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

By section 66 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 78, urban authority are required to provide fire plugs; and by section 157 of the same Act, ante, p. 128, they can make bye-laws for the prevention of fires.

⁽²⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

⁽³⁾ A local government board is not entitled, under this section, to charge for the use of apparatus employed and value of water consumed on the occasion of a fire on premises situated within the district of such board: Local Board of Bridlington v. Bower, 22 W. R. 165, 38 J. P. 73.

⁽⁴⁾ An occupier is an owner within this section, and is liable for the expense of sending an engine to extinguish a fire on his premises: Lewis v. Arnold, L. R. 10 Q. B. 245, 44 L. J. M. C. 68, 32 L. T. N. S. 553, 23 W. R. 729.

⁽⁵⁾ These provisions with respect to places of public resort are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, and applied to urban districts, by section 171 of that Act, ante, p. 136. As to the construction of the provisions so incorporated, see section 171, (ante, p. 136), and section 316 of that Act, ante, p. 215.

on duty, unless for the purpose of quelling any disturbance or restoring order, shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding twenty shillings ⁽²⁾. Secs. 34-38.

35. Every person keeping any house, shop, room, or other place of public resort within the limits of the special Act for the sale or consumption of refreshments of any kind who knowingly suffers common prostitutes or reputed thieves to assemble at and continue in his premises shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding five pounds ⁽²⁾. Penalty on coffee shop keepers harbouring disorderly persons.

36. Every person who within the limits of the special Act keeps or uses or acts in the management of any house, room, pit, or other place for the purpose of fighting, baiting ⁽⁴⁾, or worrying any animals shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ of not more than five pounds, or, in the discretion of the justices before whom he is convicted, to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a time not exceeding one month; and the commissioners may, by order in writing authorise the superintendent constable ⁽⁵⁾, with such constables as he thinks necessary, to enter any premises kept or used for any of the purposes aforesaid, and take into custody all persons found therein without lawful excuse, and every person so found shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding five shillings, and a conviction for this offence shall not exempt the owner, keeper, or manager of any such house, room, pit, or place from any penal consequences to which he is liable for the nuisance thereby occasioned. Penalty on persons keeping places for bear-baiting, cock-fighting, &c.

And with respect to hackney carriages ⁽⁶⁾, be it enacted as follows:

37. (7). The commissioners may from time to time license to ply for hire within the prescribed distance ⁽⁸⁾, or if no distance is prescribed, within five miles from the general post office of the city, town, or place to which the special Act refers (which in that case shall be deemed the prescribed distance) ⁽⁸⁾, such number of hackney coaches or carriages of any kind or description adapted to the carriage of persons as they think fit. Hackney carriage to be licensed.

38. Every wheeled carriage, whatever may be its form or construction, used in standing or plying for hire in any street ⁽⁹⁾ within the prescribed distance ⁽⁸⁾, and every What to be hackney carriages.

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

⁽²⁾ See 2 & 3 Vict. c. 93, s. 16; and section 16 of the Licensing Act, 1872, 35 & 36 Vict. c. 94, which provides that any licensed person who knowingly harbours any constable while on duty, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10 for the first offence, and not exceeding £20 for the second offence.

⁽³⁾ An alehouse, licensed under "The Licensing Act, 1828," 9 Geo. 4, c. 61, was held to be a place of public resort for the sale of refreshments, within this section, and the keeper of it liable to penalties under this section, for allowing prostitutes to assemble therein: Cole v. Coulton, 29 L. J. M. C. 125, 6 Jur. N. S. 698, 2 L. T. N. S. 216, 8 W. R. 412; see also, Greig v. Bendeno, 27 L. J. M. C. 294, 1 E. B. & E. 133, 4 Jur. N. S. 875. Compare section 32 of 23 & 24 Vict. c. 27, and section 14 of the Licensing Act, 1872, which imposes on any licensed person who knowingly allows his house to be the resort of prostitutes, a penalty for the first offence not exceeding £10, and for the second offence, not exceeding £20.

⁽⁴⁾ Compare section 3 of the Act for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, 12 & 13 Vict. c. 92. A match took place between the owners of two dogs as to which could kill the greatest number of rabbits by running after them. The match took place in a field containing an area of three acres, walled in so that the rabbits could not escape; it was held that this was not baiting animals within section 3 of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 92: Pitts v. Millar, L. R. 9 Q. B. 380, 43 L. J. M. C. 96, 30 L. T. N. S. 328; see as to cock-fighting: Morley v. Greenhalgh, 9 Jur. N. S. 745, 3 B. & S. 374.

⁽⁵⁾ By section 171 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante p. 136, "superintendent constable" includes any superintendent of police.

⁽⁶⁾ These provisions with respect to hackney carriages, are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, and applied to urban districts, by section 171 of that Act, ante, p. 136. As to the construction of the incorporated provisions, see section 171, ante, p. 136, and section 316 of that Act, ante, p. 215.

⁽⁷⁾ Compare section 172 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 137.

⁽⁸⁾ By section 171 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136, "within the prescribed distance" means the urban district.

⁽⁹⁾ See section 3, ante. A piece of ground, the property of a railway company, though used as an approach to a station, and though not fenced off from the public highway, is not a "street" or "road" within the meaning of section 3 and this section, so as to render persons who by agreement with the company keep carriages standing there, liable to a

Secs. 38-43. carriage standing upon any street within the prescribed distance ⁽¹⁾, having thereon any numbered plate required by this or the special Act to be fixed upon a hackney carriage, or having thereon any plate resembling or intended to resemble any such plate as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be a hackney carriage within the meaning of this Act; and in all proceedings at law or otherwise the term "hackney carriage" shall be sufficient to describe any such carriage: Provided always, that no stage coach used for the purpose of standing or plying for passengers to be carried for hire at separate fares, and duly licensed for that purpose, and having thereon the proper numbered plates required by law to be placed on such stage coaches, shall be deemed to be a hackney carriage within the meaning of this Act ⁽²⁾.

Fee to be paid for license.

39. For every such license there shall be paid to the clerk of the commissioners, or other person appointed by them to receive the same, such sum as the commissioners direct, not exceeding five shillings.

Persons applying for license to sign a requisition for same.

40. Before any such license is granted a requisition for the same, in such form as the commissioners from time to time provide for that purpose, shall be made and signed by the proprietor or one of the proprietors of the hackney carriage in respect of which such license is applied for, and in every such requisition shall be truly stated the name and surname and place of abode of the person applying for such license, and of every proprietor or part proprietor of such carriage, or person concerned, either solely or in partnership with any other person, in the keeping, employing, or letting to hire of such carriage; and any person who, on applying for such license, states in such requisition the name of any person who is not a proprietor or part proprietor of such carriage, or who is not concerned as aforesaid in the keeping, employing, or letting to hire of such carriage, and also any person who wilfully omits to specify truly in such requisition as aforesaid the name of any person who is a proprietor or part proprietor of such carriage, or who is concerned as aforesaid in the keeping, employing, or letting to hire of such carriage, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽³⁾ not exceeding ten pounds.

What shall be specified in the licenses.

41. In every such license shall be specified the name and surname and place of abode of every person who is a proprietor ⁽⁴⁾ or part proprietor of the hackney carriage in respect of which such license is granted, or who is concerned, either solely or in partnership with any other person, in the keeping, employing, or letting to hire of any such carriage, and also the number of such license which shall correspond with the number to be painted or marked on the plates to be fixed on such carriage, together with such other particulars as the commissioners think fit.

Licenses to be registered.

42. Every license shall be made out by the clerk of the commissioners, and duly entered in a book to be provided by him for that purpose, and in such book shall be contained columns or places for entries to be made of every offence committed by any proprietor or driver or person attending such carriage, and any person may at any reasonable time inspect such book without fee or reward.

License to be in force for one year only.

43. Every license so to be granted shall be under the common seal of the commissioners, if incorporated, or if not incorporated, shall be signed by two or more of the commissioners, and shall not include more than one carriage so licensed, and shall be in force for one year only from the day of the date of such license, or until the next general licensing meeting, in case any general licensing day be appointed by the commissioners.

penalty for allowing carriages to ply for hire without a license: Curtis v. Embery, L. R. 7 Ex. 369, 42 L. J. M. C. 39, 21 W. R. 143.

⁽¹⁾ "Within the prescribed distance" means within the urban district by section 171 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136.

⁽²⁾ A local improvement Act enacted that the provisions of this Act as to hackney carriages should be extended to all stage coaches, omnibusses, and carriages of every description plying for hire within the borough, it was held that the proviso of this section was incorporated into and overrode the local Act, and that omnibusses required no license from the local board: Cousins v. Stockbridge, 30 J. P. 166.

⁽³⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see note to the title of this Act, p. 1032.

⁽⁴⁾ As to the liability of the proprietor, see Powles v. Hider, 2 Jur. N. S. 472, 6 E. & B. 207, 25 L. J. Q. B. 331.

44. So often as any person named in any such license as the proprietor or one of the proprietors, or as being concerned either solely or in partnership with any person in the keeping, employing, or letting to hire of any such carriage, changes his place of abode, he shall, within seven days next after such change, give notice thereof in writing, signed by him, to the commissioners, specifying in such notice his new place of abode; and he shall at the same time produce such license at the office of the commissioners, who shall, by their clerk, or some other officer, endorse thereon and sign a memorandum specifying the particulars of such change; and any person named in any such license as aforesaid as the proprietor, or one of the proprietors, of any hackney carriage, or as being concerned as aforesaid, who changes his place of abode, and neglects or wilfully omits to give notice of such change, or to produce such license in order that such memorandum as aforesaid may be endorsed thereon within the time and in the manner limited and directed by this or the special Act, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

Secs. 44-48.

Notice to be given by proprietors of hackney carriages of any change of abode.

45. If the proprietor or part proprietor of any carriage, or any person so concerned as aforesaid, permits the same to be used as a hackney carriage plying for hire within the prescribed distance ⁽²⁾ without having obtained a license ⁽³⁾ as aforesaid for such carriage, or during the time that such license is suspended, as hereinafter provided, or if any person be found driving, standing, or plying for hire with any carriage within the prescribed distance ⁽²⁾, for which such license as aforesaid has not been previously obtained, or without having the number of such carriage corresponding with the number of the license openly displayed on such carriage, every such person so offending shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

Penalty for plying for hire without a license.

46. No person shall act as driver of any hackney carriage licensed in pursuance of this or the special Act to ply for hire within the prescribed distance ⁽²⁾ without first obtaining a license from the commissioners, which license shall be registered by the clerk to the commissioners, and a fee of one shilling shall be paid for the same; and every such license shall be in force ⁽⁴⁾ until the same is revoked, except during the time that the same may be suspended as after mentioned.

Drivers not to act without first obtaining a license.

47. If any person acts as such driver as aforesaid without having obtained such license or during the time that his license is suspended, or if he lend or part with his license, except to the proprietor of the hackney carriage, or if the proprietor of any such hackney carriage employ any person as the driver thereof who has not obtained such license, or during the time that his license is suspended, as hereinafter provided, every such driver, and every such proprietor shall, for every such offence, respectively be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding twenty shillings.

Penalty on drivers acting without license.

48. In every case in which the proprietor of any such hackney carriage permits or employs any licensed person to act as the driver thereof, such proprietor shall cause to be delivered to him, and shall retain in his possession, the license of such driver while such driver remains in his employ; and in all cases of complaint, where the proprietor of a hackney carriage is summoned to attend before a justice, or to produce the driver, the proprietor so summoned shall also produce the license of such driver, if he be then in his Proprietor to retain license of drivers when in his employ, and to produce the same when summoned.

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

⁽²⁾ "Within the prescribed distance," means within the urban district, see section 171 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136.

⁽³⁾ The penalty attaches, although the road is a turnpike road, under the management of turnpike trustees: Sims v. Matlock, Bath, Local Board, 32 J. P. 134. See as to plying for hire, without a license, in the premises of a railway company: Curtis v. Embery, cited in note to section 38, ante. See also, Case v. Storey, L. R. 4 Ex. 319, 38 L. J. M. C. 115, 20 L. T. N. S. 618, 17 W. R. 802. The possession of a revenue license to let horses and carriages for hire under 2 & 3 Will. 4, c. 120, does not supersede the necessity of the proprietor having a license for his carriage to ply for hire under sections 37 and 45 of this Act: Buckle v. Wrightson, 34 L. J. M. C. 43, 11 Jur. N. S. 261, 11 L. T. N. S. 341, 13 W. R. 92.

⁽⁴⁾ By section 171 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136, it is provided that, notwithstanding anything in these provisions incorporated with that Act, a license granted to the driver of any hackney carriage in pursuance thereof, shall be in force for one year only, or until the next general licensing meeting where a day for such meeting is appointed.

Secs. 48-55.

Justices may endorse convictions upon licenses.

Penalty on proprietors for neglect.

Proprietor to return license to drivers when quitting his service if they behave well, if otherwise, proprietors to summon them.

Compensation in case of license being improperly withheld.

Licenses to be suspended or revoked for misconduct.

Number of persons to be carried in a hackney carriage to be painted thereon.

Penalty for neglect or for refusal to carry the prescribed number.

Penalty on driver for refusing to drive.

Penalty for demanding more than the sum agreed for, though less than the legal fare.

Agreement to pay more than the legal fare not to be employ ; and if any driver complained of be adjudged guilty of the offence alleged against him, such justice shall make an endorsement upon the license of such driver, stating the nature of the offence and the amount of the penalty inflicted ; and if any such proprietor neglect to have delivered to him and to retain in his possession the license of any driver while such driver remains in his employ, or if he refuse or neglect to produce such license as aforesaid, such proprietor shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

49. When any driver leaves the service of the proprietor by whom he is employed without having been guilty of any misconduct such proprietor shall forthwith return to such driver the license belonging to him ; but if such driver have been guilty of any misconduct, the proprietor shall not return his license, but shall give him notice of the complaint which he intends to prefer against him, and shall forthwith summon such driver to appear before any justice to answer the said complaint ; and such justice, having the necessary parties before him, shall inquire into and determine the matter of complaint, and if upon inquiry it appear that the license of such driver has been improperly withheld, such justice shall direct the immediate re-delivery of such license, and award such sum of money as he thinks proper to be paid by such proprietor to such driver by way of compensation.

50. The commissioners may, upon the conviction for the second time of the proprietor or driver of any such hackney carriage for any offence under the provisions of this or the special Act with respect to hackney carriages, or any bye-law made in pursuance thereof, suspend or revoke, as they deem right, the license of any such proprietor or driver.

51. No hackney carriage shall be used or employed or let to hire, or shall stand or ply for hire within the prescribed distance, unless the number of persons to be carried by such hackney carriage, in words at length, and in form following, (that is to say,) "To carry persons," be painted on a plate placed on some conspicuous place on the outside of such carriage, and in legible letters, so as to be clearly distinguishable from the colour of the ground whereon the same are painted, one inch in length, and of a proportionate breadth ; and the driver of any such hackney carriage shall not be required to carry in or by such hackney carriage a greater number of persons than the number painted thereon.

52. If the proprietor of any hackney carriage permit the same to be used, employed, or let to hire, or if any person stand or ply for hire with such carriage, without having the number of persons to be carried thereby painted and exhibited in manner aforesaid, or if the driver of any such hackney carriage refuse, when required by the hirer thereof, to carry in or by such hackney carriage the number of persons painted thereon, or any less number, every proprietor or driver so offending shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

53. Any driver of a hackney carriage standing at any of the stands for hackney carriages appointed by the commissioners, or in any street, who refuses or neglects, without reasonable excuse, to drive such carriage to any place within the prescribed distance, or the distance to be appointed by any bye-law of the commissioners, not exceeding the prescribed distance, to which he is directed to drive by the person hiring or wishing to hire such carriage, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

54. If the proprietor or driver of any such hackney carriage, or if any other person on his behalf, agree beforehand with any person hiring such hackney carriage to take for any job a sum less than the fare allowed by this or the special Act, or any bye-law made thereunder, such proprietor or driver shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings if he exact or demand for such job more than the fare so agreed upon.

55. No agreement whatever made with the driver, or with any person having or pretending to have the care of any such hackney carriage, for the payment of more than the fare allowed by any bye-law made under this or the special Act, shall be binding on the person making the same, and any such person may, notwithstanding such agreement, refuse, on discharging such hackney carriage, to pay any sum beyond the fare allowed as aforesaid, and if any person actually pay to the driver of any such hackney carriage, whether in pursuance of any such agreement or otherwise, any sum exceeding the fare to which such driver was entitled, the person paying the same shall be entitled, on complaint made against such driver before any justice of the peace, to recover back the sum paid beyond the proper fare, and moreover such driver shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ for such exaction not exceeding the sum of forty shillings, and in default of the repayment by such driver of such excess of fare, or of payment of the said penalty, such justice shall forthwith commit such driver to prison, there to remain for any time not exceeding one month, unless the said excess of fare and the said penalty ⁽¹⁾ be sooner paid.

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

56. If the proprietor or driver of any such hackney carriage, or if any other person on his behalf, agree with any person to carry in or by such hackney carriage persons not exceeding in number the number so painted on such carriage as aforesaid, for a distance to be in the discretion of such proprietor or driver, and for a sum agreed upon, such proprietor or driver shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings if the distance which he carries such persons be under that to which they were entitled to be carried for the sum so agreed upon according to the fare allowed by this or the special Act, or any bye-law made in pursuance thereof.

57. When any hackney carriage is hired and taken to any place, and the driver thereof is required by the hirer there to wait with such hackney carriage, such driver may demand and receive from such hirer his fare for driving to such place, and also a sum equal to the fare of such carriage for the period, as a deposit over and above such fare, during which he is required to wait as aforesaid, or if no fare for time be fixed by the bye-laws, then the sum of one shilling and sixpence for every half hour during which he is so required to wait, which deposit shall be accounted for by such driver when such hackney carriage is finally discharged by such hirer; and if any such driver who has received any such deposit as aforesaid refuses to wait as aforesaid, or goes away or permits such hackney carriage to be driven or taken away without the consent of such hirer, before the expiration of the time for which such deposit was made; or if such driver on the final discharge of such hackney carriage refuse duly to account for such deposit, every such driver so offending shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

58. Every proprietor or driver of any such hackney carriage who is convicted of taking as a fare a greater sum than is authorised by any bye-law made under this or the special Act shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings, and such penalty may be recovered before one justice; and in the conviction of such proprietor or driver an order may be included for payment of the sum so overcharged, over and above the penalty and costs; and such overcharge shall be returned to the party aggrieved, whose evidence shall be admissible in proof of the said offence.

59. Any proprietor or driver of any such hackney carriage which is hired who permits or suffers any person to be carried in or upon or about such hackney carriage during such hire, without the express consent of the person hiring the same, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding twenty shillings.

60. No person authorised by the proprietor of any hackney carriage to act as driver of such carriage shall suffer any other person to act as driver of such carriage without the consent of the proprietor thereof, and no person, whether licensed or not, shall act as driver of any such carriage without the consent of the proprietor, and any person so suffering another person to act as driver, and any person so acting as driver without such consent as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings for every such offence.

61. If the driver or any other person having or pretending to have the care of any such hackney carriage be intoxicated while driving, or if any such driver or other person by wanton and furious driving, or by any other wilful misconduct, injure or endanger any person in his life, limbs, or property, he shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding binding, and sum paid beyond the proper fare may be recovered back.

Secs. 55-61.

Driver to carry, under an agreement for a discretionary distance, the distance to which hirer is entitled for the fare.

Deposit to be made for carriages waiting.

Penalty on the driver refusing to wait, or to account for the deposit.

Overcharge by hackney coachmen, &c. to be included in conviction, and returned to aggrieved party.

Penalty for permitting persons to ride without consent of the hirer.

No person to act as driver of any carriage without the consent of the proprietor.

Penalty on drivers misbehaving.

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

Secs. 61-68. five pounds, and in default of payment thereof the justice before whom he is convicted of such offence may commit him to prison, there to remain for any time not exceeding two months.

Penalty for leaving carriages unattended at places of public resort.

62. If the driver of any such hackney carriage leave it in any street or at any place of public resort or entertainment, whether it be hired or not, without some one proper to take care of it, any constable may drive away such hackney carriage and deposit it, and the horse or horses harnessed thereto, at some neighbouring livery stable or other place of safe custody; and such driver shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding twenty shillings for such offence, and in default of payment of the said penalty upon conviction, and of the expenses of taking and keeping the said hackney carriage and horse or horses, the same, together with the harness belonging thereto, or any of them, shall be sold by order of the justice before whom such conviction is made, and after deducting from the produce of such sale the amount of the said penalty, and of all costs and expenses, as well of the proceedings before such justice as of the taking, keeping, and sale of the said hackney carriage, and of the said horse or horses and harness, the surplus (if any) of the said produce shall be paid to the proprietor of such hackney carriage.

Damage done by driver may be recovered from the proprietor.

63. In every case in which any hurt or damage has been caused to any person or property as aforesaid by the driver of any carriage let to hire, the justice before whom such driver has been convicted may direct that the proprietor of such carriage shall pay such a sum not exceeding five pounds as appears to the justice a reasonable compensation for such hurt or damage; and every proprietor who pays any such compensation as aforesaid may recover the same from the driver, and such compensation shall be recoverable from such proprietor, and by him from such driver, as damages.

Improperly standing with carriage; refusing to give way to, or obstructing any other driver; or depriving him of his fare.

64. Any driver of any hackney carriage who suffers the same to stand for hire across any street or alongside of any other hackney carriage, or who refuses to give way, if he conveniently can, to any other carriage, or who obstructs or hinders the driver of any other carriage in taking up or setting down any person into or from such other carriage, or who wrongfully in a forcible manner prevents or endeavours to prevent the driver of any other hackney carriage from being hired, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding twenty shillings.

Justices empowered to award compensation to drivers for loss of time in attending to answer complaints not substantiated.

65. If the driver of any such hackney carriage be summoned or brought before any justice to answer any complaint or information touching or concerning any offence alleged to have been committed by such driver against the provisions of this or the special Act, or any bye-law made thereunder, and such complaint or information be afterwards withdrawn or quashed or dismissed, or if such driver be acquitted of the offence charged against him, the said justice, if he think fit, may order the complainant or informant to pay to the said driver such compensation for his loss of time in attending the said justice touching or concerning such complaint or information as to the said justice seems reasonable, and in default of payment of such compensation, the said justice may commit such complainant or informant to prison for any time not exceeding one month, unless the same shall be sooner paid.

Penalty for refusing to pay the fare.

66. If any person refuse to pay on demand to any proprietor or driver of any hackney carriage the fare allowed by this or the special Act, or any bye-law made thereunder, such fare may, together with costs, be recovered before one justice as a penalty.

Penalty for damaging carriage.

67. Any person using any hackney carriage plying under a licence granted by virtue of this or the special Act, who wilfully injures the same, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding five pounds, and shall also pay to the proprietor of such hackney carriage reasonable satisfaction for the damage sustained by the same; and such satisfaction shall be ascertained by the justices before whom the conviction takes place, and shall be recovered by the same means as the penalty.

Commissioners may

68. The commissioners ⁽²⁾ may from time to time (subject to the restrictions of this and the special Act) make bye-laws for all or any of the purposes following ⁽¹⁾; that is Secs. 68, 69.

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1032.

⁽²⁾ As these provisions are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, "the commissioners" means the urban sanitary authority.

to say,)

For regulating the conduct of the proprietors and drivers of hackney carriages plying within the prescribed distance ⁽²⁾ in their several employments, and determining whether such drivers shall wear any and what badges, and for regulating the hours within which they may exercise their calling: make bye-laws for regulating hackney carriages.

For regulating the manner in which the number of each carriage, corresponding with the number of its license, shall be displayed:

For regulating the number of persons to be carried by such hackney carriages, and in what manner such number is to be shown on such carriage, and what number of horses or other animals is to draw the same, and the placing of check strings to the carriages, and the holding of the same by the driver, and how such hackney carriages are to be furnished or provided:

For fixing the stands of such hackney carriages and the distance to which they may be compelled to take passengers, not exceeding the prescribed distance:

For fixing the rates or fares, as well for time as distance, to be paid for such hackney carriages within the prescribed distance, and for securing the due publication of such fares:

For securing the safe custody and re-delivery of any property accidentally left in hackney carriages, and fixing the charges to be made in respect thereof.

And with respect to public bathing ⁽³⁾, be it enacted as follows:

69. Where any part of the sea-shore or strand of any river used as a public bathing-place is within the limits of the special Act the commissioners ⁽⁴⁾ may make bye-laws ⁽⁵⁾ for the following purposes; (that is to say, Bathing machines.)

For fixing the stands of bathing machines ⁽⁶⁾ on the sea-shore or strand, and the limits within which persons of each sex shall be set down for bathing, and within which persons shall bathe:

For preventing any indecent exposure of the persons of the bathers ⁽⁶⁾:

⁽¹⁾ As to the confirmation of bye-laws made under this section, see sections 2 and 3 of the Public Health (Confirmation of Bye-laws) Act, 1884, 47 Vict. c. 12, post, p. 1475. Where a local board, acting under a Local Improvement Act, made a bye-law "that the several places in the district where painted boards shall from time to time be placed by the said local board to distinguish them as stands, should be the stands for such number of carriages, &c., as should be mentioned on such boards, and prohibiting drivers from placing their vehicles, &c., or plying for hire, elsewhere than on such stands under a penalty of 40s.; it was held that the bye-law was valid, although it did not on the face of it specify the exact localities where the stands were to be: Blackpool Local Board of Health v. Bennett; Same v. Kenyon, 4 H. & N. 127, 7 W. R. 382; S. C., Bennett v. Blackpool Local Board of Health, 28 L. J. M. C. 203. See further, as to the making of bye-laws, by sanitary authorities, pp. 147 to 150 and notes, ante; and as to the general requisites to the validity of a bye-law, see note ⁽³⁾, ante, p. 147.

By section 172 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136, an urban sanitary authority can make bye-laws for regulating stands for horses standing for hire within their district, and fixing rates of hire, and as to the qualification of drivers and conductors, and for securing their good and orderly conduct while in charge.

⁽²⁾ By sect. 171 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 136, "within the prescribed district" means within the urban district.

⁽³⁾ These provisions with respect to bathing are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, and applied to urban districts, by section 171 of that Act, ante, p. 136. As to the construction of the incorporated provision, see section 171, ante, p. 136, and section 316 of that Act, ante, p. 215. By the latter section "the commissioners" means the urban authority. See also the provisions as to public bathing, in sections 136—139 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847.

⁽⁴⁾ As to the confirmation of bye-laws made under this section, see sections 2 and 3 of the Public Health (Confirmation of Bye-laws) Act, 1884, 47 Vict. c. 121, post, p. 1475.

⁽⁵⁾ These cannot be placed on any part of the foreshore which is private property: Mace v. Philcox, 15 C. B. N. S. 600, 10 Jur. N. S. 680, 33 L. J. C. P. 124, 9 L. T. N. S. 766.

⁽⁶⁾ It is unlawful for men to bathe, without any screen or covering, so near to a public footway frequented by females, that exposure of their persons must necessarily occur, and they who so bathe are liable to an indictment for indecency: R. v. Reed, 12 Cox. C. C. 1; so it is an indictable offence for a man to undress himself on the beach and to

Secs. 69-75.

For regulating the manner in which the bathing machines shall be used, and the charges to be made for the same :

For regulating the distance at which boats and vessels let to hire for the purpose of sailing or rowing for pleasure shall be kept from persons bathing within the prescribed limits ⁽¹⁾.

Regulations
as to rates.

70. And with respect to the rates to be made for carrying the purposes of this and the special Act into execution, be it enacted, that all the clauses of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the following matters ; (that is to say,)

With respect to the manner of making rates authorized by that or the special Act ; ⁽²⁾.

With respect to the appeal to be made against any rate ⁽³⁾ ; and

With respect to the recovery of rates ⁽⁴⁾ ; shall be incorporated with this and the special Act.

Bye-laws.

71. And with respect to bye-laws, be it enacted, that all the clauses of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the bye-laws ⁽⁵⁾ to be made by virtue of that or the special Act shall be incorporated with this and the special Act.

Tender of amends.

72. And with respect to the tender of amends, be it enacted, that if any party have committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceeding in the execution of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any power or authority thereby given, and if, before action brought in respect thereof, such party make tender of sufficient amends to the party injured, such last mentioned party shall not recover in any such action ; and if no such tender have been made, the defendant, by leave of the court where such action is pending, may at any time before issue joined pay into court such sum of money as he thinks fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into court.

And with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices, be it enacted as follows :

Recovery of damages and penalties.

73. The clauses of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 ⁽⁶⁾, with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act ; and such clauses shall apply to the town or district within the limits of the special Act, and to the commissioners, and shall be construed as if the word "commissioners" had been inserted therein instead of the word "company."

74 ⁽⁷⁾. [In Ireland part of penalties to be paid to guardians of unions].

All things required to be done by two justices may, in certain cases, be done by one.

75. All things herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated herewith, authorised or required to be done by two justices, may and shall be done by any one magistrate having by law authority to act alone for any purpose with the powers of two or more justices ⁽⁸⁾.

bathe in the sea near inhabited houses from which he may be seen : R. v. Crunden, 2 Camp. 89.

⁽¹⁾ As to the licensing of pleasure boats and vessels, see section 172 of the Public Health Act, ante, p. 137.

⁽²⁾ See the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, sections 167—184, ante, pp. 1022—1025.

⁽³⁾ See sections 185—190 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, ante, pp. 1025, 1026.

⁽⁴⁾ See sections 191—199 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, ante, pp. 1026—1028.

⁽⁵⁾ See sections 200—208 of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, ante, pp. 1028, 1029.

With respect to bye-laws made under the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 182—188 of that Act, ante, pp. 147—150. As to the general requisites to the validity of bye-laws, see note ⁽³⁾, ante, pp. 147—148.

⁽⁶⁾ See the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, 8 & 9 Vict. c. 20, ss. 140—161, post, pp. 1092—1095.

⁽⁷⁾ This section has been repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

⁽⁸⁾ By 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71, s. 14, any metropolitan police magistrate can do alone any act which by law is directed to be done by more than one justice ; and by 21 & 22 Vict. c. 73, s. 1, the same power is extended to every stipendiary magistrate.

76. Every person who, upon any examination upon oath, under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury. Secs. 76-79.

And with respect to affording access to the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

77. The commissioners shall at all times after the expiration of six months after the passing of the special Act keep in their principal office of business a copy of the special Act printed by the printers to Her Majesty, or some of them, and shall also within the space of such six months deposit in the office of the clerk of the peace of the county in which the town or district within the limits of the special Act is situated, a copy of such special Act so printed as aforesaid; and the said clerk of the peace shall receive, and he and the commissioners respectively shall retain, the said copies of the special Act, and shall permit all persons interested to inspect the same, and make copies or extracts therefrom, in the like manner and upon the like terms, and under the like penalty for default, as is provided in the case of certain plans and sections by an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "an Act to compel clerks of the peace for counties, and other persons, to take the custody of such documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them under the standing orders of either House of Parliament." Persons giving false evidence liable to penalties of perjury.
Copies of special Act to be kept and deposited and allowed to be inspected.
7 Will. IV. and 1 Vict. c. 83.

78. If the commissioners fail to keep or deposit, as hereinbefore mentioned, any of the said copies of the special Act, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every such offence, and also five pounds for every day afterwards during which such copy is not so kept or deposited. Penalty on failing to keep or deposit such copies.

79 (¹). And be it enacted, that this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament. Act may be amended, &c.

(¹) This section has been repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

MARKETS AND FAIRS CLAUSES ACT, 1847.

10 VICT. c. 14.

An Act for consolidating in one Act certain provisions usually contained in Acts for constructing or regulating Markets and Fairs ⁽¹⁾. [23rd April, 1847.]

Section 1. Whereas it is expedient to comprise in one Act sundry provisions usually contained in Acts of Parliament authorising the construction or regulation of markets and fairs, and that as well for avoiding the necessity of repeating such provisions in each of the several Acts relating to such undertakings as for ensuring greater uniformity in the provisions themselves: Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that this Act shall extend only to such markets or fairs as shall be authorised by any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed which shall declare that this Act shall be incorporated therewith; and all the clauses of this Act, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted by any such Act, shall apply to the undertaking authorised thereby, so far as the same shall be applicable to such undertaking, and shall, with the clauses of every other Act, which shall be incorporated therewith, form part of such Act, and be construed therewith as forming one Act.

Extent of Act.

(1) By section 166 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 134, urban authorities are empowered to provide markets; and by section 167 of the same Act, ante, p. 135, the following provisions of this Act, in so far as the same relate to markets, are incorporated with that Act, that is to say,

- (1) With respect to the holding of the market or fair, and the protection thereof, i.e., sections 12—16.
- (2) With respect to the weighing goods and carts, i.e., sections 21—30.
- (3) With respect to the stallages, rents, and tolls, i.e., sections 31—41, provided that all tolls leviable by an urban authority shall be approved by the Local Government Board.

By the same section, an urban authority may, with respect to any market belonging to them, make bye-laws for any of the purposes mentioned in section 42 of this Act, so far as those purposes relate to markets.

As to the construction of the incorporated provisions, see section 316 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 215, 216; by that section, the "undertakers" in the incorporated provisions, means the urban authority; and all penalties incurred under the incorporated provisions are to be recovered and applied in the same way as penalties incurred under that Act, as to which see sections 251—254 of that Act, ante, pp. 181—183.

By section 168 of the same Act, ante, p. 135, urban authorities are empowered to purchase the undertaking of a market company.

By section 3 of The Fairs Act, 1871, 34 & 35 Vict. c. 12, the Home Secretary may, on the representation of magistrates, and with the consent of the owner, order a fair to be abolished, and by section 6 of the Fairs Act, 1873, 36 & 37 Vict. c. 37, any Secretary of State can alter the days for holding fairs.

As to disturbance of an ancient market, see Goldsmid v. Great Eastern Ry. Co., 25 Ch. D. 511, 53 L. J. Ch. 371, 47 L. T. N. S. 727, and 49 L. T. N. S. 717, C. A., 32 W. R. 341, where most of the cases on the subject are collected and referred to.

And with respect to the construction of this Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, Secs. 2, 3.
be it enacted as follows:

2. The expression "the special Act" used in this Act shall be construed to mean any Act which shall be hereafter passed authorising the construction or regulation of a market or fair, and with which this Act shall be incorporated; and the word "prescribed" used in this Act in reference to any matter herein stated shall be construed to refer to such matter as the same shall be prescribed or provided for in the special Act, and the sentence in which such word occurs shall be construed as if instead of the word "prescribed" the expression "prescribed for that purpose in the special Act" had been used; and the expression "the lands" shall mean the lands which shall by the special Act be authorised to be taken or used for the purposes thereof; and the expression "the undertaking" shall mean the market or fair, and the works connected therewith, by the special Act authorised to be constructed or regulated; and the expression "the undertakers" ⁽¹⁾ shall mean the persons authorised by the special Act to construct or regulate the market or fair.

3. The following words and expressions in both this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say),

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number ⁽²⁾ , and words importing the plural number shall include also the singular number:	Interpretations in this and the special Act. "special Act." "prescribed;"
Words importing the masculine gender shall include females:	"the lands;"
The word "person" shall include a corporation, whether aggregate or sole:	"the undertaking."
The word "lands" shall include messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments or heritages of any tenure:	"Undertakers."
The word "lease" shall include a missive of and an agreement for a lease:
The expression "the market or fair" shall mean the market or fair, and the works connected therewith, by the special Act authorised to be constructed or regulated:	Gender. "Person."
The word "cart" shall include waggon, and also any carriage used wholly or chiefly for the conveyance of goods:	"Lands."
The word "driver" shall include the carter or other person having the care of any cart:	"Lease."
The word "cattle" shall include horse, ass, mule, ram, ewe, wether, lamb, goat, kid, or swine:	"The market or fair."
The expression "the collector" shall mean the person appointed by the undertakers to collect the stallages, rents, or tolls authorised by the special Act, shall include the assistants of the collector:	"Cart."
The word "month" shall mean calendar month:	"Driver."
The expression "superior courts," when the matter submitted to the cognizance of the court arises in England or Ireland, shall mean Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, as the case may require, and shall include the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster, and the Court of Pleas of the County of Durham; and when such matter arises in Scotland it shall mean the Court of Session:	"Cattle."
The word "oath" shall include affirmation in the case of Quakers, and any declaration lawfully substituted for an oath in the case of any other persons allowed by law to make a declaration instead of taking an oath:	"Collector."
The word "county" shall include riding or other division of a county having a separate commission of the peace; and in Scotland, stewardry, and any ward or other division of a county or stewardry, having a separate sheriff; and it shall also include county of a city or county of a town:	"Month."
The word "justice" shall mean justice of the peace acting for the place where the matter requiring the cognizance of any such justice arises; and if such matter arise	"Superior courts."

⁽¹⁾ In the provisions of this Act, incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, the "undertakers" means the urban authority, see note ⁽¹⁾ on preceding page.

⁽²⁾ Where a special Act, incorporating this Act, authorised "the erection of a market house," it was held that the company had authority to erect two distinct buildings or market-houses: Richards v. Scarborough Public Market Co., 23 L. J. Ch. 110.

Secs. 3—7.

“Two justices.”

“Sheriff.”

“Quarter Sessions.”

Short title of this Act.

Form in which portions of this Act may be incorporated in other Acts.

Construction of markets or fairs to be subject the provisions of this Act, and one of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845.

Errors and omissions in special Act, or schedules thereto, may be corrected by justices, in respect of lands situated not wholly in any one jurisdiction shall mean a justice acting for the place where any part of such lands shall be situated; and where any matter is authorised or required to be done by two justices, the expression “two justices” ⁽¹⁾ shall be understood to mean two or more justices assembled and acting together:

The word “sheriff” shall mean the sheriff depute of the county or ward of a county in Scotland and the steward depute of the stewartry in Scotland in which the matter submitted to the cognizance of the sheriff arises, and shall include the substitutes of such sheriff depute and steward depute respectively:

The expression “quarter sessions” shall mean quarter sessions as defined in the special Act; and if such expression be not there defined it shall mean the general or quarter sessions of the peace which shall be held at the place nearest to the market or fair, or the principal office thereof for the county or place in which the market or fair is situate, or for some division of such county having a separate commission of the peace.

And with respect to citing this Act or any part thereof, be it enacted as follows:

4. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the expression “The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847.”

5. For the purpose of incorporating part only of this Act with any Act hereafter to be passed it shall be enough to describe the clauses of this Act with respect to any matter in the words introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter, and to enact that the clauses so described, or that this Act, with the exception of the clauses so described, shall be incorporated with such Act, and thereupon all the clauses of this Act so incorporated shall, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted by such Act, form part of such Act, and such Act shall be construed as if such clauses were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which such Act relates.

And with respect to the construction of the market or fair, and the works connected therewith, be it enacted as follows:

6. Where by the special Act the undertakers shall be empowered, for the purpose of constructing the market or fair, to take or use any lands otherwise than with the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, they shall, in exercising the power so given to them, be subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Act and in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ⁽²⁾ when the special Act relates to England or Ireland, and to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Act and the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, when the special Act relates to Scotland; and the undertakers shall make to the owners and occupiers of and all other parties interested in any lands taken or used for the purposes of the special Act, or injuriously affected by the construction of the works thereby authorised, full compensation for the value of the lands so taken or used, and for all damage sustained by such owners, occupiers, and other persons by reason of the exercise, as to such lands, of the powers vested in the undertakers by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith; and, except where otherwise provided by this or the special Act, the amount of such compensation shall be determined in the manner provided by the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts respectively for determining questions of compensation with regard to lands purchased or taken under the provisions thereof; and all the provisions of the said last-mentioned Acts respectively shall be applicable to determine the amount of any such compensation, and to enforce payment or other satisfaction thereof ⁽³⁾.

7. If any omission, mis-statement, or wrong description shall have been made of any lands, or of the owners, lessees, or occupiers of any lands, described or purporting to be described in the special Act, or in the schedule thereto, the undertakers, after giving ten days notice to the owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands affected by such proposed correction, may apply in England or Ireland to two justices, and in Scotland to the sheriff, for the correction thereof; and if it appear to such justices or sheriff that such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description arose from mistake, they or he shall certify the same accordingly, and shall in such certificate state the particulars of any such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description; and such certificate shall be deposited in England or Ireland with the clerk of the peace, and in Scotland with the sheriff clerk of the county in which the lands affected thereby shall be situated, or, where any such lands are situated in a royal burgh in Scotland, with the town clerk of such burgh; and such certificate shall be kept by such clerk of the peace, sheriff clerk, or town clerk with the other documents to which they relate, and thereupon the special Act or schedule shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate; and the undertakers may make the works in accordance with such certificate as if such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description had not been made.

⁽¹⁾ By section 14 of 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71, one metropolitan police magistrate can do alone any act which by law is directed to be done by more than one justice; and by section 1 of 21 & 22 Vict. c. 73, the same power is extended to every stipendiary magistrate.

⁽²⁾ See sections 16, et seq. of the Lands Clauses Act, 1845, ante, pp. 899, et seq.

⁽³⁾ See sections 22—68 of the Lands Clauses Act, ante, pp. 904—934.

Secs. 7—12.

&c., who shall certify the same.
Certificate to be deposited.

8. Copies of any such alteration or correction thereof, or extracts therefrom, certified by any such clerk of the peace, sheriff clerk, or town clerk in whose custody the same may be, which certificate such clerk shall give to all parties interested when required, shall be received in all courts of justice and elsewhere as evidence of the contents thereof.

Copies of alterations, &c. to be evidence.

9. The undertakers, in addition to the lands authorised to be taken compulsorily or to be appropriated by them for the purposes of the market or fair under the powers of this and the special Act, may appropriate any lands vested in them, or may contract with any person willing to sell the same for the purchase of any land within the limits of the special Act, not exceeding in the whole the prescribed number of acres for extraordinary purposes; (that is to say,)

Additional land may be taken for extraordinary purposes.

For providing slaughter-houses, (if the undertakers shall be authorized by the special Act to provide slaughter-houses,) and houses and places for weighing carts:

For making convenient roads and approaches to the market or fair:

For any other purpose which may be necessary for the formation or convenient use of the market or fair.

10. Subject to the provisions in this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, the undertakers, for the purpose of constructing a place for holding the market or fair, may execute any of the following works; (that is to say,)

Undertakers, subject to provisions of this and the special Act, may execute the works herein named.

They may enter upon any lands described in the special Act, or the schedule thereto, and other lands purchased by them or belonging to them, and set out such parts as they think necessary for the purposes of the market or fair, and thereupon from time to time build and maintain such market places or places for fairs, and such stalls, sheds, pens, and other buildings or conveniences for the use of the persons frequenting the market or fair, and for weighing and measuring goods sold in the market or fair, and for weighing carts, as they may think necessary.

They may from time to time on such lands as aforesaid make and maintain all such roads and approaches as they may think necessary for the convenient use of the persons resorting to the market or fair.

11. Provided always, That in the exercise of the powers by this or the special Act granted the undertakers shall do as little damage as can be, and shall make full satisfaction in manner herein and by the special Act and any Act incorporated therewith provided to all parties interested for all damages sustained by them by reason of the exercise of such powers.

Undertakers to make satisfaction for damage done.

And with respect to the holding of the market or fair, and the protection thereof, (¹) be it enacted as follows:

12. Before the market or fair shall be opened for public use the undertakers shall give not less than ten days notice of the time when the same will be opened, and such notice shall be given by the publication thereof in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, and by printed handbills posted on some conspicuous place within those limits.

Before the market or fair shall be opened notice to be given by undertakers.

(¹) These provisions with respect to the holding of the market or fair, and the protection thereof, in so far as they relate to markets, are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 167, ante, p. 135. As to the construction of the incorporated provisions and the recovery and application of penalties, see note, ante, p. 1050.

Secs. 13-16

Sales elsewhere than in markets prohibited under a penalty not exceeding 40s.
Market days.

Penalty for selling or exposing for sale unwholesome meat, &c.

Penalty on obstructing inspector.

Penalty for obstructing market or fair keeper.

13. After the market place is opened for public use every person other than a licensed hawk⁽¹⁾ who shall sell or expose for sale in any place within the prescribed limits⁽²⁾, except in his own dwelling place or shop⁽³⁾, any articles⁽⁴⁾ in respect of which tolls are by the special Act authorised to be taken in the market, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty⁽⁵⁾ not exceeding forty shillings⁽⁶⁾.

14. After the market place or place for fairs is opened for public use the undertakers shall hold markets and fairs therein on the prescribed days (if any), and on such other days as the undertakers shall appoint from time to time by any bye-law to be made in pursuance of this or the special Act.

15. Every person who shall sell or expose for sale any unwholesome meat or provisions in the market or fair shall be liable to a penalty⁽⁵⁾ not exceeding five pounds for every such offence; and any inspector of provisions appointed by the undertakers may seize such unwholesome meat or provisions, and carry the same before a justice, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as are hereinafter directed to be had in the case of any cattle or carcase seized in any slaughter-house and carried before a justice; and every person who shall obstruct or hinder the inspector of provisions from seizing or carrying away such unwholesome meat or provisions shall be liable to a penalty⁽⁵⁾ not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

16. Every person who shall assault or obstruct any person appointed by the undertakers to superintend the market or fair, or to keep order therein, whilst in the execution of his duty, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty⁽⁵⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

And with respect to slaughter-houses⁽⁷⁾, be it enacted as follows:

(1) A "licensed hawk⁽¹⁾" includes a pedlar holding a pedlar's certificate under the Pedlar's Act, 1871, 34 & 35 Vict. c. 96, and trading within the district for which it was granted, but using a horse and cart, and, therefore, not acting as a pedlar within section 3 of that Act: Howard v. Lupton, L. R. 10 Q. B. 598, 44 L. J. M. C. 150; See section 6 of the Pedlar's Act, 1871.

(2) "Prescribed limits," means the boundaries of the borough, and not the limits of the market: Caswell v. Cook, 11 C. B. N. S. 637, 31 L. J. M. C. 185. A sale of horses, by auction, by a licensed auctioneer in a yard attached to the dwelling-house of another person, within the district, is an offence against this section: The Llandaff and Canton District Market Co. v. Lyndon, 8 C. B. N. S. 515, 30 L. J. M. C. 105, 6 Jur. N. S. 1344, 8 W. R. 693. A sale of goods on a market day, "within the prescribed limits," is not within this section, unless the bulk of the goods sold is at the time of such sale substantially within those limits: Newtownards Town Commissioners v. Woods, 11 Ir. L. R. C. L. 506.

(3) Where the respondent had erected a building with a large open yard, the building and yard being the private property of the respondent, in his own occupation, and adjoining and communicating with his own dwelling-house, it was held that sales by public auction within this yard were not sales within the respondent's own shop: Fearon v. Mitchell, L. R. 7 Q. B. 690, 41 L. J. M. C. 170, 27 L. T. N. S. 33. See also, McHole v. Davies, 1 Q. B. D. 59, 45 L. J. M. C. 30, 33 L. T. N. S. 502, 40 J. P. 548. A covered and enclosed skittle ground, with a door leading into the street, hired for a short time for the sale of goods, is not a shop: Hooper v. Kenshole, 2 Q. B. D. 127, 46 L. J. M. C. 160, 36 L. T. N. S. 111, 25 W. R. 368; but a wooden shed affixed to a house, was held to be part of the dwelling-place or shop: Ashworth v. Heyworth, L. R. 4 Q. B. 316, 38 L. J. M. C. 91, 10 B. & S. 309. See also, Wiltshire v. Baker, 11 C. B. N. S. 237, 31 L. J. M. C. 10 n, 5 L. T. N. S. 355, 10 W. R. 89; Wiltshire v. Willett, 11 C. B. N. S. 240, 31 L. J. M. C. 8, 5 L. T. N. S. 355, 10 W. R. 44; Pope v. Whalley, 34 L. J. M. C. 76, 6 B. & S. 303, 11 Jur. 444, 11 L. T. N. S. 769.

(4) A horse is an "article" within this section: The Llandaff and Canton District Market Co. v. Lyndon, supra.

(5) As to the recovery and application of these penalties, see note, ante, p. 1050.

(6) The sale of corn by sample in a place other than the person's own dwelling-house or shop, within a municipal boundary, the bulk of the corn being within such boundary, is within the section: Mayor of Londonderry v. McElhinney, Ir. R. 9 C. L. 61; but evidence of the sale of an article by sample, in a shop near to the corn market, of corn on a market day, is not per se evidence of an infringement of the market, 8 Jur. N. S. 461, 31 L. J. Ex. 368, 6 L. T. N. 293. See further Black v. Sackett, 10 B. & S. 639.

(7) Compare the provisions as to slaughter-houses in sections 125-131, of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, ante, pp. 1014-1016, incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 169, ante, p. 136.

17. Where by the special Act the undertakers shall be empowered to provide slaughter-houses they may from time to time erect, on any land purchased by them under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, any buildings, or set apart and improve any buildings belonging to them, for the slaughtering of cattle, and so soon as the same shall be ready for public use the undertakers shall give notice to that effect by the publication thereof in some newspaper circulating within the limits of the special Act, and by printed handbills posted on some conspicuous place within the said limits. Secs. 17-21.

Power to erect slaughter-houses if authorised by the special Act.

18. Provided that nothing in this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall protect the undertakers from an indictment for nuisance, or from any other legal proceeding, in respect of any such slaughter-house as aforesaid. Nothing to protect undertakers from an indictment for nuisance.

19. After the expiration of ten days from the publication and posting of such notice no person shall slaughter any cattle or dress any carcase for sale ⁽¹⁾ as human food or food of man in any place within the limits of the special Act other than a slaughter-house which was in use as such before and at the time of the passing of the special Act, and has so continued ever since, or the slaughter-houses made in pursuance of this and the special Act; and every person who shall, after such notice as aforesaid, slaughter any such cattle or dress for sale any such carcase within the limits of the special Act in any place other than one of such slaughter-houses, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every such offence ⁽²⁾. Penalty on slaughtering cattle, &c., elsewhere than in an authorised slaughter-house.

20. The inspector of provisions, or any officer appointed by the undertakers for that purpose, may at all times of the day, with or without assistants, enter into and inspect all buildings erected or set apart by the undertakers for slaughtering cattle, and examine whether any cattle or the carcase of any cattle is deposited there; and in case such officer shall find any cattle, or the carcase or part of the carcase of any such cattle, which shall appear unfit for the food of man, he may seize and carry the same before a justice, and such justice shall forthwith order the same to be further inspected and examined by competent persons; and in case upon such inspection and examination such cattle, carcase, or part of a carcase, shall be found unfit for the food of man, such justice shall order the same to be immediately destroyed or otherwise disposed of in such way as to prevent the same being exposed for sale or used for the food of man; and every person who shall obstruct or hinder such inspector or other officer in the discharge of any of the duties aforesaid shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds for every such offence. Inspector may enter and inspect slaughter-houses.

And with respect to weighing goods and carts ⁽³⁾, be it enacted as follows:

21. The undertakers shall provide sufficient and proper weighing houses or places for weighing or measuring the commodities sold in the market or fair, and shall keep therein proper weights, scales, and measures according to the standard weights and measures for the time being for weighing such commodities as aforesaid, and shall appoint proper persons to attend to the weighing or measuring such commodities at all times during which the market or fair is holden. Undertakers to provide proper weights and measures for weighing commodities sold at markets and fairs.

(1) Upon similar provisions in a local Act, it was held that this enactment applies only to the slaughtering of beasts intended by the person slaughtering for sale as human food: Elias v. Nightingale, 8 E. & B. 698, 27 L. J. M. C. 151, 4 Jur. N. S. 166.

(2) See Hughes v. Trew, 36 L. T. N. S. 585.

(3) These provisions with respect to weighing goods and carts in so far as they relate to markets are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 167 of that Act, ante, p. 135. As to the construction of the incorporated provisions, see section 316 of that Act, ante, p. 215. By that section "the undertakers" means the urban authority, and by the same section, all penalties incurred under the incorporated provisions are to be recovered and applied in the same way as penalties incurred under that Act, as to which, see sections 251-254 of that Act, ante, pp. 181-183. The owners or managers of public markets are required to provide proper scales and balances, weights and measures, for the purpose of weighing or measuring all goods sold or offered for sale in the market; and clerks of markets can inspect and weigh goods sold or offered for sale, and if on being weighed they are found deficient the offender is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £5. See sections 6, 7 and 8 of 22 & 23 Vict. c. 56, repealed, but re-enacted as to these sections by 41 & 42 Vict. c. 49.

Secs. 22-28.

Articles to be weighed if requested by the buyer.

Penalty for refusal.

Penalty on persons appointed refusing to weigh.

Undertakers to keep proper machines for weighing carts laden with goods.

Carts to be weighed at one of the machines erected by the undertakers.

Penalty on drivers for refusing to take carts to be weighed, &c.

Penalties on drivers of carts, &c., committing frauds in weighing.

Penalty on buyers or sellers for committing frauds in weighing.

22. Every person selling or offering for sale any articles in the market or fair shall, if required so to do by the buyer, cause the same to be weighed or measured by the weights and scales or measures provided by the undertakers; and any such person who shall refuse, on demand, to cause such articles to be weighed or measured in manner aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

23. Every person appointed by the undertakers to weigh or measure any articles sold in the market or fair who shall refuse or neglect to weigh or measure the same when required shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

24. The undertakers shall provide sufficient and proper buildings or places for weighing carts in which goods are brought for sale within the market or fair or the prescribed limits, and shall keep therein machines and weights proper for that purpose, and shall from time to time appoint a person in every such building or place to afford the use of such machines to the public by weighing such carts with or without their loading, as may be required.

25. The driver of every such cart shall, at the request of the buyer or seller of such goods, or his agent, take such cart, with or without the loading thereof, to the nearest of the said weighing machines, and shall permit the same to be weighed; and if such cart be weighed with its load thereupon the driver shall, if required, take such cart after its load has been discharged to the weighing machine nearest to such place of discharge, and permit it to be re-weighed without such load; and if any such driver shall for the purposes aforesaid be required to take such cart a greater distance than half a mile, including the going to and returning from such machines respectively, the owner of the cart shall be paid for every horse which shall be used in drawing such cart twopence for the first half mile, and a like sum for every additional half mile; and such payment shall be made by the person requiring such cart to be weighed as aforesaid before the driver thereof shall be obliged to take it as aforesaid for the purpose of having it weighed.

26. The driver of any such cart who shall not, upon being so requested as aforesaid, and having such payment made or tendered as aforesaid, take the same to such weighing machine as hereinbefore directed, or who shall refuse to assist in the weighing of the same, shall forfeit to the person requiring such cart to be weighed a sum not exceeding twenty shillings.

27. Every driver of any such cart weighed at any weighing machine to be provided in pursuance of this or the special Act who shall commit any of the following offences shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding five pounds for each offence; (that is to say,)

If he at the time of weighing any such cart knowingly have anything in or about the same other than the proper loading thereof:

If he alter any ticket denoting the weight of any such cart or the loading of the same:

If he make or use, or be privy to making or using, any ticket falsely stating the weight of any such cart or the loading thereof:

If he, after the weighing of any such cart with the loading thereof, remove any part of such loading, and afterwards dispose of or attempt to dispose of or represent the residue of such loading as being the full loading denoted by such ticket:

If he, between the time when the cart and the loading thereof have been so weighed and the time when such cart is weighed without such loading, change the wheels of such cart, or make any other change upon it after being required to allow such cart to be weighed without the loading thereof:

If he be guilty of any other fraudulent contrivance to misrepresent the weight of any such cart or of the loading thereof.

28. If the buyer or seller of any goods brought in any cart for sale within the market or fair, and which shall be required to be weighed as aforesaid, shall do anything to such cart or its loading whereby the true weight thereof respectively shall be altered before such weighing, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding five pounds.

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of these penalties, see note, ante, p. 1050.

29. The person for the time being appointed to keep any weighing machine provided in pursuance of this or the special Act shall be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding five pounds in any of the following cases; (that is to say,) Secs. 29-31.

Penalties for frauds committed by the machine keeper.

If he wilfully neglect, on application, duly to weigh any cart, with or without its loading, as the case may be, that is brought to the machine kept by him to be weighed:

If he do not fairly weigh every such cart, with or without loading, as the case may be:

If he do not deliver to the buyer or seller of any such loading, or to any person interested therein, on application, a ticket or account specifying the true weight of such cart, with or without such loading, as may be required:

If he give to the driver of any such cart a false ticket or account of the weight of such cart, with or without the loading thereof:

If he weigh any cart, with or without its loading, knowing that anything had been done to such cart or to the loading thereof to alter the true weight thereof respectively:

If he knowingly assist in or connive at any fraud concerning the weighing of any cart or the loading thereof, or make or connive at making any false representation of the weight of the same respectively.

30. Every person who shall knowingly act or assist in committing any fraud respecting the weighing or weight of any cart, or the loading thereof, in pursuance of this or the special Act, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding five pounds. Penalty on other parties committing frauds as to weighing.

And with respect to the stallages ⁽²⁾, rents, and tolls ⁽³⁾ to be taken by the undertakers ⁽⁴⁾, be it enacted as follows:

31. Unless it be otherwise provided by the special Act, the undertakers shall not demand or receive ⁽⁵⁾ any stallage, rent, or toll until the market place or place for a fair or slaughter-house in respect of the use of which the same shall be demanded shall be completed and fit for the use of the persons resorting thereunto. Tolls, &c., not to be demanded until market or fair completed.

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of such penalties, see note to section 21, ante.

⁽²⁾ Stallage is a payment due to the owner of a market in respect of the exclusive occupation of a portion of the soil: Mayor of Yarmouth v. Groom, 1 H. & C. 102, 22 L. J. Ex. 74. See further as to the right to recover stallage: Swindon Central Market Co. v. Panting, 27 L. T. N. S. 578.

⁽³⁾ By the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1860, 23 & 24 Vict. c. 51, an annual return must be made to a Secretary of State of all tolls and dues levied under the authority of Parliament in respect of markets; but this provision does not extend to any tolls or dues taken by a joint-stock company as profits of their undertaking, or to any tolls or dues taken by prescription or otherwise as private property, and that Act, in so far as it relates to the receipts and expenditure of a municipal corporation, has been repealed by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 5.

As to when the lessee of a market is rateable in respect of tolls, see R. v. Casswell, L. R. 7 Q. B. 328, 26 L. T. N. S. 574, 20 W. R. 624; S. C. nom. Casswell v. Overseers of the Borough of Wolverhampton, 41 L. J. M. C. 108. See also Percy v. Ashford Union, 34 L. T. N. S. 579; Mayor of London v. Overseers of St. Sepulchre, L. R. 7 Q. B. 333. From these cases it appears that "stallage" tolls are rateable, but "market" tolls are not.

⁽⁴⁾ These provisions with respect to the stallages, rents, and tolls to be taken by the undertakers, in so far as the same relate to markets, are incorporated with the Public Health Act, 1875, by section 167 of that Act, ante, p. 135, provided that all tolls leviable by an urban authority in pursuance of this section shall be approved by the Local Government Board. As to the construction of the provisions so incorporated, see section 316 of that Act, ante, p. 215. By that section "the undertakers" in the incorporated provisions means the urban authority, and all penalties incurred are to be recovered and applied in the same way as penalties incurred under the Public Health Act, 1875, as to which see sections 251—254 of that Act, ante, pp. 181—183.

⁽⁵⁾ The owners of a cattle market, having received toll from the plaintiffs, and invited them to come to the market with their cattle, it was held that a duty was imposed on them to keep the market in a safe condition: Lax and Bainbridge v. Corporation of Darlington, 5 Ex. D. 28, 49 L. J. Ex. 105, 41 L. T. N. S. 489, 28 W. R. 221.

Secs. 32-41.

Certificate of two justices to be evidence that market or fair is completed.

Stallages, &c., when to be paid.

Tolls to be paid to persons authorised before the same are weighed, &c. Tolls in respect of cattle market, when due.

Stallages, tolls, &c., may be varied from time to time.

Penalty on taking a greater toll than authorised by this or the special Act.

Recovery of tolls by distress, &c.

Disputes respecting tolls, how to be settled.

Penalty for obstructing collector of rents, &c.

List of tolls, &c., to be set up and placed in conspicuous places.

32. A certificate under the hand of any two justices shall be conclusive evidence that the same is completed and fit for public use as aforesaid; and any such justices shall sign such certificate on proof being adduced to them that the market place or place for a fair or slaughter-house is so completed and fit for public use.

33. The several stallages, rents, or tolls payable in respect of the market or fair or slaughter-house shall be paid from time to time, on demand, to the undertakers or the collector, or other person authorised by the undertakers to receive the same.

34. The tolls payable in respect of weighing or measuring marketable commodities, or carts with or without goods, shall be paid to the person authorised by the undertakers to weigh or measure the same by the persons bringing such marketable commodities or carts to be weighed or measured, before the same are weighed or measured.

35. The tolls in respect of cattle brought to the market for sale shall become due as soon as the cattle in respect whereof they are demandable are brought into the market place, and before the cattle are put into any pen, or tied up in such market place; and if the cattle be not removed within one hour after the close of the market, another toll shall become due in respect of the cattle so omitted to be removed.

36. The undertakers may from time to time change the stallages, rents, and tolls to be taken in respect of the market or fair, or for the slaughter-houses, or for weighing and measuring, provided that the stallages, rents, and tolls in no case exceed the amounts authorised by the special Act.

37. Every person who shall demand or receive a greater toll than that authorised to be taken under the provisions of this or the special Act shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

38. If any person liable to the payment of any stallage, rent, or toll authorised by this or the special Act to be taken do not pay the same when demanded, the undertakers or their lessee, or any person authorised by the undertakers or their lessee to collect the same, may levy the same in England or Ireland by distress, and in Scotland by poinding and sale, of all or any of the cattle or other articles in respect of which such stallage, rent, or toll is payable, or of any other cattle or other articles in the market belonging to the person liable to pay such stallage, rent, or toll, or under his charge, or such tolls may be recovered in any court having complete jurisdiction.

39. If any dispute arise concerning any such stallage, rent, or toll, such dispute shall be determined in England or Ireland by a justice, and in Scotland by the sheriff, and such justice or sheriff shall on application made to him, determine the same, and make such order therein, and award such costs to either party, as to him shall seem proper; and in default of payment, on demand, of the money which shall be so awarded, and of the costs, the same shall be forthwith levied in England or Ireland by distress, and in Scotland by poinding and sale, and the justice or sheriff shall issue his warrant accordingly.

40. Every person who shall assault or obstruct any person authorised to collect any stallage, rent, or toll authorised by this or the special Act, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty ⁽¹⁾ not exceeding forty shillings.

41. The undertakers or their lessee shall from time to time cause to be painted on boards, or to be printed and attached to boards, in large and legible characters, a list of the several stallages, rents, and tolls from time to time payable under this and the special Act, and shall cause a board containing such list to be conspicuously set up and continued in the market or fair, and in each weighing house and slaughter-house provided by the undertakers, to which each such list shall relate, and no stallage, rent, or toll shall be payable during the time such list is not so set up, or for anything not specified therein: Provided always, that if such list shall be destroyed, injured, or obliterated, the stallages, rents, and tolls shall continue to be payable during such time as shall be reasonably required for the restoration of such list, in the same manner as if such list had continued in the state required by this Act.

And with respect to the bye-laws to be made by the undertakers be it enacted as follows:

⁽¹⁾ As to the recovery and application of penalties, see note ⁽⁴⁾, ante, p. 1057.

42. The undertakers may from time to time make such bye-laws ⁽¹⁾ as they think fit for all or any of the following purposes; (that is to say,) Secs. 42-46.

For regulating the use of the market place and fair and the buildings, stalls, pens, and standings therein, and for preventing nuisances or obstructions therein, or in the immediate approaches thereto: Bye-laws may be made for all or any of the purposes herein named.

For fixing the days, and the hours during each day, on which the market or fair shall be held:

For inspection of the slaughter-houses, and for keeping the same in a cleanly and proper state, and for removing filth and refuse at least once in every twenty-four hours, and for requiring that they be provided with a sufficient supply of water, and preventing the exercise of cruelty therein:

For regulating the carriers resorting to the market or fair, and fixing the rates for carrying articles carried therefrom within the limits of the special Act.

For regulating the use of the weighing machines provided by the undertakers, and for preventing the use of false or defective weights, scales, or measures:

For preventing the sale or exposure for sale of unwholesome provisions in the market or fair:

And the undertakers may from time to time, as they shall think fit, repeal or alter any such bye-laws; provided always, that such bye-laws shall not be repugnant to the laws of that part of the United Kingdom where the same are to have effect, or to the provisions of this or the special Act, or of any Act incorporated therewith; and such bye-laws shall be reduced to writing under the common seal of the undertakers if they be a body corporate, or the hands and seals of two of the undertakers if they be not a body corporate, and, if affecting other persons than the officers and servants of the undertakers, shall be printed and published as herein provided. Bye-laws may be repealed or altered from time to time.

43. The undertakers, by the bye-laws so to be made by them, may impose such reasonable penalties as they shall think fit, not exceeding five pounds for each breach of such bye-laws; provided that every such bye-law shall be so framed as to allow the justices or sheriff before whom any penalty imposed thereby shall be sought to be recovered to order the whole or part only of such penalty to be paid. Bye-laws may be enforced by imposition of penalties.

44. No bye-laws made under the authority of this or the special Act (except such as may relate solely to the officers or servants of the undertakers) shall come into operation until the same shall be allowed in the manner prescribed by the special Act, or, if no manner be prescribed, until the same shall be allowed by the justices at quarter sessions if the market or fair be in England or Ireland, or the sheriff if the market or fair be situate in Scotland, and in either case approved under the hand of one of Her Majesty's principal secretaries of state; and it shall be incumbent on the justices at quarter sessions, or the sheriff as the case may be, on the request of the undertakers, to examine into the bye-laws which may be tendered to them for that purpose, and to allow of or disallow the same as to them may seem meet. No bye-laws to come into operation until allowed in the manner prescribed and approved by Secretary of State.

45. Provided always, that no such bye-law shall be allowed in manner herein mentioned unless notice of the intention to apply for an allowance of the same shall have been given in one or more newspapers of the county in which the market or fair shall be situated, or, if there be no newspaper in such county, in one or more newspapers of the adjoining county, one month at least before the hearing of such application; and any party aggrieved by any such bye-law, on giving notice of the nature of his objection to the undertakers ten days before the hearing of the application for the allowance thereof, may, by himself or his counsel, attorney, or agent, be heard thereon, but not so as to allow more than one party to be heard upon the same matter of objection. Notice of allowance of bye-laws to be given in one or more newspapers, &c.

46. For one month at least before any such application for allowance of any bye-law a copy of such proposed bye-laws shall be kept at the principal office of the undertakers, and A copy of proposed bye-laws to be open for inspection.

(1) As to the confirmation of bye-laws made under this section, see sections 2 and 3 of the Public Health (Confirmation of Bye-laws) Act, 1884, 47 Vict. c. 12, post, p. 1475. By section 167 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 135, an urban authority may, with respect to any market belonging to them, make bye-laws for any of the purposes mentioned in this section, so far as those purposes relate to markets, and printed copies of any bye-laws so made shall be conspicuously exhibited in the market.

Secs. 46-51

Publication of bye-laws.

Bye-laws to be binding on all parties.

Proof of publication of bye-laws.

Annual account to be made up by the undertakers, and transmitted to the clerk of the peace in England or Ireland, or to the sheriff clerk, in Scotland, and to be open to inspection.
Penalty on omission to prepare such account.
Tender of amends.

shall be put up in some conspicuous place in the market place or fair, and all persons at all reasonable times may inspect such copy without fee or reward, and the undertakers shall furnish every person who shall apply for the same with a copy thereof, or of any part thereof, on payment of sixpence for every one hundred words so to be copied.

47. The said bye-laws shall be published in the prescribed manner, and when no manner of publication is prescribed they shall be printed, and the clerk of the undertakers shall give a printed copy thereof to every person applying for the same without charge and a copy thereof shall be painted or placed on boards, and put up in some conspicuous part of the principal office of the undertakers, and also in some conspicuous place in the market place or fair, and such boards, with the bye-laws thereon, shall be renewed from time to time as occasion shall require, and shall be open to inspection without fee or reward; and in case the said clerk shall not permit the same to be inspected at all reasonable times he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

48. All bye-laws made and confirmed according to the provisions of this and the special Act, when so published and put up, shall be binding upon and be observed by all parties, and shall be a sufficient warrant for all persons acting under the same.

49. The production of a written or printed copy of the bye-laws requiring confirmation by the court of quarter session or the sheriff, authenticated by the signature of the judge or of the chairman of the court or the sheriff who shall have approved of the same, and requiring approval under the hand of one of Her Majesty's principal secretaries of state, and a written or printed copy of the bye-laws not requiring such confirmation or approval, authenticated by the common seal of the undertakers if they be a body corporate, or under the hands of the undertakers if not incorporated, or any two of them, shall be evidence of the existence and making of such bye-laws in all cases of prosecution under the same, without proof of the signature of such judge, chairman, or sheriff, or such secretary of state, or the common seal or signature of the undertakers; and with respect to the proof of the publication of any such bye-laws, it shall be sufficient to prove that a painted board containing a copy thereof was put up and continued in manner by this Act directed, and in case of its afterwards being displaced or damaged, that such board was replaced or restored as soon as conveniently might be, unless proof be adduced by the party complained against that such painted board did not contain a copy of such bye-laws, or was not duly put up or continued as directed by this Act.

50. And with respect to the receipts and expenditure of the undertakers, be it enacted, that the undertakers shall in every year cause an annual account in abstract to be prepared, showing the whole receipt and expenditure of all rents and other monies levied by virtue of this or the special Act for the year ending the thirty-first day of December, or some other convenient day in each year, under the several distinct heads of receipt and expenditure, with a statement of the balance of such account, duly audited or certified by the chairman of the undertakers, and by the auditors if any, and shall send a copy of the said account, free of charge, to the clerk of the peace in England and Ireland, and the sheriff clerk in Scotland, of the county in which the market or fair is situate, on or before the expiration of one month from the day on which such accounts shall end, which account shall be open to the inspection of the public at all seasonable hours, on payment of the sum of one shilling for every such inspection; and if the undertakers omit to prepare or send such account as aforesaid they shall forfeit for every such omission the sum of twenty pounds.

51. And with respect to the tender of amends, be it enacted, that if any person shall have committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceeding in the execution of this or the special Act or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any power or authority thereby given, and if before action brought in respect thereof such person make tender of sufficient amends to the person injured, such last-mentioned person shall not recover in any such action; and if no such tender have been made the defendant may, by leave of the court where such action is pending, at any time before issue joined, pay into court such sum of money as he thinks fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into court.

And with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of Secs 52-57. penalties, and to the determination of any other matters referred to justices in England or Ireland, and to the sheriff or justices in Scotland, be it enacted as follows:

52. If the market or fair be in England or Ireland the clauses ⁽¹⁾ of the Railways Railways Clauses Con- solidation Acts, 1845, as to damages, &c., to be incorporated with this and the special Act. Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act; and if the market or fair be in Scotland the clauses of the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to the sheriff or to justices, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act; and such clauses shall apply to the market or fair and the undertakers respectively, and shall be construed as if the word "undertakers" had been inserted therein instead of the word "company."

53. ⁽²⁾ Provided always, that in Ireland, in the case of any penalty imposed by justices, where the application is not otherwise provided for, such justices may award not more than one half of such penalty to the informer, and shall award the remainder to the guardians of the poor of the union within which the offence shall have been committed, to be applied in aid of the poor rates of such union. In Ireland part of penalties to be paid to guardians of unions.

54. And be it enacted, that nothing in this or the special Act shall be deemed to extend to or affect any Act of Parliament relating to Her Majesty's duties of customs or excise, or any other revenue of the crown, or to extend to or affect any claim of Her Majesty in right of her crown, or otherwise howsoever, or any proceedings at law or in equity by or on behalf of Her Majesty, in any part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. Nothing in this or the special Act to affect the rights of the Crown.

55. All things herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, authorised or required to be done by two justices, may and shall be done in England and Ireland by any one magistrate having by law authority to act alone for any purpose with the powers of two or more justices ⁽³⁾, and in Scotland by the sheriff or steward of any county, stewardry, or ward, or his substitute. All things required to be done by two justices in England and Ireland may in certain cases be done by one and in Scotland by the sheriff, &c.

56. Every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by any bye-law in pursuance thereof, in respect of any offence which shall take place within the metropolitan police district, shall be recovered, enforced, accounted for, and, except where the application thereof is otherwise specially provided for, shall be paid to the receiver of the metropolitan police district, and shall be applied in the same manner as penalties or forfeitures other than fines upon drunken persons, or upon constables for misconduct, or for assaults upon police constables, are directed to be recovered, enforced, accounted for, paid, and applied by an Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "an Act for regulating the police courts in the metropolis;" and every order or conviction of any of the police magistrates in respect of any such forfeiture or penalty shall be subject to the like appeal and upon the same terms as is provided in respect of any order or conviction of any of the said police magistrates by the said last-mentioned Act; and every magistrate by whom any order or conviction shall have been made shall have the same power of binding over the witnesses who shall have been examined, and such witnesses shall be entitled to the same allowance of expenses, as they would have had or been entitled to in case the order, conviction, and appeal had been made in pursuance of the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act. Penalties, &c., imposed in respect of any offence committed within the metropolitan police district to be paid to the receiver, and applied under 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71.

57. Every person who upon any examination upon oath under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury. Penalty for giving false evidence.

⁽¹⁾ These clauses are sections 140—161 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1845, 8 Vict. c. 20, post, pp. 1092—1095.

⁽²⁾ This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

⁽³⁾ By section 14 of 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71, one metropolitan police magistrate can do alone any Act which by law is directed to be done by more than one justice; and by section 1 of 21 & 22 Vict. c. 73, the same power is extended to every stipendiary magistrate.

Secs. 58-60.

Copies of special Act to be kept by undertakers at their office, and deposited with the clerks of the peace, &c., and be open to inspection.

7 W. 4 and 1 Vict. c. 83.

Penalty on undertakers failing to keep or deposit such copies.

And with respect to access to the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

58. The undertakers shall at all times after the expiration of six months after the passing of the special Act keep in their principal office of business a copy of the special Act, printed by the printers to Her Majesty, or some of them, and shall also within the space of such six months deposit in the office of the clerk of the peace of the county in England or Ireland, and in the office of the sheriffs clerk of the county in Scotland, in which the undertaking is situate, a copy of such special Act so printed as aforesaid; and the said clerk of the peace and sheriff clerk shall receive, and they and the undertakers respectively shall keep, the said copies of the special Act, and shall allow all persons interested therein to inspect the same, and make extracts or copies therefrom, in the like manner, and upon the like terms, and under the like penalty for default, as is provided in the case of certain plans and sections by an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "an Act to compel clerks of the peace for counties and other persons to take the custody of such documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them under the standing orders of either House of Parliament."

59. If the undertakers fail to keep or deposit, as hereinbefore-mentioned, any of the said copies of the special Act, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every such offence, and also five pounds for every day afterwards during which such copy shall be not so kept or deposited.

60 ⁽¹⁾. [Act may be amended, &c.]

⁽¹⁾ This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

COMMISSIONERS CLAUSES ACT, 1847.

10 VICT. c. 16.

An Act for consolidating in one Act certain provisions usually contained in Acts with respect to the constitution and regulation of bodies of commissioners appointed for carrying on undertakings of a public nature (1). [23rd April, 1847.]

Secs. 1, 2.

Whereas it is expedient to comprise in one Act sundry provisions usually contained in Acts of Parliament authorising the execution of undertakings of a public nature by bodies of commissioners, trustees, or other persons, not being joint stock companies, and that as well for avoiding the necessity of repeating such provisions in each of the several Acts relating to such undertakings as for ensuring greater uniformity in the provisions themselves: Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that this Act shall extend only to such undertakings or commissioners as shall be authorised or constituted by any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed, which shall declare that this Act shall be incorporated therewith; and all the clauses of this Act, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted by any such Act, shall apply to the commissioners constituted by such Act and to the undertaking for carrying on which such commissioners shall be constituted, so far as the same shall be applicable thereto respectively; and such clauses, with the clauses of every other Act which shall be incorporated therewith, shall, save as aforesaid, form part of such Act, and be construed therewith, as forming one Act.

Extent of Act.

And with respect to the construction of this Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, be it enacted as follows: Interpretations in this Act:

2. The expression "the special Act" used in this Act shall be construed to mean any Act which shall be hereafter passed, constituting a body of commissioners as hereinafter defined for the purpose of carrying on any undertaking, and with which this Act shall be incorporated; and the word "prescribed" used in this Act, in reference to any matter herein stated, shall be construed to refer to such matter as the same shall be prescribed or provided for in the special Act; and the sentence in which such word occurs shall be construed as if, instead of the word "prescribed" the expression "prescribed for that" "the special Act:" "prescribed:"

(1) The clauses of this Act with respect to mortgages to be executed by the commissioners (i.e., sections 75—88) are incorporated with the Highway Act, 1864, by section 50 of that Act, ante, p. 873. In the construction of these clauses "the commissioners" shall mean the "highway board;" and by the same section, mortgages and transfers of mortgages shall be valid if made in the forms prescribed by this Act, or in the forms appearing in the second schedule annexed to that Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

These clauses are also incorporated with the Artizans and Labourers Dwellings Improvement Act, 1875, by section 22 of that Act, ante, p. 600.

As to the construction of the incorporated provisions, see the same section. In the incorporated provisions "the commissioners" shall mean "the commissioners of sewers."

The same clauses are also incorporated with the Labouring Classes Dwelling Houses Act, 1866, 29 & 30 Vict. c. 28, by section 6 of that Act.

See also the same section as to the construction of the incorporated provisions.

Secs. 2—5. purpose in the special Act" had been used; and the expression "the undertaking" shall mean the undertaking or works, of whatever nature, which shall by the special Act be authorised to be executed or carried on; and the expression "the commissioners" shall mean the commissioners, trustees, undertakers, or other persons or body corporate constituted by the special Act, or thereby entrusted with powers for executing the undertaking.

Interpretations in this and the special Act : 3. The following words and expressions, both in this and the special Act and any Act incorporated therewith, shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or the context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,)

- Number : Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural number; and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular number:
- Gender : Words importing the masculine gender only shall include females:
- " Person :" The word "person" shall include a corporation, whether aggregate or sole:
- " Lands :" The word "lands" shall extend to messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments or heritages of any tenure:
- " Month :" The word "month" shall mean calendar month:
- " Superior courts :" The expression "superior courts," where the matter submitted to the cognizance of the court arises in England or Ireland, shall mean Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Record at Westminster or Dublin, as the case may require, and shall include the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster and the Court of Pleas of the County of Durham, and where such matter arises in Scotland shall mean the Court of Session:
- " Oath :" The word "oath" shall include affirmation in the case of quakers and any declaration lawfully substituted for an oath in the case of any other persons allowed by law to make a declaration instead of taking an oath:
- " County :" The word "county" shall include riding or other division of a county having a separate commission of the peace, and in Scotland stewartry, and any ward or other division of a county or stewartry having a separate sheriff, and it shall also include county of a city or county of a town:
- " Justice :" The word "justice" shall mean justice of the peace acting for the place where the matter requiring the cognizance of any such justice arises; and where any matter is authorised or required to be done by two justices, the expression "two justices" (1) shall be understood to mean two or more justices met and acting together:
- " Sheriff :" The word "sheriff" shall mean the sheriff depute of the county or ward of a county in Scotland and the steward depute of the stewartry in Scotland in which any matter submitted to the cognizance of the sheriff arises, and shall include the substitutes of such sheriff depute and steward depute respectively:
- " Quarter sessions :" The expression "quarter sessions" shall mean quarter sessions as defined in the special Act; and if such expression be not there defined, it shall mean the general or quarter sessions of the peace which shall be held at the place nearest to the undertaking for the county or place in which the undertaking, or the principal office thereof, is situate, or for some division of such county having a separate commission of the peace:
- " Clerk " The expression "the clerk" shall mean the clerk of the commissioners, and shall include the word "secretary":
- " the town." The expression "the town" shall mean the town or district named in the special Act within which the powers of the commissioners are to be exercised.
- And with respect to citing this Act or any part thereof, be it enacted as follows:
- Short title of his Act. 4. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the expression "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847."
- Form in which portions of this Act may be incorporated 5. For the purpose of incorporating part only of this Act with any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed, it shall be enough to describe the clauses of this Act with respect to any matter in the words introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter,

(1) By section 14 of 2 & 3 Vict., c. 71, any one metropolitan police magistrate can do any act which by law is required to be done by more than one justice; and by section 1 of 21 & 22 Vict., c. 73, the same power is extended to every stipendiary magistrate.

and to enact that the clauses so described, or that this Act with the exception of the clauses so described, shall be incorporated with such Act; and thereupon all the clauses of this Act so incorporated shall, save so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by such Act, form part of such Act, and such Act shall be construed as if such clauses were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which such Act relates.

Secs. 5—12.
with other Acts.

With respect to the qualification of commissioners ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

6. Where by the special Act the qualification of the commissioners is made to depend upon their being rated in respect of property of a given amount then if two or more persons be jointly rated in respect of any property, each of such persons shall, subject to the provisions herein and in the special Act contained, be eligible to be chosen a commissioner, provided the property in respect of which such persons are rated be of a rateable yearly value, which, when divided by the number of persons so rated, will give to each a sufficient rateable yearly value, according to the provisions of this and the special Act.

Joint owners or occupiers when qualified eligible as commissioners.

7. The same property shall not at the same time give a qualification as commissioner to one person as the owner, and to another as the occupier thereof.

Same property not to give two qualifications.

8. No bankrupt or insolvent, or person not qualified as required by the special Act, shall be capable of being or continuing a commissioner.

No bankrupt or insolvent to be a commissioner.

9. Any person who at any time after his appointment ⁽²⁾ or election as a commissioner shall accept or continue to hold any office or place of profit under the special Act, or be concerned or participate in any manner in any contract ⁽³⁾, or in the profit thereof, or of any work to be done under the authority of such Act, shall thenceforth cease to be a commissioner, and his office shall thereupon become vacant ⁽⁴⁾.

No person holding office or concerned in a contract to be a commissioner.

10. Provided always, that no person being a shareholder or member of any joint stock company established by Act of Parliament shall be prevented from acting as a commissioner by reason of any contract entered into between such company and the commissioners; but no such commissioner, being a member of such company, shall vote on any question relating to the execution of this or the special Act in which such company is interested.

Shareholders in companies established by Act of Parliament not disqualified by reason of contracts.

11. A person shall not be incapable of acting as a justice of the peace in the execution of this or the special Act, with reference to the levying of any penalty thereunder, by reason of his being a commissioner.

Commissioner not incapable of acting as a justice.

12. No person shall be capable of acting as a commissioner, except in administering the declaration hereinafter mentioned, until he shall have made and signed, before one of the commissioners, a declaration to the effect following:

Declaration to be made by commissioners before acting.

"I A. B. do solemnly declare, that I will faithfully and impartially, according to the best of my skill and judgment, execute all the powers and authorities reposed in me as a commissioner, by virtue of the [here name the special Act], and also that I [here set forth a statement of the possession of the qualification required by the special Act in the terms thereof]."

⁽¹⁾ Where by a local Act it was enacted that twelve inhabitants, householders, rated to the relief or maintenance of the poor of the parish, by one or more rate or rates, to the amount of £10 per annum, shall be appointed commissioners of the harbour of Rye; it was held that the rateable annual value, and not the rates payable, conferred the qualification: Easton v. Alice, 7 H. & N. 452, 8 Jur. N. S. 156, 31 L. J. Ex. 115, 5 L. T. N. S. 323, 10 W. R. 110. As to the case of a person qualified at the time of the election, but not qualified when the last preceding rate was made, see R. v. Eddowes, 1 E. & E. 330, 5 Jur. N. S. 469, 28 L. J. Q. B. 84.

⁽²⁾ A provision in the special Act that every person rated in a certain amount should be a commissioner, is an "appointment" within this section: Nicholson v. Fields, 7 H. & N. 810, 21 L. J. Ex. 233, 10 W. R. 304.

⁽³⁾ As to the evidence from which a jury might infer that a person was interested in a contract, see Nicholson v. Fields, supra. An invoice in a person's handwriting, and addressed to the commissioners, is evidence against that person (ib.).

⁽⁴⁾ A person who had contracted with former commissioners to sell a plot of land to be used for the purposes of the Act, was held not to be disqualified under the local Act, though the conveyance of the land had not been executed: Woolley v. Kay, 1 H. & N. 307; 25 L. J. Ex. 351.

Secs. 13-18.

False declaration a misdemeanor.

Declaration to be taken at the first meeting.

Penalty on commissioner, not being qualified, acting.

Commissioner neglecting to act to cease to be one.

One third of commissioners elected by ratepayers and owners to go out of office every three years.

Commissioners eligible to be re-elected.

13. Any person who shall falsely or corruptly make and subscribe the declaration aforesaid, knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, or in Scotland shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

14. Every person elected or appointed a commissioner shall, at the meeting of commissioners at which he first attends as a commissioner, make and subscribe the declaration herein required, and any commissioner, whether he himself have made such declaration or not, may administer such declaration.

15. Every person who shall act as a commissioner, being incapacitated or not duly qualified to act ⁽¹⁾, or before he has made or subscribed such declaration as aforesaid, or after having become disqualified, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty of fifty pounds; and such penalty may be recovered by any person ⁽²⁾, with full costs of suit, in any of the superior courts; and in every such action the person sued shall prove that at the time of so acting he was qualified, and had made and subscribed the declaration aforesaid, or he shall pay the said penalty and costs without any other evidence ⁽³⁾ being required from the plaintiff than that such person had acted as a commissioner in the execution of this or the special Act; nevertheless all acts as a commissioner of any person incapacitated, or not duly qualified, or not having made or subscribed the declaration aforesaid, done previously to the recovery of the penalty, shall be as valid as if such person had been duly qualified.

16. Every commissioner who for the space of six months after his appointment neglects to make and subscribe the declaration hereinbefore required, or who for six months in succession is absent from all meetings of the commissioners, and to act in the execution of this and the special Act, shall be deemed to have refused to act and shall cease to be a commissioner.

And with respect to the election and rotation of the commissioners, where the commissioners are to be elected by the ratepayers or other like class of electors, be it enacted as follows:

17. Where by the special Act it is provided that the commissioners shall be elected by the ratepayers within the town, or other like class of electors, the first body of commissioners, whether appointed by the special Act, or elected under the provisions of this and the special Act, shall go out of office according to the prescribed rotation and at the prescribed times, and where no rotation or time of going out of office is prescribed they shall go out of office by rotation in the following manner; (that is to say,) on the first Thursday in the month of September in the year following that in which the special Act is passed, one third of such body of commissioners shall go out of office, and on the first Thursday in September of the following year another third of such body of commissioners shall go out of office, and on the first Thursday in September in the year following the remainder of such body of commissioners shall go out of office, and on the first Thursday in the month of September in every subsequent year one third of the commissioners, being those who have been longest in office, shall go out of office; and in each instance the places of the retiring commissioners shall be supplied by the election of a like number of commissioners in the manner herein or in the special Act provided: Provided always, that if the prescribed number of commissioners be some number not divisible by three, and the number of commissioners to retire be not prescribed, the commissioners shall in each case determine what number of commissioners, as nearly one third as may be, shall go out of office, so that no commissioner shall remain in office longer than three years without being re-elected.

18. Every commissioner going out of office by rotation, or otherwise ceasing to be a commissioner, may be re-elected, and after such re-election he shall, with reference to going out by rotation, be considered as a new commissioner.

⁽¹⁾ See Gough v. Hardman, 5 H. & N. 112.

⁽²⁾ See Hollis v. Marshall, 2 H. & N. 755; 27 L. J. Ex. 235.

⁽³⁾ As to the evidence required, see note ⁽³⁾ to sect. 9, ante. It is a settled rule that when a defendant in a penal action obtains a verdict, a new trial will not be granted on the ground that it was against evidence: Gough v. Hardman, 6 Jur. N. S. 402; Hall v. Green, 9 Exch. 247.

19. If any of the commissioners die or resign, or be disqualified or cease to be a commissioner from any other cause than that of going out of office by rotation, the remaining commissioners, if they think fit, may, within one month from the happening of such vacancy, elect another commissioner in his place; and every commissioner so elected shall continue in office only so long as the person in whose place he is elected would have been entitled to continue in office.

Secs. 19-23.

Mode of supplying occasional vacancies.

20. In order to determine the rotation by which such first body of commissioners shall go out of office, the commissioners shall within one month after the passing of the special Act (or after the first election of commissioners, as the case may be) meet at some convenient place for the purpose of forming a rotation list; and at such meeting the clerk, or some person to be then appointed for that purpose by the commissioners, shall write the names of all the commissioners on separate slips of paper, all as nearly as may be of equal size, and having folded them up in the same manner he shall put them into a balloting box, and shall, in the presence of the meeting, draw out such slips of paper in succession, and the names upon the slips so drawn shall be written by the clerk or other person in a list, in the order in which they are drawn, or where the commissioners are elected for wards or other electoral divisions of the town (and which electoral divisions are hereinafter called wards) in as many lists as there are wards or electoral divisions, and in the order aforesaid, each list containing the names of the commissioners for one such ward or electoral division only, and every such list shall be kept by the clerk among the papers of the commissioners, and the names therein shall be numbered consecutively, and the commissioners shall retire from office in the order in which their names appear on such list or lists as the case may be, in the proportions hereinbefore or in the special Act mentioned.

Manner of making the rotation list.

21. For the purpose of electing commissioners from time to time in the place of those who go out by rotation, a meeting of the persons entitled to vote at such election shall be held at the prescribed place, and if no place be prescribed, at the principal office of the commissioners, on the prescribed day, or if no day be prescribed on the first Thursday in the month of September in the year following that in which the special Act is passed, and on the first Thursday in September in each succeeding year, or if the commissioners are to be elected for wards, a meeting of the persons entitled to vote in each ward shall on the same day be held at some place to be appointed by the commissioners, of which meetings, and the time and place of holding the same, public notice shall be given by the clerk by advertisement, and also by placards affixed on the principal doors of the parish churches or other public places in the town seven clear days at the least before the day of election, and at such meeting or meetings the election of commissioners shall take place as hereinafter mentioned.

Annual meeting for election of commissioners.

22. Where the appointment of the returning officer to act at the election of commissioners is not provided for by the special Act, the chairman of the commissioners shall be the returning officer; and if the commissioners are to be elected for wards, the said chairman shall act as the presiding officer at the election for the ward for which he was elected a commissioner, and he shall appoint some other commissioner for each of the other wards to be the presiding officer at the election for such ward, and in case of the death of any such presiding officer, or of his declining or becoming incapable to act, the commissioners shall appoint another of their body to be the presiding officer in the place of the person so dying, or declining, or becoming incapable to act, and the clerk to the commissioners shall, two days at least ⁽¹⁾ before each election, by advertisement, placards, or otherwise, give public notice of every such appointment.

Returning officer to act at elections.

23. At every such election of commissioners the commissioners shall cause to be printed a sufficient number of voting papers in blank, in the form given in the schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, and shall furnish them to the returning officer for the use of the voters; and if it appear to the returning officer at any election expedient so to do, he may cause booths to be erected, or rooms to be hired and used as booths, for taking the poll at such election, and he shall in such case

Returning officer to appoint poll clerks.

⁽¹⁾ Where an act is required by statute to be done so many days at least before a given event, the time must be reckoned, excluding both the day of the act and that of the event; R. v. Justices of Shropshire, 8 A. & E. 173.

Secs. 23-28. appoint a clerk to take the poll at each booth, and shall cause to be affixed on the most conspicuous part thereof the name of the ward or district for which such booth is provided; and public notice of every election, and of the situation of the different polling places, and of the place where voting papers may be procured by electors, shall be given by the returning officer two days at least ⁽¹⁾ before the commencement of the poll.

Scale of votes of owners and occupiers. 24. Where by the special Act the owners of property and ratepayers are entitled to vote in the election of commissioners, and no scale of voting is prescribed, every such owner and ratepayer shall have respectively the same number and proportion of votes according to the scale following; (that is to say,)

If the property in respect of which he is entitled to vote be rated upon a rateable value of less than fifty pounds, he shall have one vote :

If such rateable value amount to fifty pounds and be less than one hundred pounds, he shall have two votes :

If it amount to one hundred pounds and be less than one hundred and fifty pounds, he shall have three votes :

If it amount to one hundred and fifty pounds and be less than two hundred pounds, he shall have four votes :

If it amount to two hundred pounds and be less than two hundred and fifty pounds, he shall have five votes :

And if it amount to or exceed two hundred and fifty pounds, he shall have six votes.

Electors to vote in ward where their property qualification is situate, but not to vote for more than one ward. 25. Where by the special Act the commissioners are directed to be elected for wards, every person entitled to vote in the election of commissioners shall vote for commissioners for that ward only wherein the property or part thereof in respect of which his name appears in the rate book is situate; and if any person be rated in respect of property situate in more than one ward he may vote for commissioners for any one of such wards, but having so voted he shall not afterwards, at the same election, vote for a commissioner for any other ward; and any vote so afterwards given by him shall be void.

Commissioners may cause alphabetical list of voters to be made, and may defray the expense out of the rates. 26. Before any such election of commissioners, the commissioners, if they shall think it necessary for enabling the returning officer to take the poll conveniently at such election, may cause an alphabetical list to be made out of the names of the persons entitled to vote at such election as they appear in the rates made for the purposes of the special Act, and they shall deliver to the returning officer for the time being a sufficient number of copies of the list so prepared to enable the returning officer to take the poll at the election, and they may defray the expense of making such list and copies out of the rates payable to them under the special Act.

Returning officer may summon rate collector, &c. to attend the election. 27. If the qualification of the electors of the commissioners depend upon the rates payable by such electors, the returning officer may summon the overseers or inspectors of the poor, collectors, and other officers employed in the assessment or collection of the rates, to attend the election in order to assist in ascertaining that the persons presenting themselves to vote, or who have voted, are or were duly qualified to vote at such election, and such overseers or inspectors, rate collectors, or other officers shall attend ⁽²⁾ with the rates and such other documents necessary for the purpose aforesaid as may be in their custody or power, at such places and at such times as the returning officer may direct, and shall answer all such questions as any presiding officer at the poll shall put to them respecting the title of any person to vote at the election; and any overseer or inspector, rate collector, or other officer who shall wilfully neglect or fail to perform the duties hereby imposed upon him, shall for such neglect or failure be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds ⁽³⁾.

Penalty on rate collector, &c. for neglect.

Mode of voting at elections.

28. At every such election of commissioners the voting shall commence at nine of the clock in the forenoon of the day fixed for the election as aforesaid, and shall finally close at four of the clock in the afternoon of the same day (unless in case of riot or

(1) See note to section 22.

(2) By section 35, overseers and other officers are to be paid a reasonable remuneration for such attendance.

(3) As to the recovery of such penalties, see section 106, post.

obstruction), and shall be conducted in manner following; (that is to say,) every person entitled to vote may vote for any number of persons having the prescribed qualification, (not exceeding the number of commissioners then to be chosen for the town, or where the commissioners are to be elected in wards not exceeding the number to be elected for the ward in which such person is entitled to vote) by delivering to the presiding officer at the poll a voting paper containing a description of his qualification to vote, in the form contained in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, and also the names of the persons for whom he votes, such paper being previously signed with the name of the person voting, and the poll clerk shall thereupon openly record such vote in the poll book, and the voting paper shall be carefully preserved by the presiding officer; and the presiding officer shall, if he thinks fit, or if he be required so to do by any person entitled to vote at the said election, put to any voter at the time of his delivering in his voting paper, the following questions, or either of them:

1. Are you the person assessed as A.B. on the [] rate [specifying the rate which confers the right to vote] in respect of property described to be situated in [here specify the street, &c., as described in the rate]?

Or if the voter claim to vote as the owner of property,

Are you the person described as the owner of the property mentioned in [] rate [specify the rate] and described as being situated in [here specify the street, &c., as described in the rate]?

2. Have you already voted at the present election? [or, if the town be divided into wards,] Have you already voted for commissioners to be elected for this or any other ward at the present election?

And no person required to answer either of the said questions shall be permitted or qualified to vote until he has answered the same; and if any person wilfully make a false answer to either of the questions aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, or in Scotland shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

29. The presiding officer, at any place of voting, may close the voting or poll at any time before four of the clock, if one hour have elapsed during which no voting paper has been tendered at such place of voting.

30. After the close of the poll the returning officer, or where the commissioners are elected for wards the presiding officer in each ward, shall examine the poll books, and, if necessary, compare the entries therein with the rate book and with the voting papers so delivered as aforesaid, for the purpose of ascertaining the number of votes given for each person; and so many of such persons, being not more than the number of persons then to be chosen for the town, or for each ward, as the case may be, and having the prescribed qualification, as shall have the greatest number of votes, shall be deemed to be elected; and in case of an equality in the number of votes for any two or more such persons, the presiding officer shall, if necessary to prevent an excess in the number of commissioners, decide by lot which of such persons shall be elected; and the presiding officer shall, not later than two of the clock in the afternoon of the day next but one following the day of such election, unless such day be Sunday, and then on the day following, publish a list of the names of the persons so elected, and he shall also send a notice to each person so elected, informing him of his being elected a commissioner.

31. Within four days after every election the returning officer, or where the commissioners are elected for wards the presiding officer in each ward, shall cause the voting papers delivered as aforesaid to be arranged in alphabetical order, and numbered according to the names of the voters, and shall deliver them, together with the poll books, to the clerk to the commissioners; and such clerk shall, during six months at least after every such election, keep such voting papers and poll books at his office, and shall permit any person to inspect the same on payment of a fee of one shilling, and if such clerk shall refuse or fail to allow such inspection he shall for every such refusal or failure be liable to a penalty ^(*) of ten pounds.

32. If any person be elected a commissioner in more than one ward, he shall, within three days after notice thereof, choose, or in default thereof the commissioners at their Poll may be closed if no voting paper be tendered for one hour.

Returning officer to examine poll books and declare the poll.

Voting papers to be open to inspection for six months after each election.

Manner of punishing if any person is elected a commissioner in more than one ward.

(*) As to the recovery of such penalty, see section 107, post.

Secs. 32–38.

If no election on day appointed, it may be made on a subsequent day.

Election not to be void for want of title in presiding officer.

Expenses of presiding officer to be paid out of rates levied.

First meeting of the commissioners.

Election of chairman of meetings.

Manner of voting.

next meeting shall declare, for which one of the wards such commissioner shall serve, and he shall thereupon be held to be elected in that ward only in which he shall so choose or which the commissioners shall so declare, and shall cease to be a commissioner for any other ward.

33. If from any cause no election take place on the day appointed for the same, either for the town or for any ward, the election shall stand adjourned until the same day of the following week, and the returning officer shall give not less than three days' previous notice thereof by advertisement, or by placards affixed in public places in the town; and in such case the commissioners who would on that day have retired from office by rotation shall continue in office until such adjourned election takes place.

34. No election of commissioners shall be liable to be questioned by reason only of any defect in the title, or any want of title, of the person by or before whom such election shall have been held; provided that such person have been actually appointed to preside, or have been acting in the office giving the right to preside at such election.

35. All expenses of or incident to any election incurred by the returning officer or presiding officer shall be repaid to them by the commissioners out of the monies arising from the rates authorised to be levied for the purposes of the special Act; and all overseers and other parochial officers or other persons shall be in like manner paid a reasonable remuneration for attendance at the election with rate books, and for any other services performed in relation to such election; and any dispute respecting the amount of such expenses and remuneration shall be determined by a justice, or by the sheriff, who shall have power also to fix the costs attending such determination, and to order by whom the same shall be paid ⁽¹⁾.

And with respect to the meetings and other proceedings of the commissioners, and their liabilities, be it enacted as follows:

36. The commissioners shall hold their first meetings at the prescribed time and place, and if a time or place be not prescribed they shall hold their first meeting at some convenient place within the limits of the special Act on the third Wednesday next after the commencement thereof, or if the first body of commissioners be not named in the special Act, on the first Wednesday after the first election of commissioners, or as soon after such periods respectively as conveniently may be, at the hour of ten of the clock in the forenoon, and shall proceed to put this and the special Act into execution.

37. At the first meeting of the commissioners they shall by the majority of the votes of the commissioners present, elect one of their body to be their chairman until the next annual meeting of the commissioners, when, and at every subsequent annual meeting, the commissioners shall in like manner elect a chairman for the ensuing year; and in case the chairman die, or resign, or cease to be a commissioner, or otherwise become disqualified to act as such, the commissioners present at the meeting next after the occurrence of such vacancy shall choose some other of their body to fill such vacancy, and the chairman so elected shall continue in office so long only as the person in whose place he was elected would have been entitled to continue chairman; and if at any meeting of the commissioners the chairman be not present, one of the commissioners present shall be elected chairman of such meeting by the majority of the votes of the commissioners present at such meeting.

38. At all meetings of the commissioners the questions there considered shall be decided by the votes of the majority present, and if there be an equal division of votes upon any question the chairman or commissioner acting as chairman at such meeting shall, in addition to his own vote as a commissioner, have a second or casting vote: Provided always, that if at any such meeting there be an equality of votes in the election of the chairman, it shall be decided by lot which of the commissioners having an equal number of votes shall be the chairman: Provided also, that at every annual meeting the chairman going out of office at that meeting shall, if present and willing to act, be the chairman of such meeting.

⁽¹⁾ As to the determination of such matters by a justice, or by the sheriff, see section 104, post.

39. All powers vested in the commissioners under this or the special Act may be exercised by the prescribed number, and where no number is prescribed by any five or more of the commissioners present at any meeting holden in pursuance of this and the special Act, and no business shall be transacted at any meeting of the commissioners unless the said number of commissioners be present. Secs. 39-46.
 Quorum of commissioners.

40. The commissioners shall hold an annual meeting at the prescribed time and place, and if no time and place be prescribed then on the third Wednesday in the month of June in each year, at a place to be appointed by the commissioners, and the first of such annual meetings shall be held in the year after that in which the special Act is passed; and they shall also hold monthly meetings for the transaction of general business, and the said monthly meetings shall be held at the office of the commissioners, on such day and hour in each month as the commissioners shall from time to time appoint, and when any such appointment is made the clerk shall give notice (1) thereof to each of the commissioners, and they shall afterwards, until the time or place of such monthly meetings is changed, and notice of such change given to the commissioners, attend such monthly meetings without notice. Commissioners to hold annual and monthly meetings.

41. The commissioners present at such first meeting, or at any annual or monthly meeting, or at any adjourned meeting, may from time to time adjourn such meeting to the same or any other place within the limits of the special Act, and if at any meeting of the commissioners there be not the prescribed number, or where no number is prescribed five commissioners, present within one half hour after the time appointed for such meeting, the commissioners present, or the major part of them, or any one commissioner if only one be present, or their clerk if no commissioner be present, may adjourn such meeting to another day at the same or any other place within the limits of the special Act. Meetings of commissioners may be adjourned from time to time.

42. The said monthly meetings of the commissioners shall be held for transacting the ordinary business of the commissioners under this or the special Act, and amongst the rest for appointing and removing the inferior officers of the commissioners, and superintending their conduct, and for inquiring into the conduct of the contractors or other persons employed by them to execute any works, and into the state and progress of such works, and generally for giving such directions from time to time as may be necessary for carrying into effect the purposes of this and the special Act. Monthly meetings shall be held for transacting the ordinary business under this and the special Act.

43. Where any business other than ordinary business is required or intended to be transacted at any monthly meeting, the clerk shall give notice (1) thereof to each of the commissioners, and no such extraordinary business, nor any new rules or regulations, shall be adopted at the monthly meetings unless due notice thereof have been given at a prior meeting, and sent to each commissioner in the manner required for special meetings. No extraordinary business shall be transacted at monthly meetings unless notice be given.

44. No resolution at any meeting of the commissioners shall be revoked or altered at any subsequent meeting unless notice (1) of the intention to propose such revocation or alteration be given by the clerk to each of the commissioners seven days at least before holding the meeting, nor unless such revocation or alteration be determined upon by a majority consisting of two thirds of the commissioners present at such subsequent meeting, if the number of commissioners present at such subsequent meeting be not greater than the number present when such resolution was come to, or by a majority if the number of commissioners present at such subsequent meeting be greater than the number present at such former meeting. No resolution of commissioners to be revoked at a subsequent meeting unless under certain circumstances.

45. The commissioners may hold special meetings, and any five or more of the commissioners may require a special meeting to be held, but no such meeting shall be held unless two clear days notice (1) thereof at the least be given. As to the holding of special meetings.

46. Where by the special Act the commissioners are empowered to do anything by special order only, they shall not do such thing unless the resolution to do the same have been agreed to by the commissioners in some meeting whereof special notice (1) has been given, and have been confirmed in a subsequent meeting held not sooner than four weeks after the preceeding meeting, and which subsequent meeting has been advertised only. Notice to be given of things to be done by the commissioners by special order only.

(1) As to how this notice is to be given, see section 47, post.

Secs. 46-55. once at least in each of the weeks intervening between the two meetings, and special notice ⁽¹⁾ thereof given to each of the commissioners.

How notices of meetings of commissioners are to be given. 47. All notices of any meeting of the commissioners shall be in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and shall be by the clerk delivered or sent by the post, or otherwise, to the usual place of abode or place of business, if any, within the limits of the special Act, of each of the commissioners two clear days at least previous to such meeting, and every such notice shall specify the time and place of meeting, and in case of a special meeting shall specify the object thereof, and no business shall be transacted at any special meeting except such as is stated in the notice thereof.

Expenses of meetings. 48. At all meetings of the commissioners they shall defray their own expenses, except what may be incurred for the use of the room in which the meeting is held, and for books, stationery, and fire.

Power to commissioners to appoint committees. 49. The commissioners may at any meeting from time to time appoint committees for any purposes which in the opinion of the commissioners would be better regulated and managed by means of such committee, and they may fix the quorum of any such committee, and may continue, alter, or discontinue such committee.

Quorum of committee. 50. Every committee so appointed may meet from time to time, and may adjourn from place to place, as they may think proper for carrying into effect the purposes of their appointment; but no business shall be transacted at any meeting of the committee unless the quorum of members, if any, fixed by the commissioners, and if no quorum be fixed, three members, be present, and at all meetings of the committee one of the members present shall be appointed chairman, and all questions shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present, and in case of an equal division of votes the chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a member of the committee.

Acts of the commissioners not to be invalidated by reason of vacancies. 51. No proceedings of the commissioners or of any committee shall be invalidated or be illegal in consequence only of there being any vacancy in the number of commissioners at the time of such proceeding.

Informalities in appointment of commissioners not to invalidate proceedings. 52. All proceedings of the commissioners, or of a committee of commissioners, or of any person acting as a commissioner, shall, notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such commissioners or persons acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a commissioner.

Commissioners may provide public offices, &c. 53. The commissioners may from time to time provide and maintain fit and convenient public offices, together with all necessary and proper furniture for the same, for holding the meetings and transacting the business of the commissioners, and for the use of their officers, and for the holding of such public meetings and transacting such public business relating to the town as the commissioners shall, from time to time, under the powers of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, direct or allow to be held or transacted therein, and for such purpose may purchase or hire any lands or buildings which the commissioners think necessary from any person willing to sell or let the same, or may cause any new building to be erected upon any land purchased or hired under the provisions of this or the special Act, or otherwise belonging to the commissioners.

Commissioners to provide daily attendance at their office to receive notices, &c. 54. The commissioners shall require their clerk, or some person duly authorised by them in that behalf, to attend at their office daily, Sundays, Christmas Days, and Good Fridays, and days appointed for general fasts or thanksgivings only excepted, for the purpose of receiving notices, and transacting the ordinary business of the commissioners, and due notice of the situation of the office of the commissioners, and of the hours during which attendance is given there, shall be published by the commissioners within the limits of the special Act, in such manner that the same may be fully and generally known.

Proceedings to be entered in a book, and, when signed, shall be received in evidence. 55. The commissioners shall cause entries of all the proceedings of the commissioners, and of every committee appointed by them, with the names of the commissioners who shall attend each meeting, to be duly made from time to time in books to be provided for the purpose, which shall be kept by the clerk under the superintendence of the commissioners, and every such entry shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings took place, and such entry so signed shall be received as evidence in all courts and before all judges, justices, and others, without proof of such meeting having been duly convened or held, or of the persons attending such meeting having been or being commissioners or members of committees respectively, or of the signature of the chairman, or of the fact of his having been chairman, all of which last-mentioned matters shall be presumed until the contrary is proved; and such books shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any of the commissioners, and of any mortgagee of the rates of property or the commissioners.

(1) See section 47.

Secs. 55, 56.

Such books to be open to inspection.

And with respect to the contracts to be entered into and the deeds to be executed by the commissioners⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

56. The commissioners may enter into contracts with any persons for the execution of any works directed or authorised by this and the special Act to be done by the commissioners, or for furnishing materials, or for any other things necessary for the purposes of this or the special Act, and every such contract for the execution of any work shall be in writing, and shall specify the work to be done, and the materials to be furnished and the price to be paid for the same, and the time or times within which the work is to be completed, and the penalties to be suffered in case of non-performance thereof, and the power hereby granted to the commissioners to enter into contracts may lawfully be exercised as follows; (that is to say,)

Power to commissioners to enter into contracts.

Any contract which if made between private persons would be by law required to be in writing and under seal, or in Scotland by a probate deed, the commissioners may make in writing and under their common seal, if they be incorporated, or if not incorporated under the hands and seals, or in Scotland under the hands of the commissioners or any two of them, acting by the direction and on behalf of the commissioners, and in the same manner may vary or discharge the same:

Any contract which if made between private persons would be by law required to be in writing and signed by the parties to be charged therewith, the commissioners may make in writing, signed by the commissioners or any two of their number, acting by the direction and on behalf of the commissioners, and in the same manner may vary or discharge the same:

Any contract which if made between private persons would by law be valid, although made by parol only and not reduced into writing, the commissioners or any two of them, acting by the direction and on behalf of the commissioners, may make by parol only, without writing, and in the same manner may vary or discharge the same:

And all contracts made according to the provisions herein contained, being duly executed by the persons contracting to perform the works therein comprised respectively, shall be effectual in law, and shall be binding on the commissioners, and all other parties thereto, their successors, heirs, executors, or administrators, as the case may be, and in case of default in the execution of any such contract either by the commissioners⁽²⁾ or by any other party thereto, such actions or suits may be maintained thereon, and damages and costs recovered by or against the commissioners or the other

⁽¹⁾ As to the powers of local authorities to make contracts under the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 173, 174 of that Act, ante pp. 137—141. As to contracts made by a corporation, see note ⁽⁴⁾, ante, p. 137.

It would seem that the commissioners would not be justified in applying the funds to defray the expense of obtaining another Act of Parliament giving more extensive powers for carrying out the object of the existing Act: Att.-Gen. v. Andrews, 2 Mac. & G. 225, 14 Jur. 905, 20 L. J. Ch. 467.

⁽²⁾ Commissioners appointed by statute to perform certain works for the benefit of the public, with power to levy tolls, but not for their own profit, are, nevertheless, liable to the same responsibilities for damage caused by the negligence of their servants, as absolute owners acting for their own profit: The Mersey Docks Trustees v. Gibbs, L. R. 1 H. L. 93, 12 Jur. N. S. 571, 35 L. J. Ex. 225, 14 L. T. N. S. 679, 14 W. R. 872. See also, Coe v. Wise, 14 L. T. N. S. 891, 14 W. R. 865; Ruck v. Williams, 3 H. & N. 308, 27 L. J. Ex. 357; Whitehouse v. Fellowes, 10 C. B. N. S. 765, 30 L. J. C. P. 306, 4 L. T. N. S. 177, 9 W. R. 557; Campbell v. Hornsby, 7 Ir. R. C. 546; but see Holliday v. St. Leonard's Vestry, Shoreditch, 11 C. B. N. S. 192, 8 Jur. N. S. 79, 4 L. T. N. S. 406, 9 W. R. 694.

Secs. 56-61. parties failing in the execution thereof, as might have been maintained and recovered had the same contracts been made between private persons only.

Notice to be given of contracts to the amount of £100 or upwards.

57. Before any contract to the amount of one hundred pounds or upwards shall be entered into by the commissioners, ten days' notice at the least shall be given in some one of the newspapers circulating within the limits of the special Act, expressing the purpose of such contract, and inviting any person willing to undertake the same to make proposals for that purpose to the commissioners, and the commissioners shall accept the proposal which upon a view of all the circumstances shall appear to them to be most advantageous, and shall take security for the due and faithful performance of every such contract.

Commissioners may compound for breach of contract.

58. The commissioners may compound with any party who has entered into any such contract, or against whom any action or suit has been brought for any penalty contained in any such contract, or in any bond or other security for the performance thereof, or on account of any breach or non-performance of any such contract, bond, or security for such sums of money or other recompense as the commissioners may think proper.

As to the conveyance of lands by the commissioners.

59. Where by the special Act or any Act incorporated therewith, the commissioners are authorised or required to sell or convey any lands vested in them, and no other mode of conveyance is provided, they may convey such lands, or such interest as the commissioners have therein, by deed under the common seal of the commissioners if they be a corporation, or if not a corporation by deed executed by the commissioners, or any two of them acting by the authority of and on behalf of the commissioners; and a deed so executed, followed as to lands in Scotland by infestment duly recorded, shall be effectual to vest the lands comprised therein or such interest as the commissioners have therein in the grantee or other person to whom the same shall be so conveyed; and a receipt under such common seal, or under the hands of two of the commissioners acting as aforesaid, shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser of any such lands for the purchase-money in such receipt expressed to be received.

Receipt under seal to be a sufficient discharge.

And with respect to the liabilities ⁽¹⁾ of the commissioners, and to legal proceedings, by or against the commissioners, be it enacted as follows:

Commissioners not to be personally liable for acts done in the capacity of a commissioner.

60. No commissioner, by being party to or executing in his capacity of commissioner any contract or other instrument on behalf of the commissioners, or otherwise lawfully executing any of the powers given to the commissioners, shall be subject to be sued or prosecuted either individually or collectively, by any person whomsoever; and the bodies or goods or lands of the several commissioners shall not be liable to execution of any legal process by reason of any contract or other instrument so entered into, signed, or executed by them, or by reason of any other lawful act done by them, in the execution of any of their powers as commissioners; and the commissioners respectively, their heirs, executors, and administrators, shall be indemnified out of the rates and other moneys coming to the hands of the commissioners by virtue of this and the special Act for all payments made or liability incurred in respect of any acts done by them, and for all losses, costs, and damages which they may incur in the execution of the powers granted to them.

Commissioners to be indemnified for acts done in the execution of their office.

Actions or suits to be brought in the name of any two commissioners or their clerk.

61. In all actions and suits in respect of any matter or thing relating to the execution of this or the special Act, to be brought by or against the commissioners, it shall be sufficient, where such commissioners are not a body corporate, to state the names of any two of the commissioners, or the name of their clerk ⁽²⁾, as the party, plaintiff or defendant, representing the commissioners in any such action or suit, and no such action or suit shall abate or be discontinued, or require to be transferred, by reason of the death of any such commissioner, or by his ceasing to be a commissioner, or by the death, suspension, or removal of such clerk.

⁽¹⁾ With respect to the liability of the commissioners for injuries arising from negligence, see note ⁽²⁾ to section 56.

⁽²⁾ A clerk to commissioners cannot sue as such to recover charges due to himself for drawing up a contract, of which the contractor was, by agreement, to pay the expense: Curling v. Johnson, 10 Bing. 89, 3 M. & Scott, 496.

62. Execution upon every judgment or decree against the commissioners in any such action or suit shall be levied on the goods, chattels, or personal effects belonging to the commissioners by virtue of their office, and shall not in any manner extend to charge or make liable the persons or private lands or goods of any of the commissioners, or the heirs, executors, or administrators of any of them. Secs. 62-68.

Executions to be levied on the goods belonging to commissioners by virtue of their office only.

63. Every commissioner or clerk in whose name any such legal proceeding shall be carried on, either as plaintiff or defendant, on behalf of the commissioners, shall be reimbursed, out of the moneys which shall come into the hands of the treasurer of the commissioners by virtue of his office, all damages, costs, charges, and expenses to which any such commissioner or clerk may be put, or with which he may become chargeable, by reason of being so made plaintiff or defendant.

Commissioners and clerk to be reimbursed all damages, &c.
How indictments to be preferred.

64. The commissioners may prefer a bill of indictment against any person who shall steal or wilfully injure any property or thing belonging to the commissioners or under their management, or institute any other proceeding which may appear to them necessary for the protection of such property, and in every such case it shall be sufficient to state generally the property or thing in respect of which such proceeding shall have been taken to be the property of the commissioners, as they shall be described in the special Act, without naming the individual commissioners.

And with respect to the appointment and accountability of the officers of the commissioners, be it enacted as follows :

65 (1). The commissioners may from time to time appoint and employ a treasurer, clerk, collector, assessor, and all such other officers to assist in the execution of this and the special Act as they shall think necessary and proper, and from time to time remove any of such officers, and appoint others in the room of such as shall be so removed, or as may die, resign, or discontinue their offices, and may, out of the moneys to be raised for the purposes of this and the special Act, pay such salaries and allowances, to the said officers respectively as the commissioners shall think reasonable (2).

Power to commissioners to appoint clerk and other officers, and remove them from time to time.

66. The same person shall not be appointed to the office both of clerk and treasurer (3), and if any person being the clerk, or the partner of such clerk, or in the service of such clerk or of his partner, accept the office of treasurer, or if any person being the treasurer, or the partner of such treasurer, or in the service of such treasurer or of his partner, accept the office of clerk, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds, and any person may sue for such penalty by action of debt or on the case in any of the superior courts, and shall on recovery thereof be entitled to full costs of suit.

Offices of clerk and treasurer not to be held by the same person.

67. Every officer employed by the commissioners who shall exact or accept on account of anything done by virtue of his office, or in relation to the matters to be done under this or the special Act, any fee or reward whatsoever other than the salary or allowances allowed by the commissioners (4), or who shall be in anywise concerned or interested in (5) any bargain or contract made by the commissioners, shall be incapable of being afterwards employed by the commissioners, and shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds, and any person may sue for such penalty by action of debt or on the case in any of the superior courts, and shall on recovery thereof be entitled to full costs of suit.

Officer taking fees other than those allowed to lose his office, and forfeit £50.

68. Before any person, whether treasurer, collector, or other officer, intrusted by the commissioners with the custody or control of moneys by virtue of his office, shall enter

Security to be taken from all officers intrusted with money.

(1) By sections 189 and 190 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 150 and 151, urban and rural authorities have similar powers to appoint officers. As to the appointment of officers by highway boards, see section 12 of the Highway Act, 1862, ante, p. 846.

(2) In Bogg v. Pearse, 10 C. B. 534, 2 L. M. & P. 21, it was held that when a local Act authorises commissioners to appoint officers at a salary to be paid out of the rates to be raised under the Act, indebitatus assumpsit will not lie against the commissioners for the salaries of such officers. The proper remedy is either by mandamus or action on the case. See also Smart v. Guardians of West Ham Union, 26 L. T. 285.

(3) There is a similar provision in section 192 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 152, and in section 13 of the Highway Act, 1862, ante, p. 846.

(4) A similar provision is contained in section 193 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 153.

(5) See Wednesbury v. Stevenson, 27 J. P. 741, cited in note (c), ante, p. 153.

Secs. 68-72. upon such office, the commissioners shall take sufficient security from him for the faithful execution thereof ⁽¹⁾.

Collectors to pay over moneys within seven days to the treasurer.

69 ⁽²⁾. Every collector appointed or employed by the commissioners by virtue of this or the special Act to collect any rates shall, within seven days after he shall have received any moneys on account of any such rates, pay over the same to the treasurer of the commissioners to their account, and the receipt of such treasurer for the moneys so paid shall be a sufficient discharge to the collector, and every such collector shall, in such time and in such manner as the commissioners direct, deliver to them true and perfect accounts in writing under his hand of all moneys received by him and of all moneys paid by him to the said treasurer by virtue of this or the special Act, and also a list of the names of all persons who have neglected or refused to pay any rate or money owing by them, with a statement of the moneys due from them respectively.

Officers to account.

70 ⁽²⁾. Every collector and other officer appointed or employed by the commissioners by virtue of this or the special Act shall, from time to time when required by the commissioners make out and deliver to them, or to any person appointed by them for that purpose a true and perfect account in writing under his hand of all moneys received by him on behalf of the commissioners, and such account shall state how and to whom and for what purpose such moneys have been disposed of, and together with such account such officer shall deliver the vouchers and receipts for such payments; and every such officer shall pay to the commissioners, or to any person appointed by them to receive the same, all moneys which shall appear to be owing from him upon the balance of such accounts.

Summary recovery against parties failing to account.

71 ⁽³⁾. If any such collector or other officer fail to render such accounts as aforesaid, or to produce and deliver up all the vouchers and receipts relating to the same in his possession or power, or to pay the balance thereof when thereunto required, or if for five days after being thereunto required he fail to deliver up to the commissioners, or to any person appointed by them to receive the same, all papers and writings, property, effects, matters, and things, in his possession or power, relating to the execution of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or belonging to the commissioners, then, on complaint thereof being made to a justice, or to the sheriff, such justice or sheriff shall summon such officer to appear before two or more justices, or before such sheriff, according as the summons may have been issued by a justice or by the sheriff, at a time and place to be set forth in such summons, to answer such charge; and upon the appearance of such officer, or upon proof that such summons was personally served upon him, or left at his last known place of abode, such justice or sheriff may hear and determine the matter in a summary way, and may adjust and declare the balance owing by such officer; and if it appear, either upon confession of such officer, or upon evidence, or upon inspection of the account, that any moneys of the commissioners are in the hands of such officer, or owing by him to the commissioners, such justices or sheriff may order such officer to pay the same, and if he fail to pay the amount it shall be lawful for such justices or sheriff to grant a warrant to levy the same by distress, or by poinding and sale, or in default thereof to commit the offender to gaol, there to remain without bail for a period not exceeding three months, unless the same be sooner paid.

Officers refusing to make out account and deliver up documents, &c., may be committed to prison.

72 ⁽³⁾. If any such officer summoned as aforesaid refuse to make out such account in writing, or to produce and deliver to the justices or sheriff the several vouchers and receipts relating thereto, or to deliver up any books, papers, or writings, property, effects, matters, or things, in his possession or power, belonging to the commissioners, such justice or sheriff may commit such offender to gaol, there to remain until he shall have delivered up all the vouchers and receipts in his possession or power relating to such accounts, and all the books, papers, writings, property, effects, matters, and things, in his possession or power, belonging to the commissioners.

⁽¹⁾ See section 194 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and notes thereto, ante, p. 153.

⁽²⁾ Similar provisions are contained in section 195 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 153; and see section 31 of the Highway Act, 1862, ante, p. 849.

⁽³⁾ Similar provisions as to summary proceedings against defaulting officers are contained in section 196 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, pp. 153, 154, and in section 31 of the Highway Act, 1862, ante, p. 849.

73. Provided always, that if any commissioner, or other person acting on behalf of the commissioners, shall make oath that he has good reason to believe, upon grounds to be stated in his deposition, and that he does believe that it is the intention of any such officer as aforesaid to abscond, the justice or the sheriff before whom the complaint is made may, instead of issuing his summons, issue his warrant for bringing such officer before such two justices as aforesaid if the warrant be issued by a justice, or before such sheriff if the warrant be issued by him; but no person executing such warrant shall keep such officer in custody longer than twenty-four hours without bringing him before some justice or the sheriff, according as he may be summoned before the one or the other; and the justice or sheriff before whom such officer may be brought may either discharge such officer, if he think there is no sufficient ground for his detention, or order such officer to be detained in custody so as to be brought before two justices at a time and place to be named in such order, unless such officer give bail to the satisfaction of such justice for his appearance before such justices to answer the complaint of the commissioners.

Where officer about to abscond, a warrant may be issued in the first instance.

74⁽¹⁾. No such proceeding against or dealing with any such officer as aforesaid shall deprive the commissioners of any remedy which they might otherwise have against any surety of such officer.

Proceedings against officers not to discharge sureties.

And with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the commissioners⁽²⁾, be it enacted as follows:

75. Every mortgage or assignation in security of rates or other property authorised to be made under the provisions of this or the special Act shall be by deed duly stamped, in which the consideration shall be duly stated; and every such deed shall be under the common seal of the commissioners if they be a body corporate, or if they be not a body corporate shall be executed by the commissioners or any five of them, and may be according to the form in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed or to the like effect; and the respective mortgagees or assignees in security shall be entitled one with another to their respective proportions of the rates and assessments or other property comprised in such mortgages or assignations respectively, according to the respective sums in such mortgages or assignations mentioned to be advanced by such mortgagees or assignees respectively, and to be repaid the sums so advanced, with interest, without any preference one above another by reason of the priority of advancing such moneys, or of the dates of any such mortgages or assignations respectively⁽³⁾.

Form of mortgages.

76⁽⁴⁾. A register of mortgages or assignations in security shall be kept by the clerk to the commissioners, and where by the special Act the commissioners are authorised or required to raise separate sums on separate rates or other property, a separate register shall be kept for each class of mortgages or assignations in security, and within fourteen days

Register of mortgages to be kept and to be open to inspection.

(1) There is a similar provision in section 196 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 154, and at the end of section 38 of the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 787.

(2) These provisions with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the commissioners are incorporated with the Highway Act, 1864, by section 50 of that Act, ante, p. 873. In the construction of the incorporated clauses, "the commissioners" shall mean "the highway board;" and by the same section, mortgages and transfers of mortgages shall be valid, if made in the forms prescribed by this Act, or in the forms appearing in the second schedule annexed to that Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

The same provisions are also incorporated with the Artizans and Labourers Dwellings Improvement Act, 1875, by section 22 of that Act, ante, p. 600. As to the construction of the incorporated provisions, see the same section. In the incorporated provisions "the commissioners" means "the Commissioners of Sewers." And they are also incorporated with the Labouring Classes Dwelling Houses Act, 1866, 29 & 30 Vict. c. 28, by section 6 of that Act. See also the same section as to the construction of the incorporated provisions.

See as to borrowing powers under the Public Health Act, 1875, ss. 233—244 of that Act, ante, pp. 173—177; see also section 47 of the Highway Act, 1864, ante, p. 872; and section 8 of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878, ante, p. 881.

(3) By section 50 of the Highway Act, 1864, ante, p. 874, mortgages may be made either in the form given in the schedule to this Act, or in the form given in the second schedule of the Highway Act, 1864, as to which see ante, p. 876; for form under the Public Health Act, 1875, see ante, p. 249.

(4) See section 237 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 175.

Secs. 76-82. after the date of any mortgage or assignation in security an entry or memorial of the number and date thereof, and of the names of the parties thereto, with their proper additions, shall be made in the proper register, and every such register may be perused at all reasonable times by any person interested in any such mortgage or assignation in security without fee or reward.

Transfers of mortgages.

77. Any person entitled to any such mortgage or assignation may transfer ⁽¹⁾ his right and interest therein to any other person; and every such transfer shall be by deed duly stamped, wherein the consideration shall be truly stated; and every such transfer may be according to the form ⁽²⁾ in the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect.

Register of transfers to be kept.

78 ⁽³⁾. Within thirty days after the date of every such transfer, if executed within the United Kingdom, or otherwise within thirty days after the arrival thereof in the United Kingdom, it shall be produced to the clerk to the commissioners, and thereupon such clerk shall cause an entry or memorial thereof to be made, in the same manner as in the case of the original mortgage or assignation in security, and for such entry the clerk may demand a sum not exceeding five shillings; and after such entry every such transfer shall entitle the transferee, his executors, administrators, or assigns, to the full benefit of the original mortgage or assignation in security, and the principal and interest thereby secured; and such transferee may in like manner assign or transfer the same again, toties quoties; and it shall not be in the power of any person, except the person to whom the same shall have been last transferred, his executors, administrators, or assigns, to make void, release, or discharge the mortgage or assignation so transferred, or any money thereby secured.

Interest on mortgages to be paid half-yearly.

79. Unless otherwise provided by any mortgage or assignation in security, the interest of the money borrowed thereupon shall be paid half-yearly to the several parties entitled thereto.

Power to borrow money at a lower rate of interest to pay off securities at a higher rate.

80. If the commissioners can at any time borrow or take up any sum of money at a lower rate of interest than any securities given by them and then be in force shall bear, they may borrow such sum at such lower rate as aforesaid, in order to pay off and discharge the securities bearing such higher rate of interest, and may charge the rates and other property which they may be authorised to mortgage or assign in security under this or the special Act, or any part thereof, with payment of such sum and such lower rate of interest, in such manner and subject to such regulations as are herein contained with respect to other moneys borrowed on mortgage or assignation in security.

Repayment of money borrowed at a time and place agreed upon.

81. The commissioners may, if they think proper, fix a period for the repayment of all principal moneys borrowed under the provisions of this or the special Act, with the interest thereof, and in such case the commissioners shall cause such period to be inserted in the mortgage deed or assignation in security; and upon the expiration of such period the principal sum, together with the arrears of interest thereon, shall, on demand, be paid to the party entitled to receive such principal money and interest, and if no other place of payment be inserted in such deed such principal and interest shall be payable at the office of the commissioners.

Repayment of money borrowed when no time or place has been agreed upon.

82. If no time be fixed in the mortgage deed or assignation in security for the repayment of the money so borrowed, the party entitled to receive such money may, at the expiration, or at any time after the expiration of twelve months from the date of such deed, demand payment of the principal money thereby secured with all arrears of interest, upon giving six months previous notice for that purpose, and in the like case the commissioners may at any time pay off the money borrowed, on giving the like notice; and every such notice shall be in writing or print, or both, and if given by a mortgagee or creditor shall be delivered to the clerk or left at the office of the commissioners, and if statement and account, shall be produced at the annual meeting of the commissioners, or at some adjournment thereof, at which meeting all creditors and ratepayers and other persons interested may be present, and the accounts shall be then finally examined and settled by the commissioners, and if the same be found just and true they shall be allowed by the commissioners, and certified accordingly under the hand of the chairman of such meeting; and after such accounts have been so allowed and signed by such chairman, and also by the auditors, as hereinafter provided, the same shall be final in regard to all persons whomsoever, unless an appeal be prosecuted against such accounts as hereinafter provided.

⁽¹⁾ There is a similar provision in section 238 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 175.

⁽²⁾ By section 50 of the Highway Act, 1864, ante, p. 874, transfers of mortgages may be made either in the form in the schedule of this Act, or in the form given in the second schedule of the Highway Act, 1864, as to which, see ante, p. 876; for the form of the transfer of a mortgage under the Public Health Act, 1875, see ante, p. 250.

⁽³⁾ See also section 237 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 175.

Secs. 91-95.

settled at the annual meeting.

92 (2). Except in the cases where by the special Act provision is made for the appointment of a permanent auditor, and such auditor shall have been appointed accordingly, the ratepayers present at the said annual meeting may appoint two or more persons not being commissioners to be auditors of the accounts of the commissioners; and if no other person present at such meeting propose the names of two persons to be appointed auditors by such meeting, it shall be the duty of the chairman of the meeting to propose the names of two persons to be so appointed; and the persons so to be appointed auditors shall have the like qualification, and shall be subject to the like disqualification or disability, as the commissioners (2); and before entering on their office they shall make and sign before a justice or the sheriff a solemn declaration of the like purport and effect to that hereby required to be signed by the commissioners; and the auditors so appointed shall receive a reasonable remuneration for their time and trouble, not exceeding two guineas each for every day they shall be fully employed on such audit, and all such expenses as they shall be put unto attending the auditing of the said accounts; and if any dispute arise as to the amount of the remuneration and expenses to be paid to such auditors, it shall in England or Ireland be settled by two justices, and in Scotland by the sheriff.

Auditors to be appointed.

Qualification of auditors.

93 (1). The auditors so nominated, or the said permanent auditor if any shall have been appointed as aforesaid, shall attend as soon as conveniently may be after the said annual meeting at the office of the commissioners, or at some other convenient place to be appointed by the commissioners, and from time to time shall, in the presence of the clerk to the commissioners, if he desire to be present, proceed to audit the accounts of the commissioners for the year preceding the said annual meeting; and the commissioners shall by their clerk produce and lay before such auditors the accounts so allowed and certified as aforesaid, together with the statement and account hereinbefore mentioned, accompanied with proper vouchers in support of the same, and all books, papers, and writings in their custody or power relating thereto; and any person interested in the said account, either as a creditor of the commissioners or as a ratepayer, may be present at the audit of the said accounts, by himself or his agent, and may make any objection to any part of such account; and if the said accounts be found correct such auditors shall sign the same in token of their allowance thereof, but if such auditors think there is a just cause to disapprove of any part of the said accounts, they or any other person interested in the said accounts as aforesaid may appeal against any such part of the said accounts as shall be so disapproved of to one of the two next quarter sessions in England or Ireland, and to the sheriff in Scotland, notice in writing of such appeal being given to the clerk of the commissioners fourteen days at the least before the hearing of such appeal.

Auditors to inspect accounts, and may appeal against part of the same if they think fit.

94. Upon the hearing of any such appeal the justices or the sheriff may make such order as they or he think fit respecting the payment of the costs of the appellant out of the moneys coming to the hands of the commissioners under the special Act or otherwise, as they or he think fit, and such order shall be final.

The court may order payment of the costs of the appeal.

95. The commissioners shall every year cause an annual account in abstract to be prepared, showing the total receipt and expenditure of all funds levied by virtue of this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, for the year ending on the day

Annual account to be made up and transmitted to

(1) Compare the provisions as to auditing accounts under the Public Health Act, 1875, in section 247 of that Act, ante, p. 178.

(2) See sections, 6, et seq., ante.

Secs. 88-91. cation such justices or sheriff may, by order in writing, after hearing the parties, appoint some person to receive the whole or a competent part of the rates or sums liable to the payment of such interest, or such principal and interest, as the case may be, until such interest, or until such principal and interest, as the case may be, together with all costs, including the charges of receiving the rates or sums aforesaid, be fully paid; and upon such appointment being made all such rates and sums of money as aforesaid, or such part thereof as may be ordered by the said justices or sheriff, shall be paid to the person so to be appointed, and the money so paid shall be so much money received by or to the use of the party to whom such interest, or such principal and interest, as the case may be, shall be then due, and on whose behalf such receiver shall have been appointed, and after such interest and costs, or such principal, interest, and costs have been so received, the power of such receiver shall cease.

Account books to be open to the inspection of mortgagees.

88. The books of account of the commissioners shall be open at all seasonable times to the inspection of the respective mortgagees or assignees in security of the commissioners, with liberty to take extracts therefrom, without fee or reward.

And with respect to the accounts to be kept by the commissioners ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

Accounts to be kept of receipts and disbursements, which shall be open for inspection.

89. The commissioners shall cause books to be provided and kept, and true and regular accounts to be entered therein of all sums of money received and paid for and on account of this and the special Act, and of the several purposes for which such sums of money shall have been received and paid, which books shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of any of the commissioners, and any mortgagee, assignee, in security, or other creditor of the commissioners, without fee or reward, and the commissioners and persons aforesaid, or any of them, may take copies of or extracts from the said books, without paying anything for the same; and any clerk or other person having the custody of the said books who shall not, on any reasonable demand of any commissioner, mortgagee, or creditor as aforesaid, permit him to inspect the said books, or to take such copies or extracts as aforesaid, shall be liable to a penalty of five pounds for every such offence.

Penalty for refusal.

Statement of accounts to be prepared, and to be open for inspection.

90. The commissioners shall cause their accounts to be balanced in each year to a period not less than one month before the annual general meeting at which they are to be produced, as after mentioned; and fourteen days at the least before such meeting the commissioners shall cause a full and true statement and account to be drawn out of the amount of all rates or assessments made, and of all contracts entered into, and of all moneys received and expended by virtue of this or the special Act during the preceding year, and also of all debts then owing by the commissioners, and they shall cause such statement and account to be printed, and shall allow the same to remain for inspection at the office of the commissioners; and every creditor on the rates and assessments by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, authorised to be made, and every person paying any such rate or assessment, or any person acting on behalf of any such creditor or ratepayer, may at all reasonable times inspect such statement and account, and compare the same with the books and documents relating thereto in the possession of the commissioners; and the clerk shall, on demand, furnish a printed copy of the said statement and account to every such creditor and ratepayer, without fee; and fourteen days at the least before to the meeting for examining and settling such account the commissioners shall give public notice of such intended meeting, stating in such notice that the said statement and account are printed, and lie at the office of the commissioners ready for the inspection of the creditors and ratepayers or other parties interested.

Copies of such statement to be furnished.

Accounts to be examined and

91. The accounts of the commissioners, so balanced as aforesaid, together with the said

⁽¹⁾ As to accounts and the audit of accounts under the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 245-250 of that Act, ante, pp. 178-181. The duty to keep accounts of receipts and expenditure is imposed on all surveyors of highways, by section 40 of the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 787. As to the audit of accounts of highway districts and parishes, see section 9 of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878, and notes thereto, ante, p. 881.

statement and account, shall be produced at the annual meeting of the commissioners, or at some adjournment thereof, at which meeting all creditors and ratepayers and other persons interested may be present, and the accounts shall be then finally examined and settled by the commissioners, and if the same be found just and true they shall be allowed by the commissioners, and certified accordingly under the hand of the chairman of such meeting; and after such accounts have been so allowed and signed by such chairman, and also by the auditors, as hereinafter provided, the same shall be final in regard to all persons whomsoever, unless an appeal be prosecuted against such accounts as hereinafter provided. Secs. 91-95.
settled at the annual meeting.

92 (?). Except in the cases where by the special Act provision is made for the appointment of a permanent auditor, and such auditor shall have been appointed accordingly, the ratepayers present at the said annual meeting may appoint two or more persons not being commissioners to be auditors of the accounts of the commissioners; and if no other person present at such meeting propose the names of two persons to be appointed auditors by such meeting, it shall be the duty of the chairman of the meeting to propose the names of two persons to be so appointed; and the persons so to be appointed auditors shall have the like qualification, and shall be subject to the like disqualification or disability, as the commissioners (?); and before entering on their office they shall make and sign before a justice or the sheriff a solemn declaration of the like purport and effect to that hereby required to be signed by the commissioners; and the auditors so appointed shall receive a reasonable remuneration for their time and trouble, not exceeding two guineas each for every day they shall be fully employed on such audit, and all such expenses as they shall be put unto attending the auditing of the said accounts; and if any dispute arise as to the amount of the remuneration and expenses to be paid to such auditors, it shall in England or Ireland be settled by two justices, and in Scotland by the sheriff. Auditors to be appointed.

Qualification of auditors.

93 (?). The auditors so nominated, or the said permanent auditor if any shall have been appointed as aforesaid, shall attend as soon as conveniently may be after the said annual meeting at the office of the commissioners, or at some other convenient place to be appointed by the commissioners, and from time to time shall, in the presence of the clerk to the commissioners, if he desire to be present, proceed to audit the accounts of the commissioners for the year preceding the said annual meeting; and the commissioners shall by their clerk produce and lay before such auditors the accounts so allowed and certified, as aforesaid, together with the statement and account hereinbefore mentioned, accompanied with proper vouchers in support of the same, and all books, papers, and writings in their custody or power relating thereto; and any person interested in the said account, either as a creditor of the commissioners or as a ratepayer, may be present at the audit of the said accounts, by himself or his agent, and may make any objection to any part of such account; and if the said accounts be found correct such auditors shall sign the same in token of their allowance thereof, but if such auditors think there is a just cause to disapprove of any part of the said accounts, they or any other person interested in the said accounts as aforesaid may appeal against any such part of the said accounts as shall be so disapproved of to one of the two next quarter sessions in England or Ireland, and to the sheriff in Scotland, notice in writing of such appeal being given to the clerk of the commissioners fourteen days at the least before the hearing of such appeal. Auditors to inspect accounts, and may appeal against part of the same if they think fit.

94. Upon the hearing of any such appeal the justices or the sheriff may make such order as they or he think fit respecting the payment of the costs of the appellant out of the moneys coming to the hands of the commissioners under the special Act or otherwise, as they or he think fit, and such order shall be final. The court may order payment of the costs of the appeal.

95. The commissioners shall every year cause an annual account in abstract to be prepared, showing the total receipt and expenditure of all funds levied by virtue of this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, for the year ending on the day Annual account to be made up and transmitted to (?) Compare the provisions as to auditing accounts under the Public Health Act, 1875, in section 247 of that Act, ante, p. 178.

(?) See sections, 6, et seq., ante.

Secs. 95—
102.

the clerk of the peace in England or Ireland or to the sheriff clerk in Scotland and to be open to inspection.

down to which their accounts shall have been made up for the said annual meeting, or some other convenient day in each year, under the several distinct heads of receipt and expenditure, with a statement of the balance of such account, duly audited and certified by the chairman of the commissioners, and also by the auditors thereof; and shall, if the undertaking is situated in England or Ireland, send a copy of the said account free of charge to the clerk of the peace for the county where the undertaking is situate, and if the undertaking is situated in Scotland, shall send such copy to the sheriff clerk of such county, on or before the thirty-first day of January then next, or within one month after the same has been duly audited, which account shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours, on payment of the sum of one shilling for every such inspection; and if the commissioners shall omit to prepare and transmit such account as aforesaid, they shall be liable for every such omission to a penalty of twenty pounds.

And with respect to the making of bye-laws ⁽¹⁾, be it enacted as follows:

Power to make bye-laws for regulating the conduct of the officers, &c. of the commissioners.

96. The commissioners may from time to time make such bye-laws as they think fit, for the purpose of regulating the conduct of the officers and servants of the commissioners, and for providing for the due management of the affairs of the commissioners, and may from time to time alter or repeal any such bye-laws, and make others, provided such bye-laws be not repugnant to the laws of that part of the United Kingdom where the same are to have effect, or to the provisions of this or the special Act; and such bye-laws shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the common seal of the commissioners, where the commissioners are a body corporate, or shall be signed by the commissioners or any two of them, where they are not a body corporate; and a copy of such bye-laws shall be given to every officer and servant of the commissioners affected thereby.

Fines for breach of such bye-laws.

97. The commissioners may by such bye-laws impose such reasonable penalties upon all persons, being officers or servants of the commissioners, offending against such bye-laws, as the commissioners think fit, not exceeding five pounds for any one offence.

Bye-laws to be so framed as that penalties may be mitigated.

98. All the bye-laws to be made by the commissioners shall be so framed as to allow the justice or the sheriff before whom any penalty imposed thereby may be sought to be recovered to order a part only of such penalty to be paid, if such justice or sheriff think fit.

And with respect to giving notices and orders ⁽²⁾ be it enacted as follows:

Service of notices upon commissioners.

99. Any summons or notice, or any writ or other proceeding at law or in equity, requiring to be served upon the commissioners, may be served by the same being left at or sent through the post-office, directed to the commissioners, at their principal office, or one of their principal offices where there shall be more than one, or by being given personally to the clerk, or in case there be no clerk, then by being given to any one commissioner.

Notices by advertisement.

100. All notices required by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, to be given by advertisement, shall be advertised in the prescribed newspaper, or if no newspaper be prescribed, or if the prescribed newspaper cease to be published, in a newspaper circulating in the district within which the undertaking shall be situated.

Authentication of notices and orders.

101 ⁽³⁾. Every order, summons, notice, or other such document requiring authentication by the commissioners shall be sufficiently authenticated if signed by two commissioners, or by the clerk of the commissioners, and it need not be under the common seal of the commissioners, although they be incorporated, and the same may be in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print.

Proof of debts in bankruptcy.

102 ⁽⁴⁾. And with respect to the proof of debts in bankruptcy or insolvency, be it enacted, that if any person against whom the commissioners have any claim or demand become bankrupt, or take the benefit of any Act for the relief of insolvent debtors, the clerk

(1) As to the general requisites to the validity of bye-laws, see note ⁽³⁾, ante, p. 147.

For forms of bye-laws, see post.

(2) As to the service of notices under the Public Health Act, 1875, see sections 266, 267 of that Act, ante, pp. 191, 192.

(3) By section 266 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 191, the signature by the clerk to the local authority or their surveyor or inspector of nuisances shall be a sufficient authentication by the local authority.

(4) The words in italics in this section have been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

or treasurer of the commissioners, in all proceedings against the estate of such bankrupt Secs. 102— or insolvent, or under any fiat, sequestration, or act of insolvency against such bankrupt or 107.
insolvent, may represent the commissioners, and act in their behalf, in all respects as if such claim or demand had been the claim or demand of such secretary or treasurer, and not of the commissioners.

103. And with respect to tender of amends, be it enacted, that if any person shall have Tender of committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceeding in the execution of amends.
 this or the special Act, or by virtue of any power or authority thereby given, and if before action brought in respect thereof such party make tender of sufficient amends to the party injured, such last-mentioned party shall not recover in any such action; and if no such tender have been made, the defendant, by leave of the court where such action is pending, may, at any time before issue joined, pay into court such sum of money as he thinks fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into court.

And with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices or to the sheriff, be it enacted as follows:

104. If the undertaking be situate in England or Ireland the clauses ⁽¹⁾ of the Rail- Railways ways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the recovery of damages not Clauses Con-specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter solidation referred to justices, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act; and if the Acts, 1845, as undertaking be situate in Scotland the clauses of the Railways Clauses Consolidation to damages, Act (Scotland), 1845, with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, &c., to be inand to the determination of any other matter referred to the sheriff or to justices, shall corporated be incorporated with this and the special Act; and such clauses shall apply to the with this and undertaking, and to the commissioners respectively, and shall be construed as if the the special word "commissioners" had been inserted therein instead of the word "company."

105. All things herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated herewith, All things re-authorised or required to be done by two justices ⁽²⁾, may and shall be done in England quired to be and Ireland by any one magistrate having by law authority to act alone for any purpose done by two with the powers of two or more justices, and in Scotland by the sheriff or steward of any justices in county or stewartry or ward, or his substitute. England and Ireland may,

106. Every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this or the special Act, or any Act, in certain incorporated therewith, or by any bye-law in pursuance thereof, in respect of any offence cases, be done which shall take place within the metropolitan police district, shall be recovered, by one, and in enforced, accounted for, and, except where the application thereof is otherwise specially Scotland by provided for, shall be paid to the receiver of the metropolitan police district, and shall the sheriff, &c.
 be applied in the same manner as penalties or forfeitures, other than fines upon drunken Penalties, &c.
 persons or upon constables for misconduct, or for assaults upon police constables, are directed imposed in re-to be recovered, enforced, accounted for, paid, and applied by an Act passed in the third spect of any year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police offence com-Courts in the Metropolis" ⁽³⁾, and every order or conviction of any of the police mitted within magistrates in respect of any such forfeiture or penalty shall be subject to the like the metropoliappeal and upon the same terms as is provided in respect of any order or conviction of tan police dis-any of the said police magistrates by the said last-mentioned Act; and every magistrate trict to be by whom any order or conviction shall have been made shall have the same power of paid to the binding over the witnesses who shall have been examined, and such witnesses shall be receiver, and entitled to the same allowance of expenses as they would have had or been entitled to in applied under case the order, conviction, and appeal had been made in pursuance of the provisions of 2 & 3 Vict.
 the said last-mentioned Act. c. 71.

107 ⁽⁴⁾. In Ireland part of penalties to be paid to guardians of unions.

⁽¹⁾ See sections 140—161 of the Railways Clauses Act, 1845, 8 Vict. c. 20, post, pp. 1092—1095.

⁽²⁾ See note ⁽¹⁾ to section 3, ante.

⁽³⁾ As to the recovery of penalties and forfeitures under 2 & 3 Vict. c. 71, see section 45 of that Act.

⁽⁴⁾ This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

Secs. 108—112.

Persons giving false evidence liable to penalties of perjury.
Nothing in this or the special Act to affect the rights of the Crown.

Copies of special Act to be kept by commissioners at their office and deposited with the clerks of the peace,
&c., and be open to inspection.

7 Will. 4 & 1
Vict. c. 83.

Penalty on commissioners failing to keep or deposit such copies.

108. Every person who, upon any examination upon oath under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury.

109. And be it enacted, that nothing in this or the special Act shall be deemed to extend to or affect any Act of Parliament relating to Her Majesty's duties of customs or excise, or any other revenue of the crown, or to extend to or affect any claim of Her Majesty in right of her crown, or otherwise, howsoever, or any proceedings at law or in equity by or on behalf of Her Majesty, in any part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And with respect to access to the special Act, be it enacted as follows :

110. The commissioners shall, at all times after the expiration of six months after the passing of the special Act, keep in their principal office of business a copy of the special Act, printed by the printers to Her Majesty or some of them, and shall also, within the space of such six months, deposit in the office of the clerk of the peace in England or Ireland, and of the sheriff clerk in Scotland, of the county in which the undertaking is situate, a copy of such special Act so printed as aforesaid ; and the said clerk of the peace and sheriff clerk respectively shall receive, and they and the commissioners respectively shall keep, the said copies of the special Act, and shall permit all persons interested to inspect the same, and make extracts or copies therefrom, in the like manner, and upon the like terms, and under the like penalty for default, as is provided in the case of certain plans and sections by an Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to compel clerks of the peace for counties and other persons to take the custody of such documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them under the Standing Orders of either House of Parliament."

111. If the commissioners fail to keep or deposit as hereinbefore mentioned any of the said copies of the special Act, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every such offence, and also five pounds for every day afterwards during which such copy shall be not so kept or deposited.

112 (1). Act may be amended, &c.

SCHEDULES TO WHICH THE FOREGOING ACT REFERS.

Schedule A.

SCHEDULE (A.) Sect. 23.

Voting Paper.

Town of [or District of]
Voting Paper for the Town [or District] of [or if divided into Wards, Voting Paper for District] of]

Ward, in the Town [or

Name of the Persons voted for as Commissioners.	Christian Name and Surname of Voter.	Description of Property.	Number of Votes.
			As Owner.	As Occupier.

I vote for the Persons named in the above List as Commissioners for this Town [or District, or Ward, as the case may be].

(Signed)

Here the name of the Voter should be written.

(1) This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Viet. c. 66.

SCHEDULE (B.) Sect. 75.

Schedule B.Form of Mortgage.

By virtue of [here name the special Act], we [here name the corporation if the commissioners be incorporated, or if not incorporated, five of the commissioners,] appointed in pursuance of the said Act, in consideration of the sum of _____ paid to the treasurer to the said commissioners by A.B. of _____ for the purposes of the said Act, do grant and assign unto the said A.B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, such proportion of the rates, rents, profits, and other moneys arising or accruing by virtue of the said Act from [here describe the rates or other property proposed to be mortgaged] as the said sum of _____ doth or shall bear to the whole sum which is or shall be borrowed upon the credit of the said rates, rents, profits, or moneys to hold to the said A.B., his executors, administrators, and assigns, from this day until the said sum of _____ with interest at _____ per centum per annum for the same, shall be fully paid and satisfied (the principal sum to be repaid at the end of _____ years from the date hereof [in case any period be agreed upon for that purpose]). Given under our corporate seal [or in witness whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals, or, if the deed be granted in Scotland, insert the testing clause required by the law of Scotland, as the case may be], this _____ day of _____ One thousand eight hundred and _____ SCHEDULE (C.) Sect. 77.

Schedule C.Form of Transfer of Mortgage.

I A. B. of _____ in consideration of the sum of _____ paid to me by C.D. of _____ do hereby transfer to the said C.D., his executors, administrators, and assigns, a certain mortgage, [or, if the deed be granted in Scotland, a certain assignation in security], number _____ made by "the commissioners for executing the [here name the special Act] to _____ bearing date the _____ day of _____ for securing the sum of _____ and _____ interest [or, if such transfer be by indorsement, the within security], and all my right, estate, and interest in and to the money thereby secured, and in and to the rates, rents, profits or other moneys thereby assigned. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal [or, if the deed be granted in Scotland, insert the testing clause required by the law of Scotland], this _____ day of _____ One thousand eight hundred and _____ SCHEDULE (D.) Sect.

Schedule D.Form of Conviction.

} Be it remembered, that on this _____ day of _____ in the year of to wit. } our Lord _____ A.B. is convicted before us, two of her Majesty's justices of the peace for the county of _____ [or, before me _____ the sheriff of the county of _____] [here describe the offence generally and the time and place when and where committed], contrary to [here name the special Act]. Given under our hands and seals [or if by the sheriff, under my hand], the day and year first above written.

C.
D.

RAILWAYS' CLAUSES

CONSOLIDATION ACT, 1845.

8 VICT. c. 20.

An Act for consolidating in one Act certain provisions usually inserted in Acts authorising the making of Railways. [8th May, 1845.]

Secs. 16, 46.

Works to be executed.

Inclined planes, &c.

Alteration of course of rivers, &c.

Drains, &c.

Warehouses, &c.

Alterations and repairs.

General power.

Proviso as to damages.

Crossing of roads.

16. Subject to the provisions and restrictions in this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, it shall be lawful for the company, for the purpose of constructing the railway, or the accommodation works connected therewith, hereinafter mentioned, to execute any of the following works; (that is to say,)

They may make or construct in, upon, across, under, or over any lands, or any streets, hills, valleys, roads, railroads, or tramroads, rivers, canals, brooks, streams, or other waters, within the lands described in the said plans or mentioned in the said books of reference or any correction thereof, such temporary or permanent inclined planes, tunnels, embankments, aqueducts, bridges, roads, ways, passages, conduits, drains, piers, arches, cuttings, and fences as they think proper :

They may alter the course of any rivers not navigable, brooks, streams, or water-courses, and of any branches of navigable rivers, such branches not being themselves navigable, within such lands, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining tunnels, bridges, passages, or other works over or under the same, and divert or alter, as well temporarily as permanently, the course of any such rivers or streams of water, roads, streets, or ways, or raise or sink the level of any such rivers or streams, roads, streets, or ways, in order the more conveniently to carry the same over or under or by the side of the railway, as they may think proper ;

They may make drains or conduits into, through, or under any lands adjoining the railway, for the purpose of conveying water from or to the railway ;

They may erect and construct such houses, warehouses, offices, and other buildings, yards, stations, wharfs, engines, machinery, apparatus, and other works and conveniences as they think proper ;

They may from time to time alter, repair, or discontinue the before-mentioned works or any of them; and substitute others in their stead; and

They may do all other acts necessary for making, maintaining, altering, or repairing, and using the railway :

Provided always, that in the exercise of the powers by this or the special Act granted the company shall do as little damage as can be, and shall make full satisfaction in manner herein and in the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, provided, to all parties interested for all damage by them sustained by reason of the exercise of such powers.

And with respect to the crossing of roads or other interference therewith, be it enacted as follows :

46. If the line of the railway cross any turnpike road or public highway, then (except where otherwise provided by the special Act) either such road shall be carried over the railway, or the railway shall be carried over such road by means of a bridge, of the height and width and with the ascent or descent by this or the special Act in that behalf provided; and such bridge, with the immediate approaches, and all other necessary works connected therewith, shall be executed and at all times thereafter maintained at the expense of the company ⁽¹⁾: Provided always, that, with the consent of two or more justices in petty sessions, as after mentioned, it shall be lawful for the company to carry the railway across any highway, other than a public carriage road, on the level ⁽²⁾. Secs. 46-50.

47. If the railway cross any turnpike road or public carriage road on a level, the company shall erect and at all times maintain good and sufficient gates across such road, on each side of the railway where the same shall communicate therewith, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates; and such gates shall be kept constantly closed across such road on both sides of the railway, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages passing along the same shall have to cross such railway; and such gates shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when closed to fence in the railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the railway; and the person intrusted with the care of such gates shall cause the same to be closed as soon as such horses, cattle, carts, or carriages shall have passed through the same, under a penalty of forty shillings for every default therein: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, in any case in which they are satisfied that it will be more conducive to the public safety that the gates on any level crossing over any such road should be kept closed across the railway, to order that such gates shall be kept so closed instead of across the road, and in such case such gates shall be kept constantly closed across the railway, except when engines or carriages passing along the railway shall have occasion to cross such road, in the same manner and under the like penalty as above directed with respect to the gates being kept closed across the road. Provision in cases where roads are crossed on a level.

48. Where the railway crosses any turnpike road on a level adjoining to a station, all trains on the railway shall be made to slacken their speed before arriving at such turnpike road, and shall not cross the same at any greater rate of speed than four miles an hour; and the company shall be subject to all such rules and regulations with regard to such crossings as may from time to time be made by the Board of Trade ⁽³⁾. As to crossing of turnpike roads adjoining stations.

49. Every bridge to be erected for the purpose of carrying the railway over any road shall (except where otherwise provided by the special Act) be built in conformity with the following regulations; (that is to say,) Construction of bridges over roads.

The width of the arch shall be such as to leave thereunder a clear space of not less than thirty-five feet if the arch be over a turnpike road, and of twenty-five feet if over a public carriage road, and of twelve feet if over a private road ⁽⁴⁾:

The clear height of the arch from the surface of the road shall not be less than sixteen feet for a space of twelve feet if the arch be over a turnpike road, and fifteen feet for a space of ten feet if over a public carriage road; and in each of such cases the clear height at the springing of the arch shall not be less than twelve feet:

The clear height of the arch for a space of nine feet shall not be less than fourteen feet over a private carriage road:

The descent made in the road in order to carry the same under the bridge shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the bridge be over a turnpike road, one foot in twenty feet if over a public carriage road, and one foot in sixteen feet if over a private carriage road not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the descent shall not be greater than the prescribed rate of inclination, and if no rate be prescribed the same shall not be greater than as it existed at the passing of the special Act.

50. Every bridge erected for carrying any road over the railway shall (except as otherwise provided by the special Act) be built in conformity with the following regulations; (that is to say,) Construction of bridges over railway.

There shall be a good and sufficient fence on each side of the bridge of not less height than four feet, and on each side of the immediate approaches of such bridge of not less than three feet:

⁽¹⁾ See Newcastle and Leek Turnpike Trustees v. N. Staffordshire Ry., 5 H. & N. 160, 29 L. J. Ex. 239. S. C. nom. Leech v. N. Staffordshire Ry., 1 L. T. N. S. 332; N. Staffordshire Ry. v. Dale, 8 E. & B. 836, 27 L. J. M. C. 147, 4 Jur. N. S. 631; London and N. W. Ry. v. Skerton, 5 B. & S. 559, 33 L. J. M. C. 158, 10 L. T. N. S. 648. As to mandamus to compel repair, see R. v. S. E. Ry., 32 L. T. N. S. 858, 40 J. P. 200.

⁽²⁾ See sections 59 and 60, post.

⁽³⁾ See the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, 26 & 27 Vict. c. 92, s. 5, post.

⁽⁴⁾ See R. v. Rigby, 14 Q. B. 687, 19 L. J. Q. B. 153.

Secs. 50-55.

The road over the bridge shall have a clear space between the fences thereof of thirty-five feet if the road be a turnpike road, and twenty-five feet if a public carriage road, and twelve feet if a private road :

The ascent shall not be more than one foot in thirty feet if the road be a turnpike road, one foot in twenty feet if a public carriage road, and one foot in sixteen feet if a private carriage road, not being a tramroad or railroad, or if the same be a tramroad or railroad the ascent shall not be greater than the prescribed rate of inclination, and if no rate be prescribed the same shall not be greater than as it existed at the passing of the special Act (1).

The width of the bridges need not exceed the width of the road in certain cases.

51. Provided always, that in all cases where the average available width for the passage of carriages of any existing roads within fifty yards of the points of crossing the same is less than the width hereinbefore prescribed for bridges over or under the railway, the width of such bridges need not be greater than such average available width of such roads, but so nevertheless that such bridges be not of less width in the case of a turnpike road or public carriage road than twenty feet : Provided also, that if at any time after the construction of the railway the average available width of any such road shall be increased beyond the width of such bridge on either side thereof, the company shall be bound, at their own expense, to increase the width of the said bridge to such extent as they may be required by the trustees or surveyors of such road, not exceeding the width of such road as so widened, or the maximum width herein or in the special Act prescribed for a bridge in the like case over or under the railway (2).

Existing inclinations of roads crossed or diverted need not be improved.

52. Provided also, that if the mesne inclination of any road within two hundred and fifty yards of the point of crossing the same, or the inclination of such portion of any road as may require to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted, shall be steeper than the inclination hereinbefore required to be preserved by the company, then the company may carry any such road over or under the railway, or may construct such altered or substituted road at an inclination not steeper than the said mesne inclination of the road so to be crossed, or of the road so requiring to be altered, or for which another road shall be substituted.

Before roads interfered with others to be substituted.

53. If, in the exercise of the powers by this or the special Act granted, it be found necessary to cross, cut through, raise, sink, or use any part of any road, whether carriage road, horse road, tramroad, or railway, either public or private, so as to render it impassable for or dangerous or extraordinarily inconvenient to passengers or carriages, or to the persons entitled to the use thereof, the company shall, before the commencement of any such operations, cause a sufficient road to be made instead of the road to be interfered with, and shall at their own expense maintain such substituted road in a state as convenient for passengers and carriages as the road so interfered with, or as nearly so as may be (3).

Penalty for not substituting a road.

54. If the company do not cause another sufficient road to be so made before they interfere with any such existing road as aforesaid, they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every day during which such substituted road shall not be made after the existing road shall have been interrupted ; and such penalty shall be paid to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other person having the management of such road, if a public road, and shall be applied for the purposes thereof, or in case of a private road the same shall be paid to the owner thereof, and every such penalty shall be recoverable with costs by action in any of the superior courts.

Party suffering damage from interruption of road to recover in an action on the case.

55. If any party entitled to a right of way over any road so interfered with by the company shall suffer any special damage by reason that the company shall fail to cause another sufficient road to be made before they interfere with the existing road, it shall be lawful for such party, to recover the amount of such special damage from the company, with costs, by action on the case in any of the superior courts, and that

(1) See R. v. E. and W. India Docks, &c., Ry., 2 E. & B. 466, 22 L. J. Q. B. 380, 17 Jur. 1181.

(2) See R. v. Rigby on preceding page.

(3) See Tanner v. S. Wales Ry., 5 E. & B. 618, 25 L. J. Q. B. 7, 1 Jur. N. S. 1215, and A.-G. v. Ely, &c., Ry. L. R. 4 Ch. 194, 38 L. J. Ch. 259, 20 L. T. N. S. 1.

whether any party shall have sued for such penalty as aforesaid or not, and without prejudice to the right of any party to sue for the same. Secs. 55-60.

56. If the road so interfered with can be restored compatibly with the formation and use of the railway, the same shall be restored to as good a condition as the same was in at the time when the same was first interfered with by the company, or as near thereto as may be; and if such road cannot be restored compatibly with the formation and use of the railway, the company shall cause the new or substituted road, or some other sufficient substituted road, to be put into a permanently substantial condition, equally convenient as the former road, or as near thereto as circumstances will allow, and the former road shall be restored, or the substituted road put into such condition as aforesaid, as the case may be, within the following periods after the first operation on the former road shall have been commenced, unless the trustees or parties having the management of the road to be restored by writing under their hands consent to an extension of the period, and in such case within such extended period; (that is to say,) if the road be a turnpike road, within six months, and if the road be not a turnpike road, within twelve months.

Period for restoration of roads interfered with.

57. If any such road be not so restored, or the substituted road so completed as aforesaid, within the periods herein or in the special Act fixed for that purpose, the company shall forfeit to the trustees, commissioners, surveyor, or other person having the management of the road ⁽¹⁾ interfered with by the company, if a public road, or if a private road to the owner thereof, five pounds for every day after the expiration of such periods respectively during which such road shall not be so restored or the substituted road completed; and it shall be lawful for the justices by whom any such penalty is imposed to order the whole or any part thereof to be laid out in executing the work in respect whereof such penalty was incurred.

Penalty for failing to restore road.

58. If in the course of making the railway the company shall use or interfere with any road they shall from time to time make good all damage done by them to such road; and if any question shall arise as to the damage done to any such road by the company, or as to the repair thereof by them, such question shall be referred to the determination of two justices; and such justices ⁽²⁾ may direct such repairs to be made in the state of such road, in respect of the damage done by the company, and within such period as they think reasonable, and may impose on the company, for not carrying into effect such repairs, any penalty not exceeding five pounds per day as to such justices shall seem just; and such penalty shall be paid to the surveyor or other person having the management of the road interfered with by the company, if a public road, and be applied for the purposes of such road, or if a private road the same shall be paid to the owner thereof: Provided always, that in determining any such question with regard to a turnpike road the said justices shall have regard to and shall make full allowance for any tolls that may have been paid by the company on such road in the course of the using thereof.

Company to repair roads used by them.

59. When the company shall intend to apply for the consent of two justices, as herein-before provided, so as to authorise them to carry the railway across any highway other than a public carriage road on the level, they shall, fourteen days at least previous to the holding of the petty sessions at which such application is intended to be made, cause notice of such intended application to be given in some newspaper circulating in the county, and also to be affixed upon the door of the parish church of the parish in which such crossing is intended to be made, or if there be no such church some other place to which notices are usually affixed; and if it appear to any two or more justices acting for the district in which such highway at the proposed crossing thereof is situate, and assembled in petty sessions, after such notice as aforesaid, that the railway can, consistently with a due regard to the public safety and convenience, be carried across such highway on the level, it shall be lawful for such justices to consent that the same may be so carried accordingly.

Proceedings on application to justices to consent to level crossings of bridleways and footways.

60. If either party shall feel aggrieved by the determination of such justices upon any such application as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such party, in like manner and Appeal against the determination of the justices.

⁽¹⁾ R. v. Wilson, 18 Q. B. 348, 21 L. J. Q. B. 281, 16 Jur. 973.

⁽²⁾ R. v. Rawson and Horton, 15 L. T. N. S. 179.

Secs. 60-65. subject to the like conditions as are herein-after provided in the case of appeals in respect of penalties and forfeitures, to appeal to the quarter sessions of the county or place in which 'the cause of appeal shall have arisen; and it shall be lawful for the justices in such quarter sessions, upon the hearing of such appeal, either to confirm or quash the determination, or to make such other order in regard to the method of carrying the railway across such highway as aforesaid, as to them shall seem fit, and to make such order concerning the costs both of the original application and of the appeal as to them shall seem reasonable.

Company to make sufficient approaches and fences to bridleways and footways crossing on the level.

61. If the railway shall cross any highway other than a public carriageway on the level, the company shall at their own expense make and at all times maintain convenient ascents and descents and other convenient approaches, with handrails or other fences, and shall if such highway be a bridleway, erect and at all times maintain good and sufficient gates, and if the same shall be a footway, good and sufficient gates or stiles, on each side of the railway where the highway shall communicate therewith.

Justices to have power to order approaches and fences to be made to high-ways crossing on the level.

62. If, where the railway shall cross any highway on the level, the company fail to make convenient ascents and descents or other convenient approaches, and such handrails, fence, gates, and stiles as they are herein-before required to make, it shall be lawful for two justices, on the application of the surveyor of roads, or of any two householders within the parish or district where such crossing shall be situate, after not less than ten days notice to the company, to order the company to make such ascent and descent or other approach, or such handrails, fences, gates, or stiles as aforesaid, within a period to be limited for that purpose by such justices; and if the company fail to comply with such order they shall forfeit five pounds for every day that they fail so to do; and it shall be lawful for the justices by whom any such penalty is imposed to order the whole or any part thereof to be applied, in such manner and by such person as they think fit, in executing the work in respect whereof such penalty was incurred.

Screen for roads to be made, if required by the Board of Trade.

63. If the commissioners or trustees of any turnpike road, or the surveyor of any highway, apprehend danger to the passengers on such road in consequence of horses being frightened by the sight of the engines or carriages travelling upon the railway, it shall be lawful for such commissioners, or trustees, or surveyor, after giving fourteen days notice to the company, to apply to the Board of Trade with respect thereto; and if it shall appear to the said Board that such danger might be obviated or lessened by the construction of any works in the nature of a screen near to or adjoining the side of such road, it shall be lawful for them, if they shall think fit, to certify the works necessary or proper to be executed by the company for the purpose of obviating or lessening such danger, and by such certificate to require the company to execute such works within a certain time after the service of such certificate, to be appointed by the said board.

Penalty for failing to construct.

64. Where by any such certificate as aforesaid the company shall have been required to execute any such work in the nature of a screen, they shall execute and complete the same within the period appointed for that purpose in such certificate; and if they fail so to do they shall forfeit to the said commissioners, or trustees, or surveyor, five pounds for every day during which such works shall remain uncompleted beyond the period so appointed for their completion; and it shall be lawful for the justices by whom any such penalty is imposed to order the whole or any part thereof to be laid out in executing the work in respect whereof such penalty was incurred.

Justices to have power to order repair of bridges, &c.

65. Where, under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, the company are required to maintain or keep in repair any bridge, fence, approach, gate, or other work executed by them, it shall be lawful for two justices, on the application of the surveyor of roads or of any two householders of the parish or district where such work may be situate, complaining that any such work is out of repair, after not less than ten days notice to the company, to order the company to put such work into complete repair within a period to be limited for that purpose by such justices; and if the company fail to comply with such order they shall forfeit five pounds for every day that they fail so to do; and it shall be lawful for the justices by whom any such penalty is imposed to order the whole or any part thereof to be applied, in such manner and by such persons as they think fit, in putting such work into repair.

66. And whereas expense might frequently be avoided, and public convenience promoted, by a reference to the Board of Trade upon the construction of public works of an engineering nature connected with the railway, where a strict compliance with the provision of this or the special Act might be impossible, or attended with inconvenience to the company, and without adequate advantage to the public; Be it enacted, That in case any difference in regard to the construction, alteration, or restoration of any road or bridge, or other public work of an engineering nature required by the provisions of this or the special Act, shall arise between the company and any trustees, commissioners, surveyors, or other persons having the control of or being authorised by law to enforce the construction of such road, bridge, or work, it shall be lawful for either party, after giving fourteen days notice in writing of their intention so to do to the other party, to apply to the Board of Trade to decide upon the proper manner of constructing, altering, or restoring such road, bridge, or other work; and it shall be lawful for the Board of Trade, if they shall think fit, to decide the same accordingly, and to authorise, by certificate in writing, any arrangement or mode of construction in regard to any such road, bridge, or other work which shall appear, to them either to be in substantial compliance with the provisions of this and the special Act, or to be calculated to afford equal or greater accommodation to the public using such road, bridge or other work; and after any such certificate shall have been given by the Board of Trade, the road, bridge, or other work therein mentioned shall be constructed by the company in conformity with the terms of such certificate, and being so constructed shall be deemed to be constructed in conformity with the provisions of this and the special Act: Provided always, that no such certificate shall be granted by the Board of Trade unless they shall be satisfied that existing private rights or interests will not be injuriously affected thereby.

Secs. 66-68.
Board of Trade empowered to modify the construction of certain roads, bridges, &c. where a strict compliance with the Act is impossible or inconvenient.

67. And be it enacted, that all regulations, certificates, notices, and other documents in writing purporting to be made or issued by or by the authority of the Board of Trade, and signed by some officer appointed for that purpose by the Board of Trade, shall for the purposes of this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, be deemed to have been so made and issued, and that without proof of the authority of the person signing the same, or of the signature thereto, which matters shall be presumed until the contrary be proved; and service of any such document, by leaving the same at one of the principal offices of the railway company, or by sending the same by post addressed to the secretary at such office, shall be deemed good service upon the company; and all notices and other documents required by this or the special Act to be given to or laid before the Board of Trade shall be delivered at, or sent by post addressed to, the office of the Board of Trade in London⁽¹⁾.

Authentication of certificates of the Board of Trade, service of notices, &c.

And with respect to works for the accommodation of lands adjoining the railway, be it enacted as follows:

68. The company shall make and at all times thereafter maintain the following works for the accommodation of the owners and occupiers of lands adjoining the railway; (that is to say,)

Such and so many convenient gates, bridges, arches, culverts, and passages over, under, or by the sides of or leading to or from the railway as shall be necessary for the purpose of making good any interruptions caused by the railway to the use of the lands through which the railway shall be made; and such works shall be made forthwith after the part of the railway passing over such lands shall have been laid out or formed, or during the formation thereof:

Gates, bridges, &c:

Also sufficient posts, rails, hedges, ditches, mounds, or other fences for separating the land taken for the use of the railway from the adjoining lands not taken, and protecting such lands from trespass, or the cattle of the owners or occupiers thereof from straying thereout, by reason of the railway, together with all necessary gates made to open towards such adjoining lands, and not towards the railway, and all necessary stiles; and such posts, rails, and other fences shall be made forthwith after the taking of any such lands, if the owners thereof shall so require, and the said other works as soon as conveniently may be:

Fences:

(1) See now 31 & 32 Vict. c. 37, s. 2, and 45 & 46 Vict. c. 9, s. 2.

Secs. 68—
141.

Drains :

Watering places.

Also all necessary arches, tunnels, culverts, drains, or other passages, either over or under or by the sides of the railway, of such dimensions as will be sufficient at all times to convey the water as clearly from the lands lying near or affected by the railway as before the making of the railway, or as nearly so as may be; and such works shall be made from time to time as the railway works proceed :

Also proper watering places for cattle where by reason of the railway the cattle of any person occupying any lands lying near thereto shall be deprived of access to their former watering places; and such watering places shall be so made as to be at all times as sufficiently supplied with water as theretofore, and as if the railway had not been made, or as nearly so as may be; and the company shall make all necessary water-courses and drains for the purpose of conveying water to the said watering places :

Provided always, that the company shall not be required to make such accommodation works in such a manner as would prevent or obstruct the working or using of the railway, nor to make any accommodation works with respect to which the owners and occupiers of the lands shall have agreed to receive and shall have been paid compensation instead of the making them.

Differences as to accommodation works to be settled by justices.

69. If any difference arise respecting the kind or number of any such accommodation works, or the dimensions or sufficiency thereof, or respecting the maintaining thereof, the same shall be determined by two justices; and such justices shall also appoint the time within which such works shall be commenced and executed by the company.

Railway to be free on payment of tolls.

92. It shall not be lawful for the company at any time to demand or take a greater amount of toll, or make any greater charge for the carriage of passengers or goods, than they are by this and the special Act authorised to demand; and upon payment of the tolls from time to time demandable all companies and persons shall be entitled to use the railway, with engines and carriages properly constructed as by this and the special Act directed, subject nevertheless to the provisions and restrictions of the said Act of the sixth year of Her [present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of Railways, and for the Conveyance of Troops," and to the regulations to be from time to time made by the company by virtue of the powers in that behalf hereby and by the special Act conferred upon them (1).

5 & 6 Vict.
c. 55.

And with respect to the engines and carriages to be brought on the railway, be it enacted as follows :

Engines to consume their smoke.

114. Every locomotive steam engine to be used on the railway shall, if it use coal or other similar fuel emitting smoke, be constructed on the principle of consuming and so as to consume its own smoke; and if any engine be not so constructed the company or party using such engine shall forfeit five pounds for every day during which such engine shall be used on the railway.

And with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices, be it enacted as follows :

Provision for damages not otherwise provided for.

140. In all cases where any damages, costs, or expenses are by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, directed to be paid, and the method of ascertaining the amount or enforcing the payment thereof is not provided for, such amount, in case of dispute, shall be ascertained and determined by two justices; and if the amount so ascertained be not paid by the company or other party liable to pay the same within seven days after demand, the amount may be recovered by distress of the goods of the company or other party liable as aforesaid; and the justices by whom the same shall have been ordered to be paid, or either of them, or any other justice, on application, shall issue their or his warrant accordingly.

Distress
against the treasurer.

141. If sufficient goods of the company cannot be found whereon to levy any such damages, costs, and expenses payable by the company, the same may, if the amount thereof do not exceed twenty pounds, be recovered by distress of the goods of the treasurer of the company; and the justices aforesaid, or either of them, on application, shall issue their or his warrant accordingly; but no such distress shall issue against the goods of such treasurer unless seven days previous notice in writing, stating the amount so due, and demanding payment thereof, have been given to such treasurer, or left at his residence; and if such treasurer pay any money under such distress as aforesaid he may retain the amount so paid by him, and all costs and expenses occasioned thereby, out of any money belonging to the company coming into his custody or control, or he may sue the company for the same.

(1) See R. v. Severn Ry., 2 B. & Ald. 646.

Secs. 141—
147.

142. Where in this or the special Act any question of compensation, expenses, charges, or damages, or other matter, is referred to the determination of any one justice or more, it shall be lawful for any justice, upon the application of either party, to summon the other party to appear before one justice, or before two justices, as the case may require, at a time and place to be named in such summons; and upon the appearance of such parties, or in the absence of any of them, upon proof of due service of the summons, it shall be lawful for such one justice, or such two justices, as the case may be, to hear and determine such question, and for that purpose to examine such parties, or any of them, and their witnesses, on oath; and the cost of every such inquiry shall be in the discretion of such justices, and they shall determine the amount thereof.

Method of proceeding before justices in questions of damages, &c.

143. The company shall publish the short particulars of the several offences for which any penalty is imposed by this or the special Act, or by any bye-law of the company affecting other persons than the shareholders, officers, or servants of the company, and of the amount of every such penalty, and shall cause such particulars to be painted on a board, or printed upon paper and pasted thereon, and shall cause such board to be hung up or affixed on some conspicuous part of the principal place of business of the company, and where any such penalties are of local application shall cause such boards to be affixed in some conspicuous place in the immediate neighbourhood to which such penalties are applicable or have reference; and such particulars shall be renewed as often as the same or any part thereof is obliterated or destroyed; and no such penalty shall be recoverable unless it shall have been published and kept published in the manner hereinbefore required.

Publication of penalties.

144. If any person pull down or injure any board put up or affixed as required by this or the special Act for the purpose of publishing any bye-law or penalty, or shall obliterate any of the letters or figures thereon, he shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds, and shall defray the expenses attending the restoration of such board.

Penalty for defacing boards used for such publication.

145. Every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this or the special Act, or by any bye-law made in pursuance thereof, the recovery of which is not otherwise provided for, may be recovered by summary proceeding before two justices; and on complaint being made to any justice he shall issue a summons, requiring the party complained against to appear before two justices at a time and place to be named in such summons, and every such summons shall be served on the party offending either in person or by leaving the same with some inmate at his usual place of abode; and upon the appearance of the party complained against, or in his absence, after proof of the due service of such summons, it shall be lawful for any two justices to proceed to the hearing of the complaint, and that although no information in writing or in print shall have been exhibited before them; and upon proof of the offence, either by the confession of the party complained against, or upon the oath of one credible witness or more, it shall be lawful for such justices to convict the offender, and upon such conviction to adjudge the offender to pay the penalty or forfeiture incurred, as well as such costs attending the conviction as such justices shall think fit.

Penalties to be summarily recovered before two justices.

146. If forthwith upon any such adjudication as aforesaid the amount of the penalty or forfeiture, and of such costs as aforesaid, be not paid, the amount of such penalty and costs shall be levied by distress, and such justices, or either of them, shall issue their or his warrant of distress accordingly.

Penalties to be levied by distress.

147. It shall be lawful for any such justice to order any offender so convicted as aforesaid, to be detained and kept in safe custody until return can be conveniently made to the warrant of distress to be issued for levying such penalty or forfeiture and costs, unless the offender give sufficient security, by way of recognizance or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the justice, for his appearance before him on the day appointed for such return, such day not being more than eight days from the time of taking such security;

Imprisonment in default of distress.

Secs. 147—154.

but if before issuing such warrant of distress it shall appear to the justice, by the admission of the offender or otherwise, that no sufficient distress can be had within the jurisdiction of such justice whereon to levy such penalty, or forfeiture and costs, he may, if he thinks fit, refrain from issuing such warrant of distress; and in such case, or if such warrant shall have been issued, and upon the return thereof such insufficiency as aforesaid shall be made to appear to the justice, then such justice shall by warrant cause such offender to be committed to gaol, there to remain without bail for any term not exceeding three months, unless such penalty, or forfeiture and costs be sooner paid and satisfied.

Distress how to be levied.

148. Where in this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, any sum of money, whether in the nature of penalty or otherwise, is directed to be levied by distress, such sum of money shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party liable to pay the same; and the overplus arising from the sale of such goods and chattels, after satisfying such sum of money, and the expenses of the distress and sale, shall be returned, on demand, to the party whose goods shall have been distrained.

Distress not unlawful for want of form.

149. No distress levied by virtue of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceeding relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him, but all persons aggrieved by such defect or irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action upon the case.

Application of penalties.

150. The justices by whom any such penalty or forfeiture shall be imposed may, where the application thereof is not otherwise provided for, award not more than one half thereof to the informer, and shall award the remainder to the overseers of the poor of the parish in which the offence shall have been committed, to be applied in aid of the poor's rate of such parish [or if the place wherein the offence shall have been committed shall be extra-parochial, then such justices shall direct such remainder to be applied in aid of the poor's rate of such extra-parochial place, or, if there shall not be any poor's rate therein, in aid of the poor's rate of any adjoining parish or district] ⁽¹⁾.

Penalties to be sued for within six months.

151. No person shall be liable to the payment of any penalty or forfeiture imposed by virtue of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, for any offence made cognizable before a justice, unless the complaint respecting such offence shall have been made before such justice within six months next after the commission of such offence.

Damage to be made good in addition to penalty.

152. If, through any act, neglect, or default on account whereof any person shall have incurred any penalty imposed by this or the special Act, any damage to the property of the company shall have been committed by such person, he shall be liable to make good such damage as well as to pay such penalty; and the amount of such damages shall, in case of dispute, be determined by the justices by whom the party incurring such penalty shall have been convicted; and on non-payment of such damages, on demand, the same shall be levied by distress, and such justices, or one of them, shall issue their or his warrant accordingly.

Penalty on witnesses making default.

153. It shall be lawful for any justice to summon any person to appear before him as a witness in any matter in which such justice shall have jurisdiction under the provisions of this or the special Act at a time and place mentioned in such summons, and to administer to him an oath to testify the truth in such matter; and if any person so summoned shall, without reasonable excuse, refuse or neglect to appear at the time and place appointed for that purpose, having been paid or tendered a reasonable sum for his expenses, or if any person appearing shall refuse to be examined upon oath, or to give evidence before such justice, every such person shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds for every such offence.

Transient
offenders.

154. It shall be lawful for any officer or agent of the company, and all persons called by him to his assistance, to seize and detain any person who shall have committed any offence against the provisions of this or the special Act, and whose name and residence shall be unknown to such officer or agent, and convey him, with all convenient despatch,

(1) The part within brackets is repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

before some justice, without any warrant or other authority than this or the special Act; Secs. 154— and such justice shall proceed with all convenient despatch to the hearing and deter- 161.
mining of the complaint against such offender.

155. The justices before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, may cause the conviction to be drawn up according to the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed. Form of conviction.

156. No proceeding in pursuance of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall be quashed or vacated for want of form, nor shall the same be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of the superior courts. Proceedings not to be quashed for want of form, &c.

157. If any party shall feel aggrieved by any determination or adjudication of any justice with respect to any penalty or forfeiture under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, such party may appeal to the general quarter sessions for the county or place in which the cause of appeal shall have arisen; but no such appeal shall be entertained unless it be made within four months next after the making of such determination or adjudication, nor unless ten days notice in writing of such appeal, stating the nature and grounds thereof, be given to the party against whom the appeal shall be brought, nor unless the appellant forthwith after such notice enter into recognizances, with two sufficient sureties, before a justice, conditioned duly to prosecute such appeal, and to abide the order of the court thereon. Parties allowed to appeal to quarter sessions on giving security.

158. At the quarter sessions, for which such notice shall be given, the court shall proceed to hear and determine the appeal in a summary way, or they may, if they think fit, adjourn it to the following sessions; and upon the hearing of such appeal the court may, if they think fit, mitigate any penalty or forfeiture, or they may confirm or quash the adjudication, and order any money paid by the appellant or levied by distress upon his goods to be returned to him, and may also order such further satisfaction to be made to the party injured as they may judge reasonable; and they may make such order concerning the costs, both of the adjudication and of the appeal, as they may think reasonable. Court to make such order as they think reasonable.

159. Provided always, and be it enacted, that notwithstanding anything herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, contained, every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by any bye-law in pursuance thereof, in respect of any offence which shall take place within the metropolitan police district, shall be recovered enforced, accounted for, and, except where the application thereof is otherwise specially provided for, shall be paid to the receiver of the metropolitan police district, and shall be applied in the same manner as penalties or forfeitures, other than fines upon drunken persons, or upon constables for misconduct, or for assaults upon police constables, are directed to be recovered, enforced, accounted for, paid, and applied by an Act passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts in the Metropolis;" and every order or conviction of any of the police magistrates in respect of any such forfeiture or penalty shall be subject to the like appeal, and upon the same terms, as is provided in respect of any order or conviction of any of the said police magistrates by the said last-mentioned Act; and every magistrate by whom any order or conviction shall have been made shall have the same power of binding over the witnesses who shall have been examined, and such witnesses shall be entitled to the same allowance of expenses as he or they would have had or been entitled to in case the order, conviction, and appeal had been made in pursuance of the provisions of the said last-mentioned Act. Receiver of metropolitan police district to receive penalties incurred within his district.

160. And be it enacted, that every person who, upon any examination upon oath, under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury. Persons giving false evidence liable to penalties of perjury.

161. [Money paid into the Bank of Ireland to be exempt from ushers poundage, 1 & 2 Viet. c. 117.]

2 & 3 Vict.
c. 71.

RAILWAYS CLAUSES ACT, 1863.

26 & 27 VICT. c. 92.

An Act for consolidating in one Act certain provisions frequently inserted in Acts relating to Railways.
[28th July, 1863.]

Level Crossings.

Secs. 5—8.

Trains not to be shunted over level crossings.

Company to erect lodge at point of crossing.

Board of Trade may require bridge instead of level crossing.

Power to company to take additional land for such work.

5. Where the company is authorised by the special Act to carry the railway across a turnpike road or public carriage road on a level, it shall not be lawful for the company in shunting trains to pass any train over the level crossing, or at any time to allow any train, engine, carriage, or truck to stand across the same.

6. For the greater convenience and security of the public, the company shall erect and permanently maintain a lodge at the point where the railway crosses on the level the turnpike road or public carriage road; and the company shall be subject to and shall abide by all such regulations with regard to the crossing thereof on the level, or with regard to the speed at which trains may pass the level crossing, as may from time to time be made by the Board of Trade.

If the company fails to erect, or to maintain, such lodge, or to appoint or keep a proper person to watch or superintend the level crossing, or to observe or abide by any such regulation as aforesaid, they shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and also to a penalty of ten pounds for every day during which the offence continues after the penalty of twenty pounds is incurred (1).

7. The Board of Trade may, if it appears to them necessary for the public safety, at any time after the passing of the special Act, require the company, within such time as the Board of Trade directs, and at the expense of the company, to carry the turnpike road or public carriage road either under or over the railway by means of a bridge or arch, instead of crossing the same on the level, or to execute such other works as, under the circumstances of the case, may appear to the Board of Trade best adapted for removing or diminishing the danger arising from the level crossing.

Where the road is so carried either under or over the railway, it shall not be necessary for the company to erect or maintain a lodge at the point where the road is crossed, or to appoint a person to watch or superintend the crossing thereat, nor shall they be liable to any penalty for failure so to do.

8. If the Board of Trade certifies that the public safety requires that additional lands be taken by the company for the purpose of the work directed by the Board of Trade to be executed, the company may, subject to the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, as the case may require, enter upon, take, and use, all or any part of the lands specified in the certificate of the Board of Trade as being necessary for the purpose of the work; and the Board of Trade before issuing the certificate shall cause at least three months notice to be given to any person who may be entitled to claim under the last-mentioned Acts, or otherwise, compensation in respect of the taking of such lands or in respect of such work.

(1) See the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ss. 61, 62, ante, p. 1090.

16. Where the railway cuts off access between the land and a tidal water or tidal lands, then and in every such case the company shall, during the construction of the railway, and from time to time thereafter, make, and shall permanently maintain, and allow to be used by all persons, at all times free of toll or other charge, all such footways and carriageways over, under, or across the railway, or on a level therewith, as the Board of Trade from time to time directs or approves : Provided always, as follows :

Section 16.

Access to the shore under or across the railway.

- (1.) The company shall not be obliged to make a footway or carriageway over lands for the use of an owner or occupier who has agreed to receive and has been paid compensation for the severance thereof from the tidal water or tidal lands :
- (2.) The company shall not be obliged to make or to allow to be made a footway or carriageway in such manner as would interfere with the working or using of the railway :
- (3.) The expense of the making and maintenance of a footway or carriageway required to be made after the construction of the railway shall be defrayed by the persons or body interested in the tidal water or tidal lands for whose benefit or convenience the same is required.

Where the footway or carriageway is made across the railway on the level, then the manner of the making and watching of the level crossing shall be subject to the approval of the Board of Trade ; and where the level crossing is made after the construction of the railway, then all expenses attending the watching thereof shall be defrayed by the persons or body interested in the tidal water or tidal lands for whose benefit or convenience the same is required.

TRAMWAYS ACT, 1870.

33 & 34 VICT. c. 78.

An Act to facilitate the construction and to regulate the working of Tramways.

[9th August, 1870.]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

Secs. 1—4.

Short title.
Limitation of Act.
Interpretation
of terms.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Tramways Act, 1870."
2. This Act shall not extend to Ireland.
3. For the purposes of this Act the terms hereinafter mentioned shall have the meanings hereinafter assigned to them; that is to say,
The terms "local authority" and "local rate" shall mean respectively the bodies of persons and rate named in the table in Part I. of the schedule (A.) to this Act annexed:
The term "road" shall mean any carriageway being a public highway, and the carriageway of any bridge forming part of or leading to the same:
The term "road authority" shall mean, in the districts specified in the table in Part II. of the schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, the bodies of persons named in the same table, and elsewhere any local authority, board, town council, body corporate, commissioners, trustees, vestry, or other body or persons in whom a road as defined by this Act is vested, or who have the power to maintain or repair such road:
The term "district," in relation to a local authority or road authority, shall mean the area within the jurisdiction of such local authority or road authority:
The term "prescribed" shall mean prescribed by any rules made in pursuance of this Act:
The term "the Lands Clauses Acts" means, so far as the Provisional Order in which that term is used relates to England, The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; and, so far as the same relates to Scotland, The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845; together with, in each case, The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860:
The term "two justices" shall, in addition to its ordinary signification, mean one stipendiary or police magistrate acting in any police court for the district.

PART I.

Provisional Orders authorising the Construction of Tramways.

By whom Provisional
Orders authc-

4. Provisional Orders authorising the construction of tramways (1) in any district may be obtained by—

(1) Section 2 of the Railway Company Securities Act, 1866, makes the term "railway" include a tramway which is authorised by Act of Parliament, which Act incorporates the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, but no other tramway; see also the Railway (Extension of Time) Act, 1868, s. 2, and the interpretation clause in the Regulation of

(1.) The local authority of such district: or by—

(2.) Any person, persons, corporation, or company, with the consent of the local authority of such district; or of the road authority of such district where such district is or forms part of a highway district formed under the provisions of "The Highway Acts:"

Secs. 4—8.

rising the construction of tramways may be obtained.

And any such local authority, person, persons, corporation, or company shall be deemed to be promoters of a tramway, and are in this Act referred to as "the promoters."

Application for a Provisional Order shall not be made by any local authority until such application shall be approved in the manner prescribed in Part III. of the schedule A. to this Act annexed.

Where in any district there is a road authority distinct from the local authority, the consent of such road authority shall also be necessary in any case where power is sought to break up any road subject to the jurisdiction of such road authority, before any Provisional Order can be obtained.

5. Where it is proposed to lay down a tramway in two or more districts, and any local or road authority having jurisdiction in any of such districts does not consent thereto, the Board of Trade may, nevertheless, make a Provisional Order authorising the construction of such tramway if they are satisfied, after inquiry, that two-thirds of the length of such tramway is proposed to be laid in a district or in districts the local and road authority or the local and road authorities of which district or districts do consent thereto; and in such case they shall make a special report stating the grounds upon which they have made such order.

The Board of Trade may in certain cases dispense with consent of local or road authority.

6. The promoters intending to make an application for a Provisional Order shall proceed as follows:—

Notices and deposit of documents by promoters as in schedule.

(1.) In the months of October and November next before their application, or in one of those months, they shall publish notice of their intention to make such application by advertisement; and they shall, on or before the fifteenth day of the following month of December, serve notice of such intention, in accordance with the standing orders (if any) of both Houses of Parliament for the time being in force with respect to bills for the construction of tramways:

(2.) On or before the thirtieth day of the same month of November they shall deposit the documents described in Part II. of the same schedule, according to the regulations therein contained:

(3.) On or before the twenty-third day of December in the same year they shall deposit the documents described in Part III. of the same schedule, according to the regulations therein contained:

All maps, plans, and documents required by this Act to be deposited for the purposes of any Provisional Order may be deposited with the persons and in the manner directed by the Act of the session of Parliament held in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth and the first year of her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to compel clerks of the peace for counties and other persons to take the custody of such documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them under the standing orders of either House of Parliament;" and all the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly.

7. The Board of Trade shall consider the application, and may, if they think fit, direct an inquiry in the district to which the same relates, or may otherwise inquire as to the propriety of proceeding upon such application, and they shall consider any objection thereto that may be lodged with them on or before such day as they from time to time appoint, and shall determine whether or not the promoters may proceed with the application.

Power for Board of Trade to determine on application and on objection.

8. Where it appears to the Board of Trade expedient and proper that the application should be granted, with or without addition or modification, or subject or not to any restriction or condition, the Board of Trade may settle and make a Provisional Order accordingly.

Power for Board of Trade to make Provisional Order.

Railways Acts, 1868 and 1871. But an unregistered tramways company is not a railway company within section 199 of the Companies Act, 1862: Re Brentford and Isleworth Tramways Co., 50 L. T. N. S. 580.

Secs. 8—14.

Form and contents of Provisional Order.

Regulations as to construction of tramways in towns.

Nature of traffic on tramway and tolls to be specified in Provisional Order.

Costs of order.

Promoters to deposit 4l. per cent. on estimate in prescribed bank.

Publication of Provisional Order as in schedule.

Confirmation of Provisional Order by Act of Parliament.

Every such Provisional Order shall empower the promoters therein specified to make the tramway upon the gauge and in manner therein described, and shall contain such provisions as (subject to the requirements of this Act) the Board of Trade, according to the nature of the application and the facts and circumstances of each case, think fit to submit to Parliament for confirmation in manner provided by this Act; but so that any such Provisional Order shall not contain any provision for empowering the promoters or any other person to acquire lands otherwise than by agreement, or to acquire any lands, even by agreement, except to an extent therein limited, or to construct a tramway elsewhere than along or across a road, or upon land taken by agreement.

9. Every tramway in a town⁽¹⁾ which is hereafter authorised by Provisional Order shall be constructed and maintained as nearly as may be in the middle of the road; and no tramway shall be authorised by any Provisional Order to be so laid that for a distance of thirty feet or upwards a less⁽²⁾ space than nine feet and six inches shall intervene between the outside of the footpath on either side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway if one-third of the owners or one-third of the occupiers of the houses, shops, or warehouses abutting⁽³⁾ upon the part of the road where such less space shall intervene as aforesaid shall in the prescribed manner and at the prescribed time express their dissent from any tramway being so laid.

10. Every such Provisional Order shall specify the nature of the traffic for which such tramway is to be used, and the tolls and charges which may be demanded and taken by the promoters in respect of the same, and shall contain such regulations relating to such traffic and such tolls and charges as the Board of Trade shall deem necessary and proper.

11. The costs of and connected with the preparation and making of each Provisional Order shall be paid by the promoters, and the Board of Trade may require the promoters to give security for such costs before they proceed with the Provisional Order⁽⁴⁾.

12. After a Provisional Order is ready, and before the same is delivered by the Board of Trade, the promoters, unless they are a local authority, shall within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, and subject to the prescribed conditions as to interest, repayment, or forfeiture, pay, as a deposit, into the prescribed bank, the sum of money prescribed, which shall not be less than four pounds per centum on the amount of the estimate by the promoters of the expense of the construction of the tramway, or deposit in such bank any security of the prescribed nature the then value of which is not less than such sum of money⁽⁵⁾.

13. When a Provisional Order has been made as aforesaid and delivered to the promoters, the promoters shall forthwith publish the same by deposit and advertisement, according to the regulations contained in Part IV. of the schedule (B.) to this Act.

14. On proof to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade of the completion of such publication as aforesaid, the Board of Trade shall, as soon as they conveniently can after the expiration of seven days from the completion of such publication, procure a bill to be introduced into either House of Parliament in relation to any Provisional Order which shall have been published as aforesaid not later than the twenty-fifth of April in any year, for an Act to confirm the Provisional Order, which shall be set out at length in the

(1) As to the meaning of the word "town," see London & South Western Ry. Co. v. Blackmore, L. R. 4 H. L. 610, 39 L. J. Ch. 713, 23 L. T. N. S. 504, 19 W. R. 305; R. v. Cottle, 16 Q. B. 412; Lord Carington v. Wycombe Ry. Co., L. R. 3 Ch. 377, 37 L. J. Ch. 213, 18 L. T. N. S. 96, 16 W. R. 494; Commissioners of Milton v. Faversham District Highway Board, 10 B. & S. 548.

(2) See Edinburgh Street Tramways Co. v. Black, L. R. 2 Sc. App. 336.

(3) For meaning of the word "abutting," see Great Eastern Ry. Co. v. Hackney Board of Works, 8 App. Cas. 687, 52 L. J. M. C. 105, 49 L. T. N. S. 509, 31 W. R. 769; reversing Hackney Board of Works v. Great Eastern Ry. Co., 9 Q. B. D. 412, 51 L. J. M. C. 57, 46 L. T. N. S. 679, 30 W. R. 765.

(4) These costs are to be taxed on the Chancery and not on the Parliamentary scale: In re Morley, L. R. 20 Eq. 17, 32 L. T. N. S. 524, 23 W. R. 532.

(5) As to the application of this deposit, see In re Bradford Tramways Co., 4 Ch. D. 18, 46 L. J. Ch. 89, 25 W. R. 88; In re Lowestoft, Yarmouth, and Southwold Tramways Co., 6 Ch. D. 484, 46 L. J. Ch. 393, 36 L. T. N. S. 578, 25 W. R. 525; In re Tynemouth Borough Tramways Co., 33 L. T. N. S. 8; In re London and County Tramways Co., W. N. (1875), p. 49.

schedule to the bill; and until confirmation, with or without amendment, by Act of Secs. 14-19. Parliament, a Provisional Order under this Act shall not have any operation.

If while any such bill is pending in either House of Parliament a petition is presented against any Provisional Order comprised therein, the bill, so far as it relates to the order petitioned against may be referred to a select committee, and the petitioner shall be allowed to appear and oppose as in the case of a bill for a special Act.

The Act of Parliament confirming a Provisional Order under this Act shall be deemed a public general Act.

15. The provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts shall be incorporated with every Provisional Order under this Act, save where the same are expressly varied or excepted by any such Provisional Order, and except as to the following provisions, namely,— Incorporation of general acts in Provisional Order.

(1) With respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement:

(2) With respect to the entry upon lands by the promoters of the undertaking.

For the purposes of such incorporation a Provisional Order under this Act shall be deemed the special Act.

16. The Board of Trade on the application of any promoters empowered by a Provisional Order may from time to time revoke, amend, extend, or vary such Provisional Order by a further Provisional Order.

Power of Board of Trade to revoke, amend, extend, or vary Provisional Order.

Every application for such further Provisional Order shall be made in like manner and subject to the like conditions as the application for the former Provisional Order.

Every such further Provisional Order shall be made and confirmed in like manner in every respect as the former Provisional Order, and until such confirmation such further Provisional Order shall not have any operation.

17. Subject and according to the provisions of this Act, the Board of Trade may, on a joint application, or on two or more separate applications, settle and make a Provisional Order empowering two or more local authorities, respectively, jointly to construct the whole, or separately to construct parts, of a tramway, and jointly or separately to own the whole or parts thereof; and all the provisions of this Act which relate to the construction of tramways shall extend and apply to the construction of the whole and the separate parts of such tramway as last aforesaid; and the form of the Provisional Order may be adapted to the circumstances of the case.

Power to authorise joint work.

18. If the promoters, empowered by any Provisional Order under this Act to make a tramway, do not, within two years from the date of the same, or within any shorter period prescribed therein, complete the tramway and open it for public traffic; or,

Cesser of powers at expiration of prescribed time.

If within one year from the date of the Provisional Order, or within such shorter time as is prescribed in the same, the works are not substantially commenced; or,

If the works having been commenced are suspended without a reason sufficient in the opinion of the Board of Trade to warrant such suspension;

the powers given by the Provisional Order to the promoters for constructing such tramway, executing such works, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall cease to be exercised, except as to so much of the same as is then completed, unless the time be prolonged by the special direction of the Board of Trade; and as to so much of the same as is then completed the Board of Trade may allow the said powers to continue and to be exercised if they shall think fit, but failing such permission the same shall cease to be exercised, and where such permission is withheld then so much of the said tramway as is then completed shall be deemed to be a tramway to which all the provisions of this Act relating to the discontinuance of tramways after proof of such discontinuance shall apply, and may be dealt with accordingly.

A notice purporting to be published by the Board of Trade in the London or Edinburgh Gazette, accordingly as the district to which it relates is situate in England or Scotland, to the effect that a tramway has not been completed and opened for public traffic, or that the works have not been substantially commenced, or that they have been suspended without sufficient reason, shall be conclusive evidence for the purposes of this section of such non-completion, non-commencement, or suspension.

19. When a tramway has been completed under the authority of a Provisional Order by any local authority, or where any local authority has under the provisions of this Act acquired possession of any tramway, such authority may, with the consent of the Board of Trade, and subject to the provisions of this Act, by lease, to be approved of by the Local authority may lease or take tolls.

Secs. 19, 20. Board of Trade, demise to any person, persons, corporation, or company the right of user by such person, persons, corporation, or company of the tramway, and of demanding and taking in respect of the same the tolls and charges authorised; or such authority may leave such tramway open to be used by the public, and may in respect of such user demand and take the tolls and charges authorised; but nothing in this Act contained shall authorise any local authority to place or run carriages upon such tramway, and to demand and take tolls and charges in respect of the use of such carriages.

Notice of the intention to make such lease shall be published by the local authority by advertisement, and a copy of such lease shall be deposited according to the regulations contained in Part I. of the schedule (C.) to this Act annexed; and unless such notice is given, and such copy deposited, such lease shall not be approved of by the Board of Trade.

Every such lease shall be made for a term or for terms not exceeding in the whole twenty-one years.

On the determination of any lease made under this Act, the local authority may from time to time, with the consent of the Board of Trade, by lease demise such rights for such further term or terms, not exceeding in any case twenty-one years, as the said Board may approve.

Every such lease shall imply a condition of re-entry if at any time after the making of the same the lessees discontinue the working of the tramway leased, or of any part thereof, for the space of three calendar months (such discontinuance not being occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of such lessees, for which purpose the want of sufficient funds shall not be considered a circumstance beyond their control).

The person, persons, corporation, or company to whom any such lease may be made are in this Act referred to as "lessees."

How expenses to be defrayed. 20. Where the local authority in any district are the promoters of any tramway, they shall pay all expenses incurred by them in applying for and obtaining a Provisional Order, and carrying into effect the purposes of such Provisional Order, out of the local rate, and any such expenses shall be deemed to be purposes for which such local rate may be made, and to which the same may be applied.

Where the local rate is limited by law to a certain amount, and is by reason of such limitation insufficient for the payment of such expenses, the Board of Trade may, by the Provisional Order, extend the limit of such local rate to such amount as they shall think fit, and prescribed for the payment of such expenses.

Such local authority may, for the purposes of such Provisional Order, borrow and take up at interest, on the credit of such local rate, any sums of money necessary for defraying any such expenses; and for the purpose of securing the repayment of any sums so borrowed, together with such interest as aforesaid, such local authority may mortgage to the persons by or on behalf of whom such sums are advanced such local rate; but the exercise of the above mentioned power shall be subject to the following regulations:

- (1.) The money so borrowed shall not exceed such sum as may be sanctioned by the Board of Trade:
- (2.) The money may be borrowed for such time, not exceeding thirty years, as such local authority, with the sanction of the Board of Trade, shall determine; and, subject as aforesaid to the repayment within thirty years, such local authority may either pay off the moneys so borrowed by equal annual instalments, or they may in every year set apart as a sinking fund, and accumulate in the way of compound interest by investing the same in the purchase of exchequer bills or other government securities, such sum as will be sufficient to pay off the moneys so borrowed, or a part thereof, at such times as the local authority may determine.

The provisions of "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the commissioners ⁽¹⁾, shall apply to any mortgage executed under the foregoing provisions of this section, and for the purposes of such application the said provisions shall be incorporated with this Act.

(1) These provisions are contained in sections 75—88 of the Act, 10 & 11 Vict., c. 16.

For the purposes of such incorporation, the terms "the special Act," and "the commissioners," shall be construed to mean respectively a Provisional Order under this Act, and the local authority. Secs. 20-26.

Such local authority shall keep separate accounts of all moneys paid by them in applying for, obtaining, and carrying into effect any such Provisional Order, and in the repayment of moneys borrowed, and of all moneys received by them by way of rent or tolls in respect of the tramway authorised thereby.

When, after payment of all charges incurred under the authority of this Act, and necessary for giving effect to such Provisional Order there shall be remaining in the hands of such local authority any of the moneys received by them by way of rent or tolls in respect of the tramway authorised by such Provisional Order, such moneys shall be applied by them to the purposes for which the local rate may be by them applied.

21. The Metropolitan Board of Works may, in order to raise money for the purpose of carrying into effect the purposes of any Provisional Order obtained by them, create additional stock, not exceeding in the whole three hundred thousand pounds, under "The Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Act, 1869," in like manner, and with the like sanction, in and with which they may create stock in order to raise money for the purposes of the Acts mentioned in the first schedule to that Act; and all the provisions of that Act shall apply as if that money were raised and that stock were created for the purposes of the last-mentioned Acts, with the exception that the money required for the purposes of any such Provisional Order may be borrowed by them in addition to the sum limited by section thirty-eight of "The Metropolitan Board of Works (Loans) Act, 1869."

Metropolitan Board may, for carrying Provisional Order into effect, create stock under Loans Act of 1869.

PART II.

Construction of Tramways.

22. Part II. and Part III. of this Act shall apply to every tramway which is hereafter authorised by any Provisional Order or Act of Parliament, and shall be incorporated with such Provisional Order or Act, and all the said provisions of this Act, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted by any such Provisional Order or Act, shall apply to the undertaking authorised thereby, so far as the same shall be applicable to such undertaking, and shall, with the provisions of every other Act or part of any Act which shall be incorporated therewith, form part of the said Provisional Order or Act, and be construed therewith as forming one Provisional Order or Act, as the case may be.

As to incorporation of Parts II. and III. of this Act with Provisional Order and special Acts.

23. In Part II. and Part III. of this Act, the term "special Act" shall be construed to mean any Act of Parliament which shall be hereafter passed or any Provisional Order authorising the construction of a tramway, and with which the said parts of this Act shall be incorporated as aforesaid.

"Special Act."

24. The term "the promoters" shall mean any person, persons, corporation, company, or local authority authorised by special Act to construct a tramway.

25. Every tramway which is hereafter authorised by special Act shall be constructed on such gauge as may be prescribed by such special Act, and if no gauge is thereby prescribed, on such gauge as will admit of the use upon such tramways of carriages constructed for use upon railways of a gauge of four feet eight inches and half an inch, and shall be laid and maintained in such manner that the uppermost surface of the rail shall be on a level with the surface of the road, and shall not be opened for public traffic until the same has been inspected and certified to be fit for such traffic, in the prescribed manner.

Mode of formation of tramways.

26. The promoters from time to time, for the purpose of making, forming, laying down, maintaining, and renewing any tramway duly authorised (¹), or any part or parts

Power to break up streets, &c.

(¹) A person making a tramway without the authority of Parliament, even with the concurrence of and by virtue of a contract with the vestry of a parish, may be indicted for a public nuisance: R. v. Train, 2 B. & S. 640, 3 F. & F. 22, 9 Cox, C. C. 180, 8 Jur. N. S. 1151, 31 L. J. M. C. 169, 6 L. T. N. S. 350, 10 W. R. 539. In such a case it is no defence that the tramway might be for the convenience of the public generally (ib.) Compare R. v. Longton Gas Company (Limited), 6 Jur. N. S. 601, 29 L. J. M. C. 118, and Att.-Gen. v. Cambridge Consumers Gas Co., L. R. 4 Ch. 71, 38 L. J. Ch. 94, 19 L. T. N. S. 508, 17 W. R. 145.

Secs. 26, 27. thereof respectively, may open and break up any road, subject to the following regulations :

- (1.) They shall give to the road authority notice of their intention, specifying the time at which they will begin to do so, and the portion of road proposed to be opened or broken up, such notice to be given seven days at least before the commencement of the work :
- (2.) They shall not open, or break up, or alter the level of any road, except under the superintendence and to the reasonable satisfaction of the road authority, unless that authority refuses or neglects to give such superintendence at the time specified in the notice, or discontinues the same during the work :
- (3.) They shall pay all reasonable expenses to which the road authority is put on account of such superintendence ⁽¹⁾ :
- (4.) They shall not, without the consent of the road authority, open or break up at any one time a greater length than one hundred yards of any road which does not exceed a quarter of a mile in length, and in the case of any road exceeding a quarter of a mile in length the promoters shall leave an interval of at least a quarter of a mile between any two places at which they may open or break up the road, and they shall not open or break up at any such place a greater length than one hundred yards.

Where the carriageway over any bridge forms part of or is a road within the jurisdiction of a road authority, but such bridge is vested in some person or persons, corporation, or company, distinct from such road authority, any work which the promoters may be empowered to construct, and which affects or in anywise interferes with the structural works of such bridge, shall be constructed under the superintendence (at the cost of the promoters) and to the reasonable satisfaction of such person, persons, corporation, or company, unless after notice to be given by the promoters seven days at least before the commencement of such work such superintendence is refused or withheld.

Where the carriageway in or upon which any tramway is proposed to be formed or laid down is crossed by any railway or tramway on the level, any work which the promoters may be empowered to construct, and which affects or in anywise interferes with such railway or tramway, or the traffic thereon, shall be constructed and maintained under the superintendence (at the cost of the promoters) and to the reasonable satisfaction of the person, corporation, or company owning such railway or tramway, unless after notice to be given by the promoters seven days at least before the commencement of such work such superintendence is refused or withheld.

Completion of work and reinstatement of road.

27. When the promoters have opened or broken up any portion of any road, they shall be under the following further obligations ; namely,

- (1.) They shall, with all convenient speed, and in all cases within four weeks at the most (unless the road authority otherwise consents in writing) complete the work on account of which they opened or broke up the same, and (subject to the formation, maintenance, or renewal of the tramway) fill in the ground and make good the surface, and, to the satisfaction of the road authority, restore the portion of the road to as good condition as that in which it was before it was opened or broken up, and clear away all surplus paving or metalling material or rubbish occasioned thereby :
- (2.) They shall in the meantime cause the place where the road is opened or broken up to be fenced and watched, and to be properly lighted at night :
- (3.) They shall bear or pay all reasonable expenses of the repair of the road for six months after the same is restored, as far as those expenses are increased by the opening or breaking up.

If the promoters aforesaid fail to comply in any respect with the provisions of the present section, they shall for every such offence (without prejudice to the enforcement of specific performance of the requirements of this Act or to any other remedy against them) be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and to a further penalty not exceeding five pounds for each day during which any such failure continues after the first day on which such penalty is incurred. Secs. 27-30.

⁽¹⁾ If the work done by the promoters be merely repairing the road and maintaining it in good order, then section 28, and not this section, applies, and the promoters are not bound to pay the expenses of superintendence : Vestry of St. Luke v. North Metropolitan Tramways Co., 1 Q. B. D. 760, 35 L. T. N. S. 329.

28. The promoters shall, at their own expense, at all times maintain and keep in good condition and repair ⁽¹⁾, with such materials and in such manner as the road authority shall direct, and to their satisfaction, so much of any road whereon any tramway belonging to them is laid as lies between the rails of the tramway and (where two tramways are laid by the same promoters in any road at a distance of not more than four feet from each other) the portion of the road between the tramways, and in every case so much of the road as extends eighteen inches beyond the rails of and on each side of any such tramway. If the promoters abandon their undertaking, or any part of the same, and take up any tramway or any part of any tramway belonging to them, they shall with all convenient speed, and in all cases within six weeks at the most (unless the road authority otherwise consents in writing), fill in the ground and make good the surface, and, to the satisfaction of the road authority, restore the portion of the road upon which such tramway was laid to as good a condition as that in which it was before such tramway was laid thereon, and clear away all surplus paving or metalling material or rubbish occasioned by such work; and they shall in the meantime cause the place where the road is opened or broken up to be fenced and watched, and to be properly lighted at night ⁽²⁾: Provided always, that if the promoters fail to comply with the provisions of this section, the road authority, if they think fit, may themselves at any time, after seven days notice to the promoters, open and break up the road, and do the works necessary for the repair and maintenance or restoration of the road, to the extent in this section above mentioned, and the expense incurred by the road authority in so doing shall be repaid to them by the promoters.

Repair of part of road where tramway is laid.

29. The road authority on the one hand and the promoters on the other hand may from time to time enter into and carry into effect, and from time to time alter, renew, or vary, contracts, agreements, or arrangements with respect to the paving and keeping in repair of the whole or any portion of the roadway of any road on which the promoters shall lay any tramway, and the proportion to be paid by either of them of the expense of such paving and keeping in repair ⁽³⁾.

Road authority and promoters may contract for paving roads on which tramways are laid.

30. For the purpose of making, forming, laying down, maintaining, repairing, or renewing any of their tramways, the promoters may from time to time, where and as far as it is necessary, or may appear expedient for the purpose of preventing frequent interruption of the traffic by repairs or works in connection with the same, alter the position of any mains or pipes for the supply of gas or water, or any tube, wires, or apparatus for telegraphic or other purposes, subject to the provisions of this Act, and also subject to the following restrictions; (that is to say,)

Provision as to gas and water companies.

- (1.) Before laying down a tramway in a road in which any mains or pipes, tubes, wires, or apparatus may be laid, the promoters shall, whether they contemplate altering the position of any such mains or pipes, wires, or apparatus, or not, give seven days notice to the company, persons or person to whom such mains or pipes, tubes, wires, or apparatus may belong or by whom they are controlled, of their intention to lay down or alter the tramway, and shall at the same time deliver a plan and section of the proposed work. If it should appear to any such company or person that the construction of the tramway as proposed would endanger any such main or pipe, tube, wire, or apparatus, or interfere with or impede the supply of water or gas or the telegraphic or other communication, such company or person (as the case may be) may give notice to the promoters to lower or otherwise alter the

⁽¹⁾ See Vestry of St. Luke v. North Metropolitan Tramways Co., cited in note ⁽¹⁾ to section 26, ante.

⁽²⁾ See Howitt v. Nottingham Tramways Co., cited in note to next section.

⁽³⁾ Where a tramways company enters into a contract with a road authority under this section, whereby the road authority undertakes the repair of the portion of the road upon which the tramway is laid, the liability for damage caused by the non-repair of that part of the road, which would but for such contract be cast, by section 28, upon the tramway company, is transferred to the road authority: Howitt v. Nottingham Tramways Co., 12 Q. B. D. 16, 53 L. J. Q. B. 21, 50 L. T. N. S. 99, 32 W. R. 248.

Secs. 30, 31.

position of the said mains or pipes, tubes, wires, or apparatus in such manner as may be considered necessary, and any difference as to the necessity of any such lowering or alteration shall be settled in manner provided by this Act for the settlement of differences between the promoters and other companies or persons, and all alterations to be made under this section shall be made with as little detriment and inconvenience to the company or person to whom such mains or pipes, tubes, wires, or apparatus may belong, or by whom the same are controlled, or to the inhabitants of the district, as the circumstances will admit, and under the superintendence of such company or person or of their surveyor or engineer if they or he think fit to attend, after receiving not less than forty-eight hours notice for that purpose, which notice the promoters are hereby required to give :

- (2.) The promoters shall not remove or displace any of the mains or pipes, valves, syphons, plugs, tubes, wires, or apparatus, or other works belonging to or controlled by any such company or person, or do anything to impede the passage of water or gas or the telegraphic or other communication into or through such mains or pipes, without the consent of such company or person, or in any other manner than such company or person shall approve, until good and sufficient mains, pipes, valves, syphons, plugs, and other works necessary or proper for continuing the supply of water or gas or telegraphic or other communication, as sufficiently as the same was supplied by the mains or pipes, tubes, wires, or apparatus proposed to be removed or displaced, shall at the expense of the promoters have been first made and laid down in lieu thereof and ready for use, and to the satisfaction of the surveyor or engineer of such water or gas or other company, or of such person, or, in case of disagreement between such surveyor or engineer and the promoters, as an engineer appointed by the Board of Trade shall direct :
- (3.) The promoters shall not lay down any such pipes contrary to the regulations of any Act of Parliament relating to such water or gas or other company, or relating to telegraphs :
- (4.) The promoters shall make good all damage done by them to property belonging to or controlled by any such company or person, and shall make full compensation to all parties for any loss or damage which they may sustain by reason of any interference with such property, or with the private service pipes of any person supplied by any such company or person with water or gas.
- (5.) If by any such operations as aforesaid the promoters interrupt the supply of water or gas in or through any main or main pipe they shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every day upon which such supply shall be so interrupted :

For protection of sewers, &c.

31. Where in any district any tramway or any work connected therewith interferes with any sewer, drain, watercourse, subway, defence, or work in such district, or in any way affects the sewerage or drainage of such district, the promoters shall not commence any tramway or work until they shall have given to the proper authority fourteen days previous notice in writing of their intention to commence the same, by leaving such notice at the principal office of such authority with all necessary particulars relating thereto, nor until such authority shall have signified their approval of the same, unless such authority do not signify their approval, disapproval, or other directions within fourteen days after service of the said notice and particulars as aforesaid, and the promoters shall comply with and conform to all reasonable directions and regulations of the said authority in the execution of the said works, and shall provide by new, altered, or substituted works, in such manner as such authority shall reasonably require, for the proper protection of and for preventing injury or impediment to the sewers and works hereinbefore referred to, by or by reason of the tramways, and shall save harmless the said authority against all and every the expense to be occasioned thereby; and all such works shall be done under the direction, superintendence, and control of the engineer or other officer or officers of the said authority, at the reasonable costs, charges, and expenses in all respects of the promoters; and when any new, altered, or substituted work as aforesaid, or any works or defence connected therewith, shall be completed by or at the costs, charges, or expenses of the promoters, under the provisions of this Act, the same shall thereafter be as fully and completely under the direction, jurisdiction, and control of the said authority and be maintained by them as any sewers or works. Secs. 31-33.

32. Nothing in this Act shall take away or abridge any power to open or break up any road along or across which any tramway is laid, or any other power vested in any local authority or road authority for any of the purposes for which such authority is respectively constituted, or in any company, body, or person for the purpose of laying down, repairing, altering, or removing any pipe for the supply of gas or water, or any tubes, wires, or apparatus for telegraphic or other purposes, but in the exercise of such power every such local authority, road authority, company, body, or person shall be subject to the following restrictions; (that is to say,)

Rights of authorities and companies, &c. to open roads.

- (1.) They shall cause as little detriment or inconvenience to the promoters and lessees as circumstances admit :
- (2.) Before they commence any work whereby the traffic on the tramway will be interrupted they shall (except in cases of urgency, in which cases no notice shall be necessary) give to the promoters and lessees, if there be any, notice of their intention to commence such work, specifying the time at which they will begin to do so, such notice to be given eighteen hours at least before the commencement of the work :
- (3.) They shall not be liable to pay to the promoters or lessees any compensation for injury done to the tramway by the execution of such work, or for loss of traffic occasioned thereby, or for the reasonable exercise of the powers so vested in them as as aforesaid :
- (4.) Whenever for the purpose of enabling them to execute such work the local authority or the road authority shall so require, the promoters or lessees shall either stop traffic on the tramway to which the notice shall refer, where it would otherwise interfere with such work, or shore up and secure the same at their own risk and cost during the execution of the work there : Provided that such work shall always be completed by the local authority or the road authority, as the case may be, with all reasonable expedition :
- (5.) Any company, body, or person shall not execute such work so far as it immediately affects the tramway except under the superintendence of the promoters, unless they refuse or neglect to give such superintendence at the time specified in the notice for the commencement of the work or discontinue the same during the progress of the work ; and they shall execute such work at their own expense, and to the reasonable satisfaction of the promoters : Provided that any additional expense imposed upon them by reason of the existence of the tramway in any road or place where any such mains, pipes, tubes, wires, or apparatus shall have been laid before the construction of such tramway shall be borne by the promoters.

33. If any difference arises between the promoters or lessees on the one hand and any local authority or road authority, or any gas or water company, or any company, body, or person to whom any sewer, drain, tube, wires, or apparatus for telegraphic or other purposes may belong, or any other company, on the other hand, with respect to any interference or control exercised, or claimed to be exercised, by them or him, or on their or his behalf, or by the promoters or lessees by virtue of this Act, in relation to any tramway or work, or in relation to any work or proceeding of the local authority, road authority, body, company, or person, or with respect to the propriety of or the mode of execution of any work relating to any tramway, or with respect to the amount of any compensation to be made by or to the promoters or lessees, or on the question whether any work is such as ought reasonably to satisfy the local authority, road authority, body, company, or person concerned, or with respect to any other subject or thing regulated by or comprised in this Act, the matter in difference shall (unless otherwise specially provided by this Act) be settled by an engineer or other fit person nominated as referee by the Board of Trade on the application of either party, and the expenses of the reference shall be borne and paid as the referee directs.

Difference between promoters and road authority, &c.

Secs. 34-36.

PART III.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Carriages.

Power for promoters to use tramways with flange-wheeled carriages, &c.

34. The promoters of tramways authorised by special Act and their lessees may use on their tramways carriages with flange wheels or wheels suitable only to run on the rail prescribed by such Act; and, subject to the provisions of such special Act and of this Act, the promoters and their lessees shall have the exclusive use of their tramways for carriages with flange wheels or other wheels suitable only to run on the prescribed rail (1).

All carriages used on any tramway shall be moved by the power prescribed by the special Act, and where no such power is prescribed, by animal power only.

No carriage used on any tramway which is hereafter authorised by special Act shall extend beyond the outer edge of the wheels of such carriage more than eleven inches on each side.

Licenses to use Tramways.

Licenses to use the tramway may in certain events be granted to third parties by the Board of Trade.

35. If at any time after any tramway or part of any tramway shall have been for three years opened for public traffic in any district it shall be represented in writing to the Board of Trade by the local authority of such district, or by twenty inhabitant ratepayers of such district, or by the road authority of any road in which such tramway or part of a tramway is laid, that the public are deprived of the full benefit of the tramway, the Board of Trade may (if they consider that, prima facie, the case is one for inquiry) direct an inquiry by a referee under this Act into the truth of the representation, and if the referee report that the truth of the representation has been proved to his satisfaction, the Board may from time to time grant licenses to any company or person to use such tramway in addition to the promoters or their lessees, for such traffic as is authorised by the special Act, with carriages to be approved by the Board, subject to the following provisions, conditions, and restrictions; (that is to say,)

- (1.) The license shall be for any period not less than one year nor more than three years from the date of the license, but shall be renewable by the Board, if they upon inquiry think fit:
- (2.) The license shall be to use the whole of such tramway for the time being opened for public traffic, or such part or parts of such tramway as the Board, having reference to the cause for granting the license, shall think right:
- (3.) The license shall direct the number of carriages which the licensee or licensees shall run upon such tramway, and the mode in which and times at which such carriages shall be run:
- (4.) The licenses shall specify the tolls to be paid to the promoters or to their lessees by the licensee or licensees for the use of the tramways:
- (5.) The licensee or licensees, and their officers and servants, shall permit one person duly authorised for that purpose by the promoters, or by their lessees, to ride free of charge in or upon each carriage of the licensee or licensees run upon the tramways for the whole or any part of the journey:
- (6.) The Board of Trade may at any time after the granting of any license revoke, alter, or modify the same for good cause shown to them.

In default of payment of tolls licensee's carriages may be detained and sold.

36. If on demand any licensee fail to pay the tolls due in respect of any passengers carried in any carriage it shall be lawful for the promoters or their lessees, to whom the same are payable, to detain and sell such carriage, or if the same shall have been removed from the tramway or premises of such promoters or lessees, to detain and sell any other carriages on such tramway or premises belonging to such licensee, and out of the moneys arising from such sale to retain the tolls payable as aforesaid, and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, rendering the overplus (if any) of such moneys and such of the carriages as shall remain unsold to the person entitled thereto. Secs. 36-41.

(1) See Cottam v. Guest, 6 Q. B. D. 70, 50 L. J. Q. B. 174, 29 W. R. 305, 45 J. P. 95; Liverpool Tramways Co. v. Liverpool Omnibus Co., W. N. (1870), p. 126.

37. Every licensee shall on demand give to an officer or servant authorised in that behalf by the promoters or their lessees entitled to be paid tolls by such licensee, an exact account in writing signed by such licensee of the number of passengers conveyed by any and every carriage used by him on the tramways. Licensees to give account of passengers carried by them.

38. If any such licensee fails to give such account to such officer or servant demanding the same as aforesaid, or if any such licensee with intent to avoid the payment of any tolls gives a false account, he shall for every such offence forfeit to the promoters, or to their lessees entitled to be paid tolls by such licensee, a sum not exceeding five pounds, and such penalty shall be in addition to any tolls payable in respect of the passengers carried by any such carriage. Licensees not giving account of passengers carried liable to penalty.

39. If any dispute arise concerning the amount of the tolls due to the promoters or to their lessees from any licensee, or concerning the charges occasioned by any detention or sale of any carriage under the provisions herein contained, the same shall be settled in England by two justices, and in Scotland by the sheriff or two justices, and it shall be lawful for the promoters or their lessees in the meanwhile to detain the carriage, or (if the case so require) the proceeds of the sale thereof. Disputes as to amount toll to be settled by justice.

40. Every licensee shall be answerable for any trespass or damage done by his carriages or horses, or by any of the servants or persons employed by him, to or upon the tramway, or to or upon the property of any other person, and, without prejudice to the right of action against the licensee or any other person, every such servant or other person may lawfully be convicted of such trespass or damage in England before two justices, and in Scotland before the sheriff or two justices, either by the confession of the party offending or by the oath of some credible witness; and upon such conviction every such licensee shall pay to the promoters, lessees, or persons injured, as the case may be, the damage, to be ascertained by such justices, so that the same do not exceed fifty pounds. Owners of carriages liable for damage done by their servants.

Discontinuance of Tramways.

41. If at any time after the opening of any tramway in any district for traffic the promoters discontinue the working of such tramway, or of any part thereof, for the space of three calendar months (such discontinuance not being occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of such promoters, for which purpose the want of sufficient funds shall not be considered a circumstance beyond their control), and such discontinuance is proved to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade, the said Board, if they think fit, may by order declare that the powers of the promoters in respect of such tramway or the part thereof so discontinued shall, from the date of such order, be at an end, and thereupon the said powers of the promoters shall cease and determine, unless the same are purchased by the local authority in manner by this Act provided. Where any such order has been made, the road authority of such district may at any time after the expiration of two months from the date of such order, under the authority of a certificate to that effect by the Board of Trade, remove⁽¹⁾ the tramway or part of the tramway so discontinued, and the promoters shall pay to the road authority the cost of such removal and of the making good of the road by the road authority, such cost to be certified by the clerk for the time being, or by some other authorised officer of the road authority, whose certificate shall be final and conclusive; and if the promoters fail to pay the amount so certified within one calendar month after delivery to them of such certificate or a copy thereof, the road authority may, without any previous notice to the promoters (but without prejudice to any other remedy which they may have for the recovery of the amount), sell and dispose of the materials of the tramway or part of tramway removed, either by public auction or private sale, and for such sum or sums, and to such person or persons, as the road authority may think fit, and may out of the proceeds of such sale pay and reimburse themselves the amount of the cost certified as aforesaid and of the cost of sale, and the

⁽¹⁾ As to the removal of a tramway when the Act of Parliament gives the local board the right of determining that such tramway should be discontinued and removed, see Liverpool Tramways Co. v. Local Board of Health of Toxteth Park, W. N. (1876), p. 145.

Secs. 41-43. balance (if any) of the proceeds of the sale shall be paid over by the road authority to the promoters.

Insolvency of Promoters.

Proceedings in case of insolvency of promoters.

42. If at any time after the opening of any tramway in any district for traffic, it appears to the local authority or the road authority of such district that the promoters of such tramway are insolvent, so that they are unable to maintain such tramway, or work the same with advantage to the public, and such road authority makes a representation to that effect to the Board of Trade, the Board of Trade may direct an inquiry by a referee into the truth of the representation, and if the referee shall find that the promoters are so insolvent as aforesaid, the Board of Trade may, by order, declare that the powers of the promoters shall, at the expiration of six calendar months from the making of the order, be at an end, and the powers of the promoters shall cease and determine at the expiration of the said period, unless the same are purchased by the local authority in manner by this Act provided; and thereupon such road authority may remove the tramway in like manner and subject to the same provisions as to the payment of the costs of such removal, and to the same remedy for recovery of such costs, in every respect as in cases of removal under the next preceding section.

Purchase of Tramways.

Future purchase of undertaking by local authority.

43. Where the promoters of a tramway in any district are not the local authority, the local authority, if, by resolution passed at a special meeting of the members constituting such local authority, they so decide, may within six months after the expiration of a period of twenty-one years from the time when such promoters were empowered to construct such tramway, and within six months after the expiration of every subsequent period of seven years, or within three months after any order made by the Board of Trade under either of the two next preceding sections, with the approval of the Board of Trade, by notice in writing require such promoters to sell, and thereupon such promoters shall sell to them their undertaking, or so much of the same as is within such district, upon terms of paying the then value (exclusive of any allowance for past or future profits of the undertaking, or any compensation for compulsory sale, or other consideration whatsoever) of the tramway, and all lands, buildings, works, materials, and plant of the promoters suitable to and used by them for the purposes of their undertaking within such district, such value to be in case of difference determined by an engineer or other fit person nominated as referee by the Board of Trade on the application of either party, and the expenses of the reference to be borne and paid as the referee directs. And when any such sale has been made, all the rights, powers, and authorities of such promoters in respect to the undertaking sold, or where any order has been made by the Board of Trade under either of the next preceding sections, all the rights, powers, and authorities of such promoters previous to the making of such order in respect to the undertaking sold, shall be transferred to, vested in, and may be exercised by the authority to whom the same has been sold, in like manner as if such tramway was constructed by such authority under the powers conferred upon them by a Provisional Order under this Act, and in reference to the same they shall be deemed to be the promoters.

No such resolution shall be valid unless a month's previous notice of the meeting, and of the purpose thereof, has been given in manner in which notices of meetings of such local authority are usually given, nor unless two-thirds of the members constituting such local authority are present and vote at the meeting, and a majority of those present and voting concur in the resolution; provided that if in Scotland the local authority be the road trustees, it shall not be necessary that two-thirds of such trustees shall be present at the meeting, but the resolution shall not be valid unless two-thirds of the members present vote in favour of such resolution, and unless the said resolution is confirmed in like manner at another meeting called as aforesaid and held not less than three weeks and not more than six weeks thereafter; and it shall be lawful for the chairman of any such meeting, with the consent of a majority of the members present, to adjourn the same from time to time.

The local authority in any district may pay the purchase money and all expenses incurred by them in the purchase of any undertaking under the authority of this section out of the like rate, and shall have the like powers to borrow on the security of the same Secs. 43-46.

as if such expenses were incurred in applying for, obtaining, and carrying into effect any Provisional Order obtained by them under this Act.

Where the local rate is limited by law to a certain amount, and is by reason of such limitation insufficient for the payment of such purchase money and expenses, the Board of Trade may by Provisional Order extend the limit of such local rate to such amount as they shall think fit and prescribe for the payment of such purchase money and expenses.

Every such Provisional Order shall be confirmed in like manner as a Provisional Order under the authority of Part I. of this Act, and until such confirmation such Provisional Order shall not have any operation.

Subject and according to the preceding provisions of this section two or more local authorities may jointly purchase any undertaking or so much of the same as is within their districts.

44. Where any tramway in any district has been opened for traffic for a period of six months the promoters may, with the consent of the Board of Trade, sell their under- Power of sale.
taking to any person, persons, corporation, or company, or to the local authority of such district; and when any such sale has been made all the rights, powers, authorities, obligations, and liabilities of such promoters in respect to the undertaking sold shall be transferred to, vested in, and may be exercised by, and shall attach to the person, persons, corporation, company, or local authority to whom the same has been sold, in like manner as if such tramway was constructed by such person, persons, corporation, company, or local authority under the powers conferred upon them by special Act, and in reference to the same they shall be deemed to be the promoters.

Provided always, that a local authority shall not purchase any undertaking under the provisions of this section unless they shall decide to make such purchase by resolution passed at a special meeting of the members constituting such local authority, which resolution shall be made in the same manner and shall be subject to the same conditions as to validity as resolutions made in regard to the purchases by the next preceding section authorised.

Where any purchase is made by any local authority under the provisions of this section, such local authority may pay the purchase money and all expenses incurred by them in making such purchase out of the like funds, and for such purposes shall have all and the like powers and be subject to all the like conditions as if such purchase were made under the authority of the next preceding section.

Tolls.

45. The promoters or lessees of a tramway authorised by special Act may demand ⁽¹⁾ Tolls, &c. and take, in respect of such tramway, tolls and charges ⁽²⁾ not exceeding the sums specified in such special Act, subject and according to the regulations therein specified. A list of all the tolls and charges authorised to be taken shall be exhibited in a conspicuous place inside and outside each of the carriages used upon the tramways.

Bye-laws.

46. Subject to the provisions of the special Act authorising any tramway and this Bye-laws by local authority.
Act.

The local authority of any district in which the same is laid down may, from time to time, make regulations as to the following matters:

The rate of speed to be observed in travelling upon the tramway:

(1) Where a bye-law of a tramway company provided "that every passenger shall upon demand pay the fare legally demandable for the journey," it was held that the bye-law was reasonable, and that the passenger was liable to pay the fare whenever it was demanded of him by the conductor: Egginton v. Pearl, 33 L. T. N. S. 423.

(2) Where a company had obtained legislative authority to substitute omnibusses on certain routes in lieu of the tramways, and to charge a higher fare on these routes, it was held that the company had no power to increase the fare of passengers using the tramways only: Edinburgh Street Tramways Co. v. Torbain, L. R. 3 App. Cas. 58, 37 L. T. N. S. 288.

Secs. 46-50. The distances at which carriages using the tramway shall be allowed to follow one after the other:

The stopping of carriages using the tramway:

The traffic on the road in which the tramway is laid:

Promoters may make certain regulations.

The promoters of any tramway and their lessees may from time to time make regulations,—

For preventing the commission of any nuisance in or upon any carriage, or in or against any premises belonging to them.

For regulating the travelling in or upon any carriage belonging to them.

And for better enforcing the observance of all or any of such regulations, it shall be lawful for such local authority and promoters respectively to make bye-laws for all or any of the aforesaid purposes, and from time to time repeal or alter such bye-laws, and make new bye-laws, provided that such bye-laws be not repugnant to the laws of that part of the United Kingdom where the same are to have effect ⁽¹⁾.

Notice of the making of any bye-law under the provisions of this Act shall be published by the local authority or the promoters making the same by advertisement, according to the regulations contained in Part II. of the Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, and unless such notice is published in manner aforesaid such bye-law shall be disallowed by the Board of Trade.

No such bye-law shall have any force or effect which shall be disallowed by the Board of Trade within two calendar months after a true copy of such bye-law shall have been laid before the Board, and a true copy of every such proposed bye-law shall, not less than two calendar months before such bye-law shall come into operation, be sent to the Board of Trade, and shall be delivered to the promoters of such tramway if the same was made by the local authority, and to such local authority if made by the promoters.

Penalties may be imposed in bye-laws.

47. Any such bye-law may impose reasonable penalties for offences against the same, not exceeding forty shillings for each offence, with or without further penalties for continuing offences, not exceeding for any continuing offence ten shillings for every day during which the offence continues; but all bye-laws shall be so framed as to allow in every case part only of the maximum penalty being ordered to be paid ⁽²⁾.

Power to local authority to license drivers, conductors, &c.

48. The local authority shall have the like power of making and enforcing rules and regulations, and of granting licenses with respect to all carriages using the tramways, and to all drivers, conductors, and other persons having charge of or using the same, and to the standings for the same, as they are for the time being entitled to make, enforce, and grant with respect to hackney carriages, and the drivers and other persons having the charge thereof, and to the standings for the same in the streets and district of or under the control of the local authority: Provided always, that in any district in which any of the powers aforesaid in relation to hackney carriages and the matters aforesaid in connection therewith are vested in any authority other than the local authority of such district, such authority shall have and may exercise the powers by this section conferred upon the local authority ⁽³⁾.

Offences.

Penalty for obstruction of promoters in laying out tramway.

49. If any person wilfully obstructs any person acting under the authority of any promoters in the lawful exercise of their powers in setting out or making, forming, laying down, repairing, or renewing a tramway, or defaces or destroys any mark made for the purposes of setting out the line of the tramway, or damages or destroys any property of any promoters, lessees, or licensees, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Penalties for wilful injury or obstruction to tramways, &c.

50. If any person, without lawful excuse (the proof whereof shall lie on him), wilfully does any of the following things; (namely),

Interferes with, removes, or alters any part of a tramway or of the works connected therewith;

⁽¹⁾ As to the validity of bye-laws made under this section, see Egginton v. Pearl, 33 L. T. N. S. 428.

⁽²⁾ As to the validity of bye-laws, see the cases cited in the note to section 51, post.

⁽³⁾ As to the confirmation of these rules and regulations, see the Public Health (Confirmation of Bye-laws) Act, 1884, 47 Vict., c. 12, s. 3, post.

Places or throws any stones, dirt, wood, refuse, or other material on any part of a tramway; Secs. 50-56.

Does or causes to be done anything in such manner as to obstruct any carriage using a tramway, or to endanger the lives of persons therein or thereon;

Or knowingly aids or assists in the doing of any such thing;

he shall for every such offence be liable (in addition to any proceedings by way of indictment or otherwise to which he may be subject) to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

51. If any person travelling or having travelled in any carriage on any tramway avoids or attempts to avoid payment of his fare, or if any person having paid his fare for a certain distance knowingly and wilfully proceeds in any such carriage beyond such distance, and does not pay the additional fare for the additional distance, or attempts to avoid payment thereof, or if any person knowingly and wilfully refuses or neglects on arriving at the point to which he has paid his fare to quit such carriage, every such person shall, for every such offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings ⁽¹⁾ Penalty on passengers practising frauds on the promoters.

52. It shall be lawful for any officer or servant of the promoters or lessees of any tramway, and all persons called by him to his assistance, to seize and detain any person discovered either in or after committing or attempting to commit any such offence as in the next preceding section is mentioned, and whose name or residence is unknown to such officer or servant until such person can be conveniently taken before a justice, or until he be otherwise discharged by due course of law. Transient offenders.

53. No person shall be entitled to carry or to require to be carried on any tramway any goods which may be of a dangerous nature, and if any person send by any tramway any such goods without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing to the book-keeper or other servant with whom the same are left at the time of such sending, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence, and it shall be lawful for such promoters or lessees to refuse to take any parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, or require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact ⁽²⁾. Penalty for bringing dangerous goods on the tramway.

54. If any person (except under a lease from or by agreement with the promoters, or under license from the Board of Trade, as by this Act provided), uses a tramway or any part thereof with carriages having flange wheels or other wheels suitable only to run on the rail of such tramway, such person shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds ⁽³⁾. Penalty for persons using tramways with carriages with flange wheels, &c.

Miscellaneous.

55. The promoters or lessees, as the case may be, shall be answerable for all accident, damages, and injuries happening through their act or default, or through the act or default of any person in their employment by reason or in consequence of any of their works or carriages, and shall save harmless all road and other authorities, companies, or bodies, collectively and individually, and their officers and servants, from all damages and costs in respect of such accidents, damages, and injuries. Promoters or lessees to be responsible for all damages.

56. All tolls, penalties, and charges under this Act, or under any bye-law made in pursuance of this Act, may be recovered and enforced as follows ⁽⁴⁾; in England before Recovery of tolls, penalties, &c.

⁽¹⁾ Compare Dyson v. London & North Western Ry. Co., 7 Q. B. D. 32, 50 L. J. M. C. 78, 44 L. T. N. S. 609, 29 W. R. 565; London & Brighton Ry. Co. v. Watson, 4 C. P. D. 118, 48 L. J. C. P. 316, 40 L. T. N. S. 183, 27 W. R. 614; Langdon v. Howells, 4 Q. B. D. 337, 48 L. J. M. C. 113, 40 L. T. N. S. 880, 27 W. R. 657; Saunders v. South Eastern Ry. Co., 5 Q. B. D. 456, 49 L. J. Q. B. 761, 43 L. T. N. S. 281, 29 W. R. 56, 44 J. P. 781; Dearden v. Townsend, L. R. 1 Q. B. 10, 35 L. J. M. C. 50, 13 L. T. N. S. 323, 14 W. R. 52; Bentham v. Hoyle, 3 Q. B. D. 289, 47 L. J. M. C. 51, 37 L. T. N. S. 750, 26 W. R. 314; Gillingham v. Walker, 44 L. T. N. S. 715, 29 W. R. 896, 45 J. P. 470.

⁽²⁾ See Hearne v. Garton, 2 E. & E. 66.

⁽³⁾ As to what carriages come within the prohibition of this section, see Cottam v. Guest, cited in the note to section 34, ante; and Liverpool Tramways Co. v. Liverpool Omnibus Co., W. N. (1870), p. 126.

⁽⁴⁾ See the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 49, and as to the recovery of penalties, see R. v. Paget, 8 Q. B. D. 151, 51 L. J. M. C. 9, 45 L. T. N. S.

Secs. 56–63. two justices of the peace in manner directed by the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, intituled “An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of justices of the peace out of sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders,” and any Act amending the same, and in Scotland before the sheriff or two justices as penalties under the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845.

Right of user only.

57. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained the promoters of any tramway shall not acquire or be deemed to acquire any right other than that of user of any road along or across which they lay any tramway, nor shall anything contained in this Act exempt the promoters of any tramway laid along any turnpike road, or any other person using such tramway, from the payment of such tolls as may be levied in respect of the use of such road by the trustees thereof.

Arrangements between turnpike road trustees and promoters.

58. The trustees of any turnpike road and the promoters of any tramway proposed to be laid or laid along the same way, with the approval of the Board of Trade, enter into agreements with each other for the payment of a composition to such trustees in respect of the user of such road for such tramway and the conveyance of traffic thereon, and may with the same approval alter such agreements from time to time.

Reservation of rights of owners, &c. of mines.

59. Nothing in this Act shall limit or interfere with the rights of any owner, lessee, or occupier of any mines or minerals lying under or adjacent to any road along or across which any tramway shall be laid to work such mines and minerals, nor shall any such owner, lessee, or occupier be liable to make good or pay compensation for any damage which may be occasioned to such tramway by the working in the usual and ordinary course of their mines or minerals.

Reserving powers of street authorities to widen, &c. roads.

60. Nothing in this Act shall take away or affect any power which any road authority, or the owners, commissioners, undertakers, or lessees of any railway, tramway, or inland navigation, may have by law to widen, alter, divert, or improve any road, railway, tramway, or inland navigation.

Power for local or police authorities to regulate traffic in roads.

61. Nothing in this Act shall limit the powers of the local authority or police in any district to regulate the passage of any traffic along or across any road along or across which any tramways are laid down, and such authority or police may exercise their authority as well on as off the tramway, and with respect as well to the traffic of the promoters or of lessees as to the traffic of other persons.

Reservation of right of public to use roads.

62. Nothing in this Act or in any bye-law made under this Act shall take away or abridge the right of the public to pass along or across every or any part of any road along or across which any tramway is laid, whether on or off the tramway, with carriages not having flange wheels or wheels suitable only to run on the rail of the tramway.

Regulating inquiries before referee appointed by the Board of Trade.

63. Every inquiry which by this Act the Board of Trade are empowered to make or direct shall be made in accordance with the following provisions :

- (1.) The inquiry shall be held in public before an officer to be appointed in that behalf by the Board, hereinafter called the referee, and whose appointment shall be by writing, which shall specify all the matters referred to him :
- (2.) Ten days notice at the least shall be given by the referee to the parties upon whose representation the Board of Trade shall have directed the inquiry, of the time and place at which the inquiry is to be commenced :
- (3.) The inquiry shall be commenced at the time and place so appointed, and the referee may adjourn the inquiry from time to time as may be necessary to such time and place as he may think fit :
- (4.) The referee by summons shall, on the application of any party interested in the inquiry, require the attendance before himself, at a place and time to be mentioned in the summons, of any person to be examined as a witness before him, and every person summoned shall attend the referee, and answer all questions

794, 30 W. R. 336, 46 J. P. 151. It would seem that a person guilty of disobedience to bye-laws is guilty of a criminal offence, so that the Court of Appeal would have no jurisdiction to hear the appeal from the High Court in such a case: Mellor v. Denham, 5 Q. B. D. 467, 49 L. J. M. C. 89, 42 L. T. N. S. 493, 44 J. P. 472. Compare Hearne v. Garton, 2 E. & E. 66, 5 Jur. N. S. 648, 28 L. J. M. C. 16, 33 L. T. 256.

touching the matter to be inquired into, and any person who wilfully disobeys any such summons or refuses to answer any question put to him by such referee for the purposes of the said inquiry shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds : Provided always, that no person shall be required to attend in obedience to any such summons unless the reasonable charges of his attendance shall have been paid or tendered to him, and no person shall be required in any case in obedience to any such summons to travel more than ten miles from his place of abode :

(5.) The referee may and shall administer an oath, or an affirmation where an affirmation in lieu of an oath would be admitted in a court of justice, to any person tendered or summoned as a witness on the inquiry :

(6.) Any person who upon oath or affirmation wilfully gives false evidence before the referee shall be deemed guilty of perjury :

(7.) The referee shall make his report to the Board of Trade in writing, and shall deliver copies of the report upon request to all or any of the parties to the inquiry.

64. The Board of Trade may from time to time make, and, when made, may rescind, annul, or add to, rules with respect to the following matters :

(1.) The proceedings to be had before the Board under this Act :

(2.) The payment of money or lodgment of securities by way of deposits, the repayment and forfeiture of the same, the investment of the same, the amount and payment of interest or dividends from time to time accruing due on such deposits :

(3.) The plans and sections of any works to be deposited by promoters under this Act :

(4.) As to any other matter or thing in respect of which it may be expedient to make rules for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution.

Any rules made in pursuance of this section shall be deemed to be within the powers conferred by this Act, and shall be of the same force as if enacted in this Act, and shall be judicially noticed.

Any rules made in pursuance of this section shall be laid before Parliament within three weeks after they are made, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting within three weeks after the beginning of the then next session of Parliament.

Rules for carrying Act into effect.

Schedule A.

SCHEDULES.

SCHEDULE A.

PART I.

Districts of Local Authorities.	Description of Local Authority of District set opposite its Name.	The Local Rate.
ENGLAND and WALES.
The city of London and the liberties thereof.	The Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London.	The consolidated sewers rate.
The metropolis (1.) . . .	The Metropolitan Board of Works.	The metropolitan consolidated rate.
Boroughs (2.) . . .	The mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, acting by the council.	The borough fund or other property applicable to the purposes of a borough rate, or the borough rate.
Any place not included in the above descriptions, and under the jurisdiction of commissioners, trustees, or other persons intrusted by any Local Act with powers of improving, cleansing, or paving any town.	The commissioners, trustees, or other persons intrusted by the Local Act, with powers of improving, cleansing, or paving the town.	Any rate leviable by such commissioners, trustees, or other persons, or other funds applicable by them to the purposes of improving, cleansing, or paving the town.
Any place not included in the above descriptions, and within the jurisdiction of local board constituted in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, and the Local Government Act, 1858, or one of such Acts.	The local board . . .	General district rate.
Any place or parish not within the above descriptions, and in which a rate is levied for the maintenance of the poor.	The vestry, select vestry, or other body of persons, acting by virtue of any Act of Parliament, prescription, custom, or otherwise, as or instead of a vestry or select vestry.	The poor rate.

Notes.

(1.) "The metropolis" shall include all parishes and places in which the Metropolitan Board of Works have power to levy a main drainage rate, except the city of London and the liberties thereof.

(2.) "Borough" shall mean any place for the time being subject to an Act passed in the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, intituled "An Act to provide for the Regulation of "Municipal Corporations in England and Wales."

PART II.

Schedule A.

Districts of Road Authorities.	Description of Road Authority of Districts set opposite its Name.
Parishes within the metropolis (1.) mentioned in Schedule (A.) to the Metropolis Management Act, 1855.	The vestries appointed for the purposes of the Metropolis Management Act, 1855.
Districts within the metropolis (1.) formed by the union of the parishes mentioned in Schedule (B.) to the Metropolis Management Act, 1855.	The Board of Works for the district appointed for the purpose of the Metropolis Management Act, 1855.

Note. (1.)—The term “Metropolis” has in this Part the same meaning as in Part I. of this schedule.

PART III.

Approval of Application by Local Authority for a Provisional Order.

The approval of any intended application for a Provisional Order by a local authority shall be in manner following ; (that is to say,)

A resolution approving of the intention to make such application shall be passed at a special meeting of the members constituting such local authority.

Such special meeting shall not be held unless a month's previous notice of the same, and of the purpose thereof, has been given in manner in which notices of meetings of such local authority are usually given.

Such resolution shall not be passed unless two thirds of the members constituting such local authority are present and vote at such special meeting and a majority of those present and voting, concur in the resolution ; provided that if in Scotland the local authority be the road trustees, it shall not be necessary that two thirds of such trustees shall be present at the meeting, but the resolution shall not be valid unless two thirds of the members present vote in favour of such resolution, and unless the said resolution is confirmed in like manner at another meeting called as aforesaid and held not less than three weeks and not more than six weeks thereafter. Where any such resolution relating to the metropolis as the same is defined in Part I. of this schedule, or to any district in Scotland of which road trustees are the local authority, has been passed in manner aforesaid, the intended application to which such resolution relates shall be deemed to be approved.

SCHEDULE B.

Schedule B.

PROVISIONAL ORDERS.

PART I.

Advertisement in October or November of intended application.

(1.) Every advertisement is to contain the following particulars :

1. The objects of the intended application.

2. A general description of the nature of the proposed works, if any.

3. The names of the townlands, parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places in which the proposed works, if any, will be made.

4. The times and places at which the deposit under Part II. of this schedule will be made.

5. An office, either in London or at the place to which the intended application relates, at which printed copies of the draft Provisional Order, when deposited, and of the Provisional Order, when made, will be obtainable as hereinafter provided.

(2.) The whole notice is to be included in one advertisement, which is to be headed with a short title descriptive of the undertaking.

(3.) The advertisement is to be inserted once at least in each of two successive weeks in some one and the same newspaper published in the district affected by the proposed undertaking, where the proposed works (if any) will be made ; or if there be no such

Schedule B. newspaper, then in some one and the same newspaper published in the county in which every such district, or some part thereof, is situate; or if there be none, then in some one and the same newspaper published in some adjoining or neighbouring county.

(4.) The advertisement is also, in every case, to be inserted once at least in the London or Edinburgh Gazette, accordingly as the district is situate in England or Scotland.

PART II.

Deposit on or before 30th November.

- (1.) The promoters are to deposit—
 1. A copy of the advertisement published by them.
 2. A proper plan and section of the proposed works, if any, such plan and section to be prepared according to such regulations as may from time to time be made by the Board of Trade in that behalf.
- (2.) The documents aforesaid are to be deposited for public inspection—
In England, in the office of the clerk of the peace for every county, riding, or division, and of the parish clerk of every parish and the office of the local authority of every district in or through which any such undertaking is proposed to be made; in Scotland, in the office of the principal sheriff clerk for every county, district, or division which will be affected by the proposed undertaking, or in which any proposed new work will be made.
- (3.) The documents aforesaid are also to be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade.

PART III.

Deposit on or before 23rd December.

- (1.) The promoters are to deposit at the office of the Board of Trade—
 1. A memorial signed by the promoters, headed with a short title descriptive of the undertaking (corresponding with that at the head of the advertisement), addressed to the Board of Trade, and praying for a Provisional Order.
 2. A printed draft of the Provisional Order as proposed by the promoters, with any schedule referred to therein.
 3. An estimate of the expense of the proposed works, if any, signed by the persons making the same.
- (2.) They are also to deposit a sufficient number of such printed copies at the office named in that behalf in the advertisement; such copies to be there furnished to all persons applying for them at the price of not more than one shilling each.
- (3.) The memorial of the promoters (to be written on foolscap paper, bookwise, with quarter margin) is to be in the following form, with such variations as circumstances require:

[Short title of undertaking.]

To the Board of Trade,

The memorial of the promoters of [short title of undertaking] :

Showeth as follows ;

1. Your memorialists have published in accordance with the requirements of the Tramways Act, 1870, the following advertisement :

[Here advertisement to be set out verbatim.]

2. Your memorialists have also deposited, in accordance with the requirements of the said Act, copies of the said advertisement and [here state deposit of the several matters required by Act.]

Your memorialists, therefore, pray that a Provisional Order may be made in the terms of the draft proposed by your memorialists, or in such other terms as may seem meet.

A. B.

C. D.

Promoters.

PART IV.

Deposit and advertisement of Provisional Order when made.

(1.) The promoters are to deposit printed copies of the Provisional Order, when settled and made for public inspection in the offices of clerks of the peace and sheriff clerks, where the documents required to be deposited by them under Part II. of this schedule were deposited.

(2.) They are also to deposit a sufficient number of such printed copies at the office named in that behalf in the advertisement, such copies to be there furnished to all persons applying for them at the price of not more than Schedule B. each.

(3.) They are also to publish the Provisional Order as an advertisement once in the local newspaper in which the original advertisement of the intended application was published, or, in case the same shall no longer be published, in some other newspaper published in the district.

SCHEDULE C.

Schedule C.

PART I.

Notice and Deposit of Lease by Local Authority.

One month before any lease is submitted to the Board of Trade, notice of the intention to make such lease shall be given by advertisement.

(1.) Every advertisement is to contain—

1. The term of the lease.
2. The rent reserved.
3. A general description of the covenants and conditions contained therein.
4. The place where the same is deposited for public inspection.

(2.) The advertisement is to be inserted once at least in each of two successive weeks in some one and the same newspaper published in the district affected by the proposed lease; or if there be no such newspaper, then in some one and the same newspaper published in the county in which such district, or some part thereof, is situate; or if there be none, then in some one and the same newspaper published in some adjoining or neighbouring county.

(3.) The advertisement is also, in every case, to be inserted once at least in the London or Edinburgh Gazette, accordingly as the district to which it relates is situate in England or Scotland.

Deposit.

A copy of such lease shall be deposited for public inspection during office hours at the office of the local authority or at some other convenient place within the district to which such lease relates.

PART II.

Notice of Bye-laws.

Within one month after the making of any bye-law notice of the making of the same, and a copy of such bye-law, shall be published by advertisement in manner following:

(1.) The advertisement is to be inserted once at least in each of two successive weeks in some one and the same newspaper published in the district affected by such bye-law; or if there be no such newspaper, then in some one and the same newspaper published in the county in which such district, or some part thereof, is situate; or if there be none, then in some one and the same newspaper published in some adjoining or neighbouring county.

(2.) The advertisement is also, in every case, to be inserted once at least in the London or Edinburgh Gazette, accordingly as the district to which it relates is situate in England or Scotland.

LOCOMOTIVE ACT, 1861.

24 & 25 VICT. c. 70.

An Act for regulating the use of Locomotives on Turnpike and other Roads; and the Tolls to be levied on such Locomotives and on the Waggon and Carriages drawn or propelled by the same. [1st August, 1861.]

Section 1.

Whereas the use of locomotives is likely to become common on turnpike and other roads: And whereas the General Turnpike and Highway Acts and many of the local turnpike Acts do not contain any provisions for regulating the use of locomotives on the roads to which they respectively apply, nor do they authorise the levying of tolls upon or in respect of any locomotive using the roads, or upon or in respect of any waggon or carriage drawn by locomotives: And whereas under and by virtue of certain local turnpike Acts tolls may be levied upon locomotives and other engines drawing or propelling waggons or carriages, or upon the waggons or carriages so drawn or propelled, which are or may be prohibitory of the use of locomotives on the roads to which the said Acts respectively apply: And whereas the weighing clauses in the General Turnpike Acts have not been framed in anticipation of traffic by locomotives, and are in many respects ill adapted to the profitable carrying of goods, or to the levying of just and adequate tolls upon waggons or carriages drawn by locomotives: And whereas it is desirable that the use of locomotives on turnpike and other roads should be regulated by uniform general provisions, and that tolls should be levied upon such locomotives and the waggons or carriages drawn by such locomotives upon turnpike roads: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Scale of tolls to be taken after passing of this Act.

1. From and after the passing of this Act all trustees, corporations, commissioners, and other persons acting under and in execution of any existing general or local turnpike road Act or public bridge Act shall demand and take tolls not exceeding the tolls following; (that is to say,)

For every locomotive propelled by any power containing within itself the machinery for its own propulsion, such a toll for every two tons weight or fractional part of every two tons weight that such locomotive shall weigh as shall be equal to the toll or tolls by their respective Acts made payable for every horse drawing any waggon, wain, cart, or carriage with wheels of a width similar to those of such locomotive: or in the case of a toll by any such Act made payable being charged on the horse or horses drawing any such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, without reference to the width of the wheels thereof, then such a toll for every two tons or fractional part thereof that such locomotive shall weigh as shall be equal to one horse drawing such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage; which tolls respectively shall be payable so often as tolls made payable as aforesaid for such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage shall be payable at the same gate: Provided always, that if the wheels of such locomotive shall rest upon any shoe or other bearing the surface of which shall bear upon the ground so as to prevent the wheels coming in contact therewith, such and the same tolls only shall be demanded and payable as if the wheels thereof were of a width similar to such shoe or bearing:

For every waggon, wain, cart, or carriage drawn or propelled by any locomotive, for each pair of wheels thereof such a toll as shall not exceed the toll by their respective Acts made payable for two horses drawing any waggon, wain, cart, or carriage with wheels of a similar width, and for every additional wheel thereof one half toll in addition to the said toll; or in the case of a toll by any such Act made payable being charged on the horse or horses drawing any such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, without reference to the width of the wheels thereof, then such a toll for each wheel as shall be equal to one horse drawing such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage; which said toll or tolls shall be payable so often as the toll made payable as aforesaid for such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage drawn by horses shall be payable at the same gate:

Secs. 1—6.

Provided always, that in every case where the wheels of any waggon, wain, cart, or carriage shall not all be cylindrical, as described in the Act of the third year of George the Fourth, chapter one hundred and twenty-six, section nine, the toll payable in respect thereof shall be one half more.

2. All clauses and provisions in any local or general turnpike road Act or public bridge Act authorising tolls to be demanded or taken upon locomotives or carriages drawn by steam or any other than animal power, different to the tolls herein provided for, shall, so far as the same relate to such tolls, be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided always, that this enactment shall not be deemed or construed to extend to any tolls authorised to be taken in respect of any private roads or private bridges, or to the roads comprised in "The Commercial Roads Continuation Act, 1849."

Repeal of former enactments as to tolls to be taken for locomotives.

3. [As to the size and weight of locomotives⁽¹⁾.]

4. It shall not be lawful for any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage so drawn or propelled as aforesaid, not having cylindrical wheels, to carry any greater weight than is permitted in such waggon, wain, cart, or carriage by the General Turnpike Act; and it shall not be lawful for any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage having cylindrical wheels to carry over or above the weight of the waggon, wain, cart, or carriage, any greater weight than one ton and a half for each pair of wheels, unless the fellies, tires, or shoes are four inches or more in breadth; nor to carry a greater weight than two tons for each pair of wheels, unless the fellies, tires, or shoes are six inches or more in breadth; nor to carry a greater weight than three tons for each pair of wheels, unless the fellies, tires, or shoes are eight inches or more in breadth; and for every single wheel one half of that permitted to be carried on a pair of wheels; nor in any case to carry a greater weight than four tons on each pair of wheels, or two tons on each wheel; but if such waggons, wains, or other carriages are built and constructed with springs upon each axle, then they shall be allowed to carry one-sixth more weight in addition to the above-mentioned weights upon each pair of wheels: Provided always, that the regulation of weight herein mentioned and provided shall not extend to any waggon, wain, cart, or other carriage carrying only one tree, or one log of timber, or one block of stone, or one cable of rope, or one block, plate, roll, or vessel of iron or other metal, or compounded of any two or more metals cast, wrought, or united in one piece.

As to the weight on each pair of wheels.

5. [Power to Secretary of State to prohibit the use of locomotives destructive to highways or dangerous to the public⁽²⁾.]

6. It shall not be lawful for the owner or driver of any locomotive to drive it over any suspension bridge nor over any bridge on which a conspicuous notice has been placed, by the authority of the surveyor or persons liable to the repair of the bridge, that the bridge is insufficient to carry weights beyond the ordinary traffic of the district, without previously obtaining the consent of the surveyor of the road or bridgmaster under whose charge such bridge shall be for the time being, or of the persons liable to the repair of such bridge; and in case such owner of the locomotive and surveyor of the road or bridge, or bridgmaster, shall differ in opinion as to the sufficiency of any

Use of locomotives restricted over suspension and other bridges.

⁽¹⁾ Repealed by the Highways and Locomotives Amendment Act, 1878, 41 & 42 Vict. c. 77, s. 23, post, which enacts other provisions in lieu thereof.

⁽²⁾ This section and all orders made in pursuance of it are repealed by the Locomotives Act, 1865, 28 & 29 Vict. c. 83, s. 2, post.

Secs. 6—12. bridge to sustain the transit of the locomotive, then the question shall be determined by an officer to be appointed, on the application of either party, by one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, whose certificate of sufficiency of such bridge shall entitle the owner of the locomotive to take the same over such bridge.

Damage caused by locomotives to bridges to be made good by owners.

7. Where any turnpike or other roads, upon which locomotives are or hereafter may be used, pass or are or shall be carried over or across any stream or watercourse, navigable river, canal, or railway, by means of any bridge or arch (whether stationary or moveable), and such bridge or arch, or any of the walls, buttresses, or supports thereof, shall be damaged by reason of any locomotive or any waggon or carriage drawn or propelled by or together with a locomotive passing over the same or coming into contact therewith, none of the proprietors, undertakers, directors, conservators, trustees, commissioners, or other persons interested in or having the charge of such navigable river, canal, or railway, or the tolls thereof, or of such bridge or arch, shall be liable to repair or make good any damage so to be occasioned, or to make compensation to any person for any obstruction, interruption, or delay which may arise therefrom to the use of such bridge or arch, navigable river, canal, or railway; but every such damage shall be forthwith repaired to the satisfaction of the proprietors, undertakers, directors, conservators, trustees, commissioners, or other persons as aforesaid, respectively interested in or having the charge of such river, canal, or railway, or the tolls thereof, or of such bridge or arch, by and at the expense of the owner or owners or the person or persons having the charge of such locomotive at the time of the happening of such damage; and all such owner and owners, person and persons having the charge of such locomotive as aforesaid, shall also be liable, both jointly and severally, to reimburse and make good as well to the proprietors, undertakers, directors, conservators, trustees, commissioners, and other persons interested in or having the charge of any such navigable river, canal, or railway, or the tolls thereof, or of such bridge or arch, as to all persons navigating on or using, or who but for such obstruction, interruption, or delay would have navigated on or used the same, all losses and expenses which they or any of them may sustain or incur by reason of any such obstruction, interruption, or delay, such losses and expenses to be recoverable by action at law, which action, in case of such proprietors, undertakers, directors, conservators, trustees, commissioners, or other persons so interested as aforesaid, may be brought in the name or names of their agent or agents, clerk or clerks for the time being, or by any person or persons legally authorised to act in their behalf.

Locomotives propelled by steam to consume their own smoke.

8. Every locomotive propelled by steam or any other than animal power to be used on any turnpike road or public highway shall be constructed on the principle of consuming and so as to consume its own smoke; and any person using any locomotive not so consuming its own smoke shall, on conviction thereof before any two of Her Majesty's justices of the peace, forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds for every day during which such locomotive shall be used on any such turnpike road or public highway.

9. [As to the number of persons in charge of locomotive and waggons. Lights to be used at night (1).]

Exemption from tolls of waggons, &c. now exempt under any general or local act.

10. All waggons, wains, carts, or carriages, as hereinbefore described, drawn by any locomotive, and loaded with any materials such as are now exempt from toll under the provisions of any general or local Act, shall be entitled to the same exemption as they would be if drawn by animal power.

11. [Limit of speed of locomotives on public highways, &c. (2).]

Provisions of general acts relating to turnpike roads to apply to locomotives.

12. All the clauses and provisions of any general or local Acts relating to turnpike roads or highways shall, so far as the same are not expressly altered or repealed by or are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, apply to all locomotives propelled by other than animal power, and to all waggons, wains, carts, and carriages of any other description drawn by such locomotive, and to the owners, drivers, and attendants thereof, in like manner as if drawn by animal power: Provided always, that the weight of every locomotive, and the name of the owner or owners thereof, shall be conspicuously and legibly affixed thereon; and any owner not having affixed such weight and such name, Secs. 12-15. shall, upon conviction thereof before two justices, forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds; and any owner who shall fraudulently affix thereon any incorrect weight shall, upon conviction thereof, forfeit any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

(1) Repealed by the Locomotives Act, 1865, 28 & 29 Vict. c. 83, s. 2, post. See now section 3 of that Act, post.

(2) Repealed by the Locomotives Act, 1865, 28 & 29 Vict. c. 83, s. 2, post. See now section 4 of that Act, post.

13. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorise any person to use upon a highway a locomotive engine which shall be so constructed or used as to cause a public or private nuisance; and every such person so using such engine shall, notwithstanding this Act, be liable to an indictment or action, as the case may be, for such use, where, but for the passing of this Act, such indictment or action could be maintained. Right of action in case of nuisance.

14. This Act may be cited as the "Locomotive Act, 1861."

15. This Act shall extend to Great Britain.

Short title.
Extent of Act.

LOCOMOTIVES ACT, 1865.

28 & 29 VICT. c. 83.

An Act for further regulating the Use of Locomotives on Turnpike and other Roads for Agricultural and other Purposes. [5th July, 1865.]

Secs. 1—3.

24 & 25 Vict.
c. 70.

Commencement of Act.

Certain sections of 24 & 25 Vict.
c. 70
repealed.
Rules for the manner of working locomotives on turnpike roads and highways as herein stated.

Penalty on non-compli-

Whereas by the "Locomotives Act, 1861," certain provision was made for regulating the use of locomotives on turnpike and other roads, and it is expedient that further and fuller provision should be made for that object: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act shall not come into operation till the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, which day is hereinafter referred to as the commencement of the Act, and shall cease and determine on the first of September one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

2. After the commencement of this Act, and so long as the same shall continue in force, the fifth, ninth, eleventh, and fifteenth sections of the said recited Act, and all orders made in pursuance of the said fifth section, are hereby repealed.

3. Every locomotive propelled by steam or any other than animal power on any turnpike road or public highway shall be worked according to the following rules and regulations; viz.

Firstly, at least three persons shall be employed to drive or conduct such locomotive, and if more than two waggons or carriages be attached thereto, an additional person shall be employed, who shall take charge of such waggons or carriages:

Secondly, one of such persons, while any locomotive is in motion, shall precede such locomotive on foot by not less than sixty yards, and shall carry a red flag constantly displayed, and shall warn the riders and drivers of horses of the approach of such locomotives, and shall signal the driver thereof when it shall be necessary to stop, and shall assist horses, and carriages drawn by horses, passing the same:

Thirdly, the drivers of such locomotives shall give as much space as possible for the passing of other traffic:

Fourthly, the whistle of such locomotive shall not be sounded for any purpose whatever; nor shall the cylinder taps be opened within sight of any person riding, driving, leading, or in charge of a horse upon the road; nor shall the steam be allowed to attain a pressure such as to exceed the limit fixed by the safety valve, so that no steam shall blow off when the locomotive is upon the road:

Fifthly, every such locomotive shall be instantly stopped, on the person preceding the same, or any other person with a horse, or carriage drawn by a horse, putting up his hand as a signal to require such locomotive to be stopped:

Sixthly, any person in charge of any such locomotive shall provide two efficient lights to be affixed conspicuously, one at each side on the front of the same, between the hours of one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise.

In the event of a non-compliance with any of the provisions of this section, the owner of the locomotive shall, on summary conviction thereof before two justices, be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds ; but it shall be lawful for such owner, on proving that he has incurred such penalty by reason of the negligence or wilful default of any person in charge of or in attendance on such locomotive, to recover summarily from such person the whole or any part of the penalty he may have incurred as owner.

Secs. 3—8.

ance with rules.

4. Subject and without prejudice to the regulations hereinafter authorised to be made by local authorities, it shall not be lawful to drive any such locomotive along any turnpike road or public highway at a greater speed than four miles an hour, or through any city, town, or village at a greater speed than two miles an hour ; and any person acting contrary thereto shall for every such offence, on summary conviction thereof, forfeit any sum not exceeding ten pounds.

Limit of speed of locomotives on turnpike roads and highways.

5. Subject to the provisions of this Act, any locomotive which shall not exceed nine feet in width or fourteen tons in weight may be used on any turnpike road or public highway, provided that the wheels of such locomotive be constructed according to the requirements of the said recited Act ; and no locomotive exceeding nine feet in width or fourteen tons in weight shall be used on any such road, except subject to the provisions contained in the third section of the said Act as to the use of locomotives exceeding seven feet in width and twelve tons in weight.

Size and weight of locomotives which may be used.

6. Any provision in any Act contained prohibiting, under penalty, the erection and use of any steam engine, gin, or other like machine, or any machinery attached thereto, within the distance of twenty-five yards from any part of any turnpike road, highway, carriageway, or cartway, unless such steam engine, gin, or other like engine or machinery be within some house or other building, or behind some wall, fence, or screen sufficient to conceal or screen the same from such turnpike road, highway, carriageway, or cartway, shall not extend to prohibit the use of any locomotive steam engine for the purpose of ploughing within such distance of any such turnpike road, highway, carriageway, or cartway, provided a person shall be stationed in the road, and employed to signal the driver when it shall be necessary to stop, and to assist horses, and carriages drawn by horses, passing the same, and provided the driver of the engine do stop in proper time.

Restrictions as to the use of steam engines within 25 yards of roads not to apply to locomotives used for ploughing purposes.

7. The name and residence of the owner of every locomotive shall be affixed thereto in a conspicuous manner. If it is not so affixed the owner shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

Name and residence of owner to be affixed to locomotives.

8. The following local authorities, (that is to say,)

- (1.) In the City of London and liberties thereof, the Court of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen ;
- (2.) In the metropolis, as defined by the Act of the session of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty (except the City of London), the Metropolitan Board of Works ;
- (3.) In any borough in England the population of which shall have exceeded five thousand at the last census, the council of the borough ;
- (4.) In any borough or town in England the population of which shall have exceeded five thousand at the last census, not within the jurisdiction of a council, but within the jurisdiction of any trustees or improvement commissioners appointed under any public or private Act of Parliament, the trustees or commissioners ;
- (5.) In any borough or town in Scotland the population of which shall have exceeded ten thousand at the last census, within the jurisdiction of a town council, the town council, and in any such town in Scotland not within the jurisdiction of a town council, but subject to the jurisdiction of police commissioners, or of trustees exercising under any public or private Act of Parliament the functions of police commissioners, the police commissioners, or, where there are no police commissioners, then the trustees,—

Power to local authorities to make orders, as to hours, &c. locomotives may pass through cities, &c.

may make orders as to the hours during which (and as to the speed, not in any case to exceed two miles an hour, at which,) locomotives are to pass through the city or place subject to their respective jurisdictions ; and any person in charge of a locomotive acting contrary to such regulations shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds :

Penalty on acting contrary to such orders.

Every order made in pursuance of this section shall be reduced into writing, and shall have affixed thereto the common seal of the local authority, where they have a common

Secs. 8—13. seal, and shall be signed by the members of the local authority, or any two of them, where they have not a common seal :

A copy of such order shall be affixed to some public place within the jurisdiction of the local authority, and advertised in some newspaper circulating within the jurisdiction of the local authority, and the production of a newspaper containing such advertisement shall be evidence of the copy having been advertised in pursuance of this Act.

9. [In Ireland the county surveyor to be deemed the conservator of the roads in his county, and proceedings for damage to be taken in his name.]

10. [How penalties to be recovered and applied in Ireland.]

Sect. 41 of
25 & 26 Vict.
c. 93 not to be affected.

11. Nothing in this Act contained shall repeal, alter, or in any way affect the provisions of the forty-first section of "The Thames Embankment Act, 1862."

Saving as to actions at law.

12. Nothing in this Act contained shall authorise any person to use a locomotive which may be so constructed or used as to be a public nuisance at common law, and nothing herein contained shall affect the right of any person to recover damages in respect of any injury he may have sustained in consequence of the use of a locomotive.

Short title.

13. This Act may be cited as "The Locomotives Act, 1865 ;" and "The Locomotives Act, 1861," and this Act, shall be construed together as one Act.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878.

41 VICT. c. 16.

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to Factories and Workshops ⁽¹⁾.

[27th May, 1878].

Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Secs. 1-4.

Short title.

Commencement of Act.

Preliminary.

1. This Act may be cited as the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878.

2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, which day is in this Act referred to as the commencement of this Act: [Provided that at any time after the passing of this Act, any appointment, regulation, or order may be made, any notice issued, form prescribed, and act done which appears to a Secretary of State necessary or proper to be made, issued, prescribed, or done for the purpose of bringing this Act into operation at the commencement thereof ⁽²⁾].

PART I.

GENERAL LAW RELATING TO FACTORIES AND WORKSHOPS.

(1.) Sanitary Provisions.

3. A factory and a workshop shall be kept in a cleanly state and free from effluvia arising from any drain, privy, or other nuisance.

Sanitary condition of factory and workshop.

A factory or workshop shall not be so overcrowded while work is carried on therein as to be injurious to the health of the persons employed therein, and shall be ventilated in such a manner as to render harmless, so far as is practicable, all the gases, vapours, dust, or other impurities generated in the course of the manufacturing process or handicraft carried on therein that may be injurious to health.

A factory or workshop in which there is a contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with this Act ⁽³⁾.

4. Where it appears to an inspector under this Act that any act, neglect, or default in

Notice by inspector to

⁽¹⁾ By the Public Health Act, 1875, sections 10, 11, ante, pp. 50, 51, local authorities under that Act have, &c., all powers, &c., under the Bakehouse Regulation Act, 1863. But this latter Act is now repealed by the present Act, which itself makes provision as to bakehouses. See note ⁽¹⁾, ante, p. 47.

⁽²⁾ The portion within brackets is repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

⁽³⁾ See further, the Public Health Act, 1875, s. 91 ⁽⁶⁾, ante, p. 90. As respects every retail bakehouse, the provisions of this section are to be enforced by the local authority of the district. See the Factory and Workshop Act, 1883, 46 & 47 Vict. c. 53, s. 17, post.

Secs. 4—34

sanitary authority of sanitary defects in factory or workshop.

relation to any drain, watercloset, earthcloset, privy, ashpit, water-supply, nuisance, or other matter in a factory or workshop is punishable or remediable under the law relating to public health, but not under this Act, that inspector shall give notice in writing of such act, neglect, or default to the sanitary authority in whose district the factory or workshop is situate, and it shall be the duty of the sanitary authority to make such inquiry into the subject of the notice, and take such action thereon, as to that authority may seem proper for the purpose of enforcing the law ⁽¹⁾.

An inspector under this Act may, for the purposes of this section, take with him into a factory or a workshop a medical officer of health, inspector of nuisances, or other officer of the sanitary authority.

(2.) Safety.

5.—9. [Fencing of certain machinery, &c.]

(3.) Employment and Meal Hours.

10.—21. [Period of employment of children, young persons, and women, &c.]

(4.) Holidays.

22. [Days to be observed as holidays, and half holidays to be allowed in factories and workshops.]

(5.) Education of Children.

23.—26. [Attendance at school of children employed in a factory or workshop, &c.]

(6.) Certificates of Fitness for Employment.

27.—30. [Certificate of fitness for employment of children and young persons under sixteen in factories, &c.]

(7.) Accidents.

31, 32. [Notice of accidents causing death or bodily injury, &c.]

PART II.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO PARTICULAR CLASSES OF FACTORIES AND WORKSHOPS.

(1.) Special Provisions for Health in certain Factories and Workshops.

Limewashing
and washing of the interior of factories and workshops.

33. For the purpose of securing the observance of the requirements of this Act as to cleanliness in every factory or workshop, all the inside walls of the rooms of a factory or workshop, and all the ceilings or tops of such rooms (whether such walls, ceilings, or tops be plastered or not), and all the passages and staircases of a factory or workshop, if they have not been painted with oil or varnished once at least within seven years, shall be limewashed once at least within every fourteen months, to date from the period when last limewashed; and if they have been so painted or varnished shall be washed with hot water and soap once at least within every fourteen months, to date from the period when last washed.

A factory or workshop in which there is a contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with this Act.

Where it appears to a Secretary of State that in any class of factories or workshops, or parts thereof, the regulations in this section are not required for the purpose of securing therein the observance of the requirements of this Act as to cleanliness, or are by reason of special circumstances inapplicable, he may, if he thinks fit, by order made under this part of this Act, grant to such class of factories or workshops, or parts thereof, a special exception that the regulations in this section shall not apply thereto ⁽²⁾.

Limewashing,
painting, and

34. Where a bakehouse is situate in any city, town, or place containing, according to the last published census for the time being, a population of more than five thousand persons, all the inside walls of the rooms of such bakehouse, and all the ceilings or tops of such rooms (whether such walls, ceilings, or tops be plastered or not), and all the passages and staircases of such bakehouse, shall either be painted with oil or varnished or be limewashed, or be partly painted or varnished and partly limewashed; where painted with oil or varnished there shall be three coats of paint or varnish, and the paint or varnish shall be renewed once at least in every seven years, and shall be washed with hot water and soap once at least in every six months; where limewashed the limewashing shall be renewed once at least in every six months.

(1) See the Public Health Act, 1875, s. 38, ante, p. 63.

(2) See further the Factory and Workshop Act, 1883, 46 & 47 Vict. c. 53, ss. 15—17, post. The provisions of the above sections, 33, 34, and 35, are to be enforced by the local authority of the district: Factory and Workshop Act, 1883, s. 17, post.

Secs. 34-61.

washing of the interior of bake-houses (1).

A bakehouse in which there is any contravention of this section shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with this Act (2).

35. Where a bakehouse is situate in any city, town, or place containing, according to the last published census for the time being, a population of more than five thousand persons, a place on the same level with the bakehouse, and forming part of the same building, shall not be used as a sleeping place, unless it is constructed as follows; that is to say,

Provision as to sleeping places near bakehouses (1).

unless it is effectually separated from the bakehouse by a partition extending from the floor to the ceiling; and unless there be an external glazed window of at least nine superficial feet in area, of which at the least four and a half superficial feet are made to open for ventilation.

Any person who lets or occupies or continues to let or knowingly suffers to be occupied any place contrary to this section shall be liable to a fine not exceeding, for the first offence, twenty shillings, and for every subsequent offence five pounds (2).

36. [Provision as to ventilation by fan in factories and workshops.]

37. [Protection of workers in wet-spinning.]

(2.) Special Restrictions as to Employment, Meals, and Certificates of Fitness.

38.—41. [Prohibition of employment of children and young persons in certain factories or workshops, &c.]

(3.) Special Exceptions relaxing General Law in certain Factories and Workshops.

42.—60. (a.) Period of Employment; (b.) Meal hours; (c.) Overtime; (d.) Nightwork.

(4.) Special Exceptions for Domestic and certain other Factories and Workshops.

61. The provisions of this Act which relate:

- (1.) To the cleanliness (including limewashing, painting, varnishing, and washing) or to the freedom from effluvia, or to the overcrowding, or ventilation of a factory or workshop; or
- (2.) To all children, young persons, and women employed in a factory or workshop having the times allowed for meals at the same hour of the day, or during any part of the times allowed for meals in a factory or workshop being employed in the factory or workshop or being allowed to remain in any room; or
- (3.) To the affixing of any notice or abstract in a factory or workshop; or specifying any matter in the notice so affixed; or
- (4.) To the allowance of any holidays to a child, young person, or woman; or
- (5.) To the sending notice of accidents;

Exception of domestic factories and workshops and certain other workshops from certain provisions of the Act.

shall not apply—

- (a.) Where persons are employed at home, that is to say, to a private house, room, or place which, though used as a dwelling, is by reason of the work carried on there a factory or workshop within the meaning of this Act, and in which neither steam, water, nor other mechanical power is used, and in which the only persons employed are members of the same family dwelling there; or
- (b.) To a workshop which is conducted on the system of not employing children or young persons therein, and the occupier of which has served on an inspector notice of his intention to conduct his workshop on that system.

And the provisions of this Act with respect to certificates of fitness for employment shall apply to any such private house, room, or place as aforesaid, which by reason of the

(1) See note (1), ante, p. 1127.

(2) See note (2) to section 33, ante.

Secs. 61-66. nature of the work carried on there is a factory, as if the same were a workshop within the meaning of this Act, and not a factory.

Where the occupier of a workshop has served on an inspector notice of his intention to conduct that workshop on the system of not employing children or young persons therein, the workshop shall be deemed for all the purposes of this Act to be conducted on the said system until the occupier changes it, and no change shall be made until the occupier has served on the inspector notice of his intention to change the system, and until the change a child or young person employed in the workshop shall be deemed to be employed contrary to the provisions of this Act. A change in the said system shall not be made oftener than once a quarter, unless for special cause allowed in writing by an inspector.

Nothing in this section shall exempt a bakehouse from the provisions of this Act with respect to cleanliness (including limewashing, painting, varnishing, and washing), or to freedom from effluvia.

62. [Exception for certain descriptions of flax scutch mills from certain provisions of Act.]

(5.) Supplemental as to Special Provisions.

Requirement of sanitary provisions as condition of special exceptions.

63. Where it appears to a Secretary of State that the adoption of any special means or provision for the cleanliness or ventilation of a factory or workshop is required for the protection of the health of any child, young person, or woman employed, in pursuance of an exception under this part of this Act, either for a longer period than is otherwise allowed by this Act, or at night, he may by order made under this part of this Act direct that the adoption of such means or provision shall be a condition of such employment; and if it appears to a Secretary of State that the adoption of any such means or provision is no longer required, or is, having regard to all the circumstances, inexpedient, he may, by order made under this part of this Act, rescind the order directing such adoption without prejudice to the subsequent making of another order.

Power to rescind order granting or extending exception.

64. Where an exception has been granted or extended under this part of this Act by an order of a Secretary of State, and it appears to a Secretary of State that such exception is injurious to the health of the children, young persons, or women employed in, or is no longer necessary for the carrying on of the business in, the class of factories or workshops or parts thereof to which the said exception was so granted or extended, he may by an order made under this part of this Act rescind the grant or extension, without prejudice to the subsequent making of another order.

Provisions as to order of Secretary of State.

65. Where a Secretary of State has power to make an order under this part of this Act, the following provisions shall apply to that order:

- (1.) The order shall be under the hand of the Secretary of State and shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall come into operation at the date of such publication in the London Gazette, or at any later date mentioned in the order:
- (2.) The order may be temporary or permanent, conditional or unconditional, and whether extending a prohibition or exception, granting an exception, directing the adoption of any means or provisions, or rescinding a previous order, or effecting any other thing, may do so either wholly or partly:
- (3.) The order shall be laid as soon as may be before both Houses of Parliament, and if either House of Parliament, within the next forty days after the same has been so laid before such House, resolve that such order ought to be annulled, the same shall after the date of such resolution be of no effect, without prejudice to the validity of anything done in the meantime under such order or to the making of any new order:
- (4.) The order, while it is in force, shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, apply as if it formed part of the enactment which provides for the extension or grant or otherwise for making the order.

Provisions as to occupier availing himself of special exceptions, and registry of work under them.

66. An occupier of a factory or workshop, not less than seven days before he avails himself of any special exception under this part of this Act, shall serve on an inspector, and (except in the case of a factory or workshop to which the provisions of this Act with respect to the affixing of notices do not apply) affix in his factory or workshop notice of his intention so to avail himself, and whilst he avails himself of the exception shall keep the notice so affixed.

Before the service of such notice on the inspector the special exception shall not be deemed to apply to the factory or workshop, and after the service of such notice on the inspector it shall not be competent in any proceeding under this Act for the occupier to prove that such special exception does not apply to his factory or workshop, unless he has previously served on an inspector notice that he no longer intends to avail himself of such special exception. Secs. 66, 67.

The notice so served and affixed shall specify the hours for the beginning and end of the period of employment, and the times to be allowed for meals to every child, young person, and woman where they differ from the ordinary hours or times.

An occupier of a factory or workshop shall enter in the prescribed register and report to an inspector, the prescribed particulars respecting the employment of a child, young person, or woman in pursuance of an exception, but such entry and report need not be made in the case of a factory or workshop to which the provisions of this Act with respect to the affixing of notices do not apply, except so far as may be from time to time prescribed by a Secretary of State.

Where the occupier of a factory or workshop avails himself of an exception under this part of this Act, and a condition for availing himself of such exception (whether specified in this part of this Act, or in an order of a Secretary of State made under this part of this Act) is not observed in that factory or workshop, then

- (1.) If such condition relates to the cleanliness, ventilation, or overcrowding of the factory or workshop, the factory or workshop shall be deemed not to be kept in conformity with this Act; and
- (2.) In any other case a child, young person, or woman employed in the factory or workshop, in alleged pursuance of the said exception, shall be deemed to be employed contrary to the provisions of this Act.

PART III.

ADMINISTRATION, PENALTIES, AND LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.

(1.) Inspection.

67. A Secretary of State from time to time, with the approval of the Treasury as to numbers and salaries, may appoint such inspectors (under whatever title he may from time to time fix) and such clerks and servants as he may think necessary for the execution of this Act, and may assign to them their duties and award them their salaries, and may constitute a principal inspector with an office in London, and may regulate the cases and manner in which the inspectors, or any of them, are to execute and perform the powers and duties of inspectors under this Act, and may remove such inspectors, clerks, and servants. Appointment, payment, &c.
of inspectors of factories, and clerks and servants.

The salaries of the inspectors, clerks, and servants, and the expenses incurred by them or by a Secretary of State in the execution of this Act, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Notice of the appointment of every such inspector shall be published in the London Gazette.

A person who is the occupier of a factory or workshop, or is directly or indirectly interested therein or in any process or business carried on therein, or in a patent connected therewith, or is employed in or about a factory or workshop, shall not act as an inspector under this Act.

An inspector under this Act shall not be liable to serve in any parochial or municipal office.

Such annual report of the proceedings of the inspectors as the Secretary of State from time to time directs shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

A reference in this Act to an inspector refers, unless it is otherwise expressed, to an inspector appointed in pursuance of this section, and a notice or other document required by this Act to be sent to an inspector shall be sent to such inspector as a Secretary of State from time to time directs, by declaration, published in the London Gazette or otherwise as he thinks expedient for making the same known to all persons interested.

Secs. 68, 69. 68. An inspector under this Act shall for the purpose of the execution of this Act have power to do all or any of the following things; namely,

Powers of inspectors.

- (1.) To enter, inspect, and examine at all reasonable times by day and night a factory and a workshop and every part thereof when he has reasonable cause to believe that any person is employed therein, and to enter by day any place which he has reasonable cause to believe to be a factory or workshop; and
- (2.) To take with him in either case a constable into a factory in which he has reasonable cause to apprehend any serious obstruction in the execution of his duty; and
- (3.) To require the production of the registers, certificates, notices, and documents kept in pursuance of this Act, and to inspect, examine, and copy the same; and
- (4.) To make such examination and inquiry as may be necessary to ascertain whether the enactments for the time being in force relating to public health and the enactments of this Act are complied with, so far as respects the factory or workshop and the persons employed therein; and
- (5.) To enter any school in which he has reasonable cause to believe that children employed in a factory or workshop are for the time being educated; and
- (6.) To examine either alone or in the presence of any other person, as he thinks fit, with respect to matters under this Act, every person whom he finds in a factory or workshop, or such a school as aforesaid, or whom he has reasonable cause to believe to be or to have been within the preceding two months employed in a factory or workshop, and to require such person to be so examined and to sign a declaration of the truth of the matters respecting which he is so examined; and
- (7.) To exercise such other powers as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect.

The occupier of every factory and workshop, his agents and servants, shall furnish the means required by an inspector as necessary for an entry, inspection, examination, inquiry, or the exercise of his powers under this Act in relation to such factory and workshop.

Every person who wilfully delays an inspector in the exercise of any power under this section, or who fails to comply with a requisition of an inspector in pursuance of this section, or to produce any certificate or document which he is required by or in pursuance of this Act to produce, or who conceals or prevents a child, young person, or woman from appearing before or being examined by an inspector, or attempts so to conceal or prevent a child, young person, or woman, shall be deemed to obstruct an inspector in the execution of his duties under this Act: Provided always, that no one shall be required under this section to answer any question or to give any evidence tending to criminate himself.

Where an inspector is obstructed in the execution of his duties under this Act, the person obstructing him shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds; and where an inspector is so obstructed in a factory or workshop, the occupier of that factory or workshop shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five, or where the offence is committed at night, twenty pounds; and where an inspector is so obstructed in a factory or workshop within the meaning of section sixteen of this Act, the occupier shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one, or where the offence is committed at night, five pounds.

Restriction on entry of inspector into dwellings.

69. An inspector before entering, in pursuance of the powers conferred by this Act, without the consent of the occupier, any room or place actually used as a dwelling as well as for a factory or workshop, shall, on an affidavit or statutory declaration of facts and reasons, obtain written authority so to do from a Secretary of State, or such warrant as is hereinafter mentioned from a justice of the peace.

The affidavit or statutory declaration above-mentioned may be inspected or produced in evidence in all respects the same as an information on oath before a justice.

A justice of the peace, if satisfied by information on oath that there is reasonable cause to suppose that any enactment of this Act is contravened in any such room or place as aforesaid, may in his discretion grant a warrant under his hand authorising the inspector named therein at any time within the period named therein, but not exceeding one month from the date thereof, to enter, in pursuance of this Act, the room or place named in the warrant, and exercise therein the powers of inspection and examination conferred by this Act, and the fines and provisions of this Act with respect to obstruction of an inspector shall apply accordingly. Secs. 69-74.

70. Every inspector under this Act shall be furnished with the prescribed certificate of his appointment, and on applying for admission to a factory or workshop shall, if required, produce to the occupier the said certificate. Certificates of appointment of inspectors.

Every person who forges or counterfeits any such certificate, or makes use of any forged, counterfeited, or false certificate, or personates the inspector named in any such certificate, or falsely pretends to be an inspector under this Act, shall be liable to be imprisoned for a period not exceeding three months, with or without hard labour.

(2.) Certifying Surgeons.

71. Where there is no certifying surgeon resident within three miles of a factory or workshop, the poor law medical officer shall be for the time being the certifying surgeon under this Act for such factory or workshop. Poor law medical officers to act where no certifying surgeon within three miles.

72. Subject to such regulations as may be from time to time made by a Secretary of State, an inspector may from time to time appoint a sufficient number of duly registered medical practitioners to be certifying surgeons for the purposes of this Act, and may from time to time revoke any such appointment. Appointment of certifying surgeons.

Every appointment and revocation of appointment of a certifying surgeon may be annulled by a Secretary of State upon appeal to him for that purpose.

A surgeon who is the occupier of a factory or workshop, or is directly or indirectly interested therein, or in any process or business carried on therein, or in a patent connected therewith, shall not be a certifying surgeon for that factory or workshop.

A Secretary of State may from time to time make rules for the guidance of certifying surgeons, and for the particulars to be registered respecting their visits, and for the forms of certificates and other documents to be used by them.

73. A certificate of fitness for employment shall not be granted for the purposes of this Act, except upon personal examination of the person named therein. Regulations as to the grant of certificates of fitness.

A certifying surgeon shall not examine a child or young person for the purposes of a certificate of fitness for employment, or sign any such certificate, elsewhere than at the factory or workshop where such child or young person is or is about to be employed, unless the number of children and young persons employed in that factory or workshop are less than five, or unless for some special reason allowed in writing by an inspector.

If a certifying surgeon refuses to grant for any person examined by him a certificate of fitness for employment, he shall when required give in writing and sign the reasons for such refusal.

74. With respect to the fees to be paid to certifying surgeons in respect of the examination of, and grant of certificates of fitness for employment for, children and young persons in factories or workshops, the following provisions shall have effect: Fees of certifying surgeons for examination of children and young persons.

(1.) The occupier may agree with the certifying surgeon as to the amount of such fees:

(2.) In the absence of any such agreement the fees shall be those named in the following scale:—

When the examination is at a factory or workshop not exceeding one mile from the surgeon's residence,	} 2s. 6d. for each visit and 6d. for each person after the first five examined at that visit.
---	---

When the examination is at a factory or workshop more than one mile from the surgeon's residence,	} The above fees and an additional 6d. for each complete half mile over and above the mile.
---	---

When the examination is not at the factory or workshop, but at the residence of the surgeon, or at some place appointed by the surgeon for the purpose, and which place, as well as the day and hour, appointed for the purpose shall be published in the prescribed manner,	} 6d. for each person examined.
--	---------------------------------

Secs. 74-89.

- (3.) The occupier shall pay the fees on the completion of the examination, or if any certificates are granted at the time at which the surgeon signs the certificates or at any other time directed by an inspector:
- (4.) The occupier may deduct the fee or any part thereof, not exceeding in any case threepence, from the wages of the person for whom the certificate was granted:
- (5.) A Secretary of State may from time to time, if he think it expedient, alter any fees fixed by this section.

(3.) Miscellaneous.

75-80. [Notice of factory to be given to inspector, &c.]

(4.) Fines.

Fine for not keeping factory or workshop in conformity with Act.

81. If a factory or workshop is not kept in conformity with this Act, the occupier thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

The court of summary jurisdiction, in addition to or instead of inflicting such fine, may order certain means to be adopted by the occupier, within the time named in the order, for the purpose of bringing his factory or workshop into conformity with this Act; the court may, upon application, enlarge the time so named, but if, after the expiration of the time as originally named or enlarged by subsequent order, the order is not complied with, the occupier shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one pound for every day that such non-compliance continues.

82. [Penal compensation to person injured by want of fence to machinery, &c.]

83. [Fine for employing children, young persons, and women contrary to the Act.]

84. [Fine on parent for allowing child or young person to be employed contrary to the Act, or neglecting to cause child to attend school.]

85. [Forgery of certificates, false entries and declarations.]

Fine on person committing offence for which occupier is liable. Power of occupier to exempt himself from fine on conviction of the actual offender.

86. Where an offence for which the occupier of a factory or workshop is liable under this Act to a fine, has in fact been committed by some agent, servant, workman, or other person, such agent, servant, workman, or other person shall be liable to the same fine as if he were the occupier.

87. Where the occupier of a factory or workshop is charged with an offence against this Act, he shall be entitled upon information duly laid by him to have any other person whom he charges as the actual offender brought before the court at the time appointed for hearing the charge; and if, after the commission of the offence has been proved, the occupier of the factory or workshop proves to the satisfaction of the court that he had used due diligence to enforce the execution of the Act, and that the said other person had committed the offence in question without his knowledge, consent, or connivance, the said other person shall be summarily convicted of such offence, and the occupier shall be exempt from any fine.

When it is made to appear to the satisfaction of an inspector at the time of discovering the offence, that the occupier of the factory or workshop had used all due diligence to enforce the execution of this Act, and also by what person such offence had been committed, and also that it had been committed without the knowledge, consent, or connivance of the occupier and in contravention of his orders, then the inspector shall proceed against the person whom he believes to be the actual offender in the first instance, without first proceeding against the occupier of the factory or workshop.

Restraint on cumulative fines.

88. A person shall not be liable in respect of a repetition of the same kind of offence from day to day to any larger amount of fines than the highest fine fixed by this Act for the offence, except—

- (a.) where the repetition of the offence occurs after an information has been laid for the previous offence; or
- (b.) where the offence is one of employing two or more children, young persons, or women contrary to the provisions of this Act.

(5.) Legal Proceedings.

Prosecution of offences and recovery

89. All offences under this Act shall be prosecuted, and all fines under this Act shall be recovered, on summary conviction before a court of summary jurisdiction in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts.

A summary order may be made for the purposes of this Act by a court of summary jurisdiction in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts. Secs. 89, 90.

All fines imposed in pursuance of this Act shall, save as otherwise expressly provided by this Act, be paid into the Exchequer. and application of fines.

The court of summary jurisdiction, when hearing and determining a case arising under this Act, shall be constituted either of two or more justices of the peace sitting at some court or public place at which justices are for the time being accustomed to assemble for the purpose of holding petty sessions or of some magistrate or officer sitting alone or with others at some court or other place appointed for the public administration of justice, and for the time being empowered by law to do alone any act authorised to be done by more than one justice of the peace.

Where a proceeding is taken before a court of summary jurisdiction with respect to an offence against this Act alleged to be committed in or with reference to a factory or workshop, the occupier of that factory or workshop, and the father, son, or brother of such occupier, shall not be qualified to act as a member of such court.

90. If any person feels aggrieved by a conviction or order made by a court of summary jurisdiction on determining an information or complaint under this Act, he may appeal therefrom; subject, in England, to the conditions and regulations following: Appeal to quarter sessions.

- (1.) The appeal shall be made to the next practicable court of general or quarter sessions [having jurisdiction in the county or place in which the decision of the court was given, holden not less than twenty-one days after the day on which such decision was given; and
- (2.) The appellant shall, within ten days after the day on which the decision of the court was given, serve notice on the other party and on the clerk of the court of summary jurisdiction of his intention to appeal, and of the general grounds of such appeal; and
- (3.) The appellant shall, within three days after such notice is served, enter into a recognizance before a court of summary jurisdiction, with or without a surety or sureties as the court may direct, conditioned to appear at the said sessions and to try such appeal, and to abide the judgment of the court thereon, and to pay such costs as may be awarded by the court, or the appellant may, if the court of summary jurisdiction thinks it expedient, instead of entering into a recognizance give such other security by deposit of money with the clerk of the court of summary jurisdiction or otherwise as the court deem sufficient: and
- (4.) Where the appellant is in custody a court of summary jurisdiction may, if they think fit, on the appellant entering into such recognizance or giving such other security as aforesaid, release him from custody; and
- (5.) The court of appeal may adjourn the hearing of the appeal, and upon the hearing thereof may confirm, reverse, or modify the decision of the court of summary jurisdiction, or remit the matter to the court of summary jurisdiction with the opinion of the court of appeal thereon, or make such other order in the matter as the court thinks just; and
- (6.) The court of appeal may also make such order as to costs to be paid by either party as the court thinks just; and
- (7.) Whenever a decision is reversed by the court of appeal the clerk of the peace shall indorse on the conviction or order appealed against a memorandum that the same has been quashed, and whenever any copy or certificate of such conviction or order is made, a copy of such memorandum shall be added thereto, and shall be sufficient evidence that the conviction or order has been quashed, in every case where such copy or certificate would be sufficient evidence of such conviction or order; and
- (8.) Every notice in writing required by this section to be given by an appellant may be signed by him or by his agent on his behalf, and may be transmitted in a registered letter by the post in the ordinary way, and shall be deemed to have been served at the time when it would be delivered in the ordinary course of post⁽¹⁾.]

⁽¹⁾ The portion of the section between brackets is repealed by Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1884. Proceedings are now regulated by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts.

Secs. 91-93.

Limitation of time and general provisions as to summary
proceedings.

91. The following provisions shall have effect with respect to summary proceedings for offences and fines under this Act:

- (1.) The information shall be laid within two months, or, where the offence is punishable at discretion by imprisonment, or is a breach of the provisions of this Act with respect to holidays, within three months after the commission of the offence:
- [(2.) The description of an offence in the words of this Act, or in similar words, shall be sufficient in law:]
- (3.) Any exception, exemption, proviso, excuse, or qualification, whether it does or not accompany the description of the offence in this Act, may be proved by the defendant, but need not be specified or negatived in the information, and if so specified or negatived, no proof in relation to the matters so specified or negatived shall be required on the part of the informant ⁽¹⁾:]
- (4.) It shall be sufficient to allege that a factory or workshop is a factory or workshop within the meaning of this Act, without more:
- (5.) It shall be sufficient to state the name of the ostensible occupier of the factory or workshop or the title of the firm by which the occupier employing persons in the factory or workshop is usually known:
- (6.) A conviction or order made in any matter arising under this Act, either originally or on appeal, shall not be quashed for want of form, and a conviction or order made by a court of summary jurisdiction against which a person is authorised by this Act to appeal shall not be removed by certiorari or otherwise, either at the instance of the Crown or of any private person, into a superior court, except for the purpose of the hearing and determination of a special case.

Evidence in summary
proceedings.

92. If a person is found in a factory, except at meal times, or while all the machinery of the factory is stopped, or for the sole purpose of bringing food to the persons employed in the factory between the hours of four and five o'clock in the afternoon, such person shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed for the purposes of this Act to have been then employed in the factory:

Provided that yards, playgrounds, and places open to the public view, schoolrooms, waiting rooms, and other rooms belonging to the factory in which no machinery is used or manufacturing process carried on, shall not be taken to be any part of the factory within the meaning of this enactment; and this enactment shall not apply to a factory or workshop to which the provisions of this Act with respect to the affixing of notices do not apply.

Where a child or young person is, in the opinion of the court, apparently of the age alleged by the informant, it shall lie on the defendant to prove that the child or young person is not of that age.

A declaration in writing by a certifying surgeon for the district that he has personally examined a person employed in a factory or workshop in that district, and believes him to be under the age set forth in the declaration, shall be admissible in evidence of the age of that person.

A copy of a conviction for an offence against this Act purporting to be certified under the hand of the clerk of the peace having the custody of such conviction to be a true copy shall be receivable as evidence, and every such clerk of the peace shall, upon the written request of an inspector and payment of a fee of one shilling, deliver to him a copy of the conviction so certified.

PART IV.

DEFINITIONS, SAVINGS, APPLICATION TO SCOTLAND AND IRELAND, AND REPEAL.

(1.) Definitions.

Factories and workshops to which Act applies.

93. The expression "textile factory" in this Act means—any premises wherein or within the close or curtilage of which steam, water, or other mechanical power is used to move or work any machinery employed in preparing manufacturing, or finishing, or in any process incident to the manufacture of, cotton, wool, hair, silk, flax, hemp, jute, tow, china-grass, cocoa-nut fibre, or other like material, either separately or mixed together, or mixed with any other material, or any fabric made thereof: Section 93.

⁽¹⁾ The portion between brackets (viz., sub-sections (2) and (3)) are repealed by Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1884.

Provided that print works, bleaching and dyeing works, lace warehouses, paper mills, flax scutch mills, rope works, and hat works shall not be deemed to be textile factories. The expression "non-textile factory" in this Act means—

- (1.) any works, warehouses, furnaces, mills, foundries, or places named in Part One of the Fourth Schedule to this Act,
- (2.) also any premises or places named in Part Two of the said schedule wherein, or within the close or curtilage or precincts of which, steam, water, or other mechanical power is used in aid of the manufacturing process carried on there,
- (3.) also any premises wherein, or within the close or curtilage or precincts of which, any manual labour is exercised by way of trade or for purposes of gain in or incidental to the following purposes, or any of them; that is to say,
 - (a.) in or incidental to the making of any article or of part of any article, or
 - (b.) in or incidental to the altering, repairing, ornamenting, or finishing of any article, or
 - (c.) in or incidental to the adapting for sale of any article, and wherein, or within the close or curtilage or precincts of which, steam, water, or other mechanical power is used in aid of the manufacturing process carried on there.

The expression "factory" in this Act means textile factory and non-textile factory, or either of such descriptions of factories.

The expression "workshop" in this Act means—

- (1.) any premises or places named in Part Two of the Fourth Schedule to this Act, which are not a factory within the meaning of this Act,
- (2.) also any premises, room, or place not being a factory within the meaning of this Act, in which premises, room, or place, or within the close or curtilage or precincts of which premises, any manual labour is exercised by way of trade or for purposes of gain in or incidental to the following purposes or any of them; that is to say,
 - (a.) in or incidental to the making of any article or of part of any article, or,
 - (b.) in or incidental to the altering, repairing, ornamenting, or finishing of any article, or
 - (c.) in or incidental to the adapting for sale of any article, and to which or over which premises, room, or place the employer of the persons working therein has the right of access or control.

A part of a factory or workshop may for the purposes of this Act be taken to be a separate factory or workshop; and a place solely used as a dwelling shall not be deemed to form part of the factory or workshop for the purposes of this Act.

Where a place situate within the close, curtilage, or precincts forming a factory or workshop is solely used for some purpose other than the manufacturing process or handicraft carried on in the factory or workshop, such place shall not be deemed to form part of that factory or workshop for the purposes of this Act, but shall, if otherwise it would be a factory or workshop, be deemed to be a separate factory or workshop, and be regulated accordingly.

Any premises or place shall not be excluded from the definition of a factory or workshop by reason only that such premises or place are or is in the open air.

This Act shall not apply to such workshops, other than bakelouses, as are conducted on the system of not employing any child, young person, or woman therein, but save as aforesaid applies to all factories and workshops as before defined, inclusive of factories and workshops belonging to the Crown; provided that in case of any public emergency a Secretary of State may exempt a factory or workshop belonging to the Crown from this Act to the extent and during the period named by him.

The exercise by any child or young person in any recognised efficient school during a portion of the school hours of any manual labour for the purpose of instructing such child or young person in any art or handicraft, shall not be deemed to be an exercise of manual labour for the purpose of gain within the meaning of this Act.

Secs. 94–98.

General definitions.

“Child.”

“Young person.”

“Woman.”

“Parent.”

“Treasury.”

“Secretary of State.”

“Education department.”

“Sanitary authority.”
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55.

“Person.”

“Week.”

“Night.”

“Prescribed.”

“Summary Jurisdiction Acts.”

“Court of summary jurisdiction.”

“Mill-gearing.”

Exemption of handicrafts in fifth schedule in private houses.

Exemption of certain home-work.

94. [Definition of employment and working for hire.]

95. [Definition of “certified efficient school.” 33 & 34 Vict. c. 75. 36 & 37 Vict. c. 86. Definition of “recognised efficient school.” 33 & 34 Vict. c. 75.]

96. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The expression “child” means a person under the age of fourteen years :

The expression “young person” means a person of the age of fourteen years and under the age of eighteen years :

The expression “woman” means a woman of eighteen years of age and upwards :

The expression “parent” means a parent or guardian of, or person having the legal custody of, or the control over, or having direct benefit from the wages, of a child or young person :

The expression “Treasury” means the commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury :

The expression “Secretary of State” means one of Her Majesty’s principal secretaries of state :

The expression “Education Department” means the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council on Education :

The expression “sanitary authority” means an urban or rural sanitary authority within the meaning of the Public Health Act, 1875, and any commissions, board, or vestry, in the metropolis having the like powers as such urban sanitary authority :

The expression “person” includes a body of persons corporate or unincorporate :

The expression “week” means the period between midnight on Saturday night and midnight on the succeeding Saturday night :

The expression “night” means the period between nine o’clock in the evening and six o’clock in the succeeding morning :

The expression “prescribed” means prescribed for the time being by a Secretary of State.

The expression “Summary Jurisdiction Acts” means the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, intituled “An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of justices of the peace out of sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders,” and any Acts amending the same :

The expression “court of summary jurisdiction” means any justice or justices of the peace, metropolitan police magistrate, stipendiary or other magistrate, or officer, by whatever name called, to whom jurisdiction is given, by the Summary Jurisdiction Acts or any Acts therein referred to :

The expression “mill-gearing” comprehends every shaft, whether upright, oblique, or horizontal, and every wheel, drum, or pulley by which the motion of the first moving power is communicated to any machine appertaining to a manufacturing process.

The factories and workshops named in the Fourth Schedule to this Act are in this Act referred to by the names therein assigned to them.

Special exemption of certain Trades.

97. The exercise in a private house or private room by the family dwelling therein, or by any of them, of manual labour by way of trade or for purposes of gain in or incidental to any of the handicrafts specified in the Fifth Schedule to this Act, shall not of itself constitute such house or room a workshop within the meaning of this Act.

When it is proved to the satisfaction of a Secretary of State that by reason of the light character of the handicraft carried on in any private house or private room by the family dwelling therein, or by any of them, it is expedient to extend this section to that handicraft, he may by order extend the same.

The order shall be made in manner provided by Part Two of this Act, and that part shall apply so far as circumstances admit as if the order were an order extending an exception.

98. The exercise in a private house or private room by the family dwelling therein, or by any of them, of manual labour for the purposes of gain in or incidental to some of the purposes in this Act in that behalf mentioned, shall not of itself constitute such house or room a workshop where the labour is exercised at irregular intervals, and does not furnish the whole or principal means of living to such family.

Secs. 98—107.

(2.) Savings.

99. [Saving as to liability of hirer of machine where not occupier.]

100. Nothing in this Act shall extend—

(1.) To any young person, being a mechanic, artisan, or labourer, working only in repairing either the machinery in or any part of a factory or workshop; or

(2.) To the process of gutting, salting, and packing fish immediately upon its arrival in the fishing boats.

101. The provisions of section ninety-one of the Public Health Act, 1875, with respect to a factory, workshop, or workplace not kept in a cleanly state or not ventilated or overcrowded, shall not apply to a factory or workshop which is subject to the provisions of this Act relating to cleanliness, ventilation, and overcrowding, but shall apply to every other factory, workshop, and workplace.

It is hereby declared that the Public Health Act, 1875, shall apply to buildings in which persons are employed, whatever their number may be, in like manner as it applies to buildings where more than twenty are employed.

102. Any enactment or documents referring to the Acts repealed by this Act, or any of them, or to any enactment thereof, shall be construed to refer to this Act and to the corresponding enactment thereof.

Saving for person employed in repair of machinery or of factory or workshop, or in process of curing fish. Application to factories and workshops of 38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

Construction of enactments, &c. referring to repealed Acts.

(3.) Application of Act to Scotland and Ireland.

103.—106.

(4.) Repeal.

107. The Acts specified in the Sixth Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed from and after the commencement of this Act to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned:

Provided that—⁽¹⁾

Repeal of Acts.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Schedule 1.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR HEALTH.

Factories and Workshops in which the Employment of Young Persons and Children is restricted.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Schedule 2.

SPECIAL RESTRICTIONS.

Places Forbidden for Meals.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

Schedule 3.

SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS.

PART ONE.

Period of Employment.

PART TWO.

Meal Hours.

⁽¹⁾ The proviso is repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

Schedule 3.

PART THREE.

Overtime.

PART FOUR.

Additional Half Hour.

PART FIVE.

Overtime for Perishable Article.

PART SIX.

Night Work.

PART SEVEN.

*Spell.*Schedule 4.

FOURTH SCHEDULE.

LIST OF FACTORIES AND WORKSHOPS.

PART ONE.

*Non-Textile Factories.*Sections 93, 96."Print
works."

(1.) "Print works," that is to say, any premises in which any persons are employed to print figures, patterns, or designs upon any cotton, linen, woollen, worsted, or silken yarn, or upon any woven or felted fabric not being paper;

"Bleaching and dyeing
works."

(2.) "Bleaching and dyeing works," that is to say, any premises in which the processes of bleaching, beetling, dyeing, calendering, finishing, hooking, lapping, and making up and packing any yarn or cloth of any material, or the dressing or finishing of lace, or any one or more of such processes, or any process incidental thereto, are or is carried on;

"Earthenware
works."

(3.) "Earthenware works," that is to say, any place in which persons work for hire in making, or assisting in making, finishing, or assisting in finishing, earthenware of any description, except bricks and tiles not being ornamental tiles;

"Lucifermatch works."

(4.) "Lucifer-match works," that is to say, any place in which persons work for hire in making lucifer matches, or in mixing the chemical materials for making them, or in any process incidental to making lucifer matches, except the cutting of the wood;

"Percussion-cap works."

(5.) "Percussion-cap works," that is to say, any place in which persons work for hire in making percussion caps, or in mixing or storing the chemical materials for making them, or in any process incidental to making percussion caps;

"Cartridge
works."

(6.) "Cartridge works," that is to say, any place in which persons work for hire in making cartridges, or in any process incidental to making cartridges, except the manufacture of the paper or other material that is used in making the cases of the cartridges;

"Paper-staining
works."

(7.) "Paper-staining works," that is to say, any place in which persons work for hire in printing a pattern in colours upon sheets of paper, either by blocks applied by hand, or by rollers worked by steam, water, or other mechanical power;

"Fustiancutting works."

(8.) "Fustian-cutting works," that is to say, any place in which persons work for hire in fustian cutting;

"Blast furnaces."

(9.) "Blast furnaces," that is to say, any blast furnace or other furnace or premises in or on which the process of smelting or otherwise obtaining any metal from the ores is carried on;

"Copper mills."

(10.) "Copper mills";

"Iron mills."

(11.) "Iron mills," that is to say, any mill, forge, or other premises in or on which any process is carried on for converting iron into malleable iron, steel, or tin plate, or for otherwise making or converting steel;

"Foundries."

(12.) "Foundries," that is to say, iron foundries, copper foundries, brass foundries, and other premises or places in which the process of founding or casting any metal is carried on; except any premises or places in which such process is carried on by not more than five persons and as subsidiary to the repair or completion of some other work;

"Metal and india-rubber
works."

(13.) "Metal and india-rubber works," that is to say, any premises in which steam, water, or other mechanical power is used for moving machinery employed in the manufacture of machinery, or in the manufacture of any article of metal not being machinery, or in the manufacture of india-rubber or gutta-percha, or of articles made wholly or partially of india-rubber or gutta-percha;

- (14.) "Paper mills," that is to say, any premises in which the manufacture of paper is carried on; Schedule 4.
- (15.) "Glass works," that is to say, any premises in which the manufacture of glass is carried on; "Paper-mills."
"Glass works."
- (16.) "Tobacco factories," that is to say, any premises in which the manufacture of tobacco is carried on; "Tobacco factories."
"Letter-press printing works."
- (17.) "Letter-press printing works," that is to say, any premises in which the process of letter-press printing is carried on; "Letter-press printing works."
"Bookbinding works."
- (18.) "Bookbinding works," that is to say, any premises in which the process of book-binding is carried on; "Bookbinding works."
"Flax scutch mills."
- (19.) Flax scutch mills.

PART TWO.

Non-Textile Factories and Workshops.

- (20.) "Hat works," that is to say, any premises in which the manufacture of hats or any process incidental to their manufacture is carried on; "Hat works."
- (21.) "Rope works," that is to say, any premises being a ropery, ropewalk, or rope work, in which is carried on the laying or twisting or other process of preparing or finishing the lines, twines, cords, or ropes, and in which machinery moved by steam, water, or other mechanical power is not used for drawing or spinning the fibres of flax, hemp, jute, or tow, and which has no internal communication with any buildings or premises joining or forming part of a textile factory, except such communication as is necessary for the transmission of power; "Rope works."
- (22.) "Bakehouses," that is to say, any places in which are baked bread, biscuits, or confectionery from the baking or selling of which a profit is derived; "Bake-houses."
- (23.) "Lace warehouses," that is to say, any premises, room, or place not included in bleaching and dyeing works as herein-before defined, in which persons are employed upon any manufacturing process or handicraft in relation to lace, subsequent to the making of lace upon a lace machine moved by steam, water, or other mechanical power; "Lace ware-houses."
- (24.) "Shipbuilding yards," that is to say, any premises in which any ships, boats, or vessels used in navigation are made, finished, or repaired; "Shipbuilding yards."
- (25.) "Quarries," that is to say, any place, not being a mine, in which persons work in getting slate, stone, coprolites, or other minerals; "Quarries."
- (26.) "Pit-banks," that is to say, any place above ground adjacent to a shaft of a mine, in which place the employment of women is not regulated by the Coal Mines Regulation Act, 1872, or the Metalliferous Mines Regulation Act, 1872, whether such place does or does not form part of the mine within the meaning of those Acts. "Pit-banks."
35 & 36 Vict. c. 76.
35 & 36 Vict. c. 77.

FIFTH SCHEDULE.

Schedule 5.

SPECIAL EXEMPTIONS.

Straw plaiting.
Pillow-lace making.
Glove making.

SIXTH SCHEDULE.

Schedule 6.Acts repealed.

Session and Chapter.	Title of Act.	Extent of Repeal.
42 Geo. 3, c. 73.	An Act for the preservation of the health and morals of apprentices and others employed in cotton and other mills and cotton and other factories.	The whole Act.
3 & 4 Will. 4, c. 103.	An Act to regulate the labour of children and young persons in the mills and factories of the United Kingdom.	The whole Act.

Schedule 6.

Session and Chapter.	Title of Act.	Extent of Repeal.
7 & 8 Vict. c. 15 .	An Act to amend the laws relating to labour in factories.	The whole Act.
9 & 10 Vict. c. 40 .	An Act to declare certain ropeworks not within the operation of the Factory Acts.	The whole Act.
13 & 14 Vict. c. 54 .	An Act to amend the Acts relating to labour in factories.	The whole Act.
16 & 17 Vict. c. 104 .	An Act further to regulate the employment of children in factories.	The whole Act.
19 & 20 Vict. c. 38 .	The Factory Act, 1856	The whole Act.
24 & 25 Vict. c. 117 .	An Act to place the employment of women, young persons, youths, and children in lace factories under the regulations of the Factories Acts.	The whole Act.
26 & 27 Vict. c. 40 .	The Bakehouse Regulation Act, 1863	The whole Act.
27 & 28 Vict. c. 48 .	The Factory Acts Extension Act, 1864.	The whole Act.
29 & 30 Vict. c. 90 .	The Sanitary Act, 1866	The following words (so far as unrepealed) in section nineteen, "not already under the operation of any general Act for the regulation of factories or bake-houses."
30 & 31 Vict. c. 103 .	The Factory Acts Extension Act, 1867.	The whole Act.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 146 .	The Workshop Regulation Act, 1867	The whole Act.
33 & 34 Vict. c. 62 .	The Factory and Workshop Act, 1870	The whole Act.
34 & 35 Vict. c. 19 .	An Act for exempting persons professing the Jewish religion from penalties in respect of young persons and females professing the said religion working on Sundays.	The whole Act.
34 & 35 Vict. c. 104 .	The Factory and Workshop Act, 1871	The whole Act.
37 & 38 Vict. c. 44 .	The Factory Act, 1874	The whole Act.
38 & 39 Vict. c. 55 .	The Public Health Act, 1875 . . .	The following words in section four, "more than twenty," and the words "at one time," and the following words in section ninety-one, "not already under the operation of any general Act for the regulation of factories or bake-houses."
39 & 40 Vict. c. 79 .	The Elementary Education Act, 1876	Section eight and the following words in section forty-eight, "the Factory Acts, 1833 to 1874, as amended by this Act, and includes the Workshop Acts, 1867 to 1871, as amended by this Act, and."

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1883.

46 & 47 VICT. c. 53.

An Act to amend the Law relating to certain Factories and Workshops.

[25th August, 1883.]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows: Secs. 1—17.

1. This Act may be cited as the Factory and Workshop Act, 1883.

Short title.

2—12. [White lead factories.]

13, 14. [Explanation of certain provisions of Factory, &c., Act, 1878.]

Bakehouses.

15. It shall not be lawful to let or suffer to be occupied as a bakehouse, or to occupy as a bakehouse, any room or place which was not so let or occupied before the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, unless the following regulations are complied with: Regulations for new bakehouses.

- (i.) No watercloset, earthcloset, privy, or ashpit shall be within or communicate directly with the bakehouse;
- (ii.) Any cistern for supplying water to the bakehouse shall be separate and distinct from any cistern for supplying water to a watercloset;
- (iii.) No drain or pipe for carrying off fecal or sewage matter shall have an opening within the bakehouse.

Any person who lets or suffers to be occupied or who occupies any room or place as a bakehouse in contravention of this section shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding forty shillings, and to a further fine not exceeding five shillings for every day during which any room or place is so occupied after a conviction under this section.

16. Where a court of summary jurisdiction is satisfied on the prosecution of an inspector or a local authority that any room or place used as a bakehouse (whether the same was or was not so used before the passing of this Act) is in such a state as to be on sanitary grounds unfit for use or occupation as a bakehouse, the occupier of the bakehouse shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding forty shillings, and on a second or any subsequent conviction, not exceeding five pounds. Penalty for bakehouse being unfit on sanitary grounds for use as a bakehouse.

The court of summary jurisdiction, in addition to or instead of inflicting such fine, may order means to be adopted by the occupier, within the time named in the order, for the purpose of removing the ground of complaint. The court may, upon application, enlarge the time so named, but if, after the expiration of the time as originally named or enlarged by subsequent order, the order is not complied with, the occupier shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one pound for every day that such non-compliance continues.

17. (1). As respects every retail bakehouse, the provisions of this part of this Act and of sections three, thirty-three, thirty-four, and thirty-five of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878 (which relate to cleanliness, ventilation, overcrowding, and other sanitary Enforcement of law as to retail bakehouses by Secs. 17-20. conditions), shall be enforced by the local authority of the district in which the retail bakehouse is situate, and not by an inspector under the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878; and for the purposes of this section the medical officer of health of the local authority shall have and exercise all such powers of entry, inspection, taking legal proceedings and otherwise, as an inspector under the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878.

local authorities.

(2.) If any child, young person, or woman is employed in any retail bakehouse, and the medical officer of the local authority becomes aware thereof, he shall forthwith give written notice thereof to the factory inspector for the district.

(3.) An inspector under the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, shall not, as respects any retail bakehouse, exercise the powers of entry and inspection conferred by that Act, unless he has notice or reasonable cause to believe that a child, young person, or woman is employed therein.

Construction of Act and
definitions.
41 & 42 Vict.
c. 16.

18. This Act shall be construed as one with the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878; and in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The expression “white lead factory” includes every factory and workshop in which the manufacture of white lead is carried on:

The expression “retail bakehouse” means any bakehouse or place, the bread, biscuits, or confectionery baked in which are not sold wholesale but by retail in some shop or place occupied together with such bakehouse:

The expression “local authority” means, as respects the City of London and the liberties thereof, the Commissioners of Sewers; as respects the parishes and districts mentioned in the Schedules A. and B. annexed to the Metropolis Management Act, 1855, and any parish to which the said Act may be extended by order in council in manner in the said Act provided, the vestries and district boards elected under the said Act; and as respects any urban sanitary district, the urban sanitary authority, and as respects any rural sanitary district, the rural sanitary authority, within the meaning of the Public Health Act, 1875.

18 & 19 Vict.
c. 120.

19 and 20. [Application of Act to Scotland and Ireland.]

PUBLIC HEALTH (INTERMENTS) ACT, 1879.

42 & 43 VICT. c. 31.

An Act to amend the Public Health Act, 1875, as to Interments ⁽¹⁾. [21st July, 1879.]

Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Secs. 1—3.

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Health (Interments) Act, 1879, and shall be construed as one with the Public Health Act, 1875, in this Act called the principal Act.

Short title and construction.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55.

2. (1.) The provisions of the principal Act, as to a place for the reception of the dead before interment ⁽²⁾, in the principal Act called a mortuary, shall extend to a place for the interment of the dead, in this Act called a cemetery; and the purposes of the principal Act shall include the acquisition, construction, and maintenance of a cemetery.

The provisions of 38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55, extended to cemeteries.

(2.) A local authority may acquire, construct, and maintain a cemetery either wholly or partly within or without their district, subject as to works without their district for the purpose of a cemetery to the provisions of the principal Act as to sewage works by a local authority without their district ⁽³⁾.

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55, ss. 32-

(3.) A local authority may accept a donation of land for the purpose of a cemetery, and a donation of money or other property for enabling them to acquire, construct, or maintain a cemetery.

3. The Cemeteries Clauses Act, 1847 ⁽⁴⁾, shall be incorporated with this Act.

10 & 11 Vict.
c. 65, incorporated with
this Act.

⁽¹⁾ See as to this Act the circular dated 19th August, 1879, and the memorandum dated 13th December 1880, amongst the circulars, &c., of the Local Government Board, printed post.

⁽²⁾ Ante p. 112.

⁽³⁾ Ante pp. 61, 62.

⁽⁴⁾ I.e., 10 & 11 Vict. c. 65, which will be found post.

CEMETERIES CLAUSES ACT, 1847.

10 & 11 VICT. c. 65.

An Act for consolidating in one Act certain Provisions usually contained in Acts authorising the making of Cemeteries ⁽¹⁾. [9th July, 1847.]

Secs. 1—3.

Extent of Act.

Whereas it is expedient to comprise in one Act sundry provisions usually contained in Acts of Parliament authorising the making of cemeteries, and that as well for avoiding the necessity of repeating such provisions in each of the several Acts relating to such undertakings as for insuring greater uniformity in the provisions themselves: Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that this Act shall extend only to such cemeteries as shall be authorised by any Act of Parliament hereafter to be passed which shall declare that this Act shall be incorporated therewith; and all the clauses of this Act, save so far as they shall be expressly varied or excepted in any such Act, shall apply to the cemetery authorised thereby, so far as they are applicable to such cemetery, and shall, with the clauses of every other Act incorporated therewith, form part of such Act, and be construed therewith as forming one Act.

Interpretations in this Act.

"Special Act."

Prescribed."

And with respect to the construction of this Act and any Act incorporated therewith, be it enacted as follows:

2. The expression "the special Act" used in this Act shall be construed to mean any Act which shall be hereafter passed authorising the making of a cemetery, and with which this Act shall be incorporated; and the word "prescribed" used in this Act in reference to any matter herein stated shall be construed to refer to such matter as the same shall be prescribed or provided for in the special Act; and the sentence in which such word occurs shall be construed as if instead of the word "prescribed" the expression "prescribed for that purpose in the special Act" had been used; and the expression "the lands" shall mean the lands which shall by the special Act be authorised to be taken or used for the purposes thereof; and the expression "the company" shall mean the persons by the special Act authorised to construct the cemetery.

"Lands."

"Company."

Interpretations in this and the special Act.

Number.

Gender.

"Person."

"Lands,"

"The cemetery."

"Month."

3. The following words and expressions in both this and the special Act, and any Act incorporated therewith, shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,)

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number only shall include also the singular number:

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females:

The word "person" shall include a corporation, whether aggregate or sole:

The word "lands" shall include messuages, lands, and hereditaments of any tenure:

The expression "the cemetery" shall mean the cemetery or burial ground, and the works connected therewith, by the special Act authorised to be constructed:

The word "month" shall mean calendar month:

(1) This Act is incorporated with the Public Health (Interments) Act, 1879, ante, p. 1145, which latter Act is to be construed as one with the Public Health Act, 1875.

The expression "superior courts" shall mean Her Majesty's superior courts at Westminster or Dublin, as the case may require, and shall include the Court of Common Pleas of the County Palatine of Lancaster and the Court of Pleas of the County of Durham: Secs. 3—7.
"Superior courts."

The word "oath" shall include affirmation in the case of Quakers, and any declaration lawfully substituted for an oath in the case of any other persons allowed by law to make a declaration instead of taking an oath: "Oath."

The expression "Established Church" shall mean the united Church of England and Ireland, as by law established: "Established Church."

The word "county" shall include any riding or other division of a county having a separate commission of the peace, and shall also include the county of a city or county of a town: "County."

The word "justice" shall mean justice of the peace acting for the place where the matter requiring the cognizance of any such justice arises, and if such matter arise in respect of lands situated not wholly in one jurisdiction shall mean a justice acting for the place where any part of such lands shall be situated; and where any matter is authorised or required to be done by "two justices" the expression "two justices" shall be understood to mean two or more justices met and acting together: "Justice."
"Two justices."

The expression "quarter sessions" shall mean the quarter sessions as defined by the special Act, or if such expression be not therein defined it shall mean the general or quarter sessions of the peace, which shall be held at the place nearest the cemetery for the county or place in which the cemetery or some part thereof is situated, or for some division of such county having a separate commission of the peace: "Quarter sessions."

And with respect to citing this Act, or any part thereof, be it enacted as follows:

4. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the expression "The Cemeteries Clauses Act, 1847." Short title of this Act.

5. For the purpose of incorporating part only of this Act with any Act hereafter to be passed it shall be enough to describe the clauses of this Act with respect to any matter in the words introductory to the enactment with respect to such matter, and to enact that the clauses so described, or that this Act with the exception of the clauses so described, shall be incorporated with such Act, and thereupon all the clauses of this Act so incorporated shall, save so far as they are expressly varied or excepted by such Act, form part of such Act, and such Act shall be construed as if such clauses were set forth therein with reference to the matter to which such Act relates. Form in which portions of this Act may be incorporated in other Acts.

And with respect to the making of the cemetery, be it enacted as follows:

6. Where by the special Act the company shall be empowered, for the purpose of making the cemetery, to take or use any lands otherwise than with the consent of the owners and occupiers thereof, they shall, in exercising the power so given to them, be subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in this Act and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 ⁽¹⁾, and shall make to the owners and occupiers of and all other parties interested in any lands taken or used for the purposes of the special Act, or injuriously affected by the construction of the works thereby authorised, full compensation for the value of the lands so taken or used, and for all damage sustained by such owners, occupiers, or other parties, by reason of the exercise, as regards such lands, of the powers vested in the company by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, and, except where otherwise provided by this or the special Act, the amount of such compensation shall be determined in the manner provided by the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, for determining questions of compensation with regard to lands purchased or taken under the provisions thereof, and all the provisions of the last-mentioned Act shall be applicable to determine the amount of such compensation, and to enforce payment or other satisfaction thereof. Construction of cemetery to be subject to the provisions of this Act and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

7. If any omission, mis-statement, or wrong description shall have been made of any lands, or of the owners, lessees, or occupiers of any lands described in the special Act or the schedule thereto, the company, after giving ten days notice to the owners of the lands affected by such proposed correction, may apply to two justices for the correction thereof, and if it appear to such justices that such omission, mis-statement, or wrong Errors and omissions in Act or schedule to be corrected by justices, who shall certify the same.

(1) Ante, p. 894.

Secs. 7—19.

Certificate to be deposited.

Copies of plans, &c., to be evidence.

Company not to dispose of any land consecrated or used for burials.

Cemetery not to be within a certain distance of houses.

Company may build chapels, &c.

Company may make or widen roads to cemetery.

No road to be widened without consent.

Owners, &c. may enter into agreements for improving roads for that purpose.

Cemetery to be enclosed and fenced.

Cemetery, &c. to be kept in repair.

Company to make compensation for damages done.

Power to make sewers, drains, &c. in and about the cemetery.

Certain provisions of Waterworks Clauses Act, 1874, incordescription arose from mistake, they shall certify the same accordingly, and shall in such certificate state the particulars of any such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description; and such certificate shall be deposited with the clerk of the peace of the county in which the lands affected thereby shall be situated, and thereupon the special Act or schedule shall be deemed to be corrected according to such certificate, and the company may take the lands according to such certificate as if such omission, mis-statement, or wrong description had not been made.

8. Copies of any alteration or correction of the special Act, or the schedule thereto, or of any extract therefrom, certified by any such clerk of the peace in whose custody such alteration or correction may be, which certificate such clerk of the peace shall give to all parties interested, when required, shall be received in all courts of justice or elsewhere as evidence of the contents thereof.

9. The company shall not sell or dispose of any land which shall have been consecrated or used for the burial of the dead, or make use of any such land for any purpose except such as shall be authorised by this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith.

10. No part of the cemetery shall be constructed nearer to any dwelling-house than the prescribed distance, or, if no distance be prescribed, two hundred yards, except with the consent in writing of the owner, lessee, and occupier of such house.

11. The company upon any land which by the special Act they are authorised to use for the purposes of the cemetery, may build such chapels for the performance of the burial service as they think fit, and may lay out and embellish the grounds of the cemetery as they think fit.

12. The company upon any land purchased by them under this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, may make any new roads to the cemetery, or widen or improve any existing roads thereto which they think fit.

13. Provided always, that the company shall not widen or improve any existing road without the consent of the owner thereof if the road be private, or, if the road be public, without the consent of the persons in whom the management of the road is vested by law.

14. The company and the owners or persons having the management of any such road as aforesaid may enter into such agreements as they think fit, for enabling the company to widen or improve any such road, and for maintaining the same.

15. Every part of the cemetery shall be enclosed by walls or other sufficient fences of the prescribed materials and dimensions, and if no materials or dimensions be prescribed by substantial walls or iron railings of the height of eight feet at least.

16. The company shall keep the cemetery and the buildings and fences thereof in complete repair, and in good order and condition, out of the moneys to be received by them by virtue of this and the special Act.

17. Provided always, that in the exercise of the powers by this and the special Act granted to the company they shall do as little damage as can be, and shall make full compensation to all parties interested for all damage sustained by them through the exercise of such powers.

And with respect to preventing nuisance from the cemetery, be it enacted as follows:

18. The company shall make all necessary and proper sewers and drains in and about the cemetery, for draining and keeping the same dry, and they may from time to time, as occasion requires, cause any such sewer or drain to open into any existing sewer, with the consent in writing of the persons having the management of such sewer, and with the consent in writing of the persons having the management of the street or road, and of the owners and occupiers of the lands through which such opening is made, doing as little damage as possible to the road or ground wherein such sewer or drain may be made, and restoring it to the same or as good condition as it was in before being disturbed.

19. When any street or road or sewer shall be opened, with such consent as aforesaid, the clauses of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to breaking up streets for the purpose of laying pipes ⁽¹⁾, so far as the same are consistent with this Act and applicable thereto, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall apply to the company, and to any ground broken by them for making any such sewer or drain as aforesaid to open into any existing sewer. Secs. 19-30.

(1) I.e., ss. 28—34, ante, pp. 420, 421.

20. If the company at any time cause or suffer to be brought or to flow into any stream, canal, reservoir, aqueduct, pond, or watering place, any offensive matter from the cemetery, whereby the water therein shall be fouled, they shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of fifty pounds. Penalty for allowing water to be fouled.

21. The said penalty, with full costs of suit, may be recovered by any person having right to use the water fouled by such offensive matter in any of the superior courts, by action of debt or on the case: Provided always, that the said penalty shall not be recoverable unless the same be sued for during the continuance of the offence, or within six months after it has ceased. Penalty to be sued for within six months.

22. In addition to the said penalty of fifty pounds (and whether such penalty is recovered or not), any person having right to use the water fouled by such offensive matter may sue the company in an action on the case in any court of competent jurisdiction for any damage specially sustained by him by reason of the water being so fouled; or if no special damage be alleged, for the sum of ten pounds for each day during which such offensive matter is brought or flows as aforesaid after the expiration of twenty-four hours from the time when notice of the offence is served on the company by such person. In addition to penalty of £50, a daily penalty during the continuance of the offence.

And with respect to burials in the cemetery, be it enacted as follows:

23. The bishop of the diocese in which the cemetery is situated may, on the application of the company, consecrate any portion of the cemetery set apart for the burial of the dead according to the rites of the Established Church, if he be satisfied with the title of the company to such portion, and thinks fit to consecrate such portion; and the part which is so consecrated shall be used only for burials according to the rites of the Established Church. A part of cemetery to be set apart and consecrated for burial of members of Established Church.

24. The company shall define by suitable marks the consecrated and unconsecrated portions of the cemetery. Consecrated ground to be defined.

25. The company shall build, within the consecrated part of the cemetery, and according to a plan approved of by the bishop of the diocese, a chapel for the performance of the burial service according to the rites of the Established Church. A chapel in connection with the Established Church to be constructed.

26. No body buried in the consecrated part of the cemetery shall be removed from its place of burial without the like authority as is by law required for the removal of any body buried in the churchyard belonging to a parish church. Bodies when interred not to be removed without lawful authority.

27. The company shall from time to time, with the approval of the bishop of the diocese in which the cemetery is situated, appoint a clerk in holy orders of the Established Church to officiate as chaplain in the consecrated part of the cemetery; and such chaplain shall be licensed by and be subject to the jurisdiction of the said bishop, and the said bishop shall have power to revoke any such license, and to remove such chaplain for any cause which appears to him reasonable. Chaplain to be appointed with consent of the bishop.

28. The chaplain shall, when required, unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause, perform the burial service over all bodies brought to be buried in the consecrated part of the cemetery which are entitled to be buried in consecrated ground according to the rites and usage of the Established Church. Chaplain to perform burial service when required.

29. Any clerk in holy orders of the Established Church, not being prohibited by the bishop, nor under ecclesiastical censure, at the request of the executor of the will of any deceased person, or any other person having the charge of the burial of the body of any deceased person, and with the consent of the chaplain for the time being of the cemetery, or if there be no chaplain with the consent of the bishop, may perform the said burial service over such body in the consecrated part of the cemetery. Other clergy-men of the Established Church may be allowed to officiate.

30. The company, out of the moneys to be received by virtue of this and the special Act, shall allow to the chaplain of the cemetery for the time being such a stipend as is approved of by the bishop of the diocese in which the cemetery is situated, which shall be payable, by equal moieties, on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in each year; and if any chaplain die, resign, or be removed or appointed, in the interval between the half-yearly days of payment, the company shall pay to him, or his executors or administrators, a part only of the half-yearly payment of Company to pay the chaplain a stipend approved by the bishop.

Secs. 30-41. the stipend proportioned to the time during which he shall have been the chaplain since the last preceding day of payment.

Stipend to be recovered by action at law.

31. If the stipend of the said chaplain, or any part thereof, be not paid to the chaplain entitled to receive the same, or to the executors or administrators of a deceased chaplain, for the space of thirty days next after any of the days of payment whereon the same ought to be paid, such chaplain, or his executors or administrators, may recover the same, with full costs of suit, against the company, by action of debt or upon the case in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Burials in the consecrated portion to be registered by the chaplain.

32. All burials in the consecrated part of the cemetery shall be registered in register books to be provided by the company, and kept for that purpose by the chaplain, according to the laws in force by which registers are required to be kept by the rectors, vicars, or curates of parishes or ecclesiastical districts in England; and such register books, or copies or extracts therefrom, shall be received in all courts in evidence of such burials; and copies or transcripts thereof shall be from time to time sent to the registrar of the ecclesiastical court of the bishop of the diocese in which the cemetery is situated, to be kept with the copies of the other register books of the parishes within his diocese.

Registers to be subject to the regulations of 6 & 7 Will. 4. c. 86, as to searches, &c.

33. The said register books, so far as respects searches to be made therein, and copies and extracts to be taken therefrom, shall be subject to the same regulations as are provided by an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of his late Majesty, intituled "An Act for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England," so far as such regulations relate to register books of burials kept by any rector, vicar, or curate.

Clerk appointed for the consecrated part of the cemetery.

34. The company may, with the consent of the chaplain for the time being, from time to time appoint a clerk to assist in performing the service for burials in the consecrated part of the cemetery, and allow to such clerk such stipend as they think proper out of the moneys to be received by virtue of this and the special Act, and they may remove such clerk at their pleasure.

As to burial of persons not members of the Church of England.

35. The company may set apart the whole or a portion of that part of the cemetery which is not set apart for burials according to the rites of the Established Church as a place of burial for the bodies of persons not being members of the Established Church, and may allow such bodies to be buried therein, under such regulations as the company appoint.

Company may allow any burial service to be performed in Dissenting Chapels.

36. The company may allow, in any chapel built within the unconsecrated part of the cemetery, a burial service to be performed according to the rites of any church or congregation other than the Established Church, by any minister of such other church or congregation duly authorised by law to officiate in such church or congregation, or recognised as such by the religious community or society to which he belongs.

Power to appoint gravediggers, &c.

37. The company may appoint gravediggers and other servants necessary for the care and use of the cemetery, and may pay them such wages and allowances as they think fit out of the moneys to be received by virtue of this and the special Act, and may remove them or any of them at their pleasure.

Regulations for ensuring decency and solemnity.

38. The company shall make regulations for ensuring that all burials within the cemetery are conducted in a decent and solemn manner.

No burials under or close to chapels.

39. No body shall be buried in any vault under any chapel of the cemetery, or within fifteen feet of the outer wall of any such chapel.

Parts of the cemetery may be set apart for exclusive burial.

And with respect to exclusive rights of burial, and monumental inscriptions, in the cemetery, be it enacted as follows:

Monumental inscriptions.

40. The company may set apart such parts of the cemetery as they think fit for the purpose of granting exclusive rights of burial therein, and they may sell, either in perpetuity or for a limited time, and subject to such conditions as they think fit, the exclusive right of burial in any parts of the cemetery so set apart, or the right of one or more burials therein, and they may sell the right of placing any monument or grave-stone in the cemetery, or any tablet or monumental inscription on the walls of any chapel or other building within the cemetery.

Plan and book of reference to be kept, and be open to inspection.

41. The company shall cause a plan of the cemetery to be made upon a scale sufficiently large to show the situation of every burial place in all the parts of the cemetery so set apart, and in which an exclusive right of burial has been granted; and all such burial places shall be numbered, and such numbers shall be entered in a book to be kept for that purpose, and such book shall contain the names and descriptions of the several persons to whom the exclusive right of burial in any such place of burial has been granted by the company; and no place of burial, with exclusive right of burial therein, shall be made in the cemetery without the same being marked out in such plan, and a corresponding entry made in the said book, and the said plan and book shall be kept by the clerk of the company. Secs. 41-51.

42. The grant of the exclusive right of burial in any part of the cemetery, either in perpetuity or for a limited time, and of the right of one or more burials therein, or of placing therein any monument, tablet, or gravestone, may be made in the form in the schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, and where the company are not incorporated it may be executed by the company or any two or more of them. Form of grant of burial in vault, &c. to be according to schedule.

43. A register of all such grants shall be kept by the clerk to the company, and within fourteen days after the date of any such grant an entry or memorial of the date thereof and of the parties thereto, and also of the consideration for such grant, and also a proper description of the ground described in such grant, so as the situation thereof may be ascertained, shall be made by the said clerk in such register; and such clerk shall be entitled to demand such sum as the company think fit, not exceeding the prescribed sum, or if no sum be prescribed two shillings and sixpence, for every such entry or memorial; and the said register may be perused at all reasonable times by any grantee or assignee of any right conveyed in any such grant, upon payment of the prescribed sum, or if no sum be prescribed the sum of one shilling, to the clerk of the company. Register of grants to be kept.

44. The exclusive right of burial in any such place of burial shall, whether granted in perpetuity or for a limited time, be considered as the personal estate of the grantee, and may be assigned in his lifetime or bequeathed by his will. Rights of burial, &c. to be assignable, or may be bequeathed by will.

45. Every such assignment made in the lifetime of the assignor shall be by deed duly stamped, in which the consideration shall be duly set forth, and may be in the form in the schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like effect. Form of assignment.

46. Every such assignment shall, within six months after the execution thereof, if executed in Great Britain or Ireland, or within six months after the arrival thereof in Great Britain or Ireland, if executed elsewhere, be produced to the clerk of the company, and an entry or memorial of such assignment shall be made in the register by the clerk of the company, in the same manner as that of the original grant; and until such entry or memorial no right of burial shall be acquired under any such memorial; and for every such entry or memorial the clerk shall be entitled to demand such sum as the company think fit, not exceeding the prescribed sum, or if no sum be prescribed two shillings and sixpence. Assignments to be registered.

47. An entry or memorial of the probate of every will by which the exclusive right of burial within the cemetery is bequeathed, and in case there be any specific disposition of such exclusive right of burial in the said will an entry of such disposition, shall, within six months after the probate of such will, be made in the said register, in the same manner as that of the original grant, and until such entry no right of exclusive burial shall be acquired under such will; and for every such entry or memorial the clerk of the company shall be entitled to demand such sum as the company think fit, not exceeding the prescribed sum, or if no sum be prescribed two shillings and sixpence. Probate of wills to be registered.

48. No body shall be buried in any place wherein the exclusive right of burial shall have been granted by the company, except with the consent of the owner for the time being of such exclusive right of burial. Vaults to be kept exclusively for purchasers of exclusive right.

49. No such grant as aforesaid shall give the right to bury within the consecrated part of the cemetery the body of any person not entitled to be buried in consecrated ground according to the rites and usages of the Established Church, or to place any monument, gravestone, tablet, or monumental inscription respecting any such body within the consecrated part of the cemetery. No such grant to give the right of burial in consecrated ground to certain persons.

50. The company may take down and remove any gravestone, monument, tablet, or monumental inscription which shall have been placed within the cemetery without their authority. Power to remove monuments improperly erected.

51. The bishop of the diocese in which the cemetery is situated, and all persons acting under his authority, shall have the same right and power to object to the placing, and to procure the removal of any monumental inscription within the consecrated part of the cemetery as he by law has to object to or procure the removal of any monumental Bishop to have power to object to

Secs. 51–57. inscription in any church or chapel of the Established Church, or the burial ground belonging to such church or chapel, or any other consecrated ground ⁽¹⁾.

monumental inscriptions in consecrated part of cemetery.

And with respect to payments to incumbents of parishes or ecclesiastical districts, and to parish clerks, be it enacted as follows :

Payments to incumbents of parishes from which bodies are brought.

52. The company shall, on the burial of every body within the consecrated part of the cemetery, pay to the incumbent for the time being of the parish or ecclesiastical district from which such body shall have been removed for burial such sums, if any, as shall be prescribed for that purpose in the special Act.

Company shall keep account of interments.

53. For ascertaining the amount of the payments, if any, to be made to the incumbents of the several parishes or districts aforesaid, the company shall cause books to be kept, and entries to be made therein of the names of all persons whose bodies are buried within the consecrated part of the cemetery, and the names of the parishes or districts from which such bodies respectively have been removed, and the manner of their burial within the cemetery (distinguishing whether in a place of exclusive burial or otherwise), with the date of such burial ; and such books shall be at all reasonable times open to the inspection of the incumbents for the time being of the said several parishes or districts, or any person employed by them, without fee or reward.

Account of payments due to incumbents of parishes to be rendered half-yearly.

54. The company shall on the twenty-fifth day of March and twenty-ninth day of September in each year, or within one month after each of the said days, deliver to the person who is the incumbent of any parish or ecclesiastical district on that day, or to his executors or administrators, on demand made within the said month, an account of the sums, if any, payable in respect of bodies removed for burial within the consecrated part of the cemetery as aforesaid from such parish or ecclesiastical district during the half year next preceding the twenty-fifth day of March or twenty-ninth day of September, as the case may be.

Fees to be paid to incumbents of parishes
half-yearly.

55. The sums payable by virtue of the special Act shall be paid half-yearly on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September, or within one month afterwards, to the persons who are the incumbents of the parishes or ecclesiastical districts in respect of which the same are payable on such twenty-fifth day of March and twenty-ninth day of September respectively, or the executors or administrators of such incumbents ; (that is to say,) such sums as accrue between the twenty-ninth day of September and the twenty-fifth day of March following shall be paid to the person who is the incumbent on the twenty-fifth day of March, and such sums as accrue between the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September following shall be paid to the person who is the incumbent on the twenty-ninth day of September ; and if any such sums be not paid to the party entitled to receive the same within the period hereinbefore limited for the payment thereof, such party may recover the same, with full costs by action of debt or on the case, in any court having competent jurisdiction.

Payment to be made to the incumbent for the time being, who is to account with his predecessor.

56. If any incumbent of any parish or district in respect of which sums are payable by the company by virtue of the special Act ceases to be incumbent, by cession, death, or otherwise, between the said two half-yearly days of payment, such incumbent shall be entitled to receive so much of the sum payable at the half-yearly day which happens next after he ceases to be incumbent as has accrued from the last preceding half-yearly day, or from the time when such incumbent became first entitled to receive the fruits of his living, as the case may require, up to the day at which he ceased to be incumbent, and the incumbent of any parish or district who receives from the company any sum to a part of which any preceding incumbent is entitled under the provisions herein contained shall pay such part to him, his executors or administrators, accordingly ; and the company shall not be answerable to any person, other than the actual incumbent for the time being, for the payment of any sums by virtue of this or the special Act.

Company to pay parish clerks the compensation mentioned.

57. The company shall, on the burial of every body within the consecrated part of the cemetery, except where the body is buried at the expense of any parish or ecclesiastical district, or union of parishes for the relief of the poor, pay to the parish clerk of the parish or ecclesiastical district from which such body has been removed for burial, if he held the office of parish clerk of such parish or ecclesiastical district at the time of the passing of the special Act, but not otherwise, such sum, if any, as shall be prescribed for Secs. 57-66.

⁽¹⁾ See Maidman v. Malpas, 1 Hagg. Cons. 205 ; Harper v. Forbes, 5 Jur. N. S. 275 ; Ex parte Medwin, 1 E. & B. 609 ; Keet v. Smith, L. R. 1 P. D. 73.

that purpose in the special Act.

And with respect to the protection of the cemetery, be it enacted as follows:

58. Every person who shall wilfully destroy or injure any building, wall, or fence belonging to the cemetery, or destroy or injure any tree or plant therein, or who shall daub or disfigure any wall thereof, or put up any bill therein or on any wall thereof, or wilfully destroy, injure, or deface any monument, tablet, inscription, or gravestone within the cemetery, or do any other wilful damage therein, shall forfeit to the company for every such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds. Penalty for damaging the cemetery.

59. Every person who shall play at any game or sport, or discharge fire-arms, save at a military funeral, in the cemetery, or who shall wilfully and unlawfully disturb any persons assembled in the cemetery for the purpose of burying any body therein, or who shall commit any nuisance within the cemetery, shall forfeit to the company for every such offence a sum not exceeding five pounds. Penalty on persons committing nuisances in the cemetery.

60. And with respect to the accounts to be kept by the company, be it enacted, that the company shall every year cause an account to be prepared, showing the total receipt, and expenditure of all moneys levied by virtue of this or the special Act for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December, or some other convenient day in each year, under the several distinct heads of receipt and expenditure, with a statement of the balance of such account, certified by the chairman of the company, and duly audited, and shall send a copy of the said account, free of charge, to the clerk of the peace for the county in which the cemetery is situated, on or before the expiration of one month from the day on which such accounts end, which last mentioned account shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours, on payment of the sum of one shilling for every such inspection; and if the company omit to prepare or send such account as aforesaid, they shall forfeit for every such omission the sum of twenty pounds. Annual account to be made up, and a copy transmitted to the clerk of the peace, &c., and be open to inspection.

61. And with respect to the tender of amends, be it enacted, that if any person shall have committed any irregularity, trespass, or other wrongful proceeding in the execution of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any power or authority thereby given, and if, before action brought in respect thereof, such party make tender of sufficient amends to the party injured, such last mentioned party shall not recover in any such action; and if no such tender have been made, the defendant, by leave of the Court where such action is pending, may at any time before issue joined pay into Court such sum of money as he thinks fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court. Tender of amends.

And with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices, be it enacted as follows:

62. The clauses of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (1), with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices, shall be incorporated with this and the special Act; and such clauses shall apply to the cemetery and to the company respectively. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 20 incorporated as to damages, &c.

63. [In Ireland part of penalty to be paid to guardians of unions (2)].

64. All things herein or in the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, authorised or required to be done by two justices may and shall be done by any one magistrate having by law authority to act alone for any purpose with the powers of two or more justices. All things required to be done by two justices may, in certain cases, be done by one.

65. Every person who, upon any examination upon oath under the provisions of this or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, shall be liable to the penalties of wilful and corrupt perjury. Persons giving false evidence liable to penalties of perjury.

And with respect to affording access to the special Act, be it enacted as follows:

66. The company shall, at all times after the expiration of six months after the passing of the special Act, keep in their principal office of business a copy of the special Act printed by the printers to her Majesty, or some of them, and shall also, within the space of such six months, deposit in the office of the clerk Copies of special Act to be kept by company at

(1) This Act will be found post.

(2) Repealed.

Secs. 66-69.
 their office,
 and deposited with the clerk of the peace,
 and be open to inspection.
 7 W. 4 &
 1 Vict. c. 83.

of the peace of the county in which the cemetery is situated a copy of such special Act so printed as aforesaid; and the said clerk of the peace shall receive and he and the company respectively shall keep the said copies of the special Act, and shall allow all persons interested therein to inspect the same, and make extracts or copies therefrom, in the like manner and upon the like terms, and under the like penalty for default as is provided in the case of certain plans and sections by an Act passed in the first year of the reign of her Majesty, intituled "An Act to compel clerks of the peace for counties and other persons to take the custody of such documents as shall be directed to be deposited with them under the standing orders of either House of Parliament."

Penalty on company failing to keep or deposit such copies.

67. If the company fail to keep or deposit any of the said copies of the special Act as hereinbefore mentioned they shall forfeit twenty pounds for every such offence, and also five pounds for every day afterwards during which such copy shall be not so kept or deposited.

Company not exempt from provisions of any future general Act.

68. And be it enacted, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed to exempt the company from any general Act relating to burials in towns or populous places which may be passed in the same session of Parliament in which the special Act is passed, or any future session of Parliament.

Act may be amended, &c.

69. And be it enacted, that this Act may be amended or repealed by any Act to be passed in this session of Parliament.

SCHEDULES.

SCHEDULES to which the foregoing Act refers.

Form of Grant of Right of Burial.

By virtue of [here name the special Act] we [here state the name or description of the company], in consideration of the sum of _____ to us paid by _____ of _____ do hereby grant unto the said _____ the exclusive right of burial [or the right of burying] _____ bodies, as the case may be [or the right of placing a monument, tablet, or gravestone] in [here describe the ground intended for the exclusive burial, or for placing a monument, tablet, or gravestone, as the case may be, so as to identify the same, and if a place of exclusive burial, add, "numbered _____ on the plan of the cemetery made in pursuance of the said Act"], to hold the same to the said _____ in perpetuity [or the period agreed upon] for the purpose of burial [or as the case may be].

Given under our common seal [or under our hands and seals, as the case may be], this _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord _____.

Form of Assignment of Right of Burial.

I, A. B. of _____ in consideration of the sum of _____ paid to me by C. D. of _____ do hereby assign unto the said C. D. the exclusive right of burial in [here describe the place], and numbered _____ on the plan of the cemetery made in pursuance of the said Act, which was granted to me [or unto A. B. of _____] in perpetuity [or as the case may be] by [here state the name of the company] by a deed of grant bearing date the _____ day of _____ and all my estate, title, and interest therein, to hold the same unto the said C. D. in perpetuity [or as, the case may be, for the remainder of the period for which the same was granted by the said company], subject to the conditions on which I held the same immediately before the execution hereof.

Witness my hand and seal this _____ day of _____

BURIAL ACT, 1853.

16 & 17 VICT. c. 134.

An Act to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis.

[20th August, 1853.]

Whereas an Act was passed in the last session of Parliament "to amend the laws concerning the burial of the Dead in the Metropolis," and it is expedient to make better provision for and in relation to burials beyond the limits of the said Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Secs. 1—3.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 85.

1. In case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of public health the opening of any new burial ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in such city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the order burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: Provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the incumbent and the vestry clerk or churchwardens of such parish.

On representation of Secretary of State, Her Majesty in Council may restrain the opening of new burial grounds, and order discontinuance of burials in specified places.

2. No such order in council as aforesaid shall be deemed to extend to any burial ground of the people called Quakers, or of the persons of the Jewish persuasion, used solely for the burial of the bodies of such people and persons respectively, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such order; and nothing in this Act shall prevent the burial in any such burial ground in which for the time being interment is not required to be discontinued of the bodies of such people and persons respectively; and no such order in council as aforesaid shall be deemed to extend to any non-parochial burial ground being the property of any private person, unless the same be expressly mentioned in such order.

Order not to extend to burial grounds of Quakers or Jews, unless expressly included.

3. It shall not be lawful, after the time mentioned in any such order in council for the discontinuance of burials, to bury the dead in any church, chapel, churchyard, or burial place, or elsewhere, within the parts to which such order extends, or in the burial grounds or places of burial (as the case may be) in which burials have by any such order

Burial not to take place after order in Council for discontinuance.

Secs. 3—7. been ordered to be discontinued, except as in this Act or in such order excepted; and every person who shall, after such time as aforesaid, bury any body, or in anywise act or assist in the burial of any body, contrary to this enactment, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Saving of certain rights to bury in vaults, &c.

4. Provided always, that notwithstanding any such order in council, where by virtue of any faculty legally granted, or by usage or otherwise, there is at the time of the passing of this Act any right of interment in or under any church or chapel affected by such order, or in any vault of any such church or chapel, or of any churchyard or burial ground affected by such order, and where any exclusive right of interment in any such burial ground, has been purchased or acquired before the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State from time to time, on application being made to him, and on being satisfied that the exercise of such right will not be injurious to health, to grant license for the exercise of such right during such time and subject to such conditions and restrictions as such Secretary of State may think fit, but such license shall not prejudice or in anywise affect the authority of the ordinary, or of any other person who, if this Act had not been passed, might have prohibited or controlled interment under such right, nor dispense with any consent which would have been required, nor otherwise give to such right any greater force or effect than the same would have had if this Act had not been passed.

Not to extend to cemeteries established by Act of Parliament, or new burialgrounds, &c.

5. The provisions of this Act shall not extend to authorise the discontinuance of burials, or to prevent the burial of the body of any person, in any cemetery established under the authority of any Act of Parliament (1), or in any burial ground or cemetery to be hereafter provided with the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, as herein mentioned.

New burial grounds not to be opened contrary to order in Council.

6. Where by any such order in council as aforesaid it is ordered that no new burial ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within any limits therein mentioned, without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, no new burial ground or cemetery (parochial or non-parochial) shall be provided and used in such city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval.

Certain provisions of Metropolitan Burial Act, 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85, extended to parishes, &c., not in the metropolis.

7. All the provisions contained in the said Act of the last session of Parliament, chapter eighty-five "to amend the laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis," from section ten to section forty-two (both inclusive) (2) of the said Act, and also in sections forty-four, fifty, fifty-one, and fifty-two (2) of the said Act, shall extend and be applicable to and in respect of any parish not in the metropolis, and for the purpose of providing a burial ground for any such parish, or otherwise providing for the interment of the bodies of persons who would have had right of interment in the burial ground of any such parish, and generally in relation to every such burial ground to be so provided, and the fees and payments to be received in respect of interment or other rights therein and otherwise, as if such sections were re-enacted in this Act, and the words "in the metropolis," wherever they occur in such sections, or any of them, were omitted; and section forty-nine of the said Act shall extend to all cemeteries already established and hereafter to be established under the authority of Parliament in like manner as to those mentioned in Schedule (B.) to that Act, and as respects the cemeteries to which such section is hereby extended, the same shall also apply in respect of burials at the expense of any hospital or infirmary in like manner as to burials at the expense of a union or parish: Provided always, that in all cases in which any burial board shall provide a new burial ground under the said Act of the last session of Parliament or under this Act, that new burial ground shall be divided into consecrated and unconsecrated parts in such proportions, and the unconsecrated part thereof shall be allotted in such manner and in such portions as may be sanctioned by one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and when any burial board shall by virtue of section thirty of the said Act build on any burial ground provided by such board a chapel for the performance of the burial service according to the rites of the United Church of Any burial board building a chapel for burials according to the rites of the Church of England also to build a chapel for

(1) See R. v. J.J. of Manchester, 5 E. & B. 702, 25 L. J. M. C. 45, 2 Jur. N. S. 182, 26 L. T. 195, 4 W. R. 98.

(2) These sections will be found post, following this Act.

England and Ireland, they shall also build, on the portion of such ground set apart for burials otherwise than according to the rites of the said church, such chapel accommodation for the performance of burial service by persons not being members of the said church as may be approved of by one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State. Secs. 7—10.

8. All burials within any burial ground provided under the said Act of the last session of Parliament or this Act shall be registered in a register book to be provided by the burial board providing such ground (or where the same is provided by the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London then by such commissioners), and kept for that purpose according to the laws in force by which registers are required to be kept by the rectors, vicars, or curates of parishes or ecclesiastical districts in England; and such register book shall be so kept by some officer appointed by the said board of commissioners to that duty; and in such register books shall be distinguished in what parts of the burial ground, and where the whole of such burial ground is not consecrated for interments according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, whether in the portion so consecrated or in the portion not so consecrated the several bodies (the burials of which are entered in such register books) are buried; and in case such burial ground has been provided for more than one parish, such register shall be kept or indexed so as to facilitate searches for entries in such books in respect of bodies from the several parishes; and such register books or copies of extracts therefrom shall be received in all courts as evidence of the burials entered therein, and copies or transcripts of such register books, verified and signed by such officer as aforesaid, shall be from time to time sent to the registrar of the diocese to be kept with the copies of the other register books of the parishes within such diocese; and the said register books, so far as respects searches to be made therein and copies and extracts to be taken therefrom, shall be subject to the same regulations as are provided by an Act passed in the seventh year of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for registering births, deaths, and marriages in England," so far as such regulations relate to register books of burials kept by any rector, vicar, or curate (1).

9. Nothing in this Act, except the provisions in sections seven and eight, shall extend to any parish in "the metropolis," as defined by the said Act of the last session, or otherwise affect the provisions of that Act.

10. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

persons not being members of the Church of England.

Register of burials to be kept in every ground provided under 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85 or under this Act.

Entries to be evidence.

6 & 7 Will. 4, c. 86.

Act, except ss. 7 and 8, not to extend to the metropolis.

Extent of Act.

(1) See the Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. c. 81, s. 16, post.

BURIAL ACT, 1852.

15 & 16 VICT. c. 85.

An Act to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis.

[1st July, 1852.]

- Secs. 1—11. 1. [13 & 14 Vict. c. 52, repealed, and Her Majesty may continue additional member of board therein authorised ⁽¹⁾.]
2. [On representation of Secretary of State, Her Majesty in council may order discontinuance of burials in any part of the metropolis.]
3. [Order not to extend to burial grounds of Quakers or Jews, unless expressly included ⁽¹⁾.]
4. [Burial not to take place after order in council for discontinuance ⁽¹⁾.]
5. [Restriction as to place of burial of inhabitants of parishes the burial grounds whereof are closed ⁽¹⁾.]
6. [Saving of certain rights to bury in vaults, &c. ⁽¹⁾.]
7. [Saving as to cemeteries in schedule (B.) and new burial grounds hereafter approved of by Secretary of State ⁽¹⁾.]
8. [Saving as to St. Paul's Cathedral and Westminster Abbey ⁽¹⁾.]
9. [New burial grounds in the metropolis to be approved by Secretary of State ⁽¹⁾.]
10. Upon the requisition in writing of ten or more ratepayers of any parish in the metropolis in which the place or places of burial shall appear to such ratepayers insufficient or dangerous to health (and whether any order in council in relation to any burial ground in such parish has or has not been made), the churchwardens or other persons to whom it belongs to convene meetings of the vestry of such parish shall convene a meeting of the vestry, for the special purpose of determining whether a burial ground shall be provided under this Act for the parish; and public notice of such vestry meeting, and the place and hour of holding the same, and the special purpose thereof, shall be given in the usual manner in which notices of the meetings of the vestry are given, at least seven days before holding such vestry meeting; and if it be resolved by the vestry that a burial ground shall be provided under this Act for the parish, a copy of such resolution, extracted from the minutes of the vestry, and signed by the chairman, shall be sent to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State ⁽²⁾.
11. In case of such resolution as aforesaid the vestry shall appoint not less than three nor more than nine persons, being ratepayers of the parish, to be the burial board of such parish, of whom one third, or as nearly as may be one third (to be determined among themselves), shall go out of office yearly, at such time as shall be from time to time fixed by the vestry, but shall be eligible for immediate re-appointment: Provided always, that the incumbent of the parish shall be eligible to be appointed and re-appointed from time to time as one of the members of the said board, although not a - Church-wardens, after order, or at any time, upon requisition of ten ratepayers, to convene vestry meeting, to determine whether a burial ground shall be provided.
- In case vestry agree to provide a burial ground, burial board to be appointed.

⁽¹⁾ This section applies to the metropolis only.

⁽²⁾ By the Burial Act, 1853, s. 7, ante, p. 1156, ss. 10—42 and ss. 44, 50, 51 and 52 of this Act are extended to parishes, &c., not in the metropolis.

As to the meaning of vestry, see s. 52, post, and see In re Sunderland, 25 L. J. Q. B. 271, 4 W. R. 480, 2 Jur. N. S. 424, S. C. sub. nom. R. v. Peters, 6 E. & B. 225; In re Liverpool Burial Board, 26 L. J. Q. B. 213, 3 Jur. N. S. 441, S. C. sub. nom. R. v. Gladstone, 7 E. & B. 575, 5 W. R. 530. See now the Burial Act, 1854, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87, s. 1, and the Burial Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. c. 81, ss. 1 and 4, post.

ratepayer of the parish; provided also, that any member of the board may at any time resign his office, on giving notice in writing to the churchwardens or persons to whom it belongs to convene meetings of the vestry ⁽¹⁾. Secs. 11-19.

Resignation of members.

12. [Vacancies to be filled up by vestries ⁽²⁾.]

13. The board shall meet [at least once in every month] at their office, or some other convenient place previously publicly notified, and the said board may meet at such other time as at any previous meeting shall be determined upon; and it shall be at all times competent for any two members of the board by writing under their hands, to summon, with at least forty-eight hours notice, the board for any special purpose mentioned in such writing, and to meet at such time as shall be appointed therein ⁽³⁾. Meetings of the board ⁽¹⁾.

14. At all meetings of the board any number not less than three members of such board shall be a sufficient number for transacting business, and for exercising all the powers of the board. Quorum of meetings of the board ⁽¹⁾.

15. The board shall appoint, and may remove at pleasure, a clerk and such other officers and servants as shall be necessary for the business of the board and for the purposes of their burial ground, and, with the approval of the vestry, may appoint reasonable salaries, wages, and allowances for such clerk, officers, and servants, and when necessary, may hire and rent a sufficient office for holding their meetings and transacting their business. Board may appoint and remove officers, &c. ⁽¹⁾.

16. Entries of all proceedings of the board, with the names of the members who attend each meeting, shall be made in books to be provided and kept for that purpose, under the direction of the board, and shall be signed by the members present or any two of them; and all entries purporting to be so signed shall be received as evidence, without proof of any meeting of the board having been duly convened or held, or of the presence at any such meeting of the persons named in any such entry, as being present thereat, or of such persons being members of the board, or of the signature of any person by whom any such entry purports to be signed, all which matters shall be presumed until the contrary be proved; and the board shall provide and keep books in which shall be entered true and regular accounts of all sums of money received and paid for or on account of the purposes of this Act in the parish, and of all liabilities incurred by them for such purposes, and of the several purposes for which such sums of money are paid and such liabilities incurred. Minutes of proceedings of board to be entered in a book ⁽¹⁾.

Board to keep accounts, which shall be open to inspection ⁽¹⁾.

17. All such books shall at all reasonable times be open to the examination of every member of such board, churchwarden, overseer, and ratepayer, without fee or reward, and they respectively may take copies of or extracts from such books, or any part thereof, without paying for the same; and in case the members of such board, or any of them, or any of the officers or servants of such board having the custody of the said books, being thereunto reasonably requested, refuse to permit or do not permit any churchwarden, overseer, or ratepayer to examine the same, or take any such copies or extracts, every such member, officer, or servant so offending shall for every such offence, upon a summary conviction thereof before any justice of the peace, forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds. Penalty for refusing to allow inspection ⁽¹⁾.

18. The vestry shall yearly appoint two persons not being members of the board, to be auditors of the accounts of the board, and at such time in the month of March in every year as the vestry shall appoint the board shall produce to the auditors their accounts, with sufficient vouchers for all moneys received and paid, and the auditors shall examine such accounts and vouchers, and report thereon to the vestry. Auditors to be appointed yearly, who shall examine the accounts, and report to vestries ⁽¹⁾.

19. The expenses incurred or to be incurred by the burial board of any parish in carrying this Act into execution shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the rates for the relief of the poor of such parish; the expenses to be so incurred for or on account of any parish in providing and laying out a burial ground under this Act and building the necessary chapel or chapels thereon not to exceed such sum as the vestry shall authorise Expenses to be paid out of the poor's rate ⁽¹⁾.

⁽¹⁾ See note ⁽²⁾ on preceeding page.

⁽²⁾ See the preceeding note. This section, however, is now repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

⁽³⁾ The portion of this section between brackets is repealed, see the Burial Act, 1855, 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, s. 5, post.

Secs. 19-23. to be expended for such purpose; and the overseers or other officers authorised to make and levy rates for the relief of the poor in any parish shall, upon receipt of a certificate under the hands of such number of members of the burial board as are authorised to exercise the powers of the board of the sums required from time to time for defraying any such expenses as aforesaid, pay such sums out of the rates for the relief of the poor as the board shall direct.

Power to borrow money, with sanction of vestry, and approval of the Treasury (1). 20. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the board, with the sanction of the vestry and the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, to borrow any money required for providing and laying out any burial ground under this Act, and building a chapel or chapels thereon, or any of such purposes, and to charge the future poor rates of the parish with the payment of such money and interest thereon; provided [that there shall be paid in every year, in addition to the interest of the money borrowed and unpaid, not less than one twentieth of the principal sum borrowed, until the whole is discharged (2).]

The public works loan commissioners may advance money for the purposes of the Act (1). 21. The commissioners for carrying into execution an Act of the session holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-three, "to authorise for a further period the advance of money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited amount for carrying on public works and fisheries and employment of the poor," and any Act or Acts amending or continuing the same, may from time to time make to the burial board of any parish for the purposes of this Act any loan under the provisions of the recited Act, or the several Acts therein recited or referred to, upon security of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish.

Moneys raised, and the income arising from burial ground, to be applied towards defraying expenses (1). 22. The money raised for defraying such expenses, and the income arising from the burial ground provided for the parish, except fees payable to the incumbent, clerk, and sexton of the parish, and the other fees herein directed to be otherwise paid, shall be applied by the board in or towards defraying the expenses of such board under this Act; and whenever, after repayment of all moneys borrowed for the purposes of this Act in or for any parish and the interest thereof, and after satisfying all the liabilities of the board with reference to the execution of this Act in or for the parish, and providing such a balance as shall be deemed by the board sufficient to meet their probable liabilities during the then next year, there shall be at the time of holding the meeting of the vestry at which the yearly report of the auditors shall be produced any surplus money at the disposal of the board, they shall pay the same to the overseers, in aid of the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish.

Vestries of parishes may concur in providing a burial ground for the common use of such parishes (1). 23. The vestries of any parishes which shall have respectively resolved to provide burial grounds under this Act may concur in providing one burial ground for the common use of such parishes, in such manner, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as they shall mutually agree, and may agree as to the proportions in which the expenses of such burial ground shall be borne by such parishes, and the proportion for each of such parishes of such expenses shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the moneys to be raised for the relief of the poor of the same respective parish accordingly; and, according and subject to the terms which shall have been so agreed on, the burial boards appointed for such parishes respectively shall, for the purpose of providing and managing such one burial ground, and taking and holding land for the same, act as one joint burial board for all such parishes, and may have a joint office, clerk, and officers, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply to such joint burial board accordingly; and the accounts and vouchers of such board shall be examined and reported on by the auditors of each of such parishes; and the surplus money at the disposal as aforesaid of such board shall be paid to the overseers of such parishes respectively in the same proportions as those in which such parishes shall be liable to such expenses (3).

(1) See note (2) ante, p. 1158.

(2) See Ell v. Burial Board of St. Mary's, Islington, 1 Kay. 449.

The portion of the section within brackets is repealed by the Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. c. 81, s. 18, post.

(3) See further the Burial Act, 1855, 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, ss. 11, 12 and 13, post, and the Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. c. 81, s. 1, post. See, also, R. v. Sudbury, 1 E. B. & E. 264, 27 L. J. Q. B. 232, 31 L. T. 161, 4 Jur. N. S. 948.

24. For the more easy execution of the purposes of this Act the burial board of every parish appointed under this Act shall be a body corporate, by the name of "The Burial Board for the Parish of () in the county of ();" and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall sue and be sued, and have power and authority (without any license in mortmain) to take, purchase, and hold land for the purposes of this Act; and where the burial boards of two or more parishes act as and form one joint burial board for all such parishes for the purposes aforesaid, such joint board shall for such purposes only be a body corporate by the name of "The Burial Board for the parishes of and in the county of " and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall sue and be sued, and have power and authority as aforesaid to take, purchase, and hold land for the purposes of this Act.

Secs. 24-28.
Incorporation of burial boards (1).

25. Every burial board shall, with all convenient speed, proceed to provide a burial ground for the parish or parishes for which they are appointed to act, and to make arrangements for facilitating interments therein; and in providing such burial ground the board shall have reference to the convenience of access thereto from the parish or parishes for which the same is provided; and any such burial ground may be provided either within or without the limits of the parish, or all or any of the parishes, for which the same is provided; [but no ground not already used as or appropriated for a cemetery shall be appropriated as a burial ground, or as an addition to a burial ground, under this Act, nearer than two hundred yards to any dwelling house, without the consent in writing of the owner, lessee, and occupier of such dwelling house (2).]

Board to provide a burial ground, which may be within or without the parish (1).

26. For the providing such burial ground it shall be lawful for the burial board, with the approval of the vestry or vestries of the parish or respective parishes, to contract for and purchase any lands for the purpose of forming a burial ground, or for making additions to any burial ground to be formed or purchased under this Act, as such board may think fit, or to purchase from any company or persons entitled thereto any cemetery or cemeteries, or part or parts thereof, subject to the rights in vaults and graves, and other subsisting rights, which may have been previously granted therein: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such board, in lieu of providing any such burial ground, to contract with any such company or persons entitled as aforesaid for the interment in such cemetery or cemeteries, and either in any allotted part of such cemetery or cemeteries or otherwise, and upon such terms as the burial board may think fit, of the bodies of persons who would have had rights of interment in the burial grounds of such parish or respective parishes (3).

Board may, with approval of vestry, purchase land of cemeteries (1).

27. The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, (4) except the provisions of that Act "with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement," "with respect to the recovery of forfeitures, penalties, and costs," "with respect to lands acquired by the promoters of the undertaking under the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or the special Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, but which shall not be required for the purposes thereof," and "with respect to the provision to be made for affording access to the special Act by all parties interested," shall be incorporated with this Act; and for the purposes of this Act the expression "the promoters of the undertaking," wherever used in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, shall mean any such burial board.

Certain provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18 incorporated with this Act (1).

28. It shall be lawful for any such board, with the approval of the vestry, to sell and dispose of any lands purchased by them under this Act, or any part thereof, in which no interment shall have taken place, and which it may appear to the board may be properly sold or disposed of; and for completing and carrying any such sale into effect such board may make and execute a conveyance of the lands sold and disposed of as aforesaid unto Power to sell lands not wanted (1).

(1) See note (2), ante, p. 1158.

(2) The portion of the section between brackets is repealed by Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1855, 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, s. 9, post, which see. See, also, Burial Act, 1854, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87, s. 12, post.

(3) As to provision of cemeteries by local authorities see the Public Health (Interments) Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 31, ante, p. 1145.

(4) Ante, pp. 894, et seq.

Secs. 28-32. the purchaser, or as he shall direct; and such conveyance shall be under the hands of at least two of the members of the board, and under the seal of the board; and the word "grant" in such conveyance shall have the same operation as by the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, is given to the same word in a conveyance of lands made by the promoters of the undertaking; and a receipt under the hands of two of the members of the board shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser of any such lands for the purchase money in such receipt expressed to be received; and the money to arise from such sale shall be applied to such of the purposes of this Act as the board shall think fit.

Burial board may, with approval of vestry, &c., appropriate land belonging to parish ⁽¹⁾.

29. Provided always, that any burial board under this Act, with the approval of the vestry and of the guardians of the poor of the parish (if any), and of the Poor Law Board, may from time to time appropriate for the purposes of a burial ground for such parish, either alone or jointly with any other parish or parishes, any land vested in such guardians, or in the churchwardens, or in the churchwardens and overseers of the parish, or in any feoffees, trustees, or others, for the general benefit of the parish, or for any specific charity ⁽²⁾: Provided always, that where any land so taken and appropriated shall be subject to any charitable use, such lands shall be taken on such conditions only as the Court of Chancery in the exercise of its jurisdiction over charitable trusts shall appoint and direct.

Board may lay out burial ground, and build a chapel for performance of burials according to rites of Established Church ⁽¹⁾.

30. It shall be lawful for any burial board to lay out and embellish any burial ground provided by such board in such manner as may be fitting and proper, and to build on any land to be purchased or appropriated for a burial ground under this Act, and according to a plan to be approved of by the bishop of the diocese, a chapel for the performance of the burial service according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland; and such burial ground may be consecrated by the bishop of the diocese, when the same shall appear to him to be in a fit and proper condition, for the purposes of interment according to the rites of the United Church: Provided always, that in providing any burial ground such board shall set apart a portion thereof which shall not be so consecrated as aforesaid, and may build thereon a suitable chapel or chapels for the performance of funeral service.

Ground may be set apart for building a chapel, &c.

Burial board may contract for works to be done ⁽¹⁾.

31. Any burial board may from time to time enter into any contract with any persons or companies for building any chapel or chapels as aforesaid, and inclosing, laying out, and embellishing any burial ground, and for furnishing any materials and things, and for executing and doing any other works and things necessary for the purposes of this Act; which contracts respectively shall specify the several works and things to be executed, furnished, and done, and the prices to be paid for the same, and the times when the works and things are to be executed, furnished, and done, and the penalties to be suffered in cases of non-performance; and all such contracts or true copies thereof, shall be entered in books to be kept for that purpose: Provided always, that no contract above the value or sum of one hundred pounds shall be entered into by such burial board, for the purposes of this Act, unless previous to the making thereof fourteen days notice shall be given in one or more of the public newspapers published in the county or counties in which the parish or respective parishes shall be situated, expressing the intention of entering into such contract, in order that any person willing to undertake the same may make proposals for that purpose, to be offered to the burial board at a certain time and place in such notice to be mentioned, but it shall not be incumbent on the burial board to contract with the person offering the lowest price.

No contract above 100*l.* to be entered into without notice.

Burial ground to be the burial ground of the parish or parishes for which it is provided ⁽¹⁾.

32. From and after the consecration as aforesaid of any burial ground provided under this Act (except any portion thereof intended not to be so consecrated), or where all or any part of such burial ground, by reason of the same having been already consecrated, shall not require to be consecrated, then from and after such time as the bishop of the diocese shall appoint, such burial ground shall be deemed the burial ground of the parish for which the same is provided, and where the same is provided for two or more parishes such burial ground shall be in law as if such parishes were one parish, and as if such burial ground were the burial ground of such one parish; and every incumbent or minister of the parish or of each of the parishes (as the case may be) for which such burial ground is provided shall, by himself and his curate, or such duly qualified persons as such incumbent or minister may authorise, perform the duties and have the same rights and authorities for the performance of religious service in the burial in such burial ground, or in the consecrated portion thereof, of the remains of parishioners or inhabitants of the parish of which he is such incumbent or minister, and shall be entitled to receive the same fees in respect of such burials which he has previously enjoyed and received; and the clerk and sexton of such parish or of each of such parishes shall (when necessary) perform and exercise the same duties and functions in respect of the burial of the remains of parishioners or inhabitants of the parish of which he is clerk or sexton in such burial ground or the consecrated portion thereof, and shall be entitled to receive the same fees on such burials, as he has previously performed and exercised and received, as if such burial ground were the burial ground of the respective parish of such incumbent or minister, clerk and sexton respectively; and the parishioners and inhabitants of such parish or of each of such parishes shall have the same rights of sepulture in such burial ground as they respectively would have had in the burial ground or burial grounds in and for their respective parish, subject nevertheless to the provisions herein contained ⁽¹⁾.

⁽¹⁾ See note ⁽²⁾, ante, p. 1158.

⁽²⁾ See In re Egham Burial Board, 3 Jur. N. S. 956.

33. Any burial board, under such restrictions and conditions as they think proper, may sell the exclusive right of burial either in perpetuity or for a limited period, in any part of any burial ground provided by such board, and also the right of constructing any vault or place of burial with the exclusive right of burial therein in perpetuity or for a limited period, and also the right of erecting and placing any monument, grave-stone, tablet, or monumental inscription in such burial ground ⁽²⁾, but there shall be payable to the incumbent or minister of the parish out of the fees or payments to be paid in respect of any rights acquired under this enactment in the consecrated part of such burial ground (in lieu of the fees or sums which he would have been entitled to on the grant of the like rights in the burial ground of his parish) such fees or sums as shall be settled and fixed by the vestry with the approval of the bishop of the diocese, or if no such fees or sums shall have been so settled then such fees as he would by law or custom have been entitled to on the grant of the like rights in the burial ground of his parish ⁽⁴⁾.

34. Every burial board under this Act shall and may (without prejudice to the fees and payments herein specially provided for) fix and settle and receive such fees and payments in respect of interments in any burial ground provided by such board as they shall think fit, and also the sums to be paid for the exclusive right of burial, either in perpetuity or for a limited period, in any burial ground provided by such board, and also the right of constructing any vault or place of burial with the exclusive right of burial therein in perpetuity or for a limited period, and also the right of erecting and placing any monument, gravestone, tablet, or monumental inscription in such burial ground, and every burial board, with the consent of the vestry, may from time to time revise and alter such fees, payments, and sums, as aforesaid; and a table showing such fees, payments, and sums, and all other fees and payments in respect of interments in such ground, shall be printed and published, and shall be affixed and at all times continued on some conspicuous part of such burial ground ⁽⁵⁾.

35. Where at the time of the discontinuance of interment in any burial ground the fees in respect of burials therein are divided between the incumbent of the parish and the incumbent of any district parish or other ecclesiastical district, each incumbent shall have the same proportion of the fees in the burial ground to be provided under this Act as he was entitled to in respect of interments in the old burial ground.

⁽¹⁾ See Burial Board of St. Margaret, Rochester v. Thompson, L. R. 6 C. P. 445, 40 L. J. C. P. 213, 24 L. T. N. S. 673, 19 W. R. 892, 36 J. P. 6.

⁽²⁾ See note ⁽²⁾, ante, p. 1158.

⁽³⁾ See Ashby v. Harris, L. R. 3 C. P. 523, 37 L. J. M. C. 164, 18 L. T. N. S. 719, 16 W. R. 869.

⁽⁴⁾ As to burial grounds provided by the council of a borough, see now Burial Act, 1854, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87, s. 10, post.

⁽⁵⁾ Now by Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1855, 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, s. 7, post, all fees are subject to approval of Secretary of State.

Secs. 36-42.

Fees payable to churchwardens and others for parochial purposes ⁽¹⁾.

36. Where fees or any portion of fees payable on interments, or for any monument, gravestone, tablet, or monumental inscription, in the burial ground of any parish for which a burial ground is provided alone or jointly with any other parish or parishes under this Act, are by law or custom payable to the churchwardens of any parish, or to trustees or other persons, for or towards the payment of any annuity or stipend to the incumbent or minister, or any other parochial purpose, or the discharge of any debt or liability, such fees or portion of fees shall be payable in the burial ground to be provided as aforesaid for such parish under this Act, and shall be received by the burial board and paid to the parties entitled to receive the same; and where fees or payments have been received on interments, or for any monument, gravestone, tablet, or monumental inscription, in the burial ground of any such parish by any such churchwardens, or by trustees or other persons, for the purpose of discharging any periodical payment or other liability, it shall be lawful for the burial board, upon the request of such churchwardens, trustees, or persons, to pay from time to time, out of the fees and moneys received by them on account of such parish, such amount as may be necessary for discharging such periodical payment or liability.

Power to vestry, with consent of bishop, to revise the fees to incumbent, &c., or to substitute a fixed payment ⁽¹⁾.

37. It shall be lawful for the vestry of any parish from time to time, if they think fit, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to revise and vary the fees payable to the incumbent, clerk, and sexton, and other persons and bodies respectively, under the provisions of this Act, or, with such consent as aforesaid, to substitute for the fees payable to such incumbent, clerk, and sexton, and other persons and bodies respectively, a fixed annual sum of such amount as to such vestry may seem just, to be payable by such periodical payments as such vestry may appoint, and in such last-mentioned case the fees which would otherwise be payable under this Act to the incumbent, clerk, and sexton, and such other persons and bodies respectively, shall be paid to the burial board, and such fixed payments as aforesaid shall be paid by such board ⁽²⁾.

Management to be vested in burial boards ⁽¹⁾.

38. The general management, regulation, and control of the burial grounds provided under this Act shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the regulations to be made thereunder, be vested in and exercised by the respective burial boards providing the same; provided that any question which shall arise touching the fitness of any monumental inscription placed in any part of the consecrated portions of such grounds shall be determined by the bishop of the diocese.

Arrangements between the incumbents of parishes ⁽¹⁾.

39. Where a burial ground is provided under this Act for the common use of two or more parishes, in case any question arise among the incumbents of such parishes as to the performance of the burial service by a chaplain to be paid by means of contributions from such incumbents, or deductions from fees or sums payable to them, or otherwise touching the performance of service in the consecrated part of such ground, the bishop of the diocese shall from time to time confirm any arrangement which a majority, or, in case of equal numbers, one half of the incumbents shall approve, and such arrangement so confirmed shall be binding upon all the parties concerned.

Certain provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 65 incorporated with this Act ⁽¹⁾.
Boards may make arrangements for facilitating the conveyance of bodies to burial grounds ⁽¹⁾.
Places may be provided for reception

40. The provisions of The Cemeteries Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the protection of the cemetery ⁽³⁾, shall be incorporated with this Act, and be applicable to any burial ground provided under this Act.

41. Any burial board may make such arrangements as they may from time to time think fit for facilitating the conveyance of the bodies of the dead from the parish or the place of death to the burial ground which shall be provided under this Act, or to any other place of burial, subject to the provisions of this Act and the regulations to be made thereunder, and it shall be lawful for any of the aforesaid cemetery companies to undertake any such arrangement, and to carry the same into effect, subject to the provisions and regulations as aforesaid.

42. It shall be lawful for any burial board, with the approval of the vestry, and subject to the provisions of this Act and the regulations to be made thereunder, and for the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish in the metropolis for which a burial board shall not have been appointed under this Act, by the direction of the vestry, and subject as aforesaid, to hire, take on lease, or otherwise to provide fit and proper places in which bodies may be received and taken care of previously to interment, and to make arrangements for the reception and care of the bodies to be deposited therein, and for providing such places such burial boards may exercise the powers vested in them under this Act for providing burial grounds; and such churchwardens and overseers may exercise all such powers as, under the Act of the fifty-ninth year of King George the Third, chapter twelve, or otherwise, the churchwardens and overseers of any parish not having a workhouse might exercise for providing a workhouse for such parish (2).

⁽¹⁾ See note ⁽²⁾, ante, p. 1158.

⁽²⁾ As to burial grounds provided by the council of a borough, see now Burial Act, 1854, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87, s. 10, post.

⁽³⁾ I.e., 10 & 11 Vict. c. 65, ss. 58-61. The Act will be found, ante, p. 1146.

of bodies until interment (1).

43. [The Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London to be a burial board for the parishes in the city and its liberties (3).]

44. It shall be lawful for one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State from time to time to make such regulations in relation to the burial grounds and places for the reception of bodies previously to interment which may be provided under this Act as to him may seem proper, for the protection of the public health and the maintenance of public decency, and the burial boards and all other persons having the care of such burial grounds and places for the reception of bodies shall conform to and obey such regulations (4).

Secretary of State may make regulations as to burial grounds,
&c. (1).

45. [Brompton cemetery vested in Commissioners of Works (3).]

46. [Money authorised to be advanced under 14 & 15 Vict. c. 89, may be applied in completing the purchase of the Brompton cemetery (3).]

47. [Provision for winding up the West of London and Westminster Cemetery Company (3).]

48. [Brompton cemetery may be sold by direction of the Treasury, and in the meantime used for interments (3).]

49. [Limiting the compensation fee to be payable on pauper burials in cemeteries (3).]

50. Where under any local Act fees on interments in any burial ground of any parish in the metropolis are payable to the churchwardens of such parish, or to any trustees or other persons, for the purpose of enabling them to pay an annuity or stipend to the incumbent or minister, the fees which under this Act, or any Act relating to any cemetery company, would on the interment in the cemetery of any company of any body brought from such parish be payable to such incumbent or minister, shall be payable to the said churchwardens, trustees, or persons, and any surplus of such fees which may remain in their hands after payment of such annuity or stipend shall be paid to such incumbent or minister.

Incumbents' compensations to be payable to the churchwardens where the fees on burials are now paid to them, and the incumbents are not entitled (1).

51. Where any burial ground in which interment is discontinued under this Act belongs to any parish other than the parish within which the same is locally situate, it shall be lawful for the incumbent and churchwardens of the parish to which such burial ground belongs, with the consent of the vestry, or persons possessing the powers of vestry for ecclesiastical purposes of or in such parish, and of the bishop of the diocese, to convey any chapel belonging to such parish, and situate in or attached to such burial ground, and the site thereof, to any persons named by the incumbent and churchwardens of the parish within which the same is situate, with the consent of the vestry, or persons possessing the powers of vestry of or in such parish for ecclesiastical purposes, and of the said bishop, and upon such trusts for such last-mentioned parish, and subject to such conditions to be performed on behalf of such parish, and with such provision for the appointment of new trustees, as to the said bishop may seem proper; and such conveyance shall be effectual to pass all the estate and interest vested in any persons in trust or in behalf of the parish to which such chapel and the site thereof belong; and after the execution of such conveyance all obligation on such last-mentioned parish, or any trustees or others on behalf thereof, to repair such chapel, or to pay any stipend to the minister thereof, or otherwise in relation to or in connection with such chapel, shall cease.

Power for incumbent or churchwardens to convey chapel (1).

(1) See note (2), ante, p. 1158.

(2) See the Public Health Act, 1875, ss. 141, 142, 143, ante, p. 112.

(3) This section applies to the metropolis only.

(4) See further the Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1855, 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, s. 8, post.

Secs. 52-54. 52. In this Act the following words and expressions shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; that is to say, of terms ⁽¹⁾.

Interpretation

"Parish" shall mean every place having separate overseers of the poor, and separately maintaining its own poor ⁽²⁾:

"Ratepayers" shall mean the persons for the time being assessed to and paying rates for the relief of the poor of the parish:

"Incumbent" and "minister" shall, in respect of any fee made payable to an incumbent or minister under this Act, mean the clergyman who would have been entitled to the fee had the body been buried in the churchyard or burial ground of the parish from which it came, or in the burial ground of the ecclesiastical district in case such district has a burial ground at the passing of this Act, and if any difference shall arise between two or more persons severally claiming to be the incumbent or minister under this provision, such difference shall be determined by the bishop of the diocese:

"Churchwardens" shall mean also chapelwardens, or other persons discharging the duties of churchwardens:

"Overseers" shall mean also any persons authorised and required to make and collect or cause to be collected the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish, and acting instead of overseers of the poor:

"Vestry" shall mean the inhabitants of the parish lawfully assembled in vestry, or for any of the purposes for which vestries are holden, except in those parishes in which there is a select or other vestry elected under an Act of the fifty-ninth year of King George the Third, chapter twelve, "to amend the Laws for the Relief of the Poor," or elected under an Act passed in the second year of King William the Fourth, chapter sixty, "for the better Regulation of Vestries, and for the Appointment of Auditors of Accounts, in certain Parishes of England and Wales," or elected under the provisions of any local Act of Parliament for the government of any parish by vestries, in which parishes it shall mean such select or other vestry:

"Clerk" shall mean the clerk appointed pursuant to this Act by any burial board appointed under this Act.

53. [Definition of "the metropolis" ⁽³⁾.]

54. [Saving rights of cemetery companies ⁽³⁾.]

⁽¹⁾ See note ⁽²⁾ ante, p. 1158.

⁽²⁾ See R. v. Sudbury, El. Bl. & El. 264, 27 L. J. Q. B. 232, 31 L. T. 161, 4 Jur. N. S. 948, 6 W. R. 551, 22 J. P. 706. But see now the Poor Law Amendment Act of 1866, 29 & 30 Vict. c. 113, s. 18.

⁽³⁾ This section applies to the metropolis only.

BURIAL ACT, 1854.

17 & 18 VICT. c. 87.

An Act to make further Provision for the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the Limits of the Metropolis. [10th August, 1854.]

Whereas an Act was passed in the last session of Parliament, chapter one hundred and thirty-four, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the Limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the Dead in the Metropolis" (1): And whereas under the said Act provision is made for providing burial grounds for parishes by burial boards to be appointed by vestries: And whereas in some cases of parishes wholly or partly within boroughs there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants under the powers of the said Act, and it is expedient that in such cases such places of burial should be provided by the councils of such boroughs: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Secs. 1, 2.

16 & 17 Vict.
c. 134.

1. In case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the town council of any borough, stating that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds of one or more parishes being wholly or partly within such borough, that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing, under the powers of the said Act of the last session of Parliament, requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such parish or parishes, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that powers shall be vested in the council of such borough for providing such places of burial under the provisions of this Act: Provided always, that notice of such petition and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before such petition is so considered (2).

Her Majesty may, by order in council, invest town councils with the power of providing burial grounds.

2. Upon the making of any such order of Her Majesty in Council as aforesaid in relation to any borough, if the town council of the same shall decide upon providing one or more burial grounds, the said town council shall be a burial board for that purpose, and the provisions of the said Act of the last session, and the provisions of the Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-five, in the said Act of the last session mentioned or referred to, and thereby extended and made applicable as therein mentioned, except the provisions relating to the constitution, incorporation, meetings, entries of proceedings, and accounts of burial boards (3), shall, subject to the provisions herein contained, extend and be applicable to such borough and the council thereof, and to any burial ground and any places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such council under this Act in like manner as the same are applicable to any parish and the burial board thereof, and to

Upon the making of such order borough council to have all the powers vested in burial boards under 16 & 17 Vict. c. 134.

(1) Ante, p. 1155.

(2) See the Burial Act, 1855, 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, s. 1, post, following this Act.

(3) I.e., ss. 10—19, and s. 24, ante, pp. 1158, 1159, and 1161.

Secs. 2—7. any burial ground and any such places as aforesaid provided by such burial board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorisation of the vestry of any parish shall be requisite.

Expenses to be paid out of borough fund or borough rates.

3. Provided always, that all expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any borough shall, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, be chargeable upon and paid out of the borough fund and borough rates of such borough, or partly out of such fund and partly out of such rates, in like manner as if the same were expenses incurred in carrying into effect the provisions of an Act of the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six ⁽¹⁾; and any money to be borrowed under the authority of this Act by the Council of such borough, and the interest thereon, shall be charged by such council on the moneys out of which such expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, and the said provisions hereby extended and made applicable to the said council shall be construed accordingly; and any surplus of money raised for defraying such expenses as aforesaid, and of the income of any burial ground provided by the council of any borough, which if the same were provided by a burial board for any parish would be applicable in aid of the rate for the relief of the poor of such parish, shall be applicable in aid of the borough fund or borough rates of such borough, or in case a separate rate has been levied in parts only of such borough, for the purposes of this Act, as hereinafter provided, then such surplus shall be applied rateably towards payment or satisfaction of so much of any borough rate as may be leviable in such parts of such borough: Provided always, that such surplus shall be ascertained upon the auditing of the accounts of the Treasurer of such borough in the month of September in any year ⁽²⁾.

Money may be borrowed at lower rates of interest to pay off securities bearing a higher rate.

4. If any burial board under the said Act of the last session of Parliament, or the council of any borough acting under this Act, can at any time borrow at a lower rate of interest than that secured by any mortgage previously made by them, and then outstanding and in force, they may, if they think fit, so borrow accordingly in order to pay off and discharge any security or securities bearing a higher rate of interest, and to secure the repayment of the money so borrowed, and the interest to be paid thereon in like manner as other moneys authorised to be borrowed by such burial board or council under the said Act of the last session or this Act.

Power to borrow money to pay off former mortgages.

5. If at the time appointed by any mortgage for payment of the principal money secured thereby any such burial board or council as aforesaid are unable to pay off the same, they may, if they think fit, borrow such sum of money as may be necessary for the purpose of paying off all or any part of such principal money, and secure the repayment of the money so borrowed, and the interest to be paid thereon, in like manner as other moneys authorised to be borrowed by such burial board or council under the said Act of the last session or this Act.

Council how to act under this Act, and conveyances and sales of lands how to be made.

6. The council of any borough shall act in execution and exercise of their duties, powers, and authorities under this Act in like manner as in execution and exercise of their duties, powers, and authorities under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth ⁽¹⁾; and every conveyance of land to be purchased for the purposes of this Act shall be taken in the name of the body corporate of such borough, and such body corporate shall have power to hold such lands for the purposes of this Act; and no lands purchased under this Act by the council of any borough shall be sold, except with the like approbation and subject to the like restrictions as if sold under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth ⁽³⁾; and the signature of any member or members of such council shall not be necessary to any conveyance of any lands so sold; and a receipt under the hand of the treasurer of such borough shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser of any such lands for the purchase money in such receipt expressed to be received.

Burial ground to be deemed to be for the parishes in the borough.

7. The burial ground or burial grounds provided for any borough under this Act shall be deemed to be provided for such parish or parishes wholly or in part situate in such borough as the town council shall determine.

⁽¹⁾ Now the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, ante, p. 259.

⁽²⁾ See the Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. c. 81, ss. 22, post.

⁽³⁾ See now ss. 108, 109, 110, 128 and 236 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, ante, p. 259.

8. It shall be lawful for the council of any borough, if they see fit, in fixing and settling, revising and altering, the fees, payments, and sums mentioned in section thirty-four of the said Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty, from time to time to fix all or any of such fees, payments, and sums in respect of interments of the remains of persons, being inhabitants of that part of any parish partly within and partly without the limits of such borough which is without such limits, and in respect of other rights to be exercised with reference to the interment of the remains of such persons, at a higher amount than the ordinary charge for the time being fixed by such council in respect of the like matters; provided always, that such higher amount shall be fixed with the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State.

9. Where, previously to the making of any Order in Council under this Act in relation to any borough, it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the town council so made as aforesaid, or otherwise, that any parish wholly or in part within such borough is provided with a sufficient burial ground, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in and by such order to direct that no part of such parish shall be assessed towards defraying the expenses of executing this Act in such borough, and in such case no burial ground provided for such borough under this Act shall be deemed to be provided for such parish; and any money required to be raised in such borough for defraying such expenses, or paying any money borrowed under this Act by the council of such borough, or any interest thereon, by means of a rate to be levied in such borough, shall be raised by a separate rate, to be levied within such parts of such borough as are not exempted under such order from being assessed as aforesaid; and (so far as may be consistent with this provision) the council of such borough shall have all such powers for making and levying such rate, and all provisions shall be applicable in respect thereof, as in the case of a borough rate made under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth (¹).

10. The powers of settling and fixing the fees or sums to be payable to the incumbent or minister, and of revising and varying the fees payable to the incumbent, clerk, and sexton, and other persons and bodies, and of substituting for such fees fixed annual sums, by sections thirty-three and thirty-seven of the said Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty given to the vestry, and exercisable with the approval or consent of the bishop of the diocese, as therein mentioned, shall, with respect to fees and sums arising in or from any burial ground provided under this Act by the council of any borough, be transferred to such council and be exercisable with the like approval or consent.

11. It shall be lawful for the council of any borough to appropriate for the purposes of this Act any land belonging to the body corporate of such borough, or vested in any feoffees, trustees, or others, for the general benefit of the borough, or for any specific charity; provided always, that where any land so appropriated shall be subject to any charitable use, such land shall be taken on such conditions only as the Court of Chancery, in the exercise of its jurisdiction over charitable trusts, shall appoint and direct.

12. So much of the said Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty as enacts, that "no ground (not already used as or appropriated for a cemetery) shall be appropriated as a burial ground or as an addition to a burial ground under that Act nearer than two hundred yards to any dwelling house, without the consent in writing of the owner, lessee, and occupier of such dwelling house," shall not extend or be applicable to or in respect of any burial grounds which have been or may be provided under the said Act of the last session and this Act, or either of them, or to or in respect of any addition which has been or may be so provided to any burial ground; but no ground not already used as or appropriated for a cemetery shall be appropriated under the said Act of the last session and this Act, or either of them, as a burial ground, or as an addition to a burial ground, nearer than one hundred yards to any dwelling house, without such consent as aforesaid.

Council may fix a higher rate of payment for interment, &c. in respect of outlying part of any parish partly situate in the borough.

Order in Council may except parishes already having burial grounds; and in such case, if a rate be necessary, a separate rate to be made on the rest of the borough.

Powers of vestry, with consent of bishop, of fixing and revising the fees payable to incumbent, &c., transferred to the borough council.

Council may appropriate land belonging to the borough.

Burial ground not to be within 100 yards of a dwelling house.

(¹) See now the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 144, ante, 313.

BURIAL ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1855.

18 & 19 VICT. c. 128.

An Act further to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England.

[14th August, 1855.]

Secr. 1—3.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 85.

16 & 17 Vict.
c. 134.

17 & 18 Vict.
c. 87.

Orders in Council under the recited Acts may be varied by like orders.

Penalty on persons burying contrary to the provisions of Orders in Council.

Power to churchwardens to call vestry meetings for providing burial grounds.
Where Order in Council has been made, or

Whereas an Act was passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty (chapter eighty-five), "to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis" ⁽¹⁾; and an Act was passed in the session of Parliament holden in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty (chapter one hundred and thirty four), "to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis" ⁽²⁾; and an Act was passed in the last session of Parliament (chapter eighty-seven), "to make further provisions for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis" ⁽³⁾: And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made for the burial of the dead, and that the said Acts should be amended: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the said recited Acts or this Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder or other operation of such order shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit; and every Order of Her Majesty in Council made before the passing of this Act for varying any order previously made under the said Acts or any of them shall be deemed valid and effectual in law.

2. If any person, after the time mentioned in any Order in Council under the said Acts or any of them, or this Act, for the discontinuance of burials, shall knowingly and wilfully bury any body or in anywise act or assist in the burial of any body in any church, chapel, churchyard, burial ground, or place of burial or (as the case may be) within the limits in which burials have by such orders been ordered to be discontinued, in violation of the provisions of any such order, every person so offending shall, upon summary conviction before two justices of the peace, forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

3. The churchwardens or other persons to whom it belongs to convene meetings of the vestry of any parish in which no burial board has been appointed may, at any time, at their discretion, without requisition of ratepayers for that purpose, convene a meeting of such vestry for the purpose of determining whether a burial ground shall be provided for the parish; and where any Order in Council has been made before the passing of this Act for discontinuing burials (wholly or subject to any exception or qualification) in any burial ground of any parish for which no burial board has been appointed, or notice has been given of the intention of the Secretary of State to make a representation to Her Majesty in Council that burials should be discontinued (wholly or subject to any exception or qualification) in any burial ground of any parish, the churchwardens or other persons to whom it belongs to convene meetings of vestry shall, with all convenient speed after the passing of this Act, convene a meeting of the vestry for the purpose aforesaid; and where at any time hereafter notice is given of the intention of the Secretary of State to make a like representation in relation to a burial ground of any parish, such churchwardens or other persons as aforesaid shall forthwith convene a meeting of the vestry for the purpose aforesaid; and all the provisions of the said Acts as amended by this Act relating to and consequent upon vestry meetings convened upon such requisition as provided by the first-recited Act shall be applicable to vestry meetings convened under this enactment.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1158.

⁽²⁾ Ante, p. 1155.

⁽³⁾ Ante, p. 1167.

Secs. 3—8

notice given to apply to the Privy Council for closing burial grounds, churchwardens shall call a meeting of vestry. Vacancies in burial board to be filled up by vestry within a month.

4. Every vacancy in any burial board shall be filled up by the vestry appointing the same within one month after such vacancy shall have happened, and immediately on the occurrence thereof the same shall be notified by the burial board to the churchwardens or other persons to whom it belongs to convene meetings of the vestry; and in case any such vestry shall neglect to fill up any such vacancy, the vacancy may be filled up by the burial board at any meeting thereof; and every person to be appointed to supply any such vacancy shall be a ratepayer of the parish for which the burial board is appointed; and every such board may act for any purpose, notwithstanding any vacancies therein.

5. [Monthly meetings of boards (1).]

6. If the vestry of any parish shall refuse or neglect to authorise the expenditure of such sums as the burial board of such parish shall have declared to be necessary for providing and laying out a burial ground, and building the necessary chapel or chapels therein, it shall be lawful for such burial board to represent such refusal or neglect to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and in case it shall appear to the Secretary of State, after inquiry into the circumstances of the case, that the burial board are unable to provide such burial ground, or to proceed effectually in the execution of their duties, by reason of such refusal or neglect, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, by warrant under his hand, to authorise such burial board, without further authority, sanction, or approval of or by such vestry, to expend such sums of money for providing and laying out a burial ground, and building the necessary chapel or chapels thereon, and to borrow and charge such money for all or any of such purposes, and to enter into and make such contracts and purchases, and do such other acts as under the sections nineteen, twenty, twenty-six, and forty-two of the said Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty might have been expended, borrowed, and charged, entered into, made, and done with the authority, approval, and sanction of such vestry, subject, nevertheless, to such limitation of amount or other limitation or restriction as such Secretary of State may by his warrant prescribe; and all acts done in pursuance of such warrant shall be as valid and effectual as if the authority, approval, and sanction of such vestry had in every case been obtained.

Sanction of vestry not required for expenditure and other acts of burial board in certain cases.

7. All such fees, payments, and sums as may be fixed, settled, and received by any burial board under section thirty-four of the said Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty, shall be so fixed and settled subject to the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and no such fees, payments, or sums shall be altered or varied without such approval.

Fees, &c., to be subject to the approval of Secretary of State.

8. It shall be lawful for one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State from time to time to appoint and authorise any person to inspect any burial ground or cemetery, parochial or non-parochial, or place for the reception of bodies, to ascertain the state and condition thereof, and where regulations in relation thereto have been made or may be made by the Secretary of State under the said Acts or any of them, to ascertain whether such regulations have been observed and complied with; and if any person having the care of any such burial ground or cemetery or other place shall obstruct any person so authorised to inspect the same, or if any person having the care of any burial ground or place for the reception of bodies subject to such regulations as aforesaid shall violate or neglect or fail to observe and comply with any such regulation, or any regulation imposed

Secretary of State may direct inspection of burial grounds.

Penalty for obstructing inspector or violating regulations.

(1) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

Secs. 8—12. by this Act, every person so offending shall upon summary conviction thereof before two justices forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

Part of section 25 of 15 & 16 Vict.
c. 85, repealed.

Burial ground not to be within 100 yards of a dwelling house.

If ratepayers resolve, land for new burial ground may be conveyed and settled as old burial ground.

How burial grounds are to be provided for united parishes.

Burial boards may be appointed for township, &c.
(not sepa-

9. So much of the said Act of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty as enacts that "no ground (not already used as or appropriated for a cemetery) shall be appropriated as a burial ground or as an addition to a burial ground under that Act nearer than two hundred yards to any dwelling-house, without the consent in writing of the owner, lessee, and occupier of such dwelling-house," shall be repealed; but no ground not already used as or appropriated for a cemetery shall be used for burials under the said Act or this Act, or either of them, within the distance of one hundred yards from any dwelling-house, without such consent as aforesaid (1).

10. If the ratepayers assembled at any vestry duly convened under the provisions of this Act shall, in pursuance of public notice duly given in that behalf, resolve unanimously that any new burial ground to be provided for their parish, under the provisions of this Act, shall be held and used in like manner and subject to the same laws and regulations in all respects as the existing burial ground or churchyard of the said parish, the land for such new burial ground may be conveyed and settled in accordance with such resolution, anything in this or the said recited Acts notwithstanding, and in such case it shall not be necessary to set apart to remain unconsecrated any portion of the land so conveyed and settled: Provided always, that if at any time within ten years thereafter the vestry, duly convened under the provisions of this Act in pursuance of public notice duly given in that behalf, should determine that an unconsecrated burial ground should be also provided for such parish, all the powers and provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act may be put in force and shall be applicable for providing such unconsecrated burial ground separately, in like manner as they might have been put in force and been applicable for providing an ordinary burial ground for such parish.

11. Where a parish or place has been united with any other parish or place, parishes or places, for all or any ecclesiastical purposes, or where two or more parishes or places have heretofore had a church or a burial ground for their joint use, or where the inhabitants of several parishes or places have been accustomed to meet in one vestry for purposes common to such several parishes or places, it shall be lawful for the vestry or any meeting in the nature of a vestry of such several parishes or places in any of the cases aforesaid, and whether any one or more of such parishes or places do or do not separately maintain its own poor, to appoint a burial board, and from time to time to supply vacancies therein, and to exercise the same powers of authorisation, approval, and sanction in relation to such burial board, and such other powers as under the said Acts and this Act are vested in the vestry of a parish or place separately maintaining its own poor; and the burial board so appointed shall have all the powers for providing a burial ground for the common use of such several parishes or places, and for facilitating interments, and otherwise, as if such several parishes or places had been a parish separately maintaining its own poor; and the expenses of the burial board appointed under this provision shall be borne by the several parishes or places for which such board is appointed, and shall be apportioned among them by such burial board in proportion to the value of the property in such several parishes or places as rated to the relief of the poor; and the sums required by the burial board in respect of the portion of such expenses to be borne by any such parish or place shall be paid out of the rates for the relief of the poor in such parish or place, in like manner as if such burial board had been appointed for such parish or place alone (2).

12. The vestry or meeting in the nature of a vestry of any parish, township, or other district not separately maintaining its own poor, which has heretofore had a separate burial ground, may appoint a burial board, and from time to time supply vacancies therein, and may exercise the same powers of authorisation, approval, and sanction in relation to such burial board, and such other powers as under the said Acts and this Act are vested in the vestry of a parish separately maintaining its own poor; and the burial board so appointed shall have all the powers for providing a burial ground and otherwise as if such parish, township, or other district had been a parish separately maintaining its own poor (¹). Secs. 12-16.

(1) See Cowley (Lord) v. Byas, L. R. 5 Ch. D. 944, 37 L. T. N. S. 233, 26 W. R. 1, 41 J. P. 804.

The provision applies to all burial grounds, private as well as public: Greenwood v. Wadsworth, 16 L. R. Eq. 288, 43 L. J. Ch. 78, 29 L. T. N. S. 88, 21 W. R. 722.

(2) See the Burial Acts Amendment Act, 1857, 20 & 21 Vict. c. 81, s. 5, post.

13. Where any district (whether a parish or township or other subdivision) not separately maintaining its own poor, but forming part of a parish maintaining its own poor, or of an incorporation or other union maintaining the poor of the places comprised therein, by means of a common rate, shall have a burial board, or shall form part of a place or union of places not co-extensive with the area rated for the relief of the poor, and having one burial board, it shall be lawful for such respective burial board to issue their certificate to the overseers of such parish, or the overseers or other persons authorised to make and collect or cause to be collected such common rate (as the case may be), for payment of the sums required for the expenses of such burial board, or, where such district not separately maintaining its own poor forms part only of the area of the burial board, of the sums required in respect of the portion of such expenses to be borne by such district, in like manner as if such district had been a parish separately maintaining its own poor, and such overseers or persons authorised as aforesaid had been the overseers thereof; and such overseers or persons shall pay such sums as shall be required by such certificate, according to the directions of such burial board, and shall levy such sums as may be required for such payments to the burial board by an addition to the parish rate or common rate, so far as the same affects the district in respect of which such payments are required, or by separate rates to be made from time to time on such district; and for levying such additions or separate rates as aforesaid such overseers or other persons shall have the powers, remedies, and privileges, and proceed in the same manner, as in the case of the rates for the relief of the poor; provided that any such rates may (notwithstanding any restriction in relation to the parish rate or common rate) be made and levied at such times as may be necessary to provide for the payments aforesaid.

14. And whereas doubts have arisen whether in all cases in which any burial board shall build in any burial ground provided by such board a chapel for the burial service according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, such burial board is not also bound by law to build a chapel or chapels upon the unconsecrated part of such burial ground for the performance of burial service for persons not being members of the said church: Be it enacted, that in any such case as aforesaid, where it shall appear to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, upon the representation of a majority of the vestry of any parish, consisting of not less than three-fourths of the members of the same, that the building of a chapel upon the unconsecrated part of any such burial ground for the use of persons not being members of the said church is undesirable and unnecessary, it shall be lawful for the said Secretary of State, if he shall think fit, to signify his opinion to that effect to the burial board of the parish, and the said burial board shall thereupon be relieved from all obligation to build the same: Provided always, that such Secretary of State shall not signify his opinion as aforesaid unless it be shown to his satisfaction that notice of the intention to propose to such vestry to make such representation was given in manner required by law for notices of vestry meetings, and of the special purposes thereof.

15. No land already or to be hereafter purchased or acquired, under the provisions of any of the Acts hereinbefore recited, for the purpose of a burial ground (with or without any building erected or to be erected thereon), shall while used for such purposes be assessed to any county, parochial, or other local rates at a higher value or more improved rent than the value or rent at which the same was assessed at the time of such purchase or acquisition.

16. That in any case where the burial boards appointed under the said recited Acts of the fifteenth and sixteenth and the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, or either of them, for any two parishes, shall provide separate burial grounds for such parishes respectively, and such burial grounds shall adjoin each other, it shall be lawful for the said burial boards to concur in building, either on one of the said burial grounds rately maintaining their own poor) which have had separate burial grounds. Provision for expenses of burial boards of places not separately maintaining their own poor.

No obligation to build a chapel for persons not members of the Church of England when Secretary of State, upon representation of three fourths of vestry, declares it unnecessary.

Assessment to local rates not to be increased after purchases for the purposes of this or any former Act.

Separate burial boards whose burial grounds adjoin may

(¹) See Viner v. Tunbridge Churchwardens and Overseers, 28 L. J. M. C. 251, 33 L. T. 202, 5 Jur. N. S. 1293; R. v. Overseers of Tunbridge, L. R. 13 Q. B. D. 339, 53 L. J. Q. B. 488, 51 L. T. N. S. 179, 33 W. R. 24.

Secs. 16-21.

contract with each other for specific purposes.

or partly on one of such grounds and partly on the other, such chapels as are authorised to be built by the said Acts, and that such chapels when erected shall be used in common by both of such parishes, and be deemed and taken to be the chapels of and belonging to each of such burial grounds respectively in such manner, consistent with the provisions of the said Acts or either of them, as the said burial boards shall mutually agree upon; and that the said burial boards may agree as to the proportions in which the expenses of erecting such chapel accommodation shall be borne by each of the said boards respectively; and the proportion for each of such parishes of such expenses shall be chargeable upon and paid in the same manner as the costs for providing burial grounds under the said Acts; and where any burial board shall provide a burial ground, and cause chapels to be built thereon, pursuant to the said recited Acts, it shall be lawful for such burial board, with the sanction of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, to contract with any other burial board whose burial ground shall adjoin the one on which such chapels shall so have been built, for the use of such chapels, in such manner and on such terms as such respective burial boards shall mutually agree, and that during the existence of any such agreement such chapels shall be deemed and taken to be the chapels of and belonging to each of such burial grounds respectively.

Burial board may let land not required for burials.

17. It shall be lawful for any burial board, with the sanction of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and subject to regulations approved of by him, to let any land purchased by and vested in them under this Act or any of the Acts hereinbefore recited, and which has not been consecrated, and in which no body has been at any time interred, and which is not for the time being required for the purposes of a burial ground, in such manner and on such terms as such board may see fit, but so nevertheless that power shall be reserved to such board to resume any such land which may be required for the purposes aforesaid, upon giving six months notice.

Burial board to keep in order closed burial grounds, &c.

18. In every case in which any Order in Council has been or shall hereafter be issued for the discontinuance of burials in any churchyard or burial ground, the burial board or churchwardens, as the case may be, shall maintain such churchyard or burial ground of any parish in decent order, and also do the necessary repair of the walls and other fences thereof, and the costs and expenses shall be repaid by the overseers, upon the certificate of the burial board or churchwardens, as the case may be, out of the rate made for the relief of the poor of the parish or place in which such churchyard or burial ground is situate, unless there shall be some other fund legally chargeable with such costs and expenses (¹).

Act not to abridge powers of local boards of health,
&c.

19. Nothing in this Act contained shall in anywise abridge, lessen, or defeat any power, right, or privilege of any local board of health being the burial board of a borough created or to exist under or by virtue of any local Act of Parliament.

Local boards of health to exercise powers of this Act.
Acts to be construed together.

20. Any local board of health acting as or created a board under or by virtue of the powers of any local Act of Parliament shall and may have and exercise all the powers, rights, and privileges which by this Act or by the secondly recited Act are or can or may be had, enjoyed, or exercised by any burial board therein named.

21. The said Acts of the fifteenth and sixteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth, and seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty and this Act shall be read and construed together as one Act.

(¹) This section applies only to a burial ground belonging to a parish and not to one belonging to a private person: R. v. St. John Westgate, 2 B. & S. 703, 31 L. J. Q. B. 205, 6 L. T. N. S. 504, 8 Jur. N. S. 229

BURIAL ACTS AMENDMENT ACT, 1857.

20 & 21 VICT. c. 81.

An Act to amend the Burial Acts.

[25th August, 1857.]

Whereas an Act was passed in the session holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty (chapter eighty-five), "to amend the laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis;" ⁽¹⁾ and an Act was passed in the session holden in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty (chapter one hundred and thirty-four), "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis;" ⁽²⁾ and an Act was passed in the session holden in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty (chapter eighty-seven), "to make further Provision for the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis;" ⁽³⁾ and Acts were passed in the session holden in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty (chapters seventy-eight and one hundred and twenty-eight), "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England:" ⁽⁴⁾ And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Acts: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Secs. 1—3.

15 & 16 Vict.
c. 85.

16 & 17 Vict.
c. 134.

17 & 18 Vict.
c. 87.

18 & 19 Vict.
cc. 78, 123.

1. All Acts authorised to be done by any burial board, with the approval, sanction, or authority of the vestry or vestries of the parish or parishes for which such board is constituted, may, where a joint burial board is constituted for more than two parishes, be done with the approval, sanction, or authority (as the case may require) of the vestries of the majority of such parishes.

Approval of a majority of vestries of parishes sufficient for Acts done

2. Where the vestries of two or more parishes have agreed to provide one burial ground for the common use of such parishes, such vestries may, at any time before such burial ground has been provided, determine the union between such parishes under such agreement, and upon such union being so determined all the provisions of the said Acts and this Act shall be applicable with regard to such parishes and the respective burial boards thereof as if such union had not been formed, save that any expenses already properly incurred by the joint burial board for such parishes shall be defrayed as provided by the said Acts.

by burial boards acting for more than two parishes.

Joint burial boards may be dissolved.

3. Any burial board may, if they see fit with the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, provide more than one burial ground, and may, if they see fit, with such approval, instead of setting apart a portion of any burial ground for the purpose of such portion being used as unconsecrated ground, provide separate and distinct grounds to be used respectively as consecrated and unconsecrated burial grounds: Where before the passing of this Act any burial board has provided more than one burial ground, or has (instead of setting apart a portion of any burial ground for the purpose of

Burial
boards may provide more than one burial ground.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1158.

⁽²⁾ Ante, p. 1155.

⁽³⁾ Ante, p. 1167.

⁽⁴⁾ 18 & 19 Vict. c. 123, will be found, ante, p. 1170. The reference to 18 & 19 Vict. c. 78 is a mistake.

Secs. 3—5. being used as unconsecrated ground) provided separate and distinct grounds as consecrated and unconsecrated burial grounds, such burial board shall be deemed to have acted lawfully and in accordance with the said Acts.

Local board of health may, by Order in Council, be constituted a burial board.

4. In case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the local board of health of any district established under the Public Health Act, or upon the petition of any commissioners elected by the ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such local board of health or of such commissioners is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, and that no burial board has been appointed for such district, and that an order in council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such local board shall be a burial board for the district of such local board, or that such commissioners shall be a burial board for the district of such commissioners, and thereupon such local board or such commissioners, as the case may be, shall be a burial board for such district accordingly; and the powers and provisions of the Acts herein-before mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of burial boards), and the provisions herein contained, shall extend to the district of such board, and to such board, or to the district of such commissioners, and to such commissioners, and to any burial ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such board or by such commissioners, in like manner as to any parish or parishes and the burial board thereof, and any burial ground and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned board, save that no approval, sanction, or authorisation of any vestry shall be requisite: Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such local board or of such commissioners, one month at least before such petition is so considered: Provided also, that this enactment shall not apply to any such district as aforesaid exclusively consisting of the whole or part of one corporate borough within the meaning of the Public Health Act, 1848 ⁽¹⁾.

Burial board may be established for a district not maintaining its own poor, and which has had no separate burial ground.

5. The vestry, or meeting in the nature of a vestry, of any parish, new parish, township, or other district not separately maintaining its own poor, and which has had no separate burial ground, may appoint a burial board; and such vestry or meeting, and the burial board appointed by it, shall exercise and have all the powers which they might have exercised and had under the said Acts and this Act, if such parish, new parish, township, or district had had a separate burial ground before the passing of the said Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty: Provided always, that all the powers of any other vestry or meeting and burial board, if any, shall then cease and determine, so far as relates to such parish, new parish, township, or district as aforesaid; and until a burial ground shall be so provided as aforesaid and consecrated for any new parish or district-created or to be created pursuant to the provisions of the sixth and seventh Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, the seventh and eighth Victoria, chapter ninety-four, and the nineteenth and twentieth Victoria, chapter one hundred and four, or any or either of them, and to which the said Acts, or any or either of them, may apply, the incumbent of such new parish or district (if any burial ground has been or shall be provided under the herein recited Acts for the burial of the dead, or any or either of them, for any parish or parishes out of rates to which such new parish or district, or any part thereof, shall have contributed or contribute or be liable), shall with respect to the burial in such last-mentioned burial ground of the remains of the parishioners or inhabitants of such new parish or district, or of such part thereof as shall have contributed or contribute as aforesaid, as the case may be, perform the same duties, and have the same rights, privileges, and authorities, and be entitled to the same fees, and also the clerk and sexton of such new parish or district shall, when necessary, respectively perform the same duties, and be entitled to the same fees, in respect of such burials, as if the said burial ground were exclusively the burial ground of such new parish or district, subject nevertheless to all provisions to which the incumbents, clerks, and sextons of original parishes are respectively subject in and by the said burial Acts, or any or either of them: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall affect the rights or privileges of any existing incumbent, clerk, or sexton without the consent of such incumbent, clerk, or sexton respectively ⁽¹⁾.

⁽¹⁾ See now 29 & 30 Vict. c. 90, s. 44, ante, p. 257, and the Public Health Act, 1875, ss. 4, 310 and 343, ante, pp. 42, 214 and 224.

Secs. 5—8.

6. Where the guardians of any parish or union are or shall hereafter become possessed of any land suitable to the purposes of a burial ground, and the Poor Law Board shall consent to the same being appropriated to the reception of the dead bodies of any poor persons whom such guardians shall be authorised or required by law to bury, it shall be lawful for the ordinary of the diocese wherein such land shall be situated, if he see fit, to consecrate the whole or a part of such land for burial purposes, and after consecration the guardians may lawfully direct any such dead body as aforesaid to be buried therein; and the land so consecrated shall not thenceforth be used for any other purposes than for burials according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, and shall be kept in decent order; and the fences thereof, and any building or other erection therein or adjoining thereto used for the performance of the burial service, shall be maintained in good repair by the guardians, out of the common fund of such parish or union: Provided nevertheless, that the guardians shall not be authorised to direct the body of any poor person to be buried in such grounds who, or whose husband, wife, or next of kin, shall, by letter addressed to the master of the workhouse or otherwise, have expressly desired burial to take place elsewhere.

Ordinary of diocese may consecrate the whole or part of land belonging to any parish for the burial of poor persons.

7. Where a burial ground has been provided for any parish under any of the Acts commonly referred to or known as the Church Building Acts, and the same has been consecrated, and any money expended in providing such burial ground has been borrowed on the security of the church rates, it shall be lawful for the incumbent of the parish, with the consent of the ordinary and the burial board of such parish, or of any borough or district in which such parish is wholly or in part comprised, by instrument in writing under the hands and seals of such incumbent and ordinary, and under the seal of the said burial board, to declare that, in consideration of the payment of the debt by the said burial board, or of such sum as shall be mutually agreed upon, with the consent of the persons, signified in writing under their hands, to whom two thirds of such debt is due, the said burial ground shall be vested in and be under the care and management of such burial board, and thereupon the same shall be vested in and be under the care and management of such board, and shall be subject to the provisions of the herein-before recited Acts and this Act applicable to a consecrated burial ground or the consecrated part of any burial ground provided by any burial board; and any money borrowed as aforesaid, and remaining owing, and the interest due and to become due thereon, and all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof, or incurred in providing such burial ground, and then remaining unpaid, shall be charged on and paid out of such rates or fund as under the said last-mentioned Acts and this Act would be chargeable with the expense of providing a burial ground by such board, and such declaration as aforesaid shall be registered in the registry of the diocese; and such board may, with the approval of the vestry, enlarge such burial ground, by the addition of ground to be used for burials otherwise than according to the rites of the Church of England, and to be used subject to the provisions of the Acts herein recited, and of this Act in respect to the unconsecrated portions of burial grounds ⁽²⁾.

Provision for transfer to a burial board of a burial ground provided under Church Building Acts.

8. It shall and may be lawful for the vestry of any parish in which any burial ground closed by Order in Council may be situate, and which does not belong to such parish, by resolution of the vestry at a meeting called for that purpose, to purchase such burial ground, and from the time of such purchase such burial ground shall belong to such

Vestry of parish in which burial ground is closed may

⁽¹⁾ See as to this section, Ormerod v. Blackburn, 28 L. T. N. S. 438, and Cronshaw v. Wigan Burial Board, L. R. 8 Q. B. 217, 42 L. J. Q. B. 137, 28 L. T. N. S. 283.

Generally as to vestry meetings, see note ⁽²⁾, ante, p. 1158.

⁽²⁾ I.e., 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85, s. 30, ante, p. 1162; 16 & 17 Vict. c. 134, s. 7, ante, p. 1156; 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, s. 14, ante, p. 1173, and s. 3 of this Act, ante, p. 1175.

Secs. 8—11. parish and be subject to all the conditions affecting the burial grounds of the parish in which the same is situate.

purchase such burial ground if not belonging to parish.

Burial boards not to be appointed for united parishes, &c. in cases provided for by 18 & 19 Vict. c. 128, without consent of Secretary of State, where one of the places separately maintains its own poor or has a burial ground.

Orders in Council may be made for regulating burial grounds, &c.

No wall or fence required between the consecrated and unconsecrated portions of burial ground. Boundary marks to be provided.

9. And whereas by the said Act of the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-eight, it is enacted ⁽¹⁾, that where a parish or place has been united with any other parish or place, parishes or places, for all or any ecclesiastical purposes, or where two or more parishes or places have heretofore had a church or a burial ground for their joint use, or where the inhabitants of several parishes or places have been accustomed to meet in one vestry for purposes common to such several parishes or places, it shall be lawful for the vestry, or any meeting in the nature of a vestry, of such several parishes or places, in any of the cases aforesaid, and whether any one or more of such parishes or places do or do not separately maintain its own poor, to appoint a burial board, and from time to time to supply vacancies therein and to exercise the same powers of authorisation, approval, and sanction in relation to such burial board, and such other powers as, under the Acts therein recited and that Act, are vested in the vestry of a parish or place separately maintaining its own poor: Where any of the several parishes or places under the circumstances provided for in the said enactment separately maintains its own poor, or has a separate burial ground, it shall not be lawful for the vestry, or meeting in the nature of a vestry, of such several parishes or places, to appoint a burial board under the said enactment without the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and in case it appear to the Secretary of State that any such parish or place has a sufficient burial ground, or that otherwise it would not be expedient that the powers given by the said enactment should be exercised in relation to such parish or place, the Secretary of State may direct that such parish or place shall be excepted from the operation of the said enactment, and thereupon the same shall be excepted accordingly; and the inhabitants of the remaining parish or parishes, place or places, may assemble in vestry, or in a meeting in the nature of a vestry, from time to time, and in such vestry or meeting may proceed in like manner under the said Acts and this Act in all respects as if the inhabitants of such last-mentioned parish or parishes, place or places, exclusively had a vestry for their common purposes, and were wholly unconnected with the parish or place so excepted ⁽²⁾.

10. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order made by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, on the representation of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, from time to time to establish such regulations as to Her Majesty may seem proper for the protection of the public health, and for the maintenance of public decency, in respect of all burials in common graves in any cemeteries named in Schedule (B.) to the Act fifteenth and sixteenth Victoria, chapter eighty-five, and in respect of the like burials in any cemetery established under the authority of any local Act of Parliament ⁽³⁾; and every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette; and all persons having the care of such cemeteries and burial grounds and places shall conform to and obey such regulations; and any such person who shall violate or wilfully neglect to observe any of such regulations shall, on summary conviction thereof before two justices of the peace, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding ten pounds: Provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to any cemetery or burial ground until ten days previous notice in writing of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the person or one of the persons having the control or care of such cemetery or burial ground.

11. It shall not be necessary to erect or maintain any wall or fence between the consecrated and the unconsecrated portions of any burial ground provided under the hereinbefore recited Acts and this Act, or any of them: Provided always, that in the case of any burial ground where there shall be no such wall or fence, it shall be the duty of the burial board having the care of such burial ground to place, and from time to time to repair and renew, such boundary marks of stone or iron as may be sufficient to show the boundaries of such consecrated and unconsecrated portions respectively.

(1) By s. 11 of that Act, ante, p. 1172. See also ss. 12 and 13, ante, pp. 1172, 1173.

(2) Generally as to vestry meetings, see note ⁽¹⁾, ante, p. 1158.

(3) See 16 & 17 Vict. c. 134, ss. 5 and 7, ante, p. 1156.

12. If, upon the application in writing by any burial board to the bishop of the diocese for the consecration of a burial ground, declared in such writing to be in a fit and proper condition for the purpose of interment according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, which application the board is required to make as soon as such ground is in such fit and proper condition, the said bishop shall refuse to consecrate the same, it shall be lawful for such burial board to appeal from such refusal to the archbishop of the province, who shall decide the matter in dispute; and if the said archbishop shall decide that the said burial ground is not in a fit and proper condition as aforesaid, then the board shall be bound to put the said ground in a fit and proper condition; and if the said archbishop shall decide that the said burial ground is in a fit and proper condition as aforesaid, and ought to be consecrated, such decision shall be communicated in writing by the archbishop to the bishop aforesaid; and if after such communication the said bishop shall not within one calendar month consecrate the said burial ground, the said archbishop shall, under his hand and seal, license the same for the interment of bodies according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, and the license of the said archbishop so granted as aforesaid shall, until such burial ground be consecrated, operate to make lawful the use of the same as if it had been consecrated.

Secs. 12-16.

Appeal.

13. In any burial ground provided under the powers of the Acts hereinbefore recited or this Act, respecting which one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State shall have certified that the necessary provisions have been complied with, it shall be lawful for the incumbent or incumbents of such parish or parishes for which such burial ground is provided, or his or their curate or curates, or such duly qualified person as any such incumbent may authorise, if such incumbent, curate, or such duly qualified person respectively think fit, to bury in such burial ground prior to the decision of the bishop or archbishop upon the application for the consecration thereof.

Power to incumbent or curate to bury in burial ground certified by Secretary of State prior to consecration.

14. Whereas by section thirty-two of the Act of the third year of King George the Fourth, chapter one hundred and twenty-six, it is enacted, that no toll shall be demanded or taken by virtue of that or any other Act or Acts of Parliament on any turnpike road or from any inhabitant of any parish, township, or place going to or returning from attending the funeral of any person who shall die and be buried in the parish, township, or place in which any turnpike road shall lie, from and after the first day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, or from and after the termination of any now existing lease of tolls expiring before that date, the said enactment shall extend to exempt from toll every person going to or returning from attending the funeral of any person who shall be buried in any burial ground provided for the parish, township, or place in which he died under the Acts hereinbefore recited and this Act, or any of them, or under any other Act of Parliament, although such burial ground be not within the limits of the parish, township, or place for which it may have been provided, or in which the turnpike road shall lie.

Section 32 of 3 Geo. 4, c. 126, exempting funerals from tolls, extended to funerals in burial grounds provided for the parish, although not within its limits.

15. That every person who shall wilfully destroy or injure, or cause to be destroyed or injured, any register book of burials, kept according to the provisions of this Act, or any part or certified copy of any part of such register, or shall falsely make or counterfeit, or cause to be falsely made or counterfeited any part of any such register or certified copy thereof, or shall wilfully insert or cause to be inserted in any registry book or certified copy thereof any false entry of any burial, or shall wilfully give any false certificate, or shall certify any writing to be a copy or extract of any such register book, knowing the same to be false in any part thereof, or shall forge or counterfeit the seal of any burial board, shall be guilty of felony.

Persons wilfully destroying, &c., register book of burials guilty of felony.

16. Whereas by the Act of the fifty-second year of King George the Third, chapter one hundred and forty-six, section four, it is provided, that whenever the ceremony of burial shall be performed in any other place than the parish church or churchyard of any parish (or the chapel or chapelry of any chapelry providing its own distinct registers), and such ceremony shall be performed by any minister not being the rector, vicar, minister, or curate of such parish or chapelry, the minister who shall perform such ceremony of burial shall on the same or on the next day transmit to the rector, vicar, or other minister of such parish or chapelry, or his curate, a certificate of such burial, and the rector, vicar, minister, or curate, of such parish or chapelry shall thereupon Section 4 of 52 Geo. 3, c. 146, not to apply to burials in grounds provided under the burial Acts.

Secs. 16—23.

Fees for service done in unconsecrated portion of burial ground to be identical as for consecrated portion.

So much of section 20 of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85, as to payment of money borrowed repealed.

Clauses of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16, with respect to mortgages incorporated.

Sinking fund to be provided for paying off mortgages.

Power to burial boards to borrow money on terminable annuities.

Power to councils of boroughs to make a separate rate for burial and expenses.

Orders in Council may be issued, on representation of Secretary of State, so as to prevent vaults, &c., being dangerous to health.

enter such burial according to such certificate in the book kept pursuant to that Act for such purpose⁽¹⁾: And whereas distinct registers are by law required to be kept in the burial grounds provided under the Burial Acts: The recited enactment of the said Act of King George the Third shall not apply in any case where the ceremony of burial is performed in a burial ground provided or to be provided under the Acts of Her Majesty hereinbefore recited and this Act, or any of them.

17. No fees shall be charged or received by any burial board in respect of any service done or right granted in the unconsecrated portion of any burial ground provided by such board, but such as are identical in amount with the fees charged and received in respect of the same service or right in the consecrated portion of such ground, less any such portion of such corresponding fees or payments which may be received for or on account of any incumbent, churchwarden, clerk, or sexton, or of any trustee for or on behalf of any incumbent, churchwarden, clerk, or sexton.

18. So much of section twenty of the firstly hereinbefore recited Act as requires "that there shall be paid in every year, in addition to the interest of the money borrowed and unpaid, not less than one twentieth of the principal sum borrowed, until the whole is discharged"⁽²⁾, shall be repealed, and the provisions of the other Acts hereinbefore recited to which the said section has been extended shall be construed accordingly.

19. The clauses of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847⁽³⁾, with respect to mortgages to be executed by the commissioners, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall apply to mortgages and other securities to be executed by burial boards; and for the purposes of this Act the expression "the commissioners," where used in the said clauses, shall mean the burial board acting in the execution of the said clauses and the Acts hereinbefore recited or this Act.

20. Provided always, that for the purpose of providing a sinking fund for paying off the principal money borrowed on mortgages granted under any of the said Acts or this Act, the burial board shall once in every year set aside, out of the moneys charged by such mortgages, such sum as they think proper, being a sum equal to or exceeding one fiftieth part of the principal money so borrowed.

21. Any burial board or council of a borough may, for the purpose of raising money, instead of making mortgages under any of the said Acts, grant terminable annuities for a life or lives, or for any number of years not exceeding thirty years, to be paid out of the like moneys as provided with regard to the moneys secured by such mortgages.

22. Any money required by the council of any borough for the purpose of defraying the expense of executing the Acts hereinbefore recited, or any of them, or this Act, or for paying any moneys borrowed under such Act, or any interest thereon, may be raised by such council, if they think fit, by means of a separate rate, to be called a burial rate, to be charged upon all property within such borough liable to be charged to the borough rate; and the council of such borough shall have all such powers for making and levying such rate, and all provisions shall be applicable in respect thereof, as in the case of a borough rate made under the Act passed in the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six⁽⁴⁾.

23. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council from time to time to order such acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as may have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and every such Order in Council shall be published in the London Gazette, and such churchwardens or other persons shall do or cause to be done all acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof shall be paid out of the poor rates of the parish: Provided always, that no such representation shall be made until ten days previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the churchwardens or other persons, or one of the churchwardens or

(1) See 16 & 17 Vict. c. 134, s. 8, ante, p. 1157.

(2) Ante p. 1160.

(3) See the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, 10 Vict. c. 16, ss. 75—88, post.

(4) See now the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 144, ante, p. 313.

other persons, having the care of the vaults or places of burial to which the representation relates ⁽¹⁾. Secs. 23-27.

24. In all cases in which unconsecrated land or buildings is or are vested in a trustee or trustees, either under any local Act or otherwise, for the purposes of a cemetery or burial ground, and burials in such cemetery or burial ground shall by Order in Council under the hereinbefore recited Acts or any of them have been ordered to be wholly or partially discontinued, it shall be lawful for the trustee or trustees for the time being of such cemetery or burial ground, from time to time, with the sanction of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, to let, demise, or lease any part or parts in which no interment shall have taken place of such land or buildings, and to renew or accept surrenders of any leases or tenancies thereof, and to sell and absolutely dispose thereof for money in gross, or for any perpetual or other rent or rents to be made payable thereout, and by public auction or private contract, and to sell all or any such perpetual or other rent or rents for money in gross and in manner aforesaid, and for any of the purposes aforesaid to make and execute any contracts, conveyances, leases, or other assurances, and to take any measures and make any arrangements which may be deemed expedient; and upon any such lease or sale as aforesaid a grant or conveyance by such trustee or trustees alone shall be a sufficient assurance of the property thereby purported to be leased or sold and the receipts of such trustee or trustees shall be effectual discharges for the moneys therein expressed to have been received, and shall absolve any lessee or purchaser from having to see to or being answerable for the application of such moneys; and the net moneys to be received by such trustee or trustees under any of the preceding powers shall be applied by them in discharge of any incumbrances affecting such cemetery or burial ground, and any debts which such trustee or trustees may have properly incurred in their fiduciary capacity; and any residue of such moneys shall, where such land or buildings shall have been held in trust for any parish, be applied in such manner, for the benefit of such parish, as the vestry of such parish shall direct; but where such land or buildings shall have been held in trust for the benefit of private persons, such residues shall be divided by such trustee or trustees rateably among the cestuis que trusts; and it shall be lawful for such trustee or trustees so to apply any reserved fund in his or their hands.

Trustees of closed cemeteries empowered with sanction of Secretary of State to let, lease, or sell portions thereof which have not received interments.

25. Except in the cases where a body is removed from one consecrated place of burial to another by faculty granted by the ordinary for that purpose, it shall not be lawful to remove any body, or the remains of any body, which may have been interred in any place of burial, without license under the hand of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and with such precautions as such Secretary of State may prescribe as the condition of such license; and any person who shall remove any such body or remains, contrary to this enactment, or who shall neglect to observe the precautions prescribed as the condition of the license for removal, shall, on summary conviction before any two justices of the peace, forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding ten pounds ⁽²⁾.

Bodies not to be removed from burial grounds, save under faculty without license of Secretary of State.

26. Where any cemetery in which burials have, by Order in Council, under the hereinbefore recited Acts or any of them, been ordered to be discontinued, is adjoining or near to any land appropriated or about to be appropriated by any burial board for the purposes of a burial ground, and appears to such board eligible for the purpose of appropriating or erecting buildings for or making approaches to such burial ground, it shall be lawful for such board, with the approval of the vestry or respective vestries, to purchase such cemetery; and where in the like case any cemetery has been so purchased before the passing of this Act, the purchase thereof shall be deemed to have been lawful ⁽³⁾: Provided always, that, notwithstanding such purchase, such Order in Council shall remain in full force and effect in relation to such cemetery.

Burial boards may in certain cases purchase cemeteries which have been closed. Orders in Council to remain in force.

27. No resolution or proceeding of any vestry, or meeting in the nature of a vestry, for the purposes of the said recited Acts and this Act, or any of them, shall be void or

Resolutions &c., of vestries not to

⁽¹⁾ Amended by 22 Vict. c. 1, post, p. 1183. See Foster v. Dodd, L. R. 3 Q. B. 67, 37 L. J. Q. B. 28, 17 L. T. N. S. 614, 16 W. R. 155, 32 J. P. 20.

⁽²⁾ As to indictment for removing body, see R. v. Sharpe, 7 Cox C. C. 214, 1 Dears. & B. C. C. 160, 26 L. J. M. C. 47.

⁽³⁾ See 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85, s. 26, ante, p. 1161.

Secs. 27-30. voidable by reason of any defect or irregularity of or in notice of such vestry or meeting, or any other error in form in the calling of such vestry or meeting, or in the proceedings thereat, unless notice in writing of such defect or irregularity or error shall have been given at such vestry or meeting, or within seven days after the day of the holding thereof, to the churchwardens or other persons to whom it belongs to call meetings of such vestry, or such meeting in the nature of a vestry, who shall thereupon call another meeting for the purpose of considering the previous resolution or proceeding or the matter thereof; and no such resolution and proceeding made or taken at any such vestry, or meeting in the nature of a vestry, before the passing of this Act, which shall not have been objected to by notice in writing to such churchwardens or persons as aforesaid, shall be deemed invalid by reason of any such defect, irregularity, or error.

“Burial board.”

Construction of certain expressions used in 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87.

28. In the construction of this Act the expression “burial board” shall mean a burial board constituted under the hereinbefore recited Acts or any of them, or under this Act ⁽¹⁾.

29. That the expression “borough” whenever used in the said Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said Majesty, shall be construed to include any city, borough, port, cinque port, or town corporate named in the schedules annexed to an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales,” and to any city, borough, port, cinque port, or town corporate incorporated by charter granted or to be granted in pursuance of that or any subsequent Act; and the words “town council of any borough” or “council of any borough,” wherever used in the said Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her said Majesty, shall (as well with respect to all past as to future proceedings under the same Act, and for the purpose of confirming and making valid all such past proceedings), be construed to mean town council or council of any city, borough, port, cinque port, or town corporate.

Recited Acts and this to be as one.

30. The hereinbefore recited Acts and this Act shall be construed together as one Act.

(1) See 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85, s. 24, ante, p. 1161.

BURIAL ACT, 1859.

22 VICT. c. 1.

An Act more effectually to prevent danger to the Public Health from Places of Burial.
[25th March, 1859.]

Whereas in section twenty-three of an Act passed in the session holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-one, "to amend the Burial Acts," it was enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to order such Acts to be done by or under the directions of the churchwardens or such other persons as might have the care of any vaults or places of burial, for preventing them from becoming or continuing dangerous or injurious to the public health; and such churchwardens or other persons should do or cause to be done all Acts ordered as aforesaid, and the expenses incurred in and about the doing thereof should be paid out of the poor rates of the parish: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said enactment as herein-after mentioned: Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Secs. 1, 2.

20 & 21 Vict.
c. 81.

1. Where it appears to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, on the representation of any person authorised by him to inspect any vaults or place of burial in relation to which an order in council has been or shall have been issued under the said recited enactment, that any Acts which by such Order in Council are ordered to be done by or under the direction of persons other than churchwardens having the care of such vaults or place of burial are not done or performed within a reasonable time, and according to the intent of such Order in Council, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, by writing under his hand, to authorise and direct the churchwardens of the parish in which such vaults or place of burial may be situate forthwith to do or complete the Acts in such Order in Council mentioned, or such of them as remain undone, and such order of the Secretary of State shall be obeyed by such churchwardens, and they and all persons acting under their direction shall have the same power of entering and doing all such Acts upon the premises to which the Order in Council relates as it the said Acts had by the Order in Council been directed to be done by such churchwardens, and such vaults or place of burial had been under their care; and any person who shall obstruct such churchwardens or any others acting under their direction in relation to the premises, or remove or interfere with the works done by such churchwardens, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour.

Where persons having the care of a place of burial neglect to comply with Order in Council, the churchwardens may act in their stead.

2. This Act shall be read together with the said Act of the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty, and the Burial Acts therein mentioned, as one Act.

This and recited Act to be as one.

BURIAL ACT, 1860.

23 & 24 VICT. c. 64.

An Act to make further provision for the Expenses of Local Boards of Health and Improvement Commissioners acting as Burial Boards.
[6th August, 1860.]

Secs. 1, 2. Whereas by an Act passed in the session holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of Her Majesty (chapter eighty-one), "to amend the Burial Acts," it is provided that upon the petition of the local board of health of any district established under the Public Health Act, or upon the petition of any commissioners elected by the ratepayers and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such local board of health or of such commissioners is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial ground, and that no burial board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial grounds within the said district, it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, in case Her Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such local board should be a burial board for the district of such local board, or that such commissioners should be a burial board for the district of such commissioners, and that thereupon such local board or such commissioners, as the case might be, should be a burial board for such district accordingly : And whereas under "The Local Government Act, 1858," a local board may, at the option of the vestry, be the burial board in certain cases : And whereas it is expedient that such local boards and commissioners respectively, when constituted burial boards, should be authorised to provide for their expenses as herein-after mentioned : Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in the present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Expenses of local board constituted a burial board may be paid out of general district rate, or by a separate rate.

1. Any money required by any local board constituted a burial board for defraying the expense of carrying into execution the powers and provisions of the Burial Acts and of this Act in the district for which they may have been so constituted a burial board, or for paying any moneys borrowed or annuities granted under the authority of the said Acts, or any interest on moneys borrowed, or for providing a sinking fund for the repayment of such moneys, may, if the local board so think fit, be paid out of the general district rates leviable within such district ; and such local board may levy as part of the general district rate, or by a separate rate, under the name and designation of a burial rate to be assessed and recovered in like manner as a general district rate within the district for which they act as a burial board, such sums of money as shall be from time to time necessary for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them.

Expenses of improvement commissioners, when acting as a burial board, may be paid out of improvement rate.

2. Any money required by any such commissioners as aforesaid who shall have been constituted a burial board for defraying the expense of carrying into execution the powers and provisions of the Burial Acts in the district for which they may have been so constituted a burial board, or for paying any moneys borrowed, or annuities granted under the authority of the said Acts, or any interest on moneys borrowed, or for providing a sinking fund for the repayment of such moneys, may, if the commissioners so think fit, be paid out of the improvement rate leviable within such district, and the commissioners as such burial board may levy as part of the improvement rate, or by a separate rate under the name and designation of a burial rate to be assessed and recovered in like manner as an improvement rate, such sums of money as shall be from time to time necessary for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them ⁽¹⁾.

Secs. 2—4.

ment rate,
or by a separate rate.

Separate accounts to be kept.

3. The local board and the commissioners respectively who may have been constituted a burial board shall keep distinct accounts of their receipts and expenditure in the exercise of their functions as such burial board ; and where their expenses are defrayed by moneys raised under the provisions of this Act, such accounts shall be audited in the same manner as other accounts of the receipts and expenditure of such local board and commissioners respectively, and any surplus of the moneys raised by any rate made under this Act, and of the income of any burial ground provided by means of moneys raised or paid under the provisions of this Act, which may remain after payment of the expenses and moneys which should be defrayed or paid under the Burial Acts, shall be applied in aid of the general district rate or improvement rate, as the case may be, levied within the district, which shall have been or might have been charged with a separate rate under this Act.

4. Where any parish or place has been divided into two or more parts or districts for all or any ecclesiastical purposes, and any one of such parts has a separate burial ground, it shall not be lawful for the vestry or meeting in the nature of a vestry for such entire parish or place to appoint a burial board without the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State.

As to appointment of burial boards with out consent of Secretary of State.

(1) See now the Burial Act, 1862, 25 & 26 Vict. c. 100, post.

BURIAL ACT, 1862.

25 & 26 VICT. c. 100.

An Act to authorise Improvement Commissioners acting as Burial Boards to mortgage certain Rates for the purposes of the Burial Acts. [7th August, 1862.]

Secs. 1, 2. [After reciting 23 & 24 Vict. c. 64, s. 2, ante, p. 1184, the Act proceeds as follows :—]
 And whereas doubts have arisen whether under such provisions the improvement rate or burial rate can be legally mortgaged or assigned as a security for the payment of the sums referred to in the said Act, and it is expedient that the commissioners acting as such burial board should have the power of mortgaging the said rates : Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Commissioners, with consent of Treasury may mortgage improvement rate and burial rate, or either.

Certain provisions of 10 & 11 Vict.
c. 16, to apply to this Act.

1. Any commissioners elected by the ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, who shall have been constituted a burial board for any district, may, with the approval of the commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time borrow at interest on mortgage of the improvement rate and burial rate, or either of them, leviable within the district, such sums of money as may be required by the burial board for the purposes of the Burial Act within the district.

2. The clauses and provisions of The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, ⁽¹⁾ with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the commissioners, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall be applicable to all mortgages created under the provisions thereof.

(1) I.e., 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16, ss. 75—88, which will be found post.

BURIAL ACT 1871.

34 & 35 VICT. c. 33.

An Act to explain and amend the Burial Acts.

[29th June, 1871.]

Whereas under the Burial Acts it is not lawful for a vestry or meeting in the nature of a vestry in certain cases to appoint a burial board without the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and doubts have arisen whether such approval is to be given before or after the appointment of a board, and it is expedient to remove such doubts:

Secs. 1, 2.

20 & 21 Vict.
c. 81.

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 64.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Where the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State to the appointment of a burial board by a vestry or meeting in the nature of a vestry is required under the Burial Acts, such vestry or meeting in the nature of a vestry shall not, after the passing of this Act, appoint such board until a resolution of such vestry or meeting declaring the expediency of such appointment has been passed, and notice thereof sent to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and the same has been approved of by the Secretary of State, and approval of such resolution shall be deemed to be approval of the appointment of the board.

Approval of Secretary of State to appointment of burial board.

The Secretary of State before giving such approval may require notice of such resolution, in such form and containing such particulars as he may direct, to be published in such manner as he may think sufficient for giving notice thereof to all persons interested.

Provided that where the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State has been given before the passing of this Act to the appointment of any burial board, that approval shall be valid whether it has been given before or after the date of such appointment.

2. This Act shall be construed as one with the Acts mentioned in the schedule to this Act, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Burial Acts, 1852 to 1871, and each of them may be cited as the Burial Act of the year in which it was passed.

Act to be construed with Acts in
schedule.
Short title.

SCHEDULE.

THE BURIAL ACTS, 1852 TO 1871.

Session and Chapter.	Title of Act.
15 & 16 Vict. c. 85 .	An Act to amend the laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis.
16 & 17 Vict. c. 134 .	An Act to amend the laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England, beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis.
17 & 18 Vict. c. 87 .	An Act to make further provision for the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis.
18 & 19 Vict. c. 128 .	An Act further to amend the laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England.
20 & 21 Vict. c. 81 .	An Act to amend the Burial Acts.
22 Vict. c. 1 .	An Act more effectually to prevent danger to the Public Health from places of Burial.
23 & 24 Vict. c. 64 .	An Act to make further provision for the expenses of Local Boards of Health and Improvement Commissioners acting as Burial Boards.
25 & 26 Vict. c. 100 .	An Act to authorise Improvement Commissioners acting as Burial Boards to mortgage certain rates for the purposes of the Burial Acts.

G G G G 2

BURIAL ACT, 1808.

48 GEORGE III. c. 75.

An Act for providing suitable Interment in Churchyards or Parochial Burying Grounds in England for such dead Human Bodies as may be cast on shore from the sea, in cases of wreck or otherwise.
[18th June, 1808.]

Secs. 1—3.

In cases where dead human bodies shall be cast on shore, churchwardens, &c., of the parish where the body shall be found to cause the same to be removed and interred in a decent manner in the churchyard of such parish.

Minister of the parish to perform the funeral service, &c.

Rewarding persons finding dead human bodies, and giving notice thereof to parish officers.

Whereas no provision hath yet been made by the laws now in force for providing suitable interment in churchyards or parochial burying grounds, for such dead human bodies as may be cast on shore from the sea by wreck or otherwise, in that part of the United Kingdom called England: And whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for the decent interment of such bodies; May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that, from and after the passing of this Act, the churchwarden and churchwardens, overseer and overseers of the poor for the time being of the respective parishes throughout England, in which any dead human body or dead human bodies shall be found thrown in or cast on shore from the sea by wreck or otherwise, shall, and he and they is and are hereby required, upon notice to him or them given that any such body or bodies are thrown in or cast on shore by the sea, and is or are lying within the bounds of the parish for which he or they shall be churchwarden or churchwardens, overseer or overseers of the poor, to cause the same to be forthwith removed to some convenient place, and with all convenient speed to cause such body or bodies to be decently interred in the churchyard or burial ground of such parish, so that the expenses attending on such burial do not exceed the sum which at that time is allowed in such parish for the burial of any person or persons buried at the expense of such parish: Provided always, that in case any such body or bodies shall be thrown in or cast on shore from the sea in any extra-parochial place where there is no churchwarden or churchwardens, overseer or overseers of the poor, then and in every such case the constable or headborough of such place shall, on notice being given to him that such body or bodies is or are lying in such extra-parochial place, forthwith cause such body or bodies to be removed to some convenient place, and with all convenient speed cause the same to be buried in such and the like manner as the churchwardens and overseers within England are hereby required to bury such body or bodies.

2. And be it further enacted, that every minister, parish clerk, and sexton of such respective parishes shall perform their several and respective duties in such and the like manner as is customary in other funerals, and shall admit of such body or bodies being interred in such churchyards or burial grounds without any improper loss of time, receiving for the same, by way of compensation, such and the like sums as in cases of burials made at the expense of such parishes.

3. And be it further enacted, that in case any person or persons shall find any such body or bodies cast on shore from the sea by wreck or otherwise, and shall within six hours thereafter give notice thereof to some one of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish for the time being in which such body or bodies shall be found, or to the constable or headborough for the time being, in case such body or bodies shall be found in any extra-parochial place, or cause such notice to be left at his or their last or usual place or places of abode, then and in every such case such person or persons shall receive the sum of five shillings for his, her, or their trouble, such sum to be forthwith paid to the person or persons first giving such notice only; but nevertheless that no greater sum than five shillings shall be paid for any one notice, although there may be a greater number of such bodies than one. Secs. 3—9.

4. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that in case any person or persons shall find any such body or bodies cast on shore from the sea by wreck or otherwise, and shall not within six hours thereafter give notice to some one of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish for the time being in which such body or bodies shall be found, or to the constable or headborough for the time being, in case such body or bodies shall be found in any extra-parochial place, or cause such notice to be left at his or their last or usual place or places of abode, then and in every case such person or persons shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of five pounds. Persons finding dead human bodies cast on shore, and not giving notice, subject to a penalty.

5. And be it further enacted, that all necessary and proper payments, costs, charges, and expenses which shall be made or incurred in or about the execution of this Act, shall be made and paid by the churchwarden or churchwardens, overseer or overseers, constable or headborough for the time being of such respective parishes and places as aforesaid. Expenses to be paid by churchwardens, &c.

6. And, for the purpose of reimbursing him or them all such payments, costs, charges, and expenses, be it further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for any one justice of the peace for the county or place within that part of the United Kingdom called England, in which any such body or bodies shall have been so removed and buried as aforesaid, by any writing under his hand, to order and direct the treasurer for such county to pay such sum or sums of money to such churchwarden and churchwardens, overseer and overseers, constable or headborough, for his or their costs and expenses in or about the execution of this Act (after the same shall have been duly verified on oath) as to the said justice shall seem reasonable and necessary; and such treasurer shall and he is hereby authorised and required forthwith to pay the sum or sums of money so ordered and directed to be paid to the person or persons empowered to receive the same; and such treasurer shall be allowed the same in his accounts. Who are to be reimbursed by the treasurer of the county.

7. Provided always, and be it enacted, that in case any such churchwarden or churchwardens, overseer or overseers, constable or headborough, shall refuse or neglect to remove or cause to be removed such body or bodies from the seashore to some convenient place prior to the interment thereof, for the space of twelve hours after such notice given to him or them, or left in writing at his or their last or usual place or places of abode by any person or persons whomsoever, or shall neglect or refuse to perform the several other duties required of him and them by this Act, then and in every such case every such churchwarden or overseer, constable or headborough, shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of five pounds. Penalty on parish officers neglecting to remove and inter dead human bodies so found or cast on shore.

8. And be it further enacted, that all penalties and forfeitures which shall be incurred under this Act, if not paid on conviction, shall be levied and recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender or offenders, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice of the peace for the county or place where the offence shall happen (which warrant such justice is hereby empowered to grant on the confession of the party, or upon the evidence of any credible witness upon oath), and the surplus of the money arising by such distress and sale shall be returned on demand to the owner of such goods and chattels, after deducting the costs and charges of making, keeping, and selling the distress; and such penalties and forfeitures, when recovered, shall be paid to the informer or informers; and in case sufficient distress shall not be found, or such penalties and forfeitures shall not be paid forthwith, it shall and may be lawful to and for such justice, and he is hereby authorised and required, by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause the offender or offenders to be committed to the common gaol or house of correction of such county or place, there to remain without bail or mainprize, for any time not exceeding two calendar months, nor less than fourteen days, unless such penalties and forfeitures, and all reasonable charges attending the recovery thereof, shall be sooner fully paid and satisfied. Recovery of penalties under this Act.

9. And be it further enacted, that in all cases where any conviction shall be had for any offence or offences committed against this Act or against any Order of Sessions, or any matter in pursuance of this Act, the form of conviction shall be in the words or to the effect following; (that is to say,)

Secs. 9-14.

Form of conviction.

Appeal to the quarter sessions.

Proceedings shall not be quashed for want of form.

Penalties, &c., shall be paid by persons incurring the same, and not by the parish.

Lords of manors, &c., shall pay the same fee as heretofore on interring dead bodies, &c.

"Be it remembered, that on this _____ day of _____, in the _____ year of the reign of _____, A.B. is convicted before _____, one of His Majesty's justices of the peace for the _____ of having [as the offence shall be], and I the said _____ do adjudge him [or, them] to forfeit and pay for the same the sum of _____ Given under my hand and seal the day and year aforesaid."

10. Provided always, and be it enacted, that if any person or persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any judgment or determination, or by any matter or thing done in pursuance of this Act, such person or persons may appeal to the justices of the peace at the first general or quarter sessions of the peace to be holden for the county or place (within which the matter of appeal shall arise) next after the expiration of one calendar month from the time such matter of appeal shall have arisen, the person or persons appealing having first given ten days notice at least of his or their intention to bring such appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the person or persons so appealed against, and forthwith after such notice entering into a recognizance before some justice of the peace for such county or place, with sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal and abide the order and award of the said court thereon; and the said justices at such sessions, upon due proof of such notice and recognizance having been given and entered into, are hereby authorised and required to hear and determine the matter of such appeal in a summary way, and to make such determination therein, and to award such costs to either of the parties, or otherwise, as they shall judge proper; and the said justices may if they see cause mitigate any fine, penalty, or forfeiture, and may also order such further satisfaction to be made to the party injured as they shall judge reasonable, and all such determinations of the said justices shall be final, binding, and conclusive upon all parties to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

11. And be it further enacted, that where any distress shall be made for any sum of money to be levied by virtue of this Act, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party or parties making the same be deemed a trespasser or trespassers on account of any defect or want of form in the information, summons, conviction, warrant, or distress, or other proceedings relating thereto, nor shall the party or parties distrained be deemed a trespasser or trespassers ab initio on account of any irregularity that shall be afterwards done by the party or parties so distraining, but the person or persons aggrieved by such irregularity shall and may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in an action upon the case.

12. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that all penalties and expenses attendant thereon which shall be incurred under the provisions of this Act shall be paid and borne by the person or persons incurring the same, and that the parish or place wherein such person or persons ought to have acted in the duties prescribed by this Act shall be wholly exempted therefrom.

13. Whereas in cases of dead wrecks wherein no living person is found or owner known, the lords of manors on which any such dead body or dead bodies may be washed in and who are entitled to wreck there, have usually paid a small fee for the placing such body or bodies in the ground in the state in which the same have been found, and such payments have been adduced and admitted as proof on trials at common law of the right of such lords of manors to wrecks in such manors: Be it therefore enacted, that in all and every such cases it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every lord or lords of any manor or manors throughout England to pay or cause to be paid to the churchwarden or churchwardens, overseer or overseers, constable or headborough, of such respective parishes and places as aforesaid, such and the like sums as he or they was or were heretofore accustomed to pay for the placing any such body or bodies into the ground as aforesaid, such sums to go in part payment and discharge of the costs and expenses to be incurred in or about the execution of this Act, and credit to be given for the same by such overseers, churchwardens, constable or headborough in their accounts with the county to which such accounts shall be submitted, anything in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

14. [Expenses of interments shall be raised as county rates under 12 Geo. II. c. 29 (1).]

BATHS AND WASH-HOUSES ACT, 1846. ⁽¹⁾

9 & 10 VICT. c. 74.

An Act to encourage the establishment of public Baths and Wash-houses.

[26th August, 1846.]

Whereas it is desirable for the health, comfort, and welfare of the inhabitants of towns and populous districts to encourage the establishment therein of public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places: Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that this Act may be adopted for any incorporated borough in England which is regulated under an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of his late Majesty, to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations, or any charter granted in pursuance of the said Act, or any Act passed for the amendment thereof, and also, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, for any parish in England not within any such incorporated borough.

Secs. 1, 2.

Act may be adopted in certain boroughs and parishes.

2. And be it enacted, that in this Act the following words and expressions shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,)

Interpretation of Act.

["Parish" shall mean every place having separate overseers of the poor, and separately maintaining its own poor (2):]

"Borough" shall mean city, borough, port, cinque port, or town corporate:

["Ratepayers" shall mean such of the persons for the time being assessed to and paying rates for the relief of the poor of the parish as for the time being shall be duly qualified to vote for the election of overseers for the parish (2):]

"Churchwardens" shall mean also chapelwardens, or other persons discharging the duties of churchwardens:

"Overseers" shall mean also any persons authorised and required to make and collect or cause to be collected the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish, and acting instead of overseers of the poor:

"Vestry" shall mean the inhabitants of the parish lawfully assembled in vestry, or for any of the purposes for which vestries are holden, except in those parishes in which there is a select vestry [elected under an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws for the Relief of the Poor (2), or] elected under an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of Vestries and for the Appointment of Auditors of Accounts, in certain Parishes of England and Wales," or elected under the provisions of any local Act of Parliament for the government of any parish by vestries, in which parishes it shall mean such select vestry:

59 Geo. 3, c. 12

1 & 2 Will. 4, c. 60.

"Commissioners" shall mean the commissioners appointed in accordance with this Act for any parish, and for the time being in office and acting as such commissioners:

(1) Where the Baths and Wash-houses Acts (see the interpretation clause of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 47) are in force within the district of an urban authority, such authority shall have all powers, &c., exercisable by or attaching to the council, &c., or persons acting in the execution of the said Acts: Public Health Act, 1875, s. 10, ante, p. 50.

(2) The portions between brackets are repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875. See now the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1847, 10 & 11 Vict. c. 61, s. 2, post, which is to be construed as one with this Act.

Secs. 2—10.

"Clerk" shall mean, as regards an incorporated borough the town clerk of such borough and as regards a parish, the clerk appointed pursuant to this Act by the commissioners :

"Justice" shall mean justice of the peace for the county, riding, division, liberty, borough, or place where the matter requiring the cognisance of justices shall arise :

"Lands" shall mean lands, tenements, and hereditaments, of whatsoever nature or tenure :

Words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine :

Words of the plural number shall include the singular, and words of the singular number shall include the plural :

3. [Council of any borough may adopt the provisions contained in this Act, if they think fit ⁽¹⁾.]

Expenses of carrying this Act into execution shall be charged upon the borough fund, and income arising carried to same.

On the requisition of ten ratepayers churchwardens, &c. to convene vestry meeting to determine whether this Act shall be adopted.

If vestry resolve to adopt the Act, a copy of resolution to be sent to Secretary of State, &c.

No resolution deemed to be carried unless two thirds vote for it.

Where Act adopted vestry to appoint commissioners for carrying the same into execution.

Resignation of commissioners.

Vacancies to be filled up by vestry.

Meetings of the commissioners.

Special meetings of commissioners.

4. the income arising from the baths and wash-houses and open bathing places in any borough shall be paid to the credit of the borough fund thereof, and the council shall keep distinct accounts of their receipts, payments, credits, and liabilities, with reference to the execution of this Act, to be called "The Public Baths and Wash-houses Account" ⁽²⁾.

5. And be it enacted, that upon the requisition in writing of ten or more ratepayers of any such parish as aforesaid, not being within any such incorporated borough, the churchwardens or other persons to whom it belongs to convene meetings of the vestry in such parish shall convene a meeting of the vestry for the special purpose of determining whether this Act shall be adopted for the parish, after public notice of such vestry, and the place and hour of holding the same, and the special purpose thereof, given in the usual manner in which notice of the meetings of the vestry is given at least seven days before the day to be appointed for holding such vestry ; and if thereupon it shall be resolved by the vestry that this Act ought to be adopted for the parish, a copy of such resolution extracted from the minutes of the vestry, and signed by the chairman, shall be sent to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State for his approval, and as soon as such approval shall have been signified in writing under the hand of any such Secretary of State, such of the provisions of this Act as are applicable in that behalf shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in the parish: Provided always, that no such resolution of the vestry shall be deemed to be carried unless at least two thirds of the number of votes given on the question according to the usual manner of voting at such vestry shall have been given for such resolution.

6. And be it enacted, that in such case the vestry shall appoint not less than three nor more than seven persons, being ratepayers of the parish, commissioners for carrying this Act into execution in the parish, of whom one third, or as nearly as may be one third (to be determined among themselves), shall go out of office yearly, but shall be eligible for immediate re-appointment ⁽³⁾.

7. And be it enacted, that any commissioner may at any time resign his office as a commissioner on giving seven days notice in writing of his intention to resign to the clerk, and also to the churchwardens.

8. And be it enacted, that any vacancies in the commissionership may be filled up by the vestry when and as the vestry shall think fit.

9. And be it enacted, that the commissioners shall meet at least once in every calendar month at their office, or some other convenient place previously publicly notified.

10. And be it enacted, that the commissioners may meet at such other time as at any previous meeting shall be determined upon, and it shall be at all times competent for any one commissioner, by writing under his hand, to summon, with at least forty-eight hours notice, the commissioners for any special purpose therein named, and to meet at such times as shall be therein named. Secs. 10-18.

⁽¹⁾ Repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

⁽²⁾ The first portion of this section was repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

⁽³⁾ Acts of commissioners are to be valid, notwithstanding informalities. See the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1847, 10 & 11 Vict. c. 61, s. 3, post.

11. And be it enacted, that at all meetings of the commissioners any number not less than one third of the whole number when more than three commissioners shall have been appointed, and when only three commissioners shall have been appointed then any number not less than two commissioners, shall be a sufficient number for transacting business, and for exercising all the powers of the commissioners.

Quorum of meetings of commissioners.

12. And be it enacted, that the commissioners shall appoint, and may remove at pleasure, a clerk and such other officers and servants as shall be necessary for effecting the purposes of this Act, and, with the approval of the vestry, may appoint reasonable salaries, wages, and allowances for such clerk, officers, and servants, and, when necessary, may hire and rent a sufficient office for holding their meetings and transacting their business, and may agree for and pay a reasonable rent for such office.

Commissioners may appoint and remove, officers, &c.

13. And be it enacted, that all orders and proceedings of the commissioners shall be entered in books, to be kept by them for that purpose, and shall be signed by the commissioners, or any two of them; and all such orders and proceedings so entered, and purporting to be so signed, shall be deemed to be original orders and proceedings; and such books may be produced and read as evidence of all such orders and proceedings upon any appeal, trial, information, or other proceeding, civil or criminal, and in any court of law or equity whatsoever.

Minutes of proceedings of commissioners to be entered in a book.

14. And be it enacted, that the commissioners shall provide and keep books in which shall be entered true and regular accounts of all sums of money received and paid for or on account of the purposes of this Act in the parish, and of all liabilities incurred by them for such purposes, and of the several purposes for which such sums of money shall have been paid and such liabilities shall have been incurred; and such books shall at all reasonable times be open to the examination of every commissioner, churchwarden, overseer, and ratepayer, without fee or reward, and they respectively may take copies of or extracts from such books, or any part thereof, without paying for the same; and in case the commissioners, or any of them, or any of their officers or servants having the custody of the said books, being thereunto reasonably requested, shall refuse to permit or shall not permit any churchwarden, overseer, or ratepayer to examine the same, or take any such copy or extract, every commissioner, officer, or servant so offending shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds.

Commissioners to keep accounts, which shall be open to inspection.

15. And be it enacted, that the vestry shall yearly appoint two persons, not being commissioners, to be auditors of the accounts of the commissioners, and at such time in the month of March in every year after the adoption of this Act for the parish as the vestry shall appoint the commissioners shall produce to the auditors their accounts, with sufficient vouchers for all moneys received and paid, and the auditors shall examine such accounts and vouchers, and report thereon to the vestry.

Penalty for refusing to allow inspection.

16. And be it enacted, that the expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any parish not within any such incorporated borough to such amount as shall be from time to time sanctioned by the vestry shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the moneys to be raised or applicable for the relief of the poor of the parish.

Auditors to be appointed yearly who shall examine the accounts and report to vestries.

17. And be it enacted, that for defraying the expenses which shall have been or shall be incurred in carrying this Act into execution in the parish the vestry may and shall from time to time order the overseers to levy with and as part of the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish such sums as the vestry shall deem necessary, and the amount thereof shall accordingly be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like manner, and with the like powers and remedies in all respects, as such rate, and shall be paid by the overseers, according to the order of the vestry, to such person as shall be appointed by the commissioners to receive the same, and his receipt shall be a sufficient discharge to the overseers for the same, and shall be allowed accordingly in passing their accounts.

Expenses of executing Act in any parish to be paid out of the poor's rate.

18. And be it enacted, that the money raised for defraying the expenses of carrying this Act into execution, and the income arising from the baths and wash-houses and open bathing places in the parish, shall be applied by the commissioners in or toward defraying the expenses of carrying this Act into execution in the parish; and whenever, after repayment of all moneys borrowed for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution in the parish, and the interest thereof, and after satisfying all the liabilities of the commis-

Overseers to levy, as part of the poor's rate such sums as vestry shall deem necessary to pay expenses.

Moneys raised, and the income arising from baths, &c. in the parish to be applied

Secs. 18-23.

towards defraying expenses.

Vestries of two or more parishes may concur in carrying this Act into execution, subject to the approval of Secretary of State.

Incorporation of commissioners.

Councils, &c. may borrow money for the purposes of the Act, with the approval of the Treasury.

The Public Works Loan
Commissioners
may advance money for the purposes of this Act.

8 & 9 Vict.
c. 16 incorporated with

sioners with reference to the execution of this Act in the parish, and providing such a balance as shall be deemed by the commissioners sufficient to meet their probable liabilities during the then next year, there shall be at the time of holding the meeting of the vestry at which the yearly report of the auditors shall be produced any surplus money at the disposal of the commissioners, they shall pay the same to the overseers in aid of the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish.

19. And be it enacted, that the vestries of any two or more neighbouring parishes which shall have respectively adopted this Act may concur in carrying this Act into execution in such parishes in such manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and for such time as they shall mutually agree; and for that purpose it may, with the approval of such Secretary of State, be agreed on between such vestries that any public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places shall be erected and made in any one of such parishes, to be vested in the commissioners thereof, and that the expenses of carrying this Act into execution with reference to the same shall be borne by such parishes in such proportions as such vestries shall mutually agree, and the proportion for each of such parishes of such expenses shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the moneys to be raised for the relief of the poor of the same respective parish accordingly; and according and subject to the terms which shall have been so agreed on, the commissioners appointed for each of such parishes shall, in the management of the said baths and wash-houses and open bathing places, form one body of commissioners, and shall act accordingly in the execution of this Act, and the accounts and vouchers of such commissioners shall be examined and reported on by the auditors of each of such parishes; and the surplus money at the disposal as aforesaid of such commissioners shall be paid to the overseers of such parishes respectively in the same proportions as those in which such parishes shall be liable to such expenses.

20. And for the more easy execution of the purposes of this Act, be it enacted, that the commissioners of every such parish shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, which shall not be deemed to be interrupted by any partial or total vacancy from time to time in their office, by the name of "the Commissioners for Public Baths and Wash-houses in the parish of () in the county of ()," and by that name may sue and be sued in all Courts, and before all justices and others, and may have and use a common seal, and by that name may take, hold, and convey any lands vested in them for the purposes of this Act.

21. And be it enacted, that for carrying this Act into execution in any borough or parish respectively, the council, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the commissioners, with the sanction of the vestry, and also with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from time to time borrow at interest, on the security of a mortgage, as the case may be, of the borough fund, or of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, the money which may be by them respectively required, and shall apply the moneys so borrowed accordingly (1).

22. And be it enacted, that the commissioners for carrying into execution an Act passed in the second session of the fifth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intitled "An Act to authorise the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited Amount for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries and Employment of the Poor, and to amend the Acts authorising the Issue of Exchequer Bills for the like purposes," may from time to time make to the council of any such borough, or commissioners of any such parish respectively, for the purposes of this Act, any loan under the provisions of the recited Act or the several Acts therein recited or referred to, upon security of [the borough fund, or] the rates for the relief of the parish, [as the case may be (2).]

23. And be it enacted, that the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the borrowing of money by any company on mortgage, and the provisions of the same Act with respect to the accountability of the officers of the company, and the provisions of the same Act with respect to the making of bye-laws, subject to the provision hereinafter contained, and the provisions of the same Act with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and penalties, so far as such provisions may respectively be applicable to the purposes of this Act, shall be respectively incorporated with this Act; and the expressions in such provisions applicable to the company and the directors shall apply as regards a borough to the council, and as regards a parish to the commissioners; and all deeds and writings which under such provisions are required or directed to be made or executed under the common seal of the company shall in the application of such provisions to this Act be deemed to be required or directed to be made or executed as regards a borough under the common seal of the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, and as regards a parish under the common seal of the commissioners; and so much of such provisions as are applicable to the "secretary of the company" shall apply to the clerk; and in such of the said provisions as relate to the inspection of accounts as regards a borough the burgesses, and as regards a parish the ratepayers, shall have the privileges of shareholders.

(1) Now the consent of the Local Government Board, and not that of the Treasury, is required: 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79, s. 34, ante, p. 257.

(2) The portions of this section between brackets are repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875. See now the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89, First Schedule, post.

Secs. 23-26.

this Act for certain purposes.

24. And be it enacted, that in any such borough the council, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from time to time appropriate for the purposes of this Act in the borough any lands vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses; and in any such parish the commissioners appointed under this Act, with the approval of the vestry and of the guardians of the poor of the parish (if any), and of the poor law commissioners for England and Wales, may from time to time appropriate for the purposes of this Act in the parish any lands vested in such guardians, or in the churchwardens, or in the churchwardens and overseers of the parish, or in any feoffees, trustees, or others, for the general benefit of the parish; and in any such parish the commissioners, with the approval of the vestry, and in any such borough the council, may from time to time contract for the purchasing or renting of any lands necessary for the purposes of this Act, and the property therein shall be vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses in the case of a borough, or in the commissioners in the case of a parish.

Council may appropriate, with consent of the Treasury, lands vested in the mayor, &c. Commissioners may, with approval of vestry, &c. appropriate lands belonging to parish; or contract for purchase of the same.

25. And be it enacted, that the council and commissioners respectively may from time to time, on any lands so appropriated, purchased, or rented, or contracted so to be respectively, erect any buildings suitable for public baths and wash-houses, and as to such wash-houses either with or without open drying grounds, and make any open bathing places, and convert any buildings into public baths and wash-houses, and may from time to time alter, enlarge, repair, and improve the same respectively, and fit up, furnish, and supply the same respectively with all requisite furniture, fittings, and conveniences.

Councils and commissioners may erect, &c. public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places.

26. And be it enacted, that the council and commissioners respectively may from time to time enter into any contract with any persons or companies for building and making, and for altering, enlarging, repairing, and improving, such public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places, and for supplying the same respectively with water, and for lighting the same respectively, and for fitting up the same respectively, and for furnishing any materials and things, and for executing and doing any other works and things necessary for the purposes of this Act; which contracts respectively shall specify the several works and things to be executed, furnished, and done, and the prices to be paid for the same, and the times when the works and things are to be executed, furnished, and done, and the penalties to be suffered in cases of non-performance; and all such contracts, or true copies thereof, shall be entered in books to be kept for that purpose: Provided always, that no contract above the value or sum of one hundred pounds shall be entered into by the council or the commissioners, for the purposes of this Act, unless previous to the making thereof fourteen days notice shall be given in one or more of the public newspapers published in the county in which the borough or parish shall be situated, expressing the intention of entering into such contract, in order that any person willing to undertake the same may make proposals for that purpose, to be offered to the council or commissioners at a certain time and place in such notice to be mentioned, but it shall not be incumbent on the council or commissioners to contract with the person offering the lowest price.

Councils and commissioners may enter into contracts for the purposes of this Act.

No contract above 100l. to be entered into without notice.

Secs. 27-32.

Council or commissioners may purchase existing baths, &c.

27. And be it enacted, that the council of any such borough, and the commissioners, with the approval of the vestry of any such parish, may, if they shall think fit, contract for the purchase or lease of any baths and wash-houses already or hereafter to be built and provided in any such borough or parish, and appropriate the same to the purposes of this Act, with such additions or alterations as they shall respectively deem necessary; and the trustees of any public baths and wash-houses which have been already or may hereafter be built or provided in any such borough or parish by private subscriptions or otherwise may, with the consent of the council of any such borough, or with the consent of the commissioners, and approval of the vestry of any such parish, and with the consent of a majority of the committee or other persons by whom they were appointed trustees, sell or lease the said baths and wash-houses to the said council or commissioners respectively, or make over to them the management of such baths and wash-houses; and in all such cases the baths and wash-houses so purchased or leased, or of which the management has been so made over, shall be deemed to be within the provisions of this Act as fully as if they had been built or provided by the said council or commissioners; and the property therein shall be vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses in the case of a borough, or in the commissioners in the case of a parish.

Power to water and gas companies to supply water and gas to baths, &c.

28. And be it enacted, that any commissioners of waterworks, trustees of waterworks, water companies, canal companies, gas companies, and other corporations, bodies, and persons having the management of any waterworks, canals, reservoirs, wells, springs, and streams of water, and gas works respectively, may in their discretion grant and furnish supplies of water or gas for such public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places either without charge or on such other favourable terms as they shall think fit.

Councillors and commissioners not to be personally liable.

29. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Act contained shall render any member of the council of any borough, or any commissioner, personally, or any of their lands, goods, chattels, or moneys (other than such lands, goods, chattels, or moneys as may be vested in or under the management or control of the council or commissioners respectively in pursuance of this Act), liable to the payment of any sum of money as or by way of compensation or satisfaction for or in respect of any thing done or suffered in due pursuance of this Act.

Persons may appeal against orders of councils and commissioners

30. And be it enacted, that every person who shall feel aggrieved by any bye-law, order, direction, or appointment of or by the council or commissioners shall have the like power of appeal to the general quarter sessions as under the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, incorporated with this Act, he might have if feeling aggrieved by any determination of any justice with respect to any penalty.

Council, &c. empowered to make sale and exchange of lands, with consent.

31. And be it enacted, that the council, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the commissioners appointed under this Act, with the approval of the vestry, and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury respectively, may from time to time make sale and dispose of any lands vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or in the commissioners respectively for the purposes of this Act, and apply the proceeds in or towards the purchase of other lands better adapted for such purposes, and may, with the like approval, exchange any lands so vested, and either with or without paying or receiving any money for equality of exchange, for any other lands better adapted for such purposes, and the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or the commissioners, may convey the lands so sold or exchanged accordingly.

When baths, &c. are considered too expensive they may, with approval of Treasury, be sold, and proceeds of sale carried to borough fund or poor's rate.

32. And be it enacted, that whenever any public baths or wash-houses or open bathing places which shall have been for seven years or upwards established under the authority of this Act shall be determined by the council or by the vestry, in accordance with a previous recommendation of the commissioners, to be unnecessary or too expensive to be kept up, the council or commissioners, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may sell the same for the best price that can reasonably be obtained for the same, and the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or the commissioners, shall convey the same accordingly; and the purchase money shall be paid to such person as the council or commissioners shall appoint, and his receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the same; and the net proceeds of such sale shall be paid to the credit of the borough fund, or of the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish.

33. And be it enacted, that the general management, regulation, and control of the public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places established under this Act shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be as to any borough vested in and exercised by the council, and as to any parish vested in and exercised by the commissioners. Secs. 33-39.

34. And be it enacted, that the bye-laws which the council and commissioners respectively may from time to time make, alter, repeal, and enforce shall include such bye-laws for the management, use, and regulation of the public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places, and of the persons resorting thereto respectively, and for determining from time to time the charges for the use of such baths and wash-houses and open bathing places respectively, as the council and commissioners respectively shall think fit, and they respectively may appoint any penalty not exceeding five pounds for any and every breach, whether by their officers or servants, or by other persons, of any bye-law made by them respectively; and such bye-laws shall make sufficient provision for the several purposes respectively expressed in the Schedule (A.) to this Act: provided always, that no bye-law made under the authority of this Act shall be of any legal force until the same shall have received the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State (1).

35. And be it enacted, that a printed copy or sufficient abstract of the bye-laws relating to the use of the baths and open bathing places respectively shall be put up in every bath room and open bathing place respectively; and a printed copy or sufficient abstract of the bye-laws relating to the use of the wash-houses shall be put up in some convenient place near every washing tub or trough, or every pair of washing tubs or troughs, in every wash-house.

36. And be it enacted, that the number of baths for the labouring classes in any building or buildings under the management of the same council or commissioners shall not be less than twice the number of the baths of any higher class if but one, or of all the baths of any higher classes if more than one, in the same building or buildings (2).

37. [Charges to be fixed by councils and commissioners not exceeding those in Schedule (B.) (3)].

38. And be it enacted, that for the recovery of the charges at such wash-houses the officers, servants, and others having the management thereof may detain the clothes brought to be washed or other goods and chattels of any person refusing to pay the charge to which such person may be liable, or any part thereof, till full payment thereof be made, and in case such payment be not made within seven days may sell such clothes, goods, and chattels, or any of them, returning the surplus proceeds of such sale, after deducting the unpaid charge and the expenses of such detention and sale, and the unsold articles, if any, on demand, to such person.

39. And be it enacted, that if any clerk or other officer, or any servant who shall be in anywise employed by any council or commissioners in pursuance of this Act, shall exact or accept any fee or reward whatsoever for or on account of anything done or forborne or to be done or forborne in pursuance of this Act, or on any account whatsoever relative to putting this Act into execution, other than such salaries, wages, or allowances as shall have been appointed by the council or commissioners, or shall in anywise be concerned or interested in any bargain or contract made by the council or commissioners for or on account of any thing done or forborne or to be done or forborne in pursuance of this Act, or on any account whatsoever relative to the putting of this Act into execution, or if any person during the time he holds the office of member of the council or commissioner shall exact or accept any such fee or reward, or shall accept or hold any office or place of trust created by virtue of this Act, or be concerned directly or indirectly in any such bargain or contract, every such person so offending shall be incapable of ever serving or being employed under this Act, and shall for every such offence also forfeit the sum of fifty pounds.

(1) See the circular dated 25th July, 1877, amongst the circulars, &c., of the Local Government Board, which are collected, post; and the Model Bye-laws, post.

(2) See further the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1847, 10 & 11 Vict. c. 61, s. 5, post.

(3) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1875. See the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1847, 10 & 11 Vict. c. 61, s. 7, post.

Management to be vested in councils and parish commissioners.

Council, &c. may make bye laws for regulating the use of baths and wash-houses, &c., and charges thereat.

Bye-laws to be approved by the Secretary of State.

Copies or abstracts of bye-laws to be hung up in every bath room, &c.

Proportion of baths for the labouring classes.

As to recovery of charges at wash-houses.

Penalty for council, commissioners, or officers taking fees beyond salaries, or being interested in contracts.

- Secs. 40, 41. 40. And be it enacted, that such part of any penalty recovered under this Act as shall not be awarded to the informer shall be paid to the credit as regards a borough of the Application of penalties. borough fund, and as regards a parish of the rate for the relief of the poor thereof.
41. [Act may be amended, &c. (1).]

SCHEDULE.

Schedules referred to by the foregoing Act.

SCHEDULE (A.)

Bye-laws to be made in all Cases.

Schedule A. For securing that the baths and wash-houses and open bathing places shall be under the due management and control of the officers, servants, or others appointed or employed in that behalf by the council or commissioners.

For securing adequate privacy to persons using the baths and wash-houses and open bathing places, and security against accidents to persons using the open bathing places.

For securing that men and boys above eight years old shall bathe separately from women and girls and children under eight years old.

For preventing damage, disturbance, interruption, and indecent and offensive language and behaviour, and nuisances.

For determining the duties of the officers, servants, and others appointed by the council or commissioners.

In parishes. For regulating the procedure of the commissioners.

(1) Repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1847.

BATHS AND WASH-HOUSES

ACT, 1847. ⁽¹⁾

10 & 11 VICT. c. 61.

An Act to amend the Act for the Establishment of Public Baths and Wash-houses.

[2nd July, 1847.]

Whereas an Act was passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to encourage the Establishment of Public Baths and Wash-houses:" And whereas it is expedient to afford additional facilities for the establishment of public baths and wash-houses and open bathing places; be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that the recited Act, as amended by this Act, and this Act shall be construed and be carried into execution as one Act.

Secs. 1—5.

9 & 10 Vict.
c. 74.

Recited Act and this Act
to be construed as one.
Interpretation of expressions in recited Act and this Act.

2. And be it enacted and declared, that the following words and expressions in the recited Act shall have in the said Act and this Act the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say,)

"Parish" shall mean not only every place having separate overseers of the poor and separately maintaining its own poor, but also every place maintaining its own poor and having a vestry:

"Ratepayers" shall mean all persons for the time being assessed to and paying rates for the relief of the poor of the parish:

"Vestry" shall mean not only a vestry as defined in the said Act, but also any body of persons, by whatever name distinguished, acting by virtue of any Act of Parliament, prescription, custom, or otherwise as or instead of a vestry or select vestry.

3.

and all acts and proceedings of any person in possession of the office of such commissioner, and acting in good faith as such commissioner, whether appointed before or after the passing of this Act, shall, notwithstanding his disqualification or want of qualification for or any defect or irregularity in or in any way concerning his appointment to such office, be as valid and effectual as if he were duly qualified or there had not been any such defect or irregularity ⁽²⁾.

Acts of commissioners of public baths &c. to be valid, notwithstanding informalities.

4. And be it enacted, that the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be incorporated with the recited Act and this Act: Provided always, that the council and commissioners respectively shall not purchase or take any lands otherwise than by agreement.

Incorporation of 8 & 9 Vict.
c. 18.
Council, &c. not to take land, &c.
Proportion of washing accommodation for labouring classes.

5. And be it enacted, that the number of washing tubs or troughs for the labouring classes in any building or buildings under the management of the same council or commissioners shall not be less than twice the number of the washing tubs or troughs of any higher class, if but one, or of all the higher classes if more than one, in the same building or buildings.

⁽¹⁾ See note ⁽¹⁾, ante, p. 1191.

⁽²⁾ The first portion of this section is repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1847.

Secs. 6—8.

Power to make charges for use of baths, &c. not exceeding those in the schedule.

6. [So much of recited Act as regulates charges for use of baths, &c., repealed (1).]
 7. And be it enacted, that the council and the commissioners respectively may from time to time make such reasonable charges for the use of the baths and wash-houses and open bathing places provided under the recited Act and this Act respectively as they think fit, not exceeding the charges mentioned in the schedule annexed to this Act.
 8. [Act may be amended, &c. (1).]

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

Charges for the Baths and Wash-houses and open Bathing Places.

1. BATHS FOR THE LABOURING CLASSES.

Every bath to be supplied with clean water for every person bathing alone, or for several children bathing together, and in either case with one clean towel for every bather.

For one person above eight years old :

Cold bath, or cold shower bath, any sum not exceeding	One penny.
Warm bath, or warm shower bath, or vapour bath, any sum not exceeding	Twopence.

For several children, not above eight years old, nor exceeding four, bathing together :

Cold bath, or cold shower bath, any sum not exceeding	Twopence.
Warm bath, or warm shower bath, or vapour bath, any sum not exceeding	Fourpence.

2. BATHS OF ANY HIGHER CLASS.

Such charges as the council and the commissioners respectively think fit, not exceeding in any case three times the charges above-mentioned for the several kinds of baths for the labouring classes.

3. WASH-HOUSES FOR THE LABOURING CLASSES.

Every wash-house to be supplied with conveniences for washing and drying clothes and other articles.

For the use by one person of one washing tub or trough, and of a copper or boiler (if any), or, where one of the washing tubs or troughs shall be used as a copper or boiler, for the use of one pair of washing tubs or troughs, and for the use of the conveniences for drying :

For one hour only in any one day, any sum not exceeding	One penny.
For two hours together, in any one day, any sum not exceeding	Threepence.

Any time over the hour or two hours respectively, if not exceeding five minutes, not to be reckoned.

For two hours not together, or for more than two hours in any one day, such charges as the council and the commissioners respectively think fit.

For the use of the washing conveniences alone, or of the drying conveniences alone, such charges as the council and the commissioners respectively think fit, but not exceeding in either case the charges for the use for the same time of both the washing and the drying conveniences.

4. WASH-HOUSES OF ANY HIGHER CLASS.

Such charges as the council and the commissioners respectively think fit.

5. OPEN BATHING PLACES, where several persons bathe in the same water, for one person, one halfpenny (2).

(1) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

(2) Now "one penny," Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1878, 41 Vict. c. 14, s. 14, post.

BATHS AND WASH-HOUSES

ACT, 1878. ⁽¹⁾

41 VICT. c. 14.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Public Baths and Wash-houses.

[27th May, 1878.]

Whereas the Act passed in the session held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy-four, intituled "An Act to encourage the Establishment of Public Baths and Wash-houses," was amended by the Act passed in the session held in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-one, intituled "An Act to amend the Act for the Establishment of Public Baths and Wash-houses," and it is expedient further to amend the said first-recited Act, and to provide for the establishment of covered swimming baths and other purposes: Secs. 1—6.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Baths and Wash-houses Act, 1878. Short title.
"Covered swimming bath."
2. The words "covered swimming bath" in this Act shall mean a swimming bath protected by a roof or other covering from the weather. Construction of Act.
33 & 39 Vict. c. 66.
33 & 39 Vict. c. 55.
3. All the provisions of the recited Acts respectively shall be construed to extend and to have extended from the passing of such Acts respectively to covered swimming baths as well as to baths, wash-houses, and open bathing places. Covered swimming baths authorised.
4. The council and the commissioners respectively may from time to time provide covered swimming baths, and make such reasonable charges for the use thereof as they shall think fit, not exceeding the charges mentioned in the schedule annexed to this Act. As to charges for swimming baths.
5. The council and the commissioners respectively may during such period, not exceeding five months in any one year, as they shall think fit, from the beginning of the month of November to the end of the month of March, close any covered swimming bath or open swimming bath, and may either keep the same closed or may establish therein a gymnasium or such other means of healthful recreation as they shall think fit, or may during such period allow any covered or open swimming bath to be used as an empty building for such purposes of healthful recreation or exercise as they shall think fit during such period as aforesaid, and may at any time allow any portion of the public baths not required by the commissioners to be used for holding vestry meetings or other parochial purposes: Provided always, that no covered or open swimming bath when closed may be used for music or dancing. Power to close swimming baths for a limited period.
6. The council and the commissioners respectively may make bye-laws for the regulation, management, and use of the open or swimming baths when used for any of the purposes mentioned in the fifth section of this Act; and all the provisions in the Power to make bye-laws.

(1) See note (1), ante, p. 1191.

Secs. 6—14. principal Act relating to bye-laws shall extend and apply to bye-laws made under this section.

Power to appoint officers.

7. The council and the commissioners respectively may appoint and remove at pleasure such officers and servants as shall be necessary for the management and superintendence of any gymnasium or other means of recreation established under this Act, and may appoint reasonable salaries, wages, and allowances for such officers and servants.

Power to make charges for gymnasium, &c.

8. The council and the commissioners respectively may from time to time make such reasonable charges for the use of the gymnasium or other means of recreation established under this Act, or for the use of any covered swimming bath as an empty room, as they shall think fit.

Powers of borrowing, &c. extended to
this Act.

9. The provisions in the twenty-first, twenty-second, and twenty-third sections of the principal Act authorising the borrowing and advancement of money for the purposes of that Act shall be taken to authorise the borrowing and advancement of money in like manner for the purposes of this Act; and the approval of the Local Government Board shall be substituted for that of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in all cases where money is borrowed for the purposes of the principal Act or this Act.

Power to remove offenders.
Baths, &c. to be considered public and open places.

10. The council and the commissioners respectively, and their respective servants and agents, may remove any person offending against any of the bye-laws made under this Act and the recited Acts, or any of them; and any bath or wash-house, or open bathing place, or covered swimming bath, established under this Act and the recited Acts, or any of them, shall be taken to be a public and open place, so as to make offences against decency therein criminal offences.

Power to refuse admittance to baths, &c. to offenders.

11. The council and the commissioners respectively, and their respective officers and servants, may refuse admittance to any bath, wash-house, open bathing place, or covered swimming bath, or any of them, to any person (1) who shall have been convicted of wilfully disobeying any of the bye-laws in such bath, wash-house, open bathing place, or covered swimming bath; (2) who shall have been convicted of any offence against public decency in any of such baths, wash-houses, open bathing places, or covered swimming baths as aforesaid.

12. [Power to make superannuation allowances to officers, &c., employed about baths, &c., within the metropolis (1).]

Expenses of Act and income arising to be applied
as under principal Act.

13. The expense of carrying this Act into execution shall be defrayed, and the income arising from the use in any manner of any covered swimming bath established under the provisions of this Act and the recited Acts, or any of them, shall be applied, in the same manner as that in which the expenses of the principal Act are thereby directed to be defrayed, and the income arising from baths and wash-houses, and open bathing places, is thereby directed to be applied.

Increase of charge.

14. The charge of one halfpenny, fixed by the tenth and eleventh Victoria, chapter sixty-one, section seven, and part five of the schedule to that Act, shall be increased to one penny.

SCHEDULE.

The SCHEDULE above referred to.

CHARGES FOR COVERED SWIMMING BATHS.

1ST CLASS.—Any sum not exceeding eightpence for each person.

2ND CLASS.—Any sum not exceeding fourpence for each person.

3RD CLASS.—Any sum not exceeding twopence for each person.

(1) Applies to the metropolis only.

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS (BOROUGH FUNDS) ACT.

35 & 36 VICT. c. 91.

An Act to authorise the application of Funds of Municipal Corporations and other governing bodies in certain cases ⁽¹⁾.

[10th August, 1872.]

Whereas by the Act passed in the session holden in the twentieth and twenty-first years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled an Act to amend the Acts concerning the Municipal Corporations, the trustees acting under any Act of Parliament for supplying any borough, or any district within or in certain cases beyond the limits of a borough, with water or gas, or having powers for providing or maintaining any cemetery or market in or for any borough, or otherwise improving the same, are authorised and empowered to transfer to the body corporate of such borough all their rights, estates, properties, and liabilities :

20 & 21 Vict.
c. 50.

And whereas by the ninety-second section of the Act passed in the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, to provide for the regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, in each borough the annual proceeds of all property and hereditaments belonging to the body corporate, and fines and rates levied in the borough, are directed to form the borough fund, and such fund is directed to be applied in the payment of certain salaries and certain expenses and the expenses necessarily incurred in carrying into effect the provisions of the said Act, and the surplus (if any) of such fund is directed to be applied, under the direction of the council, for the public benefit of the inhabitants and the improvement of the borough :

And whereas the Public Health Act, 1848, the Local Government Act, 1858, and various local Acts of Parliament, have conferred powers of improving, cleansing, paving, lighting, and otherwise governing places or districts upon boards of health, commissioners, trustees, or other persons ⁽²⁾ :

And whereas it is expedient to extend the powers of governing bodies so as to enable them to apply the borough or other funds under the control of such governing body towards such costs, charges, and expenses as may be incurred for the purposes and in the manner herein provided :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

(1) The general principle, apart from this Act, is that opposition to a Bill before Parliament must be in defence of corporate property or rights: See Att.-Gen. v. Mayor, &c., of Wigan, 1 Kay, 268, 23 L. J. Ch. 429, 434, 18 Jur. 299, 23 L. T. 43, 2 W. R. 308; R. v. Dublin Town Council, 9 L. T. N. S. 123; Brighton v. North, 16 L. J. Ch. 255; Bright v. North, 2 Ph. 216.

This Act does not take away the right of a municipal corporation to defray out of their funds or rates the expenses incurred in defending any attack made by Bill in Parliament, whether against their existence as a corporation or against their property, or only against their rights, power, and privileges: Att.-Gen. v. Mayor, &c., of Brecon, L. R. 10 Ch. D., 204, 48 L. J. Ch. 153, 40 L. T. N. S. 52, 27 W. R. 332.

(2) See section 313 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 215.

Secs. 1—4.

Interpretation
of terms.

1. The term "governing body" in this Act shall mean the council of any municipal borough, the board of health, local board, commissioners, trustees, or other body acting under any general or local Act of Parliament for the management, improvement, cleansing, paving, lighting, and otherwise governing places or districts, and the term "district" shall mean the borough, place, township, or district within which the governing body may for the time being have jurisdiction: Provided, however, that in the borough of Cambridge, in any matters affecting the constitution, power, or functions of the Board of Cambridge Improvement Commissioners, as defined in the several Acts of Parliament relating thereto, the term "governing body" shall mean such board of improvement commissioners, and not the council of the borough of Cambridge.

Costs of promoting or opposing parliamentary and other proceedings for benefit of inhabitants to be charge on borough and local funds, except in certain cases.

2. When in the judgment of a governing body in any district it is expedient for such governing body to promote or oppose any local and personal Bill or Bills in Parliament ⁽¹⁾, or to prosecute or defend any legal proceedings necessary for the promotion or protection of the interests of the inhabitants of the district, it shall be lawful for such governing body to apply the borough fund, borough rate, or other the public funds or rates under the control of such governing body to the payment of the costs and expenses attending the same ⁽²⁾; and when there are several funds or rates under the control of the governing body, such governing body shall determine out of which fund or funds, rate or rates, such expense shall be payable, and in what proportions: Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall authorise any governing body to promote any Bill in Parliament for the establishment of any gas or water works to compete with any existing gas or water company established under any Act of Parliament: Provided that no powers contained in this clause shall apply in any case where the promotion of or opposition to a Bill by a governing body has been decided by a Committee of either House of Parliament to be unreasonable or vexatious.

No payment to member of governing body to be so charged.

3. No payment to any member of a governing body for acting as counsel or agent in promoting or opposing any such bill shall be charged as aforesaid.

Costs of promoting or opposing Bills to require sanction of special meetings.

4. No expense in relation to promoting or opposing any Bill or Bills in Parliament shall be charged as aforesaid unless incurred in pursuance of a resolution of an absolute majority of the whole number of the governing body at a meeting of the governing body, after ten clear days notice by public advertisement of such meeting and of the purpose thereof in some local newspaper published or circulating in the district, such notice to be in addition to the ordinary notices required for summoning such meeting, nor unless such resolution shall have been published twice in some newspaper or newspapers circulating in the district, and shall have received, in respect of matters within the jurisdiction of the Local Government Board, the approval of such board, and in respect of other matters, the approval of one of Her Majesty's Secretaries of State, and in case of the promotion of a Bill in Parliament no further expense shall be incurred or charged as aforesaid after the deposit of the Bill, unless the propriety of such promotion shall be confirmed by such absolute majority at a further special meeting to be held in pursuance of a similar notice not less than fourteen days after the deposit of the Bill in Parliament: Provided further, that no expense in promoting or opposing any Bill in Parliament shall be charged as aforesaid unless such promotion or opposition shall have had the consent of the owners and ratepayers of that district, to be expressed by resolution in the manner provided in the Local Government Act (1858) for the adoption of that Act ⁽³⁾.

⁽¹⁾ The provisions of this Act do not apply to Provisional Orders. See section 297 (6) of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 207. This Act applies only to local and personal bills.

⁽²⁾ See section 6, post, p. 1205.

⁽³⁾ It was held by Lord Campbell, in R. v. Morris, 28 L. J. 266, that a local board should obtain express sanction from a meeting of ratepayers called for the purpose before incurring expenses for parliamentary proceedings.

As regards local boards, the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1875, must now be observed. See section 313, ante, p. 215. These provisions will be found, ante, pp. 243—245.

The court will not grant a mandamus to call a second meeting in order that a poll may be demanded where the applicant has not a real interest in the matter: R. v. Mayor of

5. The approval of the Local Government Board or one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, as the case may be, shall not be given to any such resolution as aforesaid until the expiration of seven days after the second publication thereof, as provided by this Act, and in the meantime any ratepayer within the district of the governing body may give notice in writing to the Local Government Board or Secretary of State objecting to such approval ⁽²⁾.

Secs. 5-11.
 Proviso as to approval of Local Government Board, &c., to any such resolution.
 Costs to be examined.

6. All costs, charges, and expenses incurred under the provisions of this Act shall, before the same become chargeable, be examined and allowed by some person to be authorised by one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State or by the Local Government Board, as the case may be.

7. The Local Government Board, or one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, shall have power to direct a local inquiry to be held upon any application under this Act, by any person or persons whom they may respectively nominate for the purpose, and to charge the costs and expenses of such local inquiry upon the governing body or the person by whom such application shall be made.

Power to direct local inquiry.

8. Nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to alter or affect any special provision which is or shall be contained in any other Act for the payment of the costs, charges, and expenses intended to be provided for by this Act, or to take away or diminish any rights or powers now possessed or enjoyed by any governing body, or which are or shall be vested in or exerciseable by the inhabitants of any district under any general or special Act.

Saving clause.

9. The one hundred and forty-second section of The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, is hereby repealed so far as the same is inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, s. 142, repealed.

10. The provisions of this Act shall not extend to applications for any Bill in Parliament for any object which would, for the time being, be attainable by Provisional Order ⁽¹⁾.

Act not to extend to Bills if object attainable by Provisional Order.

11. This Act shall not extend or apply to Ireland or the city of London or the metropolitan area as defined by the Metropolitan Local Management Act, 1855.

Act not to apply to Ireland or the metropolis.

Peterborough, 44 L. J. Q. B. 85, 23 W. R. 343. As to the common law right to a poll, see R. v. Wimbledon Local Board, L. R. 8 Q. B. D. 459, 51 L. J. Q. B. 219, 46 L. T. N. S. 47, 30 W. R. 400.

⁽¹⁾ See sections 297 and 298 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and the notes thereto, ante, pp. 205-207.

LOCAL LOANS ACT, 1875.

38 & 39 VICT. c. 83.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Securities for Loans contracted by Local Authorities.
[13th August, 1875.]

Secs 1—5. Whereas it is expedient to amend the law relating to securities for loans contracted by local authorities:—

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

(1.) Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Local Loans Act, 1875."

Limits of Act.

2. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Commencement of Act.

3. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six, which day is hereinafter referred to as the commencement of this Act.

Definition of borrowing under Act.

4. A local authority shall be deemed to borrow, subject to the provisions of this Act, whenever it raises a loan by the issue of debentures or debenture stock or annuity certificates, purporting to be created under its powers, or partly in one way and partly in another; subject to this proviso, that where a loan is directed to be raised by debentures or debenture stock or annuity certificates under this Act, the prescribed mode only shall be adopted.

(2.) Debentures.

Regulations as to debentures.

5. A debenture under this Act shall be an instrument taking effect as a deed, and charging the local rate or property in such debenture specified with payment, as in the debenture mentioned, of the principal sum and interest therein specified.

Where a debenture under this Act charges property other than the local rate, and it is intended that in default of payment of the principal sum due on such debenture, or of the interest thereon, the property is to be sold, a statement to that effect shall be inserted in the debenture.

The principal sum may be made payable to the bearer of the debenture, or to a person to be named therein, his executors, administrators, or assigns.

A debenture in which the principal sum is made payable to the bearer shall be transferable by delivery.

A debenture in which the principal sum is made payable to a person named therein, his executors, administrators, or assigns, is in this Act referred to as a nominal debenture, and shall be transferable by writing in manner directed by the local authority.

There may be attached to a debenture under this Act, or be thereafter issued in respect thereof, or partly in one way and partly in the other, coupons making the interest as therein mentioned payable to the bearer of each coupon, or to the person named in each coupon or his order, or the interest on a debenture may be made payable to the owner for the time being of such debenture, or may be otherwise made payable in such manner as in the said debenture mentioned.

A coupon making the interest therein mentioned payable to the person named therein or his order is in this Act referred to as a coupon payable to order.

A debenture under this Act shall not be issued for a less sum than the prescribed sum, or, where no sum is prescribed, than twenty pounds.

(3.) Debenture Stock.

Secs. 6, 7.

Regulations
as to debenture stock.

6. A debenture stock may be created and issued by a local authority having power to raise a loan or any part thereof by the issue of debenture stock. Such debenture stock shall be of a nominal amount, not exceeding the amount of money authorised to be raised by such stock, and shall, unless otherwise provided by the conditions of issue, be redeemable at par at the option of the local authority at such times and upon such conditions as the local authority may declare at the time of the issue thereof.

The title of any person to any share in debenture stock shall be evidenced by the entry in the register as in this Act mentioned of the name of such person as owner of such share.

Debenture stock shall bear such rate of interest, to be payable at such times as the local authority may declare at the time of issue of the stock.

Debenture stock and the interest thereon shall be a charge on the local rate or property specified at the time of the issue thereof, in the same manner as if it were a principal sum and interest charged thereon by deed.

Where debenture stock and the interest thereon is a charge on property other than the local rate, and it is intended that in default of the payment of the interest thereon, or for the purpose of raising the money required for the redemption of the stock, the property is to be sold, a declaration to that effect shall be made by the local authority at the time of the issue of the stock, and shall be deemed to form one of the conditions of such issue.

Debenture stock shall have all the incidents of personal estate, and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be transferable by writing in manner directed by the local authority⁽¹⁾.

The interest on any share of debenture stock shall be recoverable by the owner of such share in the same manner in all respects as if such interest were an annuity of like amount secured to him by an annuity certificate under this Act.

The owner of any share in debenture stock shall not be entitled to require payment of the nominal amount of stock held by him, except at the time and upon the conditions declared by the local authority at the time of the issue of such stock.

The conditions of issue of debenture stock shall be declared by the local authority at the time of such issue, and a printed copy of such conditions shall be supplied to every owner of debenture stock requiring the same, and shall be entered in the register of such stock.

The local authority may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the owner of any share in debenture stock, grant to him a certificate of title to his share in such stock, or any part of such share, with coupons attached entitling the bearer of the coupons to the interest on the share or part of a share specified in such certificate.

A certificate of title to a share in debenture stock under this section (in this Act called a stock certificate to bearer) shall entitle the bearer to the stock therein described, and to the interest thereon, and shall be transferable by delivery⁽²⁾.

Any share in stock in respect of which a stock certificate to bearer has been issued, shall, so long as such certificate is outstanding, cease to be dealt with through the medium of the register.

Debenture stock, in respect of which a stock certificate to bearer has not been issued, is in this Act referred to as nominal debenture stock.

(4.) Annuity Certificates.

7. An annuity certificate under this Act shall be an instrument taking effect as a deed, and charging the local rate or property in such certificate specified with payment, as in the certificate mentioned, of the annual sum therein specified. Regulations as to annuity certificates.

Where an annuity certificate under this Act charges property other than the local rate, and it is intended that in default of payment of the annual sum secured by such

(1) As to composition for stamp duty on transfers of debenture and other stocks of municipal corporations, see the Inland Revenue Act, 1880, 43 & 44 Vict. c. 20, ss. 53, 55.

(2) As to the stamp duty on "stock certificates to bearer," see Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1881, 44 Vict. c. 12, s. 46.

Secs. 7—12. annuity certificate, or of some part thereof, the property is to be sold, a statement to that effect shall be inserted in the annuity certificate.

The annual sum may be made payable to the bearer of the certificate or to a person to be named therein, his executors, administrators, or assigns.

An annuity certificate in which the annual sum is made payable to the bearer shall be transferable by delivery.

An annuity certificate in which the annual sum is made payable to a person named therein, his executors, administrators, or assigns, is in this Act referred to as a nominal annuity certificate, and shall be transferable by writing in manner directed by the local authority.

An annuity certificate under this Act shall not be issued for a less annual sum than the prescribed sum, or, where no sum is prescribed, than three pounds.

(5.) Priority of Loans.

Priority of loans.

8. All sums for the time being due or authorised to be raised on or in respect of any securities issued in respect of the same loan by a local authority under this Act shall be paid without any preference the one over the other by reason of the priority of date of any of such securities.

Where more than one loan has been raised under this Act by the same local authority, the sums for the time being due or authorised to be raised on or in respect of any securities issued in respect of each loan shall take priority according to the date of such loan.

Where any sum of money is authorised to be borrowed in manner provided by this Act, such sum may, unless it is otherwise prescribed, be raised under this Act as one loan or several loans, as may be deemed most convenient by the borrowing authority, so that the aggregate amount authorised to be borrowed be not exceeded.

The date of each loan shall, with a view to the priority of the loan and to the period within which such loan is to be discharged, and for the other purposes of this Act, so far as relates to that period, be fixed by the local authority, and may be so fixed irrespectively of the dates of the particular securities issued in respect of such loan, so that the period within which the loan is required to be discharged be not exceeded.

(6.) Notice of Trusts.

Notice of trust not receivable.

9. No notice of any trust, expressed, implied, or constructive, shall be received by the local authority, or by any registrar or officer of the local authority, in relation to any security issued by such authority under this Act.

Owners of securities not responsible for acts of local authority.

10. A person advancing any money to a local authority and receiving in consideration of such advance any security under this Act, shall not be bound to inquire into the application of the money advanced, or be in any way responsible for the non-application or misapplication thereof.

(7.) Remedy for Non-payment.

Remedy by mandamus for non-payment of money.

11. The local authority shall pay or raise all sums for the time being due or authorised to be raised on or in respect of any security issued by them under this Act, and if default is made in payment of any sum so due, such sum shall be deemed to be a specialty debt due to the person entitled thereto from the local authority of such a nature that a mandamus will be granted to enforce the payment thereof; and an action may be brought accordingly, in which a mandamus may be claimed.

Remedy by appointment of receiver for non-payment of money.

12. Where a local authority makes default for a period of twenty-one days in paying an amount of not less than five hundred pounds (whether in one sum or separate sums) for the time being due on or in respect of any security issued under this Act, the persons entitled to the said amount, or any of such persons, may, instead of or in addition to bringing an action or actions, apply to the county court for the appointment of a receiver, and any receiver so appointed (subject to any direction which may be given by the court) shall from time to time raise as hereinafter-mentioned, by or out of the local rate or property charged, sufficient money to pay the amount the payment of which is so in default, and all sums due while he is receiver on or in respect of any such security, Secs. 12-14. together with all costs, charges, and expenses incurred in or about the appointment of such receiver and the execution of his duties under this section, including a proper remuneration for his trouble, and shall render to the defaulting authority the balance, if any, remaining in his hands after making the said payments.

Where the amount so due or authorised to be raised is charged on the local rate, the receiver may raise the money he is authorised to raise under this section by means of the local rate, and for that purpose shall have the same power as the defaulting authority of levying the local rate, and the receiver shall have such access to and use of the documents of the defaulting authority relative to the local rate as he may require.

Where the amount so due or authorised to be raised is charged on any property, other than the local rate, the receiver may raise the sum which he is authorised to raise under this section by receipt of the rents and profits of the property, and if the security involves a power of sale, as in this Act mentioned, by sale of the property in such manner and subject to such conditions of sale and otherwise as the court may direct.

A county court may appoint a receiver under this section with respect to any local rate levied, or any property situate wholly or partly within the jurisdiction of such court, and may remove such receiver and appoint another in his stead, and so from time to time; and may make such orders and give such directions as to the powers and duties of the receiver, and otherwise as to the disposal of the moneys received by him, as may be thought fit for carrying this section into effect ⁽¹⁾.

(8.) Discharge of Loan.

13. Every loan borrowed in manner provided by this Act shall be discharged within the prescribed period from the date thereof ⁽²⁾, and if no period is prescribed, within the period of twenty years from the date thereof, which period of twenty years shall for the purposes of this Act be included under the term "prescribed period," and such discharge shall be secured by one or more of the following methods; that is to say, Loan borrowed to be discharged within prescribed period.

By the issue of annuity certificates limited to expire within the prescribed period ; or,

By the issue of debentures made payable in such a manner that in each year such number of debentures will become due and be paid off as will secure the repayment of the whole sum secured by such debentures by equal annual instalments, extending over the whole of the prescribed period, or over a less time than the prescribed period ; or,

By the annual appropriation, as in this Act mentioned, of a fixed sum to the discharge of a certain portion of such loan ; or,

Where a sinking fund is prescribed, but not otherwise, by the establishment of a sinking fund and the application thereof in manner in this Act mentioned.

14. Where a fixed annual sum is appropriated to the discharge of a loan, or part of a loan, the local authority shall raise in every year an equal sum of money of such amount as will, at, or before the expiration of the prescribed period, pay off the whole of such loan or part of a loan, and the interest thereon. The local authority shall in each year pay out of such fixed sum the interest due on the loan or part of a loan during the current year, and appropriate the residue of such sum, in the case of money borrowed on debentures, to the payment off of a corresponding amount of the principal sum secured by such debentures, and in the case of money borrowed by the issue of debenture stock to the redemption of a corresponding amount of such stock. Discharge of loan by appropriation of annual sum.

The debentures or portion of debenture stock to be paid off in every year shall be ascertained in such manner as may have been fixed at the time of the issue of the debentures or debenture stock, or may thereafter have been arranged. Where the debentures or portion of debenture stock to be paid off are or is to be deter-

⁽¹⁾ The proceedings are by petition, to be presented to the court of the district in which the local authority exercises its authority ; and the same procedure is followed, and fees paid and costs allowed, as on any other petition where the subject-matter exceeds £100. See the County Court Rules, 1876 (Order 39 a), rr. 36, 38.

⁽²⁾ See Public Health Act, 1875, s. 234 (4), ante, p. 173.

Secs. 14, 15, mined by lot, the lots shall be drawn in presence of the local authority, and any owners of debenture or debenture stock who choose to be present ; the local authority shall cause not less than one month's previous notice of the time and place at which lots are to be drawn to be given by advertisement, published once at the least in each of four successive weeks in some newspaper circulating in the district within which the local authority has jurisdiction.

Any fractional sum remaining of such residue as aforesaid, after payment of the debentures or debenture stock, payable as aforesaid, shall be carried to the credit of the annual sum to be raised in the ensuing year. All expenses incurred by the local authority in respect of any drawings by lot or otherwise in respect of the discharge of a loan shall be paid out of the current revenue of the local authority.

Discharge of loan by sinking fund.

15. Where a sinking fund is prescribed for any loan or part of a loan, the local authority shall create a sinking fund as hereinafter-mentioned; that is to say,

- (1.) Such equal yearly or half-yearly sums shall be paid into the sinking fund in each year as, being accumulated at compound interest at the prescribed rate, or if no rate is prescribed, at such rate as in the opinion of the local authority (regard being had to the securities in which they are authorised to make investments), will at the expiration of some period, not longer than the prescribed period, be sufficient, after payment of all expenses, to discharge such loan or part of a loan ; and,
- (2.) The first of such payments shall be made within one year from the date of the loan ; and,
- (3.) All sums paid into the sinking fund shall be, as soon as may be, invested by the local authority in the prescribed manner, and if no manner is prescribed, or if a manner having been prescribed, the Local Government Board shall assent, in securities in which trustees are by law for the time being authorised to invest, or in debentures, debenture stock, or annuity certificates issued under this Act, and any such investments may be from time to time varied or transposed, and all dividends and other annual sums received in respect of such investments shall, as soon as may be after they are received, be paid into the sinking fund and invested by the local authority in like manner ; and,
- (4.) The local authority may from time to time apply the sinking fund, or any part thereof, in or towards the discharge of the loan or part of a loan for which it was created, and until such loan or part is wholly discharged shall not apply the same for any other purpose ;
- (5.) The debentures or portion of debenture stock, to the payment of which such sinking fund is for the time being applicable, shall be ascertained in such manner as may have been fixed at the time of the issue of the debentures or debenture stock, or may thereafter have been arranged. Where the debentures or portion of debenture stock to be paid off are or is to be determined by lot, the lots shall be drawn and notice shall be given in manner hereinbefore in this Act mentioned :
- (6.) Any surplus of the sinking fund remaining after the discharge of the loan or part of a loan, for the discharge of which it was created, shall be paid into some other sinking fund under the control of the local authority, or if there is no such fund shall be applied to any purpose to which such loan is applicable, or otherwise, as the local authority may, with the assent of the Local Government Board, think expedient :
- (7.) Where any part of the sinking fund is invested in any securities of the local authority, or is applied in paying off any part of the loan before the prescribed period, the interest which would otherwise be payable on such securities or on such part of the loan shall be paid into the sinking fund and invested in manner provided by this Act :

to 48.) If the annual income of the sinking fund is not less than the annual interest receiver, payable on so much of the loan or part of the loan in respect of which it was the court) shall as remains undischarged, the equal annual sums required by this section or property charged into the sinking fund may cease to be so paid.

16. Where a sinking fund is created for the purpose of discharging any loan or part of a loan the local authority shall, until such loan or part of a loan is discharged, within twenty-one days after the expiration of each year, transmit to the Local Government Board a return in such form and verified in such manner as the Board from time to time directs, showing the amount which has been invested or applied for the purpose of such sinking fund during the year next preceding the making of such return, and the description of the securities upon which any investment has been made, and the purposes to which any portion of the sinking fund has been applied during the same period, and the total amount (if any) remaining invested at the end of the year. If it appears to the Local Government Board, by such return or otherwise, that the local authority have failed to comply with the provisions of this Act with respect to the sinking fund, that board may, if they think fit and after hearing the local authority, if desirous to be heard, by order direct that the sum in respect of which default has been made is to be raised and invested or applied as part of the sinking fund, and any such order may be enforced by mandamus.

Secs. 16-21.

Annual return as to sinking fund.

SupPLEMENTAL PROVISIONS.

(1.) As to Coupons.

17. Coupons in respect of any debenture or stock certificate to bearer under this Act may be issued compensating the interest payable during the whole period of years for which the debenture or stock certificate is in force, or any less period, and at the expiration of any such less period fresh coupons may be issued in respect of the debenture or stock certificate, or such debenture or stock certificate may be exchanged for another debenture or stock certificate with coupons for a further period.

Temporary issue of coupons.

18. A coupon payable to order, which when presented for payment purports to be endorsed by the person named therein, shall be a sufficient authority to the person paying the money to pay the amount due in respect of such coupon to the bearer thereof, and it shall not be incumbent on the person paying such coupon to prove that such endorsement or any subsequent endorsement was made by or under the direction or authority of the person who is named in the coupon, or to whom the coupon was made payable by any endorser.

Endorsement and crossing of coupons.

Where a coupon bears across its face an addition in writing, printed, or stamped letters of the name of any banker or of the words "and company" in full or abbreviated, between two transverse lines, such addition shall be deemed to be a material part of the coupon, and have the force of a direction to the person by whom such coupon is to be paid that the same is to be paid only to or through the banker named, or if none is so named, to or through some banker, and the same shall be payable only to or through the banker named or some banker.

19. Any coupons issued in respect of any debenture or stock certificate to bearer under this Act shall for the purpose of the Acts relating to stamp duties be deemed to have been attached to and issued with such security.

Coupons issued in respect of a security are exempt from stamp duty as if attached thereto.

(2.) As to Stock Certificates.

20. The bearer of a stock certificate to bearer may, on delivery to the local authority of his certificate and of all unpaid coupons belonging thereto, require the local authority to enter him in the register of the local authority as an owner of the share of stock described in the stock certificate to bearer, and thereupon that stock shall become nominal debenture stock and the interest thereon shall be payable as if no stock certificate to bearer had been issued in respect of that share of stock.

Conversion into nominal debenture stock of stock in certificate to bearer.

21. A trustee of debenture stock shall not apply for or hold a stock certificate to bearer unless authorised to do so by the terms of his trust, and any contravention of this provision by a trustee shall be deemed a breach of trust. But this provision shall not impose on the local authority an obligation to inquire whether a person applying for a stock certificate to bearer is or is not a trustee, or subject to the local authority to any Trustee not to apply for stock certificate to bearer.

Secs. 21-25 liability in the event of their issuing a stock certificate to bearer to a trustee, or invalidate any stock certificate to bearer issued.

(3.) As to Execution and Supply of Securities.

Execution and supply of securities.

22. Every debenture, stock certificate to bearer, and annuity certificate under this Act shall be deemed to be well executed if under the common seal of the local authority, where that authority is a body corporate, and if signed by two or more members of the local authority, where the local authority is not a body corporate, or if otherwise executed in such manner as the Local Government Board may direct on the application of any local authority, whether corporate or unincorporate.

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue may, when required by any local authority, and on payment of such sum as may, with the sanction of the Treasury, be agreed upon, supply such authority with debentures, stock certificates to bearer, coupons, and annuity certificates under this Act in such form and of such materials as the local authority may direct.

(4.) As to Register of Nominal Securities.

Register of nominal securities.

23. A local authority issuing nominal debentures, nominal debenture stock, or nominal annuity certificates under this Act, shall cause a register of such securities to be kept in one or more book or books, and there shall be entered in such register—

(1.) The names and addresses and the descriptions of the owners for the time being of every such security, with a statement of the securities held by each person registered, and

(2.) The date at which the name of any person was entered in the register in respect of any such security.

The register under this section shall be evidence of any matters by this Act directed or authorised to be inserted therein.

Inspection of register.

24. Any person may inspect the register at any reasonable time upon payment of such fee not exceeding one shilling as may be fixed by the local authority, and shall be entitled to obtain from the registrar, copies or extracts certified by him to be true copies or extracts of such register, upon payment of such fee not exceeding two shillings and sixpence, and twopence for every folio of seventy-two words, as the local authority may from time to time fix, and any copy or extract so certified shall be admissible in evidence.

Rectification of register.

25. If the name of any person is without sufficient cause entered in or omitted from the register, or if default is made or unnecessary delay takes place in making any entry in such register, the person aggrieved or the local authority may apply to the court for an order that the register may be rectified.

The court may either refuse the application with or without costs to be paid by the applicant, or may, if satisfied of the justice of the case, whether there has or has not been any default on the part of the registrar, make an order for the rectification of the register, and make such order as to the payment of the costs of the application or of damages to the person aggrieved as to the court may seem just.

The court may, in any proceeding under this section, decide any question relating to the title of any party to such proceeding to have his name entered in or omitted from the register, and generally any question which it may be necessary or expedient to decide for the rectification of the register.

The court for the purposes of this section means any of Her Majesty's superior courts of law or equity, or any court to which the jurisdiction of such courts may be transferred, and where the value of any security or securities to which the application relates does not exceed fifty pounds shall include a county court, and the jurisdiction by this Act given to a superior court may be exercised in a summary manner by any judge or judges of such court sitting in chambers or otherwise ⁽¹⁾.

⁽¹⁾ In the County Court the proceedings are by petition to the court of the district in which the local authority exercises its authority; and the same procedure is followed, and fees paid and costs allowed, as on any other petition where the subject-matter exceeds £20 and does not exceed £100. County Court Rules, 1876 (Order 39 a), rr. 37, 38.

(5.) As to Loans under Official Sanction.

Secs. 26-30.

26. Any local authority about to raise a loan by the issue of any securities under this Act may apply to the Local Government Board to authorise the issue of such securities under official sanction.

Permissive issue of securities under official sanction

The Local Government Board, before granting their official sanction to such issue, shall require the local authority to furnish in such form, and with such particulars, and supported by such evidence as the Local Government Board may require, such returns of the financial condition of such authority and borrowing powers of such authority and of the indebtedness of such authority, whether incurred before or after the passing of this Act, and such other particulars as will enable the Local Government Board to ascertain the facts required by this section to be stated in relation to such issue, and the Local Government Board may make such examination or inquiries for ascertaining the said matters and the accuracy of such returns as they may think expedient, and they shall not give their sanction unless they are satisfied with the information given and the result of the inquiries made.

The issue of any securities under official sanction shall be authenticated by an official stamp on such securities or otherwise as the Local Government Board may from time to time direct.

The sanction of the Local Government Board given in respect of any securities shall be conclusive evidence that the local authority by whom such securities may be issued had power to issue the same, and that the same have been duly issued, and are as to form and otherwise in conformity with this Act.

The owner of any security issued under official sanction shall on request made by him to the Local Government Board be furnished with a statement of the following particulars; (that is to say,)

Where a security is charged on a rate, of the rateable value, at the date of the issue of such security, of the property subject to the rate, and where the security is a charge on property, of the estimated value of such property; also of

The relative priority of the loan, in respect of which such security is issued, and of the other loans (if any) of the borrowing authority; and such statement shall be evidence of the particulars therein stated.

(6.) As to Investments on Loans under Act.

27. Any trustee or other persons for the time being authorised or directed to invest any moneys in the debentures or debenture stock of any railway or other company shall, unless the contrary is provided by the instrument authorising or directing such investment, have the same power of investing such moneys in any nominal debentures or nominal debenture stock issued under this Act as they have of investing such moneys in debentures or debenture stock of any railway or other company as aforesaid.

Power for trustees to invest in loans under Act.

28. When the Public Works Loan Commissioners are authorised to grant any loan to a local authority under any Act, passed either before or after the passing of this Act, and are satisfied with the sufficiency of the rates or other property on which such loan is charged to defray the loan, they may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act of Parliament, take debentures, debenture stock, or annuity certificates under this Act as a security for such loan.

Power for Public Works Loan Commissioners to take securities under Act.

(7.) As to General Rules.

29. The general rules in the schedule to this Act with respect to the transfer and transmission of nominal securities shall have the same force as if they were enacted in the body of this Act.

Application of rules in
schedule.

30. The local authority may from time to time, with the consent of the Local Government Board, make, and when made, add to, rescind, or alter, such rules as they think fit with respect to the following matters:

Power to make general rules.

(1.) The issue of coupons, the registry of securities, the mode of transferring securities not transferable by delivery, the fees, if any, to be charged in respect of registry and otherwise in respect of any security issued by them under this Act; and,

Secs. 30-34. (2.) With respect to any matter or thing required for the purposes of carrying into effect this Act, and not inconsistent therewith.

The local authority may also by such rules as aforesaid add to, rescind, or alter any of the rules in the schedule hereto.

Any general rules made by the local authority in pursuance of this section shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, have the same force as if they were enacted therein.

Provided, that any rules made, added to, rescinded, or altered in pursuance of this section shall not affect any securities issued in respect of any loan the date of which is prior to the date of such making, addition, rescission, or alteration.

(8.) As to Borrowing.

Borrowing and re-borrowing by local authorities.

31. Any local authority, notwithstanding any provision in any other Act of Parliament passed before the passing of this Act, may, if it thinks fit, borrow in manner provided by this Act any loan which it is authorised to borrow.

Any local authority may from time to time in like manner re-borrow money for the purpose of discharging any loan lawfully contracted by them either before or after the passing of this Act; provided that the time for repayment of any money so borrowed shall not be extended beyond the unexpired portion of the term for which the original loan was contracted, unless with the sanction of the Local Government Board, and in no case shall be extended beyond the prescribed period.

(9.) As to Forgery and Loss of Securities.

Forgery of securities.

32. For the purposes of the Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-eight, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Statute Law of England relating to indictable offences by forgery," debenture stock under this Act shall be deemed to be capital stock of a body corporate, and any other security issued in pursuance of this Act shall be considered to be a writing obligatory, and any coupon bearing across its face an addition in written, printed, or stamped letters of the name of any banker, or of the words "and company" in full or abbreviated, between two transverse lines, shall be deemed to be a cheque or draft on a banker.

Loss of securities.

33. If any security issued under this Act is lost, mislaid, or destroyed, the local authority shall, on such indemnity being given as they may require, and on payment of the expense of the issue, issue a fresh security in the place of the security so lost, mislaid, or destroyed.

(10.) Definitions.

Definitions.

34. For the purposes of this Act—

"Prescribed" means prescribed by any Act passed either before or after the passing of this Act authorising a local authority to borrow money :

"Local authority" means the justices of any county, liberty, riding, parts, or division of a county in general or quarter sessions assembled, the council of any municipal borough, also any authority whatsoever having power to levy a rate, as in this Act defined, also any prescribed authority :

"Municipal borough" means any borough for the time being subject to the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," and any Acts amending the same :

A "rate" means a rate the proceeds of which are applicable to public local purposes and leviable on the basis of an assessment in respect of property, and includes any sum which, though obtained in the first instance by a precept, certificate, or other document requiring payment from some authority or officer, is or can be ultimately raised out of a rate, and the levy of a rate includes the issue and enforcement of any such precept, certificate, or document as aforesaid, and expressions relating to the levy and the assessment and making of a rate shall be construed accordingly :

Local rate" means any rate as before defined which a local authority have power to Secs. 34-36.
levy or charge by way of mortgage or otherwise:

"Security" means any debenture, debenture stock, annuity certificate, coupon, or stock certificate to bearer issued under this Act:

"Person" includes a body of persons corporate or unincorporate:

"Executors and administrators" includes successors.

(11.) Repeal and consequential Enactment.

35. The County Debentures Act, 1873, is hereby repealed, as from the commencement of this Act; but this repeal shall not abridge or prejudicially affect the incorporation of any county authority under that Act, or any right in respect of any debenture issued in pursuance of that Act before the commencement of this Act, or any remedy for non-payment of moneys secured by any such debenture, and all such rights and remedies may be enforced as if this Act had not been passed. Repeal of 36 & 37 Vict. c. 35.

36. The justices of any county, liberty, riding, parts, or division of a county in general or quarter sessions assembled, issuing any securities under this Act, shall, so far as relates to such securities, be deemed to be incorporated by the name of the justices of the county, liberty, riding, parts, or division of the county to which they belong, or by any other name by which such justices are ordinarily known, or by which they granted the said securities, and may sue and be sued in any action or other legal proceeding relating thereto by such corporate name. Incorporation of county authority for purposes of Act.

SCHEDULE.

GENERAL RULES.

Transfer of Nominal Securities.

(1.) A number of persons, not exceeding such number as may from time to time be directed by the local authority, may be registered as joint owners of the same nominal security, with right of survivorship between them.

(2.) Unless otherwise directed by a general rule of the local authority, the instrument of transfer of any nominal security issued by a local authority shall be executed both by the transferor and transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain owner of such security until the name of the transferee is entered in the register in respect thereof.

(3.) The transfer books of nominal securities may be closed at such times, not exceeding twice in each year, and not exceeding fourteen days at each time of closing, as the local authority may direct.

Transmission of Nominal Securities.

(4.) The executors or administrators of a deceased owner of a nominal security shall be the only persons recognised by the local authority as having any title to such security.

(5.) Any person becoming entitled to a nominal security in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any owner, or in consequence of the marriage of any female owner, may be registered as owner upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the local authority.

(6.) Unless otherwise directed by a rule of the local authority, any person who has become entitled to a nominal security in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any owner, or in consequence of the marriage of any female owner, may, instead of being registered himself, elect to have some person to be named by him registered as a transferee of such security.

(7.) The person so becoming entitled shall testify such election by executing to his nominee an instrument of transfer of such security.

(8.) The instrument of transfer shall be presented to the local authority, accompanied with such evidence as the local authority may require to prove the title of the transferor, and thereupon the local authority shall register the transferee as owner.

(9.) In the construction of this schedule the term "nominal security" means any nominal debenture, nominal debenture stock, or nominal annuity certificate.

PUBLIC WORKS LOANS ACT, 1875.⁽¹⁾

38 & 39 VICT. c. 89.

An Act to consolidate with Amendments the Acts relating to Loans for Public Works.

[13th August, 1875.]

Secs. 1—4. Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Preliminary.

- | | |
|---------------------------|---|
| Short title. | 1. This Act may be cited as the "Public Works Loans Act, 1875." |
| Commencement of Act. | 2. This Act shall, save as otherwise provided in this Act, come into operation on the first day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy six, which date is hereinafter referred to as the commencement of this Act. |
| Extent of
Act. | 3. This Act shall extend to the Isle of Man. |

Public Works Loan Commissioners.

- | | |
|---|--|
| Constitution,
&c. of Public Works Loan
Commissioners. | 4. For the purpose of loans out of moneys issued in pursuance of this Act, and for the purpose of the execution of this Act and of any enactment passed or hereafter to be passed authorising or referring to such loans, there shall be a body of commissioners (in this Act referred to as the loan commissioners), who may be styled the Public Works Loan Commissioners. |
|---|--|

Every person who may from time to time be appointed by Act of Parliament a Public Works Loan Commissioner shall, on signing the declaration in the second schedule to this Act, be deemed to be one of the Public Works Loan Commissioners under this Act.

The Public Works Loan Commissioners shall hold office during such period as may be authorised by any Act appointing them, and if no period is so authorised, during the period of five years after the passing of such Act, and, if at the expiration of such period successors have not been appointed, may continue to hold office until successors be appointed, subject to this qualification, that they shall not grant any new loan after the expiration of such period.

Whenever any vacancy among the commissioners occurs by any commissioners dying or declining to act, or declining further to act, the remaining commissioners or a majority of them may by writing under their hands and seals, with the concurrence of the Treasury, appoint such person to fill the vacancy as seems fit, and the person so appointed shall, on signing the declaration in the second schedule to this Act, be deemed to be one of the Public Works Loan Commissioners under this Act, and shall hold office for the period during which the commissioner in whose place he is appointed would have held office.

A Public Works Loan Commissioner shall not receive any salary, fee, or emolument in respect of his services as such commissioner.

(1) See the Public Health Act, 1875, ss. 242, 243, 244, ante, pp. 176, 177.

5. With respect to the loan commissioners, the following provisions shall have effect: Secs. 5—7.

(1.) The loan commissioners may sue and be sued in the name of their secretary for the time being; and no action or suit in law or equity brought or commenced by or against the said commissioners in the name of their secretary for the time being shall abate or be discontinued by the death or removal of such secretary, or by the act of such secretary without the consent of the said commissioners; but the secretary to the said commissioners for the time being shall always be deemed the plaintiff or defendant in such action or suit as the case may be; and

Powers, &c.,
of commissioners.

(2.) The commissioners may examine any persons willing to be examined on any matters connected with the execution of this Act, and may for that purpose, or otherwise for the purpose of the execution of this Act, administer an oath, and take any affidavits or declaration; and

(3.) The loan commissioners shall annually cause to be made out up to the end of every financial year a report of their transactions under this Act during the year, and such report shall contain or have annexed thereto the prescribed particulars respecting moneys issued to and loans granted by the commissioners either before or after the passing of this Act, and the execution of the duties of the loan commissioners, and such other particulars as the loan commissioners may from time to time think fit:

Such particulars shall include a statement of any difference that may have arisen between the loan commissioners and any public department respecting the grant of any loan or the construction of any Act relating to loans by the loan commissioners:

Such report shall be transmitted to the Treasury within two months after the date up to which it is required to be made, and shall be forthwith laid by the Treasury before both Houses of Parliament if Parliament be then sitting, or if not, within one month after the then next sitting of Parliament; and

(4.) Any minute made of proceedings at meetings of the commissioners, if signed by any person purporting to be the chairman, either of the meeting of the commissioners at which such proceedings took place, or of the next ensuing meeting of the commissioners, shall be receivable in evidence in all legal proceedings without further proof, and until the contrary is proved every meeting of the commissioners, in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been so made, shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all the members thereof to have been duly qualified to act; and

(5.) An act or proceeding of the commissioners shall not be questioned on account of any vacancy or vacancies in their body.

6. The loan commissioners may from time to time appoint or employ a secretary, solicitor, civil engineer, surveyor, and such number of officers, clerks, messengers, and other persons as they may, with the consent of the Treasury, deem necessary, and may remove any person so appointed or employed. Officers and their salaries and expense

The loan commissioners may from time to time assign to any person so appointed or employed by them such salary or remuneration as they may, with the sanction of the Treasury, think proper.

A person appointed or employed by the loan commissioners, in pursuance of this section, shall not receive any remuneration in respect of such appointment or employment or otherwise in respect of the execution of his duties under this Act, except such as may be assigned to him in pursuance of this section.

Every such salary or remuneration, and all expenses incurred by the loan commissioners in the execution of this Act, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

7. Where under this or any other Act or any conveyance, obligation, or security, any real or personal property, or any estate or interest therein, or any chose in action, has been or may be vested in, conveyed, made payable, or secured to the secretary of the loan commissioners for the time being as such secretary, and in respect of his office, all such real and personal property, estate and interest, and chose in action whatsoever, upon the death, removal, or resignation of any such secretary from time to time, and as

Securities
given to and property vested in secretary to vest in his successor.

Secs. 7—11 often as the same happens and the appointment of a successor takes place, shall (subject to the same trusts, and equities, if any, as the same were before respectively subject to) vest in such succeeding secretary, by force of this Act and without any act or deed whatever to be done by the secretary dying, resigning or removed, or by the heirs, executors, or administrators of such secretary, or by any person or persons claiming under him, them or any of them, and notwithstanding the same may have been expressed to be vested in, conveyed, made payable to or secured to such secretary, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, or any of them; and shall be proceeded upon in the name of any succeeding secretary, by any action or suit in law or equity, or in any other manner as the same might have been proceeded upon by or in the name or names of such secretary dying, resigning, or removed.

Where the secretary of the loan commissioners is a party to any action, suit, or other legal proceeding, such secretary acting under the direction of the commissioners shall be deemed to represent the Crown, so far as regards the interest of the Crown in any loan granted under this Act or any money due under a security for any such loan, and it shall not be necessary to make the Crown or any other person on behalf of the Crown, a party to such action, suit, or proceeding, in respect of such interest as aforesaid.

Execution of conveyances, leases, &c. by secretary on behalf of commissioners.

8. All conveyances, leases, mortgages, releases, arrangements, and things which the loan commissioners are authorised by this Act to grant, execute, make or concur in, and all powers, acts, and things which the loan commissioners are authorised by this Act to exercise, do, or concur in, in relation to any mortgaged property or rate, may be granted, executed, made, concurred in, exercised, and done by their secretary for the time being under their direction, and when so granted, executed, made, concurred in, exercised, and done by such secretary shall be deemed to have been granted, executed, made, concurred in, exercised, and done by him under the direction of the commissioners, unless the contrary is shown by some person interested in contesting the validity thereof.

Any property, chose in action, estate, interest, powers, authorities, and privileges vested in or exerciseable by the secretary of the commissioners in pursuance of this Act shall be dealt with and exercised by him under the direction of the commissioners and not otherwise.

Objects, Terms, and Duration of Loan.

Loans for public works.

9. The loan commissioners may, if they think it expedient, from time to time, in manner mentioned in this Act, make loans for the purpose of any of the works mentioned in the first schedule to this Act, to any person having power under an Act of Parliament or otherwise to borrow for such purpose.

The loan commissioners in considering the propriety of granting a loan shall have regard to the sufficiency of the security for its repayment, and, subject to the provisions of any special Act, shall determine whether the work for which the loan is asked would be such a benefit to the public as to justify a loan out of public money, having regard to the amount of money placed at their disposal by Parliament.

Interest on loan.

10. Every loan granted under this Act shall bear interest at a rate not less than the rate authorised by a special Act relating to such loan, or if no rate be so authorised, not less than five per cent. per annum; provided that when the aggregate amount of principal moneys due by any harbour authority to the commissioners under "The Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861," exceeds one hundred thousand pounds, the rate of interest on such excess shall be three and a half per cent., or such higher rate, not exceeding five per cent., as may in the judgment of the Treasury be necessary to enable the loan to be made without loss to the Exchequer.

Term of years for repayment of loans.

11. Every loan granted under this Act shall be made repayable by instalments (in the form of an annuity or otherwise) within a period from the date of the actual advance of such loan, not exceeding the period authorised by a special Act relating to such loan, or if no period be so authorised not exceeding twenty years.

Where a loan has been granted repayable within a period less than the full period allowed by the foregoing provisions of this section, the loan commissioners, if the repayment of the loan with interest is in their opinion sufficiently secured by such security as is required by this Act, and if they think fit, may extend the period for the repayment of such loan to a period not exceeding the said full period from the date of the advance of such loan.

Where no period is authorised by a special Act relating to the loan, the Treasury, on Secr. 11-15. the recommendation of the loan commissioners, stating special circumstances, may either before or after the grant of the loan, extend the period within which the loan is to be repaid to such period as may be recommended by the loan commissioners.

The loan commissioners in considering whether the period for the repayment of a loan should or should not be the said full period, and the loan commissioners and the Treasury in considering whether the period should be extended as aforesaid shall have regard to the durability of the work for the purpose of which the loan is granted, and to the expediency of the cost of the work being paid by the generation of persons who will immediately benefit by such work.

The first instalment for the repayment of every loan shall be made payable within a period not exceeding five years from the date of the advance of such loan.

12. The loan commissioners before advancing any money on account of a loan shall take security for the repayment of the loan with the interest, consisting of the security authorised by the special Act relating to the loan, or if none is so authorised, of a mortgage of property or of a rate, or of both property and a rate, and (save as hereinafter mentioned) of personal security. Security for loans.

The loan commissioners may, if they think fit, dispense with personal security in any case in which in their opinion the mortgaged property or rate is sufficient security for the payment of the principal and interest of the loan within the stipulated period.

Funds for Loans.

13. [Annual estimate of amounts required ⁽¹⁾].

14. When any money has been granted by Parliament for the purpose of loans by the loan commissioners, the Treasury may from time to time, as they think fit, issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, or the growing produce thereof, the required sums, not exceeding in the whole the amount so granted. Issue of money for purpose of loans.

The said sums shall be issued in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time direct during the period authorised by the Act granting the same, or if no period is authorised, during the financial year for which such Act was passed, and not subsequently.

15. If the Act granting money for the purpose of loans by the loan commissioners authorises the Treasury to borrow such money, or any part thereof, the Treasury may raise any sums (not exceeding the amount authorised by the said Act to be borrowed, and not exceeding in any one financial year the excess of the issues out of the Consolidated Fund under this Act during that year over the repayments to the Consolidated Fund during that year in respect of the principal of loans granted by the loan commissioners either before or after the commencement of this Act,) in such one or more of the following methods as may be directed by the Act authorising the money to be borrowed, and subject to any such direction as may be deemed most convenient for the public service, namely, by the creation of three pounds per centum per annum permanent annuities, or of annuities for any term not exceeding thirty years, or by the issue of Exchequer bonds or Exchequer bills, or by otherwise borrowing the same (for a period not exceeding six months) on the credit of the charge created by this Act on the Consolidated Fund, or by all of such means; and the sums so raised shall be placed to the credit of the account of Her Majesty's Exchequer, and form part of the Consolidated Fund. Borrowing for the purpose of raising money.

The annuities created in pursuance of this section, and the principal moneys borrowed in pursuance of this section (otherwise than by the issue of Exchequer bonds), and all interest from time to time due thereon, or on Exchequer bonds issued under this section (not exceeding the rate of five per cent. per annum) shall be charged upon and be payable out of the Consolidated Fund, or out of the growing produce thereof, at such times in each year as may be fixed by the Treasury.

The principal of any Exchequer bonds issued under this section shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

The annuities, whether terminable or perpetual, shall be created by warrant of the

(1) Repealed by the Public Works Loans Act, 1882, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 62, s. 9, post.

Secs. 15-19 Treasury to the Bank of England, directing them to inscribe in their books the amount of such annuities in the names directed by the warrant.

The said annuities shall, in manner directed by the warrant, be consolidated in the said books, if terminable, with annuities payable at the same date, and, if permanent, with annuities at the same rate of interest, and payable at the same date, and shall be transferable in the said books in like manner as the annuities with which they are consolidated, and shall be subject to the enactments relating to those annuities so far as is consistent with the tenor of those enactments.

Issue of money to the National Debt Commissioners.

16. All money issued by the Treasury for the purposes of loans under this Act shall be issued to the National Debt Commissioners, and placed to such account as may be from time to time directed by the Treasury, and shall be held by the National Debt Commissioners in trust on the part of the public, but subject to the disposal of the loan commissioners for the purpose of loans by them under this Act.

Repayments to commissioners to go to Consolidated Fund.

17. All sums paid or applicable in or towards the discharge of the principal or interest of any loan granted by the loan commissioners, either before or after the passing of this Act, or of any other sum due in respect of such loan, shall be paid into the receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such manner as the Treasury from time to time direct, and shall be carried to the Consolidated Fund; but where any security for any such loan is enforced, by taking possession, sale, levy of a rate, or otherwise, the net receipts only shall be paid into the receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in pursuance of this section.

Recovery of Loans.

Charge on property and priority of loan by the commissioners.

18. Where a loan is granted by the loan commissioners on the security of a mortgage of any property (whether with or without any other security), the property from and after the date of the mortgage shall be charged with the payment to the use of Her Majesty of the loan with interest as in the mortgage mentioned, in priority, save so far as otherwise specified in the mortgage, over every other debt, mortgage, or charge whatsoever affecting the property, except any loan due to any creditor not assenting to such priority which has been advanced in good faith before the loan advanced by the commissioners and secured by a mortgage of the property executed to a person who is entitled as a bonâ fide creditor to the repayment thereof with interest.

Provided that if there is more than one such creditor and not less than four-fifths in value of such creditors consent in writing that the said charge shall have priority over the loans and mortgages of such creditors, in such case the loans and mortgages of all such creditors, as well those who have not agreed as those who have agreed, shall be postponed to the loan granted by the commissioners and to the said charge thereof, and to the security for the same.

Nothing in any special Act, and no rule of law or custom shall affect the priority given by this section, except so far as the special Act negative such priority in terms expressly referring to this Act ⁽¹⁾.

Charges on rate of loan and loan not to be repudiated by locality having had the benefit of it.

19. Where a loan is granted by the loan commissioners on the security of a mortgage of any rate (whether with or without any other security) such rate from and after the date of the mortgage shall be charged with the payment to the use of Her Majesty of the loan with interest as in the mortgage mentioned.

Where the loan has been granted to any borrower who appeared to the commissioners to have power to levy and mortgage such rate and has been expended upon the work in respect of which or in or for the benefit of the locality in which such rate or any part thereof is levied, the mortgage of the rate for securing the repayment of the loan with interest shall be valid, and may be enforced in pursuance of this Act, notwithstanding any defect in the power or title of the borrower by whom the mortgage purports to be granted; and in particular the commissioners may, although such borrower was not legally constituted or is dissolved, or is otherwise incapable and always was incapable of making, levying, or mortgaging such rate, have the same power of making and levying and enforcing the making or levying the said rate for the purpose of repaying such loan and interest, and all other sums due under the mortgage, as if such borrower had been duly constituted, and was not dissolved, and had had full power to make, levy, and mortgage such rate. Secs. 19-22.

(1) See the Public Works Loans (Money) Act, 1876, 39 & 40 Vict. c. 31, s. 7, post.

20. All securities for any loan granted by the loan commissioners in pursuance of this Act may be given to the secretary of the commissioners on their behalf. Every such security is in this Act referred to as a security given to the commissioners. Securities to be taken in name of secretary.

21. Where a mortgage of property has been given to secure any loan granted by the loan commissioners, and default is made in making payment according to the terms of such mortgage, then at any time after such default and without any consent on the part of any person interested in the equity of redemption of the mortgaged property, the commissioners, without prejudice to any other remedy, shall have power to do all or any of the following things; namely, Taking possession by commissioners of property on default of payment.

- (1.) Take possession of the mortgaged property, or any part thereof; and
- (2.) Grant any lease of the mortgaged property, or any part thereof, for such term and upon such reasonable conditions as they may think expedient, and that either for a premium or rent, or both; and
- (3.) Sell or mortgage the mortgaged property, or any part thereof.

22. The loan commissioners, when authorised to take possession of any mortgaged property, may take possession either by themselves or by any person appointed by them (whether such person is interested in the mortgaged property or not), and upon possession of any mortgaged property being so taken,— Powers of commissioners when in possession.

- (1.) All the estate, right, interest, powers, authorities, and privileges, of what nature or kind soever, which were at the time of the making of the mortgage or may for the time being be vested in or exerciseable by the mortgagor or any person claiming through or under the mortgagor, either in relation to the property or necessary for carrying on and managing the same, shall become vested in the secretary of the commissioners; and
- (2.) The commissioners may by themselves or any person appointed as aforesaid manage and carry on the property, and receive the revenue arising therefrom, or in any way receivable in respect thereof, or otherwise, in pursuance of the mortgage, and exercise all or any of the powers and authorities vested in their secretary by this Act; and
- (3.) The commissioners or their secretary or such person as aforesaid shall not be liable for the repairs or maintenance of the mortgaged property, but may apply any moneys received in respect thereof or raised from any rate towards such repairs or maintenance to such extent as the commissioners may think expedient; and
- (4.) The commissioners may, with the consent of the Treasury, advance out of moneys at their disposal under this Act sums for the completion, repair, improvement, or security of the mortgaged property, and every such sum shall be deemed and shall be a loan secured on the property and repayable with the like interest from the time of the advance, and by the like person, and shall have the like priority and be recoverable in the like manner as if it were part of the original loan secured by the said mortgage⁽¹⁾; and
- (5.) If the revenue received from or in respect of the property is insufficient to keep down the current expenses of working, maintaining, and repairing the same, together with the instalments of principal and the interest for the time being due on the mortgage, and no rate or no sufficient rate can be levied to meet the deficiency, the commissioners may, with the consent of the Treasury, destroy or cause to be destroyed, or (if they sell the same) authorise the purchaser with the like consent to destroy the same, and sell or authorise the purchaser to sell the materials thereof and other the articles, goods, and effects belonging thereto, and neither the commissioners, or their secretary, nor the purchaser so authorised, nor his representatives, shall be liable in damages or otherwise to any person whomsoever for such destruction; and the provisions of this Act with respect to the sale of any mortgaged property shall apply to any sale under this section; and

⁽¹⁾ The rate of interest on sums so advanced shall be not less than five per cent. per annum. Public Works Loans Act, 1881, 44 & 45 Vict. c. 38, s. 7, post.

Secs. 22-25

- (6.) Possession under this Act may be relinquished at such time and in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the commissioners think fit, and upon such relinquishment all powers, authorities, and privileges which on the taking of possession became vested in the secretary of the commissioners shall, so far as they are not reserved, revert to and become vested in the person in whom same would have been vested if possession had not been taken, but the commissioners may, if they think fit, on the relinquishment of possession, reserve any of the said powers, authorities, and privileges, with a view to the payment of any sum due to them:
- (7.) Every such relinquishment of possession of any mortgaged property shall be without prejudice to the power of again taking possession thereof under the provisions of this Act.

Powers in relation to rate where default made.

23. Where a loan made by the commissioners is secured by the mortgage of a rate (whether with or without any other security), and the commissioners might, if such loan were secured upon a mortgage of property, take possession of such property, the commissioners may, without prejudice to any other remedy, by notice in writing served at the office or last known place of address of the mortgagor, or where from any cause the same cannot be so served by notice in writing published in the prescribed manner, declare their intention to exercise the powers conferred by this Act, and thereupon the commissioners shall have and may exercise the same power as the mortgagor of making and levying the rate mortgaged, and for that purpose the commissioners or their secretary with their concurrence may appoint an officer who, subject to the direction of the commissioners, shall have and may exercise the same powers, authorities, and duties as if he had been appointed by the mortgagor.

The commissioners, in making an estimate of the rate to be levied for the purpose of paying any sum due, may add such sum as they think sufficient for defraying and may defray thereout all costs, charges, and expenses, including remuneration to any officer or other person employed, incurred by the commissioners in the execution of their powers under this section or otherwise by reason of the default in payment.

Any balance remaining in the hands of the commissioners shall be paid by them to the mortgagor.

The commissioners may, by a like notice, declare their intention to relinquish the powers conferred by this section, and that either absolutely or with reservations and conditions, and thereupon all such powers shall revert in the mortgagor, subject to the said reservations and conditions.

Liability of commissioners after taking possession or in default of payment.

24. When the loan commissioners have taken possession of any property under this Act, or exercised the powers conferred by this Act in relation to any rate, neither they nor their secretary, nor any person appointed by them in that behalf, shall be liable to account to any person interested in the equity of redemption in such property or rate for any moneys which, but for their wilful neglect or default, they or he might have received when so in possession or exercising such powers, or for any moneys other than those which have actually come to their or his hands.

Sale and mortgage by commissioners of mortgaged premises.

25. Where the loan commissioners have power to sell or mortgage, they shall have power to sell or mortgage either together or in parcels, by public auction or private contract, and subject to such conditions as to title or evidence of title or otherwise as the commissioners may think proper.

They may also buy in at any auction and rescind any contract for sale or mortgage, and resell or remortgage, without being responsible for any loss occasioned thereby.

Where a sale cannot be made in the ordinary way for a sum equal to the amount remaining due under the mortgage, the loan commissioners may, if they think fit, sell in such manner and subject to such conditions, stipulations, and agreements as they may think expedient for the purpose of ensuring the completion or carrying on of the work comprised in such mortgage by the purchaser thereof with a view to the public good or general benefit or for any other purpose, notwithstanding such conditions, stipulations, and agreements may be prejudicial to the sale, or may not be beneficial to the persons interested in the equity of redemption in the property.

The loan commissioners may for the purpose of any sale or mortgage execute all such agreements, conveyances, and instruments as they may think fit. Secr. 25-29.

26. Every sale or mortgage made by the commissioners or their secretary, and purporting to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall, so far as regards the interest of the purchaser and mortgagee, be deemed to be valid, and the purchaser or mortgagee shall not be bound to see or inquire whether the sale or mortgage is authorised, nor in the case of a mortgage whether the money raised is required to be raised, nor as to the necessity or expediency of or authority for making the conditions, stipulations, or agreements subject to which the sale or mortgage was made, nor otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of such sale or mortgage, nor be affected by express notice as to any matters into which he is not bound to see or inquire. Purchaser not liable to see to the validity of sale or application of money.

The receipt in writing of the Bank of England, or one of their cashiers or other proper officer for the purpose of the Bank of England, or other prescribed receipt, shall be a full discharge for the money paid on the sale or mortgage, and the person paying the same shall not be bound to see to the application of such money, or be liable or in any manner accountable for the mis-application or non-application thereof.

27. Any lease, mortgage, conveyance, or other disposition made by the secretary of the commissioners under this Act of any mortgaged property may be in the prescribed form, and shall convey to the person in whose favour such lease, mortgage, conveyance, or other disposition is made, and according to the terms thereof, all or any part of the estate, right, interest, powers, authorities, and privileges, which under the mortgage and this Act are vested in or capable of being exercised by the loan commissioners, or their secretary, either before or after possession taken, and the same shall thereupon be vested in and may be exercised and put in force by such person accordingly. Terms of lease, sale, or mortgage.

Nothing in this Act shall operate to invalidate or affect the rights of any person entitled bonâ fide to any debt, estate, or interest, having priority over or ranking pari passu with the loan granted by the commissioners, or the security for such loan, or the rights of any lessee under any lease made either prior to such security or with the concurrence of the commissioners.

28. Any money arising from the taking possession, lease, sale, mortgage, or other disposition under this Act by or under the direction of the loan commissioners of any mortgaged property shall be applied first in discharge of all costs, charges, and expenses incurred by or under the direction of the commissioners in respect thereof, or otherwise by reason of the default in payment, and secondly in discharge of the whole of the principal of the loan secured by the mortgage and for the time being unpaid (notwithstanding that the same or any instalment thereof may not have become actually due), and in discharge of all interest accrued due on such principal, and of all other sums (if any) due under the mortgage. Application of money arising on taking possession, sale, mortgage, &c. by commissioners.

The surplus (if any) of such money either shall be paid to the mortgagor or other person or persons entitled thereto, or, if the commissioners think fit, shall be paid by the secretary of the commissioners into the Court of Chancery in England in like manner as if he were a trustee of such money for the persons entitled thereto, and the court may make such orders for the payment and distribution of such money to or among those persons as may from time to time seem to the court just.

29. The loan commissioners may, if they think fit, at any time accept payment of the whole or any part of the principal and interest of any loan or other moneys secured by any mortgage under this Act before the time when the same is due; and may release or convey the mortgaged property or rate to the person paying the same, or as he may direct, upon such terms and conditions and in such manner and form as the commissioners may think expedient. Payment of loan before it is due, and transfer of security for all or part of loan.

The person in whose favour any conveyance of the mortgaged property or rate under this section is made shall, subject to any limitations inserted therein, be entitled to the like priorities, powers, and authorities as the commissioners or their secretary were entitled to, either subject to or with priority over or concurrently with any priorities, powers, and authorities reserved to the commissioners by the conveyance.

The commissioners shall have full power to enter into and concur in all such arrangements as they may deem expedient for the purposes of carrying into effect a release or conveyance under this section.

Secs. 30-34.

Discharge of security and revesting of property on repayment of loan.

Bankruptcy of debtor.

Form of mortgage.

Recovery of debt on personal security.

Recovery of loan after the expiration of term for repayment.

30. Upon all money due under a mortgage under this Act being fully paid the commissioners shall, when required, give in the prescribed manner to the person liable to the payment thereof a receipt in writing for the same, and such further sufficient discharge (if any) as may seem to the commissioners to be necessary, and upon such receipt being given the mortgage rate shall be released from the charge and the mortgaged property, or the part thereof not sold or disposed of under this Act shall (unless the commissioners, on the request and at the expense of the person paying the said money, make any other disposition thereof), revert in the person who would have been entitled thereto if the mortgage had not been made, subject nevertheless to any lease, mortgage, or other act previously made or done by or under the direction of the commissioners.

31. Where an individual liable to pay as principal or surety the principal or interest of any loan under this Act becomes bankrupt or insolvent, or enters into any composition or arrangement with his creditors, or has his affairs liquidated by arrangement, or takes the benefit of, or becomes subject to the provisions of any Act passed for the relief of persons in debt, or for enabling the property of such persons to be distributed among their creditors, or where any company liable to pay as principal or surety the principal or interest of any loan under this Act becomes bankrupt or is wound up, the whole of such loan shall become due immediately, notwithstanding that the date for the payment thereof or part thereof has not arrived, unless in the case of a surety the commissioners think fit to accept some other surety.

32. Every security given under this Act may be in such form as may be prescribed, and the fact of the secretary of the loan commissioners being a party thereto shall be conclusive evidence that the same is in the prescribed form, and every such security shall be valid and effectual to pass all the estate, right, and interest purporting to be passed thereunder by the parties executing the same, subject to the provisions of this Act.

33. Every sum payable under any security made in pursuance of this Act shall be made payable to the use of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, and may be recovered as a specialty debt due to the Crown, in like manner as if the security had been made in the form provided by the Act of the thirty-third year of the reign of Henry the Eighth, chapter thirty-nine; but no person shall be liable for any larger sum than that which he is expressed to be bound to pay.

Every sum payable in respect of a loan granted by the loan commissioners (either before or after the passing of this Act) or under the security for such loan, shall be compounded for or released only under the authority of Parliament in each case (1).

The loan commissioners may issue a warrant to the proper officer forthwith to enforce payment of such debt to the Crown as aforesaid, and if necessary to enter satisfaction therefor, and shall have the control over any proceedings taken to enforce such debt, and such proceedings shall not be discontinued, quashed, or abated without the written authority of the loan commissioners.

The Court of Exchequer, or other competent court, or any judge thereof, may, upon the production of the said warrant, direct an immediate writ of extent, or of diem clausit extremum, to issue without any writ of scire facias or any affidavit or other proof of the cause of the proceeding.

Nothing in this Act shall render it the duty of the loan commissioners to issue such warrant or to register such writ or debt, unless they are of opinion that it is necessary for the purpose of securing the payment of the debt, or that otherwise under the particular circumstances it is expedient so to do.

34. The expiration of the period within which a loan under this Act is made repayable (whether such period is the full period allowed by this or the special Act or a shorter period) shall not in any way affect any power of the loan commissioners of recovering or enforcing payment of any sum due in respect of such loan.

(1) But as to the reduction of interest on loans to sanitary authorities, see now the Public Works Loans (Money) Act, 1876, 39 & 40 Vict. c. 31, s. 6, post.

*Supplemental Provisions as to Loans and Securities.Secs. 35-40.

35. Where the commissioners grant a loan in aid of any work which is either partly completed or not commenced, they may, by a bond to Her Majesty or otherwise, take such security for the application of the loan to the work, and for the due completion of the work (including the raising of sufficient funds for that purpose), as they may think sufficient for securing the interest of the public.

Security for completion of works partly finished or not commenced.

36. Where the loan commissioners advance any loan for any purpose on the security of a rate, it shall be the duty of the Local Government Board to satisfy themselves that the loan is applied to such purpose; they may from time to time make such examination as they may think necessary with a view to ascertain that such loan has been so applied.

Examination as to proper application of moneys lent.

The Local Government Board may appoint any officer to conduct on their behalf any examination under this section and such officer shall have the same powers to require the attendance of persons and the production of accounts and other documents, so far as such attendance or production is required for the purpose of such examination, as an inspector of the Local Government Board has under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor ⁽¹⁾.

37. The Treasury may, on the recommendation of the loan commissioners, postpone for any time not exceeding five years the payment of the instalments of principal and interest, or either, due or to become due in respect of a loan granted by the commissioners for the purpose of any work, and that upon such terms and conditions for the completion and improvement of such work, and the ultimate payment of such principal and interest, as the Treasury may on the said recommendation authorise.

Suspension of payment of principal and interest.

38. The loan commissioners may, subject to the prescribed regulations, if under the circumstances of the case they think fit, accept any security in lieu of any security previously given to them, or of any part of such security, and that subject to such terms and conditions as they direct; so, however, that the substituted security shall be of the character which the commissioners might take if the loan were originally granted at the time of such substitution, and that no change of security under this section shall extend the period for the repayment of the loan.

Change of security.

39. The loan commissioners may concur in any lease, conveyance, release, or other disposition of any property mortgaged under this Act, or any part thereof, and in the arrangements relative thereto, upon such terms and conditions as they may think fit, and either with or without consideration, so that in their opinion the payment, with interest, of the loan charged on the mortgaged property is sufficiently secured or is not thereby made less secure.

Concurrence by commissioners in leases, sales, &c. of mortgaged property.

Special Provisions as to Borrowers.

40. The justices for any county, or any riding, division, parts, or liberty of a county, in general or quarter sessions assembled, may (if they resolve by a majority of not less than five justices so to do) borrow money from the loan commissioners for the purpose of building, rebuilding, enlarging, repairing, improving, and fitting up any police station and justices room, and offices connected therewith, or any of such purposes, and may levy a rate or any increase of a county rate for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of such loan, and may mortgage such rate or the county rate to the loan commissioners in accordance with this Act.

Power to various authorities to mortgage and levy rates.

[The council of any borough may borrow money from the loan commissioners for the purpose of building, rebuilding, enlarging, repairing, improving, and fitting up any police station and justices room, and offices connected therewith, or any of such purposes, and may levy a rate or an increase of the borough rate for the purpose of paying the

(1) As to the powers of the Local Government Board, where it appears that the moneys have not been applied for the proposed purpose, see the Public Works Loans Act, 1878, 41 Vict. c. 18, s. 4, post.

As to expenses of making examination, see Public Works Loans Act, 1881, 44 & 45 Vict. c. 38, s. 8, post.

Secs. 40-46. principal and interest of such loan, and may mortgage such rate or the borough rate to the loan commissioners in accordance with this Act.]

The said justices [and council respectively] shall have power to give the mortgage in such manner and form as the loan commissioners may direct ⁽¹⁾.

Miscellaneous.

Regulations
by commissioners.

41. The loan commissioners may from time to time make regulations for carrying into effect this Act, and in particular with respect to the quorum and proceedings of the commissioners and the authentication of documents made or issued or directions given or acts done by them, and with respect to loans under this Act and applications therefor, and annual and quarterly statements of the amounts required to be borrowed, and the information to be given and conditions to be complied with by the applicants, and with respect to the forms to be used, including the forms of the securities, and with respect to any fees or sums to be paid by the applicants or by other persons dealing with such commissioners, and with respect to the relations between such commissioners and the National Debt Commissioners and the Bank of England.

Every such regulation shall be submitted for the approval of the Treasury, and as approved by them with such modifications and additions as they think fit, shall be published in the London Gazette, and when so published shall have effect as if it was enacted in this Act.

Every such regulation shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as may be after the making thereof if Parliament be then sitting, or if Parliament be not then sitting within one month after the then next meeting of Parliament. Every regulation, purporting to be made in pursuance of this section, shall after the expiration of six months after its publication in the London Gazette be deemed to have been duly made and to have been within the powers of this Act.

Regulations made under this section may be from time to time rescinded, altered, and added to in like manner as the original regulations.

42. [Payment of fees and other sums into the Exchequer ⁽²⁾.]

Accounts.

43. The loan commissioners shall keep at the Bank of England such account, and under such title as the Treasury may from time to time direct, and every such account shall be deemed to be a public account.

Such accounts as the Treasury may from time to time direct of all moneys issued from or payable to the Consolidated Fund in pursuance of this Act during every financial year, and of all transactions under this Act during that year, including all sums due for the time being from any person in respect of any loan granted by the loan commissioners either before or after the passing of this Act, shall be kept by the National Debt Commissioners and the loan commissioners respectively, and such other persons (if any), and be audited by the Comptroller and Auditor-General in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time direct.

Perjury.

44. Any person who, when examined by the loan commissioners in pursuance of this Act, or any regulation made under this Act, wilfully gives false evidence, or who, for the purpose of obtaining a loan under this Act, wilfully gives information to such commissioners which is false in any material particular, shall be guilty of perjury.

Authority, and laying before Parliament Treasury
warrants.

45. The warrant of the Treasury issued under the authority of this Act shall be a sufficient authority to the Bank of England for doing the things thereby directed to be done for the purposes of this Act, and copies of any such warrant relating to the borrowing of money shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within one month of the date thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not within one month after the then next meeting of Parliament.

Receipt for money payable on account of loan, &c.

46. The receipt in writing of the Bank of England, or one of their cashiers or other the proper officer for the purpose of the Bank of England, and any other prescribed receipt for any money paid in discharge of the principal or interest of any loan granted

(1) As to the words between brackets see the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, ss. 5, 260 (2) and First Sched., Part II., ante, pp. 269, 349, 352.

(2) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

under this Act, or of any sum due under any security made under this Act or otherwise payable to or by the direction of the loan commissioners or their secretary, shall be a complete discharge to the person paying the same. Secs. 46-51.

47. Notices, directions, orders, and documents required by this Act, or by any regulation made under this Act, to be served or sent may, unless otherwise expressly provided, be served and sent by post, and, until the contrary is proved, shall be deemed to have been served and received respectively at the time when the letter containing the same would be delivered in the ordinary course of post; and in proving such service or sending it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter containing the notice, direction, order, or document was prepaid, and properly addressed, and put into the post. Notices may be served by post.

48. Notices and documents required by this Act, or by any regulation made under this Act, to be served on the loan commissioners, may be so served by serving the same on their secretary, or by sending the same addressed to or delivering the same at the office of the commissioners. Notices to and by commissioners.

Notices and documents required for the purposes of this Act, or of any regulation made thereunder, to be served by or on the loan commissioners, or to be made or issued by the loan commissioners, shall be in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print.

49. The schedules to this Act shall be construed and have effect as part of this Act.

50. Except so far as a special Act, by express reference to some part of this Act, alters that part, every loan made by the loan commissioners shall, notwithstanding any provision in such special Act and any rule of law or custom, be made in accordance with and under the powers of this Act, and be repayable in manner provided by this Act, and by the security for the same granted under this Act, and every such loan, together with the security for the same, shall have the priority and be subject to the powers, authorities, and remedies mentioned in this Act; and although made in pursuance of a special Act, shall be deemed for all purposes to be a loan under this Act⁽¹⁾. Effect of schedules. Application of Act to loans under special Acts.

51. In this Act, if not inconsistent with the context,—

Definitions.

The expression “person” includes a body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate:

The expression “the Treasury” means the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury:

The expression “National Debt Commissioners” means the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt:

The expression “Bank of England” means the Governor and Company of the Bank of England:

The expression “financial year” means the year ending the thirty-first day of March:

The expression “prescribed” means prescribed by the regulations made under this Act with the approval of the Treasury:

The expression “special Act” means any Act passed before the passing of this Act which authorises the loan commissioners to lend money for the purposes of any work mentioned in the first schedule to this Act and any Act passed after the passing of this Act, which authorises the loan commissioners to lend money for any purpose:

The expression “security” includes a mortgage:

The expression “mortgage” includes a charge and any instrument in the nature of a mortgage or charge, and in Scotland any heritable security:

The expression “conveyance” includes any grant, assignment, transfer, or other disposition or assurance; and the expression “convey” shall be construed accordingly:

The expression “rate” means a rate, cess, or assessment, the proceeds of which are applicable to public local purposes and leviable on the basis of a valuation of property, and includes any sum which, though obtained in the first instance by a precept, certificate, or other instrument requiring payment from some authority or officer, is or can be ultimately raised out of a rate, as before defined, and the making and levy of a rate includes the issue and enforcement of any such precept, certificate, or instrument as aforesaid, and expressions relating to the making and levy of a rate shall be construed accordingly:

⁽¹⁾ See the Public Works Loans (Money) Act, 1876, 39 & 40 Vict. c. 31, s. 7.

Secs. 51–57. Any toll, due, rent, imposition, and other sum not being a rate as above defined, shall be deemed to be property for the purposes of this Act.

All references to a mortgagor or borrower shall, if need be, be deemed to include a reference to the successors, heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns of, or other persons claiming through or under such mortgagor, or borrower.

Temporary Provisions and Repeal.

52. [First Commissioners ⁽¹⁾.]

53. [Existing officers of Commissioners.]

54. [Sending of statements and making of regulations before commencement of Act ⁽¹⁾.]

Reference in Acts to repealed Acts.

55. A reference in any Act to any enactment hereby repealed, or to the commissioners for the execution of any Act hereby repealed, shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be deemed to refer to the corresponding enactment in this Act and to the Public Works Loan Commissioners under this Act.

Saving for loans and transactions under repealed Acts.

56. Save as otherwise provided by this Act, this Act shall apply only to loans granted and securities made after the commencement of this Act.

The loan commissioners shall have the same power of making further advances on any mortgage made before the commencement of this Act, and intended to secure more than the sum which has actually been advanced thereon as they would have had under the Acts repealed by this Act if they had not been repealed, but such advances shall be made out of money issued under this Act.

The loan commissioners, on granting any new loan to persons by whom a loan granted before the commencement of this Act is still owing, may make it a condition of the grant of such new loan that the old loan shall be deemed to have been granted in pursuance of this Act, and on such condition being accepted the old loan shall be deemed to be a loan under this Act.

For the purpose of any loans granted and securities made before the commencement of this Act, the loan commissioners under this Act and their secretary and other officers for the time being shall be deemed to be the same commissioners, secretary, and officers as the commissioners, secretary, and officers under the Acts in pursuance of which such loan was granted and securities made, and all securities and documents relating to such commissioners, secretary and officers shall be construed accordingly.

Repeal of Acts.

57. The Acts specified in the third schedule to this Act so far as they are unrepealed are hereby repealed from and after the commencement of this Act, and so much of any other enactment as authorises any loan by the Public Works Loan Commissioners for the purpose of any work other than a work mentioned in the first schedule to this Act, or as is otherwise inconsistent with this Act, is hereby repealed from and after the commencement of this Act.

Provided that—

(1.) The repeal of an enactment by this Act shall not affect—

- (a.) The charge on the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament of the principal and interest of Exchequer bonds issued under any enactment hereby repealed; nor any securities made or issued or anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed; nor
- (b.) Any power to make or levy rates, or any other power capable of being exercised for the purpose of enabling or compelling the repayment of any money due on account of any loan granted by the Public Works Loan Commissioners before the commencement of this Act, whether the same or any part thereof has been actually advanced before or after such commencement; nor
- (c.) Any right, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under or in accordance with any enactment hereby repealed; nor
- (d.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment hereby repealed; nor

⁽¹⁾ Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

(e.) Any powers, investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such security, thing, rate, power, right, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid; and any such powers, investigation, legal proceeding, and remedy may be exercised and carried on and had as if this Act had not passed; and (2.) ⁽¹⁾.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Schedule 1.

Works for the purpose of which the Commissioners may lend Money.

- Baths and wash-houses provided by local authorities.
- Burial grounds provided by burial boards, or (in Scotland) by burial boards or parochial boards.
- Conservation or improvement of rivers or main drainage.
- Docks.
- Harbours and piers, and any work for which the Public Works Loan Commissioners are authorised to lend by section three of the Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c., Act, 1861.
- Improvement of towns.
- Labourers dwellings.
- Lighthouses, floating and other lights for the guidance of ships, buoys and beacons.
- Lunatic asylums of any county or borough in Great Britain, or of any district or parochial board in Scotland.
- Police stations and justices rooms of any county or borough in Great Britain, and the offices connected therewith, also sheriff court buildings in Scotland.
- Prisons.
- Public libraries and museums.
- Any schoolhouse or work for which a school board is authorised to borrow under the 33 & 34 Vict. Elementary Education Acts, 1870 and 1873, or any Act amending the same, or under c. 70. the Education (Scotland) Act, 1872.
- Waterworks established or carried on by a sanitary or other local authority. 36 & 37 Vict.
- Workhouses or poorhouses, and any work for which guardians of the poor, or (in c. 80. Scotland) any parochial board, are authorised to borrow under the general Acts relating to the relief of the poor.
- Any work for which a sanitary authority are authorised to borrow under the Public Health Act, 1875.
- Any work for which police commissioners are authorised to borrow under the General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862, and any Act amending the same.
- Any work for which a local authority are authorised to borrow under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, or any Act amending the same.
- Any work for which the commissioners are authorised to lend by any Act passed after the passing of this Act.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Schedule 2.

Form of Declaration.

I, A.B., do hereby declare that, according to the best of my judgment, I will faithfully and impartially execute the powers and duties of a Public Works Loan Commissioner, according to law.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

Schedule 3.

ACTS REPEALED ⁽²⁾.

57 Geo. 3, c. 34; 57 Geo. 3, c. 124; 1 Geo. 4, c. 60; 3 Geo. 4, c. 86; 5 Geo. 4, c. 36; 5 Geo. 4, c. 77; 6 Geo. 4, c. 35; 7 & 8 Geo. 4, c. 47; 1 & 2 Will. 4, c. 24; 3 & 4 Will. 4, c. 32; 4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 72; 7 Will. 4, and 1 Vict. c. 51; 1 & 2 Vict. c. 88; 3 & 4 Vict. c. 10; 5 & 6 Vict. c. 9; 9 & 10 Vict. c. 80; 9 & 10 Vict. c. 83; 12 & 13 Vict. c. 86; 14 & 15 Vict. c. 23; 16 & 17 Vict. c. 40; 19 & 20 Vict. c. 17; 24 & 25 Vict. c. 80; 25 & 26 Vict. c. 30; 29 Vict. c. 72; 30 & 31 Vict. c. 32; 35 & 36 Vict. c. 71; 36 & 37 Vict. c. 49.

⁽¹⁾ This paragraph having reference to Ireland is repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

⁽²⁾ The "title or short title" of the Acts repealed is omitted.

PUBLIC WORKS LOANS (MONEY) ACT, 1876.

39 & 40 VICT. c. 31.

An Act to grant Money for the purpose of Loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and to amend the Public Works Loans Act, 1875. [24th July, 1876.]

Secs. 1—6. Whereas by the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, the Public Works Loan Commissioners are authorised to make loans for the purposes therein mentioned, and it is expedient to grant the money hereinafter mentioned for the purposes of such loans:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Preliminary.

Short title.
Commence-
ment of Act.

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Works Loans (Money) Act, 1876.
2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six.

Issue of Money for Loans.

3. [Grant of £4,000,000 for loans during the period ending the 30th of June, 1877 ⁽¹⁾.]

Amendment to Public Works Loans Act, 1875.

4. [Application of section fifty-six of 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89, to loan, Portpatrick, and Belfast and County Down Railways, under 31 & 32 Vict. c. 81.]

5. [Removal of doubt as to power to advance money for Colombo Harbour under 37 & 38 Vict. c. 24.]

Explanation of 38 & 39 Vict.
c. 89, s. 33,
as to reduction of interest on loans to sanitary authorities.

6. Whereas by section thirty-three of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, it is enacted that every sum payable in respect of a loan by the loan commissioners shall be compounded for and released only under the authority of Parliament in each case, and doubts have arisen whether the said enactment prevents the reduction of interest in accordance with section two hundred and forty-three of the Public Health Act, 1875, and section three of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, Amendment Act, 1875, on loans to a local authority in pursuance of the Sanitary Acts, and it is expedient to remove such doubts, and to authorise the loan commissioners to reduce the interest on loans made before the commencement of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875: Be it therefore enacted as follows:

The Public Works Loan Commissioners may, on or before the 31st July, 1876, if they think it expedient, with the consent of the treasury, reduce the interest payable on any loan made before the commencement of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, to any rate not less than four per centum per annum: Provided always, that nothing in the Public

(¹) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

Works Loans Act, 1875, shall be deemed to take away or abridge the power of the loan commissioners under section two hundred and forty-three of the Public Health Act, 1875, and section three of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, Amendment Act, 1875, to reduce, if they think fit, any interest payable on any such loan to a local authority as is in those sections mentioned.

Secs. 6—8.

38 & 39 Vict.

c. 55.

38 & 39 Vict.

c. 74.

7. Whereas by sections eighteen and fifty of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, provisions are made for the application of that Act, notwithstanding any special Act or any rule of law or custom, and doubts have arisen whether such provisions extend to any Act relating to a person having power to borrow money from the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it therefore enacted as follows:

Explanation of ss. 18, 50, of 38 & 39
Vict. c. 89.

Sections eighteen and fifty of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, shall be construed as if "special Act" in those sections included any Act relating to any person having power to borrow money from the Public Works Loan Commissioners.

8. [Issue of £17,551 9s. 1d. for the purpose of adjustment of accounts prior to the 1st day of April, 1876 (1).]

(1) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

PUBLIC WORKS LOANS ACT

1878.

41 VICT. c. 18.

An Act to grant money for the purpose of Loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners and by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, and to authorise the former Commissioners to compound and cancel certain loans and interest, and to amend the Public Works Loans Act, 1875. [27th May, 1878.]

Secs. 1—4. Whereas by the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, and other Acts, the Public Works Loan Commissioners are authorised to make loans for the purposes therein mentioned, and it is expedient to grant the money hereinafter mentioned for the purpose of such loans:

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 89.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Works Loans Act, 1878.

PART I.

Public Works Loan Commissioners.

2. [Grant of £6,000,000 for loans during the period ending the 30th June, 1879. 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89 (1).]

3. [Composition of debt due from the Epping rural sanitary authority. 29 & 30 Vict. c. 90; 34 & 35 Vict. c. 70; 38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.]

Amendment of 38 & 39 Vict.
c. 89, s. 36
as to examination into proper application of loan advanced on rates.

4. Whereas by section thirty-six of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, the Local Government Board are required to satisfy themselves that any loan advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners on the security of a rate is applied to the purpose for which it is advanced, and are authorised to appoint any officer to conduct on their behalf such examination as they may think necessary with a view to ascertaining that the loan has been so applied, and it is expedient to make further provision with respect to the powers of the Local Government Board for the purposes of the said section: Be it therefore enacted as follows:

38 & 39 Vict.
c. 89.

Where upon any examination made in pursuance of section thirty-six of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, with reference to a loan advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners for any purpose on the security of a rate, it appears to the Local Government Board that any sum, being the whole or part of the money raised by the loan, has not been applied for the said purpose, the Local Government Board may order that sum to be, within the time named in the order, applied either for the said purpose or towards the repayment to the Public Works Loan Commissioners of the principal of the loan, or partly in one of such ways and partly in the other, and further, if it appears to them that the sum, or any part thereof, has been applied for some purpose other than that for which it was advanced, may by the same or any other order direct a sum equal to the amount so misapplied to be raised within the time and out of the fund or rate named in the order and to be applied as directed by the above-mentioned order. Secs. 4—6.

(1) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

An order made by the Local Government Board in pursuance of this section may be enforced by writ of mandamus.

5. [Cancellation of debt due in respect of Wigan church ⁽¹⁾.]

6. So much of any Act as requires the Public Works Loan Commissioners to take in respect of any loan advanced by them under that Act in preference to any other securities, all or such one or more of the securities issuable under the Local Loans Act, 1875, as they may prefer, is hereby repealed, and the security for any such loan may be given and taken under and pursuant to the Public Works Loans Act, 1875.

Repeal of obligation of the Public Works Loan Commissioners to take securities under 33 & 39 Vict. c. 83.
33 & 39 Vict. c. 89.

PART II

Public Works Commissioners, Ireland.

(¹) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

PUBLIC WORKS LOANS ACT, 1879.

42 & 43 VICT. c. 77.

An Act to amend the Acts relating to the Public Works Loan Commissioners and the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, and to grant money for the purpose of loans by the said commissioners; and for other purposes in relation thereto.

[15th August, 1879.]

Secs. 1—4. Whereas it is expedient to amend the Acts relating to the Public Works Loan Commissioners and the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, and to grant money for the purpose of loans by those commissioners:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Public Works Loans Act, 1879.

PART I.

Amendment of Acts.

Minimum rate of interest for loans.

2. Where a loan is granted by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, or by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, and the rate of interest for such loan, fixed by the special Act which authorises the commissioners to grant the loan, is a special rate less than five per cent., such loan shall, notwithstanding anything in the special Act, bear interest at a rate not less than the rate in the special Act, and such other rate as may be necessary, in the judgment of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury, in order to enable the loans to be made without loss to the Exchequer.

Restriction on amount of loan to one borrower.

3. The advances made by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, or by the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, under any one Act, in any one financial year to one borrower (notwithstanding anything in the Act authorising such loan) shall not exceed in the aggregate one hundred thousand pounds.

Act not to apply to old loans, to loans specially saved by 39 & 40 Vict. c. 31, ss. 4, 5, nor to loans under 33 & 34 Vict. c. 46.

4. Nothing in this Act shall apply to any loan granted before the passing of this Act, nor to any instalments subsequently advanced in respect of such loan, nor to any advance which the Public Works Loan Commissioners are authorised to make, by sections four and five of the Public Works Loans (Money) Act, 1876, and the Acts in those sections mentioned, to the Port Patrick and Belfast and County Down Railway Companies, and for improving the harbour of Colombo, nor to any advance under the Irish Land Act, 1870, or any act authorising loans for the improvement, drainage, or purchase of lands in Ireland.

Provided, that where though a loan has not been actually granted before the passing of this Act, negotiations for the same have proceeded so far as to make it in the opinion of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury inequitable for such loan to be subject to the provisions of this Act or any of them, such loan shall, for the purposes of those provisions, be deemed to be a loan granted before the passing of this Act. Secs. 4—7.

5. Whereas certain persons (in this Act referred to as the Peabody trustees) received certain sums from the late George Peabody upon trust to expend the same for constructing or improving dwellings for the labouring classes in London, and the Public Works Loan Commissioners, although empowered to lend money to associations established for the like purposes, have no power to lend to such trustees, and it is expedient to confer such power: Be it therefore enacted as follows:

Power of Public Works Loan Commissioners to lend, and of Peabody trustees to borrow.

The Public Works Loan Commissioners may lend to the Peabody trustees, and the Peabody trustees may borrow any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole three hundred thousand pounds, to be applied by the said trustees towards the construction of dwellings suitable for the labouring classes in accordance with their trust and towards the purchase of land for that purpose.

Every sum so advanced shall be repaid within a period not exceeding fifteen years from the time of the advance, with interest thereon at such rate, not less than three and a-half per centum per annum, as may be agreed upon between the said commissioners and trustees.

Every sum so advanced shall be advanced in accordance with the Public Works Loan Commissioners Act, 1875, and the Peabody trustees shall have full power to give such security as the Commissioners may require in pursuance of that Act, and to mortgage the estates vested in them to the commissioners. 33 & 39 Vict. c. 89.

6. The Public Works Loan Commissioners may lend to any company, society, or association established for the purpose of constructing or improving dwellings for the labouring classes, any sum or sums to be applied towards the construction of dwellings suitable for the labouring classes, and towards the purchase of land for that purpose.

Power of Public Works Loan Commissioners to lend to labourers dwellings companies.

Every sum so lent shall be repaid within a period not exceeding fifteen years from the time of the advance, with interest thereon at such rate not less than three and a-half per centum per annum, as may be agreed upon between the commissioners and the borrower.

Every sum so advanced shall be advanced in accordance with the Public Works Loan Commissioners Act, 1875. 33 & 39 Vict. c. 89.

7. If the Act granting money for the purpose of loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners authorises the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt to advance money for such purpose, those commissioners may, out of moneys in their hands on account of savings banks or Post Office savings banks, advance to the Public Works Loan Commissioners any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole the amount named in the said Act, during the period named in the said Act, or, if no period is named, during the financial year for which such Act was passed.

Regulations as to advances by National Debt Commissioners to the Public Works Loan Commissioners.

Every sum so advanced shall be placed to the account to which money issued by the Treasury to the National Debt Commissioners for the purpose of loans under the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, is, for the time being, required to be placed, and shall be held and disposed of accordingly. 33 & 39 Vict. c. 89.

Every sum so advanced shall be repaid with interest at such rate, not exceeding five per cent. per annum, within such number of years, not exceeding thirty, as may be agreed on, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, between the Public Works Loan Commissioners and the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.

Every sum so advanced shall be repaid, and the interest from time to time accruing thereon shall be paid, out of the sums paid or applicable in or towards the discharge of the principal or interest of any loan granted by the Public Works Loan Commissioners whether before or after the passing of this Act, and whether before or after the advance of the said sum, and, if such sums are insufficient, shall be charged on and paid out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

For the purpose of such repayment a sufficient portion of the sums so paid or applicable as aforesaid shall, under the direction of the Public Works Loan Commissioners, be paid to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and not into the receipt of the Exchequer.

The security for every sum advanced in pursuance of this section shall be given in Secs. 7—10. such form and manner as may be from time to time directed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and may be given and executed by the secretary to the Public Works Loan Commissioners in the name of himself and his successors on behalf of the commissioners.

This section shall apply in the case of the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland in like manner as if it were re-enacted, with the substitution of "the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland" for "the Public Works Loan Commissioners," and of Part II. of the Public Works Loans (Ireland) Act, 1877, for the Public Works Loans Act, 1875.

40 & 41 Vict.
c. 27.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 89.

Application
of 38 & 39
Vict. c. 89,
to money advanced by National Debt Commissioners.

8. For the purpose of the provisions of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, relating to the grant of money for the purpose of loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, all money advanced by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in pursuance of this Act shall be deemed to be money granted by Parliament for the purpose of the said loans.

Composition of Debt.

9. [Composition of debt on Port Erin, Isle of Man, 24 & 25 Vict. c. 47; 26 & 27 Vict. c. 86; 27 & 28 Vict. c. 62; 29 & 30 Vict. c. 23; 35 & 36 Vict. c. 23.]

PART II.

Provision of Money for Public Works Loan Commissioners.

10. [Grant of £6,000,000 for public works loans during the period ending 30th June, 1880, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89.]

PART III.

Grant of Money for Public Works Commissioners, Ireland.

PUBLIC WORKS LOANS ACT, 1881. ⁽¹⁾

44 & 45 VICT. c. 38.

Amendment of Acts.

7. Where the Public Works Loan Commissioners have, either before or after the passing of this Act, in pursuance of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, or of any enactment repealed by that Act, taken possession of any mortgaged property, and after the passing of this Act advance any sum for the completion, repair, improvement, or security of that property, the rate of interest on such sum shall, notwithstanding anything in section twenty-two of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, or any like enactment repealed by that Act, be not less than five per cent. per annum.

Secs. 7—9.

8. The Local Government Board may make orders as to the expenses incurred by them or by any officer appointed by them in making or conducting any examination in pursuance of section thirty-six of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, for the purpose of ascertaining that any loan or part of a loan advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners either before or after the passing of this Act, on the security of a rate, has been applied to the purpose for which the same was advanced.

Amendment of 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89, s. 22, as to rate of interest for loan.

Expenses of ascertaining (under 38 & 39 Vict.

c. 89, s. 36), that loans advanced by the Public Works Loans Commissioners have been properly applied.

Any such order may contain directions as to the parties by whom and the rates out of which such expenses shall be borne, and on the application of the Local Government Board may be made a rule of the High Court of Justice in England, or of the High Court of Session in either division of the Inner House thereof in Scotland.

9. The unapplied balance of any loan advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners, either before or after the passing of this Act, on the security of a rate, may, with the consent of the said commissioners, and of the central authority or department, if any, with whose sanction or consent such loan was authorised to be raised, be applied to any purpose to which moneys borrowed on the security of such rate are properly applicable; and in construing section thirty-six of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, and section four of the Public Works Loans Act, 1878, the purpose to which any such unapplied balance as aforesaid is so applied, shall be deemed to be the purpose for which that portion of the loan was advanced.

Application of surplus balances of loans made by the Public Works Loans Commissioners.

41 Vict. c. 18.

⁽¹⁾ The sections of the Act beyond those here given deal only with grants of money and remissions, &c., of loans.

PUBLIC WORKS LOANS ACT, 1882. ⁽¹⁾

45 & 46 VICT. c. 62.

PART IV.

Amendment of Acts.

Section 7.
Amendment of 24 & 25
Vict. c. 45,
as to provision for loans in Provisional Order respecting harbours.

7. Whereas under the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the Board of Trade can make a Provisional Order, subject to confirmation by Parliament, authorising the construction of a harbour, pier, or other works within the meaning of the said Act, and authorising the promoters to raise a loan to the amount specified in the order for the purpose of such harbour, pier, or works, and in many cases where the promoters are a public body difficulties arise in raising such loan on account of the defective security, while the construction of the said harbour, pier, or works is of so great importance to the inhabitants of the town or place where the same are to be constructed that they would be willing to guarantee the loan, if power were given for this purpose, and it is expedient to provide for the conferring of such power by the Provisional Order: Be it therefore enacted as follows:

- (1.) Where a Provisional Order under the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, authorises any public body to raise a loan for the construction of any works as defined by that Act in any place, the same or any other order may authorise any rating authority as hereinafter defined in that place, under the circumstances and subject to the conditions specified in the order, to charge, if they think it expedient for the inhabitants at large of such place, any fund or rate under their control for the purpose of aiding the public body in raising the said loan, or any part thereof, from the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and to give such aid by guaranteeing the principal and interest of the loan or by borrowing the sum required and advancing it to the public body, or partly in one way and partly in the other, or otherwise in manner provided by the order.
- (2.) The order shall provide that the resolution of the rating authority to give the guarantee shall be a special resolution, that is to say, a resolution passed at one meeting of such authority and published in manner directed by the order, so as to give notice to all persons interested, and confirmed at a second meeting of the rating authority held not less than fourteen days after the first of such public notices has been given, and not less than three months after the meeting at which the resolution was passed.
- (3.) The order shall provide for the time within which and the mode in which any money borrowed by the rating authority is to be repaid, and for the effectual recovery out of the said fund or rate of any sum payable under the guarantee, and of the principal and interest of any money borrowed by the said authority, and for the reimbursement of the fund or rate out of the income of the said works, or otherwise by the said public body, and shall contain such incidental provisions as seem necessary or proper for carrying this section into effect. Secs. 7—9.

(1) The sections beyond these here given deal only with grants of money, Ireland, and power to postpone debt due in respect of Pulteney Harbour.

- (4.) The promoters of an order proposing to confer power under this section on any rating authority shall, a reasonable time before they apply to the Board of Trade to settle the order, submit to the Local Government Board, or as regards Scotland to the Secretary of State for the Home Department, a statement of such proposal, and if the Local Government Board, or Secretary of State for the Home Department, declare that in their opinion, having regard to the financial condition of the rating authority, or to the necessity for such rating authority to provide a water supply or drainage for the inhabitants of the said place, or otherwise to fulfil the original duties of such authority, it is inexpedient to burden such rating authority with any such charge as is mentioned in such proposal, the Board of Trade in settling the order shall omit any provision conferring power on the rating authority under this section.

In this section,—

The expression “public body” means any rating authority, also any commissioners, or trustees, or other body or person who manage or undertake the works without any view to the payment of any dividend or profits out of the revenue from such works:

The expression “rating authority” means—

- (1.) As regards England, any authority being an urban sanitary authority under the Public Health Act, 1875, and the Acts amending the same; and 38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.
- (2.) As regards Scotland, the town council or commissioners of police of, or other local authority having power to levy assessments in, any royal or parliamentary burgh, or in any populous place the boundaries whereof have been fixed and ascertained under the General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862, or under the Act therein recited or under any local Act; and 25 & 26 Vict. c. 101.
- (3.) As regards Ireland, any urban sanitary authority under the Public Health (Ireland) Act, 1878, and the Acts amending the same. 41 & 42 Vict. c. 52.

8. Where after the passing of this Act any money is advanced by the Public Works Loan Commissioners on the security of a rate as defined by the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, the borrowers shall cause their treasurer to keep a separate account under the title of the Public Works Loan Commissioners Loan Account, or such other title as may be approved by the Local Government Board, and shall cause all the said advances to be carried to the credit of that account, and all orders or other documents directing payments out of such account shall show on the face of them that the payment is to be made out of that account, and an order or other document for a payment out of the said account shall not be made or given except the payment is for a purpose for which the said advances were made. Account in case of loan on security of rate.

9. Section thirteen of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, and section eleven of the Public Works Loans (Ireland) Act, 1877 (which provided for annual and quarterly statements from borrowers of the amounts which they will probably apply to borrow) are hereby repealed. Repeal of 23 & 39 Vict. c. 89, s. 13, and 40 & 41 Vict. c. 27, s. 11, as to annual and quarterly statements of amounts required by borrowers.

LOCAL TAXATION RETURNS ACT, 1860. ⁽¹⁾

23 & 24 VICT. c. 51.

An Act to provide for an annual return of rates, taxes, tolls, and dues levied for local purposes in England. [23rd July, 1860.]

SECS. 1, 2.

Whereas rates, taxes, tolls, and dues to a large amount are levied for purposes of local government and improvements in England, and it is proper that Parliament should be informed annually of all sums so levied, and the expenditure thereof, but in many cases no sufficient provision has been made for that purpose: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The clerk to any corporation ⁽¹⁾, justices, commissioners, district or other board, vestry, inspectors, trustees, or other body or persons authorised to levy or to order to be levied any of the rates, taxes, tolls, or dues mentioned in the Schedule to this Act, or any other compulsory rates, taxes, tolls, or dues in England (other than such as are levied for the public revenue of the United Kingdom) shall make a return of the sums levied or received by or in respect of such rates, taxes, tolls, and dues, and of the expenditure thereof, to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State ⁽²⁾ in the month of June in every year; [the first return to be made in the month of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one ⁽³⁾.]

2. Such return shall be made for the latest period of twelve months preceding the month of June in each year for which the accounts of the corporation, justices, commissioners, board, inspectors, trustees, or other body or persons, shall be made up, and shall show the amounts levied and expended respectively, with such other particulars and in such form as shall from time to time be ordered by such Secretary of State ⁽⁴⁾.

3. Where no clerk is appointed or acting, the treasurer or other officer keeping the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the corporation, justices, commissioners,

⁽¹⁾ This Act, and the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1877, post, are repealed so far as they relate to the receipts and expenditure of a municipal corporation. See the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 5, and Sched. I., ante, pp. 269, 352, 353. See now section 28 of this latter Act, ante, p. 276.

Where the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of a local authority are audited by a district auditor; a return of the receipts and expenditure stated to him by the local authority need not be made under this and the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1877, unless the Local Government Board so require. District Auditors Act, 1879, 42 Vict. c. 6, s. 3, post.

As to application of this Act, and the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1877, post, to receipts and expenditure as regards highways, see the Highways Accounts Returns Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 39, s. 2, post.

⁽²⁾ Now the Local Government Board, 34 & 35 Vict. c. 70, s. 7, ante, p. 394; and see the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1877, 40 & 41 Vict. c. 66, s. 1, post.

⁽³⁾ The part between brackets is repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

⁽⁴⁾ See now the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1877, 40 & 41 Vict. c. 66, s. 1, post.

Clerks of bodies empowered to levy rates, &c., to make annual returns to Secretary of State.

Returns to be made for the latest year for which accounts are made up. Who are to make re-board, vestry, inspectors, trustees, or other body or persons by whom any rates, taxes, tolls, or dues hereinbefore mentioned are levied or ordered to be levied shall make the returns in relation thereto; and where any such rates, taxes, tolls, or dues are levied and expended or to be accounted for by churchwardens, chapelwardens, or any officers or persons not authorised to act as a board, such returns as hereinbefore mentioned in respect of such rates, taxes, tolls, or dues, and the expenditure thereof, shall be made by such churchwardens, chapelwardens, or other officers or persons, and they shall be severally liable in respect of any neglect to make the same.

Secs. 3—8.

turns in certain cases.

4. Any clerk, treasurer, churchwarden, officer, or other person required as aforesaid to make such return who neglects so to do in the month of June in any year shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for every such offence, to be recoverable on summary conviction thereof before two justices.

Penalty for default.

5. Where any annual return is now by law required to be made to the Secretary of State (¹), or to any public department, under any Act of Parliament, this Act shall not render necessary any further or other return in respect of the same matters: provided always, that the said Secretary of State (¹) may, by his order published in the London Gazette, direct that all or any of such returns now required as aforesaid shall in future be made under this Act, and shall be subject to the provisions and penalties thereof.

Saving for returns already required.

6. The said Secretary of State (¹) shall every year cause the returns transmitted to him under this Act to be abstracted, and the abstract thereof to be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Abstracts of returns to be laid before Parliament.

7. This Act shall not extend to the rates levied for the relief of the poor, or the expenditure thereof, but the returns thereof shall continue to be made to the Poor Law Board, as by the orders of such board shall from time to time be directed.

Poor rate returns to be made to Poor Law Board as heretofore.

8. This Act shall not extend to any tolls or dues taken by any railway, canal, or joint stock company as profits of their undertaking, or to any tolls or dues taken by prescription or otherwise as private property.

Saving for joint stock companies and private rights of toll, &c.

SCHEDULE.

Church rates and chapel rates; whether made by the common law or under the Church Building Acts, or under any other Act of Parliament.

Sewers rates and "General Sewers Tax," and all rates, scots, and taxes levied by courts or commissioners of sewers; whether levied under the Acts of the 3 & 4 Will. 4, c. 22, and 4 & 5 Vict. c. 45, or under any other Act of Parliament, or by charter, usage, or custom.

Rates under the Act for the lighting and watching of parishes, 3 & 4 Will. 4, c. 90.

Rates levied by improvement commissioners or other commissioners, or by any trustees or corporation acting under any local Act for the paving, draining, cleansing, or watching, improvement or regulation of any town or district.

Rates levied by or under the order of any vestry or district board, under the Act 18 & 19 Vict. c. 120, for the better local management of the metropolis.

Tolls and dues levied under the authority of Parliament in respect of markets, bridges, or harbours.

(¹) See note (²) on preceding page

LOCAL TAXATION RETURNS ACT, 1877. ⁽¹⁾

40 & 41 VICT. c. 66.

An Act to amend the Law with respect to the Annual Returns of Local Taxation in England, and for other purposes relating to such Taxation. [14th August, 1877.]

Secs. 1, 2.

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 51.

Date for annual return of local taxation.

Obligation of clerk of local authority to send return.

Whereas by the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1860, and other Acts, local authorities or their officers are required to make annually to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, or to the Local Government Board, returns of their receipts and expenditure, and of any rates, taxes, tolls, or dues levied by them, and it is expedient to make further provision respecting such returns:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. The annual return required by law to be made of any receipts or expenditure of a local authority, or of any rates, taxes, tolls, or dues, shall be made for the financial year ending on the twenty-fifth day of March, or on such other day as the Local Government Board may from time to time prescribe, upon the application of any particular authority in respect of their receipts and expenditure, or of any rates, taxes, tolls, or dues levied by them, or in respect of the receipts and expenditure and of the rates, taxes, tolls, or dues levied by any class of authorities.

Every such return shall be sent to the Local Government Board and not to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and shall be so sent within one month after the audit of the receipts and expenditure to which the return relates is completed, or if the audit is not completed within six months after the end of the financial year for which the return is to be made, then on the expiration of such six months, or if there is no audit, then within one month after the end of the said financial year.

For the purpose of any such return the date to which the accounts of any local authority are required by law to be made up, and the date at which such accounts are required by law to be audited, and auditors are required to be elected or appointed, may be altered by the local authority, with the approval of the Local Government Board: Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent any accounts being made up and audited at shorter periods than twelve months, so that one of such shorter periods ends on the last day of the financial year for which the return of such accounts is to be made.

2. Every return to which this Act applies shall be made by the clerk of the local authority, or where no clerk is appointed or acting, by the treasurer or other officer keeping the accounts of the receipts and expenditure, rates, taxes, tolls, or dues, to which the return relates, and any such clerk, treasurer, or other officer who makes default in making any such return shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds for each offence, to be recovered by action on behalf of Her Majesty in the High Court of Justice. Secs. 2—5.

(¹) See note (¹) to Local Taxation Returns Act, 1860, ante, p. 1240.

3. The expression "local authority" in this Act means any justices, municipal or other corporation, board, guardians, sanitary authority, vestry, commissioners, inspectors, trustees, or other body of persons required by law to make to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, or to the Local Government Board, a return of their receipts and expenditure, or of any rates, taxes, tolls, or dues levied by them or under their direction. Definition of "local authority."

4. The first return under this Act shall be made for the financial year ending in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and the Local Government Board shall make such provision as may seem to them necessary for any change of the date of the accounts and audit of the accounts of any local authority which may be rendered necessary by the provisions of this Act, so as to cause as little inconvenience as possible to the local authority. First return under Act.

5. This Act may be cited as the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1877.

Short title.

The Act of the session of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-one, intituled "An Act to provide for an annual return of rates, taxes, tolls, and dues levied for local purposes in England," may be cited as the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1860 ⁽¹⁾, and that Act and this Act may be cited as the Local Taxation Returns Acts, 1860 and 1877.

(¹) Ante, p. 1240.

HIGHWAY ACCOUNTS RETURNS ACT, 1879.

42 & 43 VICT. c. 39.

An Act to amend the law with respect to Returns of Receipts and Expenditure as regards Highways, and to dispense with the verification before Justices of the accounts of Surveyors of Highways.
[11th August, 1879.]

SECS. 1—3.

Whereas by divers Acts provisions differing from each other are made respecting the transmission to the Local Government Board and the laying before Parliament of annual returns of the receipts and expenditure on account of highways in parishes, certain urban sanitary districts, and highway districts :

And whereas it is expedient that one return only in each case should be required, and that such return should be made and laid before Parliament in like manner as other returns under the Local Taxation Returns Acts, 1860 and 1877 ⁽¹⁾, subject to being dispensed with in like manner as such other returns :

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 51.
40 & 41 Vict.
c. 66.
5 & 6 Will. 4,
c. 50, s. 45.
41 & 42 Vict.
c. 77, s. 9.

And whereas by the Highways Act, 1835 ⁽²⁾, the surveyor of highways of every parish is required, among other matters, to verify his accounts before justices at special sessions, and the said verification of accounts has been rendered unnecessary by the Highways and Locomotives Amendment Act, 1878 ⁽³⁾, which requires the accounts of the surveyors of highways to be audited by the district auditor, and it is expedient to dispense with such verification :

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

Short title.

Return of receipts and expenditure as regards highways.
23 & 24 Vict.
c. 51.
40 & 41 Vict.
c. 66.

1. This Act may be cited as the Highway Accounts Returns Act, 1879.

2. The Local Taxation Returns Acts, 1860 and 1877 ⁽¹⁾, shall apply to returns of rates, receipts, and expenditure as regards highways in like manner as if they were specifically mentioned in the said Acts, and highway boards and surveyors of highways were mentioned as local authorities in those Acts, and the surveyor of highways were an officer keeping the accounts of the rates, receipts, and expenditure within the meaning of those Acts :

Provided that a return under the said Acts may be dispensed with upon the delivery to the auditor of a financial statement of the said receipts and expenditure in like manner as in any other case ⁽⁴⁾.

Repeal and temporary provision.

3. The Acts specified in the schedule of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

Where in pursuance of any enactment hereby repealed the accounts of a surveyor of highways for a parish for the period ending on the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine have been verified, and a statement of the

⁽¹⁾ Ante, pp. 1240, 1242.

⁽²⁾ Ante, p. 789.

⁽³⁾ Ante, p. 881.

⁽⁴⁾ See the District Auditors Act, 1879, 42 Vict. c. 6, s. 3, post; and note ⁽¹⁾ to the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1860, ante, p. 1240.

receipts and expenditure of such parish as regards highways for the said period has been transmitted to the Local Government Board, the board may, if they think fit, dispense with the submission of a financial statement and dispense wholly or partly with the audit by the district auditor of the accounts for the said period of such parish as regards highways. Section 3.

SCHEDULE.

ACTS REPEALED.

Year and Chapter.	Title of Act.	Extent of Repeal.
5 & 6 Will. 4, c. 50.	Highway Act, 1835 - - - -	In section forty-five from and including the words "and at the said special session" to the end of the section.
12 & 13 Vict. c. 35.	An Act for requiring annual returns of the expenditure on highways in England and Wales to be transmitted to the Secretary of State and afterwards laid before Parliament.	The whole Act.
25 & 26 Vict. c. 61.	The Highway Act, 1862 - - -	Section twenty-seven, section twenty-eight, and section twenty-nine.

DISTRICT AUDITORS ACT, 1879.

42 VICT. c. 6.

An Act to amend the law with respect to District Auditors.

[28th March, 1879.]

SECS. 1—3.

31 & 32 Vict.
c. 122, s. 24.
22 Vict. c. 26.

Whereas the auditors of the accounts relating to the relief of the poor (in this Act referred to as district auditors) are under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1868, appointed by the Local Government Board, and are by that Act declared to be civil servants of the State within the operation of the Superannuation Act, 1859, but the remuneration and expenses of such auditors which are by law payable out of local rates are in fact paid partly out of moneys annually provided by Parliament, and partly out of local rates; and whereas it is expedient that in future the whole of such remuneration and expenses should be paid out of moneys voted by Parliament, and that in lieu of the amount now so paid out of local rates an equivalent sum should be raised by means of stamps, in manner herein-after mentioned, and also that further provision should be made respecting such payment and otherwise respecting such auditors:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

Provision as to contribution by Treasury and out of local rate for payment of district auditors.

1. This Act may be cited as the District Auditors Act, 1879.

2. After the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine all payments to district auditors out of any local rate shall cease, and the whole of the salaries or remuneration and of the expenses of district auditors, to such amount as may be sanctioned by the Treasury, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament; and for the purpose of contributing to the amount required for the payment of such salaries, remuneration, and expenses, there shall be charged on every local authority whose accounts are audited by a district auditor a stamp duty for the use of Her Majesty, according to the scale contained in the First Schedule to this Act, and such duty shall be levied by a stamp on the certificate of the auditor hereinafter mentioned.

Financial statement with stamped certificate of district auditor.
29 & 30 Vict.
c. 113, s. 6.

3. Where the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of a local authority are audited by a district auditor, the local authority shall prepare and submit to the district auditor at every audit (other than an extraordinary audit held in pursuance of section six of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1866), a financial statement in duplicate in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars⁽¹⁾; one of such duplicates shall have the stamp charged under this Act affixed thereon, and the auditor at the conclusion of the audit shall cancel that stamp, and certify on each duplicate, in the prescribed form, the amount in words at length of the expenditure so audited and allowed, and further, that the regulations with respect to such statement have been duly complied with, and that he has ascertained by the audit the correctness of the statement.

⁽¹⁾ See the general orders for accounts among the circulars, &c., of the Local Government Board, post.

He shall forthwith send the duplicate so stamped and certified by him to the Local Government Board; and in such case a return of the receipts or expenditure comprised in such statement need not, unless the Local Government Board so require, be sent to the Board in pursuance of the Local Taxation Returns Act, 1860 and 1877 ⁽¹⁾.

4. The Local Government Board may from time to time appoint such number of district auditors as they may, with the sanction of the Treasury, think necessary for the performance of the duties of auditing the accounts which are for the time being by law subject to be audited by district auditors, and may from time to time remove such auditors.

The Board may from time to time assign to district auditors their duties, and the districts in which such auditors respectively are to act, and may from time to time change wholly or in part such duties or districts; and every district so assigned to a district auditor, whether originally or upon any change, shall be deemed to be an audit district within the meaning of any enactment relating to district auditors or their districts, and the auditor to whom any district is assigned shall be deemed to be the district auditor for that district.

The Board may also, with the consent of the Treasury, appoint from time to time a person or persons, either temporarily or otherwise, to assist a district auditor in the performance of his duties, and any person so appointed shall, subject to any exceptions made by the terms of his appointment, have the same powers and duties and be subject to the same obligations as the district auditor whom he is appointed to assist.

The Board, with the like consent, may assign to a person so appointed such salary or remuneration and such sum for his expenses as may seem fit, and such salary, remuneration, and expenses shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

5. Where any accounts of the receipts and expenditure of a local authority are subject by law to be audited by a district auditor, the Local Government Board may from time to time by order make, and when made revoke and vary, such regulations as seem to the Board necessary or proper respecting the audit of such accounts, including the form of keeping the accounts of the local authority and their officers, the day or days to which the accounts are to be made up, the time within which they are to be examined by the local authority, the mode in which, if it is so prescribed, they are to be certified by the local authority or any officer of that authority, the mode of publishing the time and place of holding the audit, the persons by whom such accounts are to be produced for audit, and the mode of conducting the audit, and an order under this section shall be deemed to be an order within the meaning of section ninety-eight of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834 ⁽²⁾.

6. The duties charged under this Act shall be deemed to be stamp duties under the management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and all the Acts relating to stamp duties, particularly those relating to forgery, fraudulent dies, and other offences in connection with stamp duties, shall apply accordingly; and such duties may, if the commissioners so direct, be denoted by adhesive stamps, to be cancelled by the auditor as provided by this Act.

7. If a local authority fail to comply with the provisions of this Act with respect to a financial statement, such local authority, or if a clerk to the local authority is appointed, that clerk, and if no clerk is appointed, but there is a treasurer or other officer keeping the accounts which should be comprised in such financial statement, that treasurer or other officer shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds for each offence, to be recovered by action on behalf of Her Majesty in the High Court of Justice.

8. In this Act,—

The expression “local rate” means the poor rate, the general district rate, and every rate the proceeds of which are applicable to public local purposes, and which is leviable on the basis of a poundage assessment of the value of property, and includes any sum which, though obtained in the first instance by a precept, certificate, or other instrument requiring payment from some authority or officer, is or can be ultimately raised out of a rate as before defined.

Secs. 3—8.

23 & 24 Vict.
c. 51.

40 & 41 Vict.
c. 66.

Appointment and districts of district auditors

Regulations
as to audit.

4 & 5 Will. 4,
c. 76.

Stamp duties
under Inland Revenue.

Failure to submit financial statement.

Definitions.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, pp., 1240, 1242.

⁽²⁾ See the general orders for accounts amongst the circulars, &c., issued by the Local Government Board, post.

Secs. 8—12

The expression "local authority" means any person or body of persons who receive and expend any local rate, but does not include overseers of the poor.

The expression "prescribed" means prescribed from time to time by the Local Government Board.

The expression "Treasury" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Provision for existing auditors.

9. The Local Government Board, with the approval of the Treasury, shall as soon as may be after the passing of this Act determine the salary or remuneration to be paid to the district auditors holding office at the passing of this Act, and the amount to be allowed for their expenses, regard being had to the sums which such officers have heretofore received out of local rates, as well as out of moneys provided by Parliament, and to any change of their duties which may be made in pursuance of this Act.

Provision for first year

10. If in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine the audit of the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of any local authority for any period ending on some day of the month of March has been completed before the expiration of two months after the passing of this Act, the local authority shall submit the financial statement required by this Act to the auditor within the said two months.

Repeal of Acts.

11. The Acts specified in the Second Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned.

Provided that—

(1.) This repeal shall not affect anything done or suffered, or any right acquired or accrued, under any enactment hereby repealed; and

(2.) Any auditor appointed in pursuance of any enactment hereby repealed shall (save as may be prescribed) have the same powers and duties and be subject to the same obligations as if such enactment had not been repealed.

Saving of certain fees and expenses.

12. Nothing in this Act shall prevent a district auditor from recovering any sum in respect of an audit held by him prior to the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, or in respect of an audit of accounts made up to some day prior to that day, and the audit of which might have been held before the said day, or from recovering any expenses incurred, or which he may hereafter incur, in any proceedings which he is authorised or required to take or defend under the statutes in that behalf.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Scale of Stamp Duties payable by Local Authorities.

Where the total of the expenditure comprised in the financial statement is	The sum shall be
Under 20 l. - - - - -	5 s.
20 l. and under 50 l. - - - - -	10 s.
50 l. and under 100 l. - - - - -	1 l.
100 l. and under 500 l. - - - - -	2 l.
500 l. and under 1000 l. - - - - -	3 l.
1000 l. and under 2500 l. - - - - -	4 l.
2500 l. and under 5000 l. - - - - -	5 l.
5000 l. and under 10,000 l. - - - - -	10 l.
10,000 l. and under 20,000 l. - - - - -	15 l.
20,000 l. and under 50,000 l. - - - - -	20 l.
50,000 l. and under 100,000 l. - - - - -	30 l.
100,000 l. and upwards - - - - -	50 l.

For the purpose of this schedule the expenditure comprised in the financial statement shall be exclusive of any sum paid to another local authority in pursuance of a precept.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Schedule 2.Acts repealed.

A description or citation of a portion of a statute is inclusive of the words, section, or other part first and last-mentioned or otherwise referred to as forming the beginning or as forming the end of the portion comprised in the description or citation.

Session and Chapter.	Title.	Extent of Repeal.
4 & 5 Will. 4 c. 76.	The Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834.	Section forty-six, so far as relates to officers for the examining, auditing, allowing, and disallowing of accounts.
7 & 8 Vict. c. 101.	The Poor Law Amendment Act, 1844.	Section thirty-two down to "Union therefrom." Section thirty-seven. Section forty-nine, from "being at the time the auditor of" down to "may be appointed," and from "and the salary of every such auditor" down to "board of guardians."
12 & 13 Vict. c. 103	The Poor Law Amendment Act, 1849.	Section eight.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 6.	The Metropolitan Poor Act, 1867.	Section thirty-six and section thirty-seven.
31 & 32 Vict. c. 122	The Poor Law Amendment Act, 1868.	Section twenty-four. Section twenty-five, except as regards existing auditors.
33 & 34 Vict. c. 75.	The Elementary Education Act, 1870.	Section sixty, from "for the audit district" down to "in a summary manner" at the end sub-section one.
38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.	The Public Health Act, 1875	Section two hundred and forty-seven, from "for the union" in sub-section one down to "from the place of audit" at the end of sub-section two.
41 & 42 Vict. c. 77.	The Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878.	Section nine, from "for the audit district" down to "is situate," and from "the auditor shall receive such remuneration" down to "in a summary manner."

SETTLED ESTATES ACT, 1877.

40 & 41 VICT. c. 18.

Secs. 20. 21. 20. It shall be lawful for the court, if it shall deem it proper and consistent with a due regard for the interests of all parties entitled under the settlement, and subject to the provisions and restrictions in this Act contained, from time to time to direct that any part of any settled estates be laid out for streets, roads, paths, squares, gardens, or other open spaces, sewers, drains, or watercourses, either to be dedicated to the public or not; and the court may direct that the parts so laid out shall remain vested in the trustees of the settlement, or be conveyed to or vested in any other trustees upon such trusts for securing the continued appropriation thereof to the purposes aforesaid in all respects, and with such provisions for the appointment of new trustees when required, as by the court shall be deemed advisable.

21. Where any part of any settled estates is directed to be laid out for such purposes as aforesaid, the court may direct that any such streets, roads, paths, squares, gardens, or other open spaces, sewers, drains or watercourses, including all necessary or proper fences, pavings, connections, and other works incidental thereto respectively, be made and executed, and that all or any part of the expenses in relation to such laying out and making and execution be raised and paid by means of a sale or mortgage of or charge upon all or any part of the settled estates, or be raised and paid out of the rents and profits of the settled estates or any part thereof, or out of any moneys or investments representing moneys liable to be laid out in the purchase of hereditaments to be settled in the same manner as the settled estates, or out of the income of such moneys or investments, or out of any accumulations of rents, profits, or income; and the court may also give such directions as it may deem advisable for any repair or maintenance of any such streets, roads, paths, squares, gardens, or other open spaces, sewers, drains, or watercourses, or other works, out of any such rents, profits, income or accumulations during such period or periods of time as to the court shall seem advisable.

STATUTES RELATING TO ARTIZANS' DWELLINGS.

LABOURING CLASSES LODGING HOUSES ACT, 1851.

14 & 15 VICT. c. 34.

An Act to encourage the Establishment of Lodging Houses for the Labouring Classes ⁽¹⁾.

[24th July, 1851.]

2. That this Act may be adopted for any incorporated borough in England regulated under an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty, to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations, or any charter granted in pursuance of the said Act, or any Act passed for the amendment thereof, and also for any place being the district of any local board of health regulated under the Public Health Act, 1848, or any Act passed for the amendment thereof ⁽²⁾, and also for any place being the district within the limits of any Act for the paving, lighting, watching, draining, or otherwise improving of such place, and also, with the approval of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, for any parish in England, having, according to the then last census, a population of not less than ten thousand, or being a parish in any such incorporated borough, having, according to the then last census, a population of not less than ten thousand, and also with the like approval for each of several parishes as by this Act in that behalf provided.

Secs. 2, 3.

Act may be adopted in certain boroughs and parishes.

3. That in this Act the following words and expressions shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction; (that is to say),

Interpretation of terms.

"Parish" shall mean every place maintaining its own poor, and having a vestry:

"Borough" shall mean city, borough, port, cinque port, or town corporate:

"District" shall mean any place being the district of such a local board of health, and shall also mean any place being the district within the limits of such an improvement Act:

"Ratepayers" shall mean all persons for the time being assessed to and paying rates for the relief of the poor of the parish:

"Churchwardens" shall mean also chapelwardens or other persons discharging the duties of churchwardens:

"Overseers" shall mean also any persons authorised and required to make and collect or cause to be collected the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish, and acting instead of overseers of the poor:

⁽¹⁾ By section 10 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 50, where the Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Acts, or any of them, are in force within the district of any urban authority such authority shall have all the powers, rights, duties, capacities, liabilities, and obligations in relation to such Acts, exercisable by or attaching to the council, incorporated commissioners, local board, improvement commissioners, and other commissioners or persons acting in the execution of the said Acts, or any of them. And where the Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Acts are not in force within the district of any urban authority, such authority may adopt such Acts.

By section 4 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 47, the "Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Acts," as used in that Act, means 14 & 15 Vict. c. 34 (Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Act, 1851); 29 & 30 Vict. c. 23 (Labouring Classes Dwelling Houses Act, 1866); 30 & 31 Vict. c. 28 (Labouring Classes Dwelling Houses Act, 1867).

⁽²⁾ See note to the title of this Act.

Secs. 3—8.

59 Geo. 3, c. 12.
1 & 2 Will. 4, c.
60.

"Vestry" shall mean the inhabitants of the parish lawfully assembled in vestry, or for any of the purposes for which vestries are holden, except in those parishes in which there is a select vestry [elected under an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend the Laws for the Relief of the Poor, or ⁽¹⁾] elected under an Act passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better Regulation of Vestries, and for the Appointment of Auditors of Accounts, in certain parishes of England and Wales," or elected under the provisions of any local Act of Parliament for the government of any parish by vestries, in which parishes it shall mean such select vestry, and shall also mean any body of persons, by whatever name distinguished, acting, by virtue of any Act of Parliament, prescription, custom, or otherwise, as or instead of a vestry or select vestry:

"Board" shall mean, as regards the district of such a local board of health, such local board of health for the time being in office and acting as such local board of health, and, as regards the district within the limits of such an improvement Act, the commissioners, trustees, or other body of persons by whatever name distinguished for the time being in office and acting in the execution of such Act:

"Commissioners" shall mean the commissioners appointed in accordance with this Act for any parish, and for the time being in office and acting as such commissioners:

"Clerk" shall mean, as regards an incorporated borough, the town clerk of such borough, and, as regards a district, the clerk of the board of such district, and, as regards a parish, the clerk appointed pursuant to this Act by the commissioners:

"Justice" shall mean justice of the peace for the county, riding, division, liberty, borough, district, parish, or place where the matter requiring the cognizance of justices shall arise:

"Improvement rates" shall mean the rates, tolls, rents, income, and other moneys whatsoever which under the provisions of any such improvement Act shall be applicable for the general purposes of such Act:

"Lands" shall mean lands, tenements, and hereditaments, of whatsoever nature or tenure:

Words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine:

Words of the plural number shall include the singular, and words of the singular number shall include the plural.

4. [Council of any borough may adopt the provisions contained in this Act if they think fit ⁽²⁾.]

Expenses of carrying this Act into execution in a borough shall be charged upon the borough fund, and income arising to be carried to the same.

Any local board of health may adopt the provisions of this Act if they think fit.

On requisition of ratepayers board to postpone proceedings till after next day for election of members of board.

Expenses of carrying this Act into execu-

5. the income arising from the lodging houses in any borough shall be paid to the credit of the borough fund thereof; and the council shall keep distinct accounts of their receipts, payments, credits, and liabilities with reference to the execution of this Act, to be called "The Lodging Houses Account ⁽³⁾."

6. That the board of any such district, being the district of a local board of health, may, if they think fit, determine that this Act shall be adopted for such district ⁽⁴⁾, and then and in such case such of the provisions of this Act as are applicable in that behalf shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in such district, and this Act shall be carried into execution in such district, in accordance with such provisions and the laws for the time being in force relating to such board.

7. Provided always, that the board shall give not less than twenty-eight nor more than forty-two days public notice of their intention to take into consideration the propriety of adopting this Act, and of the time and place for holding the meeting at which they will take it into consideration; and if there be presented to the board at that meeting a memorial in writing, signed by not less than one-tenth in value of the persons liable to be rated to a general district rate made by the board, and requesting the board to postpone such consideration until after the then next yearly day for the election of members of the board, then and in such case such consideration shall be postponed until after that day, and shall be entered on as soon after that day as the board think fit.

8. That the expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any such district, being the district of a local board of health in which the board shall have resolved to adopt this Act for their

⁽¹⁾ These words in italics have been repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

⁽²⁾ This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

⁽³⁾ The first part of this section was repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

⁽⁴⁾ See note to the title of this Act, ante.

district, shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the moneys from time to time carried to the credit of the district fund account of such district, and for that purpose the board may levy with and as part of the general district rate of such district, or by a separate rate to be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like manner and with the like powers and remedies in all respects as the general rate of such district, such sums of money as shall be from time to time necessary for defraying such expenses, and shall apply the same accordingly as if the expense of carrying this Act into execution were an expense necessarily incurred in carrying into effect the provisions of the Public Health Act, 1848 ⁽¹⁾; and the income arising from the lodging houses in any such district shall be paid to the credit of the district fund account thereof; and the board shall keep distinct accounts of their receipts, payments, credits, and liabilities with reference to the execution of this Act, to be called "The Lodging Houses Account."

9. That the board of any such district, being the place within the limits of any Act for the paving, lighting, watching, draining, or otherwise improving of such place, may, if they think fit, determine that this Act shall be adopted for such district ⁽²⁾, and then and in such case such of the provisions of this Act as are applicable in that behalf shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in such district, and this Act shall be carried into execution in such district in accordance with such provisions and the laws for the time being in force relating to such board.

10. Provided always, that the board shall give not less than twenty-eight days nor more than forty-two days public notice of their intention to take into consideration the propriety of adopting this Act, and of the time and place for holding the meeting at which they will take it into consideration; and if there be presented to the board at that meeting a memorial in writing, signed by not less than one tenth in value of the persons liable to be rated to an improvement rate made by the board, and requesting the board to postpone such consideration until after the then next yearly or other day for the election or appointment of members of the board, then and in such case such consideration shall be postponed until after that day, and shall be entered on as soon after that day as the board think fit.

11. Provided always, that in any case in which the major part in number of the members of the board of any such district are elected or appointed in any manner other than by or with the concurrence of the persons liable to be rated to improvement rates made by the board, the board shall not determine that this Act shall be adopted for the district, except with the sanction of the major part in value of the persons so liable present at a meeting specially convened for the purpose by the board, by not less than twenty-eight days nor more than forty-two days public notice of the intention of holding such meeting, and of the time and place for holding the same; and such meeting shall be held at such convenient place within the district, and at such convenient time, as the board think fit; and the procedure thereat shall be regulated by the board.

12. That the expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any such district, being the place within the limits of any such improvement Act in which the board shall have resolved to adopt this Act for their district, shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the improvement rate of such district, and for that purpose the board may levy with and as part of such improvement rate, or by a separate rate to be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like manner and with the like powers and remedies in all respects as such improvement rate, such sums of money as shall be from time to time necessary for defraying such expenses, and shall apply the same accordingly as if the expenses of carrying this Act into execution were an expense necessarily incurred in carrying into effect the general provisions of such improvement Act; and the income arising from the lodging-houses in any such district shall be paid to the credit of the improvement rate thereof; and the board shall keep distinct accounts of their receipts, payments, credits, and liabilities with reference to the execution of this Act, to be called "The Lodging Houses Account."

13. That in every case in which any such improvement Act contains provisions for the auditing of accounts thereunder, the accounts of the board with respect to this Act shall be audited in accordance with those provisions ⁽³⁾; and in every case in which any such improvement Act does not contain any such provisions, the accounts of the board with respect to this Act shall be audited yearly by the poor law auditor within whose district the district of the board lies;

Secs. 8—13.

tion by local board of health shall be charged on the district fund, and income arising to be carried to the same.

Any improvement board may adopt the provisions of this Act if they think fit.

On requisition of ratepayers board to postpone proceedings till after next day for election of members of board.

If majority of board not elected by ratepayers, consent of ratepayers to be obtained.

Expenses of carrying this Act into execution by improvement commissioners shall be charged on general improvement rate, and income arising to be carried to the same.

Auditing accounts of improvement commissioners with respect to Act.

⁽¹⁾ The Public Health Act, 1848, was repealed by section 343 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 224. By section 313 of the latter Act, ante, p. 215, sections 207, et seq., ante, p. 157, et seq., would seem to apply.

⁽²⁾ See section 10 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 51, by which urban authorities may adopt this Act.

⁽³⁾ But see the last clause of section 247 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 180.

Secs. 13-23.

and the board shall produce to him their accounts, with sufficient vouchers for all moneys received and paid, and he shall examine such accounts and vouchers, and report thereon to the board, and every such report shall be open at all reasonable times without charge to the inspection of every person liable to be rated to an improvement rate made by the board.

On the requisition of ten ratepayers, churchwardens, &c. to convene vestry meeting, to determine whether this Act shall be adopted.

If vestry resolve to adopt the Act, a copy of resolution to be sent to Secretary of State, &c.

Resolution not deemed to be carried unless two-thirds vote for it.

Where Act adopted vestry to appoint commissioners for carrying the same into execution.

Resignation of commissioners.

Vacancies to be filled up by vestry.

Meetings of the commissioners.

Special meetings of commissioners.

Quorum of meetings of commissioners.

Commissioners may appoint and remove officers, &c.

Minutes of proceedings of commissioners to be entered in books.

Commissioners to keep accounts, which shall be open to inspection.

Penalty for refusing to allow inspection.

14. That, upon the requisition in writing of ten or more ratepayers of any such parish as aforesaid, the churchwardens or other persons to whom it belongs to convene meetings of the vestry in such parish shall convene a meeting of the vestry for the special purpose of determining whether this Act shall be adopted for the parish, after public notice of such vestry, and the place and hour of holding the same, and the special purpose thereof, given in the usual manner in which notice of the meetings of the vestry is given, in each of three successive weeks before the day to be appointed for holding such vestry; and if thereupon it shall be resolved by the vestry that this Act ought to be adopted for the parish, a copy of such resolution, extracted from the minutes of the vestry, and signed by the chairman, shall be sent to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, for his approval, and as soon as such approval shall have been signified in writing under the hand of any such Secretary of State such of the provisions of this Act as are applicable in that behalf shall thenceforth take effect and come into operation in the parish: Provided always, that such resolution of the vestry shall not be deemed to be carried unless at least two-thirds in value of the votes given on the question, according to the usual manner of voting at such vestry, shall have been given for such resolution.

15. That in such case the vestry shall appoint not less than three nor more than seven persons, being ratepayers of the parish, commissioners for carrying this Act into execution in the parish, of whom one-third, or as nearly as may be one-third (to be determined among themselves), shall go out of office yearly (the year being reckoned from and exclusive of the day of the first appointment of commissioners), but shall be eligible for immediate re-appointment.

16. That any commissioner may at any time resign his office as a commissioner, on giving seven days notice in writing of his intention to resign, to the clerk, and also to the churchwardens.

17. That any vacancies in the commissionership may be filled up by the vestry, when and as the vestry shall think fit, but at the latest at the then next yearly meeting for the appointment of commissioners.

18. That the commissioners shall meet at least once in every calendar month, and at such other times as they think fit, at their office, or some other convenient place, public notice of the times and place of meeting being previously given.

19. That it shall be at all times competent for any one commissioner, by writing under his hand, to summon, with at least forty-eight hours notice, the commissioners for any special purpose therein named, and to meet at such time as shall be therein named; and the commissioners may meet accordingly without further notice.

20. That at all meetings of the commissioners any number, not less than one-third of the whole number when more than three commissioners shall have been appointed, and when only three commissioners shall have been appointed, then any number not less than two commissioners, shall be a sufficient number for transacting business, and for exercising all the powers of the commissioners.

21. That the commissioners, with the approval of the vestry, may appoint reasonable salaries, wages, and allowances for a clerk and such other officers and servants as shall be necessary for the purposes of this Act, and shall appoint and may remove at pleasure such clerk, officers, and servants, and, when necessary, may hire and rent a sufficient office for holding their meetings and transacting their business, and may agree for and pay a reasonable rent for such office.

22. That all orders and proceedings of the commissioners shall be entered in books to be kept by them for that purpose, and shall be signed by the commissioners or any two of them; and all such orders and proceedings, so entered, and purporting to be so signed, shall be deemed to be original orders and proceedings, and such books may be produced and read as evidence of all such orders and proceedings upon any appeal, trial, information, or other proceeding, civil or criminal, and in any court of law or equity whatsoever.

23. That the commissioners shall provide and keep books in which shall be entered true and regular accounts of all sums of money received and paid for or on account of the purposes of this Act in the parish, and of all liabilities incurred by them for such purposes, and of the several purposes for which such sums of money shall have been paid and such liabilities shall have been incurred; and such books shall at all reasonable times be open to the examination of every commissioner, churchwarden, overseer, and ratepayer, without fee or reward, and they respectively may take copies of or extracts from such books or any part thereof, without paying for the same; and in case the commissioners or any of them, or any of their officers or servants, having the custody of such books, being thereunto reasonably requested, shall refuse to permit or shall not permit any churchwarden, overseer, or ratepayer to examine the same, or to take any such copy or extract, every commissioner, officer, or servant so offending shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds. Secs. 23-29.

24. That the vestry shall yearly appoint two persons, not being commissioners, to be auditors of the accounts of the commissioners; and at such time in the month of March in every year after the adoption of this Act for the parish as the vestry shall appoint, the commissioners shall produce to the auditors their accounts, with sufficient vouchers for all moneys received and paid, and the auditors shall examine such accounts and vouchers, and report thereon to the vestry: Provided always, that if the general accounts of the parish be audited by a poor law auditor, the accounts of the commissioners shall be audited by such poor law auditor. Auditors to be appointed yearly, who shall examine the accounts and report to vestries.

25. That the expenses of carrying this Act into execution in any parish to such amount as shall be from time to time sanctioned by the vestry shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the moneys to be raised or applicable for the relief of the poor of the parish; provided always, that the vestry shall be convened in the manner usual in the parish, and the amount for the time being proposed to be raised or applied for such expenses shall be expressed in the notice convening the vestry. Expenses of executing Act in any parish to be paid out of the poor's rate.

26. That for defraying the expenses so sanctioned the vestry may and shall from time to time order the overseers to levy with and as part of the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish such sums as the vestry shall deem necessary, and the amount thereof shall accordingly be assessed, levied, paid, and recovered in like manner, and with the like powers and remedies in all respects, as such rate, and shall be paid by the overseers, according to the order of the vestry, to such person as shall be appointed by the commissioners to receive the same, and his receipt shall be a sufficient discharge to the overseers for the same, and shall be allowed accordingly in passing their accounts: Provided always, that in the notices requiring the payment of the rate the proportion which the amount to be thereby raised for the purposes of this Act shall bear to the total amount to be thereby raised shall be stated as accurately as circumstances may admit. Overseers to levy as part of the poor's rate such sums as vestry shall deem necessary to pay expenses.

27. That the money raised for defraying the expenses of carrying this Act into execution, and the income arising from the lodging houses in the parish, shall be applied by the commissioners in or towards defraying the expenses of carrying this Act into execution in the parish; and whenever, after repayment of all moneys borrowed for the purpose of carrying this Act into execution in the parish, and the interest thereof, and after satisfying all the liabilities of the commissioners with reference to the execution of this Act in the parish, and providing such a balance as shall be deemed by the commissioners sufficient to meet their probable liabilities during the then next year, there shall be at the time of holding the meeting of the vestry at which the yearly report of the auditors shall be produced any surplus money at the disposal of the commissioners, they shall pay the same to the overseers, in aid of the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish. Moneys raised, and the income arising from lodging houses in the parish, to be applied towards defraying expenses.

28. That the vestries of any two or more neighbouring parishes having, according to the then last census, an aggregate population of not less than ten thousand may, for the purpose of concurring in carrying this Act into execution, respectively adopt this Act in like manner as if the population of each of those parishes were, according to the then last census, not less than ten thousand; and the vestries of any two or more neighbouring parishes which shall have respectively adopted this Act may concur in carrying this Act into execution in such parishes, in such manner, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, and for such time, as they shall mutually agree; and for that purpose it may, with the approval of such Secretary of State, be agreed on between such vestries that any lodging houses shall be erected and made in any one of such parishes, to be vested in the commissioners thereof, and that the expenses of carrying this Act into execution with reference to the same shall be borne by such parishes in such proportions as such vestries shall mutually agree, and the proportion for each of such parishes of such expenses shall be chargeable upon and paid out of the moneys to be raised for the relief of the poor of the same respective parish accordingly; and, according and subject to the terms which shall have been so agreed on, the commissioners appointed for each of such parishes shall in the management of the said lodging houses form one body of commissioners, and shall act accordingly in the execution of this Act; and the accounts and vouchers of such commissioners shall be examined and reported on by the auditors of each of such parishes, and the surplus money at the disposal as aforesaid of such commissioners shall be paid to the overseers of such parishes respectively, in the same proportions as those in which such parishes shall be liable to such expenses. Vestries of two or more parishes may concur in carrying this Act into execution, subject to the approval of Secretary of State.

29. That for the more easy execution of the purposes of this Act the commissioners of every such parish shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, which shall not be deemed to be interrupted by any partial or total vacancy from time to time in their office, by the name of "The Commissioners for Lodging Houses in the Parish of () in the County of ()", and by that name may sue and be sued in all courts, and before all justices Incorporation of commissioners.

Secs. 29–36. and others, and may have and use a common seal, and by that name may take, hold, and convey any lands vested in them for the purposes of this Act.

Acts of commissioners to be good notwithstanding informalities.

Councils, &c. may borrow money for the purposes of the Act, with the approval of the Treasury.

Certain provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 16, incorporated with this Act.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18, incorporated with this Act.

In boroughs the council may appropriate, with consent of the Treasury, lands vested in the mayor, &c.

In parishes the commissioners may, with the approval of vestry, &c., appropriate lands belonging to parish; or contract for purchase of the same.

Councils and commissioners may erect lodging houses.

30. That all acts and proceedings of any person in possession of the office of such commissioner, and acting in good faith as such commissioner, shall, notwithstanding his disqualification or want of qualification for, or any defect or irregularity in, or in any way concerning his appointment to such office, be as valid and effectual as if he were duly qualified, or there had not been any such defect or irregularity.

31. That for carrying this Act into execution in any borough, district, or parish respectively, the council, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the board, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the commissioners, with the sanction of the vestry, and also with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from time to time borrow, at interest, on the security of a mortgage, as the case may be, of the borough fund, or of the general district rates, or of the improvement rates, or of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, the money which may be by them respectively required, and shall apply the moneys so borrowed accordingly⁽¹⁾.

32. [The Public Works Loan Commissioners may advance money for the purposes of this Act⁽²⁾.]

33. That the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the borrowing of money by any company on mortgage⁽³⁾, and the provisions of the same Act with respect to the accountability of the officers of the company, and the provisions of the same Act with respect to the making of byelaws, subject to the provision hereinafter contained, and the provisions of the same Act with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and penalties, so far as such provisions may respectively be applicable to the purposes of this Act, shall be respectively incorporated with this Act; and the expressions in such provisions applicable to the company and the directors shall apply, as regards a borough, to the council, and as regards a parish, to the commissioners; and all deeds and writings which under such provisions are required or directed to be made or executed under the common seal of the company shall, in the application of such provisions to this Act, be deemed to be required or directed to be made or executed, as regards a borough, under the common seal of the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses; and, as regards a parish, under the common seal of the commissioners; and so much of such provisions as are applicable to the secretary of the company shall apply to the clerk; and in such of the said provisions as relate to the inspection of accounts, as regards a borough, the burgesses, and, as regards a parish, the ratepayers, shall have the privileges of shareholders.

34. The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be incorporated with this Act⁽⁴⁾: Provided always, that the council, the board, and the commissioners respectively shall not purchase or take any lands otherwise than by agreement⁽⁵⁾.

35. That in any such borough the council, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may from time to time appropriate for the purposes of this Act in the borough any lands vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses; and in any such district the board may from time to time appropriate for the purposes of this Act in the district any lands vested in the board or at the disposal of the board; and in any such parish the commissioners appointed under this Act, with the approval of the vestry and of the guardians of the poor of the parish (if any), and of the poor law board, may from time to time appropriate for the purposes of this Act in the parish any lands vested in such guardians, or in the churchwardens, or in the churchwardens and overseers of the parish, or in any feoffees, trustees, or others, for the general benefit of the parish; and in any such parish the commissioners, and in any such borough the council, and in any such district the board, may from time to time, with the like approval, contract for the purchasing or renting of any lands necessary for the purposes of this Act; and the property therein shall be vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses in the case of a borough, or in the board in the case of a district, or in the commissioners in the case of a parish⁽⁶⁾.

36. That the council and board and commissioners respectively may from time to time, on any lands so appropriated, purchased, or rented, or contracted so to be, respectively, erect any buildings suitable for lodging houses for the labouring classes, and convert any buildings into lodging houses for the labouring classes, and may from time to time alter, enlarge, repair, an

(1) Portions of this section have been repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

(2) This section has been repealed by section 1 of the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 66.

(3) See sections 38, et seq. of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

(4) See the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ante, p. 894.

(5) See sections 6–15 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ante, pp. 896–899.

(6) A portion of this section, repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, is omitted.

improve the same respectively, and fit up, furnish, and supply the same respectively with all requisite furniture, fittings, and conveniences. Secs. 36-42.

37. That the council and board and commissioners respectively may from time to time enter into any contract with any persons or companies for building and making, and for altering, enlarging, repairing, and improving, such lodging houses, and for supplying the same respectively with water, and for lighting the same respectively, and for fitting up the same respectively, and for furnishing any materials and things, and for executing and doing any other works and things necessary for the purpose of this Act, which contracts respectively shall specify the several works and things to be executed, furnished, and done, and the prices to be paid for the same, and the times when the works and things are to be executed, furnished, and done, and the penalties to be suffered in cases of nonperformance; and all such contracts, or true copies thereof, shall be entered in the books to be kept for that purpose: provided always, that a contract above the value or sum of one hundred pounds shall not be entered into by the council or the board or the commissioners for the purposes of this Act unless previous to the making thereof fourteen days notice shall be given in one or more of the public newspapers published in the county in which the borough or district or parish shall be situated expressing the intention of entering into such contract, in order that any person willing to undertake the same may make proposals for that purpose, to be offered to the council or board or commissioners at a certain time and place in such notice to be mentioned; but it shall not be incumbent on the council or board or commissioners to accept any of the proposals so offered.

Councils and commissioners may enter into contracts for the purposes of this Act.

No contract above 100l. to be entered into without notice.

38. That the council of any such borough, and the board of any such district, and the commissioners, with such approval as is by this Act required with respect to the purchasing or renting in any other case of any lands necessary for the purposes of this Act, may, if they shall think fit, contract for the purchase or lease of any lodging houses for the labouring classes already or hereafter to be built and provided in any such borough or district or parish, and appropriate the same to the purposes of this Act, with such additions or alterations as they shall respectively deem necessary; and the trustees of any lodging houses for the labouring classes which have been already or may hereafter be provided in any such borough or district or parish, by private subscriptions or otherwise, may, with the consent of the council of any such borough, or with the consent of the board of any such district, or with the consent of the commissioners, and with the like approval, and with the consent of a majority of the committee or other persons by whom they were appointed trustees, sell or lease the said lodging houses to the said council or board or commissioners respectively, or make over to them the management of such lodging houses; and in all such cases the lodging houses so purchased or leased, or of which the management has been so made over, shall be deemed to be within the provisions of this Act, as fully as if they had been built or provided by the council or board or commissioners, and the property therein shall be vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses in the case of a borough, or in the board in the case of a district, or in the commissioners in the case of a parish ⁽¹⁾.

Council or commissioners may purchase existing lodging houses.

39. That any commissioners of waterworks, trustees of waterworks, water companies, gas companies, and other corporations, bodies, and persons having the management of any waterworks, reservoirs, wells, springs, and streams of water, and gasworks respectively, may, in their discretion, grant and furnish supplies of water or gas for such lodging houses, either without charge or on such other favourable terms as they shall think fit.

Power to water and gas companies to supply water and gas to lodging houses.

40. That anything in this Act contained shall not render any member of the council of any borough, or any member of any such board, or any commissioner, personally, or any of their lands, goods, chattels, or moneys, (other than such lands, goods, chattels, or moneys as may be vested in or under the management or control of the council or board or commissioners respectively in pursuance of this Act), liable to the payment of any sum of money as or by way of compensation or satisfaction for or in respect of anything done or suffered in due pursuance of this Act.

Councillors and commissioners not to be personally liable.

41. That every person who shall feel aggrieved by any bye-law, order, direction, or appointment of or by the council or board or commissioners shall have the like power of appeal to the general quarter sessions as under the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 ⁽²⁾, incorporated with this Act, he might have, if feeling aggrieved by any determination of any justice with respect to any penalty.

Persons may appeal against orders of councils and commissioners.

42. That the council, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the board, and the commissioners appointed under this Act, with the approval of the vestry and of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury respectively, may from time to time make sale and dispose of any lands vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or in the board, or in the

Council, &c., empowered to make sale and exchange of lands, with consent

⁽¹⁾ This section is printed as amended by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

⁽²⁾ See sections 159, 160, of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, 8 Vict. c. 16.

Secs. 42-51. commissioners respectively, for the purposes of this Act, and apply the proceeds, or a sufficient part thereof, in or towards the purchase of other lands better adapted for such purposes, and may, with the like approval, exchange any lands so vested, and either with or without paying or receiving any money for equality of exchange, for any other lands better adapted for such purposes, and the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or the board, or the commissioners, may convey the lands so sold or exchanged accordingly⁽¹⁾.

When lodging houses are considered too expensive, they may, with approval of Treasury, be sold, and proceeds of sale carried to borough fund or poor's rate.

43. That whenever any lodging houses which shall have been for seven years or upwards established under the authority of this Act shall be determined by the council, or by the board, or by the vestry, in accordance with a previous recommendation of the commissioners, to be unnecessary or too expensive to be kept up, the council or commissioners, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may sell the same for the best price that can reasonably be obtained for the same, and the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses, or the board, or the commissioners, shall convey the same accordingly, and the purchase money shall be paid to such person as the council or board or commissioners shall appoint, and his receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the same, and the net proceeds of such sale shall be applied in the first instance in or towards payment or satisfaction of all the debts, liabilities, and engagements whatsoever, with respect to the purposes of this Act, of the council, the board or the commissioners, and the surplus, if any, of such net proceeds paid to the credit of the borough fund, or of the general district rate, or of the improvement rate, or of the rate for the relief of the poor of the parish.

Commissioners to cease to be a corporation when their duties have ceased.

44. Provided always, that whenever by reason of the sale of all the lodging houses provided under this Act for a parish, and the application as by this Act required of the net proceeds of such sale, and the performance of all other the duties under this Act of the commissioners for the parish, or by any other reason, it becomes needless for the commissioners for a parish to continue to be a corporation, such commissioners shall thereupon cease to be a corporation, and their office as commissioners for the parish shall thereupon cease, and this Act shall thereupon cease to be in force in the parish, but nevertheless this Act may thereafter be adopted for the parish.

Management to be vested in council and parish commissioners.

45. That the general management, regulation, and control of the lodging houses established under this Act shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be, as to any borough, vested in and exercised by the council, and as to any district vested in and exercised by the board, and as to any parish vested in and exercised by the commissioners.

Council, &c., may make bye-laws for regulating the lodging houses.

46. That the bye-laws which the council and board and commissioners respectively may from time to time make, alter, repeal, and enforce shall include such bye-laws for the management, use, and regulation of the lodging houses, and of the tenants or occupiers, thereof, and for determining from time to time the charges for the tenancy or occupation of the lodging houses, as the council and board and commissioners respectively shall think fit, and they respectively may appoint any penalty not exceeding five pounds for any and every breach, whether by their officers or servants or by other persons, of any bye-law made by them respectively, and such bye-law shall make sufficient provision for the several purposes respectively expressed in the schedule to this Act: provided always, that a bye-law made under the authority of this Act shall not be of any legal force until the same shall have received the approval of one of her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State.

Byelaws to be approved by the Secretary of State.

47. That a printed copy or sufficient abstract of the bye-laws relating to the management, use, and regulation of the lodging houses shall be put up and at all times kept in every room therein.

Bye-laws to be hung up in every room in the lodging houses.

48. That the council and the board and the commissioners respectively may from time to time make such reasonable charges for the tenancy or occupation of the lodging houses provided under this Act as they shall think fit.

Charges for occupation, &c. to be fixed by councils and commissioners. As to tenants of lodging houses receiving parochial relief.

49. That any person who, or whose wife or husband, at any time while such person is a tenant or occupier of any such lodging house or any part of such a lodging house, receives any such relief, other than such relief granted on account only of accident or temporary illness, shall thereupon be disqualified for continuing to be such a tenant or occupier.

Lodging-houses to be open to inspection of local boards of health.

50. That every lodging house established under this Act which shall be within the district of a local board of health shall at all times be open to the inspection of such board, and the officers thereof from time to time authorised by such board to make such inspection.

Penalty on council, commissioners, or officers taking fees beyond

51. That if any clerk or other officer or any servant who shall be in anywise employed by any council or board or commissioners in pursuance of this Act shall exact or accept any fee or reward whatsoever for or on account of anything done or forborne, or to be done or forborne, in pursuance of this Act, or on any account whatsoever relative to putting this Act into execution, other than such salaries, wages, or allowances as shall have been appointed by the council or board or commissioners, or shall in anywise be concerned or interested in any bargain or contract made by the council or board or commissioners for or on account of anything done or forborne, or to be done or forborne, in pursuance of this Act, or on any account whatsoever relative to the putting of this Act into execution, or if any person during the time he holds the office of member of the council, or member of the board, or commissioner, shall exact or accept any such fee or reward, or shall accept or hold any office or place of trust created by virtue of this Act, or be concerned directly or indirectly in any such bargain or contract, every such person so offending shall be incapable of ever serving or being employed under this Act, and shall for every such offence also forfeit not exceeding the sum of fifty pounds.

(1) A portion of this section, repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875, is omitted.

Secs. 51, 52.

salaries, or being interested in contracts.

52. That such part of any penalty recovered under this Act as shall not be awarded to the informer shall be paid to the credit, as regards a borough, of the borough fund, and, as regards a district, of the general district rate thereof or the improvement rate thereof, and, as regards a parish, of the rate for the relief of the poor thereof.

Application of penalties.

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE referred to by the foregoing Act.

1. Bye-laws to be made in all cases.

For securing that the lodging houses shall be under the management and control of the officers, servants, or others appointed or employed in that behalf by the council or board or commissioners.

For securing the due separation at night of men, and boys above eight years old, from women and girls.

For preventing damage, disturbance, interruption, and indecent and offensive language and behaviour, and nuisances.

For determining the duties of the officers, servants, and others appointed by the council or board or commissioners.

2. Bye-laws to be made in boroughs, districts, and parishes wholly or partially within the districts of local boards of health.

For carrying out the regulations of the local boards of health.

3. Bye-laws to be made in parishes.

For regulating the procedure of the commissioners.

LABOURING CLASSES DWELLING HOUSES ACT, 1866.

29 VICT. c. 28.

An Act to enable the Public Works Loan Commissioners to make advances towards the erection of Dwellings for the Labouring Classes (1). [18th May, 1866.]

2. This Act shall be deemed to be incorporated with and shall be taken as part of "The Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Act, 1851," and the two Acts shall be read and construed together as if they were one Act.

Section 2.

Act incorporated with 14 & 15 Vict.
c. 54.

(1) See the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89, ante, p. 1216.

By section 6 of the Public Works Loans Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 77, the Public Works Loan Commissioners may lend to any company established for the purpose of constructing or improving dwellings for the labouring classes, any sums to be applied towards the construction of dwellings suitable for the labouring classes, and towards the purchase of land for that purpose, and every sum so lent is to be repaid within fifteen years from the time of the advance, with interest thereon at such rate not less than three and a half per cent. per annum, as may be agreed on between the commissioners and the borrower. Every sum so advanced shall be advanced in accordance with the Public Works Loan Commissioners Act, 1875.

By section 11 of the Public Works Loans Act, 1881, 44 & 45 Vict. c. 38, any company, society, or association established for the purpose of constructing or improving dwellings for the labouring classes, shall be deemed to be and always to have been a company, society, or association, to which a loan may be made in pursuance of the Labouring Classes Dwelling Houses Act, 1866, and the period and rate of interest may be such as is mentioned either in the Act, or in section 6 of the Public Works Loans Act, 1879, with respect to the like loans by the Public Works Loan Commissioners.

Secs. 3, 4.

Application of 24 & 25 Vict.
c. 80 to this Act.

Authorities and persons to whom loans may be made.

18 & 19 Vict.
c. 121.

Objects of loans.

Rules and regulations.

Currency of loans.

3. All the clauses, powers, authorities, provisoes, enactments, directions, regulations, restrictions, privileges, priorities, advantages, penalties, and forfeitures contained in and conferred and imposed by the Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty, "Public Works and Harbours Act" ⁽¹⁾, and the Acts therein referred to, or any of them, so far as the same can be made applicable and are not varied by this Act, shall be taken to extend to this Act, and to everything to be done in pursuance of this Act, and as if the same were herein repeated and set forth.

4. For the purpose hereinafter mentioned, the Public Works Loan Commissioners, as defined by the said Act of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Her Majesty ⁽²⁾, may out of the funds for the time being at their disposal from time to time advance on loan to any such local or other authority as hereinafter mentioned, namely,

Any council, board, or commissioners authorised to carry into execution "The Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Act, 1851 ;"

Any local or other authority invested with powers of town or local government and rating under any public general or any local Act; by whatever name such local or other authority may be called ;

Any local authority acting under the "Nuisances Removal Act, 1855" ⁽³⁾, or any Act or Acts amending the same ; or to any such body or proprietor as hereinafter mentioned, namely,

Any railway company, or dock or harbour company, or any other company, society, or association established for the purposes of this Act or for trading or manufacturing purposes ;

Any private person entitled to any land for an estate in fee simple, or for any term of years absolute, whereof not less than fifty years shall for the time being remain unexpired ;

And any such local or other authority, or any such body or proprietor, may from time to time borrow from the Public Works Loan Commissioners such money as may be required for the purpose of this Act ⁽⁴⁾, subject and according to the following provisions :

1. Such advance on loan shall be made for the purpose of assisting in the purchase of land and buildings, or in the erection, alteration, and adaptation of buildings to be used as dwellings for the labouring classes, and in providing all conveniences which may be deemed proper in connection with such dwellings :

2. Any such advance may be made whether the local or other authority or body or proprietor receiving the same has or has not power to borrow on mortgage or otherwise, independently of this Act ; but nothing in this Act contained shall repeal or alter any regulation, statutory or otherwise, whereby any company may be restricted from borrowing until a definite portion of capital is subscribed for, taken, or paid up :

3. No sum shall be advanced without the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury of the borrowing thereof, signified by some writing under the hand of one of their secretaries or assistant secretaries :

4. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to make such rules and regulations as they shall from time to time think proper with respect to applications for advances under this Act, and the terms and conditions upon which such advances are to be made, and to issue such instructions and forms as they may think proper for the guidance of and observance by persons applying for or receiving loans, or executing works, or rendering accounts of moneys expended under this Act ; or regarding the class of dwellings towards the providing of which such loans may be made, and the adaptation thereof to the purposes intended, and as to the mode of providing for their maintenance, repair, and insurance :

5. The period for the repayment of the sums advanced shall not exceed forty years :

6. The repayment of the money advanced, with interest thereon at such rate as shall be agreed upon, but not at a less rate than four pounds per centum per annum, shall be secured as follows ; namely, in the case of an advance to any such local or other authority as aforesaid, either by a mortgage solely of the rates leviable by such authority, or by such other

⁽¹⁾ This Act was repealed by section 57 of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89, post, p. 1228. See sections 55, 9, 49, and Sched. I. of that Act, post, pp. 1228, 1218, 1227 and 1229.

⁽²⁾ Now the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, 38 & 39 Vict. c. 89, see the preceding note. See also the note to the title of this Act, ante, p. 1251.

⁽³⁾ This Act was repealed, except as to the metropolis, by section 343 of the Public Health Act, 1875, ante, p. 224.

⁽⁴⁾ These loans will now be made according to the provisions of the Public Works Loans Act, 1875, by section 50 of that Act, ante, p. 1227. Labourer's dwellings are included in the works enumerated in Sched. I. of that Act, for the purpose of which the commissioners may lend money. See also the note to the title to this Act.

mortgage as hereinafter mentioned, or by both; and in any other case by a mortgage of the estate or interest of any such local or other authority, or of any such body or proprietor as aforesaid, in the land or dwellings for the purposes of which the advance is made⁽¹⁾; and in the case of an advance to a company any part of whose capital remains uncalled up or unpaid, by a mortgage also of all capital so remaining uncalled up or unpaid; and any such mortgage as aforesaid may be taken either alone or together with any other security which may be agreed upon; but it shall not be incumbent on the Public Works Loan Commissioners to require any other security:

Secs. 4—8.

7. No money shall be advanced on mortgage of any land or dwellings solely, unless the estate therein proposed to be mortgaged shall be either an estate in fee simple or an estate for a term of years absolute, whereof not less than fifty years shall be unexpired at the date of the advance:
8. The money advanced on the security of a mortgage of any land or dwellings solely shall not exceed one moiety of the value, to be ascertained to the satisfaction of the Public Works Loan Commissioners, of the estate or interest in such land or dwellings proposed to be mortgaged; but advances may be made by instalments from time to time as the building of the dwellings on the land mortgaged progresses, so that the total advance do not at any time exceed the amount aforesaid; and a mortgage may be accordingly made to secure such advances so to be made from time to time:
9. For the purposes of this Act every such local or other authority or body as aforesaid is hereby authorised to purchase, take, and hold land, and if not already a body corporate shall, for the purpose of holding such land under this Act, and of suing and being sued in respect thereof, be nevertheless deemed a body corporate with perpetual succession.
5. The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845⁽²⁾, and the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and any Act amending the same, except the clauses in the said Acts respectively with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, shall be incorporated with this Act, and for the purposes of those Acts this Act shall be deemed the special Act; and any such local or other authority or body or proprietor as aforesaid exercising the powers of this Act shall be deemed the promoters of the undertaking. Incorporation of 8 & 9 Vict. cc. 18 and 19 with this Act.
6. The clauses of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the mortgages to be executed by the commissioners⁽³⁾, except so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions of the said Act of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty⁽⁴⁾, or of any of the Acts therein recited, shall be incorporated with this Act; and in the construction of this Act and of the said incorporated clauses this Act shall be deemed the special Act; and the local or other authority, or the body or proprietor, to whom the loan is made, shall be deemed to be the commissioners; but the said incorporated clauses shall not, so far as they prescribe the manner of executing mortgages, or so far as they require a register to be kept of mortgages, or transfers of mortgages, apply to any mortgage made under this Act by any proprietor being a private person; and all mortgages executed by any proprietor being a private person shall be executed in the usual manner. Incorporation of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16 with this Act.
7. Every mortgage under this Act shall confer on the mortgagee thereunder for the time being all the rights, powers, and privileges conferred on mortgagees by Part II. of the Act of the session of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-five, intituled "An Act to give to Trustees, Mortgagees, and others certain Powers now commonly inserted in Settlements, Mortgages, and Wills;" and any such mortgage may confer on the mortgagee such further powers of sale and other powers, and may also contain all such covenants and provisions, as may be agreed upon; and nothing contained in this Act or in any clauses incorporated in the "Labouring Classes Lodging Houses Act, 1851," or in this Act, shall be deemed to limit or prevent the enforcement of any rights or remedies which, at law or in equity or by statute, may be otherwise incidental to any such mortgage, either under the Acts relating to the Public Works Loan Commissioners, or otherwise. Special powers of mortgagees.
8. Any railway company, or dock or harbour company, or any other company, society, or association, established for trading or manufacturing purposes in the course of whose business or in the discharge of whose duties persons of the labouring class are employed, may and are hereby (notwithstanding any Act of Parliament, or charter, or any rule of law or equity to the contrary) Powers to companies.

(1) By section 2 of the Labouring Classes Dwelling Houses Act, 1867, post, p. 1265, the words in this section "land or dwellings for the purposes of which the advance is made," include any land, buildings, or premises held together with and for the same estate and interest, as the lands, buildings, or premises, upon which the money advanced is to be expended.

(2) See the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, ante, p. 894.

(3) These clauses are sections 75—88 of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, ante, pp. 1077—1080.

(4) This Act has been repealed, see note to section 3, ante.

Secs. 8, 9. contrary) authorised at any time or from time to time to erect, either on their own land or on any other land (which they are hereby authorised to purchase and hold for the purpose, and to pay for out of any funds at their disposal), dwellings for the accommodation of all or any of the persons of the labouring class employed by them, and shall have all the like powers of borrowing and other powers which are hereinbefore conferred on any such body or proprietor as hereinbefore mentioned.

Rules to be laid before Parliament.

9. All rules and regulations made by the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury under the provisions of this Act shall be laid before Parliament.

LABOURING CLASSES DWELLING HOUSES ACT, 1867.

30 & 31 VICT. c. 28.

An Act to amend "The Labouring Classes Dwellings Acts, 1866."

[17th June, 1867.]

Secs. 2, 3.

Defining meaning of certain terms in 29 & 30
Vict. cc. 28 and 44.

2. In the fourth section of the "Labouring Classes Dwelling Houses Act, 1866," the words "land or dwellings for the purposes of which the advance is made," and in the twelfth section of the "Labouring Classes Lodging Houses and Dwellings Act (Ireland), 1866," the words "lands, buildings, or premises for the purpose of which such advance shall be made," shall respectively be construed to include any land, buildings, or premises held together with and for the same estate and interest as the lands, buildings, or premises upon which the money advanced is to be expended under the provisions of the said Acts respectively.

In case of advances to company, part of whose capital is unpaid, loan commissioners may dispense with mortgage

3. In the case of an advance under the provisions of either of the said Acts to a company or society, any part of whose capital remains uncalled up or unpaid, it shall be lawful, in England for the Public Works Loan Commissioners, and in Ireland for the Public Works Commissioners, to dispense with a mortgage of such capital remaining uncalled up or unpaid, or of such part thereof as they may think fit.

STATUTES RELATING TO MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

PARLIAMENTARY REGISTRATION ACT, 1843.

7 & 8 VICT. c. 18.

An Act to amend the Law for the Registration of Persons entitled to Vote, and to define certain rights of voting, and to regulate certain proceedings in the Election of Members to serve in Parliament for England and Wales.

[31st May, 1843.]

85. And for the more effectual detection of the personation of voters at elections, be it enacted that it shall be lawful for any candidate at any election of a member or members to serve in Parliament for any county, city, or borough, previous to the time fixed for taking the poll at such election to nominate and appoint an agent or agents on his behalf to attend at each or any of the booths appointed for taking the poll at such election for the purpose of detecting personation; and such candidates shall give notice in writing to the returning officer, or his respective deputy, of the name and address of the person or persons so appointed by him to act as agents for such purpose; and thereupon it shall be lawful for every such agent to attend during the time of polling at the booth or booths for which he shall have been so appointed. Secs. 85-87.

86. And be it enacted, that if at the time any person tenders his vote at such election, or after he has voted, and before he leaves the polling booth, any such agent so appointed as aforesaid shall declare to the returning officer, or his respective deputy presiding therein, that he verily believes and undertakes to prove that the said person so voting is not in fact the person in whose name he assumes to vote, or to the like effect, then and in every such case it shall be lawful for the said returning officer, or his said deputy, and he is hereby required immediately after such person shall have voted by word of mouth, to order any constable or other peace officer to take the said person so voting into his custody, which said order shall be a sufficient warrant and authority to the said constable or peace officer for so doing: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed or taken to authorise any returning officer, or his deputy, to reject the vote of any person who shall answer in the affirmative the questions authorised by this Act to be put to him at the time of polling, and shall take the oaths or make the affirmations authorised and required of him; but the said returning officer, or his deputy, shall cause the words, "protested against for personation," to be placed against the vote of the person so charged with personation when entered in the poll book.

87. And be it enacted, that every such constable or peace officer shall take the person so in his custody, at the earliest convenient time, before some two justices of the peace acting in and for the county, city, or borough within which the said person shall have so voted as aforesaid: Provided always, that in case the attendance of two such justices as aforesaid cannot be procured within the space of three hours after the close of the poll on the same day on which such person shall have been so taken into custody, it shall be lawful for the said constable or peace officer, and he is hereby required, at the request of such person so in his custody, to take him before any one justice of the peace acting as aforesaid, and such justice is hereby authorised and required to liberate such person on his entering into a recognizance with one sufficient surety, conditioned to appear before any two such justices as aforesaid, at a time and place to be specified in such recognizance, to answer the said charge, and if no such justice shall be found within four hours after the closing of the said poll, then such person shall forthwith be discharged

Secs. 87-89. from custody: Provided also, that if in consequence of the absence of such justices as aforesaid, or for any other cause, the said charge cannot be inquired into within the time aforesaid, it shall be lawful nevertheless for any two such justices as aforesaid to inquire into the same on the next or some other subsequent day, and, if necessary, to issue their warrant for the apprehension of the person so charged.

88. And be it enacted, that if on the hearing of the said charge the said two justices shall be satisfied, upon the evidence on oath of not less than two credible witnesses, that the said person so brought before them has knowingly personated and falsely assumed to vote in the name of some other person within the meaning of this Act, and is not, in fact, the person in whose name he voted, then it shall be lawful for the said two justices to commit the said offender to the gaol of the county, city, or borough within which the offence was committed, to take his trial according to law, and to bind over the witnesses in their respective recognizances to appear and give evidence on such trial, as in the case of other misdemeanours.

89. And be it enacted, that if the said justices shall, on the hearing of the said charge, be satisfied that the said person so charged with personation is really and in truth the person in whose name he voted, and that the charge of personation has been made against him without reasonable or just cause, or if the agent so declaring as aforesaid, or some one on his behalf shall not appear to support such charge before the said justices, then it shall be lawful for the said justices, and they are hereby required to make an order in writing under their hands, on the said agent so declaring as aforesaid, to pay to the said person so falsely charged (if he shall consent to accept the same) any sum not exceeding the sum of ten pounds nor less than five pounds, by way of damages and costs; and if the said sum shall not be paid within twenty-four hours after such order shall have been made, then the same shall be levied by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice of the peace acting as aforesaid, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the said agent, and in case no sufficient goods or chattels of the said agent can be found on which such levy can be made, then the same shall be levied in like manner on the goods and chattels of the candidate by whom such agent was so appointed to act; and in case the said sum shall not be paid or levied in the manner aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the said person to whom the said sum of money was so ordered to be paid to recover the same from the said agent or candidate, with full costs of suit in an action of debt to be brought in any one of Her Majesty's superior courts of record at Westminster: Provided always, that if the person so falsely charged shall have declared to the said justices his consent to accept such sum as aforesaid by way of damages and costs, and if the whole amount of the sum so ordered to be paid shall have been paid or tendered to such person in every such case, but not otherwise, the said agent, candidate, and every other person shall be released from all actions or other proceedings, civil or criminal, for or in respect of the said charge and apprehension.

THE BALLOT ACT, 1872⁽¹⁾.

35 & 36 VICT. c. 33.

An Act to amend the law relating to Procedure at Parliamentary and Municipal Elections.
[18th July, 1872.]

PART I.

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS.

Procedure at Elections.

Section 1.

Nomination of candidates for parliamentary elections.

1. A candidate for election to serve in Parliament for a county or borough shall be nominated in writing. The writing shall be subscribed by two registered electors of such county or borough as proposer and seconder, and by eight other registered electors of the same county or borough as assenting to the nomination, and shall be delivered during the time appointed for the election to the returning officer by the candidate himself, or his proposer or seconder.

If at the expiration of one hour after the time appointed for the election no more candidates stand nominated than there are vacancies to be filled up, the returning officer shall forthwith declare the candidates who may stand nominated to be elected, and return their names to the clerk of the crown in chancery; but if at the expiration of such hour more candidates stand nominated than there are vacancies to be filled up, the returning officer shall adjourn the election and shall take a poll in manner in this Act mentioned.

⁽¹⁾ See the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 58, ante, p. 285.

A candidate may, during the time appointed for the election, but not afterwards, withdraw from his candidature by giving a notice to that effect, signed by him, to the returning officer: Provided that the proposer of a candidate nominated in his absence out of the United Kingdom may withdraw such candidate by a written notice signed by him and delivered to the returning officer, together with a written declaration of such absence of the candidate ⁽¹⁾.

Secs. 1—3.

If after the adjournment of an election by the returning officer for the purpose of taking a poll one of the candidates nominated shall die before the poll has commenced, the returning officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of such death, countermand notice of the poll, and all the proceedings with reference to the election shall be commenced afresh in all respects as if the writ had been received by the returning officer on the day on which proof was given to him of such death; provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a candidate who stood nominated at the time of the countermand of the poll.

2. In the case of a poll at an election the votes shall be given by ballot. The ballot of each voter shall consist of a paper (in this Act called a ballot paper) showing the names and description of the candidates. Each ballot paper shall have a number printed on the back, and shall have attached a counterfoil with the same number printed on the face ⁽²⁾. At the time of voting, the ballot papers shall be marked on both sides with an official mark, and delivered to the voter within the polling station, and the number of such voter on the register of voters shall be marked on the counterfoil, and the voter having secretly marked his vote on the paper, and folded it up so as to conceal his vote, shall place it in a closed box in the presence of the officer presiding at the polling station (in this Act called "the presiding officer") after having shown to him the official mark at the back ⁽³⁾.

Poll at elections.

Any ballot paper which has not on its back the official mark, or on which votes are given to more candidates than the voter is entitled to vote for, or on which anything, except the said number on the back, is written or marked by which the voter can be identified, shall be void and not counted ⁽⁴⁾.

After the close of the poll the ballot boxes shall be sealed up so as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers, and shall be taken charge of by the returning officer, and that officer shall, in the presence of such agents, if any, of the candidates as may be in attendance, open the ballot boxes, and ascertain the result of the poll by counting the votes given to each candidate, and shall forthwith declare to be elected the candidates or candidate to whom the majority of votes have been given, and return their names to the clerk of the crown in chancery ⁽⁵⁾. The decision of the returning officer as to any question arising in respect of any ballot paper shall be final, subject to reversal on petition questioning the election or return.

Where an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates at an election for a county or borough, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of such candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer, if a registered elector of such county or borough, may give such additional vote, but shall not in any other case be entitled to vote at an election for which he is returning officer ⁽⁶⁾.

Offences at Elections.

3. Every person who,—(7).

- (1.) Forges or fraudulently defaces or fraudulently destroys any nomination paper, or delivers to the returning officer any nomination paper, knowing the same to be forged; or
- (2.) Forges or counterfeits or fraudulently defaces or fraudulently destroys any ballot paper, or the official mark on any ballot paper; or
- (3.) Without due authority supplies any ballot paper to any person; or
- (4.) Fraudulently puts into any ballot box any paper other than the ballot paper which he is authorised by law to put in; or
- (5.) Fraudulently takes out of the polling station any ballot paper; or
- (6.) Without due authority destroys, takes, opens, or otherwise interferes with any ballot box or packet of ballot papers then in use for the purposes of the election;

Offences in respect of nomination papers, ballot papers, and ballot boxes.

⁽¹⁾ As to nomination for election of councillors at municipal election, see the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, Third Schedule, Part II., ante, p. 356.

⁽²⁾ See Pickering v. Startin, 23 L. T. N. S. 111.

⁽³⁾ See Pickering v. James, L. R. 8 C. P. 489, 42 L. J. C. P. 217, 21 W. R. 786, 37 J. P. 679, S. C. nom.; Jones v. Pickering, 29 L. T. N. S. 210.

⁽⁴⁾ Woodward v. Sarsons, L. R. 10 C. P. 733, 44 L. J. C. P. 293, 32 L. T. N. S. 867.

⁽⁵⁾ No return shall be made as to municipal election. Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, Third Schedule, Part III. r. 6, ante, p. 358.

⁽⁶⁾ Does not apply to municipal election. Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, Third Schedule, Part III. r. 1, ante, p. 357.

⁽⁷⁾ As to municipal elections, see the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 74, ante, p. 288.

Secs. 3—5. shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable, if he is a returning officer or an officer or clerk in attendance at a polling station, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour, and if he is any other person, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

Any attempt to commit any offence specified in this section shall be punishable in the manner in which the offence itself is punishable.

In any indictment or other prosecution for an offence in relation to the nomination papers, ballot boxes, ballot papers, and marking instruments at an election, the property in such papers, boxes, and instruments may be stated to be in the returning officer at such election, as well as the property in the counterfoils.

Infringement of secrecy.

4. Every officer, clerk, and agent in attendance at a polling station shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting in such station, and shall not communicate, except for some purpose authorised by law, before the poll is closed, to any person any information as to the name or number on the register of voters of any elector who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at that station, or as to the official mark ⁽¹⁾, and no such officer, clerk, or agent, and no person whosoever, shall interfere with or attempt to interfere with a voter when marking his vote, or otherwise attempt to obtain in the polling station information as to the candidate for whom any voter in such station is about to vote or has voted, or communicate at any time to any person any information obtained in a polling station as to the candidate for whom any voter in such station is about to vote or has voted, or as to the number on the back of the ballot paper given to any voter at such station. Every officer, clerk, and agent in attendance at the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting, and shall not attempt to ascertain at such counting the number on the back of any ballot paper, or communicate any information obtained at such counting as to the candidate for whom any vote is given in any particular ballot paper. No person shall directly or indirectly induce any voter to display his ballot paper after he shall have marked the same, so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate for or against whom he has so marked his vote.

Every person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this section shall be liable, on summary conviction before two justices of the peace, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

Amendment of Law.

Division of counties and boroughs into polling districts.

5. [The local authority (as herein-after defined) of every county shall by order, as soon as may be practicable after the passing of this Act, divide such county into polling districts, and assign a polling place to each district, in such manner that, so far as is reasonably practicable, every elector resident in the county shall have a polling place within a distance not exceeding four miles from his residence, so, nevertheless, that a polling district need not in any case be constituted containing less than one hundred registered electors ⁽²⁾.]

The local authority (as herein-after defined) of every borough shall take into consideration the division of such borough into polling districts, and, if they think it desirable, by order, divide such borough into polling districts in such manner as they may think most convenient for taking the votes of the electors at a poll.

The local authority of every county and borough shall, on or before the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, send to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, to be laid by him before both Houses of Parliament, a copy of any order made by such authority in pursuance of this section, and a report, in such form as he may require, stating how far the provisions of this Act with respect to polling districts have been complied with in their county or borough; and if they make any order after the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, with respect to polling districts or polling places in their county or borough, they shall send a copy of such order to the said Secretary of State, to be laid by him before both Houses of Parliament.

The local authority of a county or borough in this section means the authority having power to divide such county or borough into polling districts under section thirty-four of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, and any enactments amending that section; and such authority shall exercise the powers thereby given to them for the purposes of this section; and the provisions of the said section as to the local authority of a borough constituted by the combination of two or more municipal boroughs shall apply to a borough constituted by the combination of a municipal borough and other places, whether municipal boroughs or not; and in the case of a borough of which a town council is not the local authority and which is not wholly situate within one petty sessional division, the justices of the peace for the county in which such borough or the larger part thereof in area is situate, assembled at some court of general or quarter sessions, or at some adjournment thereof, shall be the local authority thereof, and shall for this purpose have jurisdiction over the whole of such borough; and in the case of such borough and of a county, a court of general sessions shall be assembled within twenty-one days after the passing of this Act, and any such court may be assembled and adjourned from time to time for the purpose ⁽¹⁾.

⁽¹⁾ See Stannanought v. Hazeldine, L. R. 4 C. P. D. 191, 48 L. J. M. C. 89, 40 L. T. N. S. 589, 27 W. R. 620.

⁽²⁾ This paragraph is repealed by 46 & 47 Vict. c. 57, s. 66.

Secs. 5—10.

No election shall be questioned by reason of any non-compliance with this section or any informality relative to polling districts or polling places, and any order made by a local authority in relation to polling districts or polling places shall apply only to lists of voters made subsequently to its date, and to registers of voters formed out of such lists, and to elections held after the time at which a register of voters so formed has come into force: Provided that where any such order is made between the first day of July and the first day of November in any year, and does not create any new division between two or more polling districts of any parish for which a separate poor rate is or can be made, such order shall apply to the register of voters which comes into force next after such order is made, and to elections held after that register so comes into force; and the clerk of the peace or town clerk, as the case may be, shall copy, print, and arrange the lists of voters for the purpose of such register in accordance with such order.

6. [Use of school and public room for poll ⁽²⁾.]

7. At any election for a county or borough, a person shall not be entitled to vote unless his name is on the register of voters ⁽³⁾ for the time being in force for such county or borough, and every person whose name is on such register shall be entitled to demand and receive a ballot paper and to vote: Provided that nothing in this section shall entitle any person to vote who is prohibited from voting by any statute, or by the common law of Parliament, or relieve such person from any penalties to which he may be liable for voting.

Conclusiveness of register of voters.

Duties of Returning and Election Officers.

8. Subject to the provisions of this Act, every returning officer shall provide such nomination papers, polling stations, ballot boxes, ballot papers, stamping instruments, copies of register of voters, and other things, appoint and pay such officers, and do such other acts and things as may be necessary for effectually conducting an election in manner provided by this Act.

General powers and duties of returning officer.

All expenses properly incurred by any returning officer in carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, in the case of any parliamentary election, shall be payable in the same manner as expenses incurred in the erection of polling booths at such election are by law payable.

Where the sheriff is returning officer for more than one county as defined for the purposes of parliamentary elections, he may, without prejudice to any other power, by writing under his hand, appoint a fit person to be his deputy for all or any of the purposes relating to an election in any such county, and may, by himself or such deputy, exercise any powers and do any things which the returning officer is authorised or required to exercise or do in relation to such election. Every such deputy, and also any under sheriff, shall in so far as he acts as returning officer, be deemed to be included in the term returning officer in the provisions of this Act relating to parliamentary elections, and the enactments with which this part of this Act is to be construed as one.

9. If any person misconducts himself in the polling station, or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer, he may immediately, by order of the presiding officer, be removed from the polling station by any constable in or near that station, or any other person authorised in writing by the returning officer to remove him; and the person so removed shall not, unless with the permission of the presiding officer, again be allowed to enter the polling station during the day.

Keeping of order in station.

Any person so removed as aforesaid, if charged with the commission in such station of any offence, may be kept in custody until he can be brought before a justice of the peace.

Provided that the powers conferred by this section shall not be exercised so as to prevent any elector who is otherwise entitled to vote at any polling station from having an opportunity of voting at such station.

10. For the purpose of the adjournment of the poll, and of every other enactment relating to the poll, a presiding officer shall have the power by law belonging to a deputy returning officer; and any presiding officer and any clerk appointed by the returning officer to attend at a polling Powers of presiding officer and administration of oaths, &c.

(1) See Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 64, ante, p. 287.

(2) Does not apply to municipal election, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, Third Sched. Part III. r. 1, ante, p. 357.

(3) I.e., burgess roll; see First Schedule, r. 64, post, p. 1274.

Secs. 10-23. station shall have the power of asking the questions ⁽¹⁾ and administering the oath authorised by law to be asked of and administered to voters, and any justice of the peace and any returning officer may take and receive any declaration authorised by this Act to be taken before him.

Liability of officers for misconduct.

11. Every returning officer, presiding officer, and clerk who is guilty of any wilful misfeasance or any wilful act or omission in contravention of this Act shall, in addition to any other penalty or liability to which he may be subject, forfeit to any person aggrieved by such misfeasance, act, or omission a penal sum not exceeding one hundred pounds ⁽²⁾.

30 & 31 Vict. c. 102.

Section fifty of the Representation of the People Act, 1867 (which relates to the acting of any returning officer, or his partner or clerk, as an agent for a candidate), shall apply to any returning officer or officer appointed by him in pursuance of this Act, and to his partner or clerk.

Miscellaneous.

Prohibition of disclosure of vote.
Non-compliance with rules.

12. No person who has voted at an election shall, in any legal proceeding to question the election, or return, be required to state for whom he has voted ⁽³⁾.

13. No election shall be declared invalid by reason of a non-compliance with the rules contained in the First Schedule to this Act, or any mistake in the use of the forms in the Second Schedule to this Act, if it appears to the tribunal having cognizance of the question that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in the body of this Act, and that such non-compliance or mistake did not affect the result of the election.

Use of municipal ballot boxes, &c. for parliamentary election, and vice versa.

14. Where a parliamentary borough and municipal borough occupy the whole or any part of the same area, any ballot boxes or fittings for polling stations and compartments provided for such parliamentary borough or such municipal borough may be used in any municipal or parliamentary election in such borough free of charge, and any damage other than reasonable wear and tear caused to the same shall be paid as part of the expenses of the election at which they are so used.

Construction of Act.

15. This part of this Act shall, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, be construed as one with the enactments for the time being in force relating to the representation of the people, and to the registration of persons entitled to vote at the election of members to serve in Parliament, and with any enactments otherwise relating to the subject matter of this part of this Act, and terms used in this part of this Act shall have the same meaning as in the said enactments; and in construing the said enactments relating to an election or to the poll or taking the votes by poll, the mode of election and of taking the poll established by this Act shall for the purposes of the said enactments be deemed to be substituted for the mode of election or poll, or taking the votes by poll, referred to in the said enactments; and any person applying for a ballot paper under this Act shall be deemed "to tender his vote," or "to assume to vote," within the meaning of the said enactments; and any application for a ballot paper under this Act, or expressions relative thereto shall be equivalent to "voting" in the said enactments and any expressions relative thereto; and the term "polling booth" as used in the said enactments shall be deemed to include a polling station; and the term "proclamation" as used in the said enactments shall be deemed to include a public notice given in pursuance of this Act.

16. [Alterations for application of Part I. to Scotland.]

17. [Alterations for application of Part I. to Ireland.]

18. [Provisions as to polling districts and polling places in Ireland.]

PART II.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

20. [Application to municipal elections of enactments relating to the poll at parliamentary elections ⁽⁴⁾.]

21. [Abolition of ward assessors ⁽⁵⁾.]

22. [Alterations for application of Part II. to Scotland.]

23. [Alterations for application of Part II. to Ireland.]

⁽¹⁾ As to municipal elections, see 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 59, ante, p. 285.

⁽²⁾ See Pickering v. James, ante, p. 1265.

⁽³⁾ See 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 104, ante, p. 299.

⁽⁴⁾ Repealed by Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 5, and First Schedule, Part I., ante, pp. 269 and 351. See now, section 58, sub-sections (1), (6), and Third Schedule, Part III., of this latter Act, ante, pp. 285 and 357.

⁽⁵⁾ Repealed by Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, s. 5, First Schedule, Part I., ante, pp. 269 and 351.

PART III.

Secs. 24-29.

PERSONATION.

24. The following enactments shall be made with respect to personation at parliamentary and municipal elections: Definition and punishment of personation

A person shall for all purposes of the laws relating to parliamentary and municipal elections be deemed to be guilty of the offence of personation who at an election for a county or borough, or at a municipal election, applies for a ballot paper in the name of some other person, whether that name be that of a person living or dead or of a fictitious person, or who having voted once at any such election applies at the same election for a ballot paper in his own name.

[The offence of personation, or of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring the commission of the offence of personation by any person, shall be a felony, and any person convicted thereof shall be punished by imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years together with hard labour ⁽¹⁾.] It shall be the duty of the returning officer to institute a prosecution against any person whom he may believe to have been guilty of personation, or of aiding, abetting, counselling, or procuring the commission of the offence of personation by any person, at the election for which he is returning officer, and the costs and expenses of the prosecutor and the witnesses in such case, together with compensation for their trouble and loss of time shall be allowed by the court in the same manner in which courts are empowered to allow the same in cases of felony.

The provisions of the Registration Acts, specified in the Third Schedule to this Act, shall in England and Ireland respectively apply to personation under this Act in the same manner as they apply to a person who knowingly personates and falsely assumes to vote in the name of another person as mentioned in the said Acts.

[The offence of personation shall be deemed to be a corrupt practice within the meaning of the Parliamentary Elections Act, 1868.]

If, on the trial of any election petition questioning the election or return for any county or borough, any candidate is found by the report of the judge by himself or his agents to have been guilty of personation, or by himself or his agents to have aided, abetted, counselled, or procured the commission at such election of the offence of personation by any person, such candidate shall be incapable of being elected or sitting in Parliament for such county or borough during the Parliament then in existence ⁽²⁾.]

25. Where a candidate, on the trial of an election petition claiming the seat for any person, is proved to have been guilty, by himself or by any person on his behalf, of bribery, treating, or undue influence in respect of any person who voted at such election, or where any person retained or employed for reward by or on behalf of such candidate for all or any of the purposes of such election, as agent, clerk, messenger, or in any other employment, is proved on such trial to have voted at such election, there shall, on a scrutiny, be struck off from the number of votes appearing to have been given to such candidate one vote for every person who voted at such election and is proved to have been so bribed, treated, or unduly influenced, or so retained or employed for reward or otherwise ⁽³⁾. Vote to be struck off for bribery, treating, or undue influence.

26. [Alterations in Act as applying to Scotland.]

27. This part of this Act, so far as regards parliamentary elections, shall be construed as one with "The Parliamentary Elections Act, 1868," and shall apply to an election for a university or combination of universities. Construction of part of Act.

PART IV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

28. The schedules to this Act, and the notes thereto, and directions therein, shall be construed and have effect as part of this Act. Effect of schedules.

29. In this Act—

The expression "municipal borough" means any place for the time being subject to the Municipal Corporation Acts, or any of them: Definitions. "Municipal borough."

The expression "Municipal Corporation Acts" means—

(a.) As regards England, the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," and the Acts amending the same ⁽⁴⁾. "Municipal Corporation Acts."

⁽¹⁾ The portion within brackets is repealed by 46 & 47 Vict. c. 51, s. 66.

⁽²⁾ The two paragraphs within brackets are repealed by 46 & 47 Vict. c. 51, s. 66.

⁽³⁾ See Boston Election, Re Malcolm v. Ingram, L. R. 9 C. P. 610, 43 L. J. C. P. 331, 31 L. T. N. S. 331.

⁽⁴⁾ See now, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, ante, p. 259.

Secs. 29–33. The expression “municipal election” means—“Municipal election.”

Application of Act.

Saving.

- (a.) As regards England, an election of any person to serve the office of councillor, auditor, or assessor of any municipal borough, or of councillor for a ward of a municipal borough.
30. This Act shall apply to any parliamentary or municipal election which may be held after the passing thereof.
31. Nothing in this Act, except Part III. thereof, shall apply to any election for a university or combination of universities.

Repeal.

Repeal of Acts in schedules.

32. The Acts specified in the fourth, fifth, and sixth schedules to this Act, to the extent specified in the third column of those schedules, and all other enactments inconsistent with this Act, are hereby repealed.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect—

- (a.) Anything duly done or suffered under any enactment hereby repealed; or,
- (b.) Any right or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under any enactment hereby repealed; or,
- (c.) Any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any enactment hereby repealed; or,
- (d.) Any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any such right, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding, and remedy may be carried on as if this Act had not passed.

Short title.

33. This Act may be cited as The Ballot Act, 1872, and shall continue in force till the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and no longer, unless Parliament shall otherwise determine; and on the said day the Acts in the fourth, fifth, and sixth schedules shall be thereupon revived; provided that such revival shall not affect any act done, any rights acquired, any liability or penalty incurred, or any proceeding pending under this Act, but such proceeding shall be carried on as if this Act had continued in force.

SCHEDULES.

Schedule 1

FIRST SCHEDULE.

PART I.

RULES FOR PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS.

Election.

1—13 (1).

The Poll.

14. The poll shall take place on such day as the returning officer⁽²⁾ may appoint, not being in the case of an election for a county or a district borough less than two nor more than six clear days, and not being in the case of an election for a borough other than a district borough more than three clear days after the day fixed for the election.

15. At every polling place the returning officer shall provide a sufficient number of polling stations for the accommodation of the electors entitled to a vote at such polling place, and shall distribute the polling stations amongst those electors in such manner as he thinks most convenient, provided that in a district borough there shall be at least one polling station at each contributory place of such borough⁽³⁾.

16. Each polling station shall be furnished with such number of compartments, in which the voters can mark their votes screened from observation, as the returning officer thinks necessary, so that at least one compartment be provided for every one hundred and fifty electors entitled to vote at such polling station.

17. A separate room or separate booth may contain a separate polling station, or several polling stations may be constructed in the same room or booth.

18. No person shall be admitted to vote at any polling station except the one allotted to him.

19. The returning officer shall give public notice of the situation of polling stations and the description of voters entitled to vote at each station, and of the mode in which electors are to vote.

20. The returning officer shall provide each polling station with materials for voters to mark the ballot papers, with instruments for stamping thereon the official mark, and with copies of the

(1) These rules do not apply to municipal elections. See 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, ss. 50—58, and Third Schedule, Parts II. and III., ante, pp. 283—285, 356, 357.

(2) See 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 53, ante, p. 284.

(3) As to municipal elections, see 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, Third Schedule, Part III., ante, p. 357.

register of voters, or such part thereof as contains the names of the voters allotted to vote at such station. He shall keep the official mark secret, and an interval of not less than seven years shall intervene between the use of the same official mark at elections for the same county or borough. Schedule 1.

21. The returning officer shall appoint a presiding officer to preside at each station, and the officer so appointed shall keep order at his station, shall regulate the number of electors to be admitted at a time, and shall exclude all other persons except the clerks, the agents of the candidates, and the constables on duty.

22. Every ballot paper shall contain a list of the candidates described as in their respective nomination papers, and arranged alphabetically in the order of their surnames, and (if there are two or more candidates with the same surname) of their other names: it shall be in the form set forth in the second schedule to this Act or as near thereto as circumstances admit, and shall be capable of being folded up.

23. Every ballot box shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be introduced therein, but cannot be withdrawn therefrom, without the box being unlocked. The presiding officer at any polling station, just before the commencement of the poll, shall show the ballot box empty to such persons, if any, as may be present in such station, so that they may see that it is empty, and shall then lock it up, and place his seal upon it in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal, and shall place it in his view for the receipt of ballot papers, and keep it so locked and sealed.

24. Immediately before a ballot paper is delivered to an elector it shall be marked on both sides with the official mark, either stamped or perforated, and the number, name, and description of the elector as stated in the copy of the register shall be called out, and the number of such elector shall be marked on the counterfoil, and a mark shall be placed in the register against the number of the elector, to denote that he has received a ballot paper, but without showing the particular ballot paper which he has received.

25. The elector, on receiving the ballot paper, shall forthwith proceed into one of the compartments in the polling station, and there mark his paper, and fold it up so as to conceal his vote, and shall then put his ballot paper, so folded up, into the ballot box; he shall vote without undue delay, and shall quit the polling station as soon as he has put his ballot paper into the ballot box.

26. The presiding officer, on the application of any voter who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in manner prescribed in this Act, or (if the poll be taken on Saturday) of any voter who declares that he is of the Jewish persuasion, and objects on religious grounds to vote in manner prescribed by this Act, or of any voter who makes such a declaration as hereinafter mentioned that he is unable to read, shall, in the presence of the agents of the candidates, cause the vote of such voter to be marked on a ballot paper in manner directed by such voter, and the ballot paper to be placed in the ballot box, and the name and number on the register of voters of every voter whose vote is marked in pursuance of this rule, and the reason why it is so marked, shall be entered on a list in this Act called "the list of votes marked by the presiding officer."

The said declaration, in this Act referred to as "the declaration of inability to read," shall be made by the voter at the time of polling, before the presiding officer, who shall attest it in the form hereinafter mentioned, and no fee, stamp, or other payment shall be charged in respect of such declaration, and the said declaration shall be given to the presiding officer at the time of voting.

27. If a person, representing himself to be a particular elector named on the register, applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, the applicant shall, upon duly answering the questions and taking the oath permitted by law to be asked of and to be administered to voters at the time of polling, be entitled to mark a ballot paper in the same manner as any other voter, but the ballot paper (in this Act called a tendered ballot paper) shall be of a colour differing from the other ballot papers, and instead of being put into the ballot box, shall be given to the presiding officer and endorsed by him with the name of the voter and his number in the register of voters, and set aside in a separate packet, and shall not be counted by the returning officer. And the name of the voter and his number on the register shall be entered on a list, in this Act called the tendered votes list.

28. A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper, may, on delivering to the presiding officer the ballot paper so inadvertently dealt with, and proving the fact of the inadvertence to the satisfaction of the presiding officer, obtain another ballot paper in the place of the ballot paper so delivered up (in this Act called a spoilt ballot paper), and the spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately cancelled.

29. The presiding officer of each station, as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, shall, in the presence of the agents of the candidates, make up into separate packets sealed with his own seal and the seals of such agents of the candidates as desire to affix their seals,—

- (1.) Each ballot box in use at his station, unopened but with the key attached; and
- (2.) The unused and spoilt ballot papers, placed together; and
- (3.) The tendered ballot papers; and
- (4.) The marked copies of the register of voters, and the counterfoils of the ballot papers; and
- (5.) The tendered votes list, and the list of votes marked by the presiding officer, and a statement of the number of the voters whose votes are so marked by the presiding officer under the heads "physical incapacity," "Jews," and "unable to read," and the declarations of inability to read; and shall deliver such packets to the returning officer.

Schedule 1. 30. The packets shall be accompanied by a statement made by such presiding officer, showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him, and accounting for them under the heads of ballot papers in the ballot box, unused, spoilt, and tendered ballot papers, which statement is in this Act referred to as the ballot paper account.

Counting Votes.

31. The candidates may respectively appoint agents to attend the counting of the votes.

32. The returning officer shall make arrangements for counting the votes in the presence of the agents of the candidates as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, and shall give to the agents of the candidates appointed to attend at the counting of the votes notice in writing of the time and place at which he will begin to count the same.

33. The returning officer, his assistants and clerks, and the agents of the candidates, and no other person, except with the sanction of the returning officer, may be present at the counting of the votes.

34. Before the returning officer proceeds to count the votes, he shall, in the presence of the agents of the candidates, open each ballot box, and, taking out the papers therein, shall count and record the number thereof, and then mix together the whole of the ballot papers contained in the ballot boxes. The returning officer, while counting and recording the number of ballot papers and counting the votes, shall keep the ballot papers with their faces upwards, and take all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the numbers printed on the backs of such papers.

35. The returning officer shall, so far as practicable, proceed continuously with counting the votes, allowing only time for refreshment, and excluding (except so far as he and the agents otherwise agree) the hours between seven o'clock at night and nine o'clock on the succeeding morning. During the excluded time the returning officer shall place the ballot papers and other documents relating to the election under his own seal and the seals of such of the agents of the candidates as desire to affix their seals, and shall otherwise take proper precautions for the security of such papers and documents.

36. The returning officer shall endorse "rejected" on any ballot paper which he may reject as invalid, and shall add to the endorsement "rejection objected to," if an objection be in fact made by any agent to his decision. The returning officer shall report to the clerk of the crown in chancery the numbers of ballot papers rejected and not counted by him under the several heads of—

- (1.) Want of official mark;
- (2.) Voting for more candidates than entitled to;
- (3.) Writing or mark by which voter could be identified;
- (4.) Unmarked or void for uncertainty; and shall on request allow any agents of the candidates before such report is sent, to copy it.

37. Upon the completion of the counting, the returning officer shall seal up in separate packets the counted and rejected ballot papers. He shall not open the sealed packet of tendered ballot papers or marked copy of the register of voters and counterfoils, but shall proceed, in the presence of the agents of the candidates, to verify the ballot paper account given by each presiding officer by comparing it with the number of ballot papers recorded by him as aforesaid, and the unused and spoilt ballot papers in his possession and the tendered votes list, and shall reseal each sealed packet after examination. The returning officer shall report to the clerk of the crown in chancery the result of such verification, and shall, on request, allow any agents of the candidates, before such report is sent, to copy it⁽¹⁾.

38. Lastly, the returning officer shall forward to the clerk of the crown in chancery (in manner in which the poll books are by any existing enactment required to be forwarded to such clerk, or as near thereto as circumstances admit) all the packets of ballot papers in his possession, together with the said reports, the ballot paper accounts, tendered votes lists, lists of votes marked by the presiding officer, statements relating thereto, declarations of inability to read, and packets of counterfoils, and marked copies of registers, sent by each presiding officer, endorsing on each packet a description of its contents and the date of the election to which they relate, and the name of the county or borough for which such election was held; and the term poll book in any such enactment shall be construed to include any document forwarded in pursuance of this rule.

39. The clerk of the crown shall retain for a year all documents relating to an election forwarded to him in pursuance of this Act by a returning officer, and then, unless otherwise directed by an order of the House of Commons, or of one of Her Majesty's superior courts, shall cause them to be destroyed⁽¹⁾.

40. No person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected ballot papers in the custody of the clerk of the crown in chancery, except under the order of the House of Commons or under the order of one of Her Majesty's superior courts⁽²⁾, to be granted by such court on being satisfied by evidence on oath that the inspection or production of such ballot papers is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution for an offence in relation to ballot papers, or for the purpose of a petition questioning an election or return⁽³⁾; and any such order for the inspection or production of ballot papers may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place, and mode of inspection and production as the House or court making the same may think expedient, and shall be obeyed by the clerk of the crown in chancery. Any power given to a court by this rule may be exercised by any judge of such court of chambers. Schedule 1.

⁽¹⁾ As to municipal elections, see r. 64 (b), post, and 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, Third Schedule, Part III. r. 6, ante, p. 358.

⁽²⁾ As to municipal elections, see r. 64 (b), (a), post, p. 1274.

⁽³⁾ As to municipal elections, r. 64 (b), (a), post, and R. v. Beardsall, cited in the note thereto.

41. No person shall, except by order of the House of Commons or any tribunal having cognizance of petitions complaining of undue returns or undue elections, open the sealed packet of counterfoils after the same has once been sealed up, or be allowed to inspect any counted ballot papers in the custody of the clerk of the crown in chancery; such order may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place, and mode of opening or inspection as the House or tribunal making the order may think expedient; provided that on making and carrying into effect any such order, care shall be taken that the mode in which any particular elector has voted shall not be discovered until he has been proved to have voted, and his vote has been declared by a competent court to be invalid.

42. All documents forwarded by a returning officer in pursuance of this Act to the clerk of the crown in chancery, other than ballot papers and counterfoils, shall be open to public inspection at such time and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the clerk of the crown in chancery, with the consent of the Speaker of the House of Commons, and the clerk of the crown shall supply copies of or extracts from the said documents to any person demanding the same, on payment of such fees and subject to such regulations as may be sanctioned by the Treasury.

43. Where an order is made for the production by the clerk of the crown in chancery of any document in his possession relating to any specified election, the production by such clerk or his agent of the document ordered, in such manner as may be directed by such order, or by a rule of the court having power to make such order, shall be conclusive evidence that such document relates to the specified election; and any endorsement appearing on any packet of ballot papers produced by such clerk of the crown or his agent shall be evidence of such papers being what they are stated to be by the endorsement. The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of a counterfoil marked with the same printed number and having a number marked thereon in writing, shall be prima facie evidence that the person who voted by such ballot paper was the person who at the time of such election had affixed to his name in the register of voters at such election the same number as the number written on such counterfoil.

General Provisions.

44. The return of a member or members elected to serve in Parliament for any county or borough shall be made by a certificate of the names of such member or members under the hand of the returning officer endorsed on the writ of election for such county or borough, and such certificate shall have effect and be dealt with in like manner as the return under the existing law, and the returning officer may, if he think fit, deliver the writ with such certificate endorsed to the postmaster of the principal post office of the place of election, or his deputy, and in that case he shall take a receipt from the postmaster or his deputy for the same; and such postmaster or his deputy shall then forward the same by the first post, free of charge, under cover, to the clerk of the crown, with the words "Election Writ and Return" endorsed thereon.

45. The returning officer shall, as soon as possible, give public notice of the names of the candidates elected, and, in the case of a contested election, of the total number of votes given for each candidate, whether elected or not.

46. Where the returning officer is required or authorised by this Act to give any public notice, he shall carry such requirement into effect by advertisements, placards, handbills, or such other means as he thinks best calculated to afford information to the electors.

47. The returning officer may, if he think fit, preside at any polling station, and the provisions of this Act relating to a presiding officer shall apply to such returning officer with the necessary modifications as to things to be done by the returning officer to the presiding officer, or the presiding officer to the returning officer.

48. In the case of a contested election for any county or borough, the returning officer may, in addition to any clerks, appoint competent persons to assist him in counting the votes.

49. No person shall be appointed by a returning officer for the purposes of an election who has been employed by any other person in or about the election.

50. The presiding officer may do, by the clerks appointed to assist him, any act which he is required or authorised to do by this Act at a polling station except ordering the arrest, exclusion, or ejection from the polling station of any person.

51. A candidate may himself undertake the duties which any agent of his if appointed might have undertaken, or may assist his agent in the performance of such duties, and may be present at any place at which his agent may, in pursuance of this Act, attend.

52. The name and address of every agent of a candidate appointed to attend the counting of the votes shall be transmitted to the returning officer one clear day at the least before the opening of the poll; and the returning officer may refuse to admit to the place where the votes are counted any agent whose name and address has not been so transmitted, notwithstanding that his appointment may be otherwise valid, and any notice required to be given to an agent by the returning officer may be delivered at or sent by post to such address.

53. If any person appointed an agent by a candidate for the purposes of attending at the polling station or at the counting of the vote dies, or becomes incapable of acting during the time of the election, the candidate may appoint another agent in his place, and shall forthwith give to the returning officer notice in writing of the name and address of the agent so appointed.

54. Every returning officer, and every officer, clerk, or agent authorised to attend at a polling station, or at the counting of the votes, shall, before the opening of the poll, make a statutory

Schedule 1. declaration of secrecy, in the presence, if he is the returning officer, of a justice of the peace, and if he is any other officer or an agent, of a justice of the peace or of the returning officer; but no such returning officer, officer, clerk, or agent as aforesaid shall, save as aforesaid, be required, as such, to make any declaration or take any oath on the occasion of any election.

55. Where in this Act any expressions are used requiring or authorising or inferring that any act or thing is to be done in the presence of the agents of the candidates, such expressions shall be deemed to refer to the presence of such agents of the candidates as may be authorised to attend, and as have in fact attended, at the time and place where such act or thing is being done, and the non-attendance of any agents or agent at such time and place shall not, if such act or thing be otherwise duly done, in anywise invalidate the act or thing done.

56. In reckoning time for the purposes of this Act, Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, and any day set apart for a public fast or public thanksgiving, shall be excluded; and where anything is required by this Act to be done on any day which falls on the above-mentioned days such thing may be done on the next day, unless it is one of the days excluded as above-mentioned.

57. In this Act —

The expression “district borough” means the borough of Monmouth and any of the boroughs specified in Schedule E. to the Act of the session of the second and third years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter forty-five, intituled “An Act to amend the Representation of the People in England and Wales;” and

The expression “polling place” means, in the case of a borough, such borough or any part thereof in which a separate booth is required or authorised by law to be provided; and

The expression “agents of the candidates,” used in relation to a polling station, means agents appointed in pursuance of section eighty-five of the Act of the session of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighteen.

58—63. [Modifications in application of Part I. of Schedule to Scotland and Ireland.]

PART II.

RULES FOR MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

64. In the application of the provisions of this schedule to municipal elections, the following modifications shall be made:—

(a.) The expression “register of voters” means the burgess roll of the burgesses of the borough, or, in the case of an election for the ward of a borough, the ward list; and the mayor shall provide true copies of such register for each polling station:

(b.) All ballot papers and other documents which, in the case of a parliamentary election, are forwarded to the clerk of the crown in chancery, shall be delivered to the town clerk of the municipal borough in which the election is held, and shall be kept by him among the records of the borough; and the provisions of Part I. of this schedule with respect to the inspection, production, and destruction of such ballot papers and documents, and to the copies of such documents, shall apply respectively to the ballot papers and documents so in the custody of the town clerk, with these modifications; namely,

(a.) An order of the county court having jurisdiction in the borough, or any part thereof, or of any tribunal in which a municipal election is questioned, shall be substituted for an order of the House of Commons or of one of Her Majesty's superior courts; but an appeal from such county court may be had in like manner as in other cases in such county court⁽¹⁾;

(b.) The regulations for the inspection of documents and the fees for the supply of copies of documents of which copies are directed to be supplied, shall be prescribed by the council of the borough with the consent of one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and, subject as aforesaid, the town clerk, in respect of the custody and destruction of the ballot papers and other documents coming into his possession in pursuance of this Act, shall be subject to the directions of the council of the borough:

(c.) Nothing in this schedule with respect to the day of the poll shall apply to a municipal election.

65, 66. [Modifications in application of Part II. of Schedule to Scotland and Ireland.]

Schedule 2.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Note.—The forms contained in this schedule, or forms as nearly resembling the same as circumstances will admit, shall be used in all cases to which they refer and are applicable, and when so used shall be sufficient in law⁽²⁾.

⁽¹⁾ See R. v. Beardsall, L. R. 1 Q. B. D. 452, 45 L. J. M. C. 157, 34 L. T. N. S. 660, 13 Cox, C. C. 193.

⁽²⁾ The forms of writ, notice of election, and nomination paper at parliamentary elections are omitted here. As to municipal elections, see 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, Eighth Schedule, Part II., Forms H., I., ante, p. 364.

*Form of Ballot Paper.*Schedule 2.*Form of Front of Ballot Paper.*Counterfoil
No.

NOTE:
The counterfoil is to have a number to correspond with that on the back of the Ballot Paper.

1	BROWN (John Brown, of 52, George Street, Bristol, merchant.)
2	JONES (William David Jones, of High Elms, Wilts, Esq.)
3	MERTON (Hon. George Travis, commonly called Viscount Merton, of Swanworth, Berks.)
4	SMITH (Henry Sydney Smith, of 72, High Street, Bath, attorney.)

Form of Back of Ballot Paper.

No.
Election for county [or borough, or ward]. 18
Note.—The number on the ballot paper is to correspond with that in the counterfoil.

Directions as to printing Ballot Paper.

Nothing is to be printed on the ballot paper except in accordance with this schedule.

The surname of each candidate, and if there are two or more candidates of the same surname, also the other names of such candidates, shall be printed in large characters, as shown in the form, and the names, addresses, and descriptions, and the number on the back of the paper, shall be printed in small characters.

Form of Directions for the Guidance of the Voter in voting, which shall be printed in conspicuous characters, and placarded outside every Polling Station and in every Compartment of every Polling Station.

The voter may vote for candidate

The voter will go into one of the compartments, and, with the pencil provided in the compartment, place a cross on the right-hand side, opposite the name of each candidate for whom he votes, thus X

The voter will then fold up the ballot paper so as to show the official mark on the back, and leaving the compartment will, without showing the front of the paper, to any person, show the official mark on the back to the presiding officer, and then, in the presence of the presiding officer, put the paper into the ballot box, and forthwith quit the polling station.

If the voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he can return it to the officer, who will, if satisfied of such inadvertence, give him another paper.

If the voter votes for more than candidate, or places any mark on the paper by which he may be afterwards identified, his ballot paper will be void, and will not be counted.

If the voter takes a ballot paper out of the polling station, or deposits in the ballot box any other paper than the one given him by the officer, he will be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

Note.—These directions shall be illustrated by examples of the ballot paper.

Form of Statutory Declaration of Secrecy.

I solemnly promise and declare, that I will not at this election for do anything forbidden by section four of the Ballot Act, 1872, which has been read to me.

Note.—The section must be read to the declarant by the person taking the declaration.

Schedule 2.

Form of Declaration of inability to read.

I, A.B., of _____, being numbered _____ on the Register of Voters for the county [or borough] of _____, do hereby declare that I am unable to read.

A.B., _____ his mark.

_____ day of _____

I, the undersigned, being the presiding officer for the _____ polling station for the county [or borough] of _____, do hereby certify, that the above declaration, having been first read to the above-named A.B., was signed by him in my presence with his mark.

Signed _____ C.D., Presiding officer for _____ polling station for the county [or borough] of _____

_____ day of _____

Schedule 3.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

Provisions of Registration Acts referred to in Part III. of the foregoing Act.

Session and Chapter.	Title.	Part applied.
As to England.
6 & 7 Vict. c. 18 -	An Act to amend the law for the registration of persons entitled to vote, and to define certain rights of voting, and to regulate certain proceedings in the elections of members to serve in Parliament for England and Wales.	Sections eighty-five to eighty-nine, both inclusive.

Schedule 4.

FOURTH SCHEDULE.

Acts relating to England.

Note.—This schedule, so far as respects Acts prior to the tenth year of the reign of George the Third, refers to the edition prepared under the direction of the Lord Chancellor, intituled “The Statutes, Revised Edition.”

A description or citation of a portion of an Act is inclusive of the words, section, or other part first or last mentioned, or otherwise referred to as forming the beginning or as forming the end of the portion comprised in the description or citation.

Portions of Acts which have already been specifically repealed, are in some instances included in the repeal in this schedule, in order to preclude henceforth the necessity of looking back to previous Acts.

Session and Chapter.	Title or abbreviated Title.	Extent of Repeal.
7 Hen. 4 - - -	Statute of the seventh year -	Chapter fifteen.
8 Hen. 6 - - -	Statutes of the eighth year of King Henry VI.	Chapter seven, from “and such as have the greatest number” to “shall lose their wages” and from “and that in every writ that shall hereafter go forth” to the end of the chapter.
23 Hen. 6 - - -	Here begin the statutes made at Westminster in the twenty-third year.	Chapter fourteen.
7 & 8 Will. 3, c. 25 -	An Act for the further regulating elections of members to serve in Parliament, and for the preventing irregular proceedings of sheriffs and other officers in the electing and returning such members.	Sections three and four, and section five down to “writing the same.”

Session and Chapter.	Title or abbreviated Title.	Extent of Repeal.	Schedule 4.
(1) 10 Will. 3, c. 7	An Act for preventing irregular proceedings of sheriffs and other officers in making the returns of members chosen to serve in Parliament.	So much as is unrepealed.
2 Geo. 2, c. 24	An Act for the more effectual preventing bribery and corruption in the elections of members to serve in Parliament.	Sections three and nine.
18 Geo. 2, c. 18	An Act to explain and amend the laws touching the elections of knights of the shire to serve in Parliament for that part of Great Britain called England.	Section five from "or shall vote more than once," to the end of that section, and sections nine to sixteen.
19 Geo. 2, c. 28	An Act for the better regulating of elections of members to serve in Parliament for such cities and towns in that part of Great Britain called England as are counties of themselves.	Section four, from "or shall vote more than once," to end of that section, and sections six to twelve.
3 Geo. 3, c. 15	An Act to prevent occasional freemen from voting at elections of members to serve in Parliament for cities and boroughs.	Section seven.
11 Geo. 3, c. 55	An Act the title of which begins with the words "An Act to incapacitate," and ends with the words "New Shoreham, in the county of Sussex."	The whole Act.
21 Geo. 3, c. 54	An Act for the better regulating elections of citizens to serve in Parliament for the city of Coventry.	Sections seven to nine and fourteen.
22 Geo. 3, c. 31	An Act for the preventing of bribery and corruption in the election of members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Cricklade in the county of Wilts.	The whole Act.
25 Geo. 3, c. 84	An Act the title of which begins with the words "An Act to limit the duration," and ends with the words "to serve in Parliament."	The whole Act, except section one down to "make a return of such person or persons," and section three in so far as that part of a section and section relate to the universities.
33 Geo. 3, c. 64	An Act the title of which begins with the words "An Act to explain and amend an Act," and ends with the words "time and place of election."	The whole Act, except so far as it relates to the universities.
34 Geo. 3, c. 73	An Act for directing the appointment of Commissioners to administer certain oaths and declarations required by law to be taken and made by persons offering to vote at the election of members to serve in Parliament.	The whole Act.

(1) 10 & 11 Will. 3, in running headings in ordinary editions.

Schedule 4.

Session and Chapter.	Title or abbreviated Title.	Extent of Repeal.
42 Geo. 3, c. 62 - -	An Act for extending the provisions of an Act made in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for directing the appointment of commissioners to administer certain oaths and declarations required by law to be taken and made by persons offering to vote at the election of members to serve in Parliament," to all oaths now required by law to be taken by voters at elections for members to serve in Parliament.	The whole Act.
43 Geo 3, c. 74 - -	An Act for further regulating the administration of the oath or affirmation required to be taken by electors of members to serve in Parliament, by an Act passed in the second year of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for the more effectual preventing bribery and corruption in the election of members to serve in Parliament."	The whole Act.
44 Geo. 3, c. 60 - -	An Act for the preventing of bribery and corruption in the election of members to serve in Parliament for the borough of Aylesbury in the county of Buckingham.	The whole Act.
11 Geo. 4, & 1 Will. 4, c. 74. - - -	An Act to prevent bribery and corruption in the election of burgesses to serve in Parliament for the borough of East Retford.	The whole Act.
2 & 3 Will. 4, c. 45 -	An Act to amend the representation of the people in England and Wales.	Sections fifty-eight to sixty; sections sixty-two, sixty-three, sixty-five, sixty-seven; part of section sixty-eight, namely, from "shall if required thereby" down to "poll at each compartment, and," and from "and in case the booths shall be situated in different places" to "lawfully closed;" and section sixty-nine; and section seventy-one from "and that all deputies" to "candidates at such election," and from "provided also, that the sheriff" to the end of the section; and sections seventy-two, seventy-three, and seventy-four.
2 & 3 Will. 4, c. 64 -	An Act to settle and describe the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of members to serve in Parliament.	Sections twenty-nine to thirty-three, and so much of section thirty-four as relates to taking the poll.
5 & 6 Will. 4, c. 36 -	An Act to limit the time of taking the poll in boroughs at contested elections of members to serve in Parliament to one day.	The whole Act, except section two, down to "in the forenoon," and from "and the polling" to "in the afternoon;" and sections seven to nine.

Session and Chapter.	Title or abbreviated Title.	Extent of Repeal.	Schedule 4.
5 & 6 Will. 4, c. 76 -	An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales.	The words "openly assemble and" in section thirty; section thirty-two from "by delivering to the mayor and assessors" to the end of that section, and so much of the rest of that section as relates to assessors; section thirty-three from "and shall be so divided" to "poll at each compartment, and," and from "and in case the booths" to "at each place;" the words "Are you the person whose name is signed as A. B. to the voting paper now delivered in by you" in section thirty-four, and section thirty-five from "and the mayor shall cause the voting papers" to end of that section, and so much of the rest of that section as relates to assessors; and so much of sections forty-three, forty-four, and forty-six as relates to assessors.
6 & 7 Will. 4, c. 102 -	An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections.	The whole Act.
6 & 7 Vict. c. 18 -	An Act to amend the law for the registration of persons entitled to vote and to define certain rights of voting and to regulate certain proceedings in the election of members to serve in Parliament for England and Wales.	Section seventy-nine from "Provided always, that it shall not be lawful" to end of that section; section eighty; so much of section eighty-one as relates to a commissioner or commissioners; sections eighty-three, eighty-four, and ninety-one, sections ninety-four to ninety-six, and sections ninety-eight and ninety-nine.
16 & 17 Vict. c. 15 -	An Act to limit the time of taking the poll in counties at contested elections for knights of the shire to serve in Parliament in England and Wales to one day.	The whole Act, except section two, down to "in the afternoon of such day," and section three.
16 & 17 Vict. c. 68 -	An Act to limit the time for proceeding to election in counties and boroughs in England and Wales, and for polling at elections for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and for other purposes.	Sections two, three, seven, and eight.
17 & 18 Vict. c. 102 -	"The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854."	Section eleven and Schedule B.
22 Vict. c. 35 -	"The Municipal Corporation Act, 1859."	So much of section seven as relates to the form of nomination paper and so much of section eight as relates to assessors.
25 & 26 Vict. c. 95 -	An Act to amend the law relating to polling places in the boroughs of New Shoreham, Cricklade, Aylesbury, and East Retford.	The whole Act.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 102. -	"The Representation of the People Act, 1867."	Section thirty-five; section thirty-seven from "where in any place" to end of that section; section thirty-nine.
31 & 32 Vict. c. 58 -	"The Parliamentary Electors Registration Act, 1868."	Sections four to sixteen, twenty-four, twenty-six, thirty-four, and thirty-six.
31 & 32 Vict. c. 125 -	"The Parliamentary Elections Act, 1868."	Section forty from "provided always," to the end of that section.

PARLIAMENTARY AND MUNICIPAL REGISTRATION ACT, 1878.

41 & 42 VICT. c. 26.

An Act to amend the Law relating to the Registration of Voters in Parliamentary Boroughs and the Enrolment of Burgesses in Municipal Boroughs, and relating to certain rights of voting and proceedings before and appeals from Revising Barristers.
[22nd July, 1878.]

SECS. 3—6.

Commencement of Act.

Definitions.

5 & 6 Will. 4, c.
76.
40 & 41 Vict. c.
69.

Explanation of terms.

"House," &c.
2 & 3 Will. 4, c.
45, s. 27.

30 & 31 Vict. c.
102.
"Dwelling-house."
"Lodgings."

Separate occupation of part notwithstanding joint occupation of other part.

30 & 31 Vict. c.
102, s. 61.

Additional
lodgings.

3. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, which date is in this Act referred to as the commencement of this Act.

4. In this Act—

The term "Reform Act, 1832," means the Act of the session of the second and third years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter forty-five, "to amend the representation of the people in England and Wales:"

The term "Municipal Corporation Acts" means the Municipal Corporation Act, 1835, and the Acts amending the same ⁽¹⁾:

The term "Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843," means the Act of the session of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter eighteen, "to amend the law for the registration of persons entitled to vote, and to define certain rights of voting and to regulate certain proceedings in the election of members to serve in Parliament for England and Wales:"

The term "Parliamentary Registration Acts" means the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, and any enactment amending the same or otherwise relating to the registration of Parliamentary electors:

The term "parliamentary borough" means any borough, city, county of a city, county of a town, place, or combination of places returning a member or members to serve in Parliament, and not being a county at large, or riding, part, or division of a county at large:

The term "municipal borough" means any place for the time being subject to the Municipal Corporation Acts:

The term "parliamentary voter" means a person entitled to be registered as a voter and when registered to vote at the election of a member or members to serve in Parliament for a parliamentary borough:

The term "burgess" has the same meaning as in the Municipal Corporation Acts:

The term "parish" means a place for which a separate poor rate is or can be made, or for which a separate overseer is or can be appointed:

Other terms used in this Act have the same meaning as in the Parliamentary Registration Acts.

5. In and for the purposes of the Reform Act, 1832, and the Municipal Corporation Acts, the terms "house, warehouse, counting-house, shop, or other building," shall include any part of a house where that part is separately occupied for the purpose of any trade, business, or profession; and any such part may for the purpose of describing the qualification be described as "office," "chambers," "studio," or by any like term applicable to the case.

In and for the purposes of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, the term "dwelling-house" shall include any part of a house where that part is separately occupied as a dwelling, and the term "lodgings" shall include any apartments or place of residence, whether furnished or unfurnished, in a dwelling-house.

For the purposes of any of the Acts referred to in this section, where an occupier is entitled to the sole and exclusive use of any part of a house, that part shall not be deemed to be occupied otherwise than separately by reason only that the occupier is entitled to the joint use of some other part.

The interpretation contained in this section of "dwelling-house" shall be in substitution for the interpretation thereof contained in section sixty-one of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, but not so as to affect any of the other provisions of the said Act relating to rating.

6. (1.)—Lodgings occupied by a person in any year or two successive years shall not be deemed to be different lodgings by reason only that in that year or in either of those years he has occupied some other rooms or place in addition to his original lodgings.

(1) Now 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, ante, p. 259.

(2.) For the purpose of qualifying a lodger to vote, the occupation in immediate succession of different lodgings of the requisite value in the same house shall have the same effect as continued occupation of the same lodgings. Secs. 6—10.

(3.) Where lodgings are jointly occupied by more than one lodger, and the clear yearly value of the lodgings if let unfurnished is of an amount which when divided by the number of the lodgers gives a sum of not less than ten pounds for each lodger, then each lodger, if otherwise qualified and subject to the conditions of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, shall be entitled to be registered, and when registered to vote as a lodger, provided that not more than two persons being such joint lodgers shall be entitled to be registered in respect of such lodgings. Successive lodgings in the same house.
Joint occupation of lodgings.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 102.

7. In every parliamentary borough and in every municipal borough every period of qualification for parliamentary voters and burgesses respectively which is now computed by reference to the last day of July, shall, instead of being so computed, be computed by reference to the fifteenth day of July ⁽¹⁾. Period of qualification.

The term "period of qualification" in this section shall include any period of occupation, residence, possession, receipt of rents and profits, and non-receipt of parochial relief or other alms.

8. In every parliamentary borough and in every municipal borough the whole or part of the area whereof is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, the forms in the schedule to this Act, or forms to the like effect, varied as circumstances require, shall be used for the purposes for which the same are applicable respectively, and shall for the purposes of the Parliamentary Registration Acts and this Act be deemed to be substituted for any corresponding forms in the schedules to the Parliamentary Registration Acts. Forms relating to registration in parliamentary boroughs and burgess lists in certain municipal boroughs.

The said schedule and the notes thereto shall be construed and have effect as if enacted in the body of this Act.

All precepts, instructions, proceedings, notices, and lists relating to the registration of parliamentary voters or enrolment of burgesses shall be expressed in such manner and form as may be necessary to carry the provisions of this Act into effect.

9. In every parliamentary borough and in every municipal borough the whole or part of the area whereof is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, any notice or list which is by the Parliamentary Registration Acts or this Act directed to be published by overseers shall be published by them not only in the manner directed by those Acts, but also by being affixed and kept in some public and conspicuous position in or near every post office and telegraph office occupied by or on behalf of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, and in or near every public or municipal or parochial office within the parish to which the list relates ⁽²⁾. Publication of notices and list in post and telegraph offices &c.

All the provisions of those Acts with respect to the publication of notices or lists shall apply to the publication to be made under this section.

10. Where the whole or part of the area of a municipal borough is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, section eleven of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, and section twenty-eight of the Representation of the People Act, 1867 (which relate to the notices to be published and given with respect to rates and taxes in arrear), shall, as amended by this Act, extend with the necessary modifications to the rates of which the payment is required as a condition of enrolment on the burgess roll, and all the provisions of those sections as so amended shall apply to the overseers of parishes situate wholly or partly in a municipal borough accordingly. Notice of rates in arrear.
6 & 7 Vict. c. 18, s. 11.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 28.

Any notice required to be given under this section shall be deemed to be duly given if delivered to the occupier or left at his last or usual place of abode, or with some person on the premises in respect of which the rate is payable.

In case no such person can be found, then the notice required to be given under this section or under section twenty-eight of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, shall be deemed to be duly given if affixed upon some conspicuous part of the premises. 30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 28.

Any overseer who with intent to keep an occupier off the list or register of voters for a parliamentary borough, or off the burgess lists or burgess roll of a municipal borough, shall wilfully withhold any notice required by this section to be given to such occupier, shall be deemed guilty of a breach of duty in the execution of this Act.

Section twenty-nine of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, shall extend and be applicable to every parish situate wholly or partly within a municipal borough whose burgess lists are revised under this Act. 30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 29.

⁽¹⁾ See 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 9, ante, p. 271.

⁽²⁾ Now, by Post-Office (Protection) Act, 1884, 47 & 48 Vict. c. 76, s. 5 (1), a notice or list shall not be affixed in or on any post-office, post-office letter-box, telegraph post, or other property belonging to or used by or on behalf of the Postmaster-General, without authority from him.

Secs. 11-14.

Registrars to furnish returns of deaths to overseers.

11. Every registrar of births and deaths whose sub-district includes the whole or part of any parliamentary borough or any municipal borough the whole or part of the area whereof is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, shall transmit by post or otherwise to the overseers of every parish, the whole or any part of which is included in the parliamentary borough or municipal borough, and also in his sub-district, a return certified under his hand to be a true return of the names, ages, and residences of all male persons of full age dying within that parish or part, and also when and as required by those overseers of the names, ages, and residences of all women of full age dying within that parish or part.

The returns shall state the names of all such persons in full (where the names are known) and the dates of their deaths, and the names and residences of the persons by whom information of the deaths was given to the registrar.

The returns shall be made four times a year; that is to say,

On or before the seventh day of April for the three months ending with the preceding thirty-first day of March;

On or before the twenty-second day of July for the period beginning with the preceding first day of April and ending with the fifteenth day of July;

On or before the fifteenth day of September, or at such other time before the completion of the revision of the lists of the parliamentary borough or municipal borough to the area of which the return relates as the barrister revising the same shall appoint in that behalf for the period beginning with the preceding sixteenth day of July, and ending with the time when such return is made, or as near thereto as practicable;

And on or before the seventh day of January for the period beginning with the preceding fifteenth day of September or from the time for which the last preceding return was made, and ending with the thirty-first day of December:

The registrar making any such return shall be entitled to fees at the rate specified in the twenty-eighth section of the Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874, in respect of the returns therein mentioned, and such fees shall be paid by the overseers as part of the expenses of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act with respect to the lists of parliamentary voters and burgess lists.

The overseers shall omit from any list made by them the name of any person who appears from such returns to be dead, and shall allow any person who is registered as a parliamentary voter of the parliamentary borough or enrolled as a burgess of the municipal borough to which the returns relate to inspect any such returns in their custody at all reasonable times free of charge.

12. The overseers of every parish situate wholly or partly either in a parliamentary borough or in a municipal borough, the whole or part of the area whereof is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, shall ascertain from the relieving officer acting for that parish the names of all persons who are disqualified for being inserted in the lists of parliamentary voters or burgess lists for that parish by reason of having received parochial relief, and the relieving officer, upon application from the overseers, shall produce to them at such place within the parish, and at such time as is required by them, the books in his possession containing the names of those persons.

13. In every parish situate wholly or partly either in a parliamentary borough or in a municipal borough the whole or part of the area whereof is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, the books containing the poor rates made for the parish within the previous two years shall at all reasonable times be open, free of charge, to the inspection of any person who is registered as a parliamentary voter for the parliamentary borough, or enrolled as a burgess of the municipal borough, and any such voter or burgess may make any copy thereof or take any extract therefrom⁽¹⁾.

14. Whereas by section nineteen of the Poor Rate Assessment and Collection Act, 1869, the overseers, in making out the poor rate, are required in every case, whether the rate is collected from the owner or occupier, or the owner is liable to the payment of the rate instead of the occupier, to enter in the occupier's column of the rate-book the name of the occupier of every rateable hereditament, and it is thereby declared that every such occupier shall be deemed to be duly rated for any qualification or franchise as therein mentioned; and whereas doubts have been entertained as to the application of this enactment, and it is expedient to remove them: Be it therefore enacted that the recited enactment shall not be deemed to apply exclusively to cases where an agreement has been made under section three of the same Act, or where an order has been made under section four of the same Act, but shall be of general application.

⁽¹⁾ As to boroughs purely municipal, see 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 144 (7), (12), ante, pp. 313, 314, and Third Schedule, Part I., r. 21, ante, p. 355.

37 & 38 Vict. c.
88, s. 28

List of persons disqualified by parochial relief

Inspection of rate books

Explanation of
32 & 33 Vict. c.
41, s. 19, as to entering occu-pier's name in rate book

15. Where the whole or part of the area of a municipal borough is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, the lists of parliamentary voters and the burgess lists shall so far as practicable be made out and revised together.

Secs. 15-18.

Preparation of lists of parliamentary voters and burgess lists together in certain cases.

2 & 3 Will. 4, c. 45.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 3.

In every such case the overseers of every parish situate wholly or partly either in the parliamentary borough or in the municipal borough shall, on or before the last day of July ⁽¹⁾ in every year, make out a list of all persons entitled under any right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832, or by section three of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, to be registered as voters for the parliamentary borough in respect of the occupation of property situate wholly or partly within that parish, or entitled to be enrolled as burgesses of the municipal borough in respect of the occupation of any property so situate.

With respect to every list so made out, the following provisions shall have effect :

(1.) The lists shall be in substitution for the lists of persons so entitled, which are required to be made out under the Parliamentary Registration Acts and the Municipal Corporation Acts :

(2.) Where the parish is situate wholly or partly both in the parliamentary borough and in the municipal borough, the list for the parish shall be made out in three divisions :

Division One shall comprise the names of the persons entitled both to be registered as parliamentary voters under a right conferred as aforesaid and to be enrolled as burgesses ;

Division Two shall comprise the names of the persons entitled to be registered as parliamentary voters under a right conferred as aforesaid, but not to be enrolled as burgesses ;

Division Three shall comprise the names of the persons entitled to be enrolled as burgesses, but not to be registered as parliamentary voters under a right conferred as aforesaid :

(3.) Each list shall state the surname and other name or names of every person whose name is inserted therein, his place of abode, the nature of his qualification, and the situation and description of the property in respect of which he is entitled :

(4.) Each list shall be signed and otherwise dealt with in manner directed by the Parliamentary Registration Acts with respect to the alphabetical lists mentioned in section thirteen of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843 : 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18.
13.

(5.) Where no part of the parish is situate within the municipal borough, the list for the parish shall be deemed to be a list of voters for the parliamentary borough :

(6.) Where no part of the parish is situate within the parliamentary borough, the list for the parish shall be deemed to be a burgess list for the municipal borough :

(7.) Where the list is made out in divisions, Divisions One and Two shall be deemed to be lists of voters for the parliamentary borough, and Divisions One and Three shall be deemed to be burgess lists for the municipal borough :

(8.) The lists, and if the lists are made out in divisions, each division thereof, shall, if and so far as the local authority from time to time direct, according to convenience for use, be framed in parts for polling districts or wards ; and where the polling districts and wards are not conterminous, in such manner that the parts may be conveniently compiled or put together to serve either as lists for polling districts or as ward lists.

16. In the case of any parliamentary borough in which any persons are entitled to be registered as freemen, or under any right other than a right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832, or the third section of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, the registration of such persons shall be carried out in the manner directed by the Parliamentary Registration Acts, as modified by this Act. Freemen's and other rights.
2 & 3 Will. 4, c. 45.
30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 3.

17. In the case of a parliamentary borough which includes in whole or in part more municipal boroughs than one, each such municipal borough shall, for the purposes of this Act, be dealt with separately and as if each were the only municipal borough included in whole or in part in such parliamentary borough, and if any parish is partly in one and partly in another or others of such municipal boroughs, so much thereof as is in any one of such municipal boroughs shall, for the purposes of this Act, be dealt with as a separate parish. Provision where several municipal boroughs included in one parliamentary borough.

The town clerk of each such municipal borough shall, so far as regards the area of such municipal borough, i-sue the precepts and perform the other duties to be performed by the town clerk under and shall be the town clerk for the purposes of the Parliamentary Registration Acts and this Act.

18. The Municipal Corporation Acts shall not, as to anything prior to the completion of the Application of Parliamentary

(1) As to purely municipal boroughs, see 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, Third Schedule, Part I., r. 1, ante, p. 354.

Secs. 18-24.

Registration Acts to burgess lists made out under this Act.

revision of the burgess lists, apply to any burgess list made out under this Act, and instead thereof the Parliamentary Registration Acts, as modified by this Act, shall, up to the completion of the revision of the burgess lists, apply to every such burgess list, as if it were a list of parliamentary voters made out under those Acts, and as if the municipal borough to which such burgess lists relate were a parliamentary borough: Provided as follows:

- (1.) Nothing in this Act shall authorise a person entered on a burgess list, not being also entered on a list of parliamentary voters, to make any objection in respect of a list of parliamentary voters, or authorise any person entered on a list of parliamentary voters, not being also entered on a burgess list, to make any objection in respect of a burgess list;
- (2.) The last day for revising a burgess list made out under this Act shall be the twelfth day of October (1); and
- (3.) The burgess lists when revised shall be copied for the burgess roll in manner directed by the Municipal Corporation Acts.

Lists of persons qualified to be aldermen or councillors, but not to be burgesses

19. Where the whole or part of the area of a municipal borough is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, the separate lists of the persons entitled to be elected councillors or aldermen of the municipal borough, though not entitled to be on the burgess roll, shall be made out at the same time and in the same manner as the burgess lists, and all the provisions of this Act with regard to the burgess lists shall apply to those separate lists.

20. [Abolition of assessors in certain municipal boroughs (2).]

Lists and registers may be arranged according to streets.

21. If and so far as the local authority so direct, the lists of parliamentary voters and registers of parliamentary voters in parliamentary boroughs, and the burgess lists and burgess rolls in municipal boroughs, and the lists of claimants and persons objected to in parliamentary boroughs and municipal boroughs respectively, or any of those documents, shall, so far as they relate to persons qualified in respect of the ownership or occupation of property (including persons qualified in respect of lodgings), be arranged in the same order in which the qualifying premises appear in the rate book for the parish in which those premises are situate, or as nearly thereto as will cause those lists, registers, and rolls to record the qualifying premises in successive order in the street or other place in which they are situate, subject in the case of a municipal borough divided into wards to the division of the burgess roll into ward lists. The local authority in this Act means as regards a parliamentary borough the authority having power to divide the parliamentary borough into polling districts, and as regards a municipal borough the council of the municipal borough.

Claim by lodger retaining same lodgings in successive years.

22. Where a person is entered in respect of lodgings on the register of voters for the time being in force, and desires to be entered on the next register in respect of the same lodgings, he may claim to be so entered by sending notice of his claim to the overseers of the parish in which his lodgings are situate on or before the twenty-fifth day of July.

The overseers shall on or before the last day of July make out a list of all persons so claiming, and if they have reasonable cause to believe that any person whose name is entered on the list is not entitled to be registered or is dead, shall add in the margin of the list opposite his name the words "objected to" or "dead," as the case may be.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 18.

The lists so made out shall be signed, published, and otherwise dealt with in the same manner as the alphabetical lists mentioned in section thirteen of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, and shall for the purposes of the Parliamentary Registration Acts be deemed to be lists of voters, and the provisions of the Parliamentary Registration Acts as to objections shall apply to such lists, and the persons against whose names the overseers have so written the words "objected to" or "dead," shall be deemed to be duly objected to.

Declaration of lodger to be prima facie evidence.

23. In the case of a person claiming to vote as a lodger, the declaration annexed to his notice of claim shall, for the purposes of revision, be prima facie evidence of his qualification.

Declarations as to misdescription.

24. Any person who is entered on any list of voters for a parliamentary borough or any burgess list, subject to revision under this Act, for a municipal borough, and whose name or place of abode or the nature of whose qualification or the name or situation of whose qualifying property is not correctly stated in such list, or in respect of whom there is any other error or omission in the said list, may, whether he has received a notice of objection or not, if he thinks fit, make and subscribe a declaration in the form in that behalf in the schedule to this Act, or as near thereto as the circumstances will admit, before any justice of the peace or any commissioner or other person authorised to administer oaths in the Supreme Court of Judicature (3).

The declaration shall be duly dated and shall on or before the twelfth day of September be sent to the town clerk, who forthwith shall indorse on the declaration a memorandum signed or initialed by him, stating the date when he received it, and naming the declarant, and the list to which the declaration refers, and shall deliver all such declarations to the revising barrister at his first court. Secs. 24-28.

(1) As to purely municipal boroughs, see 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, Third Schedule, Part I. rr. 10, 25, ante, p. 355.

(2) Repealed. 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 5, ante, p. 269.

(3) See Porrett v. Lord, L. R. 5 C. P. D. 65, 49 L. J. C. P. 176, 42 L. T. N. S. 28, 28 W. R. 393.

If the declaration is sent as aforesaid in due time (of which the said indorsement shall be prima facie proof), the revising barrister shall receive the declaration as evidence of the facts declared to, and that without proof of the signature of the declarant, or of the justice, commissioner, or person before whom the declaration purports to have been subscribed, unless he has good reason to doubt the genuineness of any signature thereto.

The declaration shall be open free of charge to public inspection at the office of the said town clerk, at any time between the hours of ten of the clock in the forenoon and four of the clock in the afternoon of any day except Sunday, before the fifteenth day of September, and he shall deliver copies thereof on application and payment of the price of fourpence per folio of seventy-two words.

25. If any person falsely or fraudulently signs any such declaration as last aforesaid, or any declaration either as claimant or witness in respect of a claim to vote as a lodger in the name of any other person, whether that person is living or dead, or in a fictitious name, or sends as genuine any false or falsified declaration knowing the same to be false or falsified, or knowingly and wilfully makes any false statement of fact in any declaration of the nature aforesaid, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by fine or by imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year, and the revising barrister shall have power to impound the declaration. Penalty for false declaration.

26. The notice required by the seventeenth and twentieth sections of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, to be given to persons objected to in boroughs for the purposes of the revision of the lists of voters for a parliamentary borough, and the burgess lists for a municipal borough whose burgess lists are revised under this Act, shall state specifically the ground or grounds of objection, and sections seven and eight of the County Voters Registration Act, 1865, shall extend to such objections. Notice of objection to state specific grounds of objection, &c. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18, ss. 17, 20. 23 & 29 Vict. c. 36, ss. 7, 8.

27. For the purposes of the revision of the lists of voters for a parliamentary borough, and the burgess lists for a municipal borough whose burgess lists are revised under this Act— Revision of lists of voters.

- (1.) An objection may be withdrawn by a notice to that effect in writing, signed by the objector, and given to the person objected to and to the town clerk not less than seven days before the day which shall be appointed for the holding of the first court of revision of the list to which the objection relates : Objections may be withdrawn.
- (2.) Any objection by a qualified objector may, after his death, be revived by any other person qualified to have made the objection originally by a notice to that effect in writing signed by him, and given to the person objected to and to the town clerk at or before the time of the revision of the entry to which the objection relates : Reviver of objections on death of objector.

A person reviving an objection shall be deemed to have made the objection originally, and he shall be responsible in respect thereof, and the proceedings thereon shall be continued accordingly :

- (3.) Where objection is made otherwise than by an overseer to any person whose name appears on a list of voters or burgesses and the name is retained on the list, the revising barrister shall, unless he is of opinion that the objection was reasonably made either because of a defect or error in the entry to which the objection relates, or because of a difficulty in verifying or identifying the particulars comprised in such entry, or unless the objection is duly withdrawn, or unless for some other special reason he otherwise determines, order costs not exceeding forty shillings to be paid by the objector to the person objected to. Costs of objections.

28. A revising barrister shall, with respect to the lists of voters for a parliamentary borough and the burgess lists for a municipal borough which he is appointed to revise, perform the duties and have the powers following : Duties and powers of revising barrister.

- (1.) He shall correct any mistake which is proved to him to have been made in any list (1) :
- (2.) He may correct any mistake which is proved to him to have been made in any claim or notice of objection (1) :
- (3.) He shall expunge the name of every person, whether objected to or not, whose qualification as stated in any list is insufficient in law to entitle such person to be included therein :
- (4.) He shall expunge the name of every person who, whether objected to or not, is proved to the revising barrister to be dead :

(1) See Pickard v. Baylis, L. R. 5 C. P. D. 235, 49 L. J. C. P. 182, 41 L. T. N. S. 509, 28 W. R. 256; and Porrett v. Lord, ante, p. 1284.

Section 28

- (5.) Where an entry in any list and an entry in a return made to the overseers of deaths appear to relate to the same person, the revising barrister shall inquire whether such entries relate to the same person, and on proof being made to him that the entries relate to the same person shall expunge the entry in the list therefrom :
- (6.) The revising barrister shall expunge the name of every person, whether objected to or not, whose name or place of abode, or the nature of whose qualification, or the name or situation of whose qualifying property if the qualification is in respect of property, or any other particulars respecting whom by law required to be stated in the list, is or are either wholly omitted or in the judgment of the revising barrister insufficiently described for the purpose of being identified, unless the matter or matters so omitted or insufficiently described be supplied to the satisfaction of the revising barrister before he shall have completed the revision of the list in which the omission or insufficient description occurs, and in case such matter or matters shall be so supplied, he shall then and there insert the same in such list ⁽¹⁾ :
- (7.) He shall expunge the name of every person, whether objected to or not, where it is proved to the revising barrister that such person was, on the last day of July then next preceding, incapacitated by any law or statute from voting at an election for the parliamentary borough or an election for the municipal borough, as the case may be, to which the list relates :
- (8.) Before expunging from a list the name of any person not objected to, the revising barrister shall cause such notice if any, as shall appear to him necessary or proper under the circumstances of the proposal to expunge the name, to be given to or left at the usual or last known place of abode of such person :
- (9.) Subject as herein and otherwise by law provided, the revising barrister shall retain the name of every person not objected to, and also of every person objected to, unless the objector appears by himself or by some person on his behalf in support of his objection :
- (10.) If the objector so appears the revising barrister shall require him, unless he is an overseer, to prove that he gave the notice or notices of objection required by law to be given by him, and to give prima facie proof of the ground of objection, and for that purpose may himself examine and allow the objector to examine the overseers or any other person on oath touching the alleged ground of objection, and unless such proof is given to his satisfaction shall, subject as herein and otherwise by law provided, retain the name of the person objected to :
 An objection made under this Act by overseers shall be deemed to cast upon the person objected to the burden of proving his right to be on the list :
 The prima facie proof shall be deemed to be given by the objector if it is shown to the satisfaction of the revising barrister by evidence, repute, or otherwise that there is reasonable ground for believing that the objection is well founded, and that by reason of the person objected to not being present for examination, or for some other reason, the objector is prevented from discovering or proving the truth respecting the entry objected to :
- (11.) If such proof is given by the objector as herein prescribed, or if the objection is by overseers, then unless the person objected to appears by himself or by some person on his behalf, and proves that he was entitled on the last day of July then next preceding to have his name inserted in the list in respect of the qualification described in such list, the revising barrister shall expunge the name of the person objected to :
- (12.) Where the matter stated in a list or claim, or proved to the revising barrister in relation to any alleged right to be on any list, is in the judgment of the revising barrister insufficient in law to constitute a qualification of the nature or description stated or claimed, but sufficient in law to constitute a qualification of some other nature or description, the revising barrister, if the name is entered in a list for which such true qualification in law is appropriate, shall correct such entry by inserting such qualification accordingly, and in any other case shall insert the name with such qualification in the appropriate list, and shall expunge it from the other list, if any, in which it is entered :
- (13.) Except as herein provided, and whether any person is objected to or not, no evidence shall be given of any other qualification than that which is described in the list or claim, as the case may be, nor shall the revising barrister be at liberty to change the description of the qualification as it appears in the list except for the purpose of more clearly and accurately defining the same :

⁽¹⁾ See note, ante, p. 1285.

- (14.) Where the name of any person appears to be entered more than once as a parliamentary voter on the lists of voters for the same parliamentary borough, or more than once as a burgess on the burgess lists for the same municipal borough, the revising barrister shall inquire whether such entries relate to the same person, and on proof being made to him that such entries relate to the same person shall retain one of the entries for voting, and place against the other or others a note to the effect that the person is not entitled to vote in respect of the qualification therein contained for the parliamentary borough or for the municipal borough, as the case may be, he being on the list for voting in respect of another qualification :

Secs. 28-30.

Any such person may, by notice in writing delivered to the revising barrister at the opening of his first revision court, select the entry to be retained for voting, and in making such selection may select one entry to be retained for voting for the parliamentary borough, and another entry to be retained for voting as a burgess for the municipal borough, but if he does not make any selection the entry to be so retained shall be selected by the revising barrister, except in the case of freemen, in which case the entry to be retained by the revising barrister for voting shall be that on the freemen's list.

If any question on appeal, or otherwise, arise as to the validity of the qualification for which the parliamentary voter or burgess is on the list for voting, recourse may be had for supporting the right of the voter or burgess to be on the parliamentary register or burgess roll for voting to any other qualification of such person appearing on the register or burgess roll :

Provided always, that in the case of a municipal borough divided into wards a vote given in or the right to vote in one ward shall not be supported by a qualification appearing on the burgess roll for some other ward :

- (15.) Where a list is made out in divisions the revising barrister shall place the name of any person in the division in which it should appear according to the result of the revision, regard being had to the title of the person to be on the list both as a parliamentary voter and as a burgess, or only in one of those capacities, and shall expunge the name from the other division (if any) in which it appears.

This section shall, as regards every parliamentary borough and every municipal borough whose burgess lists are revised under this Act, take effect instead of section forty of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 13, s. 40.

29. The provisions of the fifty-first section of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, relating to the power of the revising barrister to fine overseers for neglect of duty, shall extend to every wilful refusal, neglect, or breach of duty on the part of overseers in the execution of this Act.

Power to fine overseers for neglect of duty. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 13, s. 51.

30. Where the whole or part of the area of a municipal borough is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, the expenses properly incurred by the town clerk (including in his expenses the matters mentioned in section thirty-one of the Representation of the People Act, 1867), and the expenses properly incurred by the overseers in carrying into effect the provisions of this Act with respect to the lists of parliamentary voters and burgess lists, and all moneys received in respect of any of those lists, or in respect of any fine imposed by the revising barrister on the revision of the lists, shall be respectively paid and applied as follows :

Expenses and receipts.

- (1.) If the area of the parliamentary borough and the area of the municipal borough are co-extensive, one half of the expenses shall be defrayed in the manner provided by the Parliamentary Registration Acts as expenses incurred thereunder, and the other half shall be defrayed out of the borough fund, and one half of the moneys received as aforesaid shall be applied in the manner directed in those Acts, and the other half shall be paid to the borough fund :

- (2.) In all other cases the expenses and receipts in respect of the area common to the parliamentary borough and to a municipal borough shall, as to one half thereof, be defrayed and applied as expenses and receipts under the Parliamentary Registration Acts, and shall as to the other half thereof be defrayed out of and paid to the borough fund of such municipal borough :

30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 31.

And the expenses and receipts in respect of an area exclusively parliamentary shall be defrayed and applied as expenses and receipts under the Parliamentary Registration Acts :

And the expenses and receipts of an area exclusively municipal shall be defrayed out of and paid to the borough fund of the municipal borough comprising such area :

Any expenses and receipts incurred or arising in respect of more than one such area

Secs. 30-37.

shall be apportioned between the several areas in respect of which they are incurred or arise, in the proportion as nearly as may be in which the same are incurred and arise in respect of the several areas, regard being had to the number of parliamentary voters or burgesses in each area, or any other circumstances occasioning the expenses or giving rise to the receipts :

The revising barrister shall, as part of the business of the revision, determine, if necessary, in respect of what area or areas any expenses or receipts are incurred or arise, and how much thereof is attributable to each area.

The remuneration of the revising barrister shall be paid as heretofore under the Parliamentary Registration Acts : Provided always, that in the case of a municipal borough whose burgess lists are revised under this Act, there shall be paid out of the borough fund to the revising barrister, by way of additional remuneration in respect of his additional work on account of the municipal revision for such municipal borough, a remuneration at the rate mentioned in the third section of the Municipal Corporation Act, 1859 ⁽¹⁾.

22 Vict. c. 35, s. 3.

Delivery and custody of revised lists.

31. The lists, if made out in divisions under this Act, shall when revised be delivered to the town clerk to whom in respect of the area to which the lists relate revised parliamentary lists ought to be delivered.

The revising barrister shall as part of the business of the revision, at the request of the town clerk of any municipal borough the whole or part of the area of which is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough, sign and deliver to him a duplicate of the whole or part of any revised list made out in divisions and relating to that municipal borough.

Every such duplicate shall be prepared by the town clerk at whose request it is so signed, and shall be kept by him for use for municipal purposes.

Commencement and duration of parliamentary register.

32. The register made up from revised lists under the Parliamentary Registration Acts and this Act of voters for any parliamentary borough shall come into operation on the first day of January next after the revision, and shall continue in operation for the year commencing with such first day of January.

Commencement and duration of burgess roll.

33. The burgess roll made up from revised lists under this Act of burgesses for any municipal borough shall come into operation on the first day of November next after the revision, and shall continue in operation for the year commencing with such first day of November.

34. [Certain expressions in 38 & 39 Vict. c. 40, to refer to new burgess roll or ward list ⁽²⁾.]

Appeal and correction of burgess roll where burgess lists are revised under this Act.

35. Where burgess lists are revised under this Act, the provisions of the Parliamentary Registration Acts as to appeal from the decision of the revising barrister shall apply to a decision on the revision of the burgess lists, and the provisions of the said Acts as to the alteration or correction of the register in pursuance of any judgment or order of the Court of Appeal shall apply to the alteration or correction of the burgess roll made up from the burgess lists as if it were a register of parliamentary voters, except that the notice of the judgment or order shall be given to the town clerk having the custody of the burgess roll, and the alteration or correction shall be made and signed by him ⁽³⁾.

Power for revising barrister to summon witnesses.

36. A revising barrister may by summons under his hand require any person to attend at the Court and give evidence or produce documents for the purpose of the revision, and any person who after the tender to him of a reasonable amount for his expenses fails so to attend, or who fails to answer any question put to him by the revising barrister in pursuance of this section, or to produce any document which he is required in pursuance of this section to produce, shall be liable to pay such fine not exceeding five pounds as may be imposed by the revising barrister, and such fine may be recovered, and when recovered shall be applied in like manner as any other fine imposed by the revising barrister under the Parliamentary Registration Acts.

Appeal where revising barrister neglects or refuses to state case.

37. If any person feels aggrieved by a revising barrister neglecting or refusing to state any case, he may, within one month after such neglect or refusal, apply to the High Court of Justice upon affidavit of the facts for a rule calling on the revising barrister, and also on the person, if any, in whose favour the decision from which the applicant desires to appeal was given, to show cause why a rule should not be made directing the appeal to be entertained and the case to be stated; and thereupon the High Court, or any judge thereof in chambers, may make such rule to show cause, and make the same absolute, or discharge it with or without payment of costs as seems just, and the revising barrister on being served with any such rule absolute shall state the case accordingly, and the case shall be stated and the appeal entertained and heard, notwithstanding any limitations of time or place contained in the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843. Secs. 37-43.

⁽¹⁾ See now 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 30 (15), and Fourth Schedule, ante, pp. 278 and 358.

⁽²⁾ Repealed, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 5, ante, p. 269; but see Third Schedule, Part II. r. 18, of that statute, ante p. 357.

⁽³⁾ By Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1881, 44 & 45 Vict. c. 68, s. 14, the jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice to decide questions of law, upon appeal or otherwise, under this Act or any Act amending the same, shall henceforth be final and conclusive, unless in any case it shall seem fit to the said High Court to give special leave to appeal therefrom to Her Majesty's Court of Appeal whose decision in such case shall be final and conclusive.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 18.

38. The costs of an appellant against a decision of a revising barrister may, if the appeal is successful, be ordered by the Court hearing the appeal to be paid by the clerk of the peace or town clerk named as respondent in the said appeal, whether he shall or shall not appear before the said Court in support of the decision. Costs of appeal.

For enabling an appellant to obtain such an order he may at or before the time of making his declaration of appeal under section forty-two of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, require the revising barrister to name the clerk of the peace for the county or the town clerk for the parliamentary borough or municipal borough, as the case may be, to which the appeal relates to be respondent in the appeal. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18. s. 42.

The revising barrister if so required shall, and in any case may, name such clerk of the peace or town clerk, as the case may be, to be respondent in an appeal, either alone or in addition to any other person referred to in section forty-three of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18, s. 43.

The expenses properly incurred by a clerk of the peace or town clerk as respondent, including any costs which he may be ordered to pay to the appellant in any such appeal, shall be allowed to him as part of the expenses incurred by him in respect of the revision of the list to which the appeal relates. The term "expenses" in this section shall include all matters mentioned in section thirty-one of the Representation of the People Act, 1867. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18, s. 43.

The costs of an appeal against a decision of a revising barrister shall be in the discretion of the Court hearing the appeal, subject, except as aforesaid, to the proviso contained in section seventy of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843. 30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 31.

39. The authority having power to make rules for regulating the practice and procedure in Her Majesty's High Court of Justice may from time to time make, and when made alter and annul, rules for regulating the practice and procedure in the Courts of revising barristers for the purposes of the Parliamentary Registration Acts and of this Act. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18, s. 70.

All rules made under this section shall be laid before each House of Parliament within forty days next after the same are made, if Parliament is then sitting, and if not, within forty days after the beginning of the then next sitting of Parliament, and if an address is presented to Her Majesty by either of the said Houses within the next subsequent forty days on which the said House shall have sat praying that any such rule be annulled, Her Majesty may by Order in Council annul the same, and any rule so annulled shall thenceforth be of no effect, but without prejudice to the validity of any proceedings in the meantime taken thereunder. Power to make rules for proceedings at revision courts.

All such rules shall while in force have effect as if enacted in this Act. Rules to be laid before Parliament.

40. The provisions of section one hundred and one of the Parliamentary Electors Registration Act, 1843, as to the service of notices shall apply to the service of notices under this Act. Service of notices.

The term "notice" in the Parliamentary Registration Acts and this Act shall include any document required to be sent or delivered. 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18, s. 101.

41. [Application of 35 & 36 Vict. c. 33, s. 13 (1).]

42. [Saving for existing registers and burgess rolls (2).]

43. Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions contained in section seventy-eight of the Reform Act, 1832. Saving for 2 & 3 Will. 4, c. 45, s. 78.

SCHEDULE.

FORM (A.) (3).

FORM OF PRECEPT of the TOWN CLERK or other OFFICER issuing the PRECEPT to the OVERSEERS of any PARISH situate wholly or partly in a PARLIAMENTARY BOROUGH, or in a MUNICIPAL BOROUGH the whole or part of the Area of which is co-extensive with or included in the Area of a PARLIAMENTARY BOROUGH.

+ Parliamentary borough } To the overseers of the poor of the parish of of + township of } [or * Municipal borough of * }
to wit.

In pursuance of the provisions of the Parliamentary and Municipal Registration Act, 1878, and the Acts therein referred to, I require your attention to the following:

(1) Repealed, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 5, but see now section 72 of that statute, ante, p. 288.

(2) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

(3) See sections 8 and 24, ante, pp. 1281, 1284.

+ Omit part between crosses if no part of parish is in a parliamentary borough.

* Omit part between asterisks if no part of parish is in a municipal borough.

Schedule.

Note.—Form B. in this schedule must be sent.

Note.—Form C. in this schedule must be sent.

When a borough rate is levied as a separate rate and not as part of the poor rate, the precept should be altered accordingly so as to contain a reference to the borough rate.

Note.—The appropriate form must be sent.

Note.—A printed copy of the directions in the schedule for the guidance of overseers in making out the lists must be enclosed.

Note.—A printed copy of the Table No. 1 in Schedule (D.) to the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, 6 & 7 Vict. c. 18, must be enclosed.

Instructions.

On or before the twentieth day of June you are to publish a notice [or notices], signed by you according to the form marked B. among the printed forms herewith sent.

The manner in which you are required to publish that notice is as follows; (that is to say), you are to fix one of the printed copies (each copy being first signed by you), on or near the outside of the outer door or of the outer wall near the door of every church and public chapel in your parish [or township], including chapels which do not belong to the Established Church, and also in some public and conspicuous position on or near every post office or telegraph office occupied by or on behalf of Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, and every public or municipal or parochial office in your parish [or township], or if there is no such church, chapel, or office, then in some public situation in your parish [or township], and it must remain there during a period including two Sundays at the least.

Where any poor rate was on the first day of June due from an occupier in respect of any premises capable of conferring the franchise for the said †parliamentary or† municipal borough, you are on or before the twentieth day of June to give to that occupier a notice in the form marked C. sent herewith, by delivering it to the occupier, or leaving it at his last or usual place of abode, or with some person on the premises in respect of which the rate is payable and in case no such person can be found, then by affixing the notice upon some conspicuous part of such premises. You need not give this notice if the rate has been previously duly demanded by a demand note served in the like manner as the last-mentioned notice.

On or before the twenty-second day of July next you are to make out a list containing the name and place of abode of every person who has not paid on or before the twentieth day of the same month all poor rates which have become due from him in respect of any premises within your parish [or township] before the fifth day of January last, and you are to keep that list to be perused by any person gratis at any time between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on any day except Sunday, during the first fourteen days after the said twenty-second day of July.

On or before the last day of July you are to make out a list of all persons †entitled under any right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832 (2 & 3 Will. IV. c. 45), or by section three of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, to be registered as parliamentary voters to vote at the election of a member [or members] to serve in Parliament for the parliamentary borough of in respect of the occupation of property situate wholly or partly within your parish [or township], or† entitled to be enrolled as burgesses of the municipal borough of in respect of the occupation of property situate wholly or partly within your parish [or township].

* This list is to be made out in three divisions :

Division One is to comprise the names of the persons entitled both to be registered as parliamentary voters under a right conferred as aforesaid, and to be enrolled as burgesses.

Division Two is to comprise the names of the persons entitled to be registered as parliamentary voters under a right conferred as aforesaid, but not to be enrolled as burgesses.

Division Three is to comprise the names of the persons entitled to be enrolled as burgesses, but not to be registered as parliamentary voters under a right conferred as aforesaid.*

† On or before the last day of July you are also to make out a list of all persons who are entitled within your parish [or township] to be registered as parliamentary voters to vote at the election of a member [or members] to serve in Parliament for the said parliamentary borough in respect of any other right than a right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832, or by section three of the Representation of the People Act, 1867 (except as freemen or as lodgers).

On or before the last day of July you are also to make out a list of all persons who being on the register of voters now in force for the said parliamentary borough in respect of residence in lodgings within your parish [or township] have duly claimed, on or before the twenty-fifth day of July, to have their names inserted in the lists of parliamentary voters for the said borough in respect of residence in the same lodgings.†

These lists are [or this list is] to be in the form D. (or, as the case may be, E. or F.) sent herewith.

‡ On or before the last day of July you are also to make out a list (in the Form G. sent herewith) of all persons who are entitled, in respect of the occupation of property within your parish [or township], to be elected councillors or aldermen of the said municipal borough, but who are not entitled to be on the burgess roll thereof.‡

In making out each of these lists you will follow the directions of which a copy is enclosed.

On or before the first day of August you are to sign and publish written or printed copies of these lists, in the same manner as before mentioned with respect to the notice.

You are to keep a copy of these lists signed by you, †and also a copy of the lists of defaulters in payment of assessed taxes sent to you by the collector of taxes,† to be open to public inspection at any time between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon of any day, except Sunday, during the first fourteen days after the publication of the said lists, and to deliver copies of any such lists to any person on payment of a price for each

* Omit part between asterisks if no part of parish is in a municipal borough, or if no part of parish is in a parliamentary borough.

† Omit part between crosses if no part of parish is in a parliamentary borough.

‡ Omit part between asterisks if no part of parish is in a municipal borough, but unless it is omitted, send form G.

copy after the rate contained in the table marked "Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, Schedule (D.), No. 1," sent herewith.

You are to make out lists according to the forms marked K. sent herewith, containing the names of every person who has given or caused to be given to you, or any one of you, on or before the twenty-fifth day of August, notice of his claim to have his name inserted in any list of voters, making separate lists of—

- (1.) Persons claiming to be entered in the lists of parliamentary voters otherwise than as free-men or lodgers; and
- (2.) Persons claiming to be entered in the lists of parliamentary voters as lodgers who are not comprised in the above-mentioned list of lodger voters; *and
- (3.) Persons claiming to be entered in the burgess lists.*

You are also to make out lists according to the forms marked L. sent herewith, containing the names of every person against whom a notice of objection has been given to you, or any of you, on or before the twenty-fifth day of August, as not being entitled to have his name retained in any list for your parish [or township], giving in separate lists the objections made to—

- (1.) Any person on the list of parliamentary voters other than the above-mentioned list of lodger voters;
- (2.) Any person on the above-mentioned list of lodger voters;
- (3.) Any person on the burgess list.

On or before the twenty-ninth day of August you are to deliver to me copies of the lists so respectively made out and signed by you as aforesaid.

On or before the first day of September you are to sign and publish each of the lists of claimants and persons objected to in the same manner as before mentioned with respect to the notice.

You are to keep a copy of each of the lists of claimants and persons objected to, signed by you, and these copies, and also the original notices of claims and of objections, are to be open to public inspection at any time between the hours of ten of the clock in the forenoon and four of the clock in the afternoon of any day, except Sunday, during the first fourteen days of September, and you are to deliver copies of each of these lists to any person on payment of a price for each copy after the rate contained in the table marked "Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, Schedule (D.), No. 1," sent herewith.

If you find any such notice, list or other document published by you as aforesaid to be destroyed, mutilated, effaced, or removed, you are forthwith to place another in its room to the same effect.

You are to attend at the court to be holden for the revision of the said lists, of the time of holding which notice will be given; and at the opening of the court you are there to deliver to the barrister before whom the same is holden the several lists made out and signed by you, and the original notices of claims and of objections given to you.

Herein if you fail you will be liable to the penalties in that case provided.

Dated the day of 18 .

(Signed) A. B.,
Town Clerk of the Municipal Borough of .

FORM B.

NOTICE to be Published by the OVERSEERS in a PARLIAMENTARY BOROUGH.

Parliamentary borough of , } We hereby give notice that no person will be entitled to wit. , } to have his name inserted in any list of parliamentary voters for the parliamentary borough of , now about to be made in respect of the occupation of any property situate wholly or partly within this parish [or township] unless he pays on or before the twentieth day of July all the poor rates which have become due from him in respect of those premises up to the fifth day of January last past; or to have his name inserted in any such list under any right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832, in respect of the occupation of any property situate as aforesaid, unless he pays on or before the twentieth day of July all assessed taxes which have become due from him in respect of those premises up to the fifth day of January last passed; and all persons who omit to make such payments will be incapable of being upon the next register of parliamentary voters for this borough in respect of those premises.

Dated the day of June 18 .

(Signed) A. B. } Overseers of the Parish [or Township]
 C. D. } of .

NOTICE to be Published by the OVERSEERS in a MUNICIPAL BOROUGH (1).

Municipal borough of , } We hereby give notice that no person will be entitled to to wit. , } have his name inserted in any list of burgesses of the municipal borough of , now about to be made in respect of the occupation of any property situate wholly or partly within this parish [or township], unless he pays on or before

* Omit part between asterisks if no part of parish is in a municipal borough.

(1) This form is to be used only where the whole or part of the area of the municipal borough is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough.

Note.—Forms marked K. and
L. must be sent.

If the officer issuing precept is not the town clerk of a municipal borough, he should append to his signature his proper official description.

the twentieth day of July all poor rates and borough rates (if any) which have become due from him in respect of those premises up to the fifth day of January last past; and all persons who omit to make such payment will be incapable of being upon the next burgess roll for this borough in respect of those premises.

(Signed) A. E. } Overseers of the Parish [or Township]
 C. D. } of .

FORM (C.) (1).

Take notice that you will not be entitled to have your name inserted† in the list of parliamentary voters for the parliamentary borough of * or † in the Burgess lists for the municipal borough of * now about to be made in respect of the premises in your occupation in [street or place], unless you pay on or before the twentieth day of July next all the poor rates* (including borough rates, if any)* due from you in respect of those premises up to the fifth day of January last, amounting to £ , and if you omit to make such payment you will be incapable of being on the next † register of parliamentary voters for the said parliamentary borough* or † Burgess roll for the said municipal borough.*

(Signed) C. D. } Overseers, E. F. } or G. H., Assistant Overseer, or
I. K., Collector of the Parish [or Township] of

FORM of LISTS of PARLIAMENTARY VOTERS and BURGESSES for a PARISH wholly or partly situate both in a PARLIAMENTARY BOROUGH and in a MUNICIPAL BOROUGH.

N.B.—This list (No. 1) does not contain the names of any parliamentary voters except those entitled under some right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832, or by section 3 of the Representation of the People Act, 1867.

† The persons entitled under any right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832, or by section three of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, to be registered as parliamentary voters to vote at the election of a member [or members] to serve in Parliament for the parliamentary borough of _____ in respect of the occupation of property situate wholly or partly within this parish [or township],* and † the persons entitled to be enrolled as burgesses for the municipal borough of _____ in respect of this occupation of property situate wholly or partly within this parish [or township].*

Division One. Persons entitled both to be Registered as Parliamentary Voters under a right conferred as aforesaid, and to be Enrolled as Burgesses.

1. Names of Voters in full, Surname being first.	2. Place of Abode.	3. Nature of Qualification.	4. Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.
Abrahams, Samuel -	4, Brick Street - -	House (joint) -	4, Brick Street.
Brown, Thomas - -	4, Brick Street - -	Shop - -	4, Brick Street.
Masters, Abel - -	1, Brick Street - -	House - -	1, Brick Street.
Smith, William - -	Wood Villa, Gains- borough.	Buildings - -	2, Brick Street.

(1) This form is to be used in every parliamentary borough, but only in a municipal borough the whole or part of the area of which is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough. If no part of the parish is in a parliamentary borough the parts between crosses are to be omitted. If no part of the parish is in a municipal borough the parts between asterisks are to be omitted. Where a borough rate is levied as a separate rate and not as part of the poor rate, the form should be altered accordingly, so as to distinguish the borough rate from the poor rate, and to state that omission to pay the borough rate will disqualify for enrolment as a burgess.

Division Two. Persons entitled to be registered as Parliamentary Voters under a right conferred as aforesaid, but not to be Enrolled as Burgesses. Schedule.

Names of Voters in full, Surname being first.	Place of Abode.	Nature of Qualification.	Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.
Adams, John - -	24, Duke Street -	House - -	7, Brick Street.
Stubbs, Thomas - -	10, High Street -	Shop - -	4, Brick Street.

Division Three. Persons entitled to be Enrolled as Burgesses, but not to be Registered as Parliamentary Voters under a right conferred as aforesaid.

Names of Voters in full, Surname being first.	Place of Abode.	Nature of Qualification.	Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.
Gardener, Mary - -	10, Brick Street - -	House - -	10, Brick Street.
Thompson, Henry - -	14 John Street - -	Warehouse - -	3, Brick Street.

(Signed) A. B. } Overseers of the Parish [or Township]
C. D. } of

No. 2.—LIST OF

The persons entitled to be registered as Parliamentary Voters to vote at the election of a member [or members] to serve in Parliament for the parliamentary borough of in respect of any other right than a right conferred by the Reform Act, 1832, or by section 3 of the Representation of the People Act, 1867 (except as freemen or as lodgers).

Names of Voters in full, Surname being first.	Place of Abode.	Nature of Qualification.	Name and Situation of Qualifying Property (if any).
Smith, John -	15, Brick Street -	Inhabitant householder, paying scot and lot.

(Signed) A. B. } Overseers of the Parish [or Township]
C. D. } of

No. 3.—LIST OF

The persons who being on the register of voters now in force for the parliamentary borough of in respect of residence in lodgings, within the parish [or township] of claim, in respect of residence in the same lodgings, to have their names inserted in the list of persons entitled to vote in the election of a member [or members] to serve in Parliament for the said borough.

Names of Claimants in full, Surname being first.	Description of Rooms occupied, and whether Furnished or not.	Street, Lane, or other Place, and Number, if any, of House in which Lodgings are situate.	Amount of Rent paid.	Name and Address of Landlord or other Person to whom Rent is paid.	Objections by Overseers.

(Signed) A. B. } Overseers of the Parish [or Township]
C. D. } of

FORM (E.)

FORM of LIST of Parliamentary Voters for a PARISH wholly or partly situate in a PARLIAMENTARY BOROUGH, but not in a MUNICIPAL BOROUGH.

This form is to be the same as Form D., omitting from List No. 1 the parts between asterisks, and omitting the words "Division One. Persons entitled, &c.," forming the heading of Division one, and omitting Divisions two and three.

Schedule.FORM (F.) ⁽¹⁾.

FORM of LIST of Burgesses for a PARISH wholly or partly situate in a MUNICIPAL BOROUGH, but not in a PARLIAMENTARY BOROUGH.

This form is to be the same as Form D., No. 1, omitting the parts between crosses, and omitting the words "Division One. Persons entitled, &c.," forming the heading of Division One, and omitting Divisions Two and Three.

FORM (G.) ⁽¹⁾.

FORM of LIST of Occupiers in any Parish entitled to be elected Councillors or Aldermen of a Municipal Borough, though not entitled to be on the Burgess Roll of that Borough.

List of the persons who are entitled to be elected councillors or aldermen of the municipal borough of _____ in respect of the occupation within the parish [or township] of _____ of any property, but who are not entitled to be on the burgess roll of that borough.

1. Name of Persons in full, Surname being first.	2. Place of Abode.	3. Nature of Qualification.	4. Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.

(Signed) A. B. } Overseers of the Parish [or Township]
C. D. } of .

FORM (H.)

FORM OF NOTICE OF CLAIM.

NOS. 1 & 2.—PARLIAMENTARY.

No. 3.—MUNICIPAL ⁽¹⁾.

To the overseers of the parish [or township] of _____
I claim to have my name inserted in the list made by you of burgesses of the municipal borough of _____, in respect of the qualification named below.
Dated the _____ day of _____, 18 .

Name of Claimant in full, Surname being first.	Place of Abode.	Nature of Qualification.	Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.

(Signed) A. B.

FORM (I.)

FORM OF NOTICE OF OBJECTION.

NOS. 1 AND 2.—PARLIAMENTARY.

No. 3.—MUNICIPAL.

NOTICE OF OBJECTION to be given to OVERSEERS ⁽¹⁾.

To the overseers of the parish [or township] of _____
I hereby give you notice that I object to the name of _____ being retained on the list of burgesses of the municipal borough of _____ Dated the _____ day of _____, 18 .

(Signed) A. B., of [place of abode], on the List of Burgesses for the parish of _____.

⁽¹⁾ This form is to be used only where the whole or part of the area of the municipal borough is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough.

No. 4.—MUNICIPAL.

Schedule.NOTICE of OBJECTION to be given to PERSON objected to ⁽¹⁾.

To Mr.

I hereby give you notice that I object to your name being retained on the list of burgesses of the municipal borough of _____, on the following grounds, viz.:—

1. e. g., that you have not occupied for twelve months to July 15th.
2. That
- 3.

Dated the _____ day of _____, 18____.

(Signed) A. B., of [place of abode], on the List of Burgesses for the parish of _____.

Note.—If there is more than one burgess list the notice of objection in each of the above two cases, Nos. 3. and 4., should specify the list to which the objection refers, and if the list is made out in divisions, the notice of objection should specify the division to which the objection refers; and if the list contains two or more persons of the same name, the notice should distinguish the person intended to be objected to ⁽²⁾.

FORM (K.)

FORM of LIST of CLAIMANTS to be Published by the Overseers.

Nos. 1 & 2.—PARLIAMENTARY.

No. 3.—LIST of CLAIMANTS (MUNICIPAL) ⁽¹⁾.

The following persons claim to have their names inserted in the Burgess Roll for the municipal borough of _____.

Name of Claimant in full, Surname being first.	Place of Abode.	Nature of Qualification.	Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.

(Signed) A. B. } Overseers of the Parish
C. D. } [or Township] of _____.

FORM (L.)

FORM of LIST of Persons Objected to to be Published by the Overseers.

Nos. 1 & 2.—PARLIAMENTARY.

No. 3.—LIST of PERSONS objected to (MUNICIPAL) ⁽¹⁾.

The following persons have been objected to as not entitled to have their names retained on the Burgess Lists for the municipal borough of _____.

Name of Person objected to in full, Surname being first.	Place of Abode.	Nature of the supposed Qualification.	Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.

(Signed) A. B. } Overseers of the Parish
C. D. } [or Township] of _____.

FORM (M.)

DECLARATION for correcting misdescription in List.

I, _____, of No. _____, in the parish of _____, in the parliamentary borough of _____, and in the municipal borough of _____, do solemnly and sincerely declare as follows:—

1. I am the person referred to in Division _____ of the List of Parliamentary Voters

⁽¹⁾ This form is to be used only where the whole or part of the area of the municipal borough is co-extensive with or included in the area of a parliamentary borough.

⁽²⁾ See Mortlock v. Farrer; Hall v. Cropper, L. R. 5 C. P. D. 73, 49 L. J. C. P. 160, 41 L. T. N. S. 170, 28 W. R. 395.

Schedule. and Burgesses made out in Divisions [or in the list of] (specifying the particular list) made out for the parish of , by an entry as follows:—

Name as described in List.	Place of Abode, as described in List.	Nature of Qualification, as described in List.	Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.
Brown, John	High Street	Shop	2, Shire Lane.

2. My correct name and place of abode, and the correct particulars respecting my qualification, are, and ought to be stated for the purposes of the register about to be made up of voters for the parliamentary borough of , and the burgess roll about to be made up of burgesses for the municipal borough of [as the case may be] as follows:—

Correct Name.	Correct place of Abode.	Correct nature of Qualification (1).	Correct Name and Situation of Qualifying Property.
Brown, Joseph	15, High Street	House	24, Shire Lane.

The person before whom the declaration is made should affix his official description.

Dated this day of , 18 .

Made and subscribed before me this day of , 18 . }
A. B.,
Justice of the Peace for

FORM (N.)
NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF OBJECTION.
No. 1.—NOTICE to the PERSON objected to.

To Mr. *
I hereby give you notice that I withdraw my objection to your name being retained on the list of †so far as regards the ground of objection numbered in my notice to you of such objection†.
Dated the day of , 18 .
(Signed) §

No. 2.—NOTICE to the TOWN CLERK.
To the Town Clerk of *
I hereby give you notice that I withdraw my objection to the name of being retained on the list of †so far as regards the ground of objection numbered in my notice to him of such objection†.
Dated the day of , 18 .
(Signed) §

FORM (O.)
NOTICE of REVIVING an OBJECTION.
No. 1.—NOTICE to the PERSON objected to.

To Mr. *
I hereby give you notice that I revive the objection which was made by since deceased, to your name being retained on the list of †so far as regards the ground of objection numbered in the notice to you of such objection†.
Dated the day of , 18 .
(Signed) §

(1) See Porrett v. Lord, ante, p. 1284.
* The list should be referred to in the manner prescribed for the notice of objection.
† Omit the words between crosses if the objection is wholly withdrawn.
‡ Omit the words between crosses if the objection is wholly revived.
§ The notice should be signed in the manner prescribed for the notice of objection.

No. 2.—NOTICE to the TOWN CLERK.

Schedule.

To the Town Clerk of

I hereby give you notice that I revive the objection which was made by since deceased, to the name of being retained on the list of so far as regards the ground of objection numbered in the notice to the person objected to of such objection†.

Dated the day of , 18 .

(Signed)

NOTE (P.)

DIRECTIONS for the Guidance of Overseers in making out the Lists.

The following directions should be observed by overseers in making out the lists of parliamentary voters and burgesses, and also the lists of claimants and persons objected to as parliamentary voters and burgesses.

(1.) The surname and other name or names of each person are to be written at full length, the surname being placed first.

(2.) Each list, and where the list is made out in divisions, each division of each list should be made out in alphabetical order.

(3.) The place of abode should be entered with the name of the street, lane, or other locality, and the number in such street, lane, or other locality of such place of abode, where there is any such name or number, and should be entered in all cases in such a manner as will afford a full and sufficient address for a person entered if a letter is addressed to him by post.

(4.) The nature of the qualification should be entered as nearly as possible in the words of the statute conferring the franchise, for instance:—

(a.) The nature of the qualification of a person under the Reform Act, 1832 (2 & 3 Will. 4, c. 45), or under the Municipal Corporations Acts (1), should be stated thus; "house," or in case of a joint occupation, "house (joint)," or "warehouse," "counting-house," "shop," or "building," or in the manner provided by the Parliamentary and Municipal Registration Act, 1878, as the case may be:

(b.) The nature of the qualification of a person under section 3 of the Representation of the People Act, 1867, should be stated thus, "dwelling-house."

(5.) The name and situation of the qualifying property, if the qualification is in respect of property, should be entered with the name of the street, lane, or other locality, and the number in such street, lane, or other locality of such property, where there is any such name or number, and should be entered in all cases in such a manner as will afford full and sufficient means of identifying such property.

(6.) Where several qualifications are possessed by the same person, the particulars respecting each qualification should be stated in the list; and in the case of a list made out in divisions, where a person is entered in Division 1 in respect of one qualification for parliamentary purposes, and in respect of another qualification for municipal purposes, each such qualification should be distinguished in the list by a note to the effect that the qualification is for parliamentary purposes only, or for municipal purposes only, as the case may be.

(7.) In making out the list of lodger claimants who claim on or before the twenty-fifth day of July, and are then on the register in respect of the same lodgings, if you have reason to believe that any person whose name is entered on that list is dead, or is not entitled to vote, you should make a note to that effect in the last column of the list, being the column headed "Objections by overseers."

(8.) You should omit from any list of parliamentary voters or burgesses the name of any person who appears from the returns furnished by the registrar of births and deaths to be dead, and the name of any person who is ascertained to be disqualified for being inserted in the list by reason of having received parochial relief or other alms.

NOTE (Q.)

DIRECTIONS for Guidance in the formation of the PARLIAMENTARY REGISTER and BURGESS ROLL.

In copying and printing Divisions 1 and 2 for the parliamentary register, and Divisions 1 and 3 for the burgess roll, of any revised list made out in divisions under this Act, the two divisions in each set may, and, if and so far as the local authority under the Act shall so direct, shall be combined or kept separate, and be arranged according to convenience for use in parts for polling districts or wards, and where the polling districts and wards are not continuous in such manner that the parts may be conveniently compiled or put together to serve either as lists for polling districts or as ward lists; and the names may, and, if and so far as the said local authority shall so direct, shall be distinguished by a number either alone, or in combination with a letter or other distinguishing mark according to the parts, and any arrangement may, and, if and so far as the said local authority shall so direct, shall be adopted according to convenience, so that one print or edition of Division 1 may be available for both sets.

* The list should be referred to in the manner prescribed for the notice of objection.

† Omit the words between crosses if the objection is wholly revived.

‡ The notice should be signed in the manner prescribed for the notice of objection.

(1) See 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 9 (2), ante, p. 271.

Schedule.

Each entry for voting on the parliamentary register of every parliamentary borough, and on the burgess roll of every municipal borough whose burgess lists are revised under this Act, is to be distinguished by a number, either alone or in combination with a letter or distinguishing mark.

Any entry of a person not entitled to vote in respect of the qualification therein contained, he being on the list for voting in respect of another qualification, is to be denoted by an asterisk in the manner provided by section forty-seven of the Parliamentary Registration Act, 1843, with respect to similar entries in the register for counties.

The officer having the custody of any revised lists under this Act shall permit access thereto for the purpose of the same being copied for the parliamentary register of the parliamentary borough, and for the burgess roll of any municipal borough to which such revised lists relate.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS (CORRUPT AND ILLEGAL PRACTICES) ACT, 1884.

47 & 48 VICT. c. 70.

An Act for the better Prevention of Corrupt and Illegal Practices at Municipal and other Elections.
[14th August, 1884.]

Corrupt Practices.

Secs. 2—4.

Definition and punishment of corrupt practice at municipal election.

2. (1.) The expression "corrupt practice" in this Act means any of the following offences, namely, treating, undue influence, bribery, and personation as defined by the enactments set forth in part one of the third schedule to this Act, and aiding, abetting, counselling, and procuring the commission of the offence of personation.

(2.) A person who commits any corrupt practice in reference to a municipal election shall be guilty of the like offence, and shall on conviction be liable to the like punishment, and subject to the like incapacities, as if the corrupt practice had been committed in reference to a parliamentary election.

Incapacity of candidate reported guilty of corrupt practice.
45 & 46 Vict. c. 50.

3. (1.) Where upon the trial of an election petition respecting a municipal election for a borough or ward of a borough it is found by the report of an election court made in pursuance of section ninety-three of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, that any corrupt practice, other than treating and undue influence, has been proved to have been committed in reference to such election by or with the knowledge and consent of any candidate at such election, or that the offence of treating or undue influence has been proved to have been committed in reference to such election by any candidate at such election, that candidate shall not be capable of ever holding a corporate office in the said borough, and if he has been elected his election shall be void; and he shall further be subject to the same incapacities as if at the date of the said report he had been convicted of a corrupt practice.

(2.) Upon the trial of an election petition respecting a municipal election for a borough or ward of a borough in which a charge is made of any corrupt practice having been committed in reference to such election, the election court shall report in writing to the High Court whether any of the candidates at such election has been guilty by his agents of any corrupt practice in reference to such election, and if the report is that any candidate at such election has been guilty by his agents of a corrupt practice in reference to such election, that candidate shall not be capable of being elected to or holding any corporate office in the said borough, during a period of three years from the date of the report, and if he has been elected, his election shall be void.

Illegal Practices.

Certain expenditure to be illegal practice.

4. (1.) No payment or contract for payment shall, for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate at a municipal election, be made—

- (a) on account of the conveyance of electors to or from the poll whether for the hiring of horses or carriages, or for railway fares, or otherwise; or
- (b) to an elector on account of the use of any house, land, building, or premises for the exhibition of any address, bill, or notice, or on account of the exhibition of any address, bill, or notice; or
- (c) on account of any committee room in excess of the number allowed by this Act (that is to say), if the election is for a borough one committee room for the borough, and if the election is for a ward one committee room for the ward, and if the number of electors in such borough or ward exceeds two thousand, one additional committee room for every two thousand electors and incomplete part of two thousand electors, over and above the said two thousand.

(2.) Subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Act, if any payment or contract for payment is knowingly made in contravention of this section either before, during, or after a municipal election, the person making such payment or contract shall be guilty of an illegal practice, and any person receiving such payment or being a party to any such contract, knowing the same to be in contravention of this Act, shall also be guilty of an illegal practice.

Secs. 4—8.

(3.) Provided that where it is the ordinary business of an elector as an advertising agent to exhibit for payment bills and advertisements, a payment to or contract with such elector if made in the ordinary course of business, shall not be deemed to be an illegal practice within the meaning of this section.

5. (1.) Subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Act, no sum shall be paid and no expense shall be incurred by or on behalf of a candidate at an election, whether before, during, or after an election, on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, save that in the case of an election of a councillor a sum may be paid and expense incurred not in excess of the maximum amount following; (that is to say,)

Expense in excess of maximum to be illegal practice.

The sum of twenty-five pounds, and, if the number of electors in the borough or ward exceeds five hundred, an additional amount of threepence for each elector above the first five hundred electors.

(2.) Any candidate or agent of a candidate or person who knowingly acts in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(3.) Where there are two or more joint candidates at an election the maximum amount of expenses shall, for each of such joint candidates, be reduced by one-fourth, or if there are more than two joint candidates by one-third.

(4.) Where two or more candidates at the election, by themselves or any agent or agents, hire or use the same committee rooms for such election, or employ or use the services of the same clerks, messengers, or polling agent at such election, or publish a joint address or joint circular or notice at such election, those candidates shall be deemed for the purposes of this enactment to be joint candidates at such election: Provided that—

(a.) The employment and use of the same committee room, clerk, messenger, or polling agent, if accidental or casual, or of a trivial and unimportant character, shall not be deemed of itself to constitute persons joint candidates:

(b.) Nothing in this enactment shall prevent candidates from ceasing to be joint candidates:

(c.) Where any excess of expenses above the maximum allowed for one of two or more joint candidates has arisen owing to his having ceased to be a joint candidate, or to his having become a joint candidate after having begun to conduct his election as a separate candidate, and such ceasing or beginning was in good faith, and such excess is not more than under the circumstances is reasonable, and the total expenses of such candidate do not exceed the maximum amount allowed for a separate candidate, such excess shall be deemed to have arisen from a reasonable cause within the meaning of the enactments respecting the allowance by the High Court or election court of an exception from the provisions of this Act which would otherwise make an act an illegal practice, and the candidate may be relieved accordingly from the consequences of having incurred such excess of expenses.

6. (1.) If any person votes or induces or procures any person to vote at a municipal election, knowing that he or such person is prohibited, whether by this or any other Act, from voting at such election, he shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

Voting by prohibited persons and publishing of false statements of withdrawal to be illegal.

(2.) Any person who before or during a municipal election knowingly publishes a false statement of the withdrawal of a candidate at such election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of another candidate shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(3.) Provided that a candidate shall not be liable, nor shall his election be avoided, for any illegal practice under this section committed without his knowledge and consent.

7. A person guilty of an illegal practice in reference to a municipal election, shall on summary conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds and be incapable during a period of five years from the date of his conviction of being registered as an elector or voting at any election (whether it be a parliamentary election or an election for a public office within the meaning of this Act) held for or within the borough in which the illegal practice has been committed.

Punishment on conviction of illegal practice.

8. (1.) An illegal practice within the meaning of this Act shall be deemed to be an offence against Part IV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1862, and a petition alleging such illegal practice may be presented and tried accordingly.

Incapacity of candidate reported guilty of illegal practice. 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50.

(2.) Upon the trial of an election petition respecting a municipal election for a borough or ward of a borough in which a charge is made of any illegal practice having been committed in reference to such election, the election court shall report in writing to the High Court whether any of the candidates at such election has been guilty by himself or his agents of an illegal practice in reference to such election, and if the report is that a candidate at such election has been guilty by himself or his agents of an illegal practice in reference to such election, the candidate shall not be capable of being elected to or of holding any corporate office in the said borough during the period for which he was elected to serve, or for which if elected he might have served, and if he was elected, his election shall be void; and, if the report is that such candidate has himself been guilty of such illegal practice, he shall also be subject to the same incapacities as if at the date of the report he had been convicted of such illegal practice.

Secs. 8—13.

Illegal Payment, Employment, and Hiring.

Providing of money for illegal practice or payment to be illegal payment.

9. Where a person knowingly provides money for any payment which is contrary to the provisions of this Act, or for any expenses incurred in excess of any maximum amount allowed by this Act, or for replacing any money expended in any such payment, except where the same may have been previously allowed in pursuance of this Act to be an exception, such person shall be guilty of illegal payment.

Employment of hackney carriages, or of carriages and horses kept for hire.

10. (1.) A person shall not let, lend, or employ for the purpose of the conveyance of electors to or from the poll at a municipal election, any public stage or hackney carriage, or any horse or other animal kept or used for drawing the same, or any carriage, horse, or other animal which he keeps or uses for the purpose of letting out for hire, and if he lets, lends, or employs such carriage, horse, or other animal, knowing that it is intended to be used for the purpose of the conveyance of electors to or from the poll, he shall be guilty of illegal hiring.

(2.) A person shall not hire, borrow, or use for the purpose of the conveyance of electors to or from the poll any carriage, horse, or other animal which he knows the owner thereof is prohibited by this section to let, lend, or employ for that purpose, and if he does so he shall be guilty of illegal hiring.

(3.) Nothing in this Act shall prevent a carriage, horse, or other animal being let to or hired, employed, or used by an elector, or several electors at their joint cost, for the purpose of conveying him or them to or from the poll.

(4.) No person shall be liable to pay any duty or to take out a license for any carriage by reason only of such carriage being used without payment or promise of payment for the conveyance of electors to or from the poll at an election.

Corrupt withdrawal from a candidature.

11. Any person who corruptly induces or procures any other person to withdraw from being a candidate at a municipal election, in consideration of any payment or promise of payment, shall be guilty of illegal payment, and any person withdrawing in pursuance of such inducement or procurement shall also be guilty of illegal payment.

Certain expenditure to be illegal payment.

12. (1.) No payment or contract for payment shall, for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate at a municipal election, be made on account of bands of music, torches, flags, banners, cockades, ribbons, or other marks of distinction.

(2.) Subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Act, if any payment or contract for payment is made in contravention of this section, either before, during, or after an election, the person making such payment shall be guilty of an illegal payment, and any person being a party to any such contract or receiving such payment shall also be guilty of illegal payment if he knew that the same was made contrary to law.

Certain employment to be illegal.

13. (1.) No person shall, for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate at a municipal election, be engaged or employed for payment or promise of payment for any purpose or in any capacity whatever, except as follows (that is to say),

(a) a number of persons may be employed, not exceeding two for a borough or ward, and if the number of electors in such borough or ward exceeds two thousand one additional person may be employed for every thousand electors and incomplete part of a thousand electors over and above the said two thousand, and such persons may be employed as clerks and messengers, or in either capacity; and

(b) one polling agent may be employed in each polling station:

Provided that this section shall not apply to any engagement or employment for carrying into effect a contract bonâ fide made with any person in the ordinary course of business.

(2.) Subject to such exception as may be allowed in pursuance of this Act, if any person is engaged or employed in contravention of this section, either before, during, or after an election, the person engaging or employing him shall be guilty of illegal employment, and the person so engaged or employed shall also be guilty of illegal employment if he knew that he was engaged or employed in contravention of this Act.

(3.) A person legally employed for payment under this section may or may not be an elector, but may not vote.

14. Every bill, placard, or poster having reference to a municipal election shall bear upon the face thereof the name and address of the printer and publisher thereof; and any person printing, publishing, or posting, or causing to be printed, published, or posted, any such bill, placard, or poster as aforesaid, which fails to bear upon the face thereof the name and address of the printer and publisher, shall, if he is a candidate, be guilty of an illegal practice, and if he is not the candidate, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Secs. 14-20.

Name and address of printer on placards.

15. The provisions of this Act prohibiting certain payments and contracts for payments, and the payment of any sum, and the incurring of any expense, in excess of a certain maximum, shall not affect the right of any creditor who, when the contract was made or the expense was incurred, was ignorant of the same being in contravention of this Act.

Saving for creditors.

16. (1.) (a.) Any premises, which are licensed for the sale of any intoxicating liquor for consumption on or off the premises, or on which refreshment of any kind (whether food or drink) is ordinarily sold for consumption on the premises, or

Use of certain premises for committee rooms or meetings to be illegal hiring.

(b.) Any premises where any intoxicating liquor is supplied to members of a club, society, or association, or any part of any such premises, shall not, for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate at a municipal election, be used either as a committee room or for holding a meeting, and if any person hires or uses any such premises or any part thereof in contravention of this section he shall be guilty of illegal hiring, and the person letting or permitting the use of such premises or part thereof, if he knew it was intended to use the same in contravention of this section, shall also be guilty of illegal hiring.

(2.) Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any part of such premises which is ordinarily let for the purpose of chambers or offices for the holding of public meetings or of arbitrations, if such part has a separate entrance and no direct communication with any part of the premises on which any intoxicating liquor or refreshment is sold or supplied as aforesaid.

17. (1.) A person guilty of an offence of illegal payment, employment, or hiring shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Punishment of illegal payment, employment, or hiring.

(2.) Where an offence of illegal payment, employment, or hiring is committed by a candidate, or with his knowledge and consent, such candidate shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

18. Where upon the trial of an election petition respecting a municipal election for a borough or ward of a borough it is found by the election court that illegal practices or offences of illegal payment, employment, or hiring, committed in reference to such election for the purpose of promoting the election of a candidate at that election, have so extensively prevailed that they may be reasonably supposed to have affected the result of that election, the election court shall report such finding to the High Court, and the election of such candidate, if he has been elected, shall be void, and he shall not, during the period for which he was elected to serve, or for which, if elected, he might have served, be capable of being elected to or holding any corporate office in the said borough.

Avoidance of election for extensive illegal practices, &c.

Excuse and Exception for Corrupt or Illegal Practice or Illegal Payment, Employment, or Hiring.

19. Where, upon the trial of an election petition respecting a municipal election, the election court reports that a candidate at such election has been guilty by his agents of the offence of treating and undue influence, and illegal practice, or of any of such offences, in reference to such election, and the election court further report that the candidate has proved to the court—

Report exonerating candidate in certain cases of corrupt and illegal practice by agents.

- (a.) That no corrupt or illegal practice was committed at such election by the candidate or with his knowledge or consent, and the offences mentioned in the said report were committed without the sanction or connivance of such candidate; and
- (b.) That all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt and illegal practices at such election were taken by and on behalf of the candidate; and
- (c.) That the offences mentioned in the said report were of a trivial, unimportant, and limited character; and
- (d.) That in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt or illegal practice on the part of such candidate and of his agents;

then the election of such candidate shall not, by reason of the offences mentioned in such report, be void, nor shall the candidate be subject to any incapacity under this Act.

20. Where, on application made, it is shown to the High Court or to a municipal election court by such evidence as seems to the court sufficient—

Power of High Court and election court to except innocent act from being illegal practice, &c.

- (a.) That any act or omission of a candidate at a municipal election for a borough or ward of a borough, or of any agent or other person, would, by reason of being in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, be but for this section an illegal practice, payment, employment, or hiring; and

Secs. 20, 21.

(b.) that such act or omission arose from inadvertence or from accidental miscalculation or from some other reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any case did not arise from any want of good faith; and

(c.) that such notice of the application has been given in the said borough as to the court seems fit; and under the circumstances it seems to the court to be just that the said candidate, agent and person, or any of them, should not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the said act or omission, the court may make an order allowing such act or omission to be an exception from the provisions of this Act, which would otherwise make the same an illegal practice, payment, employment, or hiring, and thereupon such candidate, agent, or person shall not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the said act or omission.

Sending in claims and making payments for election expenses.

21. (1.) Every claim against any person in respect of any expenses incurred by or on behalf of a candidate at an election of a councillor on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election shall be sent in within fourteen days after the day of election, and if not so sent in shall be barred and not paid, and all expenses incurred as aforesaid shall be paid within twenty-one days after the day of election, and not otherwise, and any person who makes a payment in contravention of this section, except where such payment is allowed as provided by this section, shall be guilty of an illegal practice, but if such payment was made without the sanction or connivance of the candidate, the election of such candidate shall not be void, nor shall he be subject to any incapacity under this Act by reason only of such payment having been made in contravention of this section.

(2.) Every agent of a candidate at an election of a councillor shall, within twenty-three days after the day of election, make a return to the candidate in writing of all expenses incurred by such agent on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, and if he fails so to do shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

(3.) Within twenty-eight days after the day of election of a councillor, every candidate at such election shall send to the town clerk a return of all expenses incurred by such candidate or his agents on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election, vouched (except in the case of sums under twenty shillings) by bills stating the particulars and receipts, and accompanied by a declaration by the candidate made before a justice in the form set forth in the Fourth Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect.

(4.) After the expiration of the time for making such return and declaration, the candidate, if elected, shall not, until he has made the return and declaration (in this Act referred to as the return and declaration respecting election expenses), or until the date of the allowance of such authorised excuse, as is mentioned in this Act, sit or vote in the council, and if he does so shall forfeit fifty pounds for every day on which he so sits or votes to any person who sues for the same.

(5.) If the candidate without such authorised excuse as is mentioned in this Act fails to make the said return and declaration, he shall be guilty of an illegal practice, and if he knowingly makes the said declaration falsely he shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof on indictment shall be liable to the punishment for wilful and corrupt perjury, and such offence shall also be deemed to be a corrupt practice within the meaning of this Act.

(6.) The county court for the district in which the election was held, or the High Court, or an election court, may, on application either of the candidate or a creditor, allow any claim to be sent in and any expense to be paid after the time limited by this section, and a return of any sum so paid shall forthwith after payment be sent to the town clerk.

(7.) If the candidate applies to the High Court or an election court, and shows that the failure to make the said return and declaration, or either of them, or any error or false statement therein, has arisen by reason of his illness or absence, or of the absence, death, illness, or misconduct of any agent, clerk, or officer, or by reason of inadvertence, or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the applicant, the court may, after such notice of the application and on production of such evidence of the grounds stated in the application, and of the good faith of the applicant, and otherwise as to the court seems fit, make such order for allowing the authorised excuse for the failure to make such return and declaration, or for an error or false statement in such return or declaration, as to the court seems just.

(8.) The order may make the allowance conditional upon compliance with such terms as to the court seems calculated for carrying into effect the objects of this Act, and the order shall relieve the applicant from any liability or consequences under this Act in respect of the matters excused by the order.

(9.) The date of the order, or if conditions and terms are to be complied with, the date at which the applicant fully complies with them, is referred to in this Act as the date of the allowance of the excuse.

(10.) The return and declaration sent in pursuance of this Act to the town clerk shall be kept at his office, and shall at all reasonable times during the twelve months next after they are received by him be open to inspection by any person on payment of the fee of one shilling, and the town clerk shall, on demand, furnish copies thereof or of any part thereof at the price of twopence for every seventy-two words. Secs. 21-24.

(11.) After the expiration of the said twelve months, the town clerk may cause the return and declaration to be destroyed, or if the candidate so require, shall return the same to him.

Disqualification of Electors.

22. Every person guilty of a corrupt or illegal practice, or of illegal employment, payment, or hiring at a municipal election is prohibited from voting at such election, and if any such person votes his vote shall be void, and shall be struck off on a scrutiny. Prohibition of persons guilty of offences from voting.

23. So much of sections thirty-seven and thirty-eight of the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, as is set forth in Part II. of the Third Schedule to this Act, shall apply as part of this Act. Application of sections 37 and 38 of 46 & 47 Vict. c. 51.

24. (1.) The town clerk in every municipal borough shall annually in July make out a list containing the names and description of all persons who, though otherwise qualified to be enrolled as burgesses of such borough, have under this Act, or under the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, or under any other Act for the time being in force relating to a parliamentary election or an election to any public office, become after the commencement of this Act, by reason of conviction of a corrupt or illegal practice, or of the report of any election court or election commissioners, incapable of voting at a municipal election in such borough or any ward thereof, and the town clerk shall state in the list (in this Act referred to as the corrupt and illegal practices list), the offence of which each person has been found guilty. List in burgess roll of persons incapacitated for voting by corrupt or illegal practices.

(2.) For the purpose of making out such list, he shall examine the report of any election court or election commissioners who have respectively tried an election petition or inquired into an election where the election (whether a parliamentary election or an election to any public office) was held in the said borough or in the county in which such borough is situate.

(3.) The town clerk of any municipal borough shall, not less than fourteen days before the first day appointed by law for the publication of the parish burgess lists in such borough, send the corrupt and illegal practices list to the overseers of every parish wholly or partly within the borough, and the overseers shall publish that list, together with the parish burgess lists, and shall also, in the case of every person in the corrupt and illegal practices list, omit his name from the list of persons entitled to be enrolled as burgesses or to be elected councillors, or, as circumstances require, add "objected" before his name in the list of claimants published by them, in like manner as is required by law in any other cases of disqualification.

(4.) Any person named in the corrupt and illegal practices list may claim to have his name omitted therefrom, and any person entitled to object to any parish burgess list may object to the omission of the name of any person from such first-mentioned list. Such claims and objections shall be sent in within the same time, and be dealt with in like manner, and any such objection shall be served on the person referred to therein in like manner, as nearly as circumstances admit, as other claims and objections under the enactments relating to the enrolment of burgesses.

(5.) The revising authority shall determine such claims and objections, and shall revise such list in like manner, as nearly as circumstances admit, as in the case of other claims and objections and of any parish burgess list and list of persons entitled to be elected councillors.

(6.) Where it appears to the revising authority that a person not named in the list is subject to have his name inserted in the corrupt and illegal practices list, he shall (whether an objection to the omission of such name from the list has or has not been made, but) after giving such person an opportunity of making a statement to show cause to the contrary, insert his name in that list and expunge his name from any list of burgesses or of persons entitled to be elected councillors.

(7.) A revising authority in acting under this section shall determine only whether a person is incapacitated by conviction or by the report of any election court or election commissioners, and shall not determine whether a person has or has not been guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice.

(8.) The corrupt and illegal practices list shall be appended to the burgess roll, and shall be printed and published therewith where the same is printed or published.

(9.) Any town clerk or overseer who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be liable to the like fine as he is liable to under section seventy-five of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, for any neglect or refusal in relation to a parish burgess list as therein mentioned.

45 & 46 Vict. c. 50.

Secs. 25-28.

Proceedings on Election Petitions.

Petition for illegal practice.

25. (1.) A municipal election petition complaining of the election on the ground of an illegal practice may be presented at any time before the expiration of fourteen days after the day on which the town clerk receives the return and declaration respecting election expenses by the candidate to whose election the petition relates, or where there is an authorised excuse for failing to make the return and declaration then within the like time after the date of the allowance of the excuse.

Time for presentation of petition alleging illegal practices.

(2.) A municipal election petition, complaining of the election on the ground of an illegal practice, and specifically alleging a payment of money or other act made or done since the election by the candidate elected at such election, or by an agent of the candidate, or with the privity of the candidate, in pursuance or in furtherance of such illegal practice, may be presented at any time within twenty-eight days after the date of such payment or act, whether or not any other petition against that person has been previously presented or tried.

45 & 46 Vict.
c. 50.

(3.) Any election petition presented within the time limited by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, may, for the purpose of complaining of the election upon an allegation of an illegal practice, be amended with the leave of the High Court within the time within which a petition complaining of the election on the ground of that illegal practice can, under this section, be presented.

Withdrawal of election
petition.

(4.) This section shall apply notwithstanding the illegal practice is also a corrupt practice.

26. (1.) Before leave for the withdrawal of a municipal election petition is granted, there shall be produced affidavits by all the parties to the petition and their solicitors, but the High Court may on cause shown dispense with the affidavit of any particular person if it seems to the court on special grounds to be just so to do.

(2.) Each affidavit shall state that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief, no agreement or terms of any kind whatsoever has or have been made, and no undertaking has been entered into, in relation to the withdrawal of the petition; but if any lawful agreement has been made with respect to the withdrawal of the petition, the affidavit shall set forth that agreement, and shall make the foregoing statement subject to what appears from the affidavit.

(3.) The affidavits of the applicant and his solicitor shall further state the ground on which the petition is sought to be withdrawn.

(4.) If any person makes any agreement or terms, or enters into any undertaking, in relation to the withdrawal of an election petition, and such agreement, terms, or undertaking is or are for the withdrawal of the election petition in consideration of any payment, or in consideration that the seat shall at any time be vacated, or in consideration of the withdrawal of any other election petition, or is or are (whether lawful or unlawful) not mentioned in the aforesaid affidavits, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, and to a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds.

(5.) Copies of the said affidavits shall be delivered to the Director of public prosecutions a reasonable time before the application for the withdrawal is heard, and the court may hear the Director of public prosecutions or his assistant or other representative (appointed with the approval of the Attorney-General), in opposition to the allowance of the withdrawal of the petition, and shall have power to receive the evidence on oath of any person or persons whose evidence the Director of public prosecutions or his assistant, or other representative, may consider material.

45 & 46 Vict.
c. 50.

(6.) Where in the opinion of the court the proposed withdrawal of a petition was the result of any agreement, terms, or undertaking prohibited by this section, the court shall have the same power with respect to the security as under section ninety-five of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, where the withdrawal is induced by a corrupt consideration.

(7.) In every case of the withdrawal of an election petition, by leave of the election court such court shall report in writing to the High Court whether, in the opinion of such election court, the withdrawal of such petition was the result of any agreement, terms, or undertaking, or was in consideration of any payment, or in consideration that the seat should at any time be vacated, or in consideration of the withdrawal of any other election petition, or for any other consideration, and if so, shall state the circumstances attending the withdrawal.

(8.) Where more than one solicitor is concerned for the petitioner or respondent, whether as agent for another solicitor or otherwise, the affidavit shall be made by all such solicitors.

Continuation of trial of election
petition.

27. The trial of every municipal election petition shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interests of justice in respect of such trial, be continued de die in diem on every lawful day until its conclusion.

Attendance of Director of public prosecu-

28. (1.) On every trial of a municipal election petition the Director of public prosecutions shall by himself or by his assistant, or by such representative as hereinafter mentioned, attend at the trial, and it shall be the duty of such Director to obey any directions given to him by the election court with respect to the summoning and examination of any witness to give evidence on such trial, and with respect to the prosecution by him of offenders, and with respect to any person to whom notice is given to attend with a view to report him as guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice.

Section 28.

tions on trial of election petition, and prosecution by him of offenders.

(2.) It shall also be the duty of such Director, without any direction from the election court, if it appears to him that any person is able to give material evidence as to the subject of the trial, to cause such person to attend the trial, and with the leave of the court to examine such person as a witness.

(3.) It shall also be the duty of the said Director, without any direction from the election court, if he thinks it expedient in the interests of justice so to do, to prosecute, either before the said court or before any other competent court, any person who has not received a certificate of indemnity and who appears to him to have been guilty of a corrupt or illegal practice at a municipal election.

(4.) Where a person is prosecuted before an election court for any corrupt or illegal practice, and such person appears before the court, the court shall proceed to try him summarily for the said offence, and such person, if convicted thereof upon such trial, shall be subject to the same incapacities as he is subject to under this or any other Act, upon conviction, whether on indictment or in any other proceeding for the said offence; and further, may be adjudged by the court, if the offence is a corrupt practice, to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months, or to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred pounds, and if the offence is an illegal practice, to pay such fine as is fixed by this Act for the offence:

Provided that, in the case of a corrupt practice, the court, before proceeding to try summarily any person, shall give such person the option of being tried by a jury.

(5.) Where a person is so prosecuted for any such offence, and either he elects to be tried by a jury or he does not appear before the court, or the court thinks it in the interests of justice expedient that he should be tried before some other court, the court, if of opinion that the evidence is sufficient to put the said person upon his trial for the offence, shall order such person to be prosecuted on indictment or before a court of summary jurisdiction, as the case may require, for the said offence; and in either case may order him to be prosecuted before such court as may be named in the order; and for all purposes preliminary and of and incidental to such prosecution the offence shall be deemed to have been committed within the jurisdiction of the court so named.

(6.) Upon such order being made,

(a.) If the accused person is present before the court, and the offence is an indictable offence, the court shall commit him to take his trial, or cause him to give bail to appear and take his trial for the said offence; and

(b.) If the accused person is present before the court, and the offence is not an indictable offence, the court shall order him to be brought before the court of summary jurisdiction before whom he is to be prosecuted, or cause him to give bail to appear before that court; and

(c.) If the accused person is not present before the court, the court shall as circumstances require issue a summons for his attendance, or a warrant to apprehend him and bring him before a court of summary jurisdiction, and that court, if the offence is an indictable offence, shall, on proof only of the summons or warrant and the identity of the accused, commit him to take his trial, or cause him to give bail to appear and take his trial for the said offence, or if the offence is punishable on summary conviction, shall proceed to hear the case, or if such court be not the court before whom he is directed to be prosecuted shall order him to be brought before that court.

(7.) Any order or act of an election court under this section shall not be subject to be discharged or varied under sub-section six of section ninety-two of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882.

45 & 46 Vict.
c. 50.

(8.) The Director of public prosecutions may nominate, with the approval of the Attorney-General, any barristers or solicitors of not less than ten years' standing, one of whom shall, when required, act as the representative for the purposes of this section of such Director, and when so acting shall receive such remuneration as the Treasury may approve. There shall be allowed to the Director and his assistant or representative, for the purposes of this section, such allowance for expenses as the Treasury may approve.

(9.) The costs incurred in defraying the expenses of the Director of public prosecutions under this section (including the remuneration of his representatives) shall, in the first instance, be paid by the Treasury, and so far as they are not in the case of any prosecution paid by the defendant, shall be deemed to be expenses of the election court, and shall be paid as the expenses of that Secs. 28-31.45 & 46 Vict.

c. 50.Power to election court to order payment by borough or individual of costs of election petition.

court are directed by section one hundred and one of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, to be paid; but if for any reasonable cause it seems just to the court so to do, the court shall order all or part of the said costs to be repaid to the Treasury by the parties to the petition, or such of them as the court may direct.

29. (1.) Where upon the trial of a municipal election petition it appears to the election court that a corrupt practice has not been proved to have been committed in reference to the election by or with the knowledge and consent of the respondent to the petition, and that such respondent took all reasonable means to prevent corrupt practices being committed on his behalf, the court may make one or more orders with respect to the payment either of the whole or such part of the costs of the petition as the court may think right as follows;

(a.) If it appears to the court that corrupt practices extensively prevailed in reference to the said election, the court may order the whole or part of the costs to be paid by the borough; and

(b.) If it appears to the court that any person or persons is or are proved, whether by providing money or otherwise, to have been extensively engaged in corrupt practices, or to have encouraged or promoted extensive corrupt practices in reference to such election, the court may, after giving such person or persons an opportunity of being heard by counsel or solicitor and of examining and cross-examining witnesses to show cause why the order should not be made, order the whole or part of the costs to be paid by that person, or those persons or any of them, and may order that if the costs cannot be recovered from one or more of such persons they shall be paid by some other of such persons or by either of the parties to the petition.

(2.) Where any person appears to the court to have been guilty of the offence of a corrupt or illegal practice, the court may, after giving such person an opportunity of making a statement to show why the order should not be made, order the whole or any part of the costs of or incidental to any proceeding before the court in relation to the said offence or to the said person to be paid by the said person to such person or persons as the court may direct.

(3.) The rules and regulations of the Supreme Court of Judicature with respect to costs to be allowed in actions, causes, and matters in the High Court shall in principle and so far as practicable apply to the costs of petition and other proceedings under Part IV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and this Act, and the taxing officer shall not allow any costs, charges, or expenses on a higher scale than would be allowed in any action, cause or matter in the High Court on the higher scale, as between solicitor and client.

45 & 46 Vict.
c. 50.*Miscellaneous.*General provisions as to prosecution of offences under
this Act.

30. Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the procedure for the prosecution of a corrupt or illegal practice or any illegal payment, employment, or hiring committed in reference to a municipal election, and the removal of any incapacity incurred by reason of a conviction or report relating to any such offence, and the duties of the Director of public prosecutions in relation to any such offence and all other proceedings in relation thereto (including the grant to a witness of a certificate of indemnity), shall be the same as if such offence had been committed in reference to a parliamentary election; and sections forty-five and forty-six and sections fifty to fifty-seven (both inclusive), and sections fifty-nine and sixty of the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, shall apply accordingly as if they were re-enacted in this Act with the necessary modifications, and with the following additions:—

46 & 47 Vict.
c. 51.

(a.) Where the Director of public prosecutions considers that the circumstances of any case require him to institute a prosecution before any court other than an election court for any offence other than a corrupt practice committed in reference to a municipal election in any borough, he may, by himself or his assistant, institute such prosecution before any court of summary jurisdiction in the county in which the said borough is situate or to which it adjoins, and the offence shall be deemed for all purposes to have been committed within the jurisdiction of such court; and

45 & 46 Vict.
c. 50.

(b.) General rules for the purposes of Part IV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, shall be made by the same authority as rules of court under the said sections; and

s. 94 (7).

(c.) The giving or refusal to give a certificate of indemnity to a witness by the election court shall be final and conclusive.

Person incapacitated by conviction or report to vacate seat or office.

31. If any person, in consequence of conviction or of the report of an election court under this Act, becomes not capable of being elected to or sitting in the House of Commons, or of being elected to or holding any public or judicial office, and such person, at the date of the said conviction or report, has been so elected or holds any such office, then his seat or office, as the case may be, shall be vacated as from that date.

32. (1.) Where any costs of a petition are, under an order of a municipal election court, to be paid by a borough, such costs shall be paid out of the borough fund or borough rate. Secs. 32-35.

(2.) Where any costs or other sums are, under the order of an election court or otherwise under this Act, to be paid by any person, those costs shall be a simple contract debt due from such person to the person or persons to whom they are to be paid, and if payable to the Treasury shall be a debt to Her Majesty, and in either case may be recovered accordingly. Payment and recovery of costs.

33. Where any summons, notice, or document is required to be served on any person with reference to any proceeding respecting a municipal election in any borough or ward of a borough, whether for the purpose of causing him to appear before the High Court or any election court, or otherwise, or for the purpose of giving him an opportunity of making a statement, or showing cause, or being heard by himself, before any such court, for any purpose of this Act, such summons, notice, or document may be served either by delivering the same to such person, or by leaving the same at, or sending the same by post by a registered letter to, his last known place of abode in the said borough, or, if the proceeding is before any court, in such other manner as the court may direct, and in proving such service by post it shall be sufficient to prove that the letter was prepaid, properly addressed, and registered with the post office. Service of notices.

34. In this Act expressions have the same meaning as in the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and in the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883; except that the words "borough," "election petition," "election court," and "candidate," shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning given by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and not the meaning given by the Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883; and except that "election" shall, unless the context otherwise requires, mean a municipal election. Definitions.
45 & 46 Vict.
c. 50.
46 & 47 Vict.
c. 51.

For the purposes of this Act the number of electors shall be taken according to the enumeration of the electors in the burghess roll.

35. This Act and Part IV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, shall apply to a municipal election in the city of London, subject as follows:— Application to city of London of Act and of Part IV. of 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50.

- (1.) For the purpose of such application "municipal election" means an election to the office of mayor, alderman, common councilman, or sheriff, and includes the election of any officer elected by the mayor, aldermen, and liverymen in common hall, and the expression "corporate office" includes each of the aforesaid offices, and the expression "borough" shall be deemed to apply to the said city: 30 Vict. c. 1.
- (2.) The expression "burghess" means, in relation to each municipal election, any person entitled to vote at such election:
- (3.) Any costs or expenses directed to be paid out of the borough fund or borough rate shall, if incurred in respect of the election of an alderman or common councilman for any ward, be paid out of the ward rate of that ward, and in any other case shall be paid by the chamberlain of the said city out of the city's cash:
- (4.) The enactments relating to personation, polling agents, and disclosure of votes shall not apply, save that if any person commits any offence under the City of London Municipal Elections Amendment Act, 1867, in relation to the declaration required by that Act to be made at the poll, he shall, in addition, be deemed guilty of a corrupt practice under this Act:
- (5.) A vacancy in any office created by the decision of an election court shall be filled by a new election, and every summoning officer is hereby authorised and required to summon the electors for such election:
- (6.) In the case of an election of an alderman and common councilman a sum may be paid and expense incurred not in excess of the maximum fixed by this Act for the election of a councillor.
- (7.) In the case of an election by liverymen in common hall a sum may be paid and expenses incurred, if a poll be not demanded, not exceeding forty pounds, and, if a poll be demanded, then not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds, and, in the event of a poll being demanded, such poll shall take place on the third day after the demand for a poll be made, unless such third day be a Sunday, in which case the poll shall take place on the fourth day, and the poll shall last for one day only, and commence at the hour of eight in the morning and close at six in the evening.
- (8.) The town clerk shall send the corrupt and illegal practices list, when made out by him, to the ward clerk of each ward not less than fourteen days before the day on which the list of persons entitled to vote in such ward is required to be made out, and the aldermen and common councilmen of each ward shall omit from such last-mentioned list the names of all persons mentioned in the corrupt and illegal practices list, and the corrupt and illegal practices list shall be printed and appended to every copy of the list of persons entitled to vote in such ward.

Secs. 36-38.

Application of Act to other elections.

Application of this Act and Part IV. of 45 & 46 Vict.
c. 50, to other elections.

36. (1.) Subject as hereinafter mentioned, the provisions of this Act and of Part IV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, as amended by this Act, shall extend to elections for the offices mentioned in the first column of the first schedule to this Act as if re-enacted herein and in terms made applicable thereto, and petitions may be presented and tried, and offence prosecuted and punished, and incapacities incurred in reference to each such election accordingly.

Provided that in the application of the said provisions to any such election :

- (a.) The area, officer, and rate mentioned opposite to the office in the second, third, and fourth columns of the said schedule, shall be deemed to be substituted for the borough or ward, town clerk, and borough fund or rate respectively.
- (b.) The expression "corporate office" in the said provisions shall mean an office mentioned in the said schedule, and in relation to the election of a guardian of a union includes any such office in the union, and "a municipal election" shall mean an election to such office, and the expressions "municipal election court," "municipal election list," and "municipal election petition" shall be construed accordingly.
- (c.) No corrupt and illegal practices list shall be made for any such election.
- (d.) Vacancies created by the decision of an election court shall be filled by a new election.
- (e.) A petition relating to the election of a guardian of a union may be tried at any place within the union.
- (f.) Nothing in the said provisions shall render it unlawful to hold a meeting for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate to any office mentioned in the said schedule on any licensed or other premises not situate in an urban sanitary district or in the metropolis ;
- (g.) Where the poll at any election to an office in the said schedule is taken by means of voting papers, such of the said provisions as relate to personation, polling agents, disclosure of votes and conveyance of voters, shall not apply ; but any offence in relation to voting papers or to personation or to voting at such election which is punishable on summary conviction (that is to say,) the offences mentioned in section three of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1851, and in rule sixty-nine of schedule two to the Public Health Act, 1875, shall, without prejudice to the punishment under such section and rule of a person guilty of such offence, be deemed to be an illegal practice within the meaning of the said provisions.

14 & 15 Vict.
c. 105.
38 & 39 Vict.
c. 55.

5 & 6 Vict. c. 57.

- (h.) The Local Government Board shall have the same power as heretofore under section eight of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1842, to determine any question arising as to the right of a person to act as guardian, except that the board shall not have power—

- (a.) To determine, until after the expiration of twenty-one days after the election of a person as guardian, any question which can be determined upon an election petition under this section ; nor
- (b.) To determine any question which is raised by an election petition under this section, and is either awaiting decision or has been decided by an election court ; nor
- (c.) To determine any question of general corruption, or of any corrupt or illegal practice, except so far as appears to such board necessary for determining the validity of any vote.

(2.) The judges for the time being on the rota for the trial of parliamentary election petitions, or any two of those judges, may annually appoint as many barristers, not exceeding five, as they may think necessary to be commissioners for the trial of election petitions under Part IV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and this Act, and shall from time to time assign the petitions (whether relating to a municipal election or to any other election to which this Act extends) to be tried by each commissioner.

Exemption from provisions as to maximum expenses.

37. The provisions of this Act which prohibit the payment of any sum, and the incurring of any expense by or on behalf of a candidate at an election, on account of, or in respect of, the conduct or management of the election, and those which relate to the time for sending in and paying claims, and those which relate to the maximum amount of election expenses, or the return or declaration respecting election expenses, shall not apply to any of the elections mentioned in the first schedule to this Act.

Repeal.

Repeal of Acts.

38. The Acts specified in the second schedule to this Act are hereby repealed as from the commencement of this Act to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned, but such repeal shall not affect anything duly done or suffered, or any right acquired or accrued, or any incapacity incurred, before the commencement of this Act; and any person subject to any incapacity under any enactment hereby repealed, or under any enactment for which such repealed enactment was substituted, shall continue subject thereto, and this Act shall apply to him as if he had become so subject in pursuance of the provisions of this Act. Secs. 38-41.

39. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, which day is in this Act referred to as the commencement of this Act. Commencement of Act.

Extent of Act.

40. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

41. This Act shall continue in force to the end of the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and no longer.

Act not to extend to Scotland or Ireland.
Duration of Act.

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE ⁽¹⁾.

ELECTIONS to which this Act extends.

In England.

Schedule 1.

Office.	Area.	Officer.	Rate.
Member of local board, as defined by the Public Health Act, 1875.	Local Government district or ward of such district.	Clerk to the local board, or person performing like duties.	The general district rate.
Member of Improvement Commissioners, as defined by the Public Health Act, 1875.	Improvement Act district of ward of such district.	Clerk to the Improvement Commissioners or person performing like duties.	The general district rate or other rate out of which the expenses of the Improvement Commissioners are payable.
Guardian elected under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834.	Parish or ward of a parish or united parishes.	Clerk to the guardians, or person performing like duties.	The poor rate of the parish or united parishes.
Member of school board.	School district or division of the metropolis.	Returning officer of school boards.	The school fund.

SECOND SCHEDULE ⁽²⁾.

ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

A description or citation of a portion of an Act is inclusive of the words, section, or other part first and last mentioned, or otherwise referred to as forming the beginning or as forming the end of the portion comprised in the description or citation.

As to England.

Schedule 2.

33 & 34 Vict. c. 75.	The Elementary Education Act, 1870.	Section thirty-three.
45 & 46 Vict. c. 50.	The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882.	Section seventy-seven, from "corrupt practice" down to "or personation," and from "canvasser" down to "candidate at a municipal election." Section seventy-eight. Section seventy-nine. Section eighty. Section eighty-two. Section eighty-three. Section eighty-four. Section ninety-two, sub-section four, from "and those judges" down to the end of the sub-section. Section ninety-four, sub-sections five, six, seven, and eight. So much of section ninety-eight, sub-section two, as relates to the principles of taxation.

⁽¹⁾ See section 36, ante.

⁽²⁾ See section 33, ante.

Schedule 3.

THIRD SCHEDULE.

PART I. (1).

ENACTMENTS DEFINING CORRUPT PRACTICES.—ENACTMENTS DEFINING THE OFFENCE OF BRIBERY.

The Corrupt Practices Prevention Act, 1854, 17 & 18 Vict. c. 102, ss. 2 and 3.

Bribery defined.

S. 2. The following persons shall be deemed guilty of bribery, and shall be punishable accordingly:—

- (1.) Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, give, lend, or agree to give or lend, or shall offer, promise, or promise to procure or endeavour to procure, any money or valuable consideration to or for any voter, or to or for any person on behalf of any voter, or to or for any other person, in order to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting, or shall corruptly do any such act as aforesaid on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election.
- (2.) Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, give or procure, or agree to give or procure, or offer, promise, or promise to procure or endeavour to procure, any office, place, or employment to or for any voter or to or for any person on behalf of any voter, or to or for any other person, in order to induce such voter to vote or refrain from voting, or shall corruptly do any such act as aforesaid on account of any voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election.
- (3.) Every person who shall, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, make any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement as aforesaid, to or for any person, in order to induce such person to procure or endeavour to procure the return of any person to serve in Parliament, or the vote of any voter at any election.
- (4.) Every person who shall, upon or in consequence of any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement, procure, or engage, promise, or endeavour to procure the return of any person to serve in Parliament, or the vote of any voter at any election.
- (5.) Every person who shall advance or pay, or cause to be paid, any money to or to the use of any other person with the intent that such money, or any part thereof, shall be expended in bribery at any election, or who shall knowingly pay or cause to be paid any money to any person in discharge or repayment of any money wholly or in part expended in bribery at any election: Provided always, that the aforesaid enactment shall not extend or be construed to extend to any money paid or agreed to be paid for on account of any legal expenses bond fide incurred at or concerning any election.

Bribery further defined.

S. 3. The following persons shall also be deemed guilty of bribery, and shall be punishable accordingly:—

- (1.) Every voter who shall, before or during any election, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receive, agree, or contract for any money, gift, loan, or valuable consideration, office, place, or employment, for himself or for any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or from refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting at any election.
- (2.) Every person who shall, after any election, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receive any money or valuable consideration on account of any person having voted or refrained from voting, or having induced any other person to vote or refrain from voting at any election.

The Representation of the People Act, 1867, 30 & 31 Vict. c. 102, s. 49.

Corrupt payment of rates to be punishable as bribery.

S. 49. Any person, either directly or indirectly, corruptly paying any rate on behalf of any ratepayer for the purpose of enabling him to be registered as a voter, thereby to influence his vote at the future election, and any candidate or other person, either directly or indirectly paying any rate on behalf of any voter for the purpose of inducing him to vote or refrain from voting, shall be guilty of bribery, and be punishable accordingly; and any person on whose behalf and with whose privy any such payment as in this section is mentioned is made, shall also be guilty of bribery, and punishable accordingly.

ENACTMENT DEFINING THE OFFENCE OF PERSONATION.

The Ballot Act, 1872, 35 & 36 Vict. c. 33, s. 24.

Personation defined.

S. 24. A person shall, for all purposes of the laws relating to parliamentary and municipal elections, be deemed to be guilty of the offence of personation who, at an election for a county or borough, or at a municipal election, applies for a ballot paper in the name of some other person, whether that name be that of a person living or dead, or of a fictitious person, or who, having voted once at any such election, applies at the same election for a ballot paper in his own name.

ENACTMENTS DEFINING THE OFFENCES OF TREATING AND UNDUE INFLUENCE.

The Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, 46 & 47 Vict. c. 51, ss. 1 and 2.

What is treating.

S. 1. Any person who corruptly by himself or by any other person, either before, during, or

(1) See section 2, ante.

Schedule 3.

after an election, directly or indirectly gives or provides, or pays wholly or in part the expense of giving or providing any meat, drink, entertainment, or provision to or for any person for the purpose of corruptly influencing that person or any other person to give or refrain from giving his vote at the election, or on account of such person or any other person having voted or refrained from voting, or being about to vote or refrain from voting at such election, shall be guilty of treating.

And every elector who corruptly accepts or takes any such meat, drink, entertainment, or provision, shall also be guilty of treating.

S. 2. Every person who shall directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, make use of or threaten to make use of any force, violence, or restraint, or inflict or threaten to inflict, by himself or by any other person, any temporal or spiritual injury, damage, harm, or loss upon or against any person in order to induce or compel such person to vote or refrain from voting, or on account of such person having voted or refrained from voting at any election, or who shall by abduction, duress, or any fraudulent device or contrivance impede or prevent the free exercise of the franchise of any elector, or shall thereby compel, induce, or prevail upon any elector either to give or to refrain from giving his vote at any election, shall be guilty of undue influence.

What is undue influence.

ENACTMENT DEFINING THE OFFENCES OF BRIBERY, TREATING, UNDUE INFLUENCE, AND PERSONATION.

The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 50, s. 77.

S. 77. "Bribery," "treating," "undue influence," and "personation" include respectively anything done before, at, after, or with respect to a municipal election, which, if done before, at, after, or with respect to a parliamentary election, would make the person doing the same liable to any penalty, punishment, or disqualification for bribery, treating, undue influence, or personation, as the case may be, under any Act for the time being in force with respect to parliamentary elections.

Definitions.

PART II. (1)

ENACTMENTS RELATING TO DISQUALIFICATION OF ELECTORS.

The Corrupt and Illegal Practices Prevention Act, 1883, 46 & 47 Vict. c. 51, ss. 37 and 38.

S. 37. Every person who, in consequence of conviction or of the report of any election court or election commissioners under this Act, or under the Corrupt Practices (Municipal Elections) Act, 1872, or under Part IV. of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, or under any other Act for the time being in force relating to corrupt practices at an election for any public office, has become incapable of voting at any election, whether a parliamentary election or an election to any public office, is prohibited from voting at any such election, and his vote shall be void.

Prohibition of disqualified persons from voting.
35 & 36 Vict. c. 60.
45 & 46 Vict. c. 50.

S. 38. (1) Before a person, not being a party to an election petition nor a candidate on behalf of whom the seat is claimed by an election petition, is reported by an election court . . . to have been guilty, at an election, of any corrupt or illegal practice, the court . . . shall cause notice to be given to such person, and if he appears in pursuance of the notice, shall give him an opportunity of being heard by himself and of calling evidence in his defence to show why he should not be so reported.

Hearing of person before he is reported guilty of corrupt or illegal practice, and incapacity of person reported guilty.

(5.) Every person who, after the commencement of this Act, is reported by any election court . . . to have been guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice at an election, shall, whether he obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, be subject to the same incapacity as he would be subject to if he had at the date of such election been convicted of the offence of which he is reported to have been guilty . . .

(6.) Where a person who is a justice of the peace is reported by any election court . . . to have been guilty of any corrupt practice in reference to an election, whether he has obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, it shall be the duty of the Director of public prosecutions to report the case to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, with such evidence as may have been given of such corrupt practice, and where any such person acts as a justice of the peace by virtue of his being or having been mayor of a borough, the Lord High Chancellor shall have the same power to remove such person from being a justice of the peace as if he was named in a commission of the peace.

(7.) Where a person who is a barrister or a solicitor, or who belongs to any profession the admission to which is regulated by law, is reported by any election court . . . to have been guilty of any corrupt practice in reference to an election, whether such person has obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, it shall be the duty of the Director of public prosecutions to bring the matter before the inn of court, high court, or tribunal having power to take cognizance of any misconduct of such person in his profession, and such inn of court, high court, or tribunal may deal with such person in like manner as if such corrupt practice were misconduct by such person in his profession.

(8.) With respect to a person holding a license or certificate under the Licensing Acts (in this section referred to as a licensed person) the following provisions shall have effect:—

(a.) If it appears to the court by which any licensed person is convicted of the offence of bribery or treating that such offence was committed on his licensed premises, the court shall direct such conviction to be entered in the proper register of licenses:

(1) See section 23, ante.

- Schedule 3. (b) If it appears to an election court . . . that a licensed person has knowingly suffered any bribery or treating in reference to any election to take place upon his licensed premises, such court . . . (subject to the provisions of this Act as to a person having an opportunity of being heard by himself and producing evidence before being reported) shall report the same; and, whether such person obtained a certificate of indemnity or not, it shall be the duty of the Director of public prosecutions to bring such report before the licensing justices from whom or on whose certificate the licensed person obtained his license, and such licensing justices shall cause such report to be entered in the proper register of licenses:
- (c) Where an entry is made in the register of licenses of any such conviction of or report respecting any licensed person as above in this section mentioned, it shall be taken into consideration by the licensing justices in determining whether they will or will not grant to such person the renewal of his license or certificate, and may be a ground, if the justices think fit, for refusing such renewal.
- * * * * *

Schedule 4.FOURTH SCHEDULE. (1)*FORM OF DECLARATION BY CANDIDATE AS TO EXPENSES.

I , having been a candidate at the election of councillor for the borough [or ward] of , on the day of [and my agents do hereby solemnly and sincerely declare that I have paid] for my expenses at the said election, and that, except as aforesaid, I have not, and to the best of my knowledge and belief, no person, nor any club, society, or association, has on my behalf, made any payment, or given, promised, or offered any reward, office, employment, or valuable consideration, or incurred any liability on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of the said election.

And I further solemnly and sincerely declare that, except as aforesaid, no money, security, or equivalent for money, has to my knowledge or belief been paid, advanced, given, or deposited by anyone to or in the hands of myself, or any other person, for the purpose of defraying any expenses incurred on my behalf on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of the said election.

And I further solemnly and sincerely declare that I will not at any future time make or be a party to the making or giving of any payment, reward, office, employment, or valuable consideration for the purpose of defraying any such expenses as last-mentioned, or provide or be a party to the providing of any money, security, or equivalent for money for the purpose of defraying any such expenses.

Signed and declared by the above-named declarant on the day of , C.D. before me.

(Signed) E.F.
Justice of the Peace for .

JURIES ACT, 1870.

33 & 34 VICT. c. 77.

An Act to amend the laws relating to the qualifications, summoning, attendance, and remuneration of Special and Common Juries. [9th August, 1870.]

Secs. 1—5. 1. This Act shall not come into force till the second day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Commencement of Act.

3. The Acts herein-after mentioned may be cited for all purposes by the short titles following; that is to say,

Short titles of certain Acts.

An Act of the session of the sixth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, chapter fifty, and intituled "An Act for consolidating and amending the laws relative to Jurors and Juries," by the short title of "The County Juries Act, 1825;"
this Act by the short title of "The Juries Act, 1870."

Construction of Act and repeal of inconsistent enactments.

4. This Act shall be construed as one with "The County Juries Act, 1825," and any Act amending the same; and such parts of the said Act and of any other Act or Acts as are inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

Definition of terms.

5. In this Act—

The term "overseers" shall include churchwardens, and the term "quarter sessions" shall include general sessions:

The word "juror" shall mean male persons only.

(1) See section 21, ante.

6. Every man whose name shall be in the jurors book for any county in England or Wales, or for the county of the city of London, and who shall be legally entitled to be called an esquire, or shall be a person of higher degree, or shall be a banker or merchant, or who shall occupy a private dwelling house rated or assessed to the poor rate or to the inhabited house duty on a value of not less than one hundred pounds in a town containing, according to the census next preceding the preparation of the jury list, twenty thousand inhabitants and upwards, or rated or assessed to the poor rate or to the inhabited house duty on a value of not less than fifty pounds elsewhere, or who shall occupy premises other than a farm rated or assessed as aforesaid on a value of not less than one hundred pounds, or a farm rated or assessed as aforesaid on a value of not less than three hundred pounds, shall be qualified and liable to serve on special juries in every such county in England and Wales, and in London respectively.

Secs. 6—15.
Qualification of special jurors.

7. [So much of the said first section of the County Juries Act, 1825, as relates to the qualification of persons as jurors in Wales is hereby repealed, and it is hereby enacted, that ⁽¹⁾] the qualification of persons as jurors in Wales shall be the same as the qualification of persons as jurors in England.

Qualification of jurors in Wales.

8. Aliens having been domiciled in England or Wales for ten years or upwards, if in other respects duly qualified, shall be qualified and shall be liable to serve on juries or inquests in England and Wales as if they had been natural-born subjects of the Queen; but, save as aforesaid, no man not being a natural-born subject of the Queen shall be qualified to serve on juries or inquests in any court or on any occasion whatsoever.

Aliens to be qualified after ten years domicile, but not otherwise.

9. The inhabitants of the city and liberty of Westminster shall, as heretofore, be exempt from serving on any jury at the sessions of the peace for the county of Middlesex.

Persons exempt from serving on juries.

The persons described in the schedule hereto shall be severally exempt as therein specified from being returned to serve and from serving upon any juries or inquests whatsoever, and their names shall not be inserted in the lists of the persons qualified and liable to serve on the same, but save as aforesaid, no man otherwise qualified so to serve on such juries or inquests shall be exempt from serving thereon, any enactment, prescription, charter, grant, or writ to the contrary notwithstanding.

10. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, that no man who has been or shall be attainted of any treason or felony, or convicted of any crime that is infamous, unless he shall have obtained a free pardon, nor any man who is under outlawry, is or shall be qualified to serve on juries or inquests in any court or on any occasion whatsoever.

Convicts (exception), outlaws &c., disqualified.

11. In making out the lists of persons within their respective parishes and townships qualified to serve as jurors, the overseers shall specify which of such persons are, in the judgment of such overseers, qualified as special jurors, and shall also specify in every case the nature of the qualification and also the occupation and the amount of the rating or assessment of every such person.

Overseers to specify special jurors in list.

12. No person whose name shall be in the jury book as a juror shall be entitled to be excused from attendance on the ground of any disqualification or exemption other than illness not claimed by him at or before the revision of the list by the justices of the peace, and a notice to that effect shall be printed at the bottom of every jury list.

Disqualification or exemption to be pleaded before revision of list.

13. If any overseer, without reasonable excuse to be allowed by the justice or justices, having cognizance of the case, insert in the list of persons qualified to serve as jurors prepared by him the name of any person whose name ought not to have been inserted therein, or omit therefrom the name of any person whose name ought not to have been omitted, he shall, on summary conviction, be liable to a penalty for each offence not exceeding forty shillings.

Penalty on overseer for negligence.

14. Upon completing the revision of the jury lists, the justices at petty sessions shall certify in writing that they have examined such lists and that the same are, to the best of their knowledge and belief, true and proper lists of the special and common jurors; and the decision of such justices as to the qualifications of persons marked as special jurors in the lists so revised by them shall, as respects those lists, be final.

Justices to certify jury lists after revision.

15. And whereas by the thirty-first section of "The County Juries Act, 1825," it is enacted, that "the sheriff of every county in England and Wales or his under sheriff, and the sheriffs of London or their secondary, shall, within ten days after the delivery of the jurors book for the current year to either of them, take from such book the names of all men who shall be described therein as esquires, persons of higher degree, or as bankers or merchants:" Be it enacted, that nothing in the said section contained shall be deemed to authorise the said sheriffs or any of them, or any under sheriff, or any secondary, to remove from the jurors book the name of any person by reason of his being therein described as an esquire or person of higher degree, or as a Special jurors names to be retained in jurors book.

⁽¹⁾ Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883, but the former enactment is not thereby revived.

Secs. 15-25. banker or merchant, nor shall the said sheriffs or any sheriff or under sheriff or secondary remove from the jurors book the name of any person by reason of his being otherwise qualified to serve on special juries.

16. [Special juries for London and Middlesex to be provided in the same manner as in other counties.]

17. [Abolition of present practice of nominating special juries in London and Middlesex.]

18. [Mode of obtaining special jury in London and Middlesex.]

Summoning of jurors.

19. The following regulations shall be enacted with respect to the summoning of jurors :

(1.) That no person shall be summoned to serve on any jury or inquest (except a grand jury) more than once in any one year, unless all the jurors upon the list shall have been already summoned to serve during such year :

Provided that nothing herein contained shall prejudice the operation of any certificate granted under the County Juries Act, 1825, ss. 41 and 42 :

(2.) No person shall be exempted from serving as a common juror by reason of his being on any special jurors list, or being qualified to serve as a grand juror :

(3.) No person shall be summoned or liable to serve as a juror in more than one court on the same day.

Jurors entitled to six days notice.

20. No juror shall be liable to any penalty for non-attendance on any jury unless the summons requiring him to attend be duly served six days at least before the day on which he is required to attend, but no longer period than such six days shall in any case be required between the service and such last-mentioned day.

Sheriff to make regulations as to attendance.

21. It shall be lawful for any sheriff or other officer to whom any precept for summoning jurors shall be addressed, with the consent of the person or persons by whom such precept shall have been issued, to make regulations as to the attendance of jurors during the time for which they shall be summoned, and in particular as to the days on which, and the time during which, they are to attend.

Such regulations may be sent to any juror, together with the summons requiring him to attend on any jury, and when so sent shall be deemed to be part of such summons.

22. [Payment of jurors ⁽¹⁾.]

Jurors to be allowed fire and refreshment.

23. Jurors, after having been sworn, may, in the discretion of the judge, be allowed at any time before giving their verdict the use of a fire when out of court, and be allowed reasonable refreshment, such refreshment to be procured at their own expense.

Judges to make general orders.

24. The judges of Her Majesty's superior courts of common law are hereby empowered by general orders to make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, for the purpose of carrying out the several provisions of this Act.

Jury lists in the city of London to be made as before.

25. This Act shall not alter or affect the mode of procedure pursued in the making out of jury lists for the city of London, nor the provisions of the ninth and tenth Victoria, chapter ninety-five, section seventy-two.

SCHEDULE.

PERSONS EXEMPT FROM SERVING ON JURIES.

Schedule.

Peers.

Members of Parliament.

Judges.

Clergymen.

Roman Catholic priests.

Ministers of any congregation of Protestant dissenters and of Jews whose place of meeting is duly registered, provided they follow no secular occupation except that of a schoolmaster.

Serjeants, barristers-at-law, certificated conveyancers, and special pleaders, if actually practising.

Members of the Society of Doctors of Law and advocates of the civil law, if actually practising.

Attornies, solicitors, and proctors, if actually practising and having taken out their annual certificates, and their managing clerks, and notaries public in actual practice.

Officers of the courts of law and equity, and of the Admiralty and Ecclesiastical Courts, including therein the Courts of Probate and Divorce, and the clerks of the peace or their deputies, if actually exercising the duties of their respective offices.

Coroners.

Gaolers and keepers of houses of correction, and all subordinate officers of the same.

(¹) Repealed by 34 Vict. c. 2.

Schedule.

Keepers in public lunatic asylums.

Members and licentiates of the Royal College of Physicians in London, if actually practising as physicians.

Members of the Royal Colleges of Surgeons in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, if actually practising as surgeons.

Apothecaries certificated by the Court of Examiners of the Apothecaries Company, and all registered medical practitioners and registered pharmaceutical chemists, if actually practising as apothecaries, medical practitioners, or pharmaceutical chemists respectively.

Officers of the navy, army, militia, and yeomanry, while on full pay.

The members of the Mersey Docks and Harbour Board.

The master, wardens, and brethren of the Corporation of Trinity House, of Deptford Strond.

Pilots licensed by the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, Kingston-upon-Hull, or Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and all masters of vessels in the buoy and light service employed by either of those corporations, and all pilots licensed under any Act of Parliament or charter for the regulation of pilots.

The household servants of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors.

Officers of the Post-Office, Commissioners of Customs, and officers, clerks, or other persons acting in the management or collection of the Customs, Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and officers or persons appointed by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue or employed by them or under their authority or direction in any way relating to the duties of Inland Revenue.

Sheriffs officers.

Officers of the rural and metropolitan police.

Magistrates of the metropolitan police courts, their clerks, ushers, doorkeepers, and messengers.

Members of the council of the municipal corporation of any borough, and every justice of the peace assigned to keep the peace therein, and the town clerk and treasurer for the time being of every such borough, so far as relates to any jury summoned to serve in the county where such borough is situate.

Burgesses of every borough in and for which a separate court of quarter sessions shall be holden so far as relates to any jury summoned for the trial of issues joined in any court of general or quarter sessions of the peace in the county wherein such borough is situate.

Justices of the peace so far as relates to any jury summoned to serve at any sessions of the peace for the jurisdiction of which he is a justice.

Officers of the Houses of Lords and Commons.

BOROUGH AND LOCAL COURTS OF RECORD ACT, 1872.

35 & 36 VICT. c. 86.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Borough and other Local Courts of Record.

[10th August, 1872.]

2. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by an Order in Council to direct that all or any part of the provisions of an Act passed in the first and second years of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable courts of law to give relief against adverse claims made upon persons having no interest in the subject of such claims," and of the provisions set forth in the schedule to this Act, shall apply to all or any local Court or Courts of Record in England or Wales; and within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions shall extend and apply in manner directed by such Order, and any such Order may be in like manner from time to time altered and annulled; and in and by such Order Her Majesty may alter and modify such provisions as are mentioned in the schedule, so as to adapt the same to the constitution, jurisdiction, and procedure of any such court or courts, and may direct by whom and at what time or times any powers and duties incident to the provisions applied under this Act shall and may be exercised with respect to matters in such court or courts, and may make any orders or regulations which may be deemed requisite for carrying into operation in such court or courts the provisions so applied.

Secs. 2—5.

Her Majesty may direct certain enactments to extend to any local court of record.

3. It shall also be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by such Order as aforesaid to direct that any writ, order, summons, or process issuing out of or made or taken in any such Court of Record may be served in such part or parts of England and Wales as shall be specified in such Order.

Her Majesty may direct that writ, &c. may be served as specified.

4. Two or more courts may be held at the same time either for the trial of issues or for the ordinary proceedings of the court.

Two or more courts may be held at the same time.

5. Affidavits made before any commissioner or other person appointed or authorised to take affidavits, either in England or elsewhere, by the Lord High Chancellor, or by any of the Affidavits made before any commissioner, &c.

Secs. 5—8. superior courts or by the judges thereof, may be used in the court, and the signature of any person purporting to be such commissioner, or to be a person so appointed or authorised as aforesaid, need not be verified.

Power to send writs of execution to bailiffs of county court.

6. In all cases where final judgment shall have been obtained in any action brought in the court wherein the debt or damage does not exceed twenty pounds, exclusive of costs, and also in all cases where any rule or order shall be made by the judge for the payment of any sum of money, or any costs, charges, or expenses, not exceeding the sum of twenty pounds, such court shall be at liberty to send a writ or precept for the recovery of the same to the registrar of any county court within the jurisdiction of which the defendant may possess any goods or chattels; and the registrar of such county court shall stamp or seal the same, and thereupon the high bailiff of such county court shall execute the same in the same manner as if such writ or precept had been issued out of such county court, and such high bailiff shall take all the usual and proper fees thereupon, and shall make a return of what he shall have done thereunder to the bailiff or serjeant-at-mace of the court; and in all matters done under such writ or precept, or in relation thereto, such high bailiff shall be under the direction and control of the judge of the county court of which he is high bailiff, as if such writ or precept had issued out of such county court: Provided always, that the costs of more than one writ, precept, or warrant shall not be allowed against the execution debt or unless by order of the judge of the said court.

Judge may appoint a deputy.

7. A judge of any court may appoint a deputy or assistant judge to execute any particular portion or duty of such judge, such appointment being under such orders, rules, and regulations as Her Majesty by Order in Council may direct, provided such deputy shall be a barrister of not less than seven years standing.

Proviso as to City of London Court.

8. Provided always, that in the City of London Court the same fees shall always be taken as are for the time being taken in the county courts: Provided also, that the provisions in section twelve of the schedule shall not be applied to the City of London Court, or to the Court of Record for the Hundred of Salford.

SCHEDULE.

The SCHEDULE to which the Act refers.

Schedule.

Interpretation of terms.

1. In the construction of the following provisions the word "court" shall be understood to mean the Court of Record to which such provisions as aforesaid, or any of them, are made applicable by an Order of Her Majesty in Council. The word "judge" shall be understood to mean the judge, deputy or assistant judge, for the time being of such court. The words "superior courts" shall be understood to mean the superior courts of common law at Westminster.

Power to judge when out of the jurisdiction to hear motions.

2. The judge may, at any time within such time and such manner as is permitted by the rules of the court, and whether the court be sitting or not, and either when within or when out of the limits of the jurisdiction of the court, hear and grant applications for rules to show cause in arrest of judgment, or for judgment non obstante veredicto, or for a repleader, or for granting new trials, or for entering nonsuits and verdicts in causes pending in the court, to the same extent and subject to the rules and regulations to be made in respect thereof in the same manner as rules and regulations are made in the court; and all rules and orders made by the judge upon the hearing of such motions out of court shall be as valid and binding upon the parties as if the same had been made during the sittings of the court.

Judge to determine fees payable to registrar and officers of the court.

3. The judge shall and he is hereby required to make and settle a table of the fees to be taken by the registrar and the bailiff or other officers of the court, and such table of fees shall be submitted to two judges of the superior courts; and if such table of fees shall be confirmed, and allowed by such judges, either as such table shall have been submitted to them, or with such alterations, additions, or abatements as they shall think proper, the fees therein mentioned, and no other, may thenceforth be lawfully taken by the officer therein declared to be entitled thereunto.

Power to judge to alter fees from time to time.

4. It shall be lawful for the judge from time to time, as occasion shall require, to make and settle a new table of fees to be taken instead of the fees contained in the table of fees which shall have been made and settled as aforesaid, but such new table shall be of no validity until confirmed and allowed in the manner hereinbefore mentioned.

Table of fees to be exhibited.

5. The registrar shall cause a true copy of the table of fees in force for the time being to be exhibited in a conspicuous part of the office of the registrar.

A special case may be stated for the opinion of one of the superior courts at Westminster.

6. The parties in any action may, after issue joined by consent and by order of the registrar, state the facts of the case in the form of a special case for the opinion of any one of the superior courts, and may agree that a judgment shall be entered in the court for the plaintiff or defendant, as such superior court shall think fit.

Special case to be transmitted by the registrar

7. The registrar shall transmit such special case under seal of the court to the rule department of the master's office of the superior court in which the case is to be argued, and thereupon all such proceedings shall be taken and rules and regulations observed in the superior court as are usual with reference to cases stated for the opinion of such superior court in actions therein pending. Schedule.

8. The registrar, upon the production of an office copy of the rule of the superior court made upon hearing such special case, shall enter judgment in the court in conformity with the decision of the superior court. to the rule department.
Upon production to registrar of rule of superior court, judgment to be entered.

9. In all cases where final judgment shall be obtained in any action brought in the court, where the sum recovered, exclusive of costs, is not less than twenty pounds, and also in all cases where any rule or order shall be made by the judge for the payment of any sum of money not less than twenty pounds, it shall be lawful for any judge of any of the superior courts, either in term or vacation, upon the application of any person entitled to the benefit of such judgment, rule, or order, and upon the production of such judgment, rule, or order, under the seal of the court and signature of the proper officer, to direct such judgment, rule, or order, or a copy of such judgment, rule, or order, verified by affidavit, to be filed with the clerk of the judgments of one of the superior courts, and thereupon such judgment, rule, or order shall be of the same effect as a judgment recovered in or a rule or order made by such superior court, and all proceedings shall and may be immediately had and taken thereupon, or by reason or in consequence thereof, as if such judgment so recovered, or rule or order so made, had been originally recovered in or made by the superior court; and all the reasonable costs and charges of such application and removal shall be recovered in like manner as if the same were part of such judgment, rule, or order. Removal of judgments into the superior courts.

10. Upon the application of any of the parties to any such action depending in the court, any one of the judges of the superior courts at Westminster may order a commission to issue for the examination of witnesses upon oath at any place or places beyond the limits of England and Wales by interrogatories or otherwise, and by the same or any subsequent order or orders may give all such directions touching the time, place, and manner of such examination, and all other matters and circumstances connected with such examination, as may appear reasonable and just. Commission may be issued by a judge of a superior court to examine witnesses abroad.

11. The judge shall have power to nonsuit the plaintiff in every case in which satisfactory proof shall not be given to him entitling either the plaintiff or defendant to the judgment of the court, and shall also in every case whatever have the power, if he shall think fit, to order a new trial to be had upon such terms as he shall think reasonable, and in the meantime to stay the proceedings. Nonsuit.

12. No action entered in the court shall before judgment be removed or removable from the court into any superior court by any writ or process, except by leave of a judge of one of the superior courts in cases which shall appear to such judge fit to be tried in one of the superior courts, and upon such terms, as to payment of costs, security for debt and costs, or such other terms, as such judge shall think fit. No actions to be removed into superior courts but on certain conditions.

STATUTES RELATING TO INCLOSURE AND RECREATION GROUNDS.

INCLOSURE CLAUSES CONSOLIDATION ACT, 1801.

41 GEO. III. c. 109.

[2nd July, 1801.]

Section 3. 3. And whereas disputes or doubts may arise concerning the boundaries of parishes, manors, hamlets, or districts to be divided and inclosed, and of parishes, manors, hamlets, or districts adjoining thereto; be it therefore enacted that the commissioner or commissioners appointed in or by virtue of any such Act shall, and he or they is and are hereby authorised and required, by examination of witnesses upon oath or affirmation (which oath or affirmation any one of such commissioners is hereby empowered to administer), and by such other legal ways and means as he or they shall think proper, to inquire into the boundaries of such several parishes, manors, hamlets, or districts, and in case it shall appear to such commissioner or commissioners that the boundaries of the same respectively are not then sufficiently ascertained and distinguished, such commissioner or commissioners shall, and he or they is hereby authorised and required to ascertain, set out, determine, and fix the same respectively; and after the said boundaries shall be so ascertained, set out, determined, and fixed, the same shall and are hereby declared to be the boundaries of such parishes, manors, hamlets, or districts ⁽¹⁾: Provided always, that such commissioner or commissioners (before he or they proceed to ascertain and set out the boundaries of such parishes, manors, hamlets, or districts) shall, and he or they is and are hereby required to give public notice ⁽²⁾, by writing under his or their hands, to be affixed on the most public doors of the churches of such parishes, and also by advertisement to be inserted in some newspaper to be named in such Act, and also by writing to be delivered to or left at the last or usual places of the abode of the respective lords or stewards of the lords of the manors in which the lands and grounds to be inclosed shall be situate, and of such adjoining manor or manors, ten days at least before the time of setting out such boundaries, of his or their intention to ascertain, set out, determine, and fix the same respectively; and such commissioner or commissioners shall, within one month after his or their ascertaining and setting out the same boundaries, cause a description thereof, in writing, to be delivered to or left at the places of abode of one of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the respective parishes ⁽³⁾, and also of such respective lords or stewards: Provided always, that if any person or persons interested in the determination of the said commissioner or commissioners respecting the said boundaries shall be dissatisfied with such determination, such person or persons may appeal to the justices of the peace acting in and for the county in which such lands or grounds shall be situate, at any general quarter sessions of the peace to be holden within four calendar months next after the aforesaid publication of the said boundaries, by delivering or leaving such description as aforesaid, the party or parties making such appeal, giving eight days notice of such appeal and of the matter thereof, in writing, to the commissioners; and the decision of the said justices therein shall be final and conclusive ⁽⁴⁾, and shall not be removed or removable by certiorari, or any other writ or process whatsoever, into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster or elsewhere.

⁽¹⁾ See R. v. St. Mary, Bury St. Edmunds, 4 B. & Ald. 462.

⁽²⁾ See R. v. Haslingfield, 2 M. & S. 558.

⁽³⁾ See R. v. Washbrook, 4 B. & C. 732.

⁽⁴⁾ See Phillips v. Maile, 7 Bing. 133.

Secs. 8, 9.

8. Such commissoner or commissioners shall, and he or they is, and are hereby authorised and required, in the first place, before he or they proceed to make any of the divisions and allotments directed in and by such Act, to set out and appoint the public carriage roads and highways through and over the lands and grounds intended to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, and to divert, turn, and stop up⁽¹⁾ any of the roads and tracts upon and over all or any part of the said lands and grounds, as he or they shall judge necessary, so as such roads and highways shall be and remain thirty feet wide at the least, and so as the same shall be set out in such directions as shall upon the whole appear to him or them most commodious to the public⁽²⁾; and he or they are hereby further required to ascertain the same by marks and bounds, and to prepare a map in which such intended roads shall be accurately laid down and described, and to cause the same, being signed by such commissioner, if only one, or the major part of such commissioners, to be deposited with the clerk of the said commissioner or commissioners for the inspection of all persons concerned; and as soon as may be after such carriage roads shall have been set out and such map so deposited, to give notice in some newspaper to be named in such Bill, and also by affixing the same upon the church-door of the parish in which any of the lands so to be inclosed shall lie, of his or their having set out such roads and deposited such map, and also of the general lines of such intended carriage roads, and to appoint in and by the same notice a meeting to be held by the said commissioner or commissioners, at some convenient place in or near the parish or township within which the said inclosure is to be made, and not sooner than three weeks from the date and publication of such notice, at which meeting it shall and may be lawful for any person who may be injured or aggrieved by the setting out of such roads to attend; and if any such person shall object to the setting out of the same, then such commissioner or commissioners, together with any justice or justices of the peace acting in and for the division of the county in which such inclosure shall be made, and not being interested in the same, who may attend such meeting, shall hear and determine such objection, and the objections of any other such person, to any alteration that the said commissioner or commissioners, together with such justice or justices, may in consequence propose to make, and shall, and he or they are hereby required, according to the best of their judgment upon the whole, to order and finally direct how such carriage roads shall be set out, and either to confirm the said map, or make such alterations therein as the case may require: Provided always, that in case such commissioner or commissioners shall by such Bill be empowered to stop up any old or accustomed road passing or leading through any part of the old inclosures in such parish, township, or place, the same shall in no case be done without the concurrence and order of two justices of the peace⁽³⁾ acting in and for such division, and not interested in the repair of such roads, and which order shall be subject to an appeal to the quarter sessions⁽⁴⁾, in like manner and under the same forms and restrictions as if the same had been originally made by such justice as aforesaid.

9. Such carriage roads so to be set out as aforesaid shall be well and sufficiently fenced on both sides, by such of the owners and proprietors of the lands and grounds intended to be divided, allotted, and inclosed, and within such time as such commissioner or commissioners shall by any writing under his or their hands direct or appoint; and it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to set up or erect any gate across any such carriage road, or to plant any trees in or near to the hedges on the sides thereof at a less distance from each other than fifty yards; and such commissioner or commissioners shall, and he or they is and are hereby empowered and required, by writing under his or their hands, to nominate and appoint one or more surveyor or surveyors, with or without a salary, for the first forming and completing such parts of the said carriage roads as shall be newly made, and for putting into complete repair such parts of the same as shall have been previously made; which salary (if any), and also the expense of forming, completing, and repairing such roads respectively, over and above a proportion of the statute duty⁽⁵⁾ on the roads so to be repaired, shall be raised in like manner as the charges and expenses of obtaining and passing any such Act, and of carrying the same into execution, shall be thereby directed to be raised, and shall be paid to such surveyor or surveyors on or before the execution of the award of such commissioner or commissioners; and in case the same shall be thereby provided to be raised by sale of any part of the lands so to be divided and inclosed, then such commissioner or commissioners shall make a conditional rate upon the owners and proprietors of the same, in case the produce of such sale should prove insufficient for the purposes aforesaid;

(1) See R. v. Downshire (Marquis of), 4 Ad. & E. 698.

(2) See R. v. Cricklade, 14 Q. B. 735, 19 L. J. M. C. 169; R. v. E. Hagbourne, 28 L. J. M. C. 71.

(3) See Logan v. Burton, 5 B. & C. 513, 8 D. & R. 299; Harber v. Rand, 9 Price; Williams v. Eytton, 4 H. & N. 357, 28 L. J. Ex. 176.

(4) R. v. JJ. of Yorkshire, 2 B. & C. 228; Manning v. E. Counties Ry., 12 M. & W. 237.

(5) Statute duty is now abolished by the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 756.

Secs. 9—11. and such surveyor or surveyors shall, and he or they is and are hereby directed to be in all respects subject to the jurisdiction and control of the justices of the peace acting in and for the county in which such roads shall respectively lie, and shall account to such justices in like manner for all moneys so to be by him or them received and expended, and for the repayment of any surplus which may remain in his or their hands to such persons as shall have been made liable to contribute thereto, according to the proportion so as above ascertained by such commissioner or commissioners: and such justices shall have the like powers of levying any such rate as may by them be thought necessary for the purposes aforesaid, according to the proportions previously ascertained by such commissioner or commissioners, as if such surveyor or surveyors had been appointed under or by virtue of the General Highway Act, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty ⁽¹⁾; and in case such surveyor or surveyors shall neglect to complete and repair such roads respectively, within the space of two years after such award, unless a further time not exceeding one year shall for that purpose be allowed by such justices, and then within such further time he or they shall forfeit the sum of twenty pounds, and the inhabitants at large of the parish, township, or place wherein such roads shall be respectively situate shall be in no wise charged or chargeable towards forming or repairing the said roads respectively, except such proportion of such statute duty ⁽²⁾ as aforesaid, till such time as the same shall by such justices in their special sessions be declared to be fully and sufficiently formed, completed, and repaired, from which time, and for ever thereafter, the same shall be supported and kept in repair by such persons, and in like manner as the other public roads within such parish, township, or place are by law to be amended and kept in repair ⁽³⁾.

10. Such commissioner or commissioners shall, and he or they is and are hereby empowered and required to set out and appoint such private roads, bridleways, footways, ditches, drains, watercourses, watering places, quarries, bridges, gates, stiles, mounds, fences, banks, bounds and land marks, in over upon and through or by the sides of the allotments to be made and set out in pursuance of such Act as he or they shall think requisite giving such notice and subject to such examination as to any private roads or paths, as are above required in the case of public roads and the same shall be made, and at all times for ever thereafter be supported and kept in repair by and at the expense of the owners and proprietors for the time being of the lands and grounds directed to be divided and inclosed, in such shares and proportions as the commissioner or commissioners shall in and by his or their award order and direct ⁽⁴⁾.

11. After such public and private roads and ways shall have been set out and made the grass and herbage arising thereon shall for ever belong to and be the sole right of the proprietors of the lands and grounds which shall next adjoin the said roads and ways on either side thereof, as far as the crown of the road; and all roads, ways, and paths, over, through and upon such lands and grounds which shall not be set out as aforesaid, shall be for ever stopped up and extinguished and shall be deemed and taken as part of the lands and grounds to be divided, allotted and inclosed, and shall be divided, allotted and inclosed accordingly: Provided that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to give such commissioner or commissioners any power or authority to divert, change, or alter any turnpike road that shall or may lead over any such lands and grounds unless the consent of the majority of the trustees of such turnpike road, assembled at some public meeting called for that purpose on ten days notice, be first had and obtained.

INCLOSURE ACT, 1857.

20 & 21 VICT. c. 31.

Section 12. 12. [After reciting that it is expedient to provide summary means of preventing nuisances in town greens and village greens, and on land allotted and awarded upon any inclosure under the said Acts ⁽⁵⁾ as a place for exercise and recreation: enacts] "if any person wilfully cause any injury or damage to any fence of any such town or village green or land, or wilfully and without lawful authority lead or drive any cattle or animal thereon, or wilfully lay any manure, soil, ashes, or rubbish, or other matter or thing thereon, or do any other act whatsoever to the injury of such town or village green or land, or to the interruption of the use or enjoyment thereof as a

⁽¹⁾ Now repealed by the Highway Act, 1835, s. 1, ante, p. 756.

⁽²⁾ Now abolished by the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 756.

⁽³⁾ See R. v. Hatfield, 4 Ad. & E. 156; and R. v. Midville, 4 Q. B. 240.

⁽⁴⁾ See Falmouth (Earl of) v. Richardson, 3 B. & C. 837.

⁽⁵⁾ The Acts for the Enclosure, Exchange, and Improvement of Land.

place for exercise and recreation, such person shall for every such offence, upon a summary conviction thereof before two justices upon the information of any churchwarden or overseer of the parish in which such town or village green or land is situate, or of the person in whom the soil of such town or village green or land may be vested, forfeit and pay, in any of the cases aforesaid, and for each and every such offence over and above the damages occasioned thereby, any sum not exceeding forty shillings, and it shall be lawful for any such churchwarden or overseer or other person as aforesaid to sell and dispose of any such manure, soil, ashes, and rubbish or other matter or thing as aforesaid; and the proceeds arising from the sale thereof and every such penalty as aforesaid, shall, as regards any such town or village green not awarded under the said Acts or any of them to be used as a place for exercise and recreation, be applied in aid of the rates for the repair of the public highways in the parish, and shall, as regards the land so awarded, be applied by the persons or person in whom the soil thereof may be vested in the due maintenance of such land as a place for exercise and recreation; and if any manure, soil, ashes, or rubbish be not of sufficient value to defray the expense of removing the same, the person who laid or deposited such manure, soil, ashes, or rubbish shall repay to such churchwarden or overseer or other person as aforesaid the money necessarily expended in the removal thereof; and every such penalty as aforesaid shall be recovered in manner provided by the Act, 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43; and the amount of damage occasioned by any such offence as aforesaid shall in case of dispute be determined by the justices by whom the offender is convicted; and the payment of the amount of such damage, and the repayments of the money necessarily expended in the removal of any manure, soil, ashes, or rubbish, shall be enforced in like manner as any such penalty."

Section 12.

RECREATION GROUNDS, GARDENS, ETC.

23 & 24 VICT. C. 30.

An Act to enable a majority of two thirds of the ratepayers of any parish or district, duly assembled, to rate their district in aid of Public Improvements for general benefit within their district (¹).

[3rd July, 1860.]

1. It shall be lawful for the ratepayers of any parish maintaining its own poor, the population of which, according to the last account from time to time taken thereof by the authority of Parliament, exceeds five hundred persons, to purchase or lease lands, and to accept gifts and grants of land, for the purpose of forming any public walk, exercise or play ground, and to levy rates for maintaining the same, and for removal of any nuisances or obstruction to the free use and enjoyment thereof, and for improving any open walk or footpath, or placing convenient seats, or shelters from rain, and for other purposes of a similar nature.
2. This Act may be adopted for any borough, or for any parish having a population of five hundred or upwards, (according to the last account for the time taken by authority of Parliament) in the same manner as the Act of the ninth and tenth Victoria, chapter seventy-four, may be adopted in such borough or parish.

Secs. 1—3.

Ratepayers may hold land, &c., for purpose of forming public walks, &c., and levy rates for maintaining the same, &c.

Adoption of Act, according to 9 & 10 Vict. c. 74.

3. Where the Act is adopted in a borough or in such a parish, the provisions of the Act of the ninth and tenth Victoria, chapter seventy-four (²), for the purposes below specified applicable in the like cases where that Act is adopted, shall take effect for the purposes of this Act, viz.: All the provisions concerning

As to public baths and wash-houses.

- (1.) The authority by which and the manner in which the Act is to be carried into execution:
- (2.) The mode of providing the expenses of carrying the Act into execution (excluding the provisions for borrowing money for such expenses):
- (3.) The appointment (in the case of a parish) of commissioners, the tenure of office and procedure, and the audit of their accounts:
- (4.) The powers of the councils and commissioners for the purposes of the Act (except the powers of borrowing money).

(¹) See the Local Government Board Act, 1871, 34 & 35 Vict. c. 70, ss. 2, 7 and Sched. it. "Public Improvements," ante, p. 393. The Recreation Grounds Act, 1859, 22 Vict. c. 27, deals only with the conveyance of lands to trustees to be held by them as public recreation grounds, &c.

As to the dedication of parts of settled estates for streets, gardens, &c., see the Settled Estates Act, 1877, 40 & 41 Vict. c. 18, ss. 20, 21, post.

(²) Ante, p. 1191.

Secs. 4—7.

Ratepayers, after notice given, to rate parishes.
Corporate bodies may attend and vote.
One half of the estimated cost to be raised by private subscription Amount of rate.

4. After the adoption of this Act it shall be lawful for the ratepayers in meeting assembled to rate such parish to a separate rate, to be called the “Parish Improvement Rate,” provided that such rate be agreed to by a majority of at least two thirds in value of the ratepayers assembled at such meeting.

5. Corporate bodies shall be allowed to attend meetings to be held as aforesaid and to vote thereat by some person to be deputed by them for that purpose under their corporate seal.

6. Provided always, that previous to any such rate being imposed a sum in amount not less than at least one half of the estimated cost of such proposed improvement shall have been raised, given, or collected by private subscription or donation.

7. Such rate shall not exceed sixpence in the pound.

RECREATION GROUNDS, GARDENS, Etc.

26 VICT. c. 13.

An Act for the protection of certain Garden or Ornamental Grounds in Cities and Boroughs.

[4th May, 1863.]

Secs. 1, 2.

Gardens in certain squares, &c. may be freed from neglect, encroachments, &c., and vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works or other corporate authority:

or vested in a committee of rated inhabitants.

1. Where in any city or borough any enclosed garden or ornamental ground has been set apart otherwise than by the revocable permission of the owner ⁽¹⁾ thereof in any public square, crescent, circus, street, or other public place, for the use or enjoyment of the inhabitants thereof, and where the trustees, commissioners, or other body appointed for the care of the same have neglected to keep it in proper order, or where such garden or ground has not been vested in or placed under the management of any trustees, commissioners, or other body for the care of the same, and from the want of such care, or from any other cause, has been neglected, the Metropolitan Board of Works, where the same is in any place under their jurisdiction, except the City of London (where the provisions of this Act shall be carried into effect by the Corporation of the said city), and the corporate authorities in any other city or borough, shall take charge of the same, putting up a notice or notices to that effect in such garden or ornamental ground, and if after due inquiry the person entitled to any estate of freehold in the same cannot be found, or if it shall be vested in any person by whom it is held, subject to any condition or reservation for keeping the same as and for a garden or pleasure ground, or that the same shall not be built upon, but not otherwise, shall cause any buildings or other encroachments made therein within the period of twenty years before the passing of this Act to be removed, and (if requested by a majority of two-thirds of the owners and of the occupiers of the houses surrounding the same) shall vest such garden or ornamental ground in a committee consisting of not more than nine nor fewer than three of the rated inhabitants of such houses to be chosen annually by such inhabitants, in order that the same may be kept as a garden or ornamental ground for the use of such inhabitants; and the vestry or board of any and every parish or district within which the same or any part thereof is situate shall from time to time cause to be raised the sums required by such committee for defraying the expenses of the maintenance and management of such enclosed garden or ornamental ground, or of such part thereof as is situate within their parish or district, by an addition to the general rate to be assessed on the occupiers of such houses; or if the said owners and occupiers shall not agree as aforesaid to undertake the charge of such garden or ornamental ground, the Metropolitan Board of Works or corporate authority aforesaid shall, within six months after the notice hereinbefore-mentioned shall have been put up within the same, or within such further time as the said board or authority may think it expedient to allow for such agreement to be come to, vest the same in such vestries or boards, who shall thenceforth take charge of and maintain the same as an open place or street in such manner as shall appear to them most advantageous to the public, subject to the approval of the Metropolitan Board of Works or corporate authority, as the case may require; saving and always reserving to every person and persons, his and their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, all such estate, right, title, and interest as he, she, or they would or ought to have had and enjoyed of, in, to, from, or out of the gardens and grounds aforesaid in case this Act had not passed.

Protection of open spaces from encroachment.

2. And whereas it is expedient that the same should be carefully protected from undue encroachment, where any right to require that any garden or ornamental ground as aforesaid be kept and maintained as such, or that the same shall not be built upon, shall belong to any person in right of any house or other property, and he shall by notice in writing signed by him addressed to the Metropolitan Board of Works where the same is in any place under their jurisdiction, except the City of London, where the same shall be addressed to the Corporation of the said city, or to the corporate authorities in any other city or borough, requesting the said Metropolitan Board of Works or corporate authority to protect the right before mentioned, the said Metropolitan Board of Works or corporate authority, after due inquiry, may, if they shall think fit, accede to such request, and then and thereupon the right of such person to require that such garden or ornamental ground to be maintained as such, or that the same shall not be built upon, shall thenceforth be vested in such Metropolitan Board of Works or corporate authority, who shall be fully empowered for and in their own name, to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges in relation thereto, and take such legal proceedings for asserting, defending, and protecting the same, as the said person might have exercised or taken.

⁽²⁾ See Tulk v. Metropolitan Board of Works, L. R. 3 Q. B. 94, 37 L. J. Q. B. 11, 17 L. T. N. S. 202, 16 W. R. 212, 31 J. P. 756.

Secs. 2—7.

3. the expenses incurred by any corporate authority shall be deemed to be expenses necessarily incurred by them in carrying into execution within and for their city or borough the Act intituled "An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," and any other Act amending the same ⁽¹⁾.

Expenses how to be defrayed.

5 & 6 Will. 4, c. 76.

4. Where any such garden or ground is managed by any committee of the inhabitants of any square, crescent, circus, street, or place, such committee may make, and from time to time revoke and alter, bye-laws for the management of the same, and for the preservation of the trees, shrubs, plants, flowers, rails, fences, seats, summer-houses, and other things therein, which bye-laws shall be entered in a book kept for that purpose by the committee, signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the same shall be passed, and which book shall and may be produced and read, and taken as evidence of such bye-laws, in all courts whatever, and any inhabitant or servant, or other person admitted to such garden by any inhabitant, offending against the same, after they shall have been duly allowed, as hereinafter provided, upon proof thereof before a magistrate acting for the district in which such garden is situate, shall be liable for each offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds: Provided always, that such bye-laws shall not come into operation until the same shall have been allowed by some judge of one of the superior courts, or by the justices in quarter sessions; and it shall be incumbent on such judge or justices, on the request of such committee, to inquire into any bye-laws tendered to them for that purpose, and to allow or disallow the same as they think meet.

Byelaws for management of garden, &c.

5. Any police constable who shall see any person throwing any rubbish into any such garden, or trespassing therein, or getting over the railings or fence, or stealing or damaging the flowers or plants, or committing any nuisance therein, may apprehend such person, under the authority hereby given to him; and any person convicted before any magistrate acting for the district shall be liable for each and every offence aforesaid to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings, or to imprisonment for any period not exceeding fourteen days; and in case it shall be necessary to state in any proceedings the ownership of the property of such garden, flowers, or plants, it shall be sufficient to describe the same as the property of the committee by the name of A. B. and others ⁽²⁾.

Penalty for injuring garden.

6. the Act passed in the twelfth year of the reign of Her Majesty the Queen, chapter forty-three, shall apply to every penalty or forfeiture imposed by this Act, or any bye-law made in pursuance thereof for any matter or thing done or omitted to be done within any other part of England and Wales.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43, to apply.

7. Nothing in this Act shall extend to or include any garden, ornamental ground, or other land belonging to Her Majesty in right of Her Crown or of Her Duchy of Lancaster, or any garden, ornamental ground, or other land for the time being under the management of the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, or of the commissioners for the time being acting under the Crown Estate Paving Act, 1851, or to any garden, ornamental or other ground, for which special provision is made for the due care and protection thereof by any public or private Act of Parliament.

Act not to extend to property of the crown or to property under the management of the Commissioners of Works, &c.

⁽¹⁾ Now the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, ante, p. 269.

⁽²⁾ Further, as to malicious injuries in gardens, see the Malicious Injuries to Property Act, 1861, 24 & 25 Vict. c. 97, ss. 20—23, and s. 53, and as to stealing or cutting, &c., with intent to steal trees, plants, fences, &c., see Larceny Act, 1861, 24 & 25 Vict. c. 96, ss. 32—37.

COMMONS ACT, 1876.

39 & 40 VICT. c. 56.

An Act for facilitating the regulation and improvement of Commons, and for amending the Act relating to the Inclosure of Commons. [11th August, 1876.]

PART I.

LAW AS TO THE REGULATION AND INCLOSURE OF COMMONS.

*Applications in relation to Commons.Secs. 2—4.

Alternative Provisional Order for regulation or inclosure of commons.

“Regulation of common” includes adjustment of rights and improvement.

Explanation of adjustment of rights.

2. The Inclosure Commissioners may entertain an application made in manner in this Act mentioned for a Provisional Order:—

(1.) For the regulation of a common; or

(2.) For the inclosure of a common or parts of a common;

Further, an application may be made as respects the same common for the regulation of part of such common, specifying the part to be regulated, and for the inclosure of the residue, and in such case the application shall be dealt with as respects such parts as if they were separate commons, with this exception, that the boundaries as proposed in the application of the part to be regulated and the part to be inclosed may be modified by the Provisional Order.

The commissioners shall not proceed to carry any application under this Act into effect until it is made to appear to them that the persons making the application represent at least one-third in value of such interests in the common as are proposed to be affected by the Provisional Order.

3. A Provisional Order for the regulation of a common may provide, generally or otherwise, for the adjustment of rights in respect of such common, and for the improvement of such common, or for either of such purposes, or for any of the things by this Act comprised under the expression “adjustment of rights” or “improvement of a common,” or may state that all or any of such subjects are to be provided for in the proceedings subsequent to the confirmation of the Provisional Order by Parliament.

4. The adjustment of rights in respect of a common comprises for the purposes of this Act all or any of the following things:

(1.) As respects rights of common of pasture in a common, being waste land of a manor,—the determination of the persons by whom, the stock by which, and the times at which such common of pasture is to be exercised;

(2.) As respects rights of common of turbary, or taking of estovers, or taking gravel, stone, or otherwise interfering with the soil of the common, being waste land of a manor,—the determination of the persons by whom, and the mode and place or places in which, and the times at which such rights are to be exercised, also on compensation made to any person aggrieved, either by grant of a right of equal value, or with his consent in writing, in money,—the restriction, modification, or abolition, of all or any of such rights which may permanently injure the common;

(3.) As respects rights of common in land which is not waste land of a manor,—the stinting or other determination of such rights, and the persons by whom, and the mode in which, and the times at which such rights are to be exercised, as also on compensation made to any person aggrieved, either by grant of a right of equal value, or with his consent in writing, in money,—the restriction, modification, or abolition of all or any of such rights which may be injurious to the general body of the commoners or to the proper cultivation of the land;

(4.) As respects any common whether it is or is not waste land of a manor,—the determination of the rights and obligations of the lord of the manor, severalty owners, or other person or persons entitled to the soil of such common, as also on compensation made to any person aggrieved, either by grant of a right of equal value, or with his consent in writing, in money,—the restriction, modification, or abolition of all or any of such rights, and in particular in the case of severalty owners of all or any of such rights which may be injurious to the general body of the severalty owners or to the proper cultivation of the land; and

(5.) Generally as respects any common, whether it is or is not waste land of a manor,—the determination of any rights and settlement of any disputes relating to boundaries, rights in the soil or in the produce of the soil, or otherwise, whether arising between the commoners themselves, or between the commoners in relation to the lords of the manors, severalty owners, or other person or persons entitled to the soil of the common, which settlement may be conducive to the interests of all or any class of persons interested in the common.

Secs. 4—8.

5. The improvement of a common comprises for the purposes of this Act all or any of the following things; (that is to say,)

Explanation of improvement.

- (1.) The draining, manuring, or levelling the common; and
- (2.) The planting trees on parts of such common, or in any other way improving or adding to the beauty of the common; and
- (3.) The making or causing to be made bye-laws and regulations for the prevention of or protection from nuisances or for keeping order on the common; and
- (4.) The general management of such common.
- (5.) The appointment from time to time of conservators of the common for the purposes aforesaid.

6. A Provisional Order for the inclosure of a common means a Provisional Order for inclosing the common as provided by the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, as amended by this Act.

Meaning of Provisional Order for inclosure of commons.

7. In any Provisional Order in relation to a common, the Inclosure Commissioners shall, in considering the expediency of the application, take into consideration the question whether such application will be for the benefit of the neighbourhood, and shall, with a view to such benefit insert in any such order such of the following terms and conditions (in this Act referred to as statutory provisions for the benefit of the neighbourhood) as are applicable to the case; (that is to say,)

Provisions for the benefit of a neighbourhood applicable alike to orders for regulation and orders for inclosure.

- (1.) That free access is to be secured to any particular points of view; and
- (2.) That particular trees or objects of historical interest are to be preserved; and
- (3.) That there is to be reserved, where a recreation ground is not set out, a privilege of playing games or of enjoying other species of recreation at such times and in such manner and on such parts of the common as may be thought suitable, care being taken to cause the least possible injury to the persons interested in the common; and
- (4.) That carriage roads, bridle paths, and footpaths over such common are to be set out in such directions as may appear most commodious; and
- (5.) That any other specified thing is to be done which may be thought equitable and expedient, regard being had to the benefit of the neighbourhood.

Suburban Commons.

8. Notice of any application under this Act in relation to a common which is situate either wholly or partly in any town or towns, or within six miles of any town or towns (which common so situate is in this Act referred to as a suburban common) shall be served as soon as may be on the urban sanitary authority or authorities having jurisdiction over such town or towns, and it shall be lawful for the urban sanitary authority of any such town to appear before the assistant commissioner on the occasion of his holding a local inquiry as in this Act mentioned, and also to appear before the Inclosure Commissioners, and to make to him or them, at any time during the proceedings in relation to obtaining a Provisional Order under this Act, such representations as they may think fit with respect to the expediency or inexpediency of such application, regard being had to the health, comfort, and convenience of the inhabitants of the town over which such authority has jurisdiction, and to propose to him or them such provisions as may appear to such urban sanitary authority to be proper, regard being had as aforesaid.

Sanitary authorities to be represented in the case of commons in the neighbourhood of towns.

Any urban sanitary authority entitled to receive notice of an application in relation to a suburban common may, with the sanction of the Inclosure Commissioners, enter into an undertaking to contribute out of their funds for or towards the maintenance of recreation grounds, or of paths or roads, or the doing any other matter or thing for the benefit of their town in relation to the common to which such application relates.

They may also, in relation to any such common, and with such sanction as aforesaid, enter into an undertaking to pay compensation in respect to the rights of commoners, for the purpose of securing greater privileges for the benefit of their town.

An urban sanitary authority may acquire by gift and hold without license in mortmain on trust for the benefit of their town any suburban common in respect of which they would be entitled to receive notice of any application made to the Inclosure Commissioners in pursuance of this Act, and any rights in such a common.

They may also in the case of any such suburban common purchase and hold as aforesaid, with a view to prevent the extinction of the rights of common, any saleable rights in common or any tenement of a commoner having annexed thereto rights of common.

Secs. 8-10. They may also, with the consent of persons representing at least one-third in value of such interests in a suburban common as aforesaid as are proposed to be affected by the Provisional Order, make an application to the Inclosure Commissioners for the regulation of such common with a view to the benefit of their town and the improvement of such common.

Where an urban sanitary authority makes an application under this Act with such consent as aforesaid in respect of the regulation of a common, or undertakes to make any contribution or to pay any compensation or make any other payment out of its funds in respect of a common such urban sanitary authority may, if the Inclosure Commissioners deem it advisable, having regard to the benefit of the neighbourhood as well as to private interests, be invested with such powers of management or other powers as may be expedient.

The expenses incurred by an urban sanitary authority in pursuance of this section may be defrayed out of any rate applicable to the payment of expenses incurred by such authority in the execution of the Public Health Act, 1875, and not otherwise provided for.

A town for the purposes of this section means any municipal borough, or Improvement Act district, or local government district, having a population of not less than five thousand inhabitants.

The population of any town for the purposes of this Act shall be reckoned according to the last published census for the time being, and distances shall be measured in a direct line from the town hall, or if there shall be no town hall, then from the cathedral or church, if there shall be only one church, or if there be more churches than one, then from the principal market place of such town to the nearest point of the suburban common. When part only of a common is situate within the aforesaid distance from a town, such part shall be deemed for the purposes of this section to be a common separate and distinct from the part situated without and beyond such distance.

Procedure.

9. [Issue of forms by commissioners.]

10. The following rules shall be observed with respect to an application to the Inclosure Commissioners for a Provisional Order for the regulation or inclosure of a common; that is to say,

- (1.) The applicants, previously to making their application, shall publish, in such manner as the Inclosure Commissioners may from time to time, by general or special order, direct, an advertisement giving notice of their intention to apply for such Provisional Order, and shall also serve a like notice on any urban sanitary authority entitled under this Act to receive such notice: Provided that such advertisement as aforesaid shall always be inserted in at least one paper circulating in the neighbourhood of the common to which the application relates:
- (2.) The application shall be in writing, accompanied with a map of the common, or part thereof, and, if for the regulation of a common, shall express whether the applicants propose that all or certain specified provisions only of this Act for the adjustments of rights or improvement of commons should be put in force in relation to such common, and whether to apply to the whole or part of such common, but, subject as aforesaid, an application for the regulation or inclosure of a common shall be in such form and be made in such manner as the Inclosure Commissioners may from time to time direct:
- (3.) On making their application in respect of any common, the applicants shall furnish the Inclosure Commissioners, in answer to questions previously submitted or otherwise in such manner as the said commissioners may from time to time direct, with information bearing on the expediency of the application considered in relation to the benefit of the neighbourhood as well as to private interests:
- (4.) The information to be furnished as bearing on the expediency of the application, considered in relation to the benefit of the neighbourhood, shall comprise statements as to the particulars following; that is to say, as to the number and occupation of the inhabitants of the parish or place in which the common is situate; as to the population of the neighbourhood, and the distance of the common from any neighbouring towns and villages; as to the intention of the applicants to propose the adoption of all or any of the statutory provisions as defined by this Act for the benefit of the neighbourhood; as to the circumstance of any ground other than the common to which the application relates being available for the recreation of the neighbourhood; and in the case of a common being waste land of a manor, as to the site, extent, and suitability of the allotments, if any, proposed to be made for recreation grounds and field gardens, or for either of such purposes; and as to any other matter which in the judgment of the Inclosure Commissioners may assist them in forming an opinion as to whether such Rules as to application to commissioners.

Publication of notices of application.

Manner of application.

Evidence to be furnished in support of application.

Evidence in relation to benefit of neighbourhood.

application ought to be acceded to, having regard to the benefit of the neighbourhood, Secs. 10, 11. and if acceded to, as to what statutory provisions, as defined by this Act, ought to be inserted in the Provisional Order for the benefit of the neighbourhood :

The Inclosure Commissioners shall also require, in the case of an application for inclosure, special information as to the advantages the applicants anticipate to be derivable from the inclosure of a common as compared with the regulation of a common, also the reasons why an inclosure is expedient when viewed in relation to the benefit of the neighbourhood :

- (5.) The information to be furnished as bearing on the expediency of the application considered in relation to private interests shall comprise statements as to the several particulars following ; that is to say, as to the extent and nature of the common to which the application relates ; as to the mines, minerals, or valuable strata (if any) under the same ; as to the questions of boundary (if any) concerning such common, or such mines, minerals, or strata ; as to the parties interested in such common, and the numbers and proportion in value of interest who have consented to or dissented from the application ; as to the nature of the rights requiring the intervention of the Inclosure Commissioners or the interference of Parliament ; as to the supposed advantages of the application being acceded to ; as to (in cases where the interest of any lord of the manor in the soil of a common or in mineral or other rights may be affected by the Provisional Order applied for) the allotment (if any) or compensation agreed on or proposed to be made to such lord of the manor in respect of his interest so affected ; and as to any other matter which, in the judgment of the Inclosure Commissioners, may assist them in forming an opinion as to whether such application ought to be acceded to, having regard to private interests, and if acceded to as to what provisions ought to be inserted in the Provisional Order for the protection of private interests : Evidence in relation to private interests.
- (6.) The Inclosure Commissioners shall take into consideration any application made to them as in this Act provided, and if satisfied by the information furnished to them as aforesaid, or by any further inquiries made by themselves or an assistant commissioner, that a prima facie case has been made out, and that, regard being had to the benefit of the neighbourhood as well as to private interests, it is expedient to proceed further in the matter, they shall order a local inquiry to be held by an assistant commissioner. Duty of commissioners on application.
11. The following rules shall be observed with respect to a local inquiry held by order of the Inclosure Commissioners : Rules as to local inquiry.
 - (1.) The assistant commissioner appointed to hold such inquiry shall inspect the common to which the application relates, and shall convene one or more public meetings at a suitable time and place for securing the attendance of the neighbouring inhabitants, and of all persons claiming interest in the common : Provided always, that one at least of such public meetings shall be held in the evening between the hours of seven and ten of the clock. Inspection and public meeting.
 - (2.) The assistant commissioner shall give not less than twenty-one days' notice of his intention to hold the first of such meetings. Notice of meeting.
 - (3.) The notice shall, in such form as the Inclosure Commissioners from time to time direct, state the nature of the application made, the objects of the meeting, that the meeting is a public one and held for the purpose of enabling the assistant commissioner to hear all persons desirous of being heard on the subject matter of the application, whether considered in relation to the benefit of the neighbourhood or to private interests, and the desirability of the attendance of all persons interested in the subject matter of the inquiry. Contents of notice.
 - (4.) The notice shall be given— Publication of notice.
 - (a.) By affixing a copy thereof on the principal door of the church of the parish in which the common to which the application relates, or the greater part thereof is situate ; and
 - (b.) By posting copies of the same on or near the common to which it relates at the post office or post offices of the parish or district in which the common to which the application relates is situate, at any town hall, or vestry hall, or other building or room the expense of maintaining which is payable out of any local rate, situate in the parish or district, and at all places therein where notices are usually posted ; and
 - (c.) By advertising in such manner as the Inclosure Commissioners may direct, or otherwise giving notice of the meetings in such manner as they think best calculated to ensure publicity in the locality.

Secs. 11, 12.

Conduct of meeting.

Personal inquiries by assistant commissioner.

Report of assistant commissioner to Inclosure
Commissioners.

Map to accompany report.

Rules as to Provisional Orders, Draft Provisional Order to be framed.

Provisions for benefit of neighbourhood.

Provisions for protection of private interests.

(5.) The assistant commissioner shall preside and regulate the proceedings at such meeting and shall hear all persons desirous of being heard in relation to the subject matter of the inquiry. He may adjourn any such meeting from time to time, or from place to place, on giving such notice of adjournment as he thinks best calculated to ensure publicity.

(6.) The assistant commissioner shall also make any inquiries and do any other acts which he may be instructed by the Inclosure Commissioners or may think it advisable to do, for the purpose of enabling the commissioners to judge as to the expediency of making the Provisional Order applied for, also as to the nature of the provisions to be inserted in any such Provisional Order if made.

(7.) The assistant commissioner shall report in writing to the Inclosure Commissioners the result of the local inquiry, and of the public meeting or meetings held by him (in such form and with such details as the Inclosure Commissioners may from time to time direct), and specially shall report to the Inclosure Commissioners the information obtained by him as to the several particulars in respect of which the applicants for Provisional Order are by this Act required to furnish information to the Inclosure Commissioners.

He shall also report the number of persons who attended the meetings held by him, the objections (if any) made to the application, and the suggestions (if any) made in relation to the provisions to be inserted in the Provisional Order for the benefit of the neighbourhood or for the protection of private interests, and any other circumstance which he may think expedient, with a view to enable the Inclosure Commissioners to judge of the expediency of making the Provisional Order, having regard as aforesaid, and also, if the order be made, of the provisions to be inserted therein.

(8.) The report shall be accompanied by an outline or other map on such scale and of such description as may be directed by the Inclosure Commissioners, with a sketch in the case of an inclosure of a common being waste of land of a manor, of the allotments (if any) proposed to be made for recreation grounds and field gardens, or for either of such purposes.

12. The following rules shall be observed with respect to Provisional Orders to be made by the Inclosure Commissioners; that is to say,

(1.) The Inclosure Commissioners, if satisfied by the report of the assistant commissioner or by further inquiries to be made by themselves or an assistant commissioner, that, having regard to the benefit of the neighbourhood as well as to private interests, it is expedient to proceed further in the matter, shall frame, in such form and with such provisions as they, having regard as aforesaid, may think expedient, and as are consistent with law and the description of Provisional Order applied for, a draft Provisional Order for the consideration of the persons interested in the common, specifying, if such application is for the regulation of a common, whether all or any one or more of the provisions of this Act for the adjustment of rights and the improvement of a common are to be put in force:

(2.) With respect to provisions for the benefit of the neighbourhood, there shall be inserted in such draft Provisional Order all such of the statutory provisions as defined by this Act for the benefit of the neighbourhood as are applicable to the case; also, if the order is an inclosure order in the case of a common being waste land of a manor, the quantity and situation of the allotments (if any) to be made for recreation grounds and field gardens⁽¹⁾:

(3.) With respect to private interests, there shall be inserted in such draft Provisional Order, (1) where the interest of any lord of the manor in the soil of a common or in mineral or other rights may be affected by the order, a statement of the allotment (if any) or other compensation to be allotted or made to the lord of such manor in respect of his interest so affected; and (2) where there is any mineral property or other rights in relation thereto belonging to persons other than the lord of the manor which may be affected by the order, such provisions and reservations as are required to be inserted by the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, or as may appear to the Inclosure Commissioners proper to be inserted; also, if there are any other rights which appear to the commissioners proper to be specially provided for or to be excepted from the operation of the order, there shall be specified the provisions or exceptions to be made in that behalf :

⁽¹⁾ Further, by the Commons (Expenses) Act, 1878, 41 & 42 Vict. c. 56, it is provided that: Section 4. The commissioners may, if they think fit, specify in any Provisional Order for the regulation of a common, as one of the terms and conditions of the regulation, the appropriation of an allotment for the labouring poor, and the provisions of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1876, with respect to such allotments made upon the inclosure of a common shall apply to any such allotment made on the regulation of a common.

Section 12.

- (4.) As soon as may be after making their Provisional Order, the Inclosure Commissioners shall cause a copy thereof to be deposited in the parish or parishes in which the common is situate to which such order relates, in order that the same may be considered by the parties interested therein, and they shall give notice, in such manner as they think best calculated to secure publicity, of such deposit having been made, and of their intention to certify the expediency of such order if the necessary consents are obtained thereto :

Deposit of draft order for consideration of parties interested.

- (5.) The Inclosure Commissioners shall not certify the expediency of a draft Provisional Order unless they are satisfied that persons representing at least two thirds in value of such interests in the common as are affected by the order consent thereto; and when the common to which the order relates is the waste land of any manor, or land within any manor to the soil of which the lord of such manor is entitled in right of his manor, then, unless there is more than one person interested in such manor according to the definition of the Inclosure Act, 1845, the commissioners shall not certify the expediency of the same, unless the person interested in the common in right of such manor, or his substitute under the said Inclosure Act, 1845, consent to such order; and where there is more than one person interested in such manor the commissioners shall not certify the expediency of the order, in case such persons or the majority of such persons in respect of interest signify their dissent within a time to be limited by the commissioners :

Consents before Provisional Order certified to be expedient.

- (6.) Where the freemen, burgesses, or inhabitant householders of any city, borough, or town are entitled to rights of common or other interest in the common to which the draft provisional order relates, the Inclosure Commissioners shall not certify the expediency of such order unless it appears to the commissioners that two thirds in number of such of the freemen and burgesses so entitled as may be resident in such city, borough, or town, or within seven miles thereof, or of such inhabitant householders, as the case may be, have consented to the order; and in case two thirds in number of such resident freemen and burgesses, or of such inhabitant householders, have so consented such consent shall be deemed the consent of the class of freemen, burgesses, or inhabitant householders, as the case may be, so entitled :

Reservation in favour of freemen interested in common.

- (7.) The Inclosure Commissioners may cause a meeting or meetings to be held by an assistant commissioner for the purpose of obtaining the necessary consents, or of ascertaining the interests of consenting or dissenting parties, or they may cause such consents or dissents to be ascertained in such other manner as they may think fit :

Means of obtaining consents.

- (8.) The Inclosure Commissioners may, at any time before certifying the expediency of a draft Provisional Order, modify the same of their own mere motion, or on the suggestion of any parties interested, but such modifications shall not be of any validity unless they are consented to in the same manner as if they formed part of the draft Provisional Order originally deposited by the commissioners :

Power to modify Provisional Order before expediency certified.

- (9.) When the necessary consents have been obtained to any draft Provisional Order as originally deposited, or as modified in pursuance of this Act, such order shall be deemed to be final; and the Inclosure Commissioners shall in a report or reports to be made from time to time, as respects each Provisional Order which has become final as aforesaid, certify that it is expedient that such Provisional Order should be confirmed by Parliament, together with their reasons for certifying such expediency, and specially, as respects each Provisional Order, they shall, in such manner as they think best adapted to enable Parliament to judge of the expediency of such order, state the information furnished to them as to the several particulars in respect of which the applicants for a Provisional Order are by this Act required to furnish information to the commissioners; also the result of the local inquiry, and of the number and description of the persons who attended the meetings held during such inquiry, and the nature of the objections (if any) made to the application, and the suggestions (if any) made in relation to the provisions to be inserted for the benefit of the neighbourhood or for the protection of private interests by the persons so attending, and any other circumstances which the commissioners may think it expedient to state for such purposes as aforesaid :

Certificate of expediency of Provisional Order.

- (10.) Every report made by the Inclosure Commissioners certifying the expediency of any Provisional Order under this Act shall be presented to Parliament, and if at any time thereafter it is enacted by Act of Parliament that any order for the regulation or inclosure of a common, the expediency of which has been so certified by the commissioners, shall be confirmed, the regulation or inclosure of any common to which any Confirmation of Provisional Order.

Secs. 12-15.

Supplemental power to modify Provisional Order after expediency certified.

Partial application of procedure under Inclosure Acts.

Power to raise money for improvement of common.

Owners may make bye-laws.

such order relates shall be proceeded with and completed according to the terms of the Provisional Order relating to such common, and to the provisions of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, as amended by this Act, and any Act of Parliament containing such enactments as aforesaid shall be deemed to be a public general Act, but a Provisional Order, until such Act of Parliament as aforesaid has been passed in relation thereto, shall not be of any validity whatever :

- (11.) If, after the presentation to Parliament of a report made by the Inclosure Commissioners certifying the expediency of any Provisional Order for the regulation or inclosure of a common, and before a Bill has been brought in for the confirmation of such order, such report is referred to a committee of either House of Parliament for consideration, and such committee recommend that such Provisional Order should not be confirmed by Parliament except subject to certain modifications, the Inclosure Commissioners may modify the Provisional Order accordingly, but such modifications shall not be of any validity unless they are consented to in the same manner as if they had formed part of the draft Provisional Order originally deposited by the commissioners :

And it shall be the duty of the commissioners to take the necessary steps for ascertaining whether such consent as aforesaid can be obtained or not, and if such consent be obtained, the commissioners shall make a special report to the effect that the order has been modified as aforesaid and such consent duly obtained, and such report shall be presented to Parliament ; and thereupon the order so modified shall be deemed to be in the same position in all respects as if it were an order in respect of which a report had been made by the commissioners certifying the expediency thereof, and such report had been presented to Parliament.

13. The Inclosure Commissioners may insert in any Provisional Order for the regulation of a common any provisions they may deem necessary for the purpose of carrying such order into effect ; but, subject as aforesaid, when an Act of Parliament has been passed as aforesaid, enacting that the regulation of a common shall be proceeded with, the subsequent proceedings for carrying into effect the regulation of such common shall be the same, so far as is practicable, as they would be in case such common were to be inclosed instead of being regulated, and the provisions of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, as amended by this Act, shall apply accordingly.

14. A Provisional Order for the regulation of a common may provide for the raising from time to time by such persons interested in the common, and for such amounts as the commissioners think fit, of money to be applied towards the improvement or protection of such common, either by means of rates to be levied on the persons and in respect of the property who and which respectively will be benefited or principally benefited by such improvement or regulation, or by means of the sale of any outlying or other small portion not exceeding in the whole one-fortieth part of the total area of such common ⁽¹⁾.

Supplemental Provisions.

15. The majority in value of the owners of skirts or rights of pasture in any regulated pasture created under the provisions of the General Inclosure Act, 1845, in addition to the powers they now possess are hereby authorised at any annual meeting for the election of field Reeves to make bye-laws and regulations for the prevention of or protection from nuisances or for keeping order on the regulated pasture, and for general management, occupation, and enjoyment of the regulated pasture, provided the consent of the lord of the manor is given to such bye-laws.

⁽¹⁾ Now by Commons (Expenses) Act, 1878, 41 & 42 Vict. c. 56, it is provided :

Section 2. The Inclosure Commissioners may, if they think fit, insert in any Provisional Order for the regulation of a common a provision for the raising and payment of the expenses of and incidental to the regulation of such common, either wholly or partly, by a sale of a portion of the common ; and they shall in such case specify in the Provisional Order the situation and the maximum quantity of the portion of the common which may be so sold ; and where such provision is made the said expenses may be raised and paid accordingly in manner provided by the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868.

Section 3. Where in a Provisional Order for the regulation of a common the Inclosure Commissioners insert, in pursuance of section fourteen of the Commons Act, 1876, a provision for the raising of money to be applied towards the improvement or protection of such common by means of the sale of any portion, they shall in the Provisional Order specify the situation and maximum quantity of the portion which may so be sold ; and they may, if they think fit, also insert in the order a provision for the investment of the proceeds of such sale or any part of those proceeds, and for the application of the annual income of the investment towards the improvement or protection of such common, and for the sale of such investment or any part thereof from time to time, and the application of the proceeds of such sale towards the improvement or protection of such common.

16. Any bye-law made in pursuance of this Act, and any alteration made therein, and any revocation of a bye-law, shall not be of any validity until it has been confirmed by one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Secs. 16-21.

Provision as to bye-laws.

Pecuniary penalties (to be recovered summarily before any two justices) may be imposed by any such bye-laws on persons breaking the same, provided that no penalty exceeds for any one offence the sum of forty shillings.

17. No such confirmation shall take place unless notice of the intention to apply therefor, stating the effect of this section, has been published by the conservators one month at least before the application. Notice of application for confirmation of bye-laws.

During one month at least before the application a copy of every bye-law, the making, alteration, or revocation of which is submitted for confirmation, shall be kept at the office of the person or body of persons making, altering, or revoking such bye-law open for inspection by persons interested, and such person or body of persons shall furnish a printed copy thereof to every person applying for the same on payment of a sum not exceeding one shilling for each copy.

18. Subject to the terms of the provisional order the amount of any compensation to be paid for any restriction, modification, or abolition of rights in pursuance of an order for the regulation of a common shall be deemed to be expenses of and incidental to the regulation of the common, and may be defrayed accordingly. Provision as to certain expenses under order for regulation of a common.

19. Whereas by several awards made under the authority of Inclosure Acts prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, fuel allotments for the poor have been set out and awarded, and vested in divers persons and bodies of persons as trustees of such allotments:

Definition of power of Charity Commissioners in certain cases.

And whereas under the provisions of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, and the several Acts of Parliament and awards made thereunder, allotments for recreation grounds and field gardens have been set out and awarded to the churchwardens and overseers of parishes and other persons:

And whereas power exists or is claimed under divers Acts of Parliament, to divert such allotments from the uses declared by Parliament respecting the same: Be it enacted, that after the passing of this Act, notwithstanding anything in any other Act contained, it shall not be lawful (save as hereinafter mentioned) to authorise the use of or to use any such allotment, or any part thereof, for any other purpose than those declared concerning the same by the Act of Parliament and award, or either of them, under which the same has been set out: Provided, that it shall be lawful for the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales in the exercise of their ordinary jurisdiction under the Charitable Trusts Acts, upon the application of the trustees of any fuel allotment, to authorise the use of such fuel allotment as a recreation ground and field gardens, or for either of those purposes, and to make an order under the provisions of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1860," for the establishment of a scheme for the administration of such fuel allotment accordingly; and provided, that it shall be lawful for the said Charity Commissioners, on such application as aforesaid, to authorise the exchange of any fuel allotment, or any part thereof, for land of equal value situate within the parish or district for the benefit of the poor of which such allotment was set out, if the Commissioners are of opinion that by means of such exchange land better suited for the purpose for which such allotment was set out will be obtained.

20. After the passing of this Act, where any common is regulated pursuant to this Act by a provisional order of the Inclosure Commissioners confirmed by Parliament, or is the subject of a scheme confirmed by Parliament under the provisions of "The Metropolitan Commons Act, 1866," or "The Metropolitan Commons Amendment Act, 1869," or (being situate within the metropolitan police district) is the subject of any private or local Act of Parliament having for its object the preservation of such common as an open space, no surveyor of highways or highway board constituted in pursuance of the Highway Acts, or trustees of any turnpike road, shall search for, dig, get, or carry away gravel, sand, stone, or other materials in or from any part of such common which has not been set apart for that purpose with the sanction of Parliament, without the consent of the person or persons having the regulation or management of the same, or in default of such consent, without an order of two or more justices in petty sessions assembled, and acting in and for the petty sessional division in which such common is situate, who may in their order prescribe such conditions as to mode of working and restitution of the surface as to them shall seem expedient. Gravel digging.

PART II.

AMENDMENT OF THE INCLOSURE ACTS.

Field Gardens and Recreation Grounds.

21. Whereas it is expedient that the expenses of clearing any allotments made for field gardens may be included in the expenses of an inclosure: Be it enacted, that the valuer shall, Expenses of clearing.

Secs. 21-27. unless the Inclosure Commissioners otherwise direct, cause every allotment made for a field garden to be cleared, drained, fenced, levelled, and otherwise made fit for immediate use and occupation; and the expenses incurred by the valuer under this section shall be paid as part of the general expenses of the inclosure.

draining, and fencing field gardens.

Substituted allotments for recreation grounds and field gardens.

Situation of allotments for recreation grounds and
field gardens.

22. The provisions of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, which authorise the Inclosure Commissioners to allow an equal quantity of the land proposed to be inclosed to be allotted for the purpose of a recreation ground or field garden, or for any other public purpose, in lieu of that directed to be allotted by any provisional order, shall extend to authorise them to allow the allotment of land of equal value although it may not be of equal quantity.

23. Every allotment made for the purpose of a recreation ground or field garden shall be in such part of the land proposed to be inclosed as is best suited for the purpose for which it is appropriated, and where any land proposed to be inclosed consists partly of common being waste land of a manor (in this section referred to as the first-mentioned land), and partly of common not being waste land of a manor (in this section referred to as the second-mentioned land), and the commissioners are satisfied that it would be advantageous that the allotment for a recreation ground or a field garden, or any part thereof, should be made out of the second-mentioned land instead of out of the first-mentioned land, the commissioners may, in the provisional order relating to such land, specify as one of the terms and conditions of the inclosure thereof that the said allotments or the said part thereof shall be made accordingly out of the second-mentioned land, and shall out of the first-mentioned land allot land of equal value by way of exchange to the persons interested in the second-mentioned land.

Field gardens to be free of rent-charge.

24. There shall be repealed so much of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, as relates to the charging of an allotment made for the purpose of a field garden with a rentcharge, and every such allotment made after the passing of this Act shall be made free of any such rentcharge.

Allotments
for recreation grounds to be vested in churchwardens
and overseers.

25. There shall be repealed so much of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868, as provides that an allotment made for the purpose of a recreation ground may be allotted to any person entitled to an allotment under the inclosure, and every such allotment made after the passing of this Act shall be vested in the churchwardens and overseers for the time being of the parish in which the same shall be situate, and shall be held by them as provided by the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868.

Amendment of law as to letting field gardens.

26. Whereas by the Inclosure Act, 1845, allotment wardens are required to let the allotments under their management to the poor inhabitants of the parish in gardens not exceeding a quarter of an acre, and are further required to demand, in respect of such letting, a rent not below the full yearly value of the land to be ascertained in manner in the said Act mentioned; and whereas it is expedient to amend the said provisions: Be it enacted that allotment wardens, if they are unable to let the allotments under their management, or any portion thereof, to the poor inhabitants of the parish in gardens not exceeding a quarter of an acre, may let the same, or any unlet portion thereof, in gardens not exceeding an acre each to such inhabitants as aforesaid: Further, it shall be the duty of allotment wardens to offer the gardens under their management to the poor inhabitants of the parish at a fair agricultural rent, if from time to time sufficient to satisfy all rates, taxes, tithes, tithe rentcharge, and the rentcharge charged on the said allotments under the provisions of "The General Inclosure Act, 1845," but not otherwise, instead of at such rent as is required by the said Act. Moreover, if in any parish the allotment wardens are unable to let the allotments under their management, or any portion thereof, to the poor inhabitants of the parish in such quantities and at such rents as aforesaid, they may let the same, or such portion as may be unlet, to any person whatever at the best annual rent which can be obtained for the same, without any premium or fine, and on such terms as may enable the allotment wardens to resume possession thereof within a period not exceeding twelve months, if it should at any time be required for such poor inhabitants as aforesaid.

This section shall apply to all land allotted to the poor for the purpose of cultivation under any Inclosure Act whatever, whether public or private, whether under the management of allotment wardens, feoffees, trustees, rector or vicar and churchwardens, overseers, managers, or any other person or persons whatever, and whether at present cultivated or uncultivated, so that all such persons as aforesaid shall have like powers and duties as are hereinbefore given to and imposed upon allotment wardens.

Application of surplus rents of recreation grounds and
field gardens.

27. Whereas by section seventy-three of the Inclosure Act, 1845, the surplus rents arising from recreation grounds are applicable in aid of the rates for the repair of the public highways in the parish or respective parishes in which the said grounds are situate, and by section one hundred and twelve of the same Act the surplus rents arising from field gardens are payable to the overseers of the poor in aid of the poor rates of the parish: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said provisions: Be it enacted, that the surplus rents arising from recreation grounds shall from and after the passing of this Act cease to be applied in manner provided by the said seventy-third section, and shall be applied to all or any of the following purposes, and to no other purpose; that is to say, in improving the recreation grounds or any of them in the same parish or neighbourhood, or maintaining the drainage and fencing thereof, or in hiring or purchasing additional land for recreation grounds in the same parish or neighbourhood; and the surplus rents arising from field gardens shall, from and after the passing of this Act, cease to be applied in manner provided by the said one hundred and twelfth section, and shall be applied to all or any of the following purposes, and to no other purpose; that is to say, in improving the field gardens or any of them in the same parish or neighbourhood, or maintaining the drainage and fencing thereof, or in hiring or purchasing additional land for field gardens in the same parish or neighbourhood⁽¹⁾.

Secs. 27-30.

The trustees of any recreation ground and the allotment wardens of any field gardens may, with the approval of the Inclosure Commissioners, sell all or any part of the allotment vested in them, and out of the proceeds of such sale purchase any fit and suitable land in the same parish or neighbourhood: Provided, that the land so purchased shall be held in trust for the purposes for which the allotment so sold as aforesaid was allotted, and for no others; and provided that the Inclosure Commissioners shall not sanction any such sale as aforesaid unless and until it shall be proved to their satisfaction that land more suitable for the purposes for which the allotment proposed to be sold was allotted may and will be forthwith purchased; and the proceeds of any such sale shall be paid to the Inclosure Commissioners, and shall remain in their hands until such purchase of other land as aforesaid.

28. The trustees of recreation grounds, where such trustees are the overseers or churchwardens of a parish, and the allotment wardens of field gardens shall, from time to time, and at such intervals of not less than three years nor more than five years, as the Inclosure Commissioners direct, make such reports to the said commissioners in respect of the recreation grounds and field gardens under their management, with such particulars of the rents received by them, as the commissioners may require.

Reports to be made by managers of recreation grounds and field gardens.

29. Whereas by the Inclosure Act, 1857, provision is made for the protection of town and village greens and recreation grounds, and it is expedient to amend such provision: Be it enacted as follows, that is to say, an encroachment on or inclosure of a town or village green, also any erection thereon, or disturbance, or interference with, or occupation of the soil thereof, which is made otherwise than with a view to the better enjoyment of such town or village green or recreation ground, shall be deemed to be a public nuisance, and if any person does any act in respect of which he is liable to pay damages or a penalty under section twelve of the said Inclosure Act, 1857, he may be summarily convicted thereof upon the information of any inhabitant of the parish in which such town or village green or recreation ground is situate, as well as upon the information of such persons as in the said section mentioned.

Amendment of law as to town and village greens.

This section shall apply only in cases where a town or village green or recreation ground has a known and defined boundary.

30. A county court within whose jurisdiction any common or part of a common is situate shall have jurisdiction to hear any case relating to any illegal inclosure or encroachment of or upon such common or part of a common respectively made after the passing of this Act, or to any nuisance impeding the exercise of any right of common arising after the passing of this Act, and to grant an injunction against such inclosure, encroachment, or nuisance, or to make an order for the removal or abatement of such inclosure, encroachment, or nuisance.

Jurisdiction of county court in respect of illegal inclosures.

Any person aggrieved by any injunction granted or order made or refusal to grant an injunction or make an order by a county court in pursuance of this section may, on giving security for costs to the satisfaction of the county court, appeal to the high court of justice in a summary manner, or by special case or otherwise, as may be prescribed by rules of court to be made by the supreme court of judicature in manner provided by the seventeenth section of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875.

The appellate court may on hearing the appeal reverse, modify, or confirm the injunction or order complained of, or remit the case to the county court from which the appeal lay, with instructions to deal with the case according to the directions given by the appellate court.

Where an appeal is lodged against the order of a county court directing the removal or abatement of any inclosure, encroachment, or nuisance, such order shall be suspended during such time as such appeal is pending.

⁽¹⁾ Now the Commons Act, 1876, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 37, provides as follows:—

Section 2. The improving the field gardens, or any of them, to which the twenty-seventh section of the Commons Act, 1876, applies, in the same parish or neighbourhood, or maintaining the drainage and fencing thereof, shall be one of the purposes to which the surplus rents arising from recreation grounds shall be applied.

Secs. 30-37.

Nothing in this Act contained shall abridge or interfere with any existing right of abating or otherwise preventing any illegal inclosure or of encroachment on any common, or any nuisance interfering with any right of common.

Until rules of court are made for the purposes of this section, an appeal may be had from the decision of any county court under this section in the same manner in which an appeal from the decision of a county court may be had in a case within its ordinary jurisdiction.

Three months' notice of claim to inclose to be given in the local papers.

31. Any person intending to inclose or improve a common or part of a common otherwise than under the provisions of this Act shall give notice to all persons claiming any legal right in such common, or part of a common, by publishing, at least three months beforehand, a statement of his intention to make such inclosure, for three successive times, and in two or more of the principal local newspapers in the county, town, or district in which the common or part of a common proposed to be inclosed is situate; but the provisions of this section shall not apply to any commons or waste lands whereon the rights of common are vested solely in the lord of the manor.

A production of a newspaper containing such advertisement as aforesaid shall be evidence of the same having been issued, and the inclosure shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to have taken place at the time specified in such advertisement.

Appointment of valuer to be confirmed by commissioners.

32. An appointment of a valuer after the passing of this Act shall not be valid until it has been confirmed by the commissioners. The commissioners may disapprove of a valuer on the ground of his incompetency, interest, want of impartiality, or any reasonable cause, and where they so disapprove of a valuer may call a meeting, and a meeting may be held to appoint, and another person appointed (subject to the approval of the commissioners) to be valuer in like manner as if no previous meeting had been held and no valuer had been previously appointed, and so on until a valuer approved by the commissioners is appointed.

General Amendment.

Extension of section 105 of the Inclosure Act, 1845, as to exchanges and partitions.

33. The provisions of section one hundred and five of the Inclosure Act, 1845, relating to the validity after confirmation of an award of inclosure of the exchanges, and partitions set forth in such award, shall apply to orders of exchange, partition, and division of intermixed lands carried into effect in pursuance of the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1863, by separate orders, and not included in an award of inclosure.

PART III.Miscellaneous.

Repeal of certain parts of the Inclosure Act, 1845, and amendment of law as to reports.

34. the Inclosure Commissioners shall not be required to repeat, in their general annual report, any of the particulars in relation to the regulation or inclosure of commons which they may have stated in any other reports made by them in pursuance of this Act in relation to such commons, but they may refer to such other reports, or give a summary thereof, or otherwise deal with the same as may be thought expedient (1).

35. [Act not to apply to metropolitan commons.]

A common regulated under Act not to be inclosed without sanction of Parliament

36. Where an Act of Parliament has been passed confirming a provisional order under this Act for the regulation of a common, then, subject to and without prejudice to the provisions of that order, such common shall not, nor shall any part thereof, be inclosed without the sanction of Parliament subsequently obtained.

Definitions.

Definitions.

37. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

“A common” means any land subject to be inclosed under the Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868 :

“Waste land of a manor” means and includes any land consisting of waste land of any manor on which the tenants of such manor have rights of common, or of any land subject to any rights of common which may be exercised at all times of the year for cattle levant and couchant, or to any rights of common which may be exercised at all times of the year, and are not limited by number or stints :

“Person” includes a body corporate :

“Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1868,” means the Acts mentioned in the schedule hereto, and each of the Acts mentioned in the said schedule may be cited by the short title in such schedule in that behalf mentioned; and the above mentioned Acts together with this Act may be cited as “The Inclosure Acts, 1845 to 1876 : ”

(1) The first portion of this section is repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883

SETTLED ESTATES ACT, 1877.⁽¹⁾

40 & 41 VICT. c. 18.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Law relating to Leases and Sales of Settled Estates.

[28th June, 1877.]

Secs. 20, 21. 20. It shall be lawful for the court, if it shall deem it proper and consistent with a due regard for the interests of all parties entitled under the settlement, and subject to the provisions and restrictions in this Act contained, from time to time to direct that any part of any settled estates⁽¹⁾ be laid out for streets, roads, paths, squares, gardens, or other open spaces, sewers, drains, or watercourses, either to be dedicated to the public or not, and the court may direct that the parts so laid out shall remain vested in the trustees of the settlement, or to be conveyed to or vested in any other trustees, upon such trusts for securing the continued appropriation thereof to the purposes aforesaid in all respects, and with such provisions for the appointment of new trustees when required, as by the court shall be deemed advisable.

21. When any part of any settled estates⁽¹⁾ is directed to be laid out for such purposes as aforesaid, the court may direct that any such streets, roads, paths, squares, gardens, or other open spaces, sewers, drains, or watercourses, including all necessary or proper fences, pavings, connections, and other works incidental thereto respectively, be made and executed, and that all or any part of the expenses in relation to such laying out and making and execution be raised and paid by means of a sale or mortgage of or charge upon all or any part of the settled estates, or be raised and paid out of the rents and profits of the settled estates or any part thereof, or out of any moneys or investments representing moneys liable to be laid out in the purchase of hereditaments to be settled in the same manner as the settled estates, or out of the income of such moneys or investments, or out of any accumulations of rents, profits, or income; and the court may also give such directions as it may deem advisable for any repair or maintenance of any such streets, roads, paths, squares, gardens, or other open spaces, sewers, drains, or watercourses or other works out of any such rents, profits, income, or accumulations during such period or periods of time as to the court shall seem advisable.

⁽¹⁾ By the Conveyancing Act, 1881, 44 & 45 Vict. c. 41, s. 41, where any person in his own right seised of or entitled to land for an estate in fee simple, or for any leasehold interest at a rent, is an infant, the land shall be deemed to be a settled estate within the Settled Estates Act, 1877.

"Municipal borough" means any place for the time being subject to the Act of the session of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," and the Acts amending the same ⁽¹⁾ : Section 37.

"Improvement Act district" means any area subject to the jurisdiction of any commissioners, trustees, or other persons invested by any local Act of Parliament with powers of improving, cleansing, lighting, or paving any town :

"Local government district" has the same meaning as it has in the Public Health Act, 1875.

SCHEDULE.

Schedule.

Year and Chapter.	Title.	Short Title.
8 & 9 Vict. c. 118.	An Act to facilitate the inclosure and improvement of commons and lands held in common, the exchange of lands, and the division of intermixed lands; to provide remedies for defective or incomplete executions, and for the non-execution of the powers of general and local Inclosure Acts, and to provide for the revival of such powers in certain cases.	The Inclosure Act, 1845.
9 & 10 Vict. c. 70.	An Act to amend the Act to facilitate the inclosure and improvement of commons.	The Inclosure Act, 1846.
10 & 11 Vict. c. 111	An Act to extend the provisions of the Act for the inclosure and improvement of commons.	The Inclosure Act, 1847.
11 & 12 Vict. c. 99.	An Act to further extend the provisions of the Act for the inclosure and improvement of commons.	The Inclosure Act, 1848.
12 & 13 Vict. c. 83.	An Act further to facilitate the inclosure of commons and the improvement of commons and other lands.	The Inclosure Act, 1849.
14 & 15 Vict. c. 53.	An Act to consolidate and continue the Copyhold and Inclosure Commissions, and to provide for the completion of proceedings under the Tithe Commutation Acts.	The Inclosure Commissioners Act, 1851.
15 & 16 Vict. c. 79.	An Act to amend and further extend the Acts for the inclosure, exchange, and improvement of land.	The Inclosure Act, 1852.
17 & 18 Vict. c. 97.	An Act to amend and extend the Acts for the inclosure, exchange, and improvement of land.	The Inclosure Act, 1854.
20 & 21 Vict. c. 31.	And Act to explain and amend the Inclosure Acts.	The Inclosure Act, 1857.
22 & 23 Vict. c. 43.	An Act to amend and extend the provisions of the Acts for the inclosure, exchange, and improvement of land.	The Inclosure Act, 1859.
31 & 32 Vict. c. 89.	An Act to alter certain provisions in the Acts for the commutation of tithes, the Copyhold Acts, and the Acts for the inclosure, exchange, and improvement of land, and to make provision towards the expense of the Copyhold, Inclosure, and Tithe Office.	The Inclosure, &c., Expenses Act, 1868.

(1) See the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, section 242 (1), ante, p. 345.

STATUTES RELATING TO RATING.

17 GEO. II. c. 3.

An Act to oblige Overseers of the Poor to give Public Notice of Rates made for the Relief of the Poor, and to produce the same.

1. From and after the first day of May, one thousand seven hundred and forty-four, the churchwardens and overseers, or other persons authorised to take care of the poor in every parish, township, or place, shall give, or cause to be given, public notice in the church of every rate for the relief of the poor allowed by the justices of the peace the next Sunday after the same shall have been so allowed, and no rate shall be esteemed or reputed valid and sufficient so as to collect and raise the same unless such notice shall have been given ⁽¹⁾. Secs. 1—3.

2. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or other persons authorised as aforesaid in every parish, township, or place, shall permit all and every the inhabitants of the said parish, township, or place to inspect every such rate at all reasonable times, paying one shilling for the same, and shall upon demand forthwith give copies of the same or any part thereof to any inhabitant of the said parish, township, or place, paying at the rate of sixpence for every twenty-four names.

3. If any churchwarden or overseer of the poor, or other person authorised as aforesaid, shall not permit any inhabitant or parishioner to inspect the said rates, or shall refuse or neglect to give copies thereof as aforesaid, such churchwarden or overseer, or other person authorised as aforesaid, for every such offence shall forfeit and pay to the party aggrieved the sum of twenty pounds, to be sued for and recovered by action of debt, bill, plaint or information in any of His Majesty's courts of record, wherein no essoin, protection or wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed.

7 WILL. IV. AND 1 VICT. c. 45 ⁽²⁾.

An Act to alter the mode of giving Notices for the Holding of Vestries and of making Proclamations in cases of Outlawry, and of giving Notices on Sundays with respect to various matters.

[12th July, 1837.]

[1. Repeals so much of 58 Geo. 3, c. 69, as directs the publication of notices to be made in the parish church or chapel on some Sunday during or immediately after divine service.] Secs. 1, 2.

2. That from and after the first day of January next all proclamations or notices which under or by virtue of any law or statute or by custom or otherwise have been heretofore made or given in churches or chapels during or after divine service, shall be reduced into writing and copies thereof, either in writing or in print, or partly in writing and partly in print, shall, previously to the commencement of divine service on the several days on which ⁽¹⁾ See the two next statutes, 7 Will. 4 & 1 Vict. c. 45, and 45 & 46 Vict. c. 20, post.

⁽²⁾ See the preceding and succeeding statutes and 58 Geo. 3, c. 69, s. 1, cited in note, ante, p. 757.

Secs. 2—6. such proclamations or notices have heretofore been made or given in the church or chapel of any parish or place, or at the door of any church or chapel, be affixed on or near to the doors of all the churches and chapels within such parish or place, and such notices when so affixed shall be in lieu of and as a substitution for the several proclamations and notices so heretofore given as aforesaid, and shall be good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

3. That no such notice of holding a vestry shall be affixed on the principal door of such church or chapel unless the same shall previously have been signed by a churchwarden of the church or chapel, or by the rector, vicar, or curate of such parish, or by an overseer of the poor of such parish, but that every such notice so signed shall be affixed on or near to the principal door of such church or chapel.

4. That from and after the first day of January next no decree relating to a faculty, nor any other decree, citation, or proceeding whatsoever in any ecclesiastical court, shall be read or published in any church or chapel during or immediately after divine service.

5. That nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to the publication of banns, nor to notice of the celebration of divine service or of sermons, nor to restrain the curate in pursuance of the rules in the Book of Common Prayer from declaring unto the people what holy days or fasting days are in the week following to be observed, nor to restrain the minister from proclaiming or publishing what is prescribed by the rules of the Book of Common Prayer or enjoined by the Queen or by the ordinary of the place.

6. That all the provisions of this Act shall extend and be construed to extend to the town of Berwick-on-Tweed, the Isle of Man, and the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney and Sark.

POOR RATE ASSESSMENT AMENDMENT ACT, 1882.

45 & 46 VICT. c. 20.

[3rd July, 1882.]

Section 4.

Publication of rate where no parish church.

4. In a parish in which there is no church or chapel of the parish, a poor rate, whether made before or after the passing of this Act, shall be deemed to have been duly published if, within fourteen days after the making of the rate, notice thereof has been given by affixing such notice in some public and conspicuous place or situation in the parish.

POOR LAW RATING ACT, 1744.

17 GEO. II. c. 38.

An Act for remedying some defects in the Act made in the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, entitled "An Act for the Relief of the Poor" (1). [24th June, 1744.]

Section 4.

4. In case any person or persons (2) shall find him, her, or themselves aggrieved by any rate (3) or assessment made for the relief of the poor, or shall have any material objection to any person or persons being put on, or left out (4) of such rate or assessment, or to the sum charged on any person or persons therein, or shall have any material objection to such account as aforesaid or any part thereof, or shall find him, her, or themselves aggrieved by any neglect, act, or thing done or omitted by the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or by any of His Majesty's justices of the peace, it shall and may be lawful for such person or persons in any of the cases aforesaid, giving reasonable notice (5) to the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish, township, or place, to appeal to the next general (6) or quarter sessions of the peace for the county, riding, division, corporation, or franchise where such parish, township, or place lies; and the justices of the peace there assembled are hereby authorised and required to receive such appeal, and to hear and finally determine the same; but if it shall appear to the

(1) See this statute as to rating generally in note (3), ante, p. 779.

(2) See R. v. Guyer, 2 A. & E. 216; R. v. Sussex JJ., 15 East, 206; R. v. JJ. Lancashire, 12 Q. B. 305.

(3) See R. v. JJ. Suffolk, 1 B. & Ald. 640.

(4) See R. v. George, 6 A. & E. 305, 6 L. J. M. C. 34, 1 N. & P. 451, 1 Jur. 39.

(5) See 41 Geo. 3, c. 23, s. 4, post.

(6) R. v. JJ. Lancashire, 4 New Sess. Cas. 130, 19 L. J. M. C. 199, 14 Jur. 552, S. C. nom. R. v. Trafford, 15 Q. B. 200.

said justices that reasonable notice was not given, then they shall adjourn the said appeal to the next quarter sessions ⁽¹⁾ and then and there finally hear and determine the same; and the said justices may award and order to the party, for whom such appeal shall be determined, reasonable costs, in the same manner that they are empowered to do in case of appeals concerning the settlement of poor persons, by an Act made in the eighth and ninth years of King William the Third ⁽²⁾, intituled "An Act for supplying some Defects in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom."

5. Provided always, that in all corporations or franchises who have not four ⁽³⁾ justices of the peace, it shall and may be lawful for any person or persons in any of the cases aforesaid, where an appeal is given by this Act, to appeal, if he or they shall think fit, to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace for the county, riding, or division wherein such corporation or franchise is situate.

6. And whereas it hath been held that, upon appeals from rates and assessments, the justices of the peace may not only quash the old rates, but make new rates and assessments from which no appeal can be had: Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that upon all appeals from rates and assessments the justices of the peace (where they shall see just cause to give relief) shall and are hereby required to amend the same in such manner only as shall be necessary for giving such relief without altering such rates or assessments with respect to other persons mentioned in the same; but if, upon an appeal from the whole rate, it shall be found necessary to quash or set aside the same, then and in every such case the said justices shall and are hereby required to order and direct the churchwardens and overseers of the poor to make a new equal rate or assessment, and they are hereby required to make the same accordingly ⁽⁴⁾.

7. And for the more effectual levying money assessed for the relief of the poor, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the goods of any person assessed and refusing to pay may be levied by warrant of distress, not only in the place for which such assessment was made, but in any other place within the same county or precinct; and if sufficient distress cannot be found within the said county or precinct on oath made thereof before some justice of any other county or precinct (which oath shall be certified under the hand of such justice on the said warrant), such goods may be levied in such other county or precinct by virtue of such warrant and certificate; and if any person shall find him or herself aggrieved by such distress as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for such person to appeal to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace for the county or precinct where such assessment was made, and the justices there are hereby required to hear and finally determine the same.

8. And to prevent all vexatious actions against overseers of the poor, Be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that where any distress shall be made for any sum or sums of money justly due for the relief of the poor, the distress itself shall not be deemed to be unlawful, nor the party or parties making it be deemed a trespasser or trespassers, on account of any defect or want of form in the warrant for the appointment of such overseers, or in the rate or assessment, or in the warrant of distress thereupon; nor shall the party or parties distraining be deemed a trespasser or trespassers ab initio, on account of any irregularity which shall be afterwards done by the party or parties distraining, but the party or parties aggrieved by such irregularity shall or may recover full satisfaction for the special damage he, she, or they shall have sustained thereby, and no more, in an action of trespass or on the case, at the election of the plaintiff or plaintiffs.

9. Provided always, that where the plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover in such action, he, she, or they shall be paid his, her, or their full costs of suit, and have all the like remedies for the same as in other cases of costs.

10. Provided, nevertheless, that no plaintiff or plaintiffs shall recover in any action for any such irregularity as aforesaid, if tender of amends hath been made by the party or parties distraining before such action brought.

11. In case any person or persons shall refuse or neglect to pay to such overseers as aforesaid any sum or sums of money that he, she, or they shall be legally rated or assessed to, it shall and may be lawful to and for the succeeding overseers, and they are hereby required to levy such arrears, and out of the money so levied to reimburse their predecessors all sums of money which they have expended for the use of the poor, and which are allowed to be due to them in their accounts as aforesaid.

12 is set out in the note, ante, p. 781.

⁽¹⁾ R. v. Eyre, 6 E. & B. 992, 7 E. & B. 609, 26 L. J. M. C. 14, 121.

⁽²⁾ 8 Will. 3, c. 30.

⁽³⁾ Now six, 1 Geo. 4, c. 36.

⁽⁴⁾ See R. v. Cheshunt, 2 T. R. 623; and see 41 Geo. 3 c. 23, s. 7, post.

POOR RATE COLLECTION ACT, 1801.

41 GEO. III. c. 23.

An Act for the better Collection of Rates made for the Relief of the Poor.

[18th April, 1801.]

Secs. 1—4.

On appeal from any poor rate, the quarter session may amend it without quashing it, or, if necessary to grant relief, may quash the rate, but the sum assessed shall notwithstanding be levied.

Notice of appeal not to prevent distress being made for the recovery of the rate, provided the sum be not greater than that assessed in the last effective rate.

Quarter sessions having ordered a rate to be quashed, may order the sum charged on any person not to be paid, and stop proceedings for the recovery thereof, &c.

Notices of appeal to be given to churchwardens and overseers of the poor, &c.

1. [After reciting 17 Geo. II. c. 38, ante, p. 1338, proceeds] from and after the passing of this Act, upon all appeals from any rate or assessment made for the relief of the poor of any parish, township, vill, or place, the court of general or quarter sessions of the peace shall, and such court is hereby authorised and required (in all cases where they shall see just cause to give relief) to amend such rate or assessment, either by inserting therein or striking out the name or names of any person or persons, or by altering the sum or sums therein charged on any person or persons, or in any other manner which the said court shall think necessary for giving such relief, and without quashing or wholly setting aside such rate or assessment : Provided always, that if the said court shall be of opinion that it is necessary, for the purpose of giving relief to the person or persons appealing, that the rate or assessment should be wholly quashed, then the said court may quash the same ; but, nevertheless, all and every the sum and sums of money in and by such rate or assessment charged on any person or persons shall and may be levied and recovered by such ways and means, and in such and the same manner, as if no appeal had been made against such rate or assessment ; and all and every the sum and sums of money which any person or persons charged in such rate or assessment shall pay, or which shall be levied upon or recovered from him, her, or them, shall be deemed and taken as payments on account of the next effective rate or rates, assessment or assessments, which shall be made for the relief of the poor of the same parish, township, vill, or place.

2. All and every the sum and sums of money at which any person or persons is or are or shall be rated or assessed, in any rate or assessment made for the relief of the poor of any parish, township, vill, or place, shall and may be levied and recovered by distress, and all other lawful ways and means, notwithstanding the person or persons so rated or assessed, or any other person or persons, shall have given notice of appeal from or against such rate or assessment, for any cause whatsoever : Provided always, that if any person, rated or assessed in any rate or assessment for the relief of the poor, shall give such notice of appeal as hereinafter mentioned to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish, township, vill, or place, or any two of them, then, from and after the giving of such notice, and until the appeal shall have been heard and determined, no proceedings shall be commenced or carried on to recover any greater sum or sums of money from such person or persons than the sum or sums at which he, she, or they, or any occupier of the same premises, shall have been rated or assessed in the last effective rate which shall have been collected in such parish, township, vill, or place.

3. In case the said court of general or quarter sessions of the peace shall upon appeal order any rate or assessment for the relief of the poor to be quashed, it shall be lawful for the said court to order that any sum or sums of money, in and by such rate or assessment charged on any person or persons, or any part of any such sum or sums, not to be paid, and then and in every such case no proceedings shall, after making such order, be commenced ; or if any proceedings have been previously commenced, such proceedings shall be no further prosecuted or carried on for the purpose of levying or enforcing the payment of any sum or sums which shall be so ordered by the said court not to be paid as aforesaid : Provided always, that no justice of the peace, constable, or other officer of the peace or other person shall be deemed a trespasser, or liable to any action, for any warrant, order, act, or thing, which such justice, constable, or other officer or person shall have granted, made, executed, or done, for the purpose of levying or enforcing the payment of any such sum or sums of money, before he shall have had notice in writing of the order for the non-payment of such sum or sums of money, which the said court is hereby authorised to make as aforesaid.

4. All notices of appeal, from or against any rate or assessment made for the relief of the poor, or from or against the account of the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish, township, vill, or place, shall be in writing, and shall be signed by the person or persons giving the same, or his, her, or their attorney on his, her, or their behalf ; and such notices of appeal shall be delivered to or left at the places of abode of the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the parish, township, vill, or place, or any two of them, and the particular causes or grounds of appeal shall be stated and specified in such notice; and upon the hearing of any appeal from or against any such rate or assessment, or account, the court of general or quarter sessions to which such appeal shall be made, shall not examine or inquire into any other cause or ground of appeal than such as are or is stated and specified in the notice of appeal.

5. Provided, nevertheless, that with the consent of the overseers, signified by them or their attorney in open court, and with the consent of any other person interested therein, the said court of sessions may proceed to hear and decide upon such appeal, although no notice thereof shall have been given in writing; and also that with the like consent such court may hear and decide upon grounds of appeal, not stated or misstated in such written notice, where any notice shall have been given in writing.

6. If any person or persons shall appeal against any rate or assessment made for the relief of the poor, because any other person or persons is or are rated or assessed in such rate or assessment, or is or are omitted to be rated or assessed therein, or because any other person or persons is or are rated or assessed in any such rate or assessment at any greater or less sum or sums of money than the sum or sums at which he, she, or they ought to be rated or assessed therein, or for any other cause that may require any alteration to be made in such rate or assessment with respect to any other person or persons, then and in every such case the person or persons so appealing for the causes aforesaid, or any of them, shall give such notice of appeal, in writing as hereinbefore mentioned, not only to the churchwardens or overseers of the poor, or any two or more of them, but also to the other person or persons so interested or concerned in the event of such appeal as aforesaid; and such other person or persons shall, if he, she, or they shall so desire, be heard upon the said appeal; and it shall be lawful for the court of general or quarter sessions of the peace, on the hearing of such appeal, to order the name or names of such other person or persons to be inserted in such rate or assessment, and him, her, or them to be therein rated and assessed at any sum or sums of money, or to order the name or names of such other person or persons to be struck out of such rate or assessment, or the sum or sums at which he, she, or they is or are rated or assessed therein, to be altered, in such manner as the said court shall think right; and the proper officer of the said court shall forthwith add to or alter the rate or assessment accordingly.

7. If upon the hearing of any appeal from or against any rate or assessment, the said court shall order the name or names of any person or persons to be inserted therein, and him, her, or them to be rated or assessed at any sum or sums of money, or shall order the sum or sums at which any person or persons is or are therein rated or assessed to be raised or increased, then and in such case all and every the sum and sums of money, at or to which such person or persons shall be so ordered to be rated or assessed, or to be raised or increased, or so much thereof as shall not have been already paid, shall and may be recovered in such and the same manner, and by such and the same means, as if he, she, or they had been originally named in such rate or assessment, and rated or assessed therein at such sum or sums of money.

8. If upon the hearing of any appeal from any rate or assessment for the relief of the poor, the court of general or quarter sessions of the peace shall order the name or names of any person or persons to be struck out of such rate or assessment, or the sum or sums rated or assessed on any person or persons to be decreased or lowered; and if it shall be made appear to the said court, that such person or persons hath or have previously to the hearing of such appeal paid any sum or sums of money, in consequence of such rate or assessment, which he, she, or they ought not to have paid or been charged with, then and in every such case the said court shall order all and every such sum and sums of money to be repaid and returned, by the said churchwardens and overseers of the poor, to the person or persons having paid the same respectively, together with all reasonable costs, charges, and expenses occasioned by such person or persons having paid or been required to pay the same; and all and every the sum and sums of money so ordered to be repaid or returned by the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or any of them, shall and may, together with all such costs, charges, and expenses as aforesaid, be levied and recovered from them, or any of them, by distress and all such other ways and means as the money charged, rated, or assessed on any person, by any rate or assessment made for the relief of the poor can or may be by law levied or recovered.

Secs. 4—8.

Appeals may be decided, if the parties consent, although notice be not given.

Persons appealing against any rate, shall give notice, not only to the churchwardens, &c., but also to the persons interested, &c.

The rate shall be recovered as altered by the quarter sessions.

In case in the rate the name of any person shall be struck out, or any sum lowered, the quarter sessions shall order the money which ought not to have been recovered to be repaid.

PAROCHIAL ASSESSMENT ACT, 1836.

6 & 7 WILL. IV. c. 96.

An Act to regulate Parochial Assessments.

[19th August, 1836.]

Secs. 1—6.

All rates to be made on the net annual value of the property.

Proviso.

Rates to be made in a given form.

Nothing herein to prevent owners from compounding for rates.

Power to take copies or extracts of rates gratis.

Penalty for refusal to permit.

Justices acting in petty sessions to hold four special sessions in the year to hear appeals:

1. From and after such period, not being earlier than the twenty-first day of March next after the passing of this Act, as the Poor Law Commissioners shall by any order under their seal of office direct, no rate for the relief of the poor in England and Wales shall be allowed by any justices, or be of any force, which shall not be made upon an estimate of the net annual value of the several hereditaments rated thereunto; that is to say, of the rent at which the same might reasonably be expected to let from year to year ⁽¹⁾, free of all usual tenants' rates and taxes, and tithe commutation rent-charge (if any), and deducting therefrom the probable average annual cost of the repairs, insurance, and other expenses (if any) necessary to maintain them in a state to command such rent: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to alter or affect the principles or different relative liabilities (if any) according to which different kinds of hereditaments are now by law rateable.

2. Every such rate made after the said period shall, in addition to any other particular which the form of making out such rate shall require to be set forth, contain an account of every particular set forth at the head of the respective columns in the form given in the schedule to this Act annexed, so far as the same can be ascertained; and the churchwardens and overseers, or other officers whose duty it may be to make and levy the said rate, or such a number of the said churchwardens and overseers or other officers as are competent to the making and levying of the same, shall, before the rate is allowed by the justices, sign the declaration given at the foot of the said form; and otherwise the said rate shall be of no force or validity: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the owners of tenements from compounding for the rates to be assessed on the same, in such manner as they were by any statute or statutes enabled to do before the passing of this Act, so that the gross estimated rental of the hereditaments compounded for be entered on the rate in the proper column.

3. [Power to order new survey and valuation.]

4. [Power for surveyors to enter and examine lands, &c., for purposes of survey and plans.]

5. It shall be lawful for any person or persons rated to the relief of the poor of the parish in respect of which any rate shall be made, at all seasonable times, to take copies thereof or extracts therefrom without paying anything for the same, anything in any Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and in case the person or persons having the custody of such rate shall refuse to permit or shall not permit such person or persons so rated as aforesaid to take copies thereof or extracts therefrom, the person or persons so refusing or not permitting such copy or extract to be made shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five pounds, to be recovered in a summary way before any justices of the peace having jurisdiction in the parish or place.

6. The justices acting in and for every petty sessions division shall four times at least in every year hold a special sessions for hearing appeals against the rates of the several parishes within their respective divisions, and shall cause public notice of the time and place when and where such special sessions will be holden to be affixed to or near to the door of the parish church of the said parishes, twenty-eight days at the least before the holding of the same; and such special sessions shall and may be adjourned from time to time by the justices there present as they may think fit; and at such special or adjourned sessions the justices there present shall hear and determine all objections to any such rate on the ground of inequality, unfairness, or incorrectness in the valuation of any hereditaments included therein, which decision shall be binding and conclusive on the parties, unless the person or persons impugning such decision shall within fourteen days after the same shall have been made cause notice to be given in writing of his, her, or their intention of appealing against such decision, and of the matter or cause of such appeal, to the person or persons in whose favour such decision shall have been made, and within five days after giving such notice ⁽²⁾ shall enter into a recognisance before some justice of the peace, with sufficient securities, conditioned to try such appeal at the then next general sessions or quarter sessions of the peace which shall first happen, and to abide the order of and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the justices at such quarter sessions, or any adjournment thereof;

⁽¹⁾ See R. v. Chaplin, 1 B. & Ad. 926, R. v. Hull Dock Co., 5 M. & S. 394.

⁽²⁾ See R. v. St. Albans, 3 Ad. & E. 932, 8 L. J. M. C. 33, 1 P. D. 148 and such justices, upon hearing and finally determining such matter of appeal, shall and may, according to their discretion, award such costs to the party or parties appealing or appealed against as they shall think proper, and their determination in or concerning the premises shall be conclusive and binding on all parties to all intents and purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that no such objection shall be inquired into by the said justices in special session unless notice of such objection in writing under the hand of the complainant shall have been given, seven days at least before the day appointed for such special session, to the collector, overseers, or other persons by whom such rate was made: Provided also, that the said justices in special session shall not be authorised to inquire into the liability of any hereditaments to be rated, but only into the true value thereof and into the fairness of the amount at which the same shall have been rated.

Secs. 6, 7.

Seven days' notice to be given of objections.

Proviso.

7. The justices present at any such special or adjourned session shall for the aforesaid purpose have all the powers of amending or quashing any such rate so objected to of any parish or other district within their division, and likewise of awarding costs to be paid by or to any of the parties, and of recovering such costs, which any court of quarter sessions of the peace has upon appeals from any such rate, except as herein excepted: Provided always, that no order of the said justices shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to deprive any person or persons of the right to appeal against any rate to any court of general or quarter sessions: Provided also, that no order of the said justices in special session shall be of any force pending any appeal touching the same subject matter to the court of general or quarter sessions of the peace having jurisdiction to try such appeal, or in opposition to the order of any such court upon such appeal.

Justices may act with all the powers of justices in quarter sessions.

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

Schedule.

Form of Rate.

AN ASSESSMENT for the RELIEF of the POOR of the Parish of Merton in the County of Surrey, and for other Purposes chargeable thereon according to Law, made this Thirtieth Day of March in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, after the Rate of Sixpence in the Pound.

No.	Arrears due, or if excused.	Name of Occupier.	Name of Owner.	Description of Property rated.	Name or Situation of Property.	Estimated Extent.	Gross estimated Rental.	Rateable Value.	Rate at 6d. in the Pound.
1	£ s. d. - - -	James Smith.	John Green	Land and Buildings.	Whiteacre Farm.	A. R. P. 40 0 0	£ s. d. 60 0 0	£ s. d. 55 0 0	£ s. d. 1 7 6
2	- - -	Ditto	Ditto	House and Garden.	In West Street.	0 1 0	30 0 0	25 0 0	0 12 6
3 {	- - 7½ } Excused }	John Poor	Ditto	House.	In Brick lane.	- - -	1 10 0	1 5 0	0 0 7½
&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.	&c.

Declaration of Overseers and Churchwardens.

We, do declare the several particulars specified in the respective columns of the above rate to be true and correct, so far as we have been able to ascertain them, to which end we have used our best endeavours.

THOMAS JONES, Overseer.

JOHN THOMAS, [Churchwarden, &c., &c.]

COSTS OF DISTRAINING FOR RATES ACT, 1849.

12 VICT. c. 14.

An Act to enable Overseers of the Poor and Surveyors of the Highways to recover the Costs of distraining for Rates. [11th May, 1849.]

Secs. 1—5.

Where a warrant of distress is granted for a poor rate or highway rate, &c., the costs of obtaining it may also be levied.

Power to order imprisonment not exceeding three months in default of distress.

One warrant may be issued against several ratepayers; but otherwise as to a commitment in default of distress.

To whom warrants of distress or commitment to be directed. Summons, and how served;

it shall be lawful hereafter for all justices of the peace, if in their discretion they shall so think fit, in any warrant of distress they shall make and issue for the levying of any sum or sums to which any person or persons is or are now or may hereafter be rated or assessed in or by any rate or assessment for the relief of the poor or for the highways in England or Wales, or in or by any other rate or assessment which by law now or hereafter is or shall be directed to be enforced or recovered in the same manner as a poor rate, or in any warrant for the levying of any arrears of the same, to order that a sum, such as they may deem reasonable, for the costs and expenses which such overseers or surveyors, or the persons applying for such warrant, shall have incurred in obtaining the same, shall also be levied of the goods and chattels of the person or persons against whom such warrant shall be granted, together with the reasonable charges of the taking, keeping, and selling of the said distress.

2.

(1) when to any warrant of distress for the levying of any sum or sums to which any person or persons (1) may hereafter be rated or assessed in or by any rate or assessment herein-before mentioned it shall be returned by the constable or person having the execution of such warrant that he could find no goods or chattels, or no sufficient goods or chattels, whereon to levy such sum or sums, together with the costs of or occasioned by the levying of the same, it shall be lawful for any two or more justices of the peace before whom the same shall be returned, or for any two or more justices of the peace for the same county, riding, division, liberty, city, borough, or place, if in their discretion they shall so think fit, to issue their warrant of commitment against the person with relation to whom such return shall be so made as aforesaid, in the Form (D.) in the schedule to this Act annexed, or in any form to the like effect, and thereby order such person to be imprisoned in the common gaol or house of correction for any time not exceeding three calendar months, unless the sum or sums therein mentioned shall be sooner paid; and every such warrant of commitment made or issued for default of distress as aforesaid shall be made as well for the non-payment of the costs and expenses so as aforesaid incurred in obtaining such warrant of distress, if the same shall be so ordered as aforesaid, and the costs attending the said distress, and also the costs and charges of taking and conveying the party to prison (the amount of such several costs, expenses, and charges being stated in such warrant of commitment), as for the non-payment of the sum or sums alleged to be due for the said rates respectively.

3. For the saving of expense in the levying of any sum or sums for rate and costs as aforesaid it shall be lawful to make and issue one warrant of distress against any number of persons neglecting or refusing to pay the same, in the form in the schedule to this Act annexed; but nothing herein shall be deemed or construed to authorise justices in like manner to grant or issue one warrant of commitment against several persons in default of distress as aforesaid (2).

4. The warrants aforesaid may be directed to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or the overseers of the poor, or the surveyors of the highways respectively, and to the constable of the parish or township, and to any other person or persons, or to any one or more of them, as by the justices granting the same shall be deemed fit.

5. Every summons to be issued against any person for non-payment of any sum for which he or she is or shall be so rated or assessed as aforesaid shall be directed to such person, and may be in the Form (B.) in the schedule to this Act annexed, or in any form to the like effect; and the same may be served by any churchwarden or overseer of the poor, or surveyor of the highways, respectively, or constable or other person, to whom it shall be delivered for that purpose, upon the person to whom it is so directed, by delivering the same to the party personally or by leaving the same with some person for him or her at his or her last place of abode; and the person who

(1) See Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

(2) Now by 25 & 26 Vict. c. 82, s. 1, any number of local rates and taxes, whether of the same or of different kinds due from the same person may be included in the same information, complaint, summons, order, warrant, &c., and the invalidity of such document as respects any one rate or tax shall not affect its validity as respects any other rate or tax comprised in it; and no costs shall be allowed in respect of several informations, &c., where in the opinion of the justices having jurisdiction over such costs one information might have sufficed, regard being had to this Act.

shall serve the same in manner aforesaid shall attend at the time and place and before the justices in the said summons mentioned, to depose if necessary to the service of the said summons; and if, upon the day and at the place appointed in and by the said summons for the appearance of the party so summoned, such party shall fail to appear accordingly in obedience to such summons, then and in every such case, if it be proved upon oath or affirmation to the justices then present that such summons was duly served as aforesaid a reasonable time before the time so appointed for his or her appearance as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such justices of the peace in their discretion, if they shall so think fit, to proceed ex parte, in the same manner to all intents and purposes as if such party had personally appeared before them in obedience to the said summons.

Secs. 5—9.

if not obeyed,
the justices may proceed ex parte.

6. In all cases where any proceedings shall be taken to compel payment of any sum for which any such person shall be so rated or assessed as aforesaid, if at any time before such person shall be committed to and lodged in prison for non-payment thereof, or for or by reason of its being returned to such warrant of distress as aforesaid that there are no goods or chattels or no sufficient goods or chattels of such person whereon the same may be levied as aforesaid, such person shall pay or tender to the churchwardens or overseers of the poor, or any of them, or to the surveyor of highways respectively, or other person authorised to collect or receive such rate, the sum so sought to be recovered, together with the amount of all costs and expenses up to that time incurred in the proceedings so taken to compel payment thereof as aforesaid, then and in every such case the person to whom such sum and costs shall be so paid or tendered shall receive the same, and thereupon no further proceedings for the recovery of the same shall be had or taken ⁽¹⁾.

On payment or tender of rate and costs proceedings to cease.

7. [Costs already recovered or proceeded for deemed legal ⁽²⁾.]

8. The forms in the schedule to this Act contained, or forms to the same or the like effect, shall be deemed good, valid, and sufficient in law.

Forms in schedule valid.

9. [Imprisonment for non-payment of church rate limited ⁽³⁾.]

SCHEDULE.

Schedule.

(A. 1.)

Complaint of the Overseers or Surveyors against one Ratepayer.

to wit. { Be it remembered, that on the day of in the year of our Lord the [churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or the surveyors of the highways] of the parish of in the county of aforesaid, by C. D., one of the said [overseers or surveyors], complain to the undersigned, [one] of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the said [county], that A. B. of the said [parish], being a person duly rated and assessed to [the relief of the poor, or the maintenance of the highways] of the said parish, in and by a rate made on the day of in the year in the sum of hath not paid the same or any part thereof, but hath refused so to do: Wherefore the said [churchwardens and overseers or surveyors], by C. D. aforesaid, pray that the said A. B. may be summoned to appear before two of Her Majesty's justices of the peace, to show cause why he hath not paid and refuses to pay the said sum.

C. D.

Made and exhibited before me at in the county of }
on this day of 1849. }
E. F.

* Or, in and by several rates made on and on in the several sums of and of

(A. 2.)

Complaint against several Ratepayers.

to wit. { Be it remembered, that on the day of in the year of our Lord the [churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or the surveyors of the highways] of the parish of in the [county] of aforesaid, by C. D., one of the said [overseers or surveyors], complain to the undersigned [one] of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the said [county], that the several persons whose names are mentioned and set out in the schedule hereunder written, being persons duly rated and assessed to [the relief of the poor, or the maintenance of the highways] of the said parish, in and by the rates in the said schedule mentioned, in certain sums set down opposite to their respec-

(1) This section is amended in accordance with Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

(2) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

(3) Repealed by Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1884, 47 & 48 Vict. c. 43.

Schedule.

five names in the said schedule, have not respectively paid the said sums or any part thereof, but have respectively refused so to do : Wherefore the said [churchwardens and overseers, or surveyors], by C. D. aforesaid, pray that said several persons may respectively be summoned to appear before two of Her Majesty's justices of the peace, to show cause respectively why they have not paid and refuse to pay the said sums respectively.

SCHEDULE.

Names of the Rate-payers.	Residence.	Under Rate dated the 1849.	Arrears due under Rate dated the 1848.	Total Sum due.
		£ s. d.	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
A. B. - - -	(here state it)	1 7 0	1 7 0	2 14 0
I. K. - - -	- - - - -	0 13 0	- - -	0 13 0
L. M. - - -	- - - - -	- - -	0 18 6	0 18 6
N. P. - - -	- - - - -	0 14 3	0 14 3	1 8 6

Made and exhibited before me at in the county of
on this day of 1849. }
E. F.

(B.)

Summons upon the Complaint.

To A. B. of
Whereas complaint hath this day been made before the undersigned [one] of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the [county] of by the [churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or surveyors of the highways] of the parish of in the said [county], that you, being a person duly rated and assessed to [the relief of the poor, or the maintenance of the highways] of the said parish, in and by a rate made on the day of 1849, in the sum of , hath not paid the same or any part thereof, but hath refused so to do : These are therefore to command you, in Her Majesty's name, to be and appear on at o'clock in the forenoon, at before such two or more justices of the peace for the said [county] as may then be there, to show cause why you have not paid and refuse to pay the same, otherwise you shall be proceeded against by default as if you had appeared, and be dealt with according to law.

Given under my hand and seal, this day of in the year of our Lord at in the [county] aforesaid. E. F.

Take notice, that you have already incurred the under-mentioned costs ; viz.

Clerk to the justices	s. d.
Overseer [or surveyor], for obtaining the summons...	...
Constable, for serving ditto	1 0
Ditto, travelling expenses at threepence per mile Total

If the amount of these charges, together with the rate claimed, be paid to the overseer [or surveyor] before the day on which the summons is returnable, all further proceedings will be stopped.

(C. 1.)

Warrant of Distress against One Ratepayer.

To the overseers of the poor [or to the surveyors of the highways] of the parish of in the [county] of and to the constable of and to all other peace officers in the said [county].

Whereas on last past a complaint was made before E. F., one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the [county] of by the [churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or surveyors of the highways] of the parish of in the said [county], that A. B., being a person duly rated and assessed to the relief of the poor [or to the maintenance of the highways] of the said parish in and by a rate made on in the sum of had not paid the same or any part thereof, but had refused so to do ; and now at this day, to wit, on at the parties aforesaid appear before us, the undersigned, two of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the said county [or the said churchwardens and overscers, or surveyors, by C. D., one of the said overseers, or surveyors, appear before us, the undersigned, two of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the said county; but the said A. B., although duly called, doth not appear by himself, his counsel or attorney, and it is now satisfactorily proved to us on oath that the said A. B. has been duly served with the summons in this behalf, which required him to be and appear here at this day before such two or more justices of the peace as should now be here, to answer the said complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and now having heard the matter of the said complaint, and it being now duly proved to us upon oath [in the presence and hearing of the said A. B.], that an assessment for the [relief of the poor, or the maintenance of the highways] of the said parish of _____ and for other purposes chargeable thereon according to law, dated the _____ was duly made, allowed, and published, and that the said A. B. is therein and thereby assessed at the sum of _____ aforesaid,* and that the said sum hath been duly demanded of the said A. B., but that he hath not paid, and hath refused and still refuses to pay the same; and the said A. B. now not showing to us any sufficient cause for not paying the same, these are therefore to command you, in Her Majesty's name, forthwith to make distress of the goods and chattels of the said A. B.; and if within the space of [five] days after the making of such distress the said sum, and the sum of _____ for the costs incurred by the said [churchwardens and overseers, or surveyors] in obtaining this warrant, together with the reasonable charges for taking and keeping the said distress, shall not be paid, that then you do sell the said goods and chattels so by you distrained, and out of the money arising by such sale you retain the said sums of _____ and _____ rendering the overplus, on demand, to the said A. B., the reasonable charges of taking, keeping, and selling the said distress being first deducted; and if no such distress can be found that then you certify the same unto us, to the end that such further proceedings may be had herein as to the law doth appertain.

Schedule.

Given under our hands and seals, this _____ day of _____ in the year of our Lord _____ at _____ in the [county] aforesaid. E. F.
G. H.

* "And that a certain other assessment for the relief," &c., to the asterisk, if there be arrears.

(C. 2.)

Warrant of Distress against several Ratepayers.

To the overseers of the poor or the surveyors of the highways of the parish of _____ in the [county] of _____ and to the constables of _____ and to all other peace officers in the said [county].

Whereas on _____ last past a complaint was made before E. F., one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the [county] of _____ by the [churchwardens and overseers of the poor, or the surveyors of the highways] of the parish of _____ in the said [county], that the several persons whose names are mentioned and set forth in the schedule hereunder written, being persons duly rated and assessed to [the relief of the poor, or maintenance of the highways] of the said parish, in and by the rates in the schedule in that complaint and in this warrant underwritten, in certain sums set down opposite to their respective names in the said schedule, had not respectively paid the said sums or any part thereof, but had respectively refused so to do; and now at this day, to wit, on _____ at _____ the said [churchwardens and overseers, or surveyors] by C. D., one of the said overseers, or surveyors, and A. B., I. K., and L. M., some of the said parties in the said schedule mentioned, appear before us, the undersigned, two of Her Majesty's justices of the peace in and for the said [county]; but the said N. P., although duly called, doth not appear by himself, his counsel or attorney, and it is now satisfactorily proved to us on oath that the said N. P. has been duly served with the summons in this behalf, which required him to be and appear here at this day before such two or more justices of the peace as should now be here to answer the said complaint, and to be further dealt with according to law; and now having heard the matter of the said complaint against the said several parties, and it being now duly proved to us upon oath, in the presence of the parties so appearing as aforesaid, that an assessment for [the relief of the poor] of the said parish of _____ and for other purposes chargeable thereon according to law, dated the _____ was duly made, allowed, and published, and that the said several persons whose names are mentioned and set out in the schedule hereunder written are therein and thereby assessed at the sums set down opposite to their respective names in the said schedule, and that the said several sums have been duly demanded of them respectively, but they have not nor hath any of them paid the said sums or any of them, or any part thereof respectively, but they have refused and still do refuse to pay the same respectively, and have not, nor hath any of them, showed to us sufficient cause for not paying the same; these are therefore to command you, in Her Majesty's name, forthwith to make distress of the goods and chattels of the several persons whose names are mentioned and set out in the schedule hereunder written; and if within the space of five days after the making of such distresses respectively the said several sums set opposite to their respective names at which they were so rated and assessed as aforesaid, and the said several sums for costs incurred by the said [churchwardens and overseers, or surveyors] also set opposite to their respective names, together with the reasonable charges of taking and keeping the said distress in each case, shall not be paid, that then you do sell the goods and chattels of the party so making default so by you distrained, and out of the money arising by such sales respectively you retain the sums so set opposite to the name of each party whose goods you shall have so sold, rendering to him the overplus, the reasonable charges of taking, keeping, and selling the said distress being first deducted; and if in any of the cases

UNION ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE ACT, 1862.

25 & 26 VICT. c. 103.

An Act to amend the law relating to Parochial Assessments in England.

[7th Aug. st, 1862.]

1. The words used in this Act shall be construed in like manner as the words contained in the Act fourth and fifth of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, and the word "committee" shall signify the assessment committee provided for by this Act; and this Act shall be termed "The Union Assessment Committee Act, 1862."

Secs. 1-11.
Interpretation.

2. The board of guardians of every union, formed under the Act fourth and fifth years of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, shall, as soon as convenient after the passing of this Act and in every subsequent year, at their first meeting after the annual election of guardians, appoint from among themselves any number not less than six nor more than twelve to be a committee, consisting partly of ex-officio and partly of elected guardians, to be called the assessment committee of the union, for the investigation and supervision of the valuations to be made as hereinafter mentioned within such union, and for the performance of such said acts and duties as hereinafter mentioned; Provided always, that one-third at least of such committee shall consist of ex-officio guardians, in case there shall be an adequate number of such ex-officio guardians; but in case an adequate number of such ex-officio guardians shall not exist, then the number so deficient shall be made up of elected guardians.

Appointment of the assessment committee by board of guardians.

3. Where any union shall have the same bounds as a municipal borough, the clerk to the guardians of such union shall, upon the appointment of the assessment committee, if directed by the said guardians to do so, transmit in writing the names of the persons so appointed to the town council of such borough, and such council may thereupon, if they think fit, appoint from themselves a certain number, not exceeding the number appointed by the board of guardians, who shall, until they respectively cease to be members of the town council or decline to act, forthwith form part of the assessment committee for such union, and the said council may from time to time supply any vacancies in the number of persons appointed by them.

Where union has the same bounds as borough names of assessment committee to be transmitted to town council, who may appoint additional members.

4. If the guardians shall neglect or be prevented from making such appointment at the meeting above specified, the poor law board shall by their order appoint some other day on which the guardians shall make such appointment.

Provision for neglect to appoint.

5. If any ex-officio or elected guardian being a member of the committee cease to be guardian or resign his seat at such committee, or die, or become incapable of acting as such member, the board of guardians shall with all convenient speed appoint an ex-officio or elected guardian, as the case may be, to supply the vacancy.

Provision for vacancies.

6. During any vacancy in any assessment committee the other or continuing members of such committee may act, and shall have the same powers and jurisdiction as if no such vacancy had happened.

Continuing members may act during vacancies.

7. The authority of the committee appointed for any union under this Act shall extend over every parish comprised in such union.

Extent of committee's authority.

8. The committee shall hold their first meeting at the board room of the union on a day to be fixed by the board of guardians, and the subsequent meetings of the committee shall be holden at such times and at such place and upon such notice and requisition as they shall from time to time appoint; and any guardian of the union may be present at any meeting of the committee, but shall not be entitled to take part in the proceedings thereof.

First meeting when to be holden.

9. All acts, orders, matters, and things by this Act authorized or directed to be made or done by the committee may be made or done by the major part of the members of such committee who shall be present at a meeting, the whole number present together at such meeting not being less than three, and not less in any case than one-third of the whole number of which such committee consists; and when upon any question there shall be an equality of votes the presiding chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

Quorum of meetings.

10. The committee shall employ the clerk or assistant clerk of the board of guardians as their clerk, with such remuneration for his services as the Poor Law Board shall sanction.

Committee may employ and pay clerk.

11. The committee shall cause a minute of their proceedings, and of the names of the members who attend each meeting, to be duly made from time to time in books to be provided for that purpose, which shall be kept by their clerk, under their superintendence, and every such entry shall be signed by the presiding chairman of the assessment committee present at the meeting at which the proceeding took place; and such entry, purporting to be so signed, shall be received as evidence in all courts, and before all judges, justices, and others, without proof of such meeting having been duly convened or held, or of the persons attending such meeting

Proceedings to be entered in books and signed.

Such entries evidence.

Secs. 11-17.

Books to be open to inspection.

Proceedings of committees to be reported.
Committee may require returns from overseers, &c. ;

and may require production of rates, &c., and examine persons attending before them.

Overseers to prepare valuation lists.

Definition of gross estimated rental.

Committee may enlarge the time for making valuation lists, and may give directions concerning valuations and valuation lists, and may appoint persons to make the same.

Valuation lists to be deposited for inspection, and afterwards transmitted to the committee.

having been or being members of the committee, or of the signatures of the members, all of which facts shall be presumed until the contrary be proved; and all such books shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of every person rated to the relief of the poor in any parish or place in the union, without any fee being demanded for such inspection; and all such persons shall be entitled at all reasonable times to take copies or extracts from the said books, without paying any fee for the same; and if, on request made for that purpose, the clerk of the committee refuse to permit any such person to inspect any such books, or to take copies or extracts therefrom, as aforesaid, such clerk shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds, upon a summary conviction for the same before two justices of the peace.

12. The board of guardians shall in the month of April in every year report the proceedings of their assessment committee to the Poor Law Board.

13. The committee by their order may from time to time require the overseers, assistant overseers, constables, assessors, collectors, and any other persons having the custody of any books of assessment of any taxes or rates, parliamentary or parochial, or of the valuations of any parish, or having the collection or management of any such taxes or rates, to make returns in writing to the committee, at such times and places as they may appoint, of all such particulars as they may direct in relation to such taxes, rates, or valuations, or any property included therein, so far as relates to the union for which they act, and may require the persons having the custody of any such books as aforesaid to make and transmit to the committee copies of or extracts from such books, or to permit such copies or extracts to be made by such persons as the committee may in that behalf direct; and may from time to time require any persons having the custody of any such books, or the collection or management of any such taxes or rates as aforesaid, to attend before them at a time and place to be mentioned in the order in this behalf and to produce all parochial and public books of assessment, rates, rate books, valuations, apportionments, tithe and other maps, plans, surveys, and other public documents in their custody or power, and may examine all persons who shall attend before them: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the production of valuations or assessments which by any provision of law at present are not suffered to be made public.

14. Subject to any order as hereinafter referred to which may be made by the committee, the overseers of each parish in the union shall within three calendar months after the appointment of such committee, make a list of all the rateable hereditaments in such parish, with the annual value thereof respectively, in so much of the form shown in the schedule annexed to the Act sixth and seventh William the Fourth, chapter ninety-six, as is set out in the schedule to this Act; and unless such overseers think that the valuation then last acted upon in assessing the rate for the relief of the poor correctly shows the full annual rateable value of all such hereditaments, they shall revise such valuation, and such overseers shall sign every list so made by them as aforesaid, and such list shall be styled "The Valuation List."

15. The gross estimated rental for the purpose of the schedule to this Act shall be the rent at which the hereditament might reasonably be expected to let from year to year, free of all usual tenant's rates and taxes, and tithe commutation rentcharge, if any: Provided that nothing herein contained shall repeal or interfere with the provisions contained in the first section of the said Act (six and seven William the Fourth, chapter ninety-six) defining the net annual value of the hereditaments to be rated.

16. The committee by their order may from time to time enlarge the time within which the first valuation lists under this Act shall be made by the overseers of all or any of the parishes in the union, and for ensuring a uniform and correct valuation of every parish in the union may direct that any existing valuation of the rateable hereditaments in any parish be revised, in whole or in part, or a new valuation of such hereditaments be made by the overseers, or the committee may, with the consent of the board of guardians of the union, after notice shall have been sent to every guardian thereof, in any case appoint some person for either of the purposes aforesaid, and may direct such person to make and sign the valuation list instead of the overseers, and every valuation list so made and signed shall be delivered by such person to the overseers of the parish to which the same relates.

17. The valuation list for each parish, made and signed by the overseers, or delivered to them, as hereinbefore provided, shall be deposited by the overseers in the place in such parish in which rate books are deposited or kept, and a copy of such valuation list shall be forthwith delivered to the board of guardians, and the overseers shall give public notice of the deposit of such list on the Sunday next following the deposit of such list, and such notice shall be given in the same manner, and all persons assessed or liable to be assessed to the relief of the poor of such parish shall have the like right of inspecting, and of demanding and taking copies of and extracts from such list, as in the case of a poor rate allowed by the justices, and the overseers shall, at the expiration of fourteen days from the time of the notice given of the deposit of such list, transmit the same to the committee, and any overseer or other ratepayer within the union shall have the right of inspecting and taking copies of and extracts from any of the lists so transmitted. Secs. 17-22.

18. Any overseer or overseers of any parish in any union who shall have reason to think that such parish is aggrieved by the valuation list of any parish within such union, or any person who may feel himself aggrieved by any valuation list on the ground of unfairness or incorrectness in the valuation of any hereditaments included therein, or on the ground of the omission of any rateable hereditament from such list, may at any time after the deposit as aforesaid of such list, and before the expiration of twenty-eight days after the notice of the deposit as aforesaid, give to the committee and to the overseers a notice in writing of his objection, specifying the grounds thereof, and where the ground of any objection shall be unfairness or incorrectness in the valuation of any hereditament in respect of which any person, other than the person objecting, is liable to be rated, or the omission of such hereditament, also give notice in writing of such objection, and of the ground thereof, to such other person. Objections to valuation list.

19. The committee shall hold such meetings as they may think necessary for hearing objections to the valuation lists, and shall, twenty-eight days at least before holding every meeting for hearing objections to valuation lists, other than meetings by adjournment, cause notice of such meeting to be given to the overseers of the several parishes to which such lists relate, and such overseers shall, on the Sunday next following the receipt of such notice, publish the same in the manner in which notice of a rate allowed by justices is by law required to be given, and the committee may at any such meeting hear and determine such objections, or may from time to time adjourn any such meeting, and adjourn or postpone the hearing or further hearing and determination of any such objections, and may, where they think fit, direct notice of any such objections to be given by the overseers or by the persons objecting to third parties before the further hearing thereof; but the committee shall not be required to hold a meeting for hearing objections to the valuation list of any parish, unless such notice in writing as hereinbefore mentioned of some objection or objections thereto have been given to the committee; and where a meeting is holden for hearing objections to the valuation list of any parish, the committee shall not hear any objection to such valuation list unless such notice as aforesaid of such objection have been given to the committee and to the overseers; and where the ground of such objection is unfairness or incorrectness in the valuation of any hereditament of any other person than the person objecting, or the omission of such hereditament, also to such other person by the person objecting, except where the overseers, by themselves or any other person on their behalf, and in the case aforesaid such other person as aforesaid, by himself or any other person on his behalf, consent to the hearing of such objection, and in such case the committee may, if they see fit, hear the same; and where the committee see fit to hear the same they shall act in relation thereto in like manner as if notice of such objection had been duly given. Committee to hold meetings to hear objections.

20. The committee may, whether any objection be or be not made to any such valuation list, and either before or after any meeting for hearing objections, make such alterations in the valuation of any hereditaments included in any valuation list, and insert therein any rateable hereditament omitted therefrom, and make such corrections in names, descriptions, and particulars in any valuation list, and upon such information, as to them may seem sufficient, and may with the consent of the guardians as aforesaid, appoint or employ a person to survey and value the rateable hereditaments comprised in any such valuation list or any of them, or omitted therefrom, or may take such other means as they may think necessary for ascertaining the correctness thereof, and when the committee have heard and determined all such objections as aforesaid, and have made such alterations, insertions, and corrections in any valuation list as to them may seem proper, they shall approve the same under the hands of three members of the committee present at the meeting at which the same is approved, with the date of such approval. Board may direct further valuation and correct valuation lists, and when corrected to approve the same.

21. Where the committee make any alteration in the valuation of any hereditaments included in, or insert therein any rateable hereditament omitted from any such valuation list, they shall cause such valuation list, with such alteration or insertion, to be deposited for inspection in manner hereinbefore provided concerning the valuation list made by or delivered to the overseers, and shall cause the like notice to be given of such deposit as is required in the case of a valuation list so made or delivered as aforesaid, and shall appoint a day, not less than seven days nor more than fourteen days from the re-deposit of such valuation list, for the hearing of any objections to the valuation list as so altered; and when the committee have heard and determined any such objections, or have made such further alterations, insertions, and corrections in such valuation list, they shall approve the same in manner hereinbefore provided. Valuation list when altered to be deposited, &c.

22. In case any ratepayer shall under the existing law appeal to the special sessions or quarter sessions against any rate made for the relief of the poor in any parish, and the result of such If on appeal a rate is amended the valuation

Secs. 22-30. appeal shall be to amend the rate appealed against, the assessment committee shall alter the valuation list of the said parish in conformity with the decision so made.

list to be altered.
Custody, &c., of valuation list after approval.

23. Every valuation list, when approved by the committee, shall be delivered to the overseers of the parish to which the same relates, and shall be preserved at the like place and in the like custody, and be subject to the like resort thereto, and be delivered over from time to time in like manner, as the books are wherein rates and assessments for the relief of the poor for the same parish are entered, and shall be produced by the overseers before the justices, upon application, for the allowance of rates, and at the special or general or quarter sessions when any appeal is to be heard, and also at such times and places as the committee may from time to time direct.

What shall be deemed valuation list in force.

24. Every valuation list approved by the committee, and delivered to the overseers of the parish to which the same relates, shall, with and subject to the alterations and additions for the time being made therein or thereto by any supplemental valuation lists so approved and delivered, be the valuation list in force in such parish, except in the case of any parish, as is hereinafter referred to, in which the poor rate, or assessment for the poor rate, is made under the authority of a local act, until a new valuation list in substitution for the same be approved and delivered in like manner.

Overseers to prepare supplemental valuation lists in case of additions to or alterations in the rateable property of the parish.

25. When and so often as any property not included in the valuation list in force in any parish becomes rateable, or where, by reason of any alteration in the occupation of any property included in such list, such property becomes liable to be rated in parts not mentioned in such list as rateable hereditaments and separately valued therein, and when and so often as it shall appear to the overseers that any rateable property included in such list has been increased or reduced in value since the valuation thereof, whether by building, destruction of building, or other alteration in the condition thereof or otherwise, the overseers of the parish in each of the cases aforesaid shall, as soon as conveniently may be, make a supplemental valuation list showing the annual rateable value according to the judgment of the overseers of the property so become rateable, or of the parts so become liable to be rated separately, or of the property so increased or reduced in value, as the case may be.

Committee may from time to time direct new valuation and new or supplemental valuation list.

26. The committee by their order may from time to time, where they see fit, upon the application of any person aggrieved by the valuation list in force in any parish, or where they themselves think the same expedient, direct a new valuation of all or any of the rateable hereditaments in such parish, and a new valuation list in substitution for such valuation list as aforesaid, or a supplemental list in substitution for any part thereof or in addition thereto, to be made by the overseers, or the committee may, with such consent as aforesaid, appoint a person for such purposes; and the committee may, in directing such new valuation and the making up of such new or supplemental valuation list, give and make all such or the like directions and provisions in relation thereto as they are authorized under this Act to give and make in relation to the valuations and valuation lists first directed and authorized to be made under the Act.

This Act as to valuation list first directed to be made to apply to new and supplemental valuation lists.

27. All the provisions of this Act in relation to signature, deposit, objections, approval, and otherwise concerning the valuation list first directed and authorized to be made under this Act of the rateable hereditaments in any parish shall be applicable to every new or supplemental valuation list to be made under this Act.

After a valuation list is approved no rate to be allowed unless made according to such list.

28. In every parish where a valuation list under this Act has been approved and delivered to the overseers, no rate for the relief of the poor, or other rate which by law is required to be based upon the poor rate, shall be of any force, unless the hereditaments included in such rate, except as hereinafter provided, be rated according to the annual rateable value thereof appearing in the valuation list in force in such parish; and instead of the declaration required by the second section of the said statute of the sixth and seventh years of William the Fourth, chapter ninety-six, the overseers shall, before the rate shall be allowed by the justices, sign a declaration according to the form set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed: Provided always, that where by reason of any alteration in the occupation of any property included in such list such property has become liable to be rated in parts not mentioned in such list as rateable hereditaments, and separately rated therein, such parts may, where a supplemental valuation list showing the annual rateable value of such parts has not been approved and delivered as hereinbefore required, and whether such list has or has not been made, be rated according to such amounts as shall be fair apportioned parts of the annual rateable value appearing in such valuation list in force as aforesaid of the hereditaments out of which such parts have been constituted.

Provision for place- under local Acts.

29. The provisions of section twenty-eight shall not apply to any poor rate made by any vestry, trustees, guardians, commissioners, overseers, or other persons authorized by any local Act to make the rate for the relief of the poor in any parish, or the assessment on which such rate is made.

In computing

30. When the assessment committee for any union shall have approved valuation lists for all the parishes comprised within such union, the guardians of such union, in computing the amount of contribution to the common fund for the several parishes, shall thenceforward take the annual rateable value of the property in such parishes respectively from the valuation lists for the time being lastly approved of for such parishes respectively, any statute to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided that in case any parish comprised in any union shall receive any sum of money as a contribution in aid of the poor rate of such parish, for or in respect of Government property within such parish and used for public purposes, the annual value of such property according to the estimate (if any) of such value on which the amount of the sum of money so received is computed, or, if there be no such estimate, then the annual value of such property, estimated in the mode provided by the Act sixth and seventh William the Fourth, chapter ninety-six, for making an estimate of the annual rateable value of property liable to be rated to rates for the relief of the poor, shall be included by the overseer or overseers in the valuation list of such parish, and shall be added to the annual rateable value of the property in such parish in computing the amount of contribution to the common fund for the several parishes in such union.

Secs. 30-33.

amount of contributions to common fund the annual rateable value to be taken from approved valuation lists.

31. The committee shall cause a copy of the valuation list for the time in force for every parish in the union to be made and deposited at the board room or other convenient place to be appointed by the board of guardians in the custody of the clerk, which copy shall be open at seasonable times to the inspection of any of the guardians of the union, and of any overseer of any parish within the union, without charge, and of any ratepayer within the union on payment of one shilling, such fee to be carried to the account of the common fund.

Copy of valuation lists to be deposited in board room.

32. If the overseer or overseers of any parish in any union shall have reason to think that such parish is aggrieved by the valuation list of any parish within such union, whether it be on the ground that the rateable hereditaments comprised in the valuation list of such parish are valued at sums beyond the annual rateable value thereof, or on the ground that the rateable hereditaments comprised in the valuation list of some other parish in such union are valued at sums less than the annual rateable value thereof, it shall be lawful for such overseer or overseers, with the consent of a vestry summoned for the purpose of considering the expediency of giving such consent, to appeal to the quarter sessions for the county or borough in which the greatest number of parishes belonging to the union is situate, or, in case the number of parishes in any two or more such jurisdictions is equal to the quarter sessions for the county or borough having jurisdiction over the parish in which the workhouse of the union is situate, at the sessions to be holden after the expiration of a month after the allowance of and deposit of such valuation list as aforesaid, against such valuation list of the parish which shall appear to be over-valued or under-valued; and if in any case any such overseer or overseers appeal against the valuation list of any other parish on the ground that the rateable hereditaments in such list are valued at less than the annual rateable value thereof, such overseer or overseers shall give fourteen clear days notice in writing previous to the first day of the said quarter sessions at which the appeal is to be made of the intention to appeal, and the grounds thereof, to the overseers of the poor of such parish, and to the guardians of the union comprising such parish; and if any overseer or overseers of any parish appeal against the valuation list of such parish on the ground that the rateable hereditaments in such list are valued beyond the annual rateable value thereof, such overseer or overseers shall give fourteen days notice in writing previous to the quarter sessions at which the appeal is to be made of the intention to appeal, and the grounds thereof, to the guardians of the union in which such parish is situate, the said court shall be empowered to hear and determine such appeal, and either confirm such valuation list, or correct such irregularities or inaccuracies as shall be proved to exist therein, as to them may appear fair and just; but no such valuation list shall upon such appeal be quashed or destroyed in regard to any other parish unless the court deem it necessary to proceed to the making of an entire new valuation list as hereinafter provided.

Appeal against valuation list.

33. It shall be lawful for the court of quarter sessions upon any such appeal, instead of hearing the said appeal, to adjourn the same, and to order, upon the application of the appellant or respondent in such appeal, a survey or valuation of any of the parishes in respect of which such appeal shall be made, and to fix the next or some subsequent session for receiving such survey or valuation, and for hearing and determining such appeal; and such court shall also thereupon appoint a proper person to make such survey or valuation, and the person so appointed shall have power, with or without assistants, to enter upon and survey, measure, and value all the hereditaments liable to be assessed to the rates for the relief of the poor within the parish or parishes mentioned in such order, and such survey and valuation shall be reported to the quarter sessions on adjournment fixed as aforesaid for receiving the same, and the court then and there assembled shall hear and determine the said appeal in the manner hereinbefore set forth.

Hearing and determining appeals

Secs. 34-44.

Costs of valuation and appeal.

Act not to prevent composition for rates.

Saving of exemptions and special rules of rating.

Board may allow compensation for returns, &c., and expenses.

Remuneration to clerk and certain expenses of committee to be paid out of common fund. Expenses of valuation, &c., to be paid out of poor rates.

Penalty for non-attendance, &c., in obedience to order of the committee. Injuring, &c., rate books a misdemeanor.

Authentication and service of orders and notices of the committee.

Service of notices, &c., on the committee.

Provision as to form of poor rate.

Provisions concerning the

34. The charges and expenses of any such survey and valuation so ordered shall be deemed costs in such appeal, and abide the event thereof, and the court before which any such appeal is heard and determined may order the costs in and about the appeal to be paid by either the appellant or respondent party, as they in their discretion may think fit; but where any appeal is made on the ground that the rateable hereditaments of any parish comprised in the valuation list of such parish are valued beyond the annual rateable value thereof, if the court on such appeal determine in favour of the appellants, such court shall ascertain the costs and charges incurred by such appellants in and about such appeal, and shall order the board of guardians of the union in which such parish is situate to pay the same to the appellants out of the money raised for the common fund for the several parishes in such union.

35. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the owners of tenements from compounding for the rates to be assessed on the same, in such manner as they were by any statute or statutes enabled to do before the passing of this Act.

36. Nothing herein contained shall extend or be taken to render liable to be rated any property, or any person in respect of any occupation not now by law rateable of any property, or to deprive any property, or the occupier of any property, of the benefit of any exemption, in whole or in part, to which such property or occupier is now by law entitled, from any poor rate or other rate which by law is required to be based upon the poor rate, or to render liable to be rated, according to the annual rateable value thereof, any property which under any local Act or otherwise is entitled to be rated upon a fixed amount, or according to any special or exceptional principle of valuation, whether such property shall or shall not be included in any valuation list in force under this Act, or shall in anywise affect the provisions of "The Cambridge Award Act, 1856," or the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth Victoria relating to the relief of the poor in the city of Oxford.

37. The committee may allow such compensation for any returns, copies, or extracts, or any valuation, or valuation list, or other act, matter, or thing to be made or done in pursuance of their order, and such expenses connected therewith, as to the committee in each case seems just.

38. The remuneration allowed by the committee to their clerk and all expenses incurred by them for the common use and benefit of the several parishes within the union for which they are appointed, shall be paid by the guardians of the said union, and be charged upon the common fund thereof.

39. The expenses of making any valuation and valuation list of any parish, or any of such expenses, whether such valuation and valuation list respectively be made by the overseers, or by any person appointed by the committee, shall be charged upon the poor rates of such parish if the valuation made by direction of the committee shall exceed by one-sixth the amount of the valuation delivered to them by the overseers, and upon the common fund of the said union if the valuation so made as last mentioned shall not exceed by one-sixth the valuation so delivered as aforesaid.

40. Every person who wilfully refuses to attend in obedience to any lawful order of any such committee, or to give evidence, or refuses to produce any rate book, assessment, or valuation which may be lawfully required to be produced before such committee, shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds upon a summary conviction for the same before two justices of the peace; and every person who wilfully injures, defaces, conceals, or destroys such rate book, or who upon any examination before any such committee wilfully gives false evidence, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

41. Every order and notice made or given by the committee under this Act may be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and shall be sufficiently authenticated if signed by their clerk, and may be served by the same or a copy thereof being delivered personally or sent by the post to the party on or to whom such order or notice purports to be made or given, or by being delivered at his usual place of abode.

42. Any notice or statement required to be served upon the committee may be served by being left at the office of the clerk to the board of guardians, or sent through the post office, addressed to the committee at such clerk's office, or by being delivered personally to their clerk, or at his usual place of abode.

43. In every parish, until a valuation list has been approved, and delivered to the overseers under this Act, every rate made for the relief of the poor in such parish shall be made in the form and contain the particulars required by the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of King William the Fourth; and after such valuation list has been so approved and delivered, every such rate, except in any parish where the poor rate or the assessment for the same is made under the provisions of a local Act as aforesaid, shall show the annual rateable value of each hereditament comprised therein according to the valuation list in force in such parish.

44. All the powers, authorities, provisions, clauses, and regulations now in force relating to the assessment, collection, and levying of poor rates (save so far as the same are hereby repealed or altered) shall be good, valid, and effectual for the purposes of assessing, levying, collecting, and enforcing the payment of such rate and for carrying this Act into execution. Secs. 44, 45.

45. And whereas there are divers unions or incorporations for the relief of the poor formed under local Acts and under the Act of the twenty-second year of King George the Third, chapter eighty-three, which may desire to adopt the provisions of this Act: Be it enacted, that any such union or incorporation, on resolution to that effect of a majority, at two successive meetings of the body, having under the constitution of such union or incorporation the management of the relief of the poor within the same, may, by writing under the hand of the presiding chairman of the second of such meetings, apply to the Poor Law Board to be included in this Act; and such union or incorporation, upon the consent of the Poor Law Board being given to such application under its seal, shall be so included; and such consent so signified shall be evidence that such application was in all respects duly made according to the provisions above mentioned; and such regulations shall hereafter be made from time to time by the said Board, with the consent of such body, as may be necessary to render the provisions of this Act conformable with the provisions of the Act under which the said union or incorporation shall have been formed.

assessment, &c. of poor rates to be applicable to rates made according to this Act. Power for unions under Gilbert's or local Acts to be included in this Act.

SCHEDULE.

VALUATION LIST for [the parish or place for which the list is made] in the county of

Schedule.

Name of Occupier.	Name of Owner.	Description of Property.	Name or Situation of Property.	Estimated Extent.	Gross estimated Rental.	Rateable Value.

Signed this day of

A. B. } Overseers of the poor of the C. D. } parish aforesaid.

DECLARATION TO BE ADDED TO THE RATE.

We, the undersigned, do hereby declare that one of us, or some person on our behalf, has examined and compared the several particulars in the respective columns of the above rate with the valuation list made under the authority of the Union Assessment Committee Act of 1862, in force in this parish (or township), and the several hereditaments are, to the best of our belief, rated according to the value appearing in such valuation list.

} Churchwardens.
}
} Overseers.

POOR RATE ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION ACT, 1869.

32 & 33 VICT. c. 41.

An Act for amending the Law with respect to the rating of Occupiers for short terms, and the making and collecting of the Poor's Rate. [26th July, 1869.]

Secs. 1, 2.

1. The occupier of any rateable hereditament let to him for a term not exceeding three months shall be entitled to deduct the amount paid by him in respect of any poor rate assessed upon such hereditament from the rent due or accruing due to the owner, and every such payment shall be a valid discharge of the rent to the extent of the rate so paid.
2. No such occupier shall be compelled to pay to the overseers at one time or within four weeks a greater amount of the rate than would be due for one quarter of the year.

Occupiers of tenements let for short terms may deduct the poor rate paid by them from their rents. Amount of rate payable by occupier.

Secs. 3—10.

Owners may agree to pay the rate, and be allowed a commission.

Vestries may order the owner to be rated instead of the occupier.

Owners omitting to pay rates before the fifth day of June to forfeit commission.

Constructive payment of the rate.

Where owners omit to pay rates, the occupiers paying the same may deduct the amount from the rent.

Owners to give lists of occupiers, and liable to penalties for wilful omission.

Notice to occupiers of rates in arrear.

3. In case the rateable value of any hereditament does not exceed twenty pounds, if the hereditament is situate in the metropolis, or thirteen pounds if situate in any parish wholly or partly within the borough of Liverpool, or ten pounds if situate in any parish wholly or partly within the city of Manchester or the borough of Birmingham, or eight pounds if situate elsewhere, and the owner of such hereditament is willing to enter into an agreement in writing with the overseers to become liable to them for the poor rates assessed in respect of such hereditament, for any term not being less than one year from the date of such agreement, and to pay the poor rates whether the hereditament is occupied or not, the overseers may, subject nevertheless to the control of the vestry, agree with the owner to receive the rates from him, and to allow to him a commission not exceeding twenty-five per cent. on the amount thereof.

4. The vestry of any parish may from time to time order that the owners of all rateable hereditaments to which section three of this Act extends, situate within such parish, shall be rated to the poor rate in respect of such rateable hereditaments, instead of the occupiers, on all rates made after the date of such order; and thereupon and so long as such order shall be in force the following enactments shall have effect:

- (1.) The overseers shall rate the owners instead of the occupiers, and shall allow to them an abatement or deduction of fifteen per centum from the amount of the rate:
- (2.) If the owner of one or more such rateable hereditaments shall give notice to the overseers in writing that he is willing to be rated for any term not being less than one year in respect of all such rateable hereditaments of which he is the owner, whether the same be occupied or not, the overseers shall rate such owner accordingly, and allow to him a further abatement or deduction not exceeding fifteen per centum from the amount of the rate during the time he is so rated:
- (3.) The vestry may by resolution rescind any such order after a day to be fixed by them, such day being not less than six months after the passing of such resolution, but the order shall continue in force with respect to all rates made before the date on which the resolution takes effect:

Provided that this clause shall not be applicable to any rateable hereditament in which a dwelling-house shall not be included ⁽¹⁾.

5. When an owner who has become liable to pay the poor rate omits or neglects to pay, before the fifth day of June in any year, any rate or any instalment thereof which has become due previously to the preceding fifth day of January, and has been duly demanded by a demand note delivered to him or left at his usual or last known place of abode, he shall not be entitled to deduct or receive any commission, abatement, or allowance to which he would, except for such omission or neglect, be entitled under this Act, but shall be liable to pay, and shall pay, such rate or instalment in full.

6. Repeal of 13 & 14 Vict. c. 99, &c.

7. Every payment of a rate by the occupier, notwithstanding the amount thereof may be deducted from his rent as herein provided, and every payment of a rate by the owner, whether he is himself rated instead of the occupier, or has agreed with the occupier or with the overseers to pay such rate, and notwithstanding any allowance or deduction which the overseers are empowered to make from the rate, shall be deemed a payment of the full rate by the occupier for the purpose of any qualification or franchise which as regards rating depends upon the payment of the poor rate ⁽²⁾.

8. Where an owner who has undertaken, whether by agreement with the occupier or with the overseers, to pay the poor rates, or has otherwise become liable to pay the same, omits or neglects to pay any such rate, the occupier may pay the same and deduct the amount from the rent due or accruing due to the owner, and the receipt for such rate shall be a valid discharge of the rent to the extent of the rate so paid.

9. Every owner who agrees with the overseers to pay the poor rate, or who is rated or liable to be rated for any hereditament instead of the occupier, shall deliver to the overseers, from time to time, when required by them, in writing, a list containing the names of the actual occupiers of the hereditaments comprised in such agreement, or for which he is so rated or liable to be rated; and if any such owner wilfully omits to deliver such list when required to do so, or wilfully omits therefrom or misstates therein the name of any occupier, he shall for every such omission or misstatement be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding two pounds.

10. Section twenty-eight of "The Representation of the People Act, 1867," with respect to notice to be given of rates in arrear, shall apply to occupiers of premises capable of conferring Secs. 10-19.

⁽¹⁾ See the Highway Rate Assessment and Expenditure Act, 1882, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 27, s. 3, post.

⁽²⁾ And see now the Assessed Rates Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 10, s. 2.

 the parliamentary franchise, although the owners of such premises have become liable for the rates assessed thereon under the provisions of this Act.

11. Where the owner has become liable to the payment of the poor rates, the rates due from Liability of owner under agreement.
 him, together with the costs and charges of levying and recovering the same, may be levied on the goods of the owner, and be recovered from him in the same way as poor rates may be recovered from the occupier.

12. Notwithstanding the owner of any such rateable hereditament as aforesaid has become Recovery of rates unpaid
by the owner.
 liable for payment of the poor rates assessed thereon, the goods and chattels of the occupier shall be liable to be distrained and sold for payment of such rates as may accrue during his occupation of the premises, at any time whilst such rates remain unpaid by the owner, subject to the following provisions:

(1.) That no such distress shall be levied unless the rate has been demanded in writing by the overseers from the occupier, and the occupier has failed to pay the same within fourteen days after the service of such demand:

(2.) That no greater sum shall be raised by such distress than shall at the time of making the same be actually due from the occupier for rent of the premises on which the distress is made:

(3.) That any such occupier shall be entitled to deduct the amount of rates for which such distraint is made, and the expense of distraint, from the rent due or accruing due to the owner, and every such payment shall be a valid discharge of the rent to the extent of the rate and expenses paid.

13. Every owner of any hereditament for the rates of which he has become liable shall have Owner may appeal against valuation list and rate.
 the same right of appeal (subject to the same conditions and consequences) against the valuation lists and the poor rates as if he were the occupier thereof.

14. The overseers of every parish when they make a poor rate shall set forth in the title of The overseer to state the period for which poor rate is made.
Proviso.
 the rate the period for which the same is estimated, and if the same is payable by instalments the amount of each instalment and the date at which each instalment is payable; provided that if the necessities of the parish shall require it another rate may be made before such period shall have elapsed.

15. The overseers who make the poor rate for a period exceeding three months may Overseers may make poor rate payable by instalments. declare that the same shall be paid by instalments at such times as they shall specify, and thereupon each instalment only shall be enforceable as and when it falls due, and the payment of any such instalment shall, as respects any qualification or franchise depending upon the payment of the poor rate, be deemed a payment of such rate in respect of the period to which such instalment applies.

16. If the occupier assessed in the rate when made shall cease to occupy before the rate Provision for successive occupiers, and for occupiers coming into unoccupied
hereditaments.
 shall have been wholly discharged, or if the hereditament being unoccupied at the time of the making of the rate become occupied during the period for which the rate is made, the overseers shall enter in the rate book the name of the person who succeeds or comes into the occupation, as the case may be, and the date when such occupation commences, so far as the same shall be known to them, and such occupier shall thenceforth be deemed to have been actually rated from the date so entered by the overseer, and shall be liable to pay so much of the rate as shall be proportionate to the time between the commencement of his occupation and the expiration of the period for which the rate was made, in like manner, and with the like remedy of appeal, as if he had been rated when the rate was made; and an outgoing occupier shall remain liable in like manner for so much and no more of the rate as is proportionate to the time of his occupation within the period for which the rate was made ⁽¹⁾; [and the twelfth section of the statute 17 Geo. II. c. 38, shall be repealed ⁽²⁾.]

17. A poor rate shall be deemed to be made on the day when it is allowed by the justices, and When the poor rate shall be deemed to be made.
 if the justices sever in their allowance then on the day of the last allowance.

18. The production of the book purporting to contain a poor rate, with the allowance of the rate by the justices, shall, if the rate is made in the form prescribed by law, be prima facie evidence of the due making and publication of such rate.

⁽¹⁾ By the Poor Rate Assessment and Collection Amendment Act, 1832, 45 & 46 Vict. c.
 20, s. 3, the provisions of the above section so far as regards payment of rates by an outgoing occupier shall extend and apply to any outgoing occupier assessed in the rate, and such outgoing occupier shall only be liable to pay so much of the rate as shall be proportionate to the time of his occupation within the period for which the rate was made, notwithstanding he may not be succeeded in his occupation by an incoming tenant.

⁽²⁾ The words within brackets are repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1883, but this does not revive the former enactment.

Secs. 19, 20.

Evidence of making and publication of rates.

Overseers to insert names of all occupiers in the rate.

Penalty for omission.

Saving of franchises.

Interpretation of terms.

19. The overseers in making out the poor rate shall, in every case, whether the rate is collected from the owner or occupier, or the owner is liable to the payment of the rate instead of the occupier, enter in the occupiers column of the rate book the name of the occupier of every rateable hereditament, and such occupier shall be deemed to be duly rated for any qualification or franchise as aforesaid; and if any overseer negligently or wilfully and without reasonable cause omits the name of the occupier of any rateable hereditament from the rate, or negligently or wilfully misstates any name therein, such overseer shall for every such omission or misstatement be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding two pounds; Provided that any occupier whose name has been omitted shall, notwithstanding such omission and that no claim to be rated has been made by him, be entitled to every qualification and franchise depending upon rating, in the same manner as if his name had not been so omitted (¹).

20. The word "overseer" shall include every authority that makes an assessment for the poor rate; the words "poor rate" shall mean the assessment for the relief of the poor, and for the other purposes chargeable thereon according to law, and in the metropolis shall extend to every rate made by the overseers, and chargeable upon the same property as the poor rate; the word "owner" shall mean any person receiving or claiming the rent of the hereditament for his own use, or receiving the same for the use of any corporation aggregate, or of any public company, or of any landlord or lessee who shall be a minor, a married woman, or insane, or for the use of any person for whom he is acting as agent; the word "parish" shall signify every place for which a separate overseer can be appointed; the word "vestry" shall include not only the vestry of a parish existing under the authority of some general or special Act of Parliament, or by special custom or otherwise, but also the meeting of the inhabitants of any township, vill, or place having a separate overseer, and for which a separate poor rate is made, held after notice given in like manner as is required by law in regard to the meetings of vestries; and the word "metropolis" shall include only the metropolis as defined by the Metropolis Management Act, 1855.

RATING ACT, 1874.

37 & 38 VICT. c. 54.

An Act to amend the Law respecting the Liability and Valuation of certain Property for the purpose of Rates. [7th August, 1874.]

Secs. 1—4.

Short title.

Extent of Act.

Abolition of certain exemptions from rating.

1. This Act may be cited as "The Rating Act, 1874."

2. This Act shall not apply to Scotland or Ireland.

3. Whereas by the Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, chapter two, intituled "An Act for the relief of the Poor," it is provided that a poor rate shall be raised in every parish by taxation of, amongst other persons, every occupier of certain hereditaments in such parish; and it is expedient to extend the said Act, and the Acts amending the same (which Act and Acts are in this Act referred to as the Poor Rate Acts), to hereditaments other than those mentioned in the said Act: Be it therefore enacted that,—

From and after the commencement of this Act the Poor Rate Acts shall extend to the following hereditaments in like manner as if they were mentioned in the recited Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth; that is to say,

(1.) To land used for a plantation or a wood or for the growth of saleable underwood, and not subject to any right of common;

(2.) To rights of fowling, of shooting, of taking or killing game or rabbits, and of fishing, when severed from the occupation of the land; and

(3.) To mines of every kind not mentioned in the recited Act.

4. The gross and rateable value of any land used for a plantation or a wood, or for the growth of saleable underwood, shall be estimated as follows:—

(a.) If the land is used only for a plantation or a wood, the value shall be estimated as if the land instead of being a plantation or a wood were let and occupied in its natural and unimproved state:

(b.) If the land is used for the growth of saleable underwood, the value shall be estimated as if the land were let for that purpose:

Valuation of land used as plantation, &c.

(¹) See now the Parliamentary and Municipal Registration Act, 1878, 41 & 42 Vict. c. 26, s. 14.

- (c.) If the land is used both for a plantation or a wood and for the growth of saleable under-wood, the value shall be estimated either as if the land were used only for a plantation or a wood, or as if the land were used only for the growth of the saleable underwood growing thereon, as the assessment committee may determine. Secs. 4—7.

5. Where the rateable value of any land used for a plantation or a wood, or both for a plantation or wood and for the growth of saleable underwood, is increased by reason of the same being estimated in accordance with this Act, the occupier of that land under any lease or agreement made before the commencement of this Act, may, during the continuance of the lease or agreement, deduct from his rent any poor or other local rate or any portion thereof, which is paid by him in respect of such increase of rateable value, and every assessment committee, on the application of such occupier, shall certify in the valuation list or otherwise the fact and amount of such increase. Deduction of rate by tenant of plantation, &c.

6. (1.) Where any right of fowling, or of shooting, or of taking or killing game or rabbits, or of fishing (hereinafter referred to as a right of sporting) is severed from the occupation of the land and is not let, and the owner of such right receives rent for the land, the said right shall not be separately valued or rated, but the gross and rateable value of the land shall be estimated as if the said right were not severed; and in such case if the rateable value is increased by reason of its being so estimated, but not otherwise, the occupier of the land may (unless he has specifically contracted to pay such rate in the event of an increase) deduct from his rent such portion of any poor or other local rate as is paid by him in respect of such increase; and every assessment committee, on the application of the occupier, shall certify in the valuation list or otherwise the fact and amount of such increase. Valuation and rateable value of rights of shooting, &c.
- (2.) Where any right of sporting, when severed from the occupation of the land, is let, either the owner or the lessee thereof, according as the persons making the rate determine, may be rated as the occupier thereof ⁽¹⁾.
- (3.) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, the owner of any right of sporting, when severed from the occupation of the land, may be rated as the occupier thereof.
- (4.) For the purposes of this section, the person who, if the right of sporting is not let, is entitled to exercise the right, or who, if the right is let, is entitled to receive the rent for the same, shall be deemed to be the owner of the right.

7. Where a tin, lead, or copper mine is occupied under a lease or leases granted without fine on a reservation, wholly or partly of dues or rent, the gross value of the mine shall be taken to be the annual amount of the whole of the dues payable in respect thereof during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December preceding the date at which the valuation list is made, in addition to the annual amount of any fixed rent reserved for the same which may not be paid or satisfied by such dues. Gross and rateable value, of tin, lead, and copper mines.

The rateable annual value of such mine shall be the same as the gross value thereof, except that where the person receiving the dues or rent is liable for repairs, insurance, or other expenses necessary to maintain the mine in a state to command the annual amount of dues or rent, the average annual cost of the repairs, insurance, and other expenses for which he is so liable shall be deducted from the gross value for the purpose of calculating the rateable value.

In the following cases, namely,—

- (1.) Where any such mine is occupied under a lease granted wholly or partly on a fine; and
- (2.) Where any such mine is occupied and worked by the owner; and
- (3.) In the case of any other such mine which is not excepted from the provisions of this Act and to which the foregoing provisions of this section do not apply;

the gross and rateable annual value of the mine shall be taken to be the annual amount of the dues or dues and rent at which the mine might be reasonably expected to let without fine on a lease of the ordinary duration, according to the usage of the country, if the tenant undertook to pay all tenants rates and taxes and tithe rentcharge, and also the repairs, insurance, and other expenses necessary to maintain the mine in a state to command such annual amount of dues or dues and rent.

The purser, secretary, and chief managing agent for the time being of any tin, lead, or copper mine, or any of them, may, if the overseers or other rating authority think fit, be rated as the occupier thereof.

In this section—

The term "mine," when a mine is occupied under a lease, includes the underground workings and the engines, machinery, workshops, tramways, and other plant, buildings

⁽¹⁾ See Kenrick v. Guilsfield (Overseers), L. R. 5 C. P. D. 41, 49 L. J. M. C. 27, 41 L. T. N. S. 624, 28 W. R. 372, 44 J. P. 202.

Secs. 7—14.

(not being dwelling-houses), and works and surface of land occupied in connexion with and for the purposes of the mine, and situate within the boundaries of the land comprised in the lease or leases under which the dues or dues and rent are payable or reserved:

The term "dues" means dues, royalty, or toll, either in money or partly in money and partly in kind; and the amount of dues which are reserved in kind means the value of such dues:

The term "lease" means lease or sett, or license to work, or agreement for a lease or sett, or license to work:

The term "fine" means fine, premium, or foregift, or other payment or consideration in the nature thereof.

Deduction of rate by tenant of mine.

8. Where any poor or other local rate which at the commencement of this Act any lessee, licensee, or grantee of a mine is exempt from being rated to in respect of such mine, becomes payable by him in respect of such mine during the continuance of his lease, grant, or license, or before the arrival of the period at which the amount of the rent, royalty, or dues is liable to revision or re-adjustment, he may (unless he has specifically contracted to pay such rate⁽¹⁾ in the event of the abolition of the said exemption) deduct from any rent, royalty, or dues payable by him one half of any such rate paid by him:

Provided that he shall not deduct any sum exceeding what one half of the rate in the pound of such poor or other local rate would amount to if calculated upon the rent, royalty, or dues so payable by him.

General provision as to deduction of rates.

9. Where any occupier, lessee, licensee, grantee, or other person is authorised by this Act to deduct any rate or sum in respect of a rate from any rent, royalty, or dues payable by him, then—

(1.) Any payment so authorised to be deducted shall be a good discharge for such amount of rent, royalty, or dues as is equal to the amount of such payment, and shall be allowed accordingly.

(2.) Any payment so authorised to be deducted may be recovered as an ordinary debt from the person to whom the rent, royalty, or dues may be payable.

(3.) The person receiving the rent, royalty, or dues shall have the same right of appeal and objection with reference to the rate and to the valuation of the hereditament in respect of which the rate is payable as he would have if he were the occupier of such hereditament.

Liability of property to local rates as well as poor rates.
Commencement of Act.

10. After the commencement of this Act, the hereditaments to which the Poor Rate Acts are extended by this Act, and which are thus made rateable to the relief of the poor, shall be rateable to all local rates in like manner as if the Poor Rate Acts had always extended to such hereditaments.

11. This Act, for the purpose of enabling any hereditament to be included in or omitted from or valued for the purposes of a valuation list or a supplemental or provisional valuation list which will come into force after the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, shall come into operation on the passing thereof; but save as aforesaid, or as is otherwise expressly provided by this Act, shall come into operation on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five; and the expression "commencement of this Act" shall in this Act be construed accordingly.

As to provisions of Sanitary Acts as defined by 35 & 36 Vict.
c. 79.

12. The provisions of the Sanitary Acts, as defined by the Public Health Act, 1872, with respect to any special assessment of wood lands for the purpose of any rate under those Acts shall be deemed to extend to and include land used for a plantation or a wood, or for the growth of saleable underwood, or for both such purposes, and made rateable by this Act to the poor rate⁽²⁾.

Saving as to mine where dues payable in kind.

13. Nothing in this Act shall apply to a mine of which the royalty or dues are for the time being wholly reserved in kind, or to the owner or occupier thereof⁽³⁾.

Repeal of 43 Eliz. c. 2, as to saleable
underwood.

14. So much of the Act of the forty-third year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, chapter two⁽⁴⁾, intituled "An Act for the relief of the poor," as relates to the taxation of an occupier of saleable underwoods is hereby repealed as from the date at which the provisions of this Act with respect to the taxation of occupiers of land used for the growth of saleable underwood come into operation.

Provided that this repeal shall not affect anything duly done or suffered before the said date, or any right acquired or liability accrued before the said date, or any legal proceeding or remedy

(1) See Chaloner v. Bolckow, L. R. 3 App. Cas. 933, 47 L. J. C. P. 562, 39 L. T. N. S. 134, 26 W. R. 541; Devonshire (Duke) v. Barrow Hematite Steel Co., L. R. 2 Q. B. D. 286, 46 L. J. Q. B. 435, 36 L. T. N. S. 355, 25 W. R. 469.

(2) See the Public Health Act, 1875, section 313, ante, p. 215.

(3) Van Mining Co. v. Llanidloes (Overseers), L. R. 1 Ex. D. 310, 45 L. J. M. C. 138, 34 L. T. N. S. 692.

(4) See note (3), ante, p. 799.

in respect of any such right or liability, and every such legal proceeding or remedy may be carried on and enforced in like manner as if this repeal had not been enacted ⁽¹⁾. Secs. 14, 15.

15. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

The term "gross value" has the same meaning as gross estimated rental in the Union Assessment Committee Act, 1862 :

The term "local rate" means any county rate, borough rate, highway rate, and other local rate leviable upon property rateable to the relief of the poor :

The term "valuation list" means, as regards any parish or place for which there is no valuation list, the poor rate :

The term "assessment committee" means, in relation to any parish or place where there is no assessment committee, the persons having power to make and assess the poor rate in such parish or place.

Definitions of terms (see sect. 15 of 25 & 26 Vict.
c. 103).

⁽¹⁾ This section is itself repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1883, but the earlier Act is not thereby revived.

STATUTES RELATING TO POOR LAW.

THE POOR LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1844.

7 & 8 VICT. c. 101.

An Act for the further amendment of the Laws relating to the Poor in England.

[9th August, 1844.]

Section 32. 32. [It shall be lawful for the said commissioners from time to time by order under their hands and seal to combine the parishes and unions in England and Wales into districts for the audit of accounts, and from time to time to add any parish or union to any such district or separate any parish or union therefrom ⁽¹⁾] and the chairman and vice-chairman of each board of guardians constituted under the said first recited Act ⁽²⁾ or any other Act, or if there be no chairman or vice-chairman of any guardians constituted under any other Act, then some two of their number to be selected by such last mentioned guardians or if there be no such body then some two of the overseers, to be selected by the overseers respectively acting within the district shall elect at the time and in the manner to be prescribed by the said commissioners a person to be the auditor of the district, but in any case in which there are two vice-chairmen appointed in any board of guardians, such board of guardians shall select one of the vice-chairmen who shall vote in the election of such auditor, and the said commissioners shall have all the powers with regard to the salaries of the said auditors to be charged on the poor rates, and to all other matters relating to auditors for such districts as they have under the said first recited Act with regard to paid officers, and every auditor appointed for such a district shall have full powers to examine, audit, allow or disallow of accounts and of items therein relating to moneys assessed for and applicable to the relief of the poor of all parishes and unions within his district, and to all other money applicable to such relief, and such auditor shall charge in every account audited by him the amount of any deficiency or loss incurred by the negligence or misconduct of any person accounting or of any sum for which any such person is accountable but not brought by him into account against such person and shall certify on the face of every account audited by him any money, books, deeds, papers, goods or chattels found by him to be due from any person, and when any such auditor has so certified any money, books, deeds, papers, goods or chattels, to be due from any person he shall forthwith report the same to the said commissioners, and the person from whom any money is so certified to be due shall within seven days pay or cause to be paid such money to the treasurer of the guardians of the union or parish if there be any such treasurer; and in the case of a union such money shall be applied by the guardians to the use of all or any of the parishes included in such union according as all or any of such parishes may be interested in the sum so paid, and all books, deeds, papers, goods and chattels, and in the case where there is no treasurer as aforesaid, all moneys so certified to be due shall be delivered over or paid within seven days of the same being certified to the person or persons authorised to receive the same, and if any such money, books, deeds, papers, goods or chattels, be not duly paid or delivered over ⁽¹⁾ Repealed by 42 Vict. c. 6, s. 11.

⁽²⁾ 4 & 5 Will. IV. c. 76, repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1875,

Secs. 32-35.

as hereinbefore directed, the said auditor or any auditor subsequently appointed shall proceed as soon as may be to enforce the payment or delivering over of the same; and all moneys so certified to be due by such auditor shall be recoverable as so certified from all or any of the persons making or authorising the illegal payment or otherwise answerable for such moneys and shall be recovered on the application of such auditor or of any such auditor subsequently appointed or by any person for the time being entitled or authorised to receive the same, in the same manner as penalties and forfeitures may be recovered under the provisions of the said first recited Act and the expenses attending such proceeding or recovery shall (except so far as the same may be paid by the person against whom the proceedings have been taken) be repaid to such auditor by the guardians of the parish or union or by the district board of the district to which the proceedings may respectively relate and shall be charged in their accounts in such manner and in such proportions as the said commissioners may direct, and if any person from whom any such books, deeds, papers, goods or chattels, may be due, neglect or refuse to deliver over the same to the person for the time being entitled or authorised to receive the same, the person so neglecting or refusing shall be liable on the complaint of any such auditor for the time being or of the person entitled or authorised to receive the same, to the penalties and proceedings provided in the case of overseers refusing or neglecting to pay and deliver over to their successors any sum or sums of money, goods, chattels, and other things in their hands, and any churchwarden, surveyor of the highways, overseer, or other officer of a parish or union who shall wilfully authorise or make an illegal or fraudulent payment from the church rate, highway rate, or other public fund of a parish or union, or shall unlawfully make any entry in his accounts for the purpose of defraying or making up to himself or any other person the whole or any part of any sum of money unlawfully expended from the poor rate or disallowed or surcharged in the accounts of any parish or union by such auditor shall upon conviction thereof before any two justices forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding twenty pounds and also treble the amount of such payment or of the sum so entered in his accounts.

33. Seven clear days at least before the day fixed for the audit of accounts the overseers or other officers employed in any parish in carrying the laws for the relief of the poor into execution and every collector or assistant overseer acting for such parish shall cause their rate books and other accounts to be made up and balanced; and the books so made up shall forthwith be deposited at the house within the parish of some one of such overseers or other officers or of such collector or assistant overseer or at some other house within the parish, and notice shall forthwith be affixed at the usual place or places of giving parish notices stating the time and place of audit as notified by the auditor and the place where the books are deposited, and such books shall on each of such days be open between the hours of eleven and three for the inspection of every person liable to be rated to the relief of the poor; and such auditor shall give or send by post or otherwise to the said overseers or other officers fourteen days notice of the said audit, but it shall not be necessary for the auditor to give or send separate notices to each of such overseers or other officers, and it shall be sufficient if it be proved that any one of them had notice, and if any such overseer or other officer, collector, or assistant overseer, neglect to make up such account or alter such account or allow it to be altered when so made up or refuse to allow such inspection thereof he shall be liable, on conviction thereof, to forfeit forty shillings, and if any such overseer or other officer, collector, or assistant overseer, refuse or wilfully neglect to affix such notice of audit and of the time and place for the inspection of such accounts as above provided, he shall be liable, on conviction thereof, to forfeit forty shillings, and it shall be lawful for every ratepayer in any parish or union to be present at the audit of the accounts relating to such parish or union, and to make any objection to any such accounts before such auditor, and it shall be lawful for any such auditor to require any person holding or accountable for any money, books, deeds, papers, goods or chattels, relating to the poor's rate or the relief of the poor to produce to such auditor his accounts and vouchers, and to make or sign a declaration with respect to such accounts, and so often as such person neglects or refuses to attend either at the audit or any adjournment thereof when so required by such auditor, or to produce to him such accounts or vouchers or any of them, or to make or sign a declaration with respect to his accounts if thereunto required by such auditor, he shall be liable for every such refusal or neglect to forfeit forty shillings, to be recovered as penalties and forfeitures under the said first recited Act, or if he wilfully make or sign a false declaration in respect of such accounts he shall be liable to the penalties of, perjury.

35. If any person aggrieved by any allowance, disallowance or surcharge by any such auditor require such auditor to state the reasons for the said allowance, disallowance or surcharge, the auditor shall state such reasons in writing in the book of account in which the allowance, disallowance or surcharge may be made, and it shall be lawful for every person aggrieved by such allowance and for every person aggrieved by such disallowance or surcharge, if such last mentioned person have first paid or delivered over to any person authorised to

Secs. 35, 36. receive the same, all such money, goods and chattels, as are admitted by his account to be due from him or remaining in his hands, to apply to the court of Queen's Bench for a writ of certiorari to remove into the said court the said allowance, disallowance or surcharge, in the like manner and subject to the like conditions as are provided in respect of persons suing forth writs of certiorari for the removal of orders of justices of the peace, except that the condition of such recognizance shall be to prosecute such certiorari at the costs and charges of such person without any wilful or affected delay, and if such allowance, disallowance or surcharge be confirmed to pay to such auditor or his successor within one month after the same may be confirmed his full costs and charges to be taxed according to the course of the said court, and except that the notice of the intended application, which shall contain a statement of the matter complained of, shall be given to such auditor or his successor, who shall in return to such writ return a copy under his hand of the entry or entries in such book of account to which such notice shall refer and shall appear before the said court, and defend the allowance, disallowance or surcharge, so impeached in the said court, and shall be reimbursed all such costs and charges as he may incur in such defence out of the poor rates of the union or parish respectively interested in the decision of the question, unless the said court make any order to the contrary, and that on the removal of such allowance, disallowance or surcharge, the said court shall decide the particular matter of complaint set forth in such statement and no other, and if it appear to such court that the decision of the said auditor was erroneous they shall by rule of the court order such sum of money as may have been improperly allowed, disallowed or surcharged, to be paid to the party entitled thereto by the party who ought to repay or discharge the same, and they may also, if they see fit, by rule of the court order the costs of the person prosecuting such certiorari to be paid by the parish or union to which such accounts relate as to such court may seem fit, which rules of court respectively shall be enforced in like manner as other rules of the said court are enforceable.

36. Provided always and be it enacted that it shall be lawful for any person aggrieved as aforesaid by any allowance, disallowance or surcharge, in lieu of making application to the court of Queen's Bench for a writ of certiorari, to apply to the said commissioners to inquire into and decide upon the lawfulness of the reasons stated by the auditor for such allowance, disallowance or surcharge, and it shall thereupon be lawful for the said commissioners to issue such order therein under their hands and seal as they may deem requisite for determining the question.

PAROCHIAL DEBT AND POOR LAW AUDIT ACT, 1848.

11 & 12 VICT. c. 91.

An Act to make Provision for the Payment of Parish Debts, the Audit of Parochial and Union Accounts, and the Allowance of certain Charges therein. [31st August, 1848.]

Secs. 3—5. 3. [Parties who have advanced money on behalf of unions and parishes to be reimbursed : 4 & 5 Will. IV. c. 76 (1).]

Appeal against disallowances and surcharges may be determined by the Poor Law Board on the merits, and such disallowances, &c., may be remitted in certain cases.

Mode of certifying as to balances to officers.

4. Where any appeal shall be made to the said commissioners against any allowance, disallowance, or surcharge made by any auditor in the accounts of any guardians, overseers, or their officers, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners to decide the same according to the merits of the case ; and if they shall find that any disallowance or surcharge shall have been or shall be lawfully made, but that the subject-matter thereof was incurred under such circumstances as make it fair and equitable that the disallowance or surcharge should be remitted, they may, by an order under their seal, direct that the same shall be remitted, upon payment of the costs, if any, which may have been incurred by the auditor or other competent authority in the enforcing of such disallowance or surcharge (2).

5. Where any overseer or officer shall be continuing in office at the time when the accounts are audited, the auditor shall certify as due such sums of money only as shall be disallowed or surcharged by him in the accounts so audited ; but where the term of office of such overseer or officer shall have expired at the time when the accounts are audited, he shall ascertain the balance which he shall find to be then due on the accounts so audited, together with the sums (if any) which he shall have disallowed or surcharged, and shall give credit for all sums which shall be proved before him to have been paid in respect of such balance to the succeeding over-

(1) Repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

(2) The remission need not now be by order : Poor Law Amendment Act, 1866, 29 & 30 Vict. c. 113, s. 5, post, p. 1367.

seers or officers, or otherwise lawfully applied on behalf of the parish or union interested therein, before the date of his audit, and he shall certify, report, and recover, in the manner provided by law, the balance remaining due after such credit shall have been given; and every certificate made by any auditor, if made according to the forms set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, or to the like effect, shall be deemed to be sufficient: Provided always, that where the sum, or the aggregate of the sums, disallowed by the auditor in the account of any officer, shall not amount to forty shillings, the same may be paid over with the balance due from such officer, instead of being paid to the treasurer.

Secs. 5-10.

7. In addition to the notices now required by law to be given by the auditor, he shall also give notice by advertisement in some newspaper circulating in the county wherein the union or the greater part of it, or, in the case of a parish not comprised in a union, wherein such parish shall be situated, a reasonable time prior to the holding of his audit; and the production of a copy of such newspaper shall in all courts and for all purposes be deemed sufficient evidence of the notice of the audit; and, except where a party, not being an officer bound to account to the auditor, shall be surcharged by such auditor, it shall not be necessary to prove that the audit of any accounts was adjourned, and that notice of any such adjourned audit was given.

Notice of audit to be advertised.

8. If an auditor shall see cause to surcharge any person now liable by law to be surcharged by him, and to whom no notice is now required by law to be given, with any sum of money in reference to any payment considered by him to have been illegally or improperly made, he shall, if the person be not present at such audit, cause notice in writing of his intention to make such surcharge to be given, by post or otherwise, to the person against whom he shall propose to make this surcharge, addressed to him at his last known place of abode, and shall adjourn the audit, so far as it shall relate to such particular matter, for a sufficient time to allow of such person appearing before him, and showing cause against such surcharge, and at such time the said auditor shall hear the party, if present, and determine according to the law and justice of the case.

As to proceedings necessary to be taken against persons now liable to be surcharged by auditor, and to whom no notice is required to be given.

9. In any proceedings to be taken by an auditor, or by his attorney, before justices, to recover sums certified by him to be due, it shall be sufficient for him to produce a certificate of his appointment under the seal of the Poor Law Commissioners, or of the commissioners aforesaid, and to state and prove that the audit was held, that the certificate was made in the book of account of the union or parish to which the same relates, and that the sum certified to be due had not been paid to the treasurer of the guardians of the union or of the parish, as the case may require, within seven days after the same had been so certified, nor within three clear days before the laying of the information, of which non-payment a certificate in writing, purporting to be signed by the treasurer, shall be sufficient proof on the part of the auditor; and if at the hearing of such information it shall be proved that the said sum had been paid to the treasurer subsequently to the date of such last-mentioned certificate, the costs incurred by such auditor shall be paid by the party against whom the information shall be laid, unless he prove that notice of such payment had been given to the auditor twenty-four hours at least prior to the laying of the information.

What shall be required to be proved by auditors in order to recover sums certified by them to be due.

10. The said commissioners may at any time, upon sufficient cause being shown to them, authorise any person, selected by the auditor, to act temporarily as his deputy, and shall communicate to the several unions and places forming his district the name of the person so appointed to act as his deputy, and such person shall thereupon be empowered to act in all respects, and with the same authorities, and subject to the same duties and liabilities as the auditor himself is entitled or subject to.

Auditor may upon cause being shown appoint a deputy.

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

Schedule.

FORMS OF CERTIFICATES.

1. Against an Accounting Officer.

I do hereby certify, that in the account of A.B., the [set out the name of the office] of the parish of [or of the union], I have disallowed [or surcharged] the sum of

As witness my hand, this day of , 1848.

M. N.,

Auditor of the district, which comprises the above-named parish or union.

Schedule.2. Against a Person not an Accounting Officer.

I do hereby certify, that in the accounts of the _____ union [or of the parish of _____]
] I have disallowed the sum of £ _____ as a payment illegally made out of the funds of such union [or parish] and I find that C.D. of _____ authorised the making of such illegal payment, and I do hereby surcharge the said C.D. with the same.
 As witness my hand, this _____ day of _____, 1848.

M. N.,
 Auditor of the _____ district, which comprises the above-named union or parish.

POOR LAW UNION CHARGES ACT AMENDMENT ACT, 1849.

12 & 13 VICT. c. 103.

An Act to continue an Act of the last Session of Parliament, for charging the maintenance of certain Poor Persons in Unions upon the Common Fund; and to make certain Amendments in the Laws for the Relief of the Poor. [1st August, 1849.]

Secs. 7—11.

Recovery of contributions when copy of the order served upon one overseer.

Certain limitation in 11 & 12 Vict.
 c. 43, not to apply to proceedings by auditors.

In proceedings for penalties and forfeitures under Act 5 Will. 4, or any subsequent statute, full costs to be allowed.

Auditors
 may recover costs of proceedings to enforce due attendance at the audit.

7. Where the guardians of any union or parish shall make any order for the payment of money upon overseers or other officers of any parish upon whom they are empowered by law to make it, and a copy of such order shall be served upon any one of such overseers or other officers, it shall be lawful for the said guardians to enforce such order against the person so served as fully and as effectually as if a copy thereof had been also served upon every one of such overseers or other officers.

8. [On vacancy in the office of auditor, Poor Law Board to appoint a temporary auditor to audit accounts incomplete (¹).]

9. [After reciting the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1848, 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43, and that doubts have arisen whether it applies to proceedings by auditors to recover sums, proceeds] nothing in the provision of the said Act herein recited shall be deemed to apply to any such proceeding by any auditor, but that no auditor shall commence any such proceeding after the lapse of nine calendar months from the disallowance or surcharge by such auditor, or, in the event of an application by way of appeal against the same to the Court of Queen's Bench or to the Poor Law Board, after the lapse of nine calendar months from the determination thereupon.

10. In the case of the prosecution of any information, or the proceeding for any penalty or forfeiture, or for enforcing any order under the said statute of the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, or of any subsequent statute incorporated therewith, where judgment shall be given against the defendant, and the justices shall order or direct such defendant to pay the costs, such costs shall, in addition to other costs lawfully chargeable, include all such costs and expenses incurred in respect of such prosecution or the laying of such information, or the preferring of the complaint, or the making of the application, and the attendance of the party, or his counsel or attorney, and the summoning and attendance of the witnesses required to prove the case, as the justices shall think fit to allow, and find to have been reasonably and properly incurred.

11. Where any auditor shall lay any information for a penalty in consequence of the default of any officer or other person to attend the audit, or the adjournment thereof, or to produce the proper account or vouchers, or to make or sign the proper declaration before him, the costs incurred by such auditor, when not recovered from the defendant in such information, shall, if the Poor Law Board consent thereto, be payable to such auditor, and be chargeable in like manner as the costs incurred by an auditor in enforcing the payment of sums certified by him to be due.

(¹) Repealed by District Auditors Act, 1879, 42 Vict. c. 6, s. 11, ante, pp. 1248, 1249.

POOR LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1866.

29 & 30 VICT. c. 113.

An Act to amend the Act providing Superannuation Allowances to Officers of Unions and Parishes, and to make other amendments in the Laws relating to the Relief of the Poor.

[10th August, 1866.]

5. So much of the fourth section of the statute of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-one, as requires the Poor Law Board to issue an order under their seal in cases where they direct any surcharge or disallowance made by an auditor to be remitted, shall be repealed; and such direction, if given in writing under the hand of the president of the said Board, and countersigned by a secretary or assistant-secretary, shall have the same effect as if such direction were given by such an order as aforesaid. Secs. 5—18.

Remission of surcharges and disallowances need not be made by order under seal.

6. When the Poor Law Board shall require an auditor to hold an extraordinary audit of the accounts of any guardians or overseers, or of any officer, whether still continuing or upon his resignation or removal from office, such audit shall be deemed to be an audit within the meaning of the several Acts relating to the audit of the accounts of the poor rate, and may be held after three days notice thereof given in the usual manner. Effect of an extraordinary audit.

7. The auditor who shall be authorised to audit the accounts of any guardians, overseers, or officers may at any time, when authorised or required by the Poor Law Board so to do, inspect the accounts and books of account of any guardians, overseer, or any officer liable to account to him; and any such guardian, overseer, or officer who shall thereupon refuse to allow him to inspect the same, or shall obstruct him in such inspection, or shall conceal any such account or book for the purpose of preventing such inspection, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five pounds, to be recovered as a penalty under the statute of the fourth and fifth of King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-six, and to be applied to the use of the parish or union for which such guardian, overseer, or officer respectively shall act. Auditor empowered to inspect books at any time.

18. In all statutes, except there shall be something in the context inconsistent herewith, the word "parish" shall, among other meanings applicable to it, signify a place for which a separate poor rate is or can be made, or for which a separate overseer is or can be appointed, and all the other words used herein shall be construed in the like manner as in the said statute passed in the fourth and fifth years of King William the Fourth; and the provisions contained therein and in the subsequent statutes explaining and extending the same, and not repealed, shall, so far as they shall be consistent herewith, be extended to this statute. Interpretation of terms, and consolidation of the Acts.

DIVIDED PARISHES AND POOR LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1876.

39 & 40 VICT. c. 61.

An Act to provide for the better arrangement of divided Parishes and other local areas, and to make sundry amendments in the Law relating to the Relief of the Poor in England.

[15th August, 1876.]

1. Where any parish shall be divided so as to have its parts or any of them isolated in some other parish or parishes or otherwise detached, the Local Government Board may, as and when they shall see fit, after local inquiry to be held upon notice duly given to the clerk of the peace of the county or counties in which the parts of the parish are situated, and in the parishes to be affected in the manner prescribed or usually adopted therein for the publication of parochial notices, make an order, to take effect at the expiration of some period not less than three months from the day when a copy of such order shall have been sent to the overseers, either for con- Secs. 1—4.

The Local Government Board may make provision for divided parishes.

Secs. 1—11.

stituting separate parishes out of the divided parish or for amalgamating some of the parts thereof with the parish or parishes in which the same may be locally included, or to which they may be annexed, as shall appear to such board to be most convenient, and providing where requisite for a change of the county of the parish or part of a parish ⁽¹⁾.

If one-tenth of ratepayers object, the order shall be provisional only.

2. If one tenth in number and rateable value of the persons appearing on the rate in force for the time being to be rated to the relief of the poor in any parish affected by such order shall give notice to the Local Government Board in writing of objection to the same, within three months after copies of such order shall have been sent to the overseers of the parishes affected thereby, the order shall be deemed to be a Provisional Order only, and shall be dealt with accordingly.

State of parishes after new order.

3. From and after the twenty-fifth day of March next ensuing the day when such order, if not objected to, shall take effect, and in the case of a Provisional Order next ensuing the date of the Act of Parliament confirming the same, the several parts of every parish to which such order shall apply, shall be and continue to be constituted in the manner directed by the said order, and the officers of the several parishes affected thereby shall be empowered and shall be required to act as if such parishes had been constituted in the manner directed prior to the issue of such order.

Ecclesiastical divisions and municipal boundaries not to be affected.

4. Nothing herein contained shall apply to the ecclesiastical divisions of parishes, nor to the constitution of school districts, without the sanction of the Education Department, or shall alter the boundaries of any municipal borough, and for the purposes of the election of members of Parliament and of burgesses in municipal boroughs, of the jury lists, of the action of the justices, and of the police and constables, the parishes shall continue to be deemed unaltered until new lists are made and new constables are appointed.

Provision for highway district.

5. Where a parish affected by the order shall be included in a highway district, its condition therein and the appointment of the waywarden thereof shall be changed according to the terms of the order, whether its area or contents be diminished or increased thereby ⁽²⁾.

Overseers to be appointed for the parish so created.

6. Every parish constituted under this Act by the order of the Local Government Board shall, notwithstanding the prohibition as to the appointment of overseers contained in the twenty-second section of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1844, be a parish for which an overseer shall be appointed, and for all other lay and civil purposes to which a parish may be liable or entitled.

The meeting of inhabitants of the same qualified as in the case of any ordinary parish shall be deemed the vestry meeting thereof, and the rector, vicar, or perpetual curate having cure of souls in the greater part thereof shall, when present, be the chairman thereof, unless the Local Government Board shall determine in their order which of such incumbents shall be such chairman, and all the documents of the respective parishes shall be deposited and kept in such place as the Local Government Board by their order shall appoint.

Provision for compensation.

7. If any person shall be deprived of any office or employment, or if his profits in respect thereof shall be diminished under or by reason of any provision of this Act, the Local Government Board may, if they see fit, award by their order a compensation to him, according to their judgment, to be paid out of such fund and in such manner as shall appear to them to be equitable.

Adjustment to be made of property and debts.

8. The said Board shall make due adjustment of the property, if any, and of the debts or liabilities of the parishes among the several parts thereof according to the alterations caused by the order, and the arrears of rates due at the time when the order takes effect shall be recovered by the overseers or other officers properly competent to do so, and from the persons liable, as if there had been no alteration, and the justices, who shall make a county rate upon any such parishes before a new basis for the same shall be established, shall make due provision therein for the alterations aforesaid.

Provided that no person shall be liable to any rate made in the parish to which the part of the parish wherein his land or premises shall be situated may be added before the said twenty-fifth day of March.

Endowments for benefit of divided parish not to be affected.

9. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice, vary, or affect any right, interest, or jurisdiction in or over any charitable endowment which now is, or hereafter shall be, applicable for the benefit of a divided parish, as defined by section one of this Act, or the inhabitants thereof.

Local Government Board under certain

11 If it shall appear to the Local Government Board that it is expedient for rectifying or simplifying the areas of management or otherwise for the better administration of the relief of

(1) See now the Poor Law Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 54, ss. 4, 5, 6, post, and the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1882, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 58, ss. 2, 3, 4, post.

(2) See now the Poor Law Act, 1879, 42 & 43 Vict. c. 54, s. 7, post, and the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1882, 45 & 46 Vict. c. 58, s. 6, post.

the poor that any union, whether formed under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, or otherwise, should be dissolved, the said board may, after inquiry held in some one of the unions to be affected, after public notice, so that all persons interested in the same may attend and be heard thereat, issue their order for the dissolution of any such union, and such dissolution shall have the same effect and be attended with the same consequences as in the case of a union dissolved under the provisions of the said Act of 1834.

Secs. 11-38.

circumstances may dissolve a union.

12. [The nineteenth section of the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1844, shall be repealed ⁽¹⁾,] and the Local Government Board may by their order divide any parish into wards for the election of guardians, and determine the number of guardians to be elected for every such ward, having due regard to the value of the rateable property therein; and each such ward shall for the purposes of such election be deemed to be a separate parish, except so far as the said Board may otherwise order.

Division of parish into wards for election of guardians.

13. The Local Government Board may, when they see fit, by their order change the name of any union and direct how such change of name shall be published; no such change of name shall affect any rights or obligations of, or securities given by or to the said union, or render defective any legal proceedings instituted by or against the said union; and any legal proceedings may be continued or commenced by or against the said union by their new name which might have been continued or commenced by or against the union by their former name.

Change of name of union.

15. [Guardians of unions and parishes may pay for information required for the effectual discharge of duties.]

16. [Local Government Board to settle payments to officers for the same.]

17. If any officer seek a superannuation allowance from the guardians of any union or parish, or from the overseers of any such parish under any statute applicable to such allowance, his service as a registrar of marriages, or under any of the provisions of the Sanitary Acts, as defined by the "Public Health Act, 1875," or of that Act, shall not operate to prevent him from obtaining the same.

Superannuation allowances not affected by services as registrar of marriages or sanitary officer.

21. [Extension of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 101, s. 56.]

22. [Extension of 12 & 13 Vict. c. 103, s. 14.]

23. [Trustees may pay cost of pauper's relief out of annuity payable to such pauper ⁽²⁾.]

37. From and after the twenty-fifth day of March next, when an overseer shall make and levy any rate or assessment which is not now subject to be audited by the district auditor, or by any auditor or auditors appointed under or by virtue of the Metropolis Local Management Act, such rate or assessment, and the accounts relating thereto, shall be submitted by him, and by the collector thereof, if any, to the said auditor, in the like manner, and with the like incidents, consequences, liabilities, and power of appeal as in the case of the poor rate made by such overseer; and every other audit of such rate or assessment, if any, shall cease.

Rates made by overseers not now audited made subject to the audit of district auditor.

And the Local Government Board shall have the same power to make orders to regulate the keeping of such accounts as they have in regard to other local rates.

38. When an auditor shall have allowed, disallowed, or surcharged a sum in any account rendered to him jointly, and an appeal shall be made against the same, the decision of the auditor may be reversed by the court or the Local Government Board, as the case may be, and the disallowance or surcharge may be remitted by the said Board in favour of one or more of the persons appealing only without discharging the other person or persons against whom such decision of the auditor was pronounced.

Auditor's decision upon a joint account may be reversed or remitted in favour of one or some only of the parties.

⁽¹⁾ The part within brackets repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1883.

⁽²⁾ See now 42 & 43 Vict. c. 12.

POOR LAW ACT, 1879.

42 & 43 VICT. c. 54.

An Act to make better provision for the adjustment of Parish Boundaries, and to make further amendments in the Acts relating to the Relief of the Poor in England. [15th August, 1879.]

Secs. 1—8.

Short title.
Extent of Act.
Commence-
ment of Act.

1. This Act may be cited as the Poor Law Act, 1879.
2. This Act shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.
3. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, which day is in this Act referred to as the commencement of this Act.

Parish Boundaries.

Applying certain provisions of 39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61, to inconvenient divisions of parishes.
39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61.

4. Where part of a parish is on one side while the residue of the parish is on the other side of the boundary of a municipal borough or county, or of a river, estuary, or branch of the sea, or where part of a parish is so situate as to be nearly detached from the residue of the parish, or is otherwise so situate as to render the administration of the relief of the poor in or the local government of such part in conjunction with the residue of the parish inconvenient, the said parish shall be deemed to be a divided parish within the meaning of section one of the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876 ⁽¹⁾, and the provisions of that Act shall apply accordingly in like manner as if the said part were isolated as mentioned in that section.

Removing doubts as to construction
of 39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61, s. 1.

5. [After reciting 39 & 40 Vict. c. 61, s. 1 ⁽¹⁾, and that doubts have arisen proceeds]. . . .
An order under the said Act may deal with several divided parishes at the same time, and may constitute separate parishes out of any of such divided parishes or out of parts of several divided parishes, and may unite any parts of a divided parish or of several divided parishes with each other, and amalgamate the parts so united with any adjoining parish, and may amalgamate any part of a divided parish or parts of several divided parishes with an adjoining parish or adjoining parishes.

Extension of 39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61, to certain places formerly extra-parochial.

6. Where a parish was at the time of the passing of the Act of the twentieth year of Her present Majesty, chapter nineteen, intituled "An Act to provide for the Relief of the Poor in extra-parochial places," an extra-parochial place, and a representation is made to the Local Government Board that, by reason of the relative size and shape of such parish, and its position in respect to other parishes, the relief of the poor could be better administered if the same, or any part or parts thereof, were amalgamated with the adjoining parish or parishes, an order may be made in pursuance of the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876 ⁽¹⁾, in relation to such parish, in like manner as if the said parish were a divided parish.

39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61.

Removing doubts as to effect of an order under 39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61, s. 5.
39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61.

7. [After reciting 39 & 40 Vict. c. 61, s. 5 ⁽²⁾, and that doubts have arisen proceeds]. . . .
Where a parish is a place separately maintaining its own highways, an order made either before or after the commencement of this Act under the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876, shall be deemed to have dealt with that parish for highway as well as for poor law purposes.

39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61.

Where a parish is not a place separately maintaining its own highways, an order under the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876, dealing with such poor law parish or any part thereof, may deal with any area affected by the order for highway purposes in like manner as it deals with the same for poor law purposes.

Where any such order has been made before the passing of this Act, a supplemental order may be made under the said Act for the purposes of dealing with the area so far as regards highways.

For the purposes of this section, any parish, township, or place separately maintaining its own highways or entitled to return a separate waywarden to a highway board under the Highway Acts, shall be deemed to be a place separately maintaining its own highways.

Miscellaneous Amendments of Law.

Combination of unions not in the metropolis.

8. Where on any representation it appears to the Local Government Board that the combination of two or more unions not in the metropolis for any purpose connected with the administration of the relief of the poor would tend to diminish expense, or would otherwise be of public or local advantage, the Board may, with the consent of the guardians of the unions to be combined, make an order for combining such unions for the purposes named therein, and for constituting for the execution of such purposes a joint committee of the guardians of each of the combined unions. Secs. 8—19.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1367.⁽²⁾ Ante, p. 1368.

The order shall define the powers, rights, duties, liabilities, and obligations of the joint committee, and regulate the election, meetings, and officers of the joint committee, the mode of defraying the expenses of the joint committee, and any other matter or thing (including the adjustment of present and future liabilities and property) which it appears necessary or proper to regulate for the better carrying into effect the order.

The guardians of a union included in such a combination shall, save as otherwise provided by the order, cease to exercise any powers and rights, and to be subject to any duties, liabilities, and obligations vested by the order in the joint committee.

All property acquired by the joint committee shall be vested in the boards of guardians of the unions included in the combination as tenants in common.

An order may be made for amending, adding to, or revoking any order previously made under this section.

14. If it appear to the guardians of any union desirable that any hospital or building vested in them as guardians under the Acts relating to the relief of the poor should be vested in them as the rural sanitary authority of such union, for the reception of persons suffering from any dangerous infectious disorder, the guardians may, by resolution, to be confirmed by an order of the Local Government Board, transfer such hospital or building accordingly; and from and after the date named in the order such hospital or building shall be deemed to be vested in the guardians as the rural sanitary authority of the union, for the use of the inhabitants of the union or part thereof named in the resolution and order.

Transfers of buildings, &c., to rural sanitary authority for use as infectious hospitals.

If the same is to be for the use of the inhabitants of any part of the union comprised in an urban sanitary district the order may determine the contribution to be made by the urban sanitary authority of such district towards the maintenance of the hospital or building.

Where an urban sanitary district comprises part of the union, and the said hospital or building is not to be for the use of the inhabitants of that part, the order may determine the value of the interest of that part of the union in such hospital or building, and the manner in which such value is to be paid to that part by the residue of the union for whose use the hospital or building is to be kept and the application of the sum so paid.

17. Where a rate is levied by the overseers of a parish over part of the parish only, the officers ordinarily employed in the collection of the poor rate shall, if required by the overseers, collect such first-mentioned rate, and shall receive out of the same such remuneration for the additional duty as the overseers, with the consent of the vestry, may determine.

Power to remunerate poor rate collectors for collecting rates in parts of parishes.

18. In this Act, unless inconsistent with the context,—

The expression “the metropolis” means all parishes and places in which the Metropolitan Definitions.

“Metropolis.”

Board of Works have for the time being power to levy the consolidated rate:

The expression “Metropolitan Asylums Board” means the managers of the Metropolitan “Metropolitan Asylums Board.”

Asylums District:

The expression “parish” means any parish, township, or place for which a separate poor rate is or can be made:

“Parish.”

The expression “municipal borough” means a borough for the time being subject to the Municipal Corporation Act, 1835, and the Acts amending the same⁽¹⁾:

“Municipal borough.”
5 & 6 Will. 4, c. 76.

The expressions “urban sanitary district” and “rural sanitary district” mean respectively an urban sanitary district and rural sanitary district within the meaning of the Public Health Act, 1875:

“Urban and rural sanitary district.”
38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

The expression “union” means a union of parishes under a general or local Act, with a separate board of guardians, and includes a parish for which there is a separate board of guardians:

“Union.”

The expression “guardians” means guardians appointed under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, and the Acts amending the same, and includes guardians or other body of persons performing under any local Act the like functions as guardians under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834.

“Guardians.”
4 & 5 Will. 4, c. 76.

19. Nothing in this Act contained shall repeal, alter, or affect any of the provisions of the forty-third section of the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876.

Saving as to 39 & 40 Vict. c. 61, s. 43.

(1) See now the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, ante, p. 269.

DIVIDED PARISHES AND POOR LAW AMENDMENT ACT, 1882.

45 & 46 VICT. c. 58.

An Act to amend the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876; and for other purposes.
[18th August, 1882.]

Secs. 1—7.

Short title.
39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61.

1. This Act may be cited as the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1882, and shall be construed as one with the Divided Parishes and Poor Law Amendment Act, 1876, in this Act referred to as the principal Act, and the Acts amending the same.

Detached Parts of Parishes.

Detached parts
of parishes to form parts of parishes surrounding them.

2. Where any part of a parish is isolated or detached from the other part or parts of the parish, and is wholly surrounded by another parish, such part shall, from and after the twenty-fifth day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, be amalgamated with the last-mentioned parish in the same manner and with the same consequences and limitations in every respect, subject nevertheless as hereinafter mentioned, as if the amalgamation had been effected by an order of the Local Government Board under the principal Act, and such part shall be deemed to be within the same county as the parish with which it is amalgamated.

Provided as follows:

(1.) If two or more isolated or detached parts of parishes adjoin each other, and such parts together are wholly surrounded by another parish, the same shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed one isolated or detached part.

(2.) If any question should arise as to whether part of a parish is isolated or detached from the other part or parts of the parish, or is wholly surrounded by another parish, the Local Government Board may by order determine the question.

(3.) This section shall not apply to any parish situate wholly or partly in the metropolis.

Provision for parishes not separately maintaining highways.

3. Where the parish with which any such isolated or detached part of a parish as aforesaid becomes amalgamated, under the provisions of this Act, is not a place separately maintaining its own highways, or entitled to return a separate waywarden to a highway board, the Local Government Board may deal with such parish for highway purposes by an order in like manner as they would have been enabled to deal with the same by a supplemental order under section seven of the Poor Law Act, 1879 ⁽¹⁾, if the amalgamation had been effected prior to the passing of that Act by an order under the principal Act.

42 & 43 Vict.
c. 54.

Detached parts with a population exceeding 300 may be made separate parishes.

4. If the population of any such isolated or detached part of a parish as aforesaid exceeds three hundred persons, one tenth in number and rateable value of the persons appearing on the rate in force for the time being to be rated to the relief of the poor in respect of property within such part may apply to the Local Government Board, in writing, on or before the first day of December next, to have the same declared to be a separate parish, and the Board may by order either dismiss the application or constitute such part a separate parish from and after a day to be fixed by the order; and if an order is made dismissing the application, section two of this Act shall not take effect with respect to such part until such order is made.

An order constituting a parish under this section shall have the same consequences and may contain the same provisions as if the same were made under the principal Act, but section two of that Act shall not apply to such order.

Provision as to school districts.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Act, any alteration of an area made by or pursuant to this Act shall extend to alter the constitution of the school districts, unless the Education Department otherwise direct.

Extension of 39 & 40 Vict.
c. 61, s. 5.

6. Section five of the principal Act ⁽²⁾ shall apply to any parish in a highway district, although it may not be a parish for which a waywarden can be elected.

Interpretation of county.

7. For the purposes of the principal Act, and the Acts amending the same, a riding or other division of a county having a separate court of quarter sessions, or for which a separate county treasurer may be appointed, shall be deemed to be a separate county.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1370.

⁽²⁾ Ante, p. 1368.

*Poor Law Amendments.Secs. 8—12.

8. Any wards already formed or hereafter to be formed by the Local Government Board under the Public Health Act, 1872, or the Public Health Act, 1875, for the election of guardians of the poor, and the number of guardians to be elected for such wards respectively, may be altered from time to time by that Board as they may think fit.

Power to alter wards for election of guardians in certain cases. 35 & 36 Vict. c. 79. 38 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

10. If, for the purpose of giving effect to any adjustment which the Local Government Board are authorised or required to make under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, or the Acts amending the same, it is necessary that a separate rate should be levied on part of a parish only, the Board may in the order of adjustment direct such rate to be made, and the same shall be assessed, made, allowed, published, collected, and levied in the same manner and by the same persons as if it were a poor rate and extended to the whole parish.

Provision for separate rate.

11. It shall not be incumbent on the Local Government Board to make an adjustment under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, or the Acts amending the same, in any case where the circumstances appear to them to render such adjustment inexpedient or unnecessary.

Adjustment of liabilities not required in certain cases.

12. Where, under the Poor Law Amendment Act, 1834, or any of the Acts amending the same, the consent in writing of a majority of the guardians of a union or the managers of a school district is required it shall be deemed a sufficient compliance with such requirement if a resolution giving consent is passed at a meeting of the guardians or managers, of which meeting, and of the business to be transacted thereat, not less than fourteen days notice shall be given to each guardian or manager.

Mode of consent by guardians and managers.

STATUTES RELATING TO HIGHWAYS.

HIGHWAY RATE ASSESSMENT AND EXPENDITURE ACT, 1882.

45 & 46 VICT. c. 27.

An Act to extend certain Provisions of the Poor Rate Assessment and Collection Act, 1869, to the Highway Rate, and for other purposes. [12th July, 1882.]

Secs. 3, 4.

Power to rate and compound with owner of small tenements. 32 & 33 Vict. c. 41.

3. Where in any parish the vestry have, under section four of the Poor Rate Assessment and Collection Act, 1869 ⁽¹⁾, ordered or shall hereafter order that the owners of all rateable hereditaments to which section three of that Act extends shall be rated to the poor rate in respect of such hereditaments instead of the occupiers, such order shall be deemed to extend to and include the highway rate, and whilst such order is in force the respective owners of such hereditaments shall be rated and assessed instead of the occupiers thereof to the highway rates made after the passing of this Act for any highway parish which is co-extensive with such parish or with any part thereof, and to which otherwise such occupiers might by law be rated; subject nevertheless to the abatements or deductions and to the conditions specified in sections four and five of the said Act; and for the purposes of this section the term "overseers" in section four of the said Act shall be construed to mean "surveyor of highways or other person authorised by law to make and levy a highway rate" ⁽²⁾.

The surveyor of highways, or other person authorised by law to make and levy a highway rate, shall have the same powers, remedies, and privileges for recovering the rates made under this Act upon owners, as the overseers of the poor have under the said Poor Rate Assessment and Collection Act, 1869, for the recovery of a poor rate, and when the overseers are required by law to levy the highway rate, and such rate applies to the whole parish, they may levy the same as part of the poor rate.

5 & 6 Will. 4, c. 50.

Valuation lists conclusive for highway rate.

Section thirty of the Highway Act, 1835, relating to the composition for rates in certain cases under local Acts is hereby repealed.

27 & 28 Vict. c. 39.

4. In every highway rate made after the passing of this Act the several hereditaments included therein and assessable to the poor rate shall be rated according to the annual rateable value thereof appearing in the valuation list for the time being in force in the parish which is co-extensive with or includes the highway parish to which the highway rate relates, and where any valuation list has been amended on objection pursuant to section one of the Union Assessment Committee Amendment Act, 1864, the assessment committee shall give notice of such amendment to the surveyor of highways or other person authorised to make and levy the highway rate, who shall thereupon alter the then current highway rate accordingly ⁽¹⁾. Secs. 4—10.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1356.

⁽²⁾ See the Highway Act, 1864, section 32, ante, p. 866.

5. If the rates levied by a surveyor of highways, together with any other sums received by him during his term of office, prove insufficient to meet the whole of the expenditure lawfully incurred by him, and such deficiency has not arisen from any neglect or default on his part, his successor in office may reimburse to him the amount of such deficiency. Provision for balances of outgoing surveyors.

6. The expenses incurred by a highway authority in maintaining, replacing, or setting up mile stones on any highway, and in fencing by posts and rails or otherwise a highway where such fencing is required for the protection of persons travelling thereon against danger, shall be a lawful charge upon the highway rate. Power to maintain mile stones and to fence.

7. The provisions of section nine of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878 ⁽²⁾, as amended by the District Auditors Act, 1879 ⁽³⁾, in relation to the audit of the accounts of highway authorities and their officers shall extend to the accounts of a waywarden of any highway parish within a highway district with respect to the highway rates levied by him. Waywardens rate accounts. 41 & 42 Vict. c. 77. 42 & 43 Vict. c. 6.

8. Moneys, goods, or chattels certified by an auditor at a highway audit to be due from any person shall be recoverable by the like process and with the like powers as in the case of moneys, goods, or chattels certified at the audit of the poor rate accounts, and where an auditor shall take proceedings for the recovery of any moneys, goods, or chattels certified at a highway audit or shall lay any information for a penalty in consequence of the default of any officer or other person to attend any such audit or to produce the proper accounts or vouchers, or to make or sign the proper declaration before him, the costs incurred by the auditor, when not recovered from the defendant, shall, if the Local Government Board consent thereto, be paid to the auditor by the highway authority, and may be recovered from such authority in a summary manner. Recovery and payment of certified balances.

The moneys certified at a highway audit shall, where there is a treasurer of the highway authority, be paid to such treasurer, and where there is no such officer to the highway authority for the time being; and the goods or chattels so certified shall be delivered over to the person authorised to receive the same.

9. When at the time of the passing of this Act part of a parish is excluded from an urban sanitary district, but such excluded part is for purposes connected with the repairs of highways and the payment of highway rates treated as forming part of the district, the owners and rate-payers of the excluded part may by resolution passed at a meeting to be convened and conducted in manner provided by Schedule Three of the Public Health Act, 1875 ⁽⁴⁾, decide that such part shall be a highway parish, and if the resolution is approved by an order of the Local Government Board the excluded part shall from a date to be fixed by the said order be for all purposes connected with highways, surveyors of highways, and highway rates, considered and treated as a separate highway parish. Provision as to excluded parts of parishes. 33 & 39 Vict. c. 55.

10. In this Act—

“Highway audit” means the audit of the accounts of a highway authority or their officers or of any waywarden:

“Highway authority” means as respects a highway district, the highway board, and as respects a highway parish not included in a highway district, the surveyor or surveyors or other officers performing similar duties:

“Highway rate” means a rate made for the repairs of the highways and includes any separate rate made to meet the orders or precepts of a highway authority:

“Parish” means a place for which a separate poor rate can be made:

“Highway parish” means a place separately maintaining its own highways, and, in a highway district, a place for which a waywarden may be elected or a separate highway rate be made.

Interpretation.

HIGHWAY AMENDMENT ACT, 1845.

8 & 9 VICT. C. 71.

An Act to extend certain provisions in the Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Highways in England. [31st July, 1845.]

1. [After reciting 5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 50, s. 48 ⁽⁵⁾, proceeds] Section 1.
from and after the passing of this Act, the recited Act ⁽⁵⁾ and all the provisions therein con-

⁽¹⁾ See the Union Assessment Committee Act, 1862, 25 & 26 Vict. c. 103, s. 24, ante, p. 1352.

⁽²⁾ Ante, p. 881.

⁽³⁾ Ante, p. 1246.

⁽⁴⁾ Ante, p. 243; and see section 216 of that Act, ante, p. 165.

⁽⁵⁾ Ante, p. 790.

Secs. 1, 2. tained shall apply, and extend not only to the lands in the said Act specified, but to all lands belonging, or which hereafter may belong, to parishes, or to the surveyor of the highways for the purposes aforesaid, which have been or hereafter shall be lawfully used for the purpose of obtaining materials for the repair of the highways in such parish, the materials in which lands have been or hereafter may be exhausted.

2. And be it enacted, that the said Act ⁽¹⁾ and this Act shall be construed together as one Act.

HIGHWAY AMENDMENT ACT, 1841.

4 & 5 VICT. c. 51.

An Act to amend an Act of the third year of Geo. IV. for regulating Turnpike Roads in England; and also an Act of fifth and sixth years of Will. IV. for consolidating the Laws relating to Highways in England. [21st June, 1841.]

Section 1. 1. [After reciting 3 Geo. IV. c. 126 ⁽²⁾, s. 6, and 5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 50 ⁽³⁾, s. 53, proceeds] from and after the passing of this Act, all lands and grounds which shall be in the exclusive occupation of one or more persons for agricultural purposes shall be deemed and taken to be inclosed lands or grounds within the meaning of the said recited Acts, although the same may not be separated from any adjoining lands or grounds of other persons, or from the highway by any fence or other inclosure.

SALE OF EXHAUSTED PARISH LANDS ACT, 1876.

39 & 40 VICT. c. 62.

An Act to make provision for the Disposal of certain Lands appropriated for the supply of Materials for the Repair of Public and Private Roads. [15th August, 1876.]

Secs. 1—5. 1. Where land has been allotted to or otherwise acquired by a parish, whether in the name of the surveyor of highways or other trustees, or generally for the purpose of the supply of materials for the repair of the public roads and highways in such parish, and also for the repair of private roads therein, or for some other purpose, public or private, and the materials in such land shall be exhausted, or shall not be suitable or required, and the land shall not be available for such other purpose, if any, the same shall be dealt with as land which falls within the operation of the third section of the Union and Parish Property Act, 1835 ⁽⁴⁾, and the Parish Property and Parish Debts Act, 1842 ⁽⁵⁾, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained.

Sale of exhausted gravel pits wherein there are private or other interests.

Local Government to hear and decide on objections and claims.

Disputed claims and interests of disabled persons.

Right of pre-emption by adjoining owner.

Mines how to be dealt with.

2. Before issuing their order for the sale of the land, the Local Government Board shall hear and decide upon every objection and claim made in writing by any person claiming an interest therein, within three months from the passing of the resolution for the sale of the land, and shall either refuse to sanction the sale, or allow it to proceed, providing, if necessary, for the interest of every person establishing the same out of the purchase-money.

3. If there be disputed claims to any interest in the said land, or if the person entitled to such interest be under legal disability, the board shall direct that proceedings may be taken in the High Court of Justice, or, where the amount of the value in question shall not exceed fifty pounds, in the county court, for the settlement of such dispute, or for the proper disposal of such amount where there is no such dispute.

4. When the board shall see fit, they may order that the land shall be offered to the owner or owners, as the case may be, of the adjoining land, at a price to be settled in such manner as the board shall deem most expedient, and if such owner or owners shall be willing to purchase the same at such price, the same shall be sold to such owner or owners, and not otherwise; and the declaration of such owner or owners as to their willingness to purchase shall be given within a time to be appointed by the said board.

5. Where any right to mines or minerals under the land is claimed by the lord of the manor

⁽¹⁾ I.e., the Highway Act, 1835, 5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 50, ante, p. 756.

⁽²⁾ I.e., the General Turnpike Act, 1822, section 6.

⁽³⁾ I.e., the Highway Act, 1835, section 53, ante, p. 792.

⁽⁴⁾ 5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 69, s. 3.

⁽⁵⁾ 5 & 6 Vict. c. 18, s. 3.

or other person, the board may, if they see fit, reserve the same in their order for sale, or may order the sale subject to the right so claimed. Secs. 5—7.

6. The said board, in dealing with the interest of the parish in the produce of the sale, shall cause such produce to be applied as far as practicable in the repair of the highways in the parish, or in some permanent improvement of the highways, or in an investment, so that the annual dividends may be applicable in aid of the highway rate until the board shall otherwise order; and the said board shall have the like power of dealing with the produce of the sale of lands under the Highway Acts, if applied to by the surveyor of highways or any authority exercising the powers of such surveyor, where such produce cannot be conveniently appropriated in the manner provided by those Acts.

Appropriation of the interest of the parish in the produce of the sale.

7. The word "parish" shall include every township or other place separately maintaining its own highways, except that where such township is not a parish within the operation of the above-mentioned Acts of the years 1835 and 1842 respectively, the proceedings to be taken under them shall be restricted to such township or place; provided that the churchwardens and overseers, or the overseers only, as the case may be, of the parish, as defined in the Poor Law Amendment Act of 1866 ⁽¹⁾, comprising such township or place, shall discharge all the duties hereby rendered necessary for it in like manner as if it were co-extensive with such parish.

Interpretation of the word "parish."

LAW OF EVIDENCE AMENDMENT ACT, 1877.

40 & 41 VICT. c. 14.

An Act for the Amendment of the Law of Evidence in certain cases of Misdemeanour.

[28th June, 1877.]

1. On the trial of any indictment or other proceeding for the non-repair of any public highway or bridge, or for a nuisance to any public highway, river, or bridge, and of any other indictment or proceeding instituted for the purpose of trying or enforcing a civil right only, every defendant to such indictment or proceeding, and the wife or husband of any such defendant, shall be admissible witnesses and compellable to give evidence. Section 1.

Defendant, and wife or husband of defendant, may be witness in certain trials.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, pp. 1366, 1367.

STATUTES RELATING TO HIGHWAYS (TURNPIKE ROADS).

GENERAL TURNPIKE ACT, 1822.

3 GEO. IV. c. 126.

An Act to amend the general laws now in being for regulating turnpike roads in that part of Great Britain called England. [6th August, 1822.]

Secs. 26-87.

26. [Exemptions from toll on manure, &c., contained in any Act to be in force notwithstanding the same should be carried into or brought from an adjoining parish ⁽¹⁾.]

27. [Tolls payable on waggons going empty for road materials, &c., to be repaid when returning laden ⁽¹⁾.]

28. [Toll not to be taken on account of baskets, &c., being in waggons, &c., laden with manure, &c. ⁽¹⁾.]

32. [Exemptions from tolls: horses and carriages attending his Majesty, &c., or conveying materials for roads and bridges ⁽¹⁾.]

Penalty not exceeding 5*l.* on fraudulently taking the benefit of exemption.

36. If any person or persons shall by any fraudulent or collusive means whatsoever claim or take the benefit of any exemption from toll or from overweight, or for using any additional horse or horses, or of any other exemption or exemptions whatsoever in this Act contained, every such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five pounds; and in all cases the proof of exemption shall be upon the person claiming the same.

The property of toll houses, &c., vested in trustees.

60. The right, interest, and property of and in all the toll gates and toll houses, weighing machines, and other erections and buildings, lamps, bars, toll boards, direction boards, milestones, posts, rails, fences, and other things which shall have been or shall be erected and provided in pursuance of any Act of Parliament for making turnpike roads, with the several conveniences and appurtenances thereunto respectively belonging, and the materials of which the same shall consist, and all materials, tools, and implements which shall be provided for repairing the said roads, and the serapings of the said roads, shall be vested in the trustees ⁽²⁾ or commissioners acting in pursuance of such Act for the time being, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to apply and dispose of the same as they shall think fit, and to bring or cause to be brought any action or actions, and to prefer and prosecute or order and direct the preferring and prosecuting of any informations or indictments, against any person or persons who shall dig up, break or pull down, steal, take or carry away, spoil, destroy, injure, or damage any of the toll gates or toll houses, weighing machines, or other erections or buildings, lamps, bars, toll boards, direction boards, milestones, posts, rails, fences, and other things, or any of the conveniences and appurtenances thereto belonging, or any of the tools, implements, or materials aforesaid, or shall interrupt them the said trustees or commissioners, or any of their officers, in the possession thereof; in all which proceedings it shall be sufficient to state generally such articles to be the property of the clerk for the time being to the said trustees or commissioners.

Actions may be brought in the name of the clerk.

87. [How expenses of jury and witnesses are to be borne.]

⁽¹⁾ This section will be found set out in the note ante, p. 852.

⁽²⁾ The trustees have no interest in the soil of the road, Davidson v. Gill, 1 East 69; R. v. Thomas, 9 B. & C. 114.

88. When any turnpike road shall be diverted or turned, and the new road shall be made and completed, such new road shall be in lieu of the old road, and shall be subject to all the provisions and regulations in any Act of Parliament contained or otherwise to which the old road was subject, and shall be deemed and taken to be a common highway, and shall be repaired and maintained as such; and the old road shall be stopped up and the land and soil thereof shall be sold by the trustees or commissioners to some person or persons whose lands adjoin thereto, as hereinafter mentioned with regard to pieces of ground not wanted; but if such old road shall lead to any lands, house, or place which cannot in the opinion of the said trustees or commissioners be conveniently accommodated with a passage from such new road which they are hereby authorised to order and lay out, if they find it necessary, then and in such case the old road shall be sold, but subject to the right of way and passage to such lands, house, or place respectively, according to the ancient usage in that respect; and the money arising from such sale in either of the said cases shall be applied towards the purchase of the land where such new road shall be made, or in the same manner as the tolls arising on such road, as the trustees or commissioners thereof shall think fit; and upon the completion of any contract whereby any part of the old road shall be given in payment for the value of the ground taken for the new road, or upon payment of the price of any part of the old road, the soil of such old road shall become vested in the purchaser thereof and his heirs, but all mines, minerals, and fossils lying under the same shall continue the property of the person or persons who would from time to time have been entitled to the same if such old road had continued.

Secs. 88-97.

When new road shall be completed, old highway to be stopped up, and the land sold.

89. Where the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road shall have purchased or shall be possessed of any piece or pieces of ground not wanted for the purposes of such road, it shall and may be lawful for such trustees or commissioners to sell and dispose of the same: Provided always, that the said trustees or commissioners, before they shall sell and dispose of any such piece or pieces of ground not wanted for the purposes of such turnpike road as aforesaid to any other person or persons, shall first offer the same to the person or persons of whom the same shall have been purchased, or to the person or persons whose lands shall adjoin thereto, and if such person or persons respectively shall then and thereupon refuse or shall not agree (except with respect to or on account of the price thereof) to purchase the same respectively, on an affidavit being made and sworn before a master or master extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery, or before one of his Majesty's justices of the peace for the county, liberty, or place where such ground is situate, (who are hereby respectively empowered to take such affidavit,) by some person or persons now interested in the said piece or pieces of ground, stating that such offer was made by or on the behalf of such trustees or commissioners, and that such offer was then and thereupon refused or was not agreed to by the person or persons to whom the same was made, such affidavit shall in all courts whatsoever be sufficient evidence and proof that such offer was made, and was refused or not agreed to by the person or persons to whom such offer was made (as the case may be); and in case such person or persons shall be desirous of purchasing such piece or pieces of ground, and he, she, or they, and the said trustees or commissioners shall differ or not agree with respect to the price thereof, then the price or prices thereof shall be ascertained by a jury in manner in this Act directed with respect to disputed value of premises to be taken and used in pursuance of this Act, and the expense of hearing and determining such difference shall be borne and paid in manner hereinbefore directed with respect to such purchases made by the said trustees, mutatis mutandis; and the money to arise by the sale or sales of such pieces or parcels of ground shall be applied by the trustees or commissioners to the purposes of the Act for repairing and maintaining such turnpike road, but the purchaser or purchasers thereof shall not be answerable or accountable for any misapplication or non-application of such money; and the conveyances of such piece or pieces of ground shall be made to the purchaser or respective purchasers thereof, and in such manner and form as is hereinbefore directed with respect to the conveyances to be made of the land constituting any part of the roads hereinbefore directed to be sold.

When any parts of land not wanted for the purposes of roads are to be sold, the first offer to be made to the original or adjoining owners.

What shall be evidence of such offer and refusal.

In case of dispute as to price, the value to be ascertained by a jury.

90. [Application of compensation money exceeding £200.

91. [Application of compensation money when less than £200 and not less than £20.]

92. [Application of compensation money when less than twenty pounds.]

97. It shall be lawful for the surveyor or surveyors to the trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road, and for all such persons as he or they shall appoint, to search for, dig, gather, take, and carry away any materials for making or repairing any turnpike road, out of any common river or brook (not being within fifty yards of any bridge, dam, weir, or jetty), or out of or from any waste or common in any parish, hamlet, or place in which any part of such road may lie, or in any adjoining parish, hamlet, or place, and to haul and carry away any such materials when got over any common or waste lands, without paying anything for such materials;

Power to get materials from any river or brook, or from any common or waste lands without expense, filling up the pits, &c.;

Secs. 97-99.

or from the lands of any person, not being garden ground, &c., on tendering satisfaction for damages;

and materials may be carried through any inclosed or open lands, on tendering damages.

Any difference as to damages may be settled by two justices.

Notice to be given before materials are taken from private lands, and two justices shall decide therein.

If pits or holes are made in getting materials, surveyor shall cause them to be filled up or fenced off.

and without being deemed a trespasser or trespassers; the said surveyor or surveyors, or other person or persons, filling up the pits or quarries, levelling the grounds, or sloping down the banks wherefrom such materials shall be taken, or railing or fencing off such pits or quarries, so that the same shall not be dangerous to any persons or cattle, and paying or tendering for the damage done by going through and over any inclosed lands ⁽¹⁾ or grounds for or with such materials, and such damages to be ascertained as hereinafter mentioned; and also that it shall be lawful for the said surveyor or surveyors, and such person or persons as he or they shall appoint, to search for, dig, get, gather, take, and carry away any such materials in or out of the land of any person or persons where the same may be had or found, in any parish, hamlet, or place, in which any part of such road shall lie or be situate, or in any adjoining parish, hamlet, or place (not being a garden, yard, park, paddock, planted walk or avenue to any house, or any piece of ground planted and set apart as a nursery for trees), making or tendering such satisfaction for such materials, and for the damage done, to the owners or occupiers of the lands where and from whence the same shall be dug, gathered, and carried away, or over which the same shall be carried, as the said trustees or commissioners shall judge reasonable; and also to land on and carry through or over any inclosed lands ⁽²⁾ or grounds (not being a garden, yard, park, paddock, planted walk or avenue to a house, or any piece of ground planted and set apart as a nursery for trees), or on, through, or over any open land or common, any stone or other materials for making or repairing any such road, or for building or repairing any present or future toll house or toll houses on or by the sides thereof, from any river, stream, or canal in any parish, hamlet, or place in which any such road lies, or in any adjoining parish, hamlet, or place, paying or tendering for the damage done in landing on or going through or over any inclosed lands or grounds for or with such materials such sum or sums of money as the said trustees shall judge reasonable; and in case of any difference between such trustees or commissioners, surveyors, or other persons appointed or employed as aforesaid, and the owners and occupiers of such lands or any of them, concerning such payments and damages as aforesaid, any two or more justices of the peace for the county, riding, or place wherein the place from whence such materials shall have been taken shall be situate, on ten days' notice thereof being given in writing by either party to the other, shall hear, settle, and determine the matter of such payments and damages, and the costs attending the hearing and determining the same.

98. Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for any surveyor, or any other person or persons acting under the authority of this Act, to dig, gather, get, take, or carry away any materials for making or repairing any turnpike road, or for other such purpose or purposes as aforesaid, out of or from any inclosed land or ground, until notice in writing, signed by the surveyor, shall have been given to the owner or owners of the premises from which such materials are intended to be taken, or his or her known agent, or to the occupiers of the premises from which such materials are intended to be taken, or left at the house or last or usual place of abode of such owner or occupier, to appear before any two or more justices of the peace acting in and for the county, liberty, or place where the lands from whence such materials are intended to be taken shall lie, to show cause why such materials shall not be had therefrom; and in case such owner, agent, or occupier shall attend pursuant to such notice, but shall not show sufficient cause to the contrary, such justices shall, if they think proper, authorise such surveyor or other person to dig, get, gather, take, and carry away such materials, at such time or times as to such justices shall seem proper; and if such owner, agent, or occupier shall neglect or refuse to appear by himself or herself, or his or her agent, the said justices shall and may (upon proof on oath of the service of such notice, and which oath they are hereby empowered to administer), make such order therein as they shall think fit, as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes, as if such owner or occupier, or his or her agent, had attended.

99. If any surveyor of any turnpike road, or any person employed by him, shall, by reason of the searching for, digging, or getting any gravel, sand, stones, chalk, clay, or other materials for repairing any highways, make or cause to be made any pit or hole in any common or other lands or grounds, rivers or brooks, as aforesaid, wherein such materials shall be found, the said surveyor shall forthwith cause the same to be sufficiently fenced off, and such fence supported and repaired during such time as the said pit or hole shall continue open, and shall, within three days after such pit or hole shall be opened or made, where no gravel, stones, or materials shall be found, cause the same forthwith to be filled up, levelled, and covered with the turf or clod which was dug out of the same, and where any such materials shall be found, within fourteen days after having dug up sufficient materials, in such pit or hole, if the same is not likely to be further useful, cause the same to be filled up, sloped down, or fenced off, and so continued, and if the same is likely to be further useful the said surveyor shall secure the same by posts and rails or other fences to prevent accidents to persons or cattle; and in case such surveyor shall neglect to fill up, slope down, or fence off such pit or hole in manner and within the time aforesaid, he or they shall forfeit the sum of twenty shillings for every such default; and in case such surveyor shall neglect to fence off such pit or hole, or to slope down the same, as hereinbefore directed, for the space of six days after he or they shall have received notice for either of those purposes from any justice of the peace or from the owner or occupier of such several ground, river, or brook, or any person having right of common within such common or waste lands as aforesaid, and such neglect and notice shall be proved upon oath before one or more of the said justices of the peace, such surveyor shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding ten pounds nor less than forty shillings for every such neglect, to be determined and adjudged by such justice or justices, and to be laid out and applied in the fencing off, filling up, or sloping down such pit or hole, in such manner as the said justice or justices shall direct and appoint; which forfeiture, in case the same be not forthwith paid, shall be levied as other forfeitures are hereinafter directed to be levied.

(1) See Lister v. Lobleigh, 7 A. & E. 124.

(2) See Tapsell v. Crosskey, 7 M. & W. 441.

100. Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the said trustees or commissioners to contract and agree with any person or persons whomsoever for the purchase or demise from him, her, or them of and to hold any land or ground for the purpose of digging stones, gravel, and materials therefrom for the repair or use of the said road, and at any time afterwards to sell the land or ground so purchased by public auction or tender: Provided also, that the entering into any such contract or agreement as last aforesaid shall not be compulsory against any person or persons unwilling to enter into the same.

101. If any person or persons shall take away any materials which shall have been gotten, dug, or gathered for the repair or use of any turnpike road, or any materials out of any quarry which shall have been made, dug, or opened for the purpose of getting materials for any turnpike road, before the surveyor of such road and the workmen employed for getting such materials shall have discontinued working therein for the space of six weeks (except the owner or occupier of any private grounds, and persons authorised by such owner or occupier to get materials in such quarry for his own private use and not for sale), every person so offending shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five pounds.

102. The trustees or commissioners of every turnpike road are hereby empowered to purchase or rent any piece or pieces of land or ground, not exceeding in any one place six yards square, on the sides of such road, as repositories for stone, gravel, and other materials for making or repairing the same; and in case any difference shall arise between such trustees or commissioners and the owner of such land or ground with respect to the value thereof, or the necessity or propriety of taking such land or ground, the same shall be settled and determined by any two of His Majesty's justices of the peace acting in and for the county where the said land or ground shall be situated, in manner hereinbefore directed with respect to getting materials for the repair of any turnpike road.

103. It shall and may be lawful for the company of proprietors, or the trustee or trustees for the proprietors, of any canal or of any railway or tram-road on which any flint, gravel, stone, or other materials for the repair of any turnpike road shall or may be conveyed, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to lessen and reduce the tolls and rates imposed by any Act of Parliament by which any such company shall be appointed, or any other Act whatsoever, on the carriage of such flint, gravel, stone, or other materials carried on the said canal or railway, and to appoint such lower tolls and rates to be taken for the carriage and conveyance of the same as the said company or trustees shall think proper; and all such reduced tolls shall and may be collected, taken, and recovered by the same persons and means, and by and under the same powers, provisions, penalties, and forfeiture, as the original tolls might have been taken in case the same should not have been reduced, any Act or Acts of Parliament, bye-law, or ordinance, or trust deed, to the contrary notwithstanding.

104. [Statute labour to remain as heretofore (1).]

106. It shall and may be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike roads to contract and agree with any person or persons liable to the repair of any part of the road under the care and management of such trustees or commissioners, or of any bridges thereon, by tenure or otherwise, for the repair thereof, for such term as they shall think proper, not exceeding three years, and to contribute towards the repair of such road or bridges such sum or sums of money as they shall think proper out of the tolls arising on such turnpike road.

Secs. 99— 106.

Penalty for not filling up or fencing off, 20s.

Penalty for not fencing off, &c., in six days after receiving notice not more than 10l. nor less than 40s.

Power to contract for lands to get materials.

Penalty on taking away materials before surveyor has discontinued digging for them, 5l.

Repositories for materials to be provided.

Two justices shall settle any difference that may arise as to value.

Canal Companies may lower their tolls on materials for repairing turnpike roads.

Trustees may contract with persons liable to the repairs of roads by tenure.

(1) The liability to do statute labour is now abolished by the Highway Act, 1835, ante, p. 756.

Secs. 107—112.

Composition
may be entered into by counties for repairing bridges repaired
by parishes.

Composition
may be entered into by trustees and parishes for repair of bridges

Where parish indicted for non-repair of a turnpike road, the court to apportion the fine between the parish and the trustees or commissioners.

Power to make causeways.

Where turnpike road is ruinous, roads may be made through adjoining grounds.

Recompence to be made to owners for damages.

In case of difference, two justices shall settle it.

Trustees not empowered to repair causeways unless specially authorised.

107 And whereas many bridges on turnpike roads are by prescription at present liable to be repaired by certain parishes, and not by the county or counties in which they are situated, and which bridges, from change of times and circumstances, are become no longer sufficiently convenient for the use of the public, without being enlarged or otherwise improved: Be it therefore further enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for any such county or counties, parish or parishes respectively, to enter into a composition or agreement with each other, and by the authority of those persons who shall be legally competent to make rates for such county and parish respectively, whereby the improvement and future repair of any such bridge shall be undertaken and lie upon the county or counties in which such bridge is locally situated; and that all rates made for carrying into effect any such composition, agreement, repairs, or improvement shall be made and assessed in the same manner as other the rates of such county or parish respectively, and shall be good and valid to all intents and purposes in the law whatsoever.

108. It shall and may be lawful for the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, and for such parish or parishes, in like manner to enter into a composition or agreement with each other, and by the authority of the persons at present legally competent to make rates for such parish or parishes, whereby, in consideration of such sum or sums of money as shall be agreed upon being yearly paid to the treasurer of the trustees or commissioners entering into such composition or agreement, out of the rates to be raised for the repair of the bridge or bridges the subject thereof, the repairs of any such bridge shall, during the continuance of any Act or Acts of Parliament under which such trustees or commissioners shall be appointed or act, be undertaken and carried on by the said trustees or commissioners; and that all rates and assessments raised and levied for carrying such composition or agreement into effect shall in like manner be good and valid to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

110. When the inhabitants of any parish, township, or place shall be indicted or presented for not repairing any highway being turnpike road, and the court before whom such indictment or presentment shall be preferred ⁽¹⁾ shall impose a fine for the repair of such road, such fine shall be apportioned, together with the costs and charges attending the same, between the inhabitants of such parish, township, or place, and the trustees or commissioners of such turnpike road, in such manner as to the said court, upon consideration of the circumstances of the case, shall seem just; and it shall and may be lawful for such court to order the treasurer of such turnpike road to pay the sum so proportioned for such turnpike road out of the money then in his hands or next to be received by him, in case it shall appear to such court from the circumstances of such turnpike debts and revenues that the same may be paid without endangering the securities of the creditors who have advanced their money upon the credit of the tolls to be raised thereupon, which order shall be binding upon such treasurer, and he is hereby authorised and required to obey the same.

111. It shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners to make and keep in repair, or cause to be made and kept in repair, any causeway or causeways, for the use of foot passengers, in, upon, or on the sides of the turnpike road, in such manner as they shall think proper, and also to make or cause to be made a road through the grounds adjoining to any ruinous or narrow part of any turnpike road (not being the site or ground whereon any house or houses stand, not being a yard, garden, park, paddock, planted walk, or avenue to any house, or any inclosed ground planted and set apart as a nursery for trees), to be made use of by all passengers, cattle, and carriages as a public highway, whilst the old road is repairing or widening, and till such time as it shall be convenient for passengers and carriages to pass along the same, making such recompence to the owners and occupiers of such private grounds respectively for the damages they shall or may thereby sustain as shall be adjudged reasonable by the trustees or commissioners of the road under repair or alteration; and in case of any difference concerning such damages between such owners or occupiers and such trustees or commissioners, that then it shall and may be lawful for any two or more justices of the peace acting in and for the county wherein such grounds shall be situate, on fourteen days' notice in writing being given by either party to the other, to settle, adjudge, and finally determine what recompence shall be made to such owners and occupiers for the damages they shall have sustained as aforesaid.

112. Provided always, that nothing herein contained as to the making or maintaining any causeway or footpath, or any other matter or provision in this Act, shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to authorise or empower any trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road to lay down, continue, repair, or maintain any pavement, or any paved or pitched causeway or footpath, in or upon or at the side of any turnpike road within any town, village, or hamlet where such turnpike road shall pass through the same, unless provision shall have been or shall be specially made for that purpose in the Act or Acts of Parliament under which such turnpike road shall be made, maintained, or repaired; but in default of such provision all and every such pavement, paved or pitched causeway or footpath, within such town, village, or hamlet, shall be made, repaired, and maintained by and at the costs of the inhabitants of such town, village, or hamlet, or by such other persons as shall be in anywise liable to make, maintain, and repair the same.

⁽¹⁾ See R. v. Papworth, 2 East, 413; R. v. Pembridge, 3 Q. B. 901.

Secs. 112—
118.

113. Ditches, drains, or watercourses, of a sufficient depth and breadth, for the keeping all turnpike roads dry, and conveying the water from the same, shall be made, scoured, cleansed, and kept open, and sufficient trunks, tunnels, plats, or bridges shall be made and laid where any carriageways or footways lead out of the said turnpike roads into the lands or grounds adjoining thereto, by the occupier or occupiers of such lands or grounds; and every person or persons who shall occupy any lands or grounds adjoining to or lying near such turnpike road through which the water hath used to pass from the said turnpike road shall and is and are hereby required from time to time, as often as occasion shall be, to open, cleanse, and scour the ditches, watercourses, and drains for such water to pass without obstruction; and that every person making default in any of the matters or things aforesaid, after ten days' notice to him, her, or them given, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds.

Ditches, &c. of sufficient depth and breadth shall be made by the occupiers of lands for keeping the roads dry.

Penalty on default not exceeding £5.

114. It shall be lawful for the surveyor of every turnpike road, and such person as he or they shall appoint, to remove and prevent all annoyances on every part of every turnpike road, by filth, dung, ashes, rubbish, or any other matter or thing whatsoever being laid or thrown upon any turnpike road, or upon any open common or waste land within eighty feet of the centre thereof, and to dispose of the same for the benefit of such road, in case the owner thereof shall neglect to remove the same within twelve hours after notice in writing, signed by any two trustees; or the surveyor of such road, given to such owner for that purpose, or in case the owner is not known, then after a like notice affixed for three days on the nearest turnpike gate, and to turn any watercourses, sinks, or drains running into, along or out of any turnpike road or any part thereof, to the prejudice of the same, and to open, scour, and cleanse any watercourses or ditches adjoining to any turnpike road, and make the same as deep and large as he shall think proper and necessary, in case the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands shall neglect to open, scour, or cleanse such watercourses or ditches after seven days' notice in writing given for that purpose; and the charges thereof, and of removing any annoyances, to be settled by any one or more justices of the peace of the county or place where such part of the turnpike road shall lie, shall be reimbursed to the said surveyor by such owners or occupiers, and the same shall be recovered in such manner as the penalties and forfeitures are hereinafter directed to be recovered; and if after the removal of any of the said annoyances any person shall again offend in the like kind, every such person shall for every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding five pounds.

For removing and preventing annoyances.

Watercourses and drains may be turned.

Penalty for a second offence, £5.

115. In all cases where any gutter, drain, sink, sewer, or underdrain, made or hereafter to be made, under or at the sides or near any turnpike road, shall be used as well for the conveyance of the water from such turnpike road as for conveying water, filth, or other matters from the houses or premises of the inhabitants of any town, hamlet, village, street, or place, and no specific mode of repair, or persons liable to the expenses of maintaining the same, shall be appointed, the expense of maintaining and repairing such gutter, drain, sink, sewer, or underdrain shall be borne and defrayed equally or in proportions by the trustees or commissioners of such turnpike road and the inhabitants of the town, hamlet, village, street, or place using the same; and in order to ascertain the proportion, and recover such expenses, the surveyor of the turnpike road under or at the sides or near to which such gutter, drain, sink, sewer, or underdrain shall be situated shall as often as shall be requisite repair the same, and shall then make out an account of the cost and expenses of such reparation, and produce the same to any two or more justices of the peace acting for the county or place where such gutter, drain, sink, sewer, or underdrain, or so much thereof as shall be repaired, shall lie; and it shall and may be lawful for the said justices, and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to examine the accounts and statements to be produced to them, and to inquire as to the persons using such gutter, drain, sink, sewer, or underdrain, and to proportion the amount to be paid by the trustees or commissioners of the turnpike road, and by the inhabitants and persons using such gutter, drain, sink, sewer, or underdrain respectively, and to fix and ascertain the amount of such proportion as they shall think just and reasonable to be paid by the said several parties respectively; and if any person or persons shall neglect or refuse to pay the sum directed by the said justices to be paid by him, her, or them, the same shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons so neglecting or refusing, by a warrant under the hands and seals of any two or more justices of the peace acting for the county or place where such person or persons shall reside.

Expenses of repairing drains, &c. in towns to be defrayed equally between the trustees and the inhabitants.

An account of the expense of repairs to be laid before two justices, who shall proportion the amount to be paid by the parties.

118. If any person shall make or cause to be made any dwelling house or other building, or

Secs. 118—121.

Persons making encroachments on the roads by reducing the breadth or narrowing the limits thereof, or making drains across or otherwise injuring the roads, or turning the plough on the ground within a certain distance of the road, shall forfeit 40s. Encroachments to be removed.

Penalty on persons committing nuisances, by riding on footpaths, or damaging bridges, &c.;

by drawing timber, &c.;

by injuring the road;

by slaughtering of cattle;

by obstructing passage of travellers;

by light of blacksmith's shops;

by making bonfires;

by baiting bulls, playing at football or other games; by leaving waggon, &c.;

any hedge or other fence on or at the sides of any turnpike road, in such manner as to reduce the breadth or confine the limits thereof, or shall fill up or obstruct any ditch at the side thereof, or shall make or cause to be made any dwelling house or other building, or any hedge or other fence, on any common or waste land on the side or sides of any turnpike road, within the distance of thirty feet, if within three miles of any market town, or if beyond that distance within twenty-five feet from the middle or centre thereof, or shall make any drain, gutter, sink, or watercourse across or otherwise break up or injure the surface of any turnpike road or of any part thereof, or shall plough, harrow, or break up the soil of any land or ground, or in ploughing or harrowing the adjacent lands shall turn his or their plough or harrow in or upon any land or ground within the distances aforesaid from the middle or centre of any turnpike road, made or to be made, or make any other encroachment on any turnpike road within the distances aforesaid from the middle or centre thereof, every person so offending shall forfeit for every such offence forty shillings as shall make information of the same; and it shall be lawful for the trustees or commissioners who have the care of any such road to cause such dwelling house or other building, hedge, ditch, or fence, drain, sink, watercourse, gutter, or other encroachment, to be taken down or filled up, or, where any ditch shall be filled up or obstructed, to be opened and cleansed, at the expense of the person or persons to whom the same shall belong; and it shall and may be lawful for any one or more justice or justices of the peace of the county where such offence shall be committed, upon proof thereof to him or them made upon oath, to levy as well the expenses of taking down or filling up or cleansing such dwelling house or other building, hedges, ditches, drains, or other encroachments as aforesaid, as the several and respective penalties hereby imposed, by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels, rendering the overplus (if any) to the owner, on demand (1).

121. If any person or persons shall ride upon any footpath or causeway by the side of any turnpike road made or set apart for the use or accommodation of foot passengers, or shall lead or drive any horse, ass, mule, swine, or cattle or carriage of any description, or any wheelbarrow, truck, or sledge, or any single wheel of any waggon, cart, or carriage apart therefrom, upon any such footpath or causeway, or shall cause any injury or damage to be done to the same, or the hedges, posts, rails, or fences thereof, or shall wilfully pull down or damage any bridge, wall, or any other building or erection made by the trustees or commissioners of any turnpike road, or repaired or repairable by them; or shall haul or draw or cause to be hauled or drawn upon any part of such turnpike road any timber, stone, or other thing otherwise than upon wheeled carriages, or shall suffer any timber, stone, or other thing which shall be carried principally or in part upon wheeled carriages to drag or trail upon such road, to the prejudice thereof; or shall use any tipstick, joggle, or other instrument for the purpose of retarding the descent of any cart or other carriage down any hill, in such manner as to destroy, injure, or disturb the surface of any turnpike road; or shall in or upon such road, or by the side or sides thereof, or in any exposed situation near thereto, kill, slaughter, singe, scald, burn, dress, or cut up any beast, swine, calf, lamb, or other cattle; or if any person driving any horse or other beast on the said road, carrying any iron bar or rod, basket or pannier, or any other matter or thing, shall place such bar or rod, basket or pannier, matter or thing, so that the same or any of them shall project more than thirty inches from the side of such horse or other beast, or so as in any manner to obstruct or impede the passage of any person, or any horse, beast, or carriage, travelling along such turnpike road; or if any hawker, higler, gipsy, or other person or persons travelling with any machine, vehicle, cart, or other carriage, with or without any horse, mule, or ass, shall pitch any tent, booth, stall, or stand, or encamp upon or by the sides of any part of any turnpike road; or if any blacksmith, or other person occupying a blacksmith's shop, situate near any turnpike road, and having a window or windows fronting the said road, shall not by good and close shutters every evening after it becomes twilight, bar and prevent the light from such shop shining into or upon the said road; or if any person or persons shall make or assist in making any fire or fires commonly called bonfires, or shall set fire to or wantonly let off or throw any squib, rocket, serpent, or other firework whatsoever, within eighty feet of the centre of such road; or bait or run for the purpose of baiting any bull, or play at football, tennis, fives, cricket, or any other game or games, upon such road or on the side or sides thereof, or in any exposed situation near thereto, to the annoyance of any passenger or passengers; or if any person shall leave any waggon, vain, cart, or other carriage whatever upon such road or on the side or sides thereof, without any proper person in the sole custody or care thereof, longer than may be necessary to load or unload the same, except in cases of accident, and in cases of accident for a longer time than may be necessary to remove the same, or shall not place such waggon, wain, or other carriage during the time of loading or unloading the same, or of taking refreshment, as near to one side of the road as conveniently may be, either with or without any horse or beast of draught harnessed or yoked thereto; or shall lay any timber, stone, hay, straw, dung, manure, soil, ashes, rubbish, or other matter or thing whatsoever upon such road, or on the side or sides thereof, or the footpaths or causeways adjoining, to the prejudice of such road or footways, or to the prejudice, annoyance, interruption, or personal danger of any person or persons travelling thereon; or shall suffer any water, filth, dirt, or other offensive matter or thing whatsoever to run or flow into or upon such road or footpaths from any house, building, erection, lands, or premises adjacent thereto; or if any person driving any pigs or swine upon such road shall suffer such pigs or swine to root up or damage such road, or the fences, hedges, banks, or copse on either side thereof respectively; or if any person shall, after having blocked or stopped any cart, waggon, or other carriage in going up a hill or rising ground, cause or suffer to be or remain on such road the stone or other thing with which such cart or other carriage shall have been blocked or stopped; or if any person or persons shall pull down, damage, injure, or destroy any lamp or lamp post put up, erected, or placed in or near the side of any turnpike road or toll house erected thereon, or shall extinguish the light of any such lamp, every person offending in any of the cases aforesaid shall for each and every such offence forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding forty shillings over and above the damages occasioned thereby.

(1) By the Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1865, 28 & 29 Vict. c. 107, s. 2, it is enacted that ss. 118 and 124 of this Act shall continue in force in relation to any turnpike road which may at any time thereafter (5th July, 1865) become an ordinary highway, and the highway board or surveyor or other local authority, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be the trustees or commissioners.

Secs. 121—147.

by laying timber, &c.;

by running of water or filth;

by swine;

by leaving block stones, &c.; or by damaging lamps.

What shall be deemed the centre of the road.

No encroachment to be made on the waste lands lying on the side of any road.

No windmill to be erected within 200 yards of the turnpike road, on penalty of 5*l*.

Recovery and application of penalties.

Limitation of actions.

124. Where in this or any other Act of Parliament relating to turnpike roads any matter or thing is directed or forbidden to be done within a certain distance of the centre of the road, that portion of ground shall be deemed and taken to be the road which has been maintained by the trustees or commissioners as hard road, and repaired with stones, gravel, or other materials used in forming roads, for six months immediately preceding any offence committed against such regulations, and the centre of the road shall be the middle of such hard road, where, a line being drawn along the road or a point marked, an equal number of feet of hard road which have been so maintained and repaired as aforesaid for six months before shall be found on each side of such line or mark: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorise any person or persons to enclose or make any encroachment on any waste lands or grounds lying on the side of any turnpike road, being part of the highway and over which the King's subjects have been used and accustomed to pass, but every person who shall inclose such waste lands and grounds, or obstruct the right of passage over the same, shall continue and be subject to the same process and penalties as if this Act had not been made (¹).

126. [Directing the using of skid-pans or slippers; penalty on driver not using them, not exceeding twenty shillings.]

127. No person shall hereafter erect or cause any windmill to be erected within the distance of two hundred yards from any part of any turnpike road, under the penalty of five pounds for each and every day such windmill shall continue: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to render legal the re-erection or continuance of any windmill in any case where by the common law such windmill shall be a public or private nuisance.

130. [One driver may take charge of two carts, provided they are drawn only by one horse each; not to extend to carts within ten miles of London.]

131. [Children not to drive carts, &c., on penalty of ten shillings.]

132. [Drivers of wagons or carts not to ride thereon unless some other person on foot guide the same (²).]

141. (³), and the moneys arising by such penalties, forfeitures, and fines, respectively, when paid or levied, if not otherwise directed to be applied by this Act, shall be from time to time paid, one moiety thereof to the informer or person suing for and recovering the same, and the other moiety to the treasurer or treasurers to the trustees or commissioners for repairing and maintaining the road on which such offence shall have been committed, and applied and disposed of for the purposes of such road and of this Act.

147. If any action or suit shall be commenced against any person or persons for anything done in pursuance of this Act, then and in every such case such action or suit shall be commenced or prosecuted within three months after the fact committed, and not afterwards; and the same and every such action or suit shall be brought in the county or place where the cause

(¹) See note (¹), ante, p. 1384.

(²) See now the Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1867, 30 & 31 Vict. c. 121, s. 4.

(³) The first part of this section is repealed by the Summary Jurisdiction Act, 1884. Proceedings must now be taken under the Summary Jurisdiction Acts, 1848, 1879.

Section 147. of action shall have arisen, and not elsewhere; and the defendant or defendants in every such action or suit shall and may plead the general issue, and at the trial thereof give this Act and the special matter in evidence; and if the matter or thing complained of shall appear to have been done under the authority and in execution of this Act, or if any such action or suit shall be brought after the time limited for bringing the same, or be brought and laid in any other county or place than as aforementioned, then the jury shall find for the defendant or defendants, and if the plaintiff shall become nonsuit, or discontinue his or her action after the defendant shall have appeared, or have a verdict against him or her, or if upon demurrer judgment shall be given against the plaintiff, the defendant shall and may recover treble costs, and have the like remedy for recovery thereof as any defendant or defendants hath or have in any cases by law (¹).

SCHEDULE.

Schedule.

The SCHEDULE to which the Act refers;

CONTAINING

The FORMS OF PROCEEDINGS mentioned in the foregoing Act.

No. 8.—AGREEMENT between the trustees of a turnpike road and a person liable by tenure to repair some part of it.

At a meeting of the trustees of the turnpike roads, under an Act passed in the year of the reign of King George the For [state the principal part of the title of the Act], held at the day of

Whereas A.B. of is liable by tenure, &c. [as the case shall be] to the repair of a certain highway leading between and of the length of yards or thereabouts, and the said highway being now made turnpike road by virtue of the said Act, will occasion a greater expense to make and keep the same in proper repair than would have been necessary if no such Act had been obtained, and the said A.B. attending this meeting in person [or by C.D., his attorney or agent authorized to treat in his behalf], the said trustees and the said A.B., &c., in pursuance of a power given by an Act passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, "For regulating Turnpike Roads," have, in order to put and keep the said road in proper condition and repair, come to the following agreement; videlicet, that the said trustees shall on or before the day of next pay and allow the sum of out of the tolls arising upon the said turnpike roads towards putting the said road into proper repair, to be laid out and expended by the surveyor of the said turnpike road, and that the said A.B. shall advance and pay into the hands of the treasurer of the said turnpike road on or before the day of next the sum of to be also laid out and expended by the said surveyor in the repair of the said road, and that from and after the next the said turnpike road shall be kept in repair by the said trustees out of the said tolls as aforesaid, so long as the said Turnpike Act shall continue, upon the said A.B. paying into the hands of their treasurer the sum of upon the in every year, which the said A.B. doth hereby for himself and his heirs agree to pay accordingly, so long as the said road shall be so repaired by the said trustees as aforesaid.

[Or if it shall be agreed that A.B. shall keep the road in repair upon having an annual allowance in money or statute duty from the said trustees, let the agreement be varied and adapted to the case.]

No. 9.—MAGISTRATES' SUMMONS.

To the surveyors of the highways of the parish of in the county of

Upon application made by surveyor of the turnpike roads from appointed by the trustees for putting into execution an Act of Parliament passed in the year of the reign of His Majesty King George the intituled "An Act by order of the trustees for the said road to us, two of His Majesty's justices of the peace acting in and for the said county, we do hereby summon you, the surveyors of the highways of the parish or place of in the said county, to deliver a list to the said as such surveyor as aforesaid, at his house, situate in the said county, within days after the service of this summons, of the names of the several persons, inhabitants of the said parish or place, and who are by law subject and liable to do statute work for the present year upon the road situate in the said parish or place, or to the payment of any money in lieu of or as a composition for such statute work, distinguishing the nature of the work to be done, whether with teams or draughts or otherwise, and also the amount of the respective sums to be paid; and we the said justices do hereby require you to make such lists of names, in such manner and under such regulations and restrictions as is or are directed by any law or statute now in force and effect for the repair of the public highways. Schedule.

(¹) Generally as to notice of action, see note, ante, p. 188.

And in case you shall refuse or wilfully neglect to give in such list as aforesaid, or shall knowingly or wilfully give in a false or imperfect list, you so offending will for every such offence forfeit and be liable to pay a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

Given under our hands and seals, this day of in the year of our Lord 182 .

No. 10.—NOTICE to be given to surveyors of highways.

To the surveyors of the highways of the parish or place of in the county of

I do hereby give you notice, that the list delivered by you to me as surveyor of the turnpike road from to in the said county of of the names of the several persons who within your said parish or place are by law liable to do statute work for the present year, or to the payment of money in lieu of or as a composition for such statute work, will be laid before two of His Majesty's justices of the peace for the said county, in pursuance of the directions of the Act passed in the year of His Majesty King George the , intituled "An Act on the day of at in the said county in order that such two justices may adjudge and determine what part or proportion of the statute work for the said year shall be done upon the said road, and also what proportion of the composition money shall be paid to the trustees of the said road, or to their treasurer: and I do hereby give you further notice, that I shall apply to the justices for [one-half, one-third, as the case may be], of the statute duty from your parish for this year, which according to the list delivered by you will be (say) days in the whole in composition money. If you object to this division, you will in course appear, but if not the same will be confirmed by the justices, if they think proper.

Dated this day of Surveyor of the said turnpike road.

GENERAL TURNPIKE ACT OF 1841.

4 & 5 VICT. c. 59.

1. [After reciting the abolition of statute duty by 5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 50, ante, p. 756, Secs. 1—3. proceeds]. It shall be lawful for the justices at any special sessions for the highways holden after the passing of this Act, upon information exhibited before them by the clerk or treasurer of any turnpike trust that the funds of the said trust are insufficient for the repairs of the turnpike roads within any parish, notice in writing of such intended information having been previously given on the part of such clerk or treasurer to the parish surveyor twenty-one days at least before such special sessions, to examine the state of the revenues and debts of such turnpike trusts, and to inquire into the state and condition of the repairs of the roads within the same, and also to ascertain the length of the roads, including turnpike roads, within such parish, and how much of such road is turnpike road, and if after such examination it shall appear to the said justices necessary or expedient for the purposes of any turnpike road so to do, then to adjudge and order what portion, if any, of the rate or assessment levied or to be levied by virtue of the said recited Act shall be paid by the said parish surveyor, and at what time or times, to the said commissioners or trustees, or to their treasurer or other officers appointed by them on that behalf, such money to be wholly laid out in the actual repairs of such part of such turnpike road as lies within the parish from which it was received ⁽¹⁾.

2. And be it enacted, that if any such parish surveyor shall refuse or neglect to pay over such portion of the said rate or assessment at the time or times and in the manner mentioned in the order of the said justices, the same shall and may be levied upon the goods and chattels of such surveyor in such manner as penalties and forfeitures are by the said recited Act authorised to be levied ⁽²⁾.

3. Provided always, and be it enacted, that if any person shall think himself aggrieved by any order, judgment, or determination made or by any matter or thing done by any justices of the ⁽¹⁾ As to the meaning of "turnpike road" and generally as to the construction of this statute, see R. v. French, L. R. 4 Q. B. D. 507, 48 L. J. M. C. 175, 41 L. T. N. S. 63, 28 W. R. 118, 43 J. P. 699, and Sunk Island Trustees, dc., v. Patrington, 1 B. & S. 747, 31 L. J. M. C. 18, 26 J. P. 102. As to power of local board to levy rate for purposes of this Act, see R. v. Worthing, dc., Trustees, 3 E. & B. 989, 23 L. J. M. C., 187, 23 L. T. 169, 2 W. R. 478, 18 Jur. 907. An order cannot be made for payment of expenses incurred before information, Broen v. Evans, 34 L. J. M. C. 101, 13 W. R. 680, 29 J. P. 341, 11 Jur. N. S. 541.

⁽²⁾ See 5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 50, ss. 101, 103, ante, pp. 821, 822.

Secs. 3—4. peace at any such special sessions, in pursuance of this Act, such person shall be at liberty to make his complaint thereof by appeal to the justices of the peace at the next general or quarter sessions of the peace to be held for the county, riding, division, or place wherein the cause of such complaint shall arise, such appellant first giving to such justices ten days ⁽¹⁾ notice in writing of the grounds of such appeal within six days after such order, judgment, or determination shall be so made or given as aforesaid, who are hereby required, within forty-eight hours after the receipt of such notice, to return all proceedings whatever had before them respectively touching the matter of such appeal to the said justices at the general or quarter sessions aforesaid; and that in case of such appeal the said justices at the said quarter sessions, upon due proof of such notice and statement having been given as aforesaid, shall hear and determine such appeal; and the said justices at the said quarter sessions shall have power to award such costs to the parties appealing or appealed against as they the said justices shall think proper, such costs to be levied and recovered in the same manner as any penalties or forfeitures are recoverable under the said recited Act; and no proceeding to be had or taken in pursuance of this Act shall be quashed or vacated for want of form: provided always, that in case there shall not be time to give such notice as aforesaid before the next sessions to be holden after such order, determination, or judgment, then and in every such case such appeal may be made to the justices at the next following sessions, who shall proceed to determine such appeal in manner aforesaid: provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the appellant to be heard in support of such appeal, unless such notice and statement shall have been so given as aforesaid [nor on the hearing of such appeal to go into or give evidence of any other grounds of appeal than those set forth in such statements as aforesaid ⁽²⁾].

4. And be it enacted, that in construing this Act the word "parish" shall be taken to mean and include parish, township, tithing, rape, vill, wapentake, division, city, borough, liberty, market town, franchise, hamlet, precinct, chapelry, or other place or district maintaining its own highways ⁽³⁾.

ANNUAL TURNPIKE ACTS CONTINUANCE ACT, 1863.

26 & 27 VICT. c. 94.

An Act to amend the law relating to the repair of Turnpike Roads in England, and to continue certain Turnpike Acts in Great Britain. [28th July, 1863.]

Section 1.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the law relating to the repair of turnpike roads, and to continue for limited times the Acts hereinafter specified: Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the lords spiritual and temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Whereas doubts are entertained whether highway boards established under the Act of the session of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-one ⁽⁴⁾, are liable to contribute to the repair of turnpike roads in pursuance of the Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-nine ⁽⁵⁾, and the Acts continuing the same: Be it enacted, that where any turnpike road is situate in a parish that is included in a highway district, an order may be made on the highway board of the district to contribute to the repair of that road under the same circumstances under which an order for the same purpose may be made on the parish surveyor in pursuance of the said Act of the session of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter fifty-nine, as continued as aforesaid; and for the purposes of the said last-mentioned Act, the highway board shall be deemed to be substituted for the parish surveyor, and any rate leviable in pursuance of a precept of the board for the rate or assessment levied or to be levied by the said surveyor as in the said Act mentioned, [and any moneys paid by the board for the purposes or in pursuance of the last-mentioned Act shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by the board in respect of the repair of highways in the parish in which the turnpike road is situate for which contribution is required ⁽⁶⁾], and "parish," as used in this section, shall mean any place in a

⁽¹⁾ Now fourteen clear days, 12 & 13 Vict. c. 45, s. 1, ante, p. 815 n.

⁽²⁾ The words between brackets are now repealed by Statute Law Revision Act, 1874 (No. 2). See now 12 & 13 Vict. c. 45, s. 1, ante, p. 815 n.

⁽³⁾ See further, note ⁽⁴⁾, p. 756, ante.

⁽⁴⁾ Ante, p. 839.

⁽⁵⁾ Ante, p. 1387.

⁽⁶⁾ The portion within brackets is repealed by the Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1871, 34 & 35 Vict. c. 115, s. 15, which provides that "when in accordance with the provisions

For removing doubts as to highway boards established under 25 & 26 Vict. c. 61, being liable to contribute to repair of turnpike roads, in pursuance of 4 & 5 Vict. c. 59, &c.

highway district that returns a waywarden or waywardens to the board of that district; and it is hereby declared, that "local Act," as used in the seventh section of the said Act of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter sixty-one, does not include Turnpike Acts.

Section 1.

ANNUAL TURNPIKE ACTS CONTINUANCE ACT, 1873.

36 & 37 VICT. c. 90.

[5th August, 1873.]

15. If any highway board or other local authority shall be desirous of taking upon themselves the maintenance and repair of the roads of any turnpike trusts within or passing through their districts, such highway board or other local authority may, if not less than one-half in length of such road is within the district, apply to the Local Government Board to determine the value of the existing debt and other liabilities of such turnpike trust, and the Local Government Board may by order made after such inquiry and the publication of such notice as they may think sufficient, determine the value of such debt and liabilities, and the trustees and other persons interested in such debt and liabilities shall accept a sum equivalent to the value so determined, as a full and complete discharge of such debt and liabilities, and from and after a day to be fixed by the said Local Government Board no tolls shall be levied on the roads theretofore included within the district of such turnpike trust; and in case the said turnpike trust shall extend beyond the district of the highway board or local authority making the application as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Local Government Board to apportion the value of the debts and liabilities of such turnpike trust so determined as aforesaid between the several local authorities through whose districts the roads of such turnpike trust extend, and each such local authority shall raise and pay to the trustees the amount apportioned to such authority.

Secs. 15, 16.

Provided that an order made under this section shall not take effect until the expiration of one calendar month after the same has been published in the London Gazette and some local newspaper circulating in the locality of the turnpike trust affected thereby; and if two-thirds in number and value of the creditors of the trust shall give notice in writing to the Local Government Board before such order takes effect that they object to the same, the order shall be provisional only, and shall not come into operation until it has been confirmed by Parliament.

16. [Will be found set out in note (4), ante, p. 872.]

ANNUAL TURNPIKE ACTS CONTINUANCE ACT, 1874.

37 & 38 VICT. c. 95.

[7th August, 1874.]

10. Where by any Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act it is or shall be provided that no money shall be expended in the repair of any turnpike road, such turnpike road shall be deemed to be a highway, and shall be repairable as such; provided that where such highway, or any portion thereof, shall pass through any highway district constituted under the Highway Acts, 1862 and 1864 (1), the costs of maintaining such highway, or any such portion thereof, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred for the common use or benefit of the several parishes within such district, and shall be charged accordingly on the district fund.

Section 10.

of the Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1863, an order has been made on the highway board of a district to contribute to the repair of a turnpike road, any moneys paid by the board in pursuance of such order shall be deemed to be expenses incurred for the common use or benefit of the several parishes within such district, and shall be charged accordingly to the district fund." Now by the Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1872, 35 & 36 Vict. c. 85, s. 14, "a highway board may, if they think fit, either repair or contribute to the repair of a turnpike road within their district, notwithstanding that no order of contribution may have been made upon the board in pursuance of the first section of the Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1863; and all moneys so expended by the board shall be deemed to be expenses incurred for the common use or benefit of the several parishes within such district, and shall be charged accordingly on the district fund."

(1) Ante, p. 839 and p. 853.

Section 11. 11. Where the Local Government Board in exercise of the discretionary power conferred upon them by section fifteen of "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1873" ⁽¹⁾, make an order determining the value of the existing debt and liabilities of a turnpike trust, the board may by the same order declare to whom and in respect of what claim or claims the whole or any part of the value of such debt and liabilities is to be paid. The term "existing debt and other liabilities" used in the said fifteenth section of "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1873," means the bonded or mortgage debt of a turnpike trust, and any unpaid interest due thereon.

ANNUAL TURNPIKE ACTS CONTINUANCE ACT, 1882.

45 & 46 VICT. c. 52.

[18th August, 1882.]

Section 8. 8. The liability of any person for or to contribute towards the maintenance, watering, or lighting of any part of a turnpike road, the trust of which has expired or shall hereafter expire, shall continue in force notwithstanding the expiration of the trust; and any contract or obligation under which such liability was created, entered into with the trustees of the turnpike road, and not expressly made determinable on the happening of that event, may be enforced against the person who has entered into such contract or obligation, so far as relates to so much of the road as is within the jurisdiction of any highway authority, by such authority, in the same manner as the same might have been enforced by the trustees of the turnpike road. In this section "person" includes any body of persons, corporate or incorporate; and "highway authority" means surveyor of highways, highway board, or urban sanitary authority.

(1) Ante, p. 1389.

STATUTES RELATING TO BRIDGES.

THE STATUTE OF BRIDGES.

22 HEN. VIII. c. 5.

[Made in the Parliament holden by Prorogation at Westminster, on the Sixteenth Day of January, in the Twenty-second Year of the Reign of the most illustrious and potent Prince our Sovereign Lord Henry VIII. by the Grace of God, of England and France King, Defender of the Faith, and Lord of Ireland. A.D. 1530—1.]

An Act concerning the Amendment of Bridges in Highways.

Be it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, that the justices of the peace in every shire of this realm, franchise, city, or borough, or four of them at the least, whereof one to be of the quorum, shall have power and authority to inquire, hear, and determine in the king's general sessions of peace, of all manner of annoyances of bridges broken in the highways, to the damage of the king's liege people, and to make such process and pains upon every presentment afore them for the reformation of the same, against such as owen to be charged for the making or amending of such bridges, as the king's justices of his Bench use commonly to do, or as it shall seem by their discretions to be necessary and convenient for the speedy amendment of such bridges.

2. "And where in many parts of this realm it cannot be known and proved what hundred, riding, wapentake, city, borough, town, or parish, nor what person certain, or body politic, ought of right to make such bridges decayed, by reason whereof such decayed bridges, for lack of knowledge of such as owen to make them, for the most part lie long without any amendment, to the great annoyance of the king's subjects :"

3. For the remedy thereof, be it enacted by authority aforesaid, that in every such case the said bridges, if they be without city, or town corporate, shall be made by the inhabitants of the shire or riding within the which the said bridge decayed shall happen to be ; and if it be within any city or town corporate, then by the inhabitants of every such city or town corporate wherein such bridges shall happen to be ; and if part of any such bridges so decayed happen to be in one shire, riding, city, or town corporate, and the other part thereof in another shire, riding, city, or town corporate, or if part be within the limits of any city, or town corporate, and part without, or part within one riding, and part within another ; that then in every such case, the inhabitants of the shires, ridings, cities, or towns corporate shall be charged, and chargeable to amend, make, and repair such part and portion of such bridges so decayed as shall lie and be within the limits of the shire, riding, city, or town corporate, wherein they be inhabited at the time of the same decays ⁽¹⁾.

4. And be it further enacted, that in every such case where it cannot be known and proved what persons, lands, tenements, and bodies politic owen to make and repair such bridges, that for speedy reformation and amending of such bridges, the justices of peace within the shires or ridings wherein such decayed bridges be out of cities and towns corporate, and if it be within

Secs. 1—4.

Justices of peace may award process against them who ought to repair bridges.

By whom bridges shall be repaired.

How justices may tax inhabitants for repair of bridges.

⁽¹⁾ By 21 Edw. I. (Magna Carta), c. 15, "No town nor freeman shall be distrained to make bridges nor banks (over rivers), but such as of old time and of right have been accustomed to make them (in the time of King Henry our Grandfather)."

Secs. 4—7. cities or towns corporate, then the justices of peace within every such city or town corporate, or four of the said justices at the least, whereof one to be of the quorum, shall have power and authority within the limits of their several commissions and authorities, to call before them the constables of every town and parish, being within the shire, riding, city, or town corporate, as well within liberty as without, wherein such bridges or any parcel thereof shall happen to be, or else two of the most honest inhabitants within every such town or parish in the said shire, riding, city, or town corporate, by the discretion of the said justices of peace, or four of them at the least, whereof one to be of the quorum; and at and upon the appearances of such constable or inhabitants the said justices of peace, or four of them, whereof one to be of the quorum, with the assent of the said constables or inhabitants, shall have power and authority to tax and set every inhabitant in any such city, town, or parish within the limits of their commissions and authorities, to such reasonable aid and sum of money as they shall think by their discretions convenient and sufficient for the repairing, re-edifying, and amendment of such bridges; and after such taxation made, the said justices shall cause the names and sums of every particular person so by them taxed to be written in a roll indented: And shall also have power and authority to make two collectors of every hundred, for collection of all such sums of money by them set and taxed; which collectors, receiving the one part of the said roll indented under the seals of the said justices, shall have power and authority to collect and receive all the particular sums of money therein contained, and to distrain every such inhabitant as shall be taxed and refuse payment thereof, in his lands, goods, and chattels, and to sell such distress, and of the sale thereof retain and perceive all the money taxed, and the residue (if the distress be better) to deliver to the owner thereof; and that the same justices, or four of them, within the limits of their commissions and authorities, shall also have power and authority to name and appoint two surveyors, which shall see every such decayed bridge repaired and amended from time to time, as often as need shall require, to whose hands the said collectors shall pay the said sums of money taxed, and by them received; and that the collectors and surveyors, and every of them, and their executors and administrators, and the executors and administrators of them, and every of them, from time to time, shall make a true declaration and account to the justices of peace of the shire, riding, city, or town corporate, wherein they shall be appointed collectors or surveyors, or to four of the same justices, whereof one to be of the quorum, of the receipts, payments, and expenses of the said sums of money: And if they or any of them refuse that to do, that then the same justices of peace, or four of them, from time to time, by their discretions, shall have power and authority to make process against the said collectors and surveyors, and every of them, their executors and administrators, and the executors and administrators of every of them, by attachments under their seals, returnable at the general sessions of peace, and if they appear, then to compel them to account as is aforesaid; or else if they or any of them refuse that to do, then to commit such of them as shall refuse, to ward, there to remain without bail or mainprize, till the said declaration and account be truly made.

Appointment of collectors. [See now 1 Ann. st. 1, c. 12, s. 2.]

And of surveyors.

Collectors and surveyors shall account to the justices. [See 1 Ann. st. 1, c. 18, s. 2, giving power to the sessions generally to make assessments, &c.]

Justices where bridges are may make process into other shires against offenders. [See 1 Ann. st. 1, c. 18, s. 5.]

Sheriffs, &c., shall serve process.

The five ports excepted.

How bridges shall be repaired there.

5. And where any bridge or bridges lie in one shire or riding, and such persons inhabitants, bodies politic, lands, or tenements, which owen to be charged to the making and amending of such bridges, lie and abide in another shire or riding, or where such bridges be within any city or town corporate, and the persons inhabitants, bodies politic, lands, or tenements, that owen to make or repair any such bridges, lie and be out of the said cities or towns corporate: Be it enacted, that in every such case the justices of peace of the shire, city, or town corporate, within the which such decayed bridges, or any part thereof, shall happen to be, shall have power to inquire, hear, and determine all such annoyances, being within the limits of their commissions or authorities; and if the annoyance be presented, then to make process into every shire within this realm, against such as owen to make or amend any such bridges so presented before them to be decayed, to the annoyance and let of the passage of the king's subjects, and to do further in every behalf in every such case, as they might do by authority of this Act in case that the persons or bodies politic, lands or tenements, which owen to be charged to the amending or making of such bridges, or any part thereof, were in the same shire, riding, city, or town corporate where such annoyance shall happen to be: And that all sheriffs, and bailiffs of liberties and franchises shall truly serve and execute such process as shall come to their hands from the said justices of peace afore whom any presentment shall be had for any such annoyance, according to the tenour and effect of the said process to them directed, without favour, affection, or corruption, upon pain to make such fine as shall be set upon them, or any of them, by the discretion of the said justices.

6. Provided always, that this Act, nor anything therein contained, be not prejudicial to the liberties of the five ports, or members of the same.

7. And for reformation of annoyances of bridges within the said ports and members, be it enacted by authority of this present Parliament, that the warden, mayors, and bailiffs elected, and jurates of the same ports, and every of them, have power and authority to inquire, hear, and determine all manner of common annoyances of bridges within the same ports and members, and to make such process, pains, taxations, and all other things within the same ports and members, as the justices of peace may do in other shires or places out of the same ports, by virtue and authority of this present Act in every behalf.

Secs. 7—9.

8. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the justices of peace, or four of them, shall have power and authority to allow such reasonable costs and charges to the said surveyors and collectors, as by their discretions shall be thought convenient ⁽¹⁾.

Allowance to surveyors and collectors.

“9. Forasmuch that albeit bridges decayed were amended and repaired according to the tenour of this Act, yet nevertheless, if speedy remedy for the amendment of the ways next adjoining to every of the ends of such bridges should not be had and made, the king's subjects should take little or none avail or commodity in many parts of this realm by the making of the bridges:” In consideration whereof, be it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, that such part and portion of the highways in every part of this realm, as well within franchise as without, as lie next adjoining to any ends of any bridges within this realm, distant from any of the said ends by the space of three hundred foot, be made, repaired, and amended as often as need shall require; and that the justices of the peace in every shire of this realm, franchise, city, or borough, or four of them at the least, whereof one to be of the quorum, within the limits of their commissions and authorities, shall have power and authority to inquire, hear, and determine in the king's general sessions of peace, all manner of annoyances of and in such highways, so being and lying next adjoining to any ends of bridges within this realm, distant from any one of the ends of such bridges three hundred foot, and to do in every thing and things concerning the making, repairing, and amending of such highways, and every of them, in as large and ample manner as they might and may do, to and for the making, repairing, and amending of bridges by virtue and authority of this present Act.

Repairing highways at ends of bridges.

[Explained and amended by Stat. 1 Ann. st. 1, c. 18; and see sections 4, 5, 8 of this present Act.]

STATUTE OF BRIDGES OF QUEEN ANNE.

1 ANNE, STAT. 1, C. 12 ⁽²⁾.

An Act to explain and alter the Act made in the two-and-twentieth year of King Henry the Eighth, concerning repairing and amending of Bridges in the Highways: And for repealing an Act made in the twenty-third year of Queen Elizabeth, for the re-edifying of Cardiffe Bridge, in the County of Glamorgan: And also for changing the Day of Election of the Wardens and Assistants of Rochester Bridge. [A.D. 1701.]

“Whereas by an Act of Parliament in the two-and-twentieth year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth ⁽³⁾, intituled ‘An Act concerning repairing and amending of Bridges in the Highways,’ it is, amongst other things, therein enacted, that in every case where it cannot be known and proved what persons, lands, tenements, and bodies politic ought to make and repair such bridges, that for speedy reformation and amending of such bridges, the justices of the peace within their several counties, shires, ridings and divisions, cities and towns corporate, or any four of them, whereof one to be of the quorum, shall, within the limits of their several commissions, call before them the constables of every town and parish, or else two of the most honest inhabitants of every such town and parish, and with the assent of the said constables or inhabitants, shall tax and set every inhabitant in such city, town, and parish to such reasonable aid and sums of money as they shall think by their discretions convenient for the repairing of such bridges, and after such taxation made, shall cause the names and sums of every particular person so by them taxed, to be written in a roll indented, one part whereof is to be delivered, under the hands and seals of the said justices, to two collectors appointed by the said justices for every hundred, who are thereby empowered to collect the same; which method and manner of taxing and collecting the said money for repair of decayed bridges, and the highways thereunto adjoining, having by long experience been found very troublesome, burthensome, and chargeable to the several counties, cities, towns corporate, ridings, and divisions: And whereas in many places within this kingdom, more money than is necessary for the repair of such bridges

Section 1.

22 Hen. VIII. c. 5.

⁽¹⁾ See 1 Ann., st. 1, c. 12, s. 6, post, p. 1395.

⁽²⁾ This Act is c. 18 in Ruffhead's Statutes.

⁽³⁾ Ante, p. 1391.

Secs. 1—5. hath been taxed and collected, or the money which hath been so taxed and collected hath been misemployed, and not laid out in the repair of such bridges as was intended :” For remedy of all which mischiefs and inconveniences for the future, may it please your most excellent Majesty that it may be enacted ; and be it enacted by the Queen’s most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that all and every the clauses, matters and things in the said Act of the two-and-twentieth year of the reign of the said King Henry the Eighth, not hereby altered, shall be and continue in full force and virtue, to all intents, constructions, and purposes whatsoever, relating to the repairing of decayed bridges and the highways thereunto adjoining.

Justices may assess towns, &c., in proportion for repair of decayed bridges.

How to be levied, &c.

Treasurers to be appointed, &c.

Distress.

Constable, &c., neglecting to assess.
Penalty.

Penalty.

Penalties, &c., to be paid to the treasurer.

Repair of bridges, &c., where to be determined.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that for the more easy taxing and collecting of the money for the repair of decayed bridges, and that the same may be duly applied to the purposes for which it is intended, the justices of the peace, within the several limits of their commissions, shall, at their general or quarter sessions of the peace, from and after the first day of May, which shall be in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and two, have full power and authority, upon due presentment to them made, that any bridge within their respective commissions or authorities is out of repair, and which by them hath usually, or ought to have been repaired and maintained, to assess upon every town, parish, or place within their respective commissions, in proportions upon each respective town and parish, as they usually have been assessed towards the repair of bridges ; which money so assessed as aforesaid shall be levied and collected by the respective constables of each parish, township, hamlet or vill, or by such other person and persons, and in such manner as the said justices by their order at such sessions shall in that behalf direct and appoint, and the money thereby raised shall (by such constables or other persons, so as aforesaid by them collected) be paid over by them to the high constables of every hundred, in any such county, city, riding, or division, in six days after they shall have received the same ; and the high constables shall and are hereby required, in ten days after their receipt, to pay the same into the hands of such person and persons as the said justices, by their order, at such sessions, shall direct and appoint to be treasurers and receivers of the same, and the money thereby raised shall be employed and accounted for according to the orders and directions of the said justices, for and towards the amending of such decayed bridges, and the highways at the end of the said bridges, from time to time, as need shall require ; and the said assessments shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of every person so assessed, not paying the same within ten days after demand, rendering the overplus of the value of the goods so distrained to the owner and owners thereof, the necessary charges of making and selling such distress being first deducted.

3. And to the end that the money which is hereby intended to be assessed and levied, may be duly collected, paid, and applied to the several purposes for which it is intended, Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every high constable, churchwarden, overseer of the poor or petty constable, or other person that shall neglect to assess, collect or pay the money hereby intended to be raised, as is hereinbefore directed, shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of forty shillings ; and every treasurer that shall pay any money but by order of such justices of the peace, at such sessions (which order the said justices are hereby required and commanded to make only for the building, repairing, or amending such bridges, and the highways at the end of such bridges as aforesaid), shall for every such offence forfeit the sum of five pounds.

“4. And whereas upon presentments and indictments for not repairing such bridges, and the highways at the end of such bridges, the fines imposed and set upon such presentments and indictments, and other fines and issues for not repairing, building and amending such bridges, and the highways at the end of such bridges, are returned into the Court of Exchequer or other courts”: Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no fine, issue, penalty, or forfeiture shall hereafter be returned into the Court of Exchequer, or other court, but shall be levied and paid into the hands of the treasurer or treasurers so as aforesaid appointed by the said justices, to be accounted for by the said treasurer, and to be applied by the said justices towards the building, repairing, or amending such bridges, and the highways at the end of such bridges, and to no other end or purpose whatsoever.

5. And be it enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all matters concerning the repairing and amending of the bridges and highways hereinbefore mentioned shall be determined in the county where they lie, and not elsewhere ; and that no presentment or indictment for not repairing such bridges, or the highways at the end of such bridges, shall be removed by certiorari out of the said county into any other court ⁽¹⁾.

(1) This only applies to indictments against the county, and does not apply where the indict-

6. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the said justices of the peace, Secs. 6—9.
at such general quarter sessions as aforesaid, shall have full power and authority to allow such persons concerned in the execution of this present Act, any sum not exceeding threepence in the pound.

Justices to allow 3d. in the pound, &c.

7. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any action or suit shall be hereafter commenced or prosecuted against any person or persons by this Act authorised to put the same in execution, every person or persons so sued may plead the general issue, and give this Act, or the said recited Act, made in the two-and-twentieth year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, and the special matter in evidence; [and if the plaintiff shall become non-suit, or forbear further prosecution, or suffer discontinuance, or if a verdict pass against him or her, the said defendant and defendants shall recover his and their double costs, for which he and they shall have the like remedy as in cases where costs by law are given to defendants (1).]

General issue.

Double costs.

8. Provided always, that this Act, nor anything therein contained, shall excuse or discharge any particular persons, estates, or places from repairing any bridge which they have heretofore usually repaired.

Proviso.

9. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all the penalties and forfeitures incurred by this Act shall be applied towards the repairing the said bridges and highways at the ends of the same.

Penalties, how to be applied.

THE COUNTY RATES ACT, 1739.

12 GEO. II. c. 29.

An Act for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying of County Rates.

[A.D. 1739.]

13. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that no part of the money to be Secs. 13, 14.
raised and collected in pursuance of this Act shall be applied to the repair of any bridges . . . until presentments be made by the respective grand juries at the assize, great sessions, general gaol delivery or general or quarter sessions of the peace held for any county, riding, division, city, town corporate, or liberty, of the insufficiency, inconveniency, or want of reparation of their bridges.

No repairs of bridges, but upon present-ments of the grand jury.

14. Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the first day of June, 1739, when any public bridges, ramparts, banks, or cops or other works are to be repaired at the expense of any county, city, riding, hundred, division, liberty, or town corporate, it shall and may be lawful to and for the justices of the peace at their general or quarter sessions respectively, or the greater part of them then and there assembled, if they think proper and convenient, after presentment to be made as aforesaid of the want of reparation of such bridges, ramparts, banks, or cops to contract and agree with any person or persons for rebuilding, repairing, and amending of such bridges, ramparts, banks, or cops as shall be within their respective counties, cities, ridings, hundreds, divisions, liberties, or towns corporate, and all other works which are to be repaired and done by assessment on the respective counties, cities, ridings, hundreds, divisions, liberties or towns corporate for any term or terms of years not exceeding seven years at a certain annual sum, payment, or allowance for the same, such contractor or contractors giving sufficient security for the due performance thereof to the respective clerk of the peace for the time being, or the town clerk, high bailiff, or chief officer of any city, town corporate, or liberty; and that such justices at their respective general or quarter sessions shall give public notice of their intention of contracting with any person or persons for rebuilding, repairing and amending the bridges, ramparts, banks, or cops, and other works aforesaid, and that such contracts shall be made at the most reasonable price or prices which shall be proposed by such contractors respectively, and that all contracts when agreed to, and all orders relating thereto, shall be entered in a book to be kept by the respective clerk of the peace for the time being, or the town clerk, high bailiff, or chief officer of any city, town corporate, or liberty for that purpose, who is and are hereby required to keep them amongst the records of such county, city, town corporate, or liberty, to be from time to time inspected at all seasonable times by any of the said justices within the limits of their commissions, and by any person or persons employed or to be employed by any parish, township, or place contributing to the purposes of this Act, without fee or reward.

Justices may contract with persons for repairs.

ment is against a parish or private person: R. v. Hamworth, 2 Stra. 900. See also R. v. Cumberland, 6 T. R. 194, 3 B. & P. 354; R. v. Mackynlleth, 1 B. & C. 142.

(1) The portion between brackets is repealed by 5 & 6 Vict. c. 97, s. 2.

THE COUNTY BRIDGES ACT, 1740.

14 GEO. II. c. 33.

An Act to supply some Defects in the Laws for repairing and rebuilding County Bridges, for repairing, enlarging, erecting, and providing Houses of Correction, and for passing Rogues and Vagabonds. [1740].

Section 1.

Preamble, reciting the Act 13 Geo. II.

Justices at their quarter sessions may purchase lands to build county bridges.

Whereas it does and may happen that when county bridges are to be rebuilt or repaired, a piece or parcel of ground thereto adjoining may be of great use or service, either for enlarging such bridges or more commodiously rebuilding them : And whereas there is no power given by the laws in being for the rebuilding or repairing of county bridges, to the justices of the peace to purchase any such pieces or parcels of ground Therefore for the better repairing and rebuilding county bridges be it enacted that from and after the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand seven hundred and forty-one, the justices of the peace of any county, city, riding, liberty, or division, at their general sessions, or general quarter sessions assembled, or the major part of them, shall have power, and are hereby authorised to purchase of, or agree or contract with any person or persons, bodies politick or corporate, for any piece or parcel of land adjoining or near to any county bridge within the limits of their respective commissions, for the more commodious enlarging or convenient rebuilding the same ; which pieces or parcels of land shall not exceed one acre in the whole for any such bridge, and shall from time to time be paid for by the respective county treasurers, out of any moneys raised or to be raised by virtue of an Act made in the twelfth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying of county rates ; such treasurers being thereunto authorised, by orders under the hands and seals of the respective justices of the peace at their general sessions or general quarter sessions, or the major part of them ; which lands so purchased, shall be conveyed to such person or persons as the said justices of the peace at their general sessions or general quarter sessions, or the major part of them, shall respectively appoint, in trust, and for the uses and purposes of enlarging or rebuilding such bridges respectively.

THE COUNTY BRIDGES ACT, 1803.

43 GEO. III. c. 59.

An Act for remedying certain Defects in the Laws relative to the building and repairing of County Bridges, and other works maintained at the Expense of the Inhabitants of Counties in England. [24th June, 1803.]

Section 1.

Surveyors of county bridges empowered to get materials for the repair of bridges in the same manner as surveyors of turnpike roads.

13 Geo. III. c. 78.

Whereas the inhabitants of counties in that part of the United Kingdom called England, are by law bound to repair, support, and maintain the public bridges, commonly called county bridges, within such counties respectively, and the roads at each of the ends thereof for limited distances ; but the laws empowering them so to do are insufficient and defective : And whereas doubts have arisen how far the said inhabitants are liable to improve such bridges when they are not sufficiently commodious for the public : for remedy thereof, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that it shall be lawful to and for the surveyor of bridges and other public works, in each and every county respectively within that part of the United Kingdom called England, appointed or to be appointed by the justices at any general quarter sessions of the peace to be holden for such county, and the said surveyor is hereby authorised and empowered to search for, take, and carry away gravel, stone, sand, and other materials, for the repair of such bridges and roads at the ends thereof, as the inhabitants of counties are bound to repair, and to remove obstructions and annoyances from such bridges and roads, in such and the same manner as the surveyor or surveyors of any common highway within this kingdom is or are by an Act made and passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the statutes now in being for the Amendment and Preservation of the public highways within that part of Great Britain called England, and for other purposes," authorised to do ; and the several powers and authorities thereby vested in the surveyor or surveyors of highways, as well for the getting of materials as the preventing and removing of all nuisances and annoyances from such bridges and roads, shall be and the same are hereby vested in the surveyor and surveyors of county bridges, and the roads at the ends thereof as aforesaid; and the several penalties, forfeitures, matters, and things, in the said Act contained, relating to highways, shall be and the same are hereby extended and applied, as far as the same are applicable, to such bridges, and the roads at the ends thereof as aforesaid, as fully and effectually as if the same and every part thereof were herein repeated and re-enacted; the said surveyor or surveyors making satisfaction and compensation for all trespass and damage done in the execution of the powers of this Act, in such and the same manner as the surveyors of highways are required to make in and by the said above mentioned Act of the thirteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty.

Secs. 1—4.

2. And be it further enacted, that where any bridge or bridges, or roads at the ends thereof, repaired at the expense of any county, shall be narrow and incommodious, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said justices at any of their general quarter sessions, to order and direct such bridge or bridges, and roads, to be widened, improved, and made commodious for the public, and that where any bridge or bridges, repaired at the expense of any county, shall be so much in decay as to render the taking the same wholly down necessary or expedient, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said justices, at any of their said general quarter sessions, to order and direct the same to be rebuilt, either on the old site or situation, or on any new one more convenient to the public, contiguous to or within two hundred yards of the former one, as to such justices shall seem meet; and if, for the purpose of altering the situation, or of widening or enlarging any such bridge or bridges, road or roads as aforesaid, it shall be necessary to purchase any land or ground, it shall and may be lawful for such county surveyor or surveyors, by and under the direction of such justices at their general quarter sessions as aforesaid, to set out and ascertain the same, not exceeding in the whole one acre at any one such bridge as aforesaid, and to contract and agree with the owner or owners of such land, and persons interested therein, for the purchase thereof, either by a sum in gross or by an annual rent, at the option of such owner or owners; and if the said surveyor or surveyors cannot agree with the said owner or owners for the purchase thereof, or the recompense to be made for the same, or by reason of such owner or owners not being to be found, shall be prevented from treating, then and in every such case, the said justices in their general quarter sessions shall impanel a jury, and assess the compensation and satisfaction for such land, and for the trespass and damage to be done by the execution of the powers of this Act, in the same manner as they are authorised and empowered to do by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, in relation to highways; and all and every the clauses, powers, provisions, exemptions, penalties, matters, and things in the said Act contained, as well with respect to impanelling juries, examining and swearing witnesses, payments of expenses, enabling bodies politic, corporate, and collegiate, and other incapacitated persons, to sell and convey, and all other the powers and provisions of the said Act, shall be, and the same are hereby extended and applied to the works by this Act authorised to be done and performed, as far as the same are applicable, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes, as if the same were herein particularly repeated and re-enacted; provided that no money shall be applied to the amendment or alteration of any such bridge or bridges, until presentment shall have been made of the insufficiency, inconvenience, or want of reparation of such bridge or bridges, in pursuance of some or one of the statutes made and now in force concerning public bridges.

Quarter sessions may alter the situation of county bridges, &c.

3. [Tools and materials provided by the quarter sessions vested in the surveyor ⁽¹⁾.]

4. And be it further enacted, that the inhabitants of counties shall and may sue for any damages done to bridges and other works maintained and repaired at the expense of such counties respectively, and for the recovering of any property belonging to such counties, in the name of their surveyor, and also shall and may be sued in the name of such surveyor; and no action or prosecution to be brought or commenced by or against the inhabitants of counties, by virtue of this Act, in the name of the said surveyor, shall abate or be discontinued by the death or removal of such surveyor, or by the act of the surveyor, without the consent of the justices at their general quarter sessions assembled, but the surveyor for the time being shall be deemed the plaintiff or defendant in such actions, as the case may be: Provided always, that every such surveyor in whose name any action or suit shall be commenced, prosecuted, or defended, in pursuance of this Act, shall always be reimbursed and paid, out of the moneys in the hands of the treasurer of the public stock of such county respectively, all such costs and charges as he shall be put unto or become chargeable with by reason of his being so made plaintiff or defendant therein; and also all the costs and charges of prosecuting any indictment or indictments, or other proceedings against any person or persons whomsoever.

Inhabitants of counties may sue for damages done to bridges in the name of the surveyor.

⁽¹⁾ Repealed by 7 Geo. IV. c. 64, s. 32.

Secs. 5—7.

Description of bridges inhabitants of counties shall be liable to repair.

5. And, for the more clearly ascertaining the description of bridges hereafter to be erected, which inhabitants of counties shall and may be bound or liable to repair and maintain: be it further enacted, that no bridge hereafter to be erected or built in any county, by or at the expense of any individual or private person or persons, body politic or corporate, shall be deemed or taken to be a county bridge, or a bridge which the inhabitants of any county shall be compellable or liable to maintain or repair, unless such bridge shall be erected in a substantial and commodious manner, under the direction or to the satisfaction of the county surveyor, or person appointed by the justices of the peace at their general or quarter sessions assembled, or by the justices of the peace of the county of Lancaster, at their annual general sessions; and which surveyor, or person so appointed, is hereby required to superintend and inspect the erection of such bridge, when thereunto requested by the party or parties desirous of erecting the same; and in case the said party or parties shall be dissatisfied, the matter shall be determined by the said justices respectively at their next general quarter sessions, or at their annual general sessions in the county of Lancaster.

Orders respecting county bridges in the county of York to be made by the sessions held the first week after Easter.

6. And be it further enacted, that all orders and proceedings made and had within the county of York, relative to county bridges, shall in future be made and had by the justices of the respective ridings, assembled at the annual and general quarter sessions of the peace holden the first whole week after Easter, and at no other sessions whatever within such ridings, except at such adjournment as shall be made at the above annual and general quarter sessions so holden as aforesaid, for the express purpose of carrying such orders made as aforesaid into effect: Provided nevertheless, that it shall and may be lawful for any two justices of the said ridings respectively, in cases of emergency, to give such orders for making temporary bridges or such temporary repairs as shall be necessary for the temporary accommodation of the public.

Act not to extend to bridges repaired by reason of tenure.

7. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any bridges or roads which any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, is, are, or shall be liable to maintain or repair by reason of tenure, or by prescription, or to alter or affect the right to repair such bridges or roads.

THE COUNTY RATES AND BRIDGES ACT, 1812.

52 GEO. III. c. 110.

[9th July, 1812.]

Section 1.

Quarter sessions may appoint justices to superintend repairs.

[After reciting 12 Geo. II. c. 29, ss. 13, 14 ⁽¹⁾, proceeds as follows:—] And whereas great expense in the repairs of county bridges, ramparts, banks, cops and other works appertaining to the same, and of the roads over the same, and of so much of the roads at the ends thereof as by law is to be repaired at the expense of any county, riding, hundred, division, liberty or town corporate, and great inconvenience to the public may be often in a great measure prevented by the timely and immediate repair of any inconsiderable damage, injury, defect, or sudden want of repair or amendment of the same, without the delay which must generally arise from the necessity imposed by the aforesaid Act of a presentment by the grand jury at the assize, great sessions, or general or quarter sessions of the peace held for any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty of the want of reparation of the same, by means of which delay the aforesaid want of repair is often very much increased, to the great expense of the county and great inconvenience of the public; and whereas it is also expedient that the justices of the peace of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty at their general quarter sessions respectively, before any presentment shall have been made as aforesaid, as directed by the aforesaid Act of the want of repair of such roads, should be enabled without any such presentment to contract and agree with certain persons hereinafter mentioned for the repairing and amending of the same, and also for keeping the same in repair when so repaired and amended: Be it therefore enacted, &c., that from and after the first day of July, 1812, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the peace of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty at their general quarter sessions or great sessions respectively, to be holden in the week next after the clause of Easter, or the greater part of them then and there assembled, to appoint annually two or more justices of the peace acting in and for any division of justices in such county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty in or near which any such county bridge or any bridge which is in part a county bridge, ramparts, banks, cops or other works appertaining to the same or any part or parts thereof, or the roads over the same, or so much of the roads at the ends thereof as by law is to be repaired at the expense of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty shall be situate, to superintend the same, and whenever it shall appear on their own inspection to be necessary for the purpose of preventing the further decay and injury of the same, to order any immediate repairs or amendments to be done to the same or to any part thereof, but it shall and may be lawful for any two such justices so to be appointed as aforesaid, and any two such justices are hereby empowered by a written order signed by their hands respectively, to order such immediate repairs to be done by such person or persons as to them shall seem fit and proper: Provided that in no case the sum to be expended by them in such repairs shall exceed the sum of twenty pounds, and further that such appointment of such justices as aforesaid shall remain in force until one week after the following Easter sessions respectively, and that in case of the death of or removal of or refusal to act by any such justice or justices so appointed as aforesaid, the said court of general quarter sessions or great sessions may at any other of the four quarterly sessions appoint any other justice or justices to act for the remainder of the then current year in the place of any such justice or justices so dying, removing or refusing to act as aforesaid.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1395.

Sect. 1—5.

Expenditure.

Justices to remain in office for one year.

2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the peace of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty at the general quarter sessions or great sessions which shall next happen after such repairs so ordered to be made by such justices so appointed as aforesaid shall be completed, or the greater part of them then and there assembled, to order the payment of such sum or sums of money not exceeding ten pounds as shall be sufficient to pay for such repairs to be made out of the county rate to such person or persons who shall have so repaired the same by such order of such justices as aforesaid, although no presentment shall have been made by any grand jury at the assize, great sessions or general quarter sessions of the peace of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty in which such repairs shall have been done, of the want of such reparation as by the said Act of the twelfth year of his late Majesty King George the Second above recited was directed: Provided nevertheless, that before such payment be ordered to be made as aforesaid a certificate be returned to such justices of the peace so assembled at such last mentioned sessions, signed by two at the least of such justices so appointed as aforesaid, who shall have so ordered such repairs as aforesaid, stating the nature of such repairs and the defects, damage or injuries which they had so ordered to be repaired and their reasons for so ordering such immediate repairs as aforesaid: Provided also that such justices of the peace so assembled as last aforesaid be satisfied by the parties concerned that the charges made by them for such repairs are reasonable and just.

Quarter sessions to order payment for repairs.

Certificate signed by one justice.

5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid that from and after the first day of July, 1812, it shall and may be lawful for the justices of the peace of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty at their general quarter sessions respectively, or the greater part of them then and there assembled, if they shall think proper and convenient to contract and agree with the commissioner or commissioners, trustees or trustees of any turnpike road within the said county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty, or with their surveyor or clerk, or with both their surveyor and clerk, or with the surveyor or surveyors of the highway of any parish, place or tything within the said county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty respectively, or with any other person or persons for the maintaining and keeping in repair roads over any county bridges, and of so much of the roads at the ending thereof as by law is to be repaired at the expense of any such county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty or any part of the same, for any term not exceeding seven years nor less than one, although no presentment shall have been made as directed by the said recited Act of the twelfth year of his late Majesty King George the Second of the insufficiency, inconvenience, decay, or want of repair of the same, subject, however, to all the rules, restrictions, regulations, directions and conditions required by the above recited Act in case where the same shall have been presented or directed by that Act.

Justices may contract for repair of bridges.

12 Geo. II. c. 29 s. 13.

THE COUNTY BRIDGES ACT, 1814.

54 GEO. III. c. 90.

[14th July, 1814.]

Whereas doubts have been entertained whether the power contained in an Act passed in the forty-third year of the reign of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act for remedying certain defects in the laws relative to the building and repairing of County Bridges and other works maintained at the expense of the inhabitants of counties in England," for the purchasing of any

Section 1.

43 Geo. III. c. 59, extended to purchase of Secs. 1, 2. land or ground, do extend to the purchase of any building or buildings or other erections:" For remedy whereof, &c., be it enacted, &c., that all and every the powers and authorities in the said Act ⁽¹⁾ mentioned and contained for the purchase of any land or ground for the purposes of the said Act shall extend and be deemed and construed to extend to all such building or buildings or other erections as may be necessary to be purchased for the purposes of the said Act.

buildings, &c. as well as to purchase of land.
Extended to bridges, &c. repaired by hundreds or other divisions of counties.

2. And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said Act ⁽¹⁾ except as after mentioned should be extended to bridges repaired by the inhabitants of hundreds and other general divisions of counties: Be it further enacted, that the said Act ⁽¹⁾ and all the powers and provisions thereof (except such provisions therein as relate to bridges thereafter to be erected and built) shall extend as well to bridges and the roads at the ends thereof repaired by the inhabitants of hundreds and other general divisions in the nature of hundreds as to bridges and the roads at the ends thereof repaired by the inhabitants of counties.

THE COUNTY BRIDGES ACT, 1815.

55 GEO. III. c. 143.

An Act to amend the Acts relating to the building and repairing of County Bridges.

[6th July, 1815.]

Section 1.

[Recites 43 Geo. III. c. 59, ante, p. 1396; 13 Geo. III. c. 49, and 54 Geo. III. c. 90, ante, p. 1399, and proceeds] . . . And whereas it is expedient, that surveyors of county bridges and other persons, being under contract for the rebuilding or repairing such bridges, or bridges repaired by the inhabitants of hundreds and other general divisions of counties in the nature of hundreds, should have a more extended power for procuring materials than is at present vested in such surveyors of county bridges by the operation of the said first recited Act, so far as relates to the procuring of stone for such purposes from quarries; be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for every surveyor of such bridges in each and every county within that part of the United Kingdom called England, appointed or to be appointed by the justices at any general quarter sessions of the peace to be holden for such county, and also to and for the bridge master or all and every persons or person who may at the passing of this Act, or from and after the passing thereof, be under contract for the rebuilding or repairing of any public bridge, built or repaired at the expense of the inhabitants of any such county, hundred, or general division as aforesaid, and such surveyor and surveyors, and also such other person or persons, are hereby authorised and empowered, with the consent and by the order of two justices of the peace, acting for the county in which such bridge is intended to be rebuilt or repaired, first had and obtained for that purpose, to search for, work, dig, get, and carry away any stone, in, from, or out of any quarry or quarries whatsoever, within the county or counties to which such bridge may belong, other than and except such quarries as may be situated within a garden, yard, avenue to a house, lawn, park, paddock or enclosed plantation, or as may now or hereafter have ornamental timber trees growing thereon, without the licence or consent of the owner or owners of such quarry or quarries, as such surveyor or other person or persons shall judge necessary for the rebuilding or repairing of such bridges respectively, provided such quarry or quarries shall have been worked within the last three years preceding the time when such bridge shall be about to be rebuilt or repaired; the said surveyor or other person or persons making such satisfaction and recompense for the value of such stone, and also for the damage to be done to such quarry or quarries by the getting and carrying away the same, as shall be agreed upon between him or them, and the owner, occupier or other person interested in such quarry or quarries respectively; and in case they cannot agree, or such owner or occupier or other person interested shall refuse to treat, then and in every such case the justices of the peace at their general or quarter sessions, or any two or more of them appointed for that purpose, fourteen days notice having been given to the owner or his agent of the intention to require a jury, shall cause the value of such stones and amount of such damage to be inquired into and ascertained by a jury of indifferent men of the county, riding, division, city, town, liberty, or precinct wherein the same shall be situated; and to that end shall summon and call before such jury and examine upon oath (which oath any two or more of such justices of the peace is and are hereby empowered to administer) any person or persons Surveyors of county bridges, and other persons employed under contracts, empowered to take stones for the repair of county bridges. Consent and order of two justices of the peace necessary.

Quarries situated in gardens and pleasure grounds not to be used without consent of the owners.

Satisfaction to be made for stone, and damage done. In case of refusal to treat, justices at general or quarter sessions shall cause the value of the stones, and amount of the damage done, to be ascertained by a jury.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1396.

Secs. 1—4.

Witnesses called before the jury may be examined upon oath.

Justices of the peace may require sheriffs or bailiffs to return juries.

Jury.

Penalty on jury refusing to appear or to be sworn, and on persons summoned to attend refusing to give evidence.

Expenses of the jury, how to be defrayed.

Persons aggrieved may appeal to justices assembled in general quarter sessions.

Appellant to enter into recognizance.

Justices to determine the matter of appeal in a summary way.

whomsoever; and such justices of the peace, or any two of them, shall, by ordering a view or otherwise, use all ways and means for the information of themselves, and of such jury in the premises; and when such jury shall have inquired of and ascertained the value of such stones and amount of such damage, the said justices of the peace shall thereupon order that the sum or sums which shall so appear to be the value of such stones and amount of such damage shall be paid; which verdict or inquisition and order shall be filed of record by the clerk of the peace, or other officer having the custody of the records of the said county, riding, division, city, town, liberty, or precinct, and shall be final and conclusive to all intents and purposes whatsoever, against all parties and persons whomsoever claiming or to claim in possession, remainder, reversion, or otherwise, their heirs and successors, as well absent as present, infants, lunatics, idiots, and persons under coverture, or any other disability whatsoever, corporations, guardians, committees, husbands, trustees, and attorneys, or any other person or persons whomsoever.

2. And, for the summoning and returning such juries, be it further enacted, that such justices of the peace, or any two of them, may issue their warrant or warrants to the sheriff or bailiff of any particular county, riding, division, city, town, liberty, or precinct, within the limits of which the quarry or quarries shall be situated, requiring him to impanel, summon, and return an indifferent jury of twenty-four persons, qualified to serve on juries, to appear before the said justices, or any two of them, at such time and place as in such warrant or warrants shall be appointed; and such sheriff or bailiff is and are hereby required to impanel, summon, and return such number of persons accordingly; and out of the persons so impanelled, summoned, and returned, or out of such of them as shall appear upon such summons, the justices of the peace, or any two of them, shall, and they are hereby required to draw by ballot, and to swear or cause to be sworn, twelve men, who shall be the jury for the purposes aforesaid; and in default of a sufficient number of jurymen so returned, the said sheriff or bailiff shall take such other honest and indifferent men of the bystanders, or that can speedily be procured to attend that service, to make up the number of twelve; and all persons concerned shall have their lawful challenges against any of the said jurymen when they come to be sworn; and the said justices of the peace, or any two of them, shall have power from time to time to impose a fine or fines on such sheriff or bailiff, or his deputy or deputies, making default in the premises, and on any of the persons who shall be summoned and returned on such jury, and who shall not appear, or appearing shall refuse to be sworn on the said jury, or being sworn shall refuse to give or shall not give a verdict, or shall in any other manner wilfully neglect his or their duty therein, and also on any person who, being summoned and required to give evidence before the said jury, shall refuse or neglect to appear, or appearing shall refuse to be sworn or to give evidence, so that no such fine be more than ten pounds, nor less than twenty shillings, on any one person for one offence.

3. And be it further enacted, that in case any jury shall give in and deliver a verdict for more money as the value of such stones and amount of such damage than what shall have been offered for the purchase thereof by such surveyor or other person or persons as aforesaid, the costs and expenses of summoning and maintaining the jury and witnesses shall be borne and paid out of the rates to be collected within such county respectively; but if such jury shall give in and deliver a verdict for no more or for less money than the money which shall have been so offered by such surveyor or other person or persons as aforesaid, then the costs and expenses of summoning and maintaining the said jury and witnesses shall be borne and paid by the person or persons with whom such controversy or dispute touching the value of such stones and amount of such damage shall arise, and shall be levied by the warrant of one of the said justices, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person or persons made liable to the payment thereof.

4. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that if any person or persons shall or may think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any thing done or to be done in pursuance of this Act, such person or persons may, within the space of three calendar months next after the cause of complaint shall have arisen, appeal to the justices of the peace at any general quarter sessions of the peace to be holden for the limit wherein the cause of complaint shall arise, every such appellant first giving or causing to be given fourteen days' notice at least in writing of his or her intention to bring such appeal, and of the cause or matter thereof, to the person or persons against whom such complaint shall be made, and within three days next after such notice entering into a recognizance before some justice of the peace acting for the county wherein the cause of complaint shall arise, with two sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and to abide by the order of and pay such costs as shall be awarded by the justices at such session aforesaid; and the said justices at such session, upon due proof of such notice being given as aforesaid, and of the entering into such recognizance, shall hear and finally determine the cause and matter of every such appeal in a summary way, and make such award to the party appealing or appealed against as the said justices shall think proper; and the Secs. 4, 5. determination of such justices so assembled shall be binding and conclusive to all intents and purposes.

Enabling justices to contract for the repair of county bridges,
&c.

12 Geo. II. c. 29.

5. And whereas it is expedient that the powers contained in an Act passed in the ⁽¹⁾ forty-third year of his present Majesty, intituled "An Act for remedying certain Defects in the Laws relative to the building and repairing of County Bridges, and other Works maintained at the expense of the inhabitants of counties in England," for authorizing the justices of the peace of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate, or liberty, at their General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to contract for maintaining and keeping in repair roads over county bridges, and so much of the roads at the ending thereof as by law is to be repaired at the expense of counties, although no presentment shall have been made of the want of repair, as directed by an Act passed in the twelfth year of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for the more easy assessing, collecting, and levying of County Rates," should be extended to the bridges as well as to the roads at the end thereof: be it further enacted, that from and after the day of passing this Act it shall and may be lawful to and for the justices of the peace of any county, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty, at their general quarter sessions respectively to contract and agree, or to authorize any other person or persons to contract and agree, with any person or persons for the maintaining and keeping in repair any county or hundred bridge, and the road over such county or hundred bridge, and so much of the road at the ends thereof as are by law liable to be repaired at the expense of any such county, hundred, city, riding, division, town corporate or liberty, or any part of the same; and the said justices are hereby empowered to order such sum or sums of money as may be contracted for and agreed to be paid for the repairing, amending, and supporting such bridges, and the roads over the same, or the ends thereof, to be paid (in cases where the county is liable to the repair thereof) by the treasurer of the county out of the county rate, or (in cases where the hundred is liable to the repair of the same) by the bridge master (or other public officer charged with the repair of bridges) of the hundred by which such bridge is liable to be repaired, for any term not exceeding seven years, nor less than one, although no presentment of the insufficiency, decay, or want of repair of the same shall have been made, and although no public notice shall have been given by the said justices, at their respective general or quarter session, of their intention to contract for the repair of such bridges, or the roads at the ends thereof, as respectively directed by the said Act of the twelfth year of his late Majesty King George the Second: Provided nevertheless, that before any such contract shall be made, the said justices shall cause notices to be given in some public paper circulated in such county, city, riding, hundred, division, town corporate or liberty of their intention to contract.

THE COUNTY BRIDGES ACT, 1841.

4 & 5 VICT. c. 49 ⁽²⁾.

An Act to provide for Repairing, Improving, and Re-building County Bridges. [21st June, 1841.]

Section 1. Whereas the expense of maintaining, altering, widening, repairing, improving, and rebuilding county bridges, and approaches thereto, is in some instances considerable, and it is expedient that the money required for that purpose should, in certain cases, be borrowed on security of the county rate: be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that when it shall appear to the justices assembled at any general or quarter sessions of the peace to be holden at any time after the passing of this Act in any county, riding, or division in England or Wales, that the amount of any estimate approved by the said justices for the upholding, maintaining, supporting, altering, widening, repairing, improving, or re-building of any county bridge or bridges, or the approaches thereto, or the land arches connected therewith, which any county is legally bound to repair or maintain, shall exceed one-fourth of the amount of the ordinary annual assessment for the rate of any county, riding, or division (such ordinary assessment to be taken on an average of such rate for the last seven years preceding), it shall be lawful for the justices in quarter sessions assembled from time to time to borrow and take up on mortgage of such rate, by instrument in the form contained in the schedule to this Act annexed marked (A.), or to the like effect, any sum of money not exceeding the amount of such estimate, in sums not less than

Justices at sessions may borrow money for repairing county bridges on the credit of the county rate.

⁽¹⁾ Sic. But the reference really is to 52 Geo. III. c. 110. s. 5, ante, p. 1399.

⁽²⁾ Repealed so far as relates to the county of Middlesex by 8 & 9 Vict. c. 32, s. 1.

fifty pounds each, at interest, as to the said justices shall appear necessary and expedient for the purposes aforesaid, and to secure every such sum of money so borrowed upon the credit of the said rate ; and it shall and may be lawful for the justices so assembled, and they are hereby authorised to treat and agree with any person for the loan of any such sums of money, and by their order to confirm every such agreement ; and every such agreement, signed by the chairman and two or more other justices present at the time of making such order, shall be and the same is hereby declared to be effectual for securing every sum of money so advanced, with interest thereon, to the person or persons advancing the same, on such terms as in and by such agreement shall be stipulated ; and copies or extracts of all such agreements shall be kept by the clerk of the peace ; and it shall and may be lawful for every person who shall be entitled to the money thereby secured, and such person is hereby empowered, by endorsing his name on the back of such security, to transfer the same, and his right to the principal money and interest thereby secured, unto any other person ; and every such assignee may in like manner transfer the same again, and so toties quoties ; and the person to whom such security, or any such assignment thereof, shall be made, and his executors, administrators, and assigns shall be creditors upon the said rate in an equal degree one with another, and shall not have any preference with respect to the priority of any moneys so advanced.

Secs. 1—4.

Justices may agree with persons for loans.

Copies of agreements to be kept by the clerk of the peace.

2. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said justices, and they are hereby authorised and required to charge the rate to be raised upon such county, riding, or division, not only with the interest of the money so borrowed, but also with the payment of such further sum as shall insure the payment of the whole of the sum borrowed within fourteen years from the time of borrowing the same ; and such sums shall be assessed on the county, riding, or division in such manner as county rates are directed to be assessed under the laws in force for that purpose, and shall be paid and applied, under the direction of the justices, in discharge of the interest and of so many of the principal sums on the said securities as such money will extend to discharge in each year, until the whole of the money for which such securities shall be made, and the interest thereof, shall be fully paid and discharged ; and the justices shall and they are hereby required to fix one or more day or days in each year on which such payment shall be made, and shall make orders for assessments in due time, so as to provide for the regular payment thereof ; and such justices shall also and they are hereby required to appoint a proper person to keep an exact and regular account of all the receipts and payments under the authority of this Act, in a book or books, separate and apart from all other accounts, and the same to adjust and settle in such manner that it may easily be seen what interest is growing due, and what principal money has been discharged, and what remains due, and the books or book so adjusted and settled to deliver into court at any general or quarter sessions to be held for such county, riding, or division ; and the justices shall also and they are hereby required at every such session carefully to inspect all such accounts, and to make orders for carrying the purposes of this Act into execution, in such manner as to them shall seem meet ; and the justices so assembled in sessions as aforesaid shall direct in what order such securities shall be discharged, by drawing lots or otherwise as they shall think fit, taking care to discharge, in the first place, all such securities as shall bear the highest rate of interest.

Justices may charge the county rate with interest on the money borrowed and such further sum as shall insure the repayment thereof in fourteen years.

Books to be kept of receipts and payments.

3. Provided always, and be it enacted, that the justices shall not make any order for the borrowing money upon mortgage of the rate for any of the purposes aforesaid, unless a notice in writing of the intention to make the application, signed by two at least of the justices usually acting in and for the division within which the bridge in question is situated, shall have been given to the clerk of the peace four weeks previous to the holding of the sessions at which such application is intended to be made, and shall also have been published in the newspaper or newspapers in which notice of holding the quarter sessions is usually published, together with such last-mentioned notice.

Notice to be given of borrowing money on mortgage of the county rate

4. And be it enacted, that an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable Justices of the Peace in England, in certain cases, to borrow Money on mortgage of the rate of the County, Riding, or Place for which such Justices shall be then acting," and the several clauses, powers, and provisions in the said recited Act contained relating to the paying off of any debt or debts, and the borrowing of any money for such purpose, shall and may be applied in the paying off any money borrowed under the provisions or for the purposes of this Act, as fully and effectually as if such clauses, powers, and provisions were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Powers of 6 Geo. IV. c. 40, applied to this Act.

Schedule.

SCHEDULE.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

(A.)

FORM of MORTGAGE and CHARGE upon the COUNTY RATE for securing MONEY borrowed.

We, A.B., one of Her Majesty's justices of the peace and chairman of the court of quarter sessions of the peace holden at _____ on the _____ day of _____ for the county, &c., of _____
(as the case may be), C.D. and E.F., esquires, two other of Her Majesty's justices of the peace acting for the said county, &c., and assembled in the said court, in pursuance of the powers to us given by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled, &c. (insert the title of this Act), do hereby in open court mortgage and charge all the rates to be raised within the said county, &c. (as the case may be), under the description of county rates, by the laws now in being, with the payment of the sum of _____ which G.H. of _____ hath proposed and agreed to lend, and hath now actually advanced and paid, towards defraying the expenses of upholding, maintaining, supporting, altering, widening, repairing, improving, or rebuilding (as the case may be) a certain county bridge at _____ or certain county bridges at _____ and _____ (as the case may be) in the said county, and the approaches thereto (as the case may be) in the said county, &c., and we do hereby assign the same unto the said G.H., his executors, administrators, and assigns, for securing the payment of the sum of _____ and interest for the same after the rate of _____ per centum per annum, and do order the treasurer for the said county, &c., or other person (as the case may be), to pay the interest of the said sum of _____ half-yearly as the same shall become due, until the principal shall be discharged, pursuant to the directions of the said Act.

COUNTY BRIDGES LOANS EXTENSION ACT, 1880.

43 & 44 VICT. c. 5.

An Act to make Provision for Borrowing in respect of certain County Bridges. [19th July, 1880.]

Secs. 2, 3.

Extension of power to borrow under 4 & 5 Vict. c. 49. 41 & 42 Vict. c. 77.

2. Where, under section twenty-two of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878 ⁽¹⁾, the county authority, as defined by that Act, see fit to make a contribution towards the cost of a bridge erected as therein mentioned, they may borrow on mortgage of the county rate all or any part of the amount of such contribution in the same manner in every respect as if the amount to be borrowed had been the amount of an estimate made and approved in the manner mentioned in the Act of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine ⁽²⁾, hereinafter termed the principal Act; and all the powers, directions, and provisions of the principal Act shall extend and apply to the moneys borrowed under this Act; provided that the sum required for or towards any such contribution as aforesaid may be borrowed in exercise of the power hereby conferred, although the same shall not exceed one-fourth of the amount of the ordinary annual assessment in the principal Act referred to.

Interpretation.

3. This Act and the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878, shall be construed as one Act.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 885.

⁽²⁾ Ante, p. 1402.

STATUTES RELATING TO HIGHWAYS AND BRIDGES IN SOUTH WALES.

SOUTH WALES HIGHWAY ACT, 1860.

23 & 24 VICT. c. 68 (1).

An Act for the better Management and Control of the Highways in South Wales.

[6th August, 1860.]

Whereas an Act was passed in the session holden in the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixteen, for the better management and control of the highways in South Wales: And whereas in pursuance of the said Act the six counties of South Wales have been divided by the county roads boards of their respective counties into districts for the better repair and maintenance of the highways: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be repealed and other provisions be made in lieu thereof: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Secs. 1—3.

14 & 15 Vict.
c. 16.

1. The said Act shall be and is hereby repealed: Provided that nothing in this Act, except as hereinafter provided, shall in any way affect or alter the aforesaid highway districts, or the appointments of any officers, but such districts shall remain for the purposes of this Act, and such officers shall respectively hold office on the like tenure as if appointed under this Act.

Recited Act repealed, but repeal not to affect districts or appointments.

2. Provided also, that it shall be lawful for the said county roads boards of the several counties of South Wales respectively, from time to time if they shall see occasion to alter the limits of any such district in their respective county, either by consolidating the whole or any part of it with any other district, or by dividing it into one or more districts; and the order by which such alteration is made shall within one month after the making thereof be published, together with a description or statement of the boundaries of such districts, or of the parishes comprised therein respectively, by advertisement in one or more of the newspapers circulating in the county in which the order is made, and notice thereof shall be given to the clerks of such districts as are affected thereby.

Districts may be altered from time to time.

3. Every county roads board acting in and for each of the said counties respectively shall by writing, upon which no stamp or other duty shall be payable, appoint one surveyor for each district declared as aforesaid, to overlook the management and repairs of the several highway districts in their county, and shall also determine the salaries to be paid to such surveyors respectively; and the board may from time to time remove the said surveyors, and so often as the said offices or any of them shall become vacant shall appoint other fit and proper persons for the same; and the salaries of such surveyors shall be paid out of the highway rate, and shall be, by an order made by the county roads board, apportioned amongst and charged upon the parishes within each respective district, in the same manner and in the same proportions as the Power to county roads board to appoint and dismiss surveyors.

(1) This Act is repealed—

So far as relates to the district of Llanelly, in the county of Carmarthen, by 28 & 29 Vict. c. 108, s. 2.

So far as relates to the district of Briton Ferry, in the county of Glamorgan, by 29 & 30 Vict. c. 79, s. 1.

So far as relates to the Llanwonno portion of the district of Mountain Ash, in the county of Glamorgan, by 30 & 31 Vict. c. 21, s. 4.

Secs. 3—7. county rate shall be chargeable at the time the order is made : Provided nevertheless, that such district surveyor shall not expend moneys levied in any one of the parishes within his district, except for the use and benefit of the parish in which it is so levied, unless with the consent of the inhabitants of such parish in vestry assembled, for the purpose of carrying on repairs or beneficial improvements for the common benefit of the parishes aforesaid, and shall keep separate and distinct accounts for each parish within his district, and such accounts shall specify the different sums and the persons to whom and by whom the same shall have been paid.

Transfer of property and powers vested in existing surveyors of highways to highway boards.

4. All land and property vested, or which, if this Act had not been passed, would have been vested, in any surveyor of highways of any parish elected or appointed under the Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty, and all the powers of letting or otherwise disposing of any such land or property vested in, or which, if this Act had not been passed, would have been vested in or exercisable by such surveyor, and all rents, or other income of land or property which such surveyor is, or, if this Act had not been passed, would have been entitled to receive, shall, upon and after the cesser under this Act of the powers of such surveyor, be vested in and exercisable and received by the highway board of the district in which such parish is comprised ; and all tools, materials, implements, matters, and things purchased or provided, or thereafter to be purchased or provided, for the use or repair of the highways of any parish or district, and the scrapings of such highways, and all books, papers, writings, and accounts relating to such highways, shall be vested in the highway board of the district in which the same are situate, and all lands, chattels, and property whatsoever hereby transferred to any highway board shall be vested in such board for the benefit of the parish to which the same belongs, or to the repairs of the highways of which the same, or the rents, income, and proceeds thereof, would have been applicable, and credit shall be given to such parish for such rent, income, and proceeds accordingly, and in the case of any such chattels, belonging to or provided for any parish which may be made available for the common use or benefit of the several parishes within the district of such highway board, such highway board shall give such parish credit for what they may consider the value thereof, as for so much money received in respect of such parish.

Duties of district surveyor.

5. The surveyor of highways of each district shall, subject to the control of the highway board for such district, maintain and keep in repair the highways which the several parishes in such district may be liable to repair, and for that purpose shall on behalf of the highway board make all necessary contracts for highway materials and for cartage and other works for the repair of the highways, and shall superintend the execution of all such works, and shall make all such payments as by the highway board may be ordered to be made by him, and keep true and particular accounts of all moneys received by him, and of the application thereof, and shall keep separate and detailed accounts of the expenditure in or on account of each parish, and shall at every ordinary meeting of the highway board produce his accounts for examination and allowance by the board, and report to such board such circumstances in relation to the state of the highways in the district and the other matters aforesaid as may require the order or direction of the board, and as to the progress or completion of all works which may have been ordered by the board, and shall submit to the board an estimate of the expense of any proposed work, and shall twice at the least in every year, or oftener if the board direct, report in writing the state and condition of all highways in the district.

Powers and responsibilities of surveyor.

6. The surveyor of highways of each district shall, except for the purpose of making, assessing, and levying rates, and producing and verifying his accounts at special sessions, and except as herein otherwise provided, have all duties, powers, and responsibilities, as regards the parishes in such district, of a surveyor elected under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty; and all Acts and provisions not hereby repealed, applicable to such last-mentioned surveyor, shall, save as herein otherwise provided, apply in like manner to a surveyor of highways of a district appointed under this Act, and all penalties and forfeitures or parts thereof payable to such surveyor shall be paid by him to the treasurer of the highway board, to the credit of the parish in respect whereof the same are recovered : Provided, nevertheless, that such surveyor shall in the exercise of such duties and powers act under the directions and control of the highway board, and shall be indemnified by such board out of the moneys coming to the hands of their treasurer in respect of all expenses and liabilities properly incurred by him.

Highways to be continued under the care and management of existing local boards.

7. The maintenance and repairs of the several highways situate and being within the several districts which have been or shall be hereafter formed shall, subject to the authority of the said county roads board, be under the care and management of local boards, to be styled highway boards, and which are and shall hereafter be constituted in manner following; that is to say, all persons who are now elected or who shall hereafter be elected guardians of the poor for the parish or parishes contained in such district during the period they are such guardians, and all

Her Majesty's justices residing within or acting at any petty sessions within or holden for the district, shall constitute the highway board for such district, and such justices shall not by reason of being members of such highway board be incapable of acting as justices of the peace in the execution of this Act, or in any matters relating to the highways under the care and management of the said board; and every such board shall be a body corporate, by the style of the highway board for the district of (inserting the name of the highway district), and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and sue and be sued, and have power and authority (without licence in mortmain) to hold lands for the purposes of the highways.

Secs. 7—15.

8. The highway board for every district shall in every year hold not less than four ordinary meetings, and the meetings of such board after their first meeting shall be holden at such convenient place or places, and at such times, as they shall at their first meeting and from time to time thereafter appoint; and one of such meetings shall be appointed for the purpose of auditing the annual accounts of the board as hereinafter provided; and any such board may also hold special meetings, every such special meeting to be called by the clerk to such board, by the direction of the chairman or vice-chairman, or upon the requisition of any three members of such board; provided that no business, matter, or question shall be done, discussed, or entertained at any such special meeting other than the special business or matter for which it shall have been called, and which shall be specified in the notice convening such meeting.

Highway boards to hold four ordinary meetings every year.

Special meetings may be holden.

9. Any meeting of the highway board may be adjourned from time to time to any day and hour and to the same or any other place; and if there be not three members of the board present within one hour after the time appointed for holding any meeting then it shall be lawful for the members or member present, or, if no member be present, for the clerk to such board, to adjourn such meeting in manner aforesaid.

Adjournment of meetings.

10. Notice in writing of every special meeting of any highway board, and of every meeting of any such board holden by adjournment (whether by adjournment from an ordinary or a special meeting), shall be given by the clerk to such board to every member thereof, and every such notice shall be given or sent by the post or otherwise by the clerk to every such member, or left at his place of abode, seven days, or, in the case of a meeting holden by adjournment, three days at least before the day appointed for the meeting to which it relates.

Notice of special meetings and of meetings by adjournment.

11. The highway board for each district shall elect two members of such board to be the chairman and vice-chairman thereof for the space of one year, and such election shall take place at their first meeting, or at some adjournment thereof, in every year; and the chairman and vice-chairman of each highway board at the commencement of this Act shall continue in office until their successors shall be appointed at the first meeting of the board as aforesaid; and the chairman, or, in case of his absence at the commencement of any meeting, the vice-chairman, shall preside at all meetings of such board, and shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a member; and in case at the commencement of any meeting both chairman and vice-chairman be absent, then such other member as may be chosen by the major part of the members present shall preside as chairman of such meeting; and whenever the chairman or vice-chairman shall die or become disqualified, refuse, or become incapable to act, such board shall at their ordinary meeting to be holden next after such death, disqualification, refusal, or incapacity, elect some other member of such board in his stead.

Chairman and vice-chairman to be elected.

12. All acts, orders, matters, and things by this Act authorised to be made or done by any highway board may be made or done by the major part of the members of any such board present at any meeting to be holden by virtue of this Act, the whole number present together at such meeting not being less than three; and all orders made by such board shall be in writing, and signed by the chairman presiding at the meeting at which the same are made, and countersigned by the clerk, and sealed with the seal of the board.

Authentication of orders.

13. No defect in the qualification or election of any person acting as a member of a highway board at any meeting thereof, the majority of the persons assembled at which shall be entitled to act as members of such board, shall be deemed to vitiate or make void any proceedings of such board in which he may have taken part.

Defect of election, &c., of members not to vitiate proceedings.

14. Any highway board shall have power by writing, upon which no stamp or other duty shall be payable, to appoint a fit and competent person to be clerk to such board, and shall also determine the amount of salary to be paid to the clerk; and the clerk, in person or by such deputy as shall be elected by such board, shall attend all meetings of such board, and shall conduct the correspondence thereof, and enter and keep, in books to be provided for the purpose, notes, minutes, or copies, as the case may require, of the meetings, acts, orders, resolutions, proceedings, and correspondence of such board, and shall keep all books, papers, and documents committed to his charge, and shall perform all such other duties as the board may direct.

Power to highway boards to appoint clerks.

15. Any highway board shall, at their next general annual meeting after the passing of this Act, by writing, upon which no stamp or other duty shall be payable, appoint a fit and compe-

Appointment of treasurer.

Secs. 15-21. tent person to be treasurer of such board, and the said board shall have power to fix, and from time to time to alter as they see fit, the salary, if any, to be paid to such treasurer; and the highway board shall, before the aforesaid treasurer shall enter upon his office, take sufficient security for the due performance by him of the duties of the office; and the treasurer of each highway board shall receive and hold to the account of such board all moneys paid to or for the use of such board, and shall make payments thereout under orders of such board, and shall once in every three months, or on such days as the board may direct, or oftener if required by the board, make up an account of all moneys received and paid by him, and deliver the same to the clerk of the board; and he shall keep separate and distinct accounts for each parish within his district, and such accounts shall specify the different sums, and the persons to whom and by whom the same shall have been paid.

Salaries of clerk and treasurer, how to be paid.

16. The salaries to be paid to the clerk and treasurer of each district shall, by an order to be made by the highway board of such district, be paid out of the moneys levied for the repair and maintenance of the highways, and shall be apportioned and charged upon the parishes within each respective district in the same manner and in the same proportion as the county rate shall be chargeable at the time such order is made.

Power to dismiss clerk, &c.

17. The highway board may at any time dismiss any clerk or treasurer so appointed, and as often as the said offices shall become vacant by such dismissal, or by death, resignation, or otherwise, the said highway board shall at their next regular meeting, or as soon after as conveniently may be, appoint some other fit and proper person to fill the same.

Two offices not to be held by the same person.

18. The offices of treasurer, clerk, and surveyor of any highway board, or any two of such offices, shall not be held by the same person, or by persons in partnership with each other, or by persons in the relation of employer and clerk, agent, or servant, one of the other, or of the partner of either of them; and if any person shall accept or hold either the office of treasurer, clerk, or surveyor contrary to this provision he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred pounds to any person who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, with full costs of suit, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Highway boards to have the management of the highways.

19. The highway board for each district shall, subject to the provisions and exceptions in this Act, have the management of the several highways lying within their district, and of the repairing and maintaining of the same, and shall direct the execution of any works which may from time to time be necessary for such purposes; but it shall not be lawful for any person, being a member of any highway board, to hold any place, office, or appointment of emolument, or to be a contractor directly or indirectly, or to be concerned or engaged in any contract for making or repairing, or in any way relating to the road or roads in the district for which such person shall act.

Highway board may contract to repair highways within districts of local boards, &c.

20. The highway board of any district may contract with all or any of the following bodies; (that is to say,) any local board of health constituted under "The Public Health Act, 1848," any local board constituted under "The Local Government Act, 1858," any commissioners or other body acting under any local Act of Parliament, the county roads board, the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the district is situate, and the council of any borough, for the repair and maintenance by such highway board of all or any of the highways or turnpike roads under the care of such local board of health, local board, county roads board, commissioners, or other body (as the case may be), or of the highways over and at the ends of bridges which are maintainable at the expense of the county or of any borough, or any other highways which are maintainable at the expense of the borough; and such highway board may contract as aforesaid upon such terms as to the payments to be from time to time made to such board in respect of their undertaking such repairs and maintenance, and as to the duration and determination of the contract, as may be agreed upon between the parties; and any such local board of health, local board, commissioners, county roads board, or other body, court of quarter sessions, and council may contract as aforesaid with such highway board; and while any contract made under this provision is in force the highway board and their surveyor shall, in respect of the repairs and maintenance of the highways and roads to which such contract relates, have and perform the same powers and duties and be subject to the same responsibilities as with regard to highways within the district of such board, and the other contracting party shall be divested of all powers, duties, and responsibilities in respect of such repairs and maintenance, and all money payable under such a contract shall be paid out of the moneys which would have been applicable to defray the expenses of the repair and maintenance of such highways or turnpike roads if such contract had not been made.

Expenses of highway board, how to be defrayed.

21. Every highway board, for defraying the repairs, expenses, and apportioned part of expenses chargeable as aforesaid on each parish within their district, shall from time to time, by order under their seal, require the overseers of such parish to levy, and to pay over to the treasurer of such board, or into any bank in such order mentioned, and within the time or times thereby limited, the sum which, after giving due credit to such parish for all penalties and other moneys received in respect thereof, such board may require for the purpose aforesaid (and any such order may be made wholly or in part in respect of expenses incurred at any time within six months before the making of the order, or of expenses to be thereafter incurred); and where any parish within the meaning of this Act is part only of any parish for which overseers are appointed, the highway board shall specify in their order the part of such last-mentioned parish on which any sum required by such board is to be levied.

Secs. 21-27.

22. The overseers of the poor of the parishes to whom such orders as aforesaid are issued shall levy the amounts mentioned therein according to the exigency thereof, and shall for that purpose make separate equal pound rates upon their parishes, or the parts thereof respectively upon which the sums specified in such orders are required to be levied, in respect of the sums thereby ordered to be levied, and shall make such rates of such amount in the pound on the annual value of the property rateable as will in their judgment, having regard to all circumstances, be sufficient to raise the sums specified in such orders; and such rates shall be levied on the persons and in respect of the property by law rateable to the relief of the poor in the respective parishes, and shall be assessed upon the net annual value of such property, ascertained by the rate for the time being for the relief of the poor, provided that the rate shall also extend to such woods, mines, and quarries of stone, or other hereditaments, as were before the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth usually rated to the highways; and the said overseers shall, for the purpose of levying such rates, proceed in the same manner, and have the same powers, remedies, and privileges, as for levying money for the relief of the poor, and all such rates shall be allowed in the same manner, and be subject to all the same provisions in relation to appeal and to excusing persons from payment on account of poverty, and otherwise, as the rate for the relief of the poor in the same parish; and such overseers shall pay to the treasurer of the highway board, or otherwise as in such orders directed, the sums mentioned in the orders within the time or respective times specified for that purpose, and the excess, if any, which may have been levied beyond such sums shall be placed to the credit of the parish or part in which the same has been levied; and the said overseers shall, at the time of making any such payment, deliver with the money a note in writing signed by them specifying the amount so paid, which note shall be kept as a voucher for the receipt of that particular amount; and the receipt of the treasurer of the board, or of any proper officer or person of or belonging to any bank into which such money is so paid, specifying the amount paid to him by the overseers, shall be a sufficient discharge to the overseers for such amount.

Overseers to levy rates for raising the money required by highway board.

23. In every parish in which a paid collector of poor rates shall have been or may hereafter be duly and legally appointed, every such collector shall, if the highway board so direct and authorise him, collect the highway rate for every such parish, and the highway board shall determine the salary or additional salary to be paid to every such collector, and every such collector shall have all the same powers, remedies, and privileges for the levying and enforcing the payment of such rates as the overseers of the poor have under this Act; and it shall be lawful for every highway board, and they are hereby required, to take security from every collector authorised to collect the highway rate under this Act, which security shall be to the full amount of the sum likely to be in the hands of the said collector at any one time.

Power to highway board to direct paid collectors of poor rate to collect highway rate.

24. Provided always, that the rate or rates to be levied for defraying any expenses under this Act shall not exceed in any one year the amount in the pound of the rateable value of the property rateable thereto under this Act now by law limited in respect of the highway rate.

Restriction in amount of rates.

25. In case the amount ordered by any such order as aforesaid to be paid by the overseers of any parish be not paid in manner directed by such order and within the time or times therein specified for that purpose, it shall be lawful for any two justices of the peace, upon the complaint by the board or by any person authorised by them for this purpose, to issue their warrant for levying the amount, or so much thereof as may be in arrear, by distress and sale of the goods of all or any of the said overseers, and in case the goods of all the overseers be not sufficient to pay the same the arrears thereof shall be added to the amount of the next levy which shall be directed to be made in such parish for the purposes of this Act, and shall be collected by the like methods.

Overseers on non-payment of the rate shall be distrained upon.

26. Any highway board may, in case of any default or neglect of any overseers to pay the amount required by any such order as aforesaid, within the time or times and in the manner directed by such order, appoint persons to levy any money required by such board for the purposes of this Act in any parish, and such persons shall proceed in the same manner, and have the same powers, remedies, and privileges, and be subject to the same regulations and penalties with reference to the levying of such money, as any overseers would have had or been subject to with reference to levying any such money in pursuance of an order of the highway board.

Special persons may be appointed to levy rates on default of overseers.

27. The accounts of every highway board shall be made up and balanced on the twenty-fifth day of March in every year, and shall be audited by such board, and signed by the chairman;

Accounts to be made up to 25th March, and Secs. 27–33. and such board shall cause a statement to be printed and published in one or more newspapers circulated in their county within thirty days after the said twenty-fifth day of March, showing the receipt and expenditure in respect of each parish, and the apportioned part of expenditure chargeable thereto in respect of the district fund, and such other particulars, and in such form, as the Secretary of State may direct, as hereinafter mentioned.

statement to be published.

Statement to be sent to Secretary of State.
Penalty for neglect.

28. The clerk to every highway board shall, within such thirty days, transmit such statement to one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State; and any such clerk who shall not within the time aforesaid transmit the said statement to the said Secretary of State shall for every such offence, upon a summary conviction for the same before two justices of the peace, be liable to a penalty of ten pounds.

Abstract of statements to be laid before Parliament.

29. The Secretary of State shall cause the statements so transmitted to be abstracted, and the abstracts thereof to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, with the other statements in relation to highways required to be abstracted and laid before Parliament by the Act of the session holden in the twelfth and thirteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-five.

Secretary of State may cause form of statement to be prepared, and alter forms prescribed by 12 & 13 Vict. c. 35.

30. It shall be lawful for one of Her Majesty's principal Secretaries of State to cause to be prepared such forms for such statement as he may from time to time deem suitable, and also from time to time to alter the forms for the annual statement prescribed by the said Act of the twelfth and thirteenth years of Her Majesty, but no statement shall be transmitted under that Act concerning parishes wholly within a highway district under this Act.

Councils of boroughs having commissions of the peace may by resolution assume the powers of highway boards.

31. The council of every borough having a separate commission of the peace may, by a resolution of such council at a meeting held for the purpose, in any year after the expiration of the time limited by law for the election of surveyors of highways for that year, or forty days at the least before the commencement of the time limited for such election, assume the powers of a highway board under this Act; but no such resolution shall be valid unless a month's previous notice of the meeting and of the purpose thereof has been given in the manner in which notices of meetings of the council are by law required to be given, and two-thirds of the members present at the meeting concur in such resolution; and the chairman of any such meeting may, with the consent of a majority of the members present, adjourn the same from day to day; and notice of such resolution shall be certified under the seal of the corporation of such borough to the clerk of the peace of the county, or (if such borough be situate in more than one county) of each county in which the borough is wholly or in part situate.

Where resolution passed, council to have powers of highway board.

32. Any such council which may have assumed the powers of a highway board, by resolution passed and certified as aforesaid, shall, with respect to parishes and parts of parishes within such borough, have and be subject to the powers and obligations vested in or imposed on a highway board constituted under this Act with respect to parishes forming the district of such board, save that such powers shall not extend to authorise the appointment of a separate clerk or treasurer for the purposes of this Act; and the provisions of this Act applicable in the case of highway districts formed thereunder, to the highway board thereof, and their clerk, treasurer, and surveyor, shall, in the case of such borough, be respectively applicable to the council and to the town clerk and treasurer thereof, and to the surveyor of highways to be appointed by such council, as if such borough were a highway district constituted under this Act, and such council were the highway board thereof; and all Acts to be done by such council by virtue of the powers conferred by this Act shall be done in like manner as if done by virtue of the said Act "for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales;" and any such council may, if they think fit, appoint a committee for the purposes of this Act, in like manner as for any of the purposes of such last-mentioned Act, the Acts of such committee to be submitted as therein provided to the council, for their approval; provided nevertheless that the expenses incurred in the execution of this Act by the council of any borough or any committee of such council shall be defrayed in manner provided with respect to expenses of highway boards: provided always, that the powers of the council of a borough under this enactment shall not extend, nor shall its district as a highway board be deemed to include any parish or district under any board mentioned in the first section of this Act.

5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 76.

No parochial surveyor to be appointed after the passing of this Act.

33. From and after the passing of this Act no parochial surveyor shall be elected or appointed in South Wales under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty, for any parish comprised in such district: [Provided always, that any surveyor whose powers are so to cease as aforesaid shall recover any highway rate made by him before the cesser of his powers, and remaining unpaid, in the same manner as if his power in other respects had not ceased, and the money so recovered shall be paid by him to the treasurer of the highway board of the district in which such parish is comprised under this Act; and in case such surveyor die or become incapable to act before all arrears of any such rate are recovered, the same may be recovered by the overseers of the poor, who shall have the like power for that purpose as such surveyor would have had, and shall pay the same to such treasurer as aforesaid (1). Secs. 33-38.

34. [Accounts of existing surveyors to be passed according to present law, and money and effects to be paid and delivered to their successors appointed under this Act (1)].

35. No toll shall be demanded by virtue of any Act of Parliament on any turnpike road in any highway district constituted under this Act from the surveyor of the highway board of such district when executing or proceeding to execute his duties as such surveyor, and all provisions applicable to the exemptions in the Act of the third year of King George the Fourth, chapter one hundred and twenty-six, shall apply to and in the case of the exemptions conferred by this enactment.

Surveyor of highway board exempted from turnpike tolls.

36. Where any highway which any body politic or corporate or person is liable to repair by reason of tenure of any land, or otherwise howsoever, is out of repair, the highway board of the district in which such highway is situate may, if they see fit, direct their surveyor to repair the same, and the expenses to be incurred in such repair shall be paid by the party liable to repair as aforesaid; and it shall be lawful for any justice, upon the application of any person authorised in this behalf by the highway board, to summon the party liable to pay such expenses to appear before two justices at a time and place to be named in such summons, and upon the appearance of the parties, or in the absence of either of them, it shall be lawful for such justices to hear and determine the matter, and make such order, as well as to costs or otherwise, as to them may seem just.

Power to highway board to order their surveyor to repair certain roads, and charge the parties liable for the same.

37. Where any person or corporation is liable, by reason of tenure of lands or otherwise, to repair any highway situate in a highway district, the person or corporation so liable, or the surveyor of highways of the district, may apply to any justice of the peace for the purpose of making such highway a highway to be repaired and maintained by the parish in which the same is situate; and such justice shall thereupon issue his summons requiring such surveyor or the party so liable to repair such highway as aforesaid, to appear before two or more justices in petty sessions assembled, and the justices at such petty sessions shall proceed to examine and determine the matter, and shall, if they think fit, make an order under their hands that such highway shall thereafter be a highway to be thereafter repaired and maintained by the parish, and shall in such order fix the proportion of the expenses of repairing and maintaining such highway to be annually paid by such person or corporation to the treasurer of the highway board of the district in which such highway is situate, and such order shall be binding upon all persons and parties whatsoever: Provided nevertheless, that such justices, instead of fixing the proportion of the expenses of repairing such highway to be annually paid as aforesaid, may, by an order under their hands, fix a certain sum to be paid by such person or corporation to the treasurer of such board, in full discharge of all claims thereafter in respect of the repair and maintenance of such highway; and in default of payment of such last mentioned sum, or of such annual sum as aforesaid, the clerk of such board may proceed for the recovery thereof in the same manner as any penalties or forfeitures are recoverable under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty: Provided always, that when the sum so fixed to be paid in full discharge of all claims thereafter in respect of the repair and maintenance of such highway exceeds one hundred pounds, the same, when received, shall be invested in the name of the highway board of the district in some public government securities, and the interest and dividends arising therefrom shall be applied by such board towards the repair and maintenance of the highways within the parish in which such highway is situate; but when such sum does not exceed one hundred pounds, the same, or any part thereof, at the discretion of such highway board, shall from time to time be applied by such board towards the repair and maintenance of the highways within such parish; and from and after the making of such order such highway shall be repaired in like manner and at the like expense as other highways which such parish is liable to repair.

Power to justices to order certain highways to be made highways to be repaired, &c., by the parishes.

38. When any highway board consider any highway within their district unnecessary for public use, they may direct their surveyor to apply to two justices to view the same, and shall authorise him to pay all expenses attending such view (which expenses and other the expenses of the surveyor consequent upon such application shall be expenses chargeable under this Act on the parish in which the highway in question is situate), and thereupon the like proceedings shall be had as in the case where application is made under the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty, to procure the stopping up of any highway, save only that the order to be made thereupon, instead of directing the highway to be stopped up, shall direct that the same shall cease to be a highway which the parish is liable to repair, and the Provisions for discontinuance of maintenance of unnecessary highways.

(1) The portion of s. 32 between brackets, and the whole of s. 34, are repealed by the Statute Law Revision Act, 1875.

Secs. 38-40. liability of the parish shall cease accordingly; and for the purpose of such proceedings under this enactment, such variation shall be made in any notice, certificate, or other matter preliminary to the making of such order as the nature of the case may require: Provided always, that if at any time thereafter, upon application of any person interested in the maintenance of such highway, after one month's previous notice in writing thereof to the clerk of the highway board for the district in which such highway is situated, it appear to any court of general or quarter sessions of the peace that from any change of circumstances since the time of the making of any such order as aforesaid under which the liability of the parish to repair such highway has ceased, the same has become of public use, and ought to be kept in repair by the parish, they may direct that the liability of the parish to repair the same shall revive from and after such day as they may name in their order, and such liability shall revive accordingly, as if the first-mentioned order had not been made; and the said court may by their order direct the expenses of and incident to such application to be paid as they may see fit.

Regulations as to the adoption of new roads to be maintained as public roads under this Act.

39. And with respect to the adoption of new roads to be maintained as public roads under this Act, be it enacted, that no road or occupation way made or hereafter to be made by or at the expense of any individual or private person, body politic or corporate, shall be deemed or taken to be a public road, to be repaired and maintained according to the provisions of this Act, unless the person, body politic or corporate, proposing to dedicate such road to the use of the public, shall give three calendar months previous notice in writing to the district surveyor of the district of his intention to dedicate such road to the use of the public, describing its situation and extent; and the said district surveyor, upon receiving such notice, shall view the same, and shall report to the highways board of the district whether such road is well and properly laid out and made, and whether the same is of sufficient public utility to justify its being kept in repair and maintained as one of the highways of such district; and if the said board shall be satisfied, upon such report or otherwise, that the said road ought to be so kept in repair and maintained, they shall certify in writing accordingly; and such certificate, signed by the chairman of the highway board for the time being, shall be transmitted by him to the county roads board of such county; and thereupon, after the said road shall have been used by the public, and duly repaired and kept in repair by the said person, body politic or corporate, for the space of twelve calendar months, the same shall thenceforth become one of the highways of such county, and shall thereafter be repaired and maintained according to the provisions of this Act.

Proceedings in case highways are not kept in repair.

40. From and after the passing of this Act, if any highway is out of repair, or is not well and sufficiently repaired and amended, an (sic, and ?) information thereof on the oath of one credible witness is given to any justice of the peace, it shall and may be lawful for such justice and he is hereby authorised and required to issue a summons requiring the surveyor of the district in which such highway is situated, or other person or body politic or corporate chargeable with such repairs, to appear before the justices at some petty sessions in the said summons mentioned to be held within the division in which the said highway may be situate, and the said justices shall either appoint some competent person to view the same, and report thereon to the justices in petty sessions assembled on a certain day and place then and there to be fixed, at which the said district surveyor or other party as aforesaid shall be directed to attend, or the said justices shall fix a day whereon they or any two of them shall attend to view the said highway; and if to the justices at such petty sessions, on the day and at the place so fixed as aforesaid, it shall appear, either on the report of the person so appointed by them to view, or on the view of the said justices, that the said highway is not in a state of thorough and effectual repair, they the said justices at such last-mentioned petty sessions shall make an order requiring the said district surveyor to repair the said highway within a time limited therein, and shall make an order requiring the overseers of the poor, or other party or body politic or corporate liable to the repair of the said highway, to pay to the treasurer, at such time or times as they shall direct, either in one sum or by instalments, a sum of money to be therein stated, which shall be equal in amount to the sum which the said justices shall on the evidence produced before them judge requisite for the repairing such highway; and in default of such money being paid within the time so limited, it shall be lawful for any two justices of the peace to issue their warrant for levying the amount of money, or so much thereof as may not be paid within the time limited, by distress and sale of the goods of the said overseers of the poor, and such money, when recovered, shall be applied to the repair of such highway; and in case more parties than one are bound to repair any such highway, the said justices shall direct in their order what proportion shall be paid by each of the said parties: Provided nevertheless, that the said justices shall not have power to make such orders as aforesaid in any case where the duty or obligation of repairing the said highway comes in question ⁽¹⁾.

Power to justices to order highways to be repaired at the expense of the parties liable.

If money not paid the same to be levied by distress.

⁽¹⁾ In such case the justices may direct an indictment under 5 & 6 Will. 4, c. 50, s. 95, ante, p. 818. R. v. James, 3 B. & S. 901, 32 L. J. M. C. 211, 9 Jur. N. S. 1126.

41. All roads hereafter ceasing to be turnpike roads shall on their so ceasing be repaired and maintained by the surveyor or board, or other body liable to maintain the same, to the same width as they are or were required to be while turnpike roads; and all roads heretofore turnpike roads, which have already ceased to be so, shall be repaired and maintained by such surveyor, board or other body, to the present width of such roads, and after the passing of this Act, as regards any road which has ceased or which may cease to be a turnpike road, the erection or making of any building, hedge, ditch, or other fence, or the doing of any other act which would have been deemed an encroachment on any such road if the same had continued to be a turnpike road, shall be deemed an encroachment on a highway, within section sixty-nine of the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, although the same may be beyond the distance from the centre of the carriageway mentioned in the said section.

Secs. 41-45.

width of roads to be maintained when they cease to be turnpike roads.

42. It shall not be requisite for the justices of the peace to hold Special Sessions for executing the purposes of the said Act of the fifth and sixth of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty; but all acts and matters which might have been done at such special sessions under the said Act or this Act, or under any other Act of Parliament, may be done by two or more justices at any petty sessions.

Acts required to be done at special sessions for highways may be done at petty sessions.

43. Except as herein otherwise provided, all the provisions of the said Act of the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, chapter fifty, shall remain in force and be applicable as well to the highways to be managed under this Act as to the highways which may continue to be managed under that Act, and the said Act and this Act shall be construed together as one Act.

Provisions of 5 & 6 Will. IV. c. 50, to remain in force, except as otherwise provided.

44. This Act shall extend only to South Wales, and in the construction of this Act, "South Wales" shall include and comprise the six counties following, and no others, viz., the counties of Glamorgan, Brecknock, Radnor, Carmarthen, Pembroke, and Cardigan.

Act to extend only to South Wales.

45. In the construction of this Act, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, the word "parish" shall mean any parish, place, or district maintaining its own highways, or which, if this Act and the said Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, had not been passed, would have maintained its own highways, and where part only of any such parish, place, or district is comprised in a highway district constituted under this Act shall mean such part; the word "borough" shall mean a borough according to the meaning of the Act of the session holden in the fifth and sixth years of King William the Fourth, "for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales," or any corporate place which since the passing of that Act has become subject to the provisions thereof; and the word "county" shall mean any county, riding, division, or liberty having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace.

Interpretation of terms

SOUTH WALES HIGHWAY ACT AMENDMENT ACT, 1878.

41 & 42 VICT. C. 34.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Highways in South Wales.

[22nd July, 1878.]

Whereas it is expedient to amend an Act passed in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the better management and control of the highways in South Wales," which Act is in this Act called "the South Wales Highway Act" (1):

Secs. 1, 2.

Be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act shall be cited as the South Wales Highway Act Amendment Act, 1878, and, so far as is consistent with the tenor thereof, shall be construed as one with the South Wales Highway Act.

Act to be one with 23 & 24 Vict. c. 68.

2. The highway board for each district may make such improvements as are herein mentioned in the highways within their jurisdiction, and may, with the approval of the county roads board of the county in which they are situate, borrow money for the purpose of defraying the expenses of such improvements.

Highway boards may make improvements and borrow money for the purpose.

(1) Ante, p. 1405.

Secs. 3—9.

3. Previously to applying for the approval of the said county roads board, the highway board shall cause an estimate of the expense of the improvements to be made, and one month at the least before making their application shall give notice of their intention to do so.

Such notice shall state the following particulars:

- 1st. The nature of the work, the estimated amount of expense thereof, and the sum proposed to be borrowed:
- 2nd. The parish or parishes within the highway district by which the sum borrowed and interest thereon is to be paid, and in case of more than one being made liable to pay the principal and interest, the annual amounts to be contributed by each parish towards the payment thereof:
- 3rd. The number of years within which the principal moneys borrowed are to be paid off, not exceeding twenty years, and the amount to be set apart in each year in paying off the same:
- 4th. The date of the meeting of the county roads board at which the application for such approval as aforesaid is to be made.

4. Such notice shall be given as follows:

1. By transmitting a copy to the clerk of such county roads board:
2. By placing a copy of such notice for two successive Sundays on the door of every church and chapel of the parish or parishes on behalf of which such works are to be done, or in the case of a parish not having a church or chapel, on some conspicuous position in such parish.

Upon the hearing of the application, any person or persons may oppose the approval of the county roads board being given, and it shall be lawful for the county roads board to give or withhold their approval, with or without modification, as they think just.

5. All moneys borrowed in pursuance of this Act, together with the interest thereon, shall be a first charge on the highway rates of each parish liable to contribute to the payment thereof, in the same manner, as far as the creditor is concerned, as if the money had been borrowed on account of each parish alone, and the sums necessary to repay the said borrowed moneys, with interest, shall in each said parish be recoverable in the same manner as if they were expenses incurred by the board in keeping in repair the highways of that parish.

But it shall be the duty of the highway board in case of any one parish paying more than its share of such borrowed money, or of the interest thereof, to make good to the parish the excess so paid out of the rates of the other parishes liable to contribute thereto.

6. The county roads board may from time to time make general orders relative to the mode in which applications are to be made to them for their consent under this Act to the borrowing of any moneys.

7. The limitation as to the amount in the pound of the rateable value of the property to be levied in any one year imposed by section twenty-four of the South Wales Highway Act shall not apply to the amount of principal and interest of money borrowed under this Act and liable to be repaid in any year.

8. The following works shall be deemed to be improvements of highways:

- 1st. The conversion of any road that has not been stoned into a stoned road:
- 2nd. The widening of any road, the cutting the corners off on any road, the levelling roads, the making of a new road, the building or enlarging of bridges, and the purchase of land for any of the purposes aforesaid:
- 3rd. The doing any other work in respect of highways beyond ordinary repairs essential to placing any existing highway in a proper state of repair.

9. It shall be lawful for any county roads board at any one of their regular meetings to make an order declaring that any highway within the county for which they act, being a main thoroughfare through any one or more highway districts to any town or towns or to any railway station or stations, shall be a district road, and from and after a day to be named in the order the cost of maintaining such district road shall be a common charge upon the highway district or districts within which such road is locally situate, and shall be borne by the several parishes within such district or districts in manner following; (that is to say,)

- (1.) Where the district road is wholly situate in one highway district, the cost of repairing the same shall be paid out of the moneys levied for the repair and maintenance of the highways, and shall be apportioned amongst and charged upon the several parishes within the district in the same manner as the salaries of the clerk and treasurer of the district; and
- (2.) Where the district road is situate in more than one highway district, the cost of repairing the part within any such district shall in like manner be paid and be apportioned amongst and charged upon the several parishes constituting the district within which such part is situate.

Estimate of expense to be made, and notice to be given

How notice to be given.

Moneys borrowed under Act to be a first charge on highway rates of parishes liable to contribute.

County roads board may make orders as to application for consent.

Limitation as to amount to be levied not to apply to money borrowed under this Act.

What works are to be deemed improvements of highways.

County roads board may order roads to be repaired out of highway rate.

Provided always, that such county roads board shall, previous to making an order that any highway shall be repaired as aforesaid, give notice of their intention to proceed to make an order to that effect at a meeting of the board to be named in such notice, and shall advertise such notice in one or more of the newspapers circulating in the county, and shall cause copies of such notice to be affixed to the door of each parish church in the said highway district or districts, and shall cause to be served a copy of such notice on the clerk of such highway district or districts in which such highway or highways are situate, at least one month before the day of the meeting so named in such notice, and shall at such meeting, previous to coming to any determination, hear any person or persons who shall desire to make any objections to the proposed order being made, and shall, after such objections, if any, have been heard, proceed to make, modify, or reject such proposed order as to them shall seem just and reasonable.

10. The clauses of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to mortgages to be created by the commissioners, shall form part of and be incorporated with this Act, and any mortgagee or assignee may enforce payment of his principal and interest by appointment of a receiver.

Incorporation of certain clauses of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16.

In the construction of the said clauses "the commissioners" shall mean "the highway board."

Mortgages and transfers of mortgages shall be valid if made in the forms prescribed by the last mentioned Act, or as near thereto as circumstances admit.

11. A highway board, for the purpose of improving the highways within their district, may purchase such lands or easements relating to lands as they may require; and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and any Act amending the same, except the clauses in the said Acts respectively relating to the purchase of lands otherwise than by agreement, shall be incorporated with this Act; and for the purposes of those Acts this Act shall be deemed the special Act, and any such highway board as aforesaid exercising the powers of this Act shall be deemed the promoters of the undertaking.

Highway boards may purchase lands by agreement. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18.

12. "Parish" in this Act means every parish or place for which a separate rate is made for the maintenance of the highways.

Definition of "parish."

SOUTH WALES BRIDGES ACT, 1881.

44 VICT. c. 14.

An Act to enable County Authorities in South Wales to take over and contribute towards certain Bridges, and to remove doubts as to the liability to repair the Highways over and adjoining certain Bridges which have been rebuilt.

[3rd June, 1881.]

Whereas Part I. of the Highways and Locomotives (Amendment) Act, 1878 (¹), does not, except as to the twenty-seventh section thereof, apply to any county to which the Act passed in a session of Parliament holden in the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the better management and control of the highways in South Wales," extends (²):

Secs. 1—3.

And whereas it is expedient that powers similar to those contained in sections twenty-one and twenty-two of the first-mentioned Act, and also in section two of the County Bridges Loans Extension Act, 1880, for taking over and contributing towards certain bridges, and for borrowing money for the latter purpose, should be conferred upon the county authorities in South Wales:

41 & 42 Vict. c. 77.
23 & 24 Vict. c. 68.

Be it therefore enacted, &c.

1. This Act may be cited as the South Wales Bridges Act, 1881, and shall extend only to the several counties in South Wales; that is to say, the counties of Glamorgan, Brecknock, Radnor, Carmarthen, Pembroke, and Cardigan.

43 & 44 Vict. c. 5.

2. Any bridge erected before the passing of this Act in any county without such superintendence as is provided in section five of the statute of the forty-third year of King George the Third, chapter fifty-nine (³), and which is certified by the county surveyor or other person appointed in that behalf by the county authority to be in good repair and condition, shall, if the county authority see fit so to order, become and be deemed to be a bridge which the inhabitants of the county shall be liable to maintain and repair.

Certain existing bridges may be accepted by county authority. 43 Geo. III. c. 59.

3. The county authority may make such contribution as it sees fit out of the county rates towards the cost of any bridge to be hereafter erected, after the same has been certified, in

Contribution out of county rates towards

(¹) Ante, p. 879.

(²) Ante, p. 1405.

(³) Ante, p. 1396.

Secs. 3—6. accordance with the provisions of section five of the statute of the forty-third year of King George the Third, chapter fifty-nine ⁽¹⁾, as a proper bridge to be maintained by the inhabitants of the county; so always that such contribution shall not exceed one half of the cost of erecting such bridge.

erecting bridges.

Extension of power to borrow under 4 & 5
Vict. c. 49.

4 & 5 Vict. c. 49.

Repair of roads over and adjoining bridges rebuilt.

Interpretation.

4. Where the county authority see fit to make a contribution towards the cost of a bridge erected as in this Act mentioned, they may borrow on mortgage of the county rate all or any part of the amount of such contribution, in the same manner in every respect as if the amount to be borrowed had been the amount of an estimate made and approved in the manner mentioned in the Act passed in a session of Parliament holden in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty ⁽²⁾, intituled "An Act to provide for repairing, improving, and rebuilding county bridges," and all the powers, directions, and provisions of that Act shall extend and apply to the moneys borrowed under this Act; provided that the sum required for or towards any such contribution as aforesaid may be borrowed in exercise of the power hereby conferred, although the same shall not exceed one fourth of the amount of the ordinary annual assessment referred to in the said Act of the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty.

5. Where a bridge has been or shall be built by the county authority, or, with their consent, in substitution for another bridge which the county authority were liable to repair, the liability to repair the highway leading to, passing over, and next adjoining the bridge so substituted shall attach to the county authority, highway authority, person or persons who were liable to repair the highway leading to, passing over, and next adjoining the bridge previously existing, whether the substituted bridge is built on the same site or not.

6. In this Act—

"County" means any county, division, or liberty having a separate court of quarter sessions of the peace;

"County authority" means the justices of a county in general or quarter sessions assembled;

"Highway authority" includes a county roads board, highway board, and any other body of persons liable to repair the highways.

⁽¹⁾ Ante, p. 1396.

